EIGHTEENTHEDITION

LEIPSIC : KARL BAEDEKER, PUBLISHER.
'Go, little book, God send thee good passage, And specially let this be thy prayere Unto them all that thee will read or hear, Where thou art wrong, after their help to call, Thee to correct in any part or all.'
'The object of the Handbook for Switzerland is to supply the traveller with all needful information, to point out the most interesting places and the best way of reaching them, to render him comparatively independent of the services of guides and others, and thus to enable him thoroughly to enjoy his tour in this magnificent country.

With improved facilities for travel, the number of visitors to Switzerland has greatly increased of late years, and mountaineering ambition has been proportionally stimulated. Summits once deemed well-nigh inaccessible are now scaled annually by travellers from all parts of the world. The achievements of the modern Alpine clubs have dimmed the memory of De Saussure, Auldjo, and the other pioneers of these icy regions, and even ladies now frequently vie with the stronger sex in their deeds of daring.

The Handbook is based on the Editor's personal acquaintance with the places described, most of which he has carefully and repeatedly explored. This edition, which corresponds with the twenty-eighth German edition, has been thoroughly revised, and furnished with the latest information obtainable. Its contents are divided into Seven Sectrons (I. North Switzerland; II. Lake of Lucerne and Environs, and St. Gotthard; III. Bernese Oberland; IV. SouthWestern Switzerland, Lake of Geneva, Lower Rhone Valley; V. Chamonix, the Valais, and the adjacent Italian Alps; VI. South-Eastern Switzerland, Grisons; VII. Lakes of North Italy), each of which may be separately removed from the book by the mountaineer or pedestrian who desires to minimize the bulk of his luggage. To each section is prefixed a list of the routes it contains, so that each forms an approximately complete volume apart from the general table of contents or the general index.

The Editor will highly appreciate any corrections or suggestions with which travellers may favour him. The information already received from numerous correspondents, which he gratefully acknowledges, has in many instances proved most serviceable.

The Maps and Plans, on which special care has been bestowed, are based on Siehfmer Attos of Switzerland and on Dufour's Map (pp. xxv, xxvi), and revised with the aid of other recent authorities and from the Editor's own experiences. Seven of them appear for the first time in this issue.

Time Tables. The best Swiss publications are the 'Kursbücher' (time-tables) of Bürkli of Zürich (60 c.) and Stümpfli of Bern ( 60 c .), sold at most of the railway-stations.

Heights are given in the text in English feet, on the maps in mètres ( 1 Engl. ft. $=0.3048$ mètre; 1 mètre $=3.281$ Engl. ft., or about $3 \mathrm{ft} .31 / 3 \mathrm{in}$.). Comp. p. xxxiv. - Distances on highroads and railways are given in English miles; while those on bridle-paths and mountain-routes are expressed by the time which they usually take. The number of miles at the beginning of a paragraph denotes the distance from the starting-point, while the distances from place to place are generally stated within brackets; but on railway-routes the mileage is always reckoned from the starting-point.

Hotels. Besides the first-class hotels, the Handbook mentions a number of the more modest inns also. The usual charges are stated in accordance with the Editor's own experience, or from the bills furnished to him by travellers. Hotel-charges, like carriage-fares and fees to guides, generally have an upward tendency, but an approximate statement of these items will enable the traveller to form an estimate of his probable expenditure. The value of the asterisks, which are used as marks of commendation, is relative only, signifying that the houses are good of their class. The Editor has distributed these asterisks as fully and impartially as his knowledge warrants, but there are doubtless many equally deserving houses among those not starred or even mentioned.

To hotel-keepers, tradesmen, and others the Editor begs to intimate that a character for fair dealing towards travellers forms the sole passport to his commendation, and that advertisements of every kind are strictly excluded from his Handbooks. Hotel-keepers are also warned against persons representing themselves as agents for Baedeker's Handbooks.

I. Plan of Tour.

Season of the Year. Distribution of Time.
The traveller will save both time and money by planning his tour carefully before leaving home. The Handbook will help him to select the most interesting routes and the pleasantest restingplaces, and point ont how each day may be disposed of to the best advantage, provided the weather be favourable.

Season. The great majority of tourists visit Switzerland between the middle of July and the end of September; but to those who wish to see the scenery, the vegetation, and particularly the Alpine flowers in perfection, June is recommended as the most charming month in the year. For expeditions among the higher Alps the month of August is the best season; but above a height of 6500 ft . snow-storms may occur at any time except in thoroughly settled weather. In ordinary seasons the snow disappears from the Rigi and the more frequented routes through the Bernese Oberland at the beginning of June. On the other hand snow sometimes lies throughout the whole season on the Furka, the Grimsel, the Gemmi, etc. The most loftily situated hotels are generally closed till the end of June.

Distribution of Time. One Month, as the annexed plan shows, suffices for a glimpse at the most interesting parts of Switzerland. Bâle, where the scenery is least interesting, is a good startingpoint, but the traveller may find it more convenient to begin with Geneva or Neuchâtel.
By railway from Bale to Neuhausen; visit the Falls of the Rhine; by railway viâ Eglisau to Zürich (RR. 1, 8, 9, 12).

Principal Alpine Passes.

Pre-eminent in point of scenery is the St. Gotthard (RR. 32, 33), rendered easily accessible by the railway across it; but it need hardly be said that its attractions are not seen to advantage from the windows of a train. Next to it ranks the Splïgen (R. 96), particularly on the N. side, where it coincides with the Bernardino Route (R. 97). The finest approach to the Engadine is by the Schyn Road (R. 98) and the Albula Pass (R. 99); and the beautiful Maloja Pass (RR. 100, 10') leads thence to the Lake of Como. From the Engadine the interesting Bernina Pass (R. 103) crosses to the somewhat monotonous Valtellina, the journey through which has, however, been much facilitated by the railway from Sondrio to Colico (p. 409). In Western Switzerland the Simplon (R. 79) is justly a favourite pass, though inferior to several of the above, while the famous Great St. Bernard (R. 77), apart from its hospice, is undoubtedly the least interesting of the series.

Headquarters for Mountaineering.

The most important are Grindeloald (p. 185), Zermatt (p. 344), Chamonix (p. 283), Courmayeur (p. 300), Macugnaga (p. 356), and Pontresina ( p .417 ), at all of which experienced guides abound.

Health Resorts.

Switzerland can boast of few mineral springs, but 'Luftkurorte' ('air-cure places') and summer pensions abound in every part of the country. A few of the most important only need be mentioned here.

Mineral Baths. Tarasp, in the Lower Engadine (p. 431); St. Morilz, in the Upper Engadine (p. 414); Ragatz (p. 68); Stachelberg (p. 74); Weissenburg (p. 213); Lenk (p. 210); Leuk or Loëche (p. 204); the saline haths of Bex and Aigle (pp. 259, 258) ; St. Gervais (p. 280).

Winter Resorts for invalids: Davos (p. 376); Montreux (p. 254).
Summer Resorts, see p. xviii.

Alpine Glow (Alpengluihen) is the name given to the rich glow seen on the snowy peaks and rocky summits of the Alps a few minutes after the setting sun has disappeared from view, while the valleys are already in twilight.

II. Travelling Expenses. Money.

Expenses. The cost of a tour in Switzerland depends of course apon the habits and tastes of the traveller. The pedestrian's daily expenditure, exclusive of guides, may be estimated at 12-15 fr., or even less, if he selects the more modest inns. The traveller, on the other hand, who prefers driving and riding to walking, who always goes to the best hotels, and never makes an ascent without a guide, must be prepared to spend at least twice the above sum; while the mountaineer's expenses will often amount to several pounds for a single glacier-expedition (comp. p. 289).

Money. The Swiss monetary system was assimilated to that of France in 1851. In gold there are coins of 20 fr ., in silver of $5,2,1$, and $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$., in plated copper 20,10 , and 5 centimes (or 'Rappen'), and in copper 2 and 1 c . pieces. The only silver coins with legal currency are the $S$ wiss pieces of 2,1 , and $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. issued since 1873 , the French pieces of the same value issued since 1864-66, the Belgian coins of the same denomination with the portrait of Leopold II., and the Greek ones with the portrait of George I. All others should be refused, as they cannot be exchanged without serious loss. A few banks issue legal tender notes of $50,100,500$, and 1000 fr . One franc $=100 \mathrm{c} .=($ in German money $) 80$ pfennigs $=93 / 4 \mathrm{~d}$. Twenty-franc-pieces are the most convenient money, and English sovereigns ( 25 fr.) and banknotes are received almost everywhere at the full value; but the circular notes, issued by many of the English and American banks, are safer for carrying large sums. German gold and banknotes also realize their full value ( 20 marks $=$ $24 \mathrm{fr} .60-70 \mathrm{c}$. ). - For Savoy (Chamonix) gold pieces or French banknotes are requisite. - In Italy the paper currency is much depreciated, and, as this is not always taken into account at hotels and railway-stations, it is advisable to provide oneself at a moneychanger's with a supply of notes.

III. Hotels and Pensions.

Hotels. Switzerland is famous for its hotels. The large modern establishments at Geneva, Vevey, Zürich, Lucerne, Interlaken, etc., are models of organisation; the smaller hotels are often equally well conducted, and indeed a really bad inn is rarely met with in French or German Switzerland.

The ordinary charges at the first-class hotels are: bedroom, light, and attendance $31 / 2-5$ fr.; breakfast (tea or coffee, bread, butter, and honey) $11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. in the public room, 2 fr. in the traveller's apartment; luncheon ('déjeûner', 'Gabelfrühstück'), $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; table-d'hôte dinner ('dîner') 4-5 fr.; supper generally à la carte. Absence from table-d'hôte is apt to be looked at askance. At the large hotels the best accommodation is generally reserved for families and parties, while the solitary traveller is consigned to the inferior rooms at equally high charges.

At the second-class inns the average charges are: bedroom $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{fr}$., breakfast $1-1 \frac{1}{4} \mathrm{fr}$., table-d'hôte $2-3 \mathrm{fr}$., service discretionary, and no charge for 'bougies'. In many of the more remote mountain-inns, however, the prices are higher owing to the difficulty and cost of the transport of supplies. The sensible traveller will easily make allowance for this; and he will generally find the entertainment remarkably good under the circumstances. Previous enquiry as to charges is quite customary.

Opinions regarding hotels often differ; but travellers will rarely have much cause to complain if they endeavour to comply with the customs of the country, restrict their luggage to a moderate quantity ( $\mathrm{p} . \mathrm{xxx}$ ), and learn enough of the language to make themselves intelligible.

If a prolonged stay is made at a hotel, the bill should be asked for every three or four days, in order that errors, whether accidental or designed, may more easily be detected. When an early departure is contemplated, the bill should be obtained over-night. It is not an uncommon practice to withhold the bill till the last moment, when the hurry and confusion of starting render overcharges less liable to discovery.

In the height of the season the hotels at the favourite resorts of travellers are often crowded. To prevent disappointment rooms should be telegraphed for ( p . xxix).

Most travellers err in giving too large Gratuities. When attendance is charged in the bill, nothing more need be given except to the boots and porter. In any case the amount of the fees shonld never exceed $5-10$ per cent of the bill. In some of the best hotels the servants are forbidden to accept gratuities. When practicable, the bill should be settled at the cashier's office, not through a waiter.

Many of the large hotels of Switzerland contain depots of the Societe des Bibliothèques des Grands Hôtels (S. B. G. H.), a company formed for the sale of books (English, French, German) and maps in places not possessing a regular bookseller.

Pensions. Boarding-houses or 'pensions' abound at Lucerne, Geneva, Interlaken, and in many other parts of Switzerland; and most of the hotels also make pension arrangements with guests who stay for 4-5 days and upwards. The charge for board and lodging varies from $4 \frac{1}{2}$ to 10 fr . or more, and at some of the most famous health-resorts and watering-places sometimes amounts to 20 fr . per day. As the word 'pension' is sometimes used to signify board only, the traveller should ascertain whether rooms are included in the charge or not. It is always advantageous, when possible, to make arrangements for 'pension' in advance by writing to the landlord on a 'reply post-card'.

IV. Passports. Castom House.

Passports. In Switzerland passports must be shown in order to obtain delivery of registered letters, and are sometimes of service in proving the traveller's identity. For walking tours in the French and Italian frontier districts a passport is indispensable. A passport is also necessary (even for minors) to obtain the 'permis de sejour' without which no foreigner is allowed to reside in a canton. The principal passport-agents in London are: Lee and Carter, 440 West Strand ; E. Stanford, 26 Cockspur St., Charing Cross; W. J. Adams, 59 Fleet Street (charge 2s.; agent's fee 1s. 6 d .).

Custom House. Luggage undergoes a slight examination at the Swiss frontier. The duty on cigars is $11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. per kilogramme ( $21 / 5 \mathrm{lbs}$.), but 50 or so are usually passed free. At the French, Italian, and Austrian frontiers the examination is sometimes strict, and tobacco and cigars pay a heavy duty, but at the German frontier the visite is usually lenient. As a rule the traveller should restrict his belongings as far as possible to wearing apparel and articles for personal use.

V. Walking and Cycling Tours.

In a mountainous country like Switzerland it is to pedestrians alone that many of the finest points are accessible, and even where driving or riding is practicable, walking is often more enjoyable.

Disposition of Time. The first golden rule for the walker is to start early. If strength permits, and a suitable halting-place is to be met with, a walk of one or two hours may be accomplished before breakfast. At noon a moderate luncheon is preferable to a tabled'hôte dinner. Rest should be taken during the hottest hours (12-3), and the journey then continued till 5 or 6 p.m. (comp. p. xviii), when a substantial meal (evening table-d'hôte at the principal hotels) inay be partaken of.

Equipment. A superabundance of luggage infallibly increases the delays, annoyances, and expenses of travel. To be provided with enough and no more, may be considered the second golden rule for the traveller. A light 'gibecière' or game-bag, which is far less irksome to carry than a knapsack, suffices to contain all that is necessary for a week's excursion. A change of flannel shirts and worsted stockings, a few pocket-handkerchiefs, a pair of slippers, and the 'objets de toilette' may, with a little practice, be carried with hardly a perceptible increase of fatigue. A pocket-knife with a corkscrew, a leathern drinking-cup, a spirit-flask, stout gloves, and a piece of green crape or coloured spectacles to protect the eyes from the glare of the snow, should not be forgotten. Useful, though less indispensable, are an opera-glass or small telescope, sewing materials, a supply of strong cord, sticking plaster, a small compass, a pocketlantern, a thermometer, and an aneroid barometer. Special attention should be paid to the boots, which must be strong, well-tried, and thoroughly comfortable, as the slightest tendency to rub or blister may seriously mar the enjoyment of the walk. For glacier-tours and mountain-ascents the soles must be supplied with nails, which, however, may be added on reaching the mountainous district. The traveller's reserve of clothing should be contained in a portmanteau of moderate size, which he can easily wield himself when necessary, and which may be forwarded from town to town by post.

The mountaineer should have a well-tried Alpenstock of seasoned ash, 5-6' long, shod with a steel point, and strong enough, when placed horizontally, with the ends supported, to bear the whole weight of the body. For the more difficult ascents an Ice-Axe and Rope are also necessary; the former may usually be borrowed at the hotel and the latter is generally furnished by the guide. The best ropes, light and strong, are made of silk or Manilla hemp. In crossing a glacier the precaution of using the rope should never be neglected. It should be securely tied round the waist of each member of the party, leaving a length of about $10^{\prime}$ between each pair. Iceaxes are made in various forms, and are usually furnished with a spike at the end of the handle, so that they can in some measure be used like an Alpenstock. - Requisites for Alpine travelling may be obtaiued in London from Adams \& Sons, 59 Fleet Street.

General Hints. The traveller's ambition often exceeds his powers of endurance, and if his strength be once overtaxed he will sometimes be incapacitated altogether for several days. At the outset, therefore, the walker's performances should be moderate; and even when he is in good training, they should rarely exceed 10 hrs . a day. When a mountain has to be breasted, the pedestrian should avoid 'spurts', and pursue the 'even tenor of his way' at a steady and moderate pace ('chi va piano va sano; chi va sano va lontano'). As another golden maxim for his guidance, the traveller should remember that - 'When fatigue begins, enjoyment ceases'.

To prevent the feet from blistering during a protracted walking tour, they may be rubbed morning and evening with brandy and tallow. A warm foot-bath with bran will be found soothing after a long day's march. Soaping the inside of the stocking is another wellknown safeguard against abrasion of the skin.

Mountaineering among the higher Alps should not be attempted before the middle or end of July, nor at any period after a long continuance of rain or snow. Glaciers should be traversed as early in the morning as possible, before the sun softens the crust of ice formed during the night over the crevasses. Experienced guides are indispensable for such excursions.

The traveller is cautioned against sleeping in chalets, unless absolutely necessary. Whatever poetry there may be theoretically in 'a fragrant bed of hay', the cold night-air piercing abundant apertures, the ringing of the cow-bells, the grunting of the pigs, and the undiscarded garments, hardly conduce to refreshing slumber. As a rule, therefore, the night previous to a mountain-expedition should be spent either at an inn or at one of the club-huts which the Swiss, German, and Italian Alpine Clubs have recently erected for the convenience of travellers.

Mountaineers should provide themselves with fresh meat, bread, and wine or spirits for long expeditions. The chalets usually afford nothing but Alpine fare (milk, cheese, and stale bread). Glacierwater should not be drunk except in small quantities, mixed with wine or cognac. Cold milk is also safer when qualified with spirits. One of the best beverages for quenching the thirst is cold tea.

Over all the movements of the pedestrian the weather holds despotic sway. The barometer and weather-wise natives should be consulted when an opportunity offers. The blowing down of the wind from the mountains into the valleys in the evening, the melting away of the clouds, the fall of fresh snow on the mountains, and the ascent of the cattle to the higher parts of their pasture are all signs of fine weather. On the other hand it is a bad sign if the distant mountains are dark blue in colour and very distinct in outline, if the wind blows up the mountains, and if the dust rises in eddies on the roads. West winds also usually bring rain.

Health. Tincture of arnica is a good remedy for bruises, and moreover has a bracing and invigorating effect if rubbed on the limbs after much fatigue; but it should never be applied to broken skin, as it is apt to produce erysipelas. Saturnine ointment or oxide of zinc ointment is beneficial in cases of inflammation of the skin, an inconvenience frequently cansed by exposure to the glare of the sun on the snow. Cold cream, and, for the lips especially, vaseline or glycerine, are also recommended.

For diarrhoea 15 drops of a mixture of equal parts of tincture of opium and aromatic tincture may be safely taken every two hours until relief is afforded. The homœopathic tincture of camphor ( 5 drops on a lump of sugar every half-hour or so) is also a good remedy. The homæopathic camphor-globules are convenient, but are more apt to lose their strength.

Cycling Tours. The cyclist goes to Switzerland for the scenery and for nothing else, and the distinctive part of Swiss scenery lies in its mountains; hence cycling in Switzerland means riding on mountain-roads. Switzerkand is, therefore, a country to ride through on one's way to somewhere else, rather than one in which to settle down and make short excursions from fixed centres. That can be done on the plain, or on the shores of the Lake of Geneva, or by the Lake of Lucerne, but the ambitious rider aspires to the mountains.

The machine taken should be adapted to mountain work. It should be well-tried and trusted rather than new. It should be fitted with strong brakes, rim brakes for preference, one oll earh wheel. The tyres should be new and of good material, and before the journey is undertaken the machine should be thoroughly overhauled by a competent repairer, so that the cyelist may have reasonable assurance that there is no hidden flaw in any part. The gear should be low (under 60 inches). There are few satisfactory repairers to be met with outside the larger towns, and the rider should consequently take with him the articles most likely to be required for a summary repair, and should, in addition, be sufficiently skilful to remedy the more common accidents to machines. If he is not, he would do well to ride in the company of some one who is.

No one who is not fairly strong and in good condition should attempt the Swiss passes. Long stretches of country have to be covered at a time, and there is usually a vast amount of walking and pushing one's machine to be gone through. Some of this may occasionally be avoided by hiring boys to do the pushing, but even then the amount of walking is apt to be fatiguing to any but a hardy pedestrian. At one time it was a simple matter for the tired cyclist to hoist his machine on to a passing diligence and himself take a seat in the vehicle, but postal diligences are no longer allowed to carry unpacked cycles. German and French cyclists sometimes hire a horse to walk up a steep road, and tie their machines one after the other to a long rope, the end of which is fastened to the animal's traces. They are thus enabled to sit their machines on the way up, but must of course be ready to put foot to earth every time the horse stops. English cyclists usually prefer to plod on foot; hence the necessity for good condition.

All-wool underclothing is essential on account of the frequent and sudden changes of temperature. Boots are preferable to low shoes, as the dust consists of hard particles which work their way through socks and penetrate between the toes, where they are apt to cause inflammation and render riding extremely painful. The same hard granitic dust is very trying to pneumatic tyres.

The question of drinks is an important one. Water from mountain rivulets should not be taken, as, though limpid and fresh, it springs from glaciers and if the rider is perspiring freely the result may be colic. Beer is not good to ride on as it induces lassitude. Milk is perhaps the safest drink, or wine diluted with water.

The journey should be carefully planned beforehand, especial study being given to the matter of gradients. There is a right way and a wrong way of riding most mountain-passes. For instance the Tête-Noire should be taken from Chamonix to Martigny, and the Simplon from Brig to Domodossola. The cyclist should begin at the steeper side, where the walk up is comparatively short, and ride down the gentler slope; he thus secures short walks and long 'coasts'. Going in the opposite direction, he would have long, tiring walks up, and would be obliged to walk down the other side as well, as it would be too steep for riding. Then, again, river valleys should as far as possible be taken in the direction of the stream. Good cycling maps, preferably those showing gradients, are therefore necessary to plan an intelligent tour.

The mountain-roads are as a rule open from June to September inclusively, though that of course depends on the melting of the snow and the time that must ensue to bring the roads into good dry condition. Information must be sought locally as to the state of the roads at any particular time, but it is usually safest, early and late in the season, to cross the Alps by the St. Gotthard route, as, in case the road is found to be impracticable, we can take the train. The best time for the passes is July and early August: in mid-August road-mending begins. Swiss roads vary in condition more than those of any other country, largely owing to the action of frost and snow; hence the diametrically opposite reports with regard to the condition of certain roads. On the whole it may be said that they have been well constructed and are indifferently maintained. There is no uniform law with regard to cycling throughout Switzerland. The matter is left in the hands of the cantonal authorities, and the result is sometimes bewildering to the cyclist who passes through several cantons. Certain rules are, however, generally adopted, such as that every machine must have a lamp and a bell. In the Canton of Geneva a continuously ringing bell, like a sheep bell, is prescribed. In the Canton of Valais a cyclist is compelled to dismount on meeting a restive horse, and, if called upon to do so by the horseman, to hide his machine. The old practice of tying a young tree behind one's machine to check the velocity of the cycle in its downward course has been forbidden in most mountain cantons, and with good reason, for it raised a cloud of dust that was a nuisance to other travellers, and the swishing, leaping tree often frightened horses. A rider should trust his brake and keep it on when descending. The machine should always be kept under perfect control, so that one may at any time be able to jump from it without discomfort. The roads are narrow and often border on precipices, while drivers of diligences usually take the inside, leaving the edge of the precipice to the cyclist.

The cost of living will, of course, vary with the requirements of different riders, but the cyclist of frugal habits may travel on 12 fres. or 10 s . per day. It is apt to prove expensive to sit down at a table in front of a large mountain hotel and call for a casual drink.

The customs duty on cycles is 70 francs per 100 kilogrammes. The amount must be deposited on entering the country, when the machine is marked with a leaden seal and a laissez-passer is handed to its owner, who is thereby authorised to keep his machine a certain time in the country. When he leaves Switzerland his deposit will be returned on his presenting his machine for identification (with the lead in position) and the laissez-passer. If he loses the paper or the lead, or exceeds his time, the money is forfeited. Many cyclists leave the country by train and lose their deposits because the train does not stop sufficiently long on the Swiss side of the frontier to allow of the money being recovered.

For the above and many other reasons the wheelman would do well to join the Cyclists' Touring Club before undertaking the journey. The address of this club is 47, Victoria Street, London, S.W., and its subscription is 5 s . yearly. The club issues a ticket which admits its members' machines into Switzerland without deposit or other formality whatever. It also publishes a Road Book (Vol. III) which carefully describes the cycling qualities of every important road in the country. It has concluded agreements with a host of hotel-keepers whereby reduced terms and discounts are secured for its members. It supplies the best maps for the cyclist and helps intending riders with useful information and advice.

The English Railway Companies carry cycles to Switzerland at ordinary luggage rates ( 56 lbs . being allowed free) plus a special fee of 5 s . for each machine. On Swiss railways cycles are treated as luggage. There is no free allowance, and the rate for carriage is 6 centimes per 100 kilogrammes per kilomètre. Swiss railway porters have the reputation of treating cycles less tenderly than those of other Continental countries. As a general rule, a machine that is sent on unaccompanied should be packed in a crate. When it is accompanied by the owner, all that is required is to swathe the frame and bright parts in cloth to protect them from corrosion by the sea-air. Packed cycles pay more for carriage and for duty, as both are calculated on the weight.

VII. Guides.

On well-trodden routes like those of the Rigi, Pilatus, Wen-gern-Alp, Faulhorn, Scheidegg, Grimsel, Gemmi, etc., the services of a guide are unnecessary in good weather; the maps and directions of the Handbook will be found entirely sufficient. The traveller may engage the first urchin he meets to carry his bag or knapsack for a trifling gratuity. Guides are, however, indispensable for expeditions among the higher mountains, especially on those which involve the passage of glaciers. The novice alone undervalues their services and forgets that snow-storms or mist may at any moment change security to danger. As a class, the Swiss gaides will be found to be intelligent and respectable men, well versed in their duties, and acquainted with the people and resources of the country.

The great stations for guides are Interlaken, Lauterbrunnen, Grindelwald, Meiringen, Martigny, Chamonix, Courmayeur, Zermatt, and Pontresina, while for the principal passes guides are always to be found at the neighbouring villages. The charges for guides and porters are fixed by the Guides' Tariff issued by the Central Committee of the Swiss Alpine Club. This consists of three sections: 1. Valaisian and Vaudois Alps; 2. Bernese Oberland; 3. Alps of Central and E. Switzerland. The following extracts from this tariff should be noted.

The guide is bound to show the tourist his book both at the beginning and end of an expedition. Even when he has served as porter only, he must ask the traveller for a testimonial. The guide must also ascertain that the tourist is properly equipped for the proposed expedition. If the tourist persists in attempting an expedition against the guide's wish and advice, or if he ill-treats the guide, the latter is entitled to refuse to serve him. In this case the gaide is bound to inform the Sectional President without delay.

In ordinary inns and in occupied club-huts the guide provides his own board; in the mountaineering district proper the employer has to furnish him with food. In an engagement lasting for several days the terms are fixed by mutual consent. In this case guides usually receive 8-12 fr. a day and porters 6-8 fr., according to the season and the nature of the expedition, and even more when difficult ascents are included. The guide is bound to carry 7 kilogrammes ( 15 lbs. ) of luggage in addition to the necessary rope; the porter carries 15 kilogrammes ( 33 lbs .). For each kilogramme additional the charge is 20 c . per 'hour of march'; but the guide may decline to carry more than 10 kil . ( 22 lbs .) in all, and the porter more than 20 kil. ( 44 lbs .). In tours of special difficulty the guide is entitled to refuse to carry any baggage, but he must give his employer due notice of this beforehand.

When carriages are used the employer pays the whole fare. If an expedition for which a guide has been engaged is given up for any reason other than bad weather, the guide or porter is entitled to half the fee. If the gnide or porter is dismissed at a distance from home, he is entitled to 6 fr. a day for the return-journey; but he is bound to return by the shortest practicable route.

VIII. Carriages and Horses.

Carriages. The ordinary charge for a carriage with one horse is $15-20$ fr., with two horses $25-30$ fr. per day; the driver expects 10 per cent of the fare as a gratuity. In the height of summer the charges are slightly increased. In most cases there is now an official tariff, which also fixes the amount to be paid as the returnfare to the place where the driver was engaged. When this is not fixed, the driver is entitled to claim the full rate for his returnjourney by the shortest route, a day being reckoned as 12 hrs.' driving. On the most frequented routes carriages may generally be ordered at the hotels, but it is usually more advantageous to deal personally with the driver. The carriage and horses should be inspected before the conclusion of the bargain. When the bargain is made for a future day the driver usually deposits a sum with his employer as earnestmoney (arrhes, caparra), afterwards to be added to the account. The hirer selects the hotels at which the nights are to be passed. Private posting, or the system of changing horses, is forbidden by law. Return-vehicles may sometimes be obtained for 10 to 15 fr . per day, but the use of them is in some places prohibited.

Horses. A horse or mule costs $10-12 \mathrm{fr}$. per day, and the attendant expects a gratuity of 1-2 fr. in addition; but in some places, as at Chamonix, as mnch is charged for the attendant as for the animal. If he cannot return home with his horse on the same day, the following day must be paid for. Walking, however, is preferable. A prolonged ascent on horseback is fatiguing, and the descent of a steep hill is disagreeable. Even ladies may easily ascend some of the finest points of view on foot, but if unequal to the task they may either ride or engage 'chaises-à-porteurs'. In the Bernese Oberland, however, the numerous mountain-railways make horses and chaises-à-porteurs alike superfluous.

IX. Diligences. Post Office. Telegraph.

Diligences. The Swiss coaching system is well organised. The diligences are generally well fitted up, the drivers and guards are respectable, and the fares moderate. These vehicles consist of the coupé, or first-class compartment in front, with 2-3 seats, the intérieur, or second-class compartment at the back, with 4-6 seats, which affords little or no view, and the banquette (used in summer only) for 2 passengers on the outside. In some cases there is only one outside-seat, which is reserved for the conducteur, or gaard, bat will be ceded by him on payment of the difference between the ordinary and the coupe fare. At the most important places, but not at all the intermediate stations, the traveller has a right to insist on transportation; and 'Beiwagen', or supplementary carriages, are supplied when the diligence is full. When there are many passengers it is adrisable to keep an eye on one's luggage (see below), especially at a change of carriage.

On important routes the coupe is generally engaged several days beforehand. This may be done by letter or telegraph, giving the traveller's name, and the day and hour of departure. The fare must also be forwarded.

The coupé or banquette fare is on ordinary routes 20 c . per kilometre (about 32 c . per Engl. M.), on Alpine passes 30 c . per kilom. (about 48 c . per Engl. M.); fare in the intérieur or cabriolet 15 or $2 \overline{5} \mathrm{c}$. per kilomètre ( 24 or 40 c . per Eng1. 31.). Children of $2-7$ years of age pay half-fare. Each passenger is allowed 33 lbs . of luggage on ordinary routes, but 22 lbs . only on the high Alpine rontes. Overweight is charged for at the ordinary postal tariff. Small articles may be taken into the carriage, but heavy luggage should be booked one hour before starting. The average speed of these sedate mail-coaches of Switzerland is about 6 M . per hour on level ground, and 4 M . per hour on mountain-rontes.

Extra-Post. This is the term applied to the Swiss system of posting, managed by government, private posting being prohibited. The charge for each horse is $1 / 2$ fr. per kilomètre ( 80 c . per M.) ; for a carriage with $2-5$ seats 20 c. per kilom. ( 32 c . per M.), for one with 6 seats 25 c. per kilom. ( 40 c. per M.), for one with 7 or more seats 30 c . per kilom. ( 48 c. per M.). Besides these charges, a booking-fee of $2-4 \mathrm{fr}$. must be paid according to the size of the carriage. If the same vehicle is required for a journey of several stages, double carriage-money is exacted. The postilions are strictly forbidden to demand gratuities. Extra-post may be ordered at the principal post-offices on the mountain-routes at one hour's notice. The fare must be paid in advance.

Letters of $2 \overline{5} 0$ grammes (about $81 / 2 \mathrm{oz}$.), prepaid, to any part of Switzerland 10 c. ; if within a radius of 10 kilomètres, 5 c .; letters of 15 grammes (about $1 / 2 \mathrm{oz}$.) to all countries in the postal union 25 c., and 25 c. for each 15 gr . more. Registration-fee for Switzerland 10 c., for other countries 25 c . - Post-cards for Switzerland 5 c., for other countriés 10 c . - Printed matter under 50 gr . for Switzerland 2 c ., for other countries 5 c . - On Sun. the post-offices are usually open 10-12 and 6-8 p.m. only.

Post Office Orders within Switzerland must not exceed 1000 fr . for the larger, and 500 fr . for the smaller towns. The charge for an order not exceeding 20 fr . is 15 c ., for 100 fr .20 c ., for each additional 100 fr. 10 c. more. Money-orders for foreign countries 25 c . for every 25 fr . Money-orders, up to 200 fr ., may also be transmitted by telegraph, at the ordinary money-order rate plus the cost of the telegram and a small extra fee.

Parcel Post. The rate of postage for an inland parcel from any post-office in Switzerland to any other is 15 c . for a weight not exceeding 500 grammes ( $11 / 10 \mathrm{lb}$.) ; 25 c . from 500 to $2500 \mathrm{gr} . ; 40$ c. from 2500 gr . to 5 kilogrammes ( 11 lb. ) ; 70 c . from 5 to 10 kgr .; 1 fr. from 10 to 15 kgr .; 1 fr .50 c . from 15 to 20 kgr . The tariff for parcels exceeding 20 kgr . varies according to the distance from 30 c . to 1 fr .20 c . for every 5 kgr . Luggage can often be sent by post much more cheaply than by other means.

The Telegraph System of Switzerland is very complete, the aggregate length of the wires being at present greater than in any other country in proportion to the population. There are now upwards of 2000 offices; those in the large towns are open from 6 or $7 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. till 11 or $10 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. according to the season. The tariff for a telegram within Switzerland is 30 c ., together with $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{c}$. for each word; to Germany 50 c . and 10 c . for each word; to England 29 c . for each word; to France 10 c . for each word; to Italy 10 c. per word for telegrams to the frontier, or 17 c . for greater distances; to Austria 10 c . (Tyrol or Vorarlberg 7c.) per word; to the United States from 1 fr .50 c . per word. The rates for other foreign telegrams may be ascertained at the offices. For telegrams handed in at railway-stations an additional charge of 50 c . is made. Telegrams may be handed in at any post-office, from which, if not itself a telegraph-office, they are transmitted without delay to the nearest. In such cases the fee for the telegram is paid by affixing stamps of the requisite value. If in an envelope, the word 'telegram' should be added to the address. Telegrams from foreign countries should be addressed 'telegraph restante' (instead of 'poste restante'), as in this case they may be called for at any time and not merely during the official post-office hours.

X. Railways.

The Carriages on most of the Swiss lines are constructed on the American plan, holding 32-72 passengers, and furnished at each end with steps of easy access. Through each carriage, and indeed through the whole train, runs a passage, on each side of which the seats are disposed. Tickets are examined and collected in the carriages. - In French Switzerland passengers' tickets are checked as they leave the waiting-room before starting, and given up at the 'Sortie' on their arrival.

Luggage must be booked and paid for after the traveller has obtained his own ticket, but small portmanteaus and travelling-bags may generally be taken into the carriage without objection. Indeed the forbearance of the Swiss railway officials in this respect is shamefully abused by inconsiderate travellers. Travellers with through-tickets from the German to the Swiss railways, or vice versâ, should see that their luggage is safe on reaching the frontier (Bâle, Geneva, Neuchâtel, Friedrichshafen, Lindau, Rorschach, Romanshorn, etc.). Where a frontier has to be crossed, ordinary luggage should never be sent by goods-train. Luggage booked through to Bern, Lucerne, or Zürich is examined at the railway-stations of these places only.

The enormous weight of the large trunks and boxes used by some travellers causes not only great labour but not infrequently serious and even lifelong injury to the railway and hotel porters who have to handle them. Heavy articles should be placed in the smaller packages, and only the lightest articles in the larger trunks.

Circular Tickets and return-tickets (available for 3 days; over 6 M . for 10 days) are issued at reduced rates on most of the Swiss lines, and also by the German and French railways to Switzerland. Information regarding them will be found in the time-tables; but they are apt to hamper the traveller's movements and to deprive him of the independence essential to enjoyment.

General Tickets. A recent innovation in the $S$ wiss railway service is the so-called General Season Tickets ('Generalabonnements'), which entitle the holder to travel at will over almost all the Swiss railway and steamer lines during a given time. A fortnightly ticket of this kind costs 60,42 , or 30 fr . (1st, 2nd, and 3rd class), a monthly ticket $100,70,50 \mathrm{fr}$. ; quarterly $240,170,120 \mathrm{fr}$. ; halfyearly $380,270,190$ fr. ; yearly $600,420,300 \mathrm{fr}$. These tickets must be ordered at the booking-offices of the chief stations at least 2 hrs . (at other stations 24 hrs .) in advance; and the applicant must at the same time furnish an unmounted photograph of himself (carte de visite size).

A deposit of 5 fr ., made when the ticket is taken, is returned if the ticket be presented at any ticket-office on (at latest) the forenoon of the day after its expiry.

These tickets are not available on the Rigi railway, the Bernese Oberland railways, the Visp-Zermatt railway, the Rhætian railway, and the steamers on the lakes of Constance Lucerne, and Geneva.

XI. History. Statistics.

The limits of this work preclude more than a brief historical sketch of the interesting country the traveller is now visiting, whose inhabitants have ever been noted for their spirit of freedom and independence.

Switzerland is believed to have been first peopled by the Rhaeti, who were driven from the plains to the mountains by the Helvetii, a Celtic tribe. The latter were conquered by the Romans, B. C. 58, and the Rhæti were subdued in B. C. 15. The Romans made good military roads over the Great St. Bernard (p. 310) to Bâle, and over the Julier (p. 404), Septimer (p. 404), and Splügen (p. 398) to Bregenz (p. 446), and thence to Bâle. The chief settlements were Aventicum (Avenches, p. 229) in the Canton of Vaud, Vindonissa (p. 21) at the confluence of the Aare, Reuss, and Limmat, Augusta Rauracorum (Augst, p. 19) near Bâle, and Curia Rhaetorum (Coire, p. 360) in the Grisons. E. Switzerland as far as Pfyn (ad fines) in Thurgan, and Pfin (p. 318) in the Upper Valais, belonged to the province of Rhætia, while W. Switzerland formed part of Gaul. The name Helvetii had become extinct even before the time of Constantine. Under the Roman sway Helvetia enjojed a flourishing trade, which covered the land with cities and villages. A trace of that period exists in the Romanic dialect, which is still spoken in some parts of Switzerland.

About A.D. 400 a great irruption of barbarians swept through the peaceful valleys of the Alps, and Huns, Burgundians, Alemanni, and Ostrogoths in succession settled in different parts of the country. The Alemanni occupied the whole of N. Switzerland, where German is now spoken; the Burgundians the W. part, where French is spoken; and the Ostrogoths S. Switzerland, where Italian and Romansch are now spoken. These races were gradually subdued by the Franks, who, however, did not take possession of the country themselves, but governed it by their officers. During this period Christianity was introduced, the monasteries of Disentis (p. 363), St. Gallen (p. 49), and Einsiedeln (p. 103) were founded, and dukes and counts were appointed as vicegerents of the Franconian kings.

After the dissolution of the great Franconian empire, the E. half of Switzerland, the boundary of which extended from Eglisau over the Albis to Lucerne and the Grimsel, was united with the duchy of Alemannia or Swabia, and the W. part with the kingdom of Burgundy (912). After the downfall of the latter (1032) the German Emperors took possession of the country, and governed it by their vicegerents the dukes of Zähringen (p. 154), who were perpetually at enmity with the Burgundian nobles and therefore favoured the inhabitants of the towns, and were themselves the founders of several new towns, such as Freiburg, Bern, and Burgdorf.

As the power of the emperors declined, and the nobles, spiritual and temporal, became more ambitious of independence, and more eager to fill their coffers at the expense of their neighbours, the Swiss towns and the few country-people who had succeeded in preserving their freedom from serfdom were compelled to consult their safety by entering into treaties with the feudal lords of the soil. Thus the inhabitants of Zürich placed themselves , under the protection of the then unimportant Counts of Hapsburg, with 'whom the 'Three Cantons' of Uri, Schwyz, and Unterwalden were also allied. In 1231 and 1240 letters of independence were granted by Emperor Frederick II. to Uri and Schwyz, and after Count Rudolph of Hapsburg had become emperor he confirmed the privileges of the former in 1274, while Schwyz and Unterwalden still continued subject to the Hapsburg supremacy.

After the emperor's death in 1291 the Forest Cantons formed their first league for mutual safety and the protection of their liberty against the growing power of the House of Hapsburg. Rudolph's son Albert in particular endeavoured to rear the limited rights he enjoyed in these districts into absolute sovereignty, and to incorporate them with his empire.

The ancient cantons therefore embraced the cause of the rival monarch Adolph of Nassau, who confirmed their privileges. Victory, however, favoured Albert, who again deprived the cantons of their privileges, but does not appear to have treated them with much severity. To this period belongs the romantic but unfounded tradition of William Tell. $\dagger$

After the assassination of Albert by John of Swabia in 1308, Emperor Henry VII., who was also an opponent of the Hapsburgers, conferred a charter of independence on the Forest Cantons. The House of Hapsburg regarded this as an infringement of their rights, and sent a powerful army against these cantons, which after the death of Henry had declared their adherence to Lewis the Bavarian, the opponent of Frederick the Handsome. This army was destroyed at Morgarten (p. 86) in 1315. Subsequent attempts to subject the country to the supremacy of the House of Hapsburg were frustrated by the victories of the Swiss at Sempach (p. 19) in 1386, at Näfels (p.72) in 1388, and at the Stoss ( p .61 ) in 1405.

In the Burgundian parts of the country too the nobility were jealous of the increasing importance of the towns, and therefore attempted to conquer Bern, but were defeated by the citizens at Laupen (p. 225) in 1339.
ln 1354 a confederacy was formed by eight independent districts and towns, which soon became powerful enough to assume the offensive, and at length actually wrested the hereditary domain of Hapsburg from the dukes of Austria, who tried in vain to recover it.

Even Charles the Bold, Duke of Burgundy, the mightiest prince of his time, was defeated by the Swiss at the three battles of Grandson (1476, p. 224), Morat (1476, p. 230), and Nancy, while at an earlier period a large body of irregular French and other troops, which had been made over to Austria by the King of France, sustained a severe check from the confederates at St. Jacob on the Birs (1444, p. 8).

In the Swabian war (1499) the bravery and unity of the Swiss achieved another triumph in the victory of Dornach (p. 10). At that period their independence of the emperor was formally recognised, but they continued nominally attached to the empire down to 1648.

The last-named victory formed a fitting termination to a successful career of two centuries, the most glorious in the history of Switzerland. At the beginning of the 16 th century a period of decline set in . The enormous booty captured in the Burgundian war had begotten a taste for wealth and luxury, the demoralising practice of serving as mercenary troops in foreign lands began to prevail, and a foundation was laid for the reproachful proverb, 'Pas d'argent, pas de Suisses!'

The cause of the Reformation under the auspices of Zwingli was zealously embraced by a large proportion of the population of Switzerland about the beginning of the 16 th century; but the bitter jealousies thus sown between the Roman Catholic and the Reformed Cantons were attended with most disastrous consequences, and in the civil wars which ensued bloody battles were fought at Kappel (p.87) in 1531, at Villmergen in 1656, and during the Toggenburg war ( p .67 ) in 1712.

Traces of unflinching bravery and of a noble spirit of self-sacrifice in the cause of conscience are observable in individual instances even at the close of the 18th century, as exemplified by the affairs of Rothenthurm (p. 114) and Stans (p. 134), but the national vigour was gone. The resistance of individuals to the invasion of the French republicans proved fruitless, and the Helvetian Republic was founded on the ruins of the ancient liberties of the nation. In 1803 Napoleon restored the cantonal system, and in accordance with resolutions passed by the Congress of Vienna in

+ The legend of the national hero of Switzerland, as well as the story of the expulsion of the Austrian bailiffs in 1308, is destitute of historical foundation. No trace of such a person is to be found in the work of John of Winterthur (Vitoduranus, 1349) or that of Conrad Justinger of Bern (1420), the earliest Swiss historians. Mention is made of him for the first time in the Sarner Chronik of 1470 , and the myth was subsequently embellished by Egidius Tschudi of Glarus (d. 1542), and still more by Johann von Müller (d. 1809), while Schiller's famous play has finally secured to the hero a worldwide celebrity. Similar traditions are met with among various northern nations, such as the Danes and Icelanders.

1815 the constitution was remodelled. The changes introduced in consequence of the revolution of July, 1830, were unhappily the forerunners of the civil war of the Sonderbund, or Separate League, in November, 1847; hut this was of short duration, and on 12 th September, 1848, a new federal constitution was inaugurated. Since that period the public tranquillity has been undisturbed, and the prosperity and harmony which now prevail throughout the country are not unworthy of the glorious traditions of the past.

Two useful books for the visitor to Switzerland are 'The Rise of the Swiss Republic' and 'Romance and Teutonic Switzerland', both by W. D. IfcCrackan.

Bale, or Basel ( $830^{\prime}$ ), the capital of the half-canton Bâle-Ville or Basel-Stadt (pop. 99,365), is flrst mentioned in the year 374 as Basilēa, having probably been founded by the Roman armies, when they fell back on the Rhine, near the old Colonia Augusta Rauracorum, established in B. C. 27 by L. Munatius Plancus (now BaselAugst, $51 / 2$ M. to the E. ; p. 19). In the middle ages Bâle was a free town of the Empire, and it has been a member of the Swiss Confederation since 1501. The university was founded in 1460 by Pope Pins II. (Æneas Sylvius). The city lies on both banks of the Rhine, which here receives the waters of the Birs and the Birsiy on the S. and of the Wiese on the N. On the left bank of the Rhine lies Gross-Basel, on two hills separated by the valley of the Birsig, through which run the Freie-Strasse and Gerber-Strasse, the ancient arteries of traffic. On the right bank lies Klein-Basel, with numerous manufactories.

Three Bridges cross the river, all affording admirable views. The wooden Alte Rhein-Brücke (Pl. D, E, 3), 165 yds. long, 16 yds. wide, and partly supported by stone piers, was originally built in 1225. In the middle of it rise a chapel of the 16 th cent. and a column with a barometer and weather-cock. Above the old bridge the river is crossed by the iron Wettstein-Brücke (Pl. F, 4), completed in 1879, with three spans of 200 ft . each. At each end of the bridge are two basilisks, the heraldic symbol of Bâle. Below the old bridge is the five-arched Johanniter-Brücke (Pl. D, 1), completed in 1882.

The *Münster (Pl. E, 4), a picturesque edifice of red sandstone, with a brilliantly coloured new roof and two slender towers, is conspicuous in every view of the city. Down to the Reformation (1529) it was the cathedral of the old see of Bâle. Its foundation is ascribed to Emp. Henry II. (1010-19), but the oldest existing parts belong to a building of 1185 , which was damaged in 1350 by an earthquake and a fire. It was then rebuilt in the Gothic style and reconsecrated in 1365. Of the Romanesque structure the N. portal, or St. Gallus Gateway (built about 1200), still exists, and is adorned with statues of the Evangelists and John the Baptist; over the churchdoor is a relief representing the wise and foolish virgins; at the sides in six niches are the works of charity, and at the top Christ on the judgment-seat and the angels at the Last Day. The exterior of the Choir, with its round-arched arcades, is also Romanesque. The W. Front, with the towers, the chief portal, and two sideentrances, is eutirely Gothic. The tasteful $N$. Tower is $210^{\prime}$, the $S$. Tower, completed in 1500, is $206^{\prime}$ high. The sculptures on the façade represent the Virgin and Child, and under them the Emp. Henry, with a model of the church, and the Empress Kunigunde; on the two side-entrances are two knights, on the left St. George and the dragon, and on the right St. Martin. The building underweut a thorough restoration in 1852-56 and 1880-90.

The Interior is open to the public on Wed., $2-4$ p.m.; at other times admission $2 \bar{\jmath} \mathrm{c}$. for eaciu person. The sacristan lives in the Münster-Platz

No. 13, bat in summer he is generally in the church (knock). The charch, $213^{\prime}$ long and $107^{\prime}$ wide, originally consisted of nave and aisles, but is now provided with double aisles owing to the inclusion of the chapels. The general effect is very imposing, especially when seen from the galleries. The stained-glass windows are modern. The beautiful roodloft of 1381 supports the large and excellent organ. The pulpit dates from 1486. In the left outer aisle are monuments of the 13-15th cent. and (farther on) two reliefs with the martyrdom of St. Vincent and of St. Lawrence. The font is of 1465 ; on the pillar opposite is the tombstone of the learned Erasmus of Rotterdam (d. 1536), with a long Latin inscription. The right onter aisle contains a relief of six Apostles (11th cent.). In the transept are lateGothic choir-stalls, with satirical representations (15th cent.). In the retro-choir are monuments of the Empress Anna (d. 1281), consort of Rudolph of Hapsburg and mother of Albert I., and of her youngest son Charles. - In 1431 the great Council began to sit in the Münster. It consisted of upwards of 500 clerics, including many great dignitaries, whose ostensible task was a 'reformation of the Church in head and members'; but after having debated for years without result and been excommanicated by Pope Eugene IV., it was dissolved in 1448.

On the S. side of the choir are extensive *Cloisters, at the entrance to which from the Rittergasse stands a statue of John Ecolampadius (d. 1531), the Reformer. The vaulting of the cloisters is partly Romanesque, partly late-Gothic (1470-90). They were restored in 1869-73, and used until 1850 as family burial-places. They extend to the Pfalz, a terrace behind the Münster, $65^{\prime}$ above the Rhine, planted with chestnuts, overlooking the green river and the hills of the Black Forest. Near it (Bäumleingasse 18) is the honse of Froben the printer, in which Erasmus died in 1536.

In the Augustinergasse, which descends N.W. from the MünsterPlatz to the bridge, is the Museum (Pl. E, 3), constructed in 184349. On the groundfloor are two rooms containing an Ethnographical and Prehistoric Collection (lacustrine remains). On the staircase are three frescoes by Böcklin (1866-71), representing Gæa, Flora, and Apollo. The first floor contains the Aula of the University, with portraits of 107 scholars of Bâle, and the Natural History Collections. In the ante-room are marble busts of ten recent professors of the university. - The second floor is occupied by the *Picture Gallery (director, Dr. Daniel Burckhardt), chiefly interesting for its paintings and drawings by Hans Holbein the Younger (b. at Augsburg 1497, d. in London 1543), who lived at Bâle in 1515-26 and 152832. Adm. free on Sun. 10.15-12.30, and in summer on Wed. 2-4; at other times fee 50 c . ; closed from 12.30 to 1.30 . Catalogue 50 c .

The staircase from the first to the second floor is adorned with cartoons by Cornelius, Schnorr, and Steinle, and by a painting by Benner (No. 178) of a Street in Capri. - Ante-Room. Seven fragments of Holbein's obliterated frescoes in the Council Chamber and old and modern copies from them; painted organ-shutters from the Münster, by Holbein. - Roos to The left. Tecknau ( $1440^{\prime}$ ); $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Wenslingen ( $1860^{\prime}$ ) ; $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Oltingen ( $1940^{\prime}$; Ochs), with a mineral spring. The path ascending the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) "Schafmatt ( $2515^{\prime}$ ') diverges close to the 'Ochs', and is easily found, being provided with finger-posts. The summit commands an extensive panorama of the Jura and the Alps, which we enjoy until we reach a point overlooking the deep valley of Rohr. Turning to the left here, we reach the upper part of a meadow, at the foot of which ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the summit) lies a chalet and whey-cure establishment. From this point we enjoy a view of the environs of the Lake of Lucerne, the Rigi, Pilatus, etc. From the chalet to Aarau (p. 23) in $1 \frac{1}{4}$ hr., past the Laurenzenbad (p. 23), situated in a side-valley to the left, and Erlisbach.

To the S. of Sissach lies ( 7 M .; diligence twice daily in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. viâ Zunzgen, Tenniken, and Diegten) Eptingen or Ruch-Eptingen (1873'; *Curhaus, with saline and mineral baths, pens. 4-5 fr.), situated in a narrow valley at the base of the Hauenstein (footpath to Läufelfingen, see below, $1 \mathrm{hr} . ;$ to Langenbruck, see p. 13, 11/4 hr.).

The train turns to the S. into the narrow Homburger-Thal, and beyond ( 16 M .) Sommerau passes through two tunnels. - $191 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Läufelfingen (2010'; Sonne), at the foot of the Hauenstein.

From stat. Läufelingen a road (one-horse carr. 5 fr .) ascends in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. viâ Reisen and Erlimoos (each of which has a Curhaus) to the "Frohburg (2770'; *Hotel \& Pension, R. 21/2, B. 11/4, pens. 5-7 fr.), situated on the summit of the Hauenstein and commanding a beautiful view of the Alps, from the Sentis to Mont Blanc; in the foreground, the Wartburg (see below) and the Wigger-Thal with the railway to Lucerne; on the right rises Pilatus, on the left the Rigi. About 10 min . from the inn are some scanty ruins of a castle. Descent by Trimbach in 1 hr . to Olten.

Beyond the Hauenstein Tunnel ( 2970 yds. ; 5 min.) we observe on a hill to the right the Neu-Wartburg (see below), to the right of which, farther on, the Bernese Alps gradually become visible from the Wetterhorn to the Doldenhorn, with the Jungfrau in the middle (comp. Panorama, p. 153). The train descends by a long curve to the Aare, crosses it, and ascends on the right bank to -

Carriages generally changed here. Detention of $1 / 4-1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. As we leave the waiting-rooms, the trains for Bâle and Zürich are to the left, those for Lucerne and Bern to the right. Pocket-picking not uncommon here.

Olten (1295'; 6000 inhab.), prettily situated on the Aare, is the junction of the lines to Aarau and Brugg (R. 7), to Aarburg and Lucerne (R.5), to Bern (R.4), and to Soleure and Neuchâtel (see below). The Parish Church contains an Ascension by Distelli, and the Capuchin Church a Madonna by Deschwanden. Extensive rail-way-workshops and large shoe-manufactories.

To the S.E. of Olten, on an isolated hill on the right bank of the Aare, rises the Neu-Wartburg or Sälischloss (2235'; Restaurant), a small château with a fine view of the Alps from the Sentis to the Jungfrau. Good paths from Olten and from Aarburg to the top in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.

About $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the N.E. of Olten (diligence twice daily in summer in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) are the sulphur-baths of Lostorf (*Curhaus, R. 1-2 $1 / 2$, pens. 5 fr.), prettily situated at the foot of the Jura. On a cliff above ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) rises the small château of Wartenfels (2060'), with a fine view.

The train crosses the Aare and traverses the plain watered by the Dünnern, at the base of the Jura. To the left the view of the Alps from the Glärnisch to the Altels is gradually unfolded. 26 M . Olten-Hammer; $271 / 2$ M. Wangen ; 29 M. Hägendorf. - 31 M. Egerkingen (Kreuz).

Wangen we cross the Aare. 43 M. Deitingen. Beyond ( 45 M .) Luterbach we obtain a view of Soleure; to the right is the long ridge of the Weissenstein (p. 16). The train crosses the Emme, not far from its confluence with the Aare. - 47 M. Neu-Solothurn.

Soleure. - Soleure has two Railway Stations: Neu-Solothurn, on the right bank of the Aare, for the lines to Olten, Herzogenbuchsee, Burgdorf, Lyss, and Bienne; and Alt-Solothurn, on the left bank, to the W. of the town, for the line to Bienne.

Hotels. At the Neu-Solothurn station: Hôtel Terminus. In the town: ${ }^{\star}$ Krone, R., L., \& A. $21 / 2-0$, B. $11 / 2$, D. $31 / 2$, S. $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr} . ;{ }^{}$ Storch; *Adler, R. $1^{1 / 2} / 2-2 \frac{1}{2}$, B. 1, D. $2^{1 / 2}$ fr.; Hirsch; Thurm; Schwan, well spoken of.

Soleure, or Solothurn (1425'; 9500 inhab.), the capital of Canton Soleure, on the Aare, the Roman Salodurum, claims to be the oldest town on this side of the Alps next to Trèves. ('In Celtis nihil est Salodoro antiquius, unis exceptis Treviris, quarum ego dicta soror', is the inscription on the clock-tower.) It was incorporated with the Confederation in 1481.

The Cathedral of St. Ours, a cathedral of the Bishopric of Bâle (p.4), was built in 1762-73 on the site of an edifice of 1050 , in the form of a cross, covered with a dome and two half-domes. A flight of 36 steps leads to the façade. One of the adjoining fountains has a statue of Moses striking the rock, the other a figure of Gideon wringing the dew from the fleece. The ten large altar-pieces (close of 18 th cent.) are unimportant. The treasury, in the sacristy, contains good artistic work in metal and textile fabrics (14-18th cent.).

The *Arsbnal, not far from the cathedral, contains (on the second floor) a collection of ancient armour and weapons. Among the curiosities are the shield of Philippe le Bon and a mitrailleuse of the 15 th century. A large plastic group represents the reconciliation of the Confederates effected at the Diet of Stans in 1481 by Brother Klaus (p. 139).

The oldest building in Soleure is the Clock Tower, recently restored, which is said to have been erected in the 4 th cent. B.C., but really an early Burgundian building of the 5 th or 6 th cent. A.D. The figures and mechanism of the clock resemble those at Bern (p. 154).

The Natural History Cabinet, in the suburb on the right bank of the Aare, contains valuable collections of zoology and palæontology. In the Cantonal School are a number of Roman and Mediaeval Antiquities and the Cantonal Library. The Town Library contains about 40,000 vols. and 200 incunabula, besides coins and medals. The Municipal Picture Gallery possesses a *Virgin and Child, with SS. Ours and Martin of Tours, one of the chief works of Holbein the Younger (1522), much restored. - A tablet on No. 5 Gurzelngasse marks the house in which Thaddeus Kosciuszko died (1817).

The "Weissenstein ( 4220 '; comp. Map, p. 10), 3 hours' walk or drive to the N. of Soleure, is deservedly a very favourite point of view. It is reached either by the carriage-road viâ Längendorf and Oberdorf (diligence at $7.50 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m} .$, returning at $5.30 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. , fare 3 fr .; two-horse carr. in $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$., up 20, down 10, there and back 25 fr. and fee), or (preferable) by the footpath (guide or porter $4-5 \mathrm{fr}$.) ascending the Verena-Thal. Taking the latter (numerous guide-posts), we pass the cathedral of St. Ours, and through the handsome Bâle gate, and then bear to the left towards the Villa Cartier with its two towers, where we turn to the right. Farther on we enter the avenue to the left, at the end of which we turn to the right towards the church of St. Nicholas. Before reaching the charch our ronte passes the Restaurant Wengistein and turns to the left into the "St. Verena-Thal ( 1 M . from Soleure), a narrow, cool, and shady ravine, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. in length. The path to the left, at the beginning of the gorge, leads to the Wengistein (see below). At the exit of the valley are quarries of Portland limestone, where interesting fossils are found. The blocks of granite on the neighbouring slopes are believed by geologists to have been deposited by ancient Alpine glaciers. At the N. end of the ravine is the Hermitage of St. Verena $\left(1620^{\prime}\right)$. On the right are the hermit's dwelling and a chapel; on the left is a rock-hewn chapel, reached by a broad flight of steps, and containing a representation of the Holy Sepulchre with lifesize figures. We may now ascend by the chapel to the crosses, pass near the large quarries (with 'Gletscherschliffe', or rocks worn by the action of the glaciers), and traverse the wood to the Wengistein, the view from which is similar to that from the Weissenstein, though on a smaller scale. A huge granite boulder here bears a Latin inscription recording two memorable events in the history of Soleure.

From the restanrant beyond the hermitage we take to the right, in the direction of the Weissenstein; at ( 10 min .) the village of Widlisbach we turn to the left and cross the hill to ( 12 min.) the hamlet of Fallern (1827'), at the foot of the Weissenstein. Above it we enter the wood to the left by a finger-post, ascend gradually, and then in steep zigzags to the ( 40 min .) first bench, above which there are several others. The path soon quits the wood and ascends an abrupt rocky gully, partly by steps. Farther ap , the ascent is through wood and more gradual. In 40 min . we regain the road (to the left) above the Nesselboden Alp ( 3447 '), and, following it, reach in 40 min . the "Curhaus on the Vordere Weissenstein ( $4220^{\prime}$; R., L., \& A. 3-4, B. $11 / 4$, D. $31 / 2$, S. $21 / 2$, pens. $7-10 \mathrm{fr}$.; telephone to Soleure), a sanatorium surrounded by woods and pastures, and mach resorted to in summer (Engl. Church Service). The footpath, diverging to the right at the end of the wide curve, 8 min . from the Nesselboden Alp, and then ascending abruptly to the left at the post on the top, is a short-cut.

The *VIEw is less picturesque, bat more extensive than that from the Rigi; and no spot commands a better view of the whole Alpine chain from Tyrol to Mont Blanc. To the E. are the Sentis, the Glärnisch, with the Rigi in the foreground, the Tödi between the Rigi and Pilatus, the lofty saddle of Titlis, and the Sustenhorn; beyond Soleure, the Wetterhorn and Schreckhorn, the Finsteraarhorn, Eiger, Mönch, Jungfrau, Blümlisalp, and Doldenhorn; then the Balmhorn, Altels, Wildstrubel, Wildhorn, Diablerets, and to the S. Mont Blanc. To the S.W. glitter the lakes of Bienne, Morat, and Neuchâtel; the Aare winds to the S. through the fertile plains, and the Emme flows into it at the foot of the mountain.

Pleasant walks to the S.W. thrnugh the wood to the ( 10 min .) Känzeli (4093'), and to the W. to the Dilitschkòpf ( $4350^{\prime}$; ascent viâ the arête in 55 min ., descent by the stepped path in 40 min .). - The Rothi ( $4590^{\circ}$ ), ${ }^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hr}$. to the E. of the hotel, commands an extensive view to the N. and E. of the Black Forest and Vosges, which are hidden from the Weissenstein, and of the pictaresque mountains and valleys of the Jura. - Towards the W. the view is concealed by the "Hasenmatt ( $4745^{\prime}$ ), $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the hotel, whence an uninterrupted panorama may be enjoyed. The path to it (white marks) leads across the pastures to the $W$. to ( 25 min .) the Hintere Weissenstein (4027'; inn). A pleasanter route leads by the shady footpath, which enters the woods to the right above the pastures, but this must be quitted as soon as it begins to ascend more steeply. Shortly before reaching the Hintere Weissenstein we descend a little to the left and cross the ridge to ( 20 min .) the end of the meadows; then descend for $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. in the Kesselwald, and ascend across pastures to ( 20 min .) the chalet of Althüsli ( 4375 '; simple rfmts.), on the saddle, with a good spring. An easy path leads hence to the summit in 20 min . (the path diverging to the left. 10 min . before the chalet, is shorter but steeper). - We may descend from the Hasenmatt or the chalet on the S. side, pass Lommiszoyl, and regain Soleure, or the nearer station of Selzach (see below). Those returning from the Curhaus to Soleure follow the road from Fallern ( p .16 ) to ( $1 / 2$ M.) a sign-post with four arms, whence a path between pine-woods and large quarries brings them in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N.W. gate of Soleure. Or, at the Nesselboden Alp (p. 16) we may take the red-marked path to the right, which reaches the road at the Webernhüsli, above Oberdorf. (From the Webernhüsli another red-marked path leads to the Hintere Weissenstein, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Carriages may also be directed to return by a route affording an opportunity of visiting the St. Verena gorge.

Near Sempach Duke Leopold of Austria was signally defeated on 9 th July, 1386, by the Swiss Confederates, owing, as the story goes, to the noble self-sacrifice of Arnold von Winkelried. The duke and 263 of his knights were slain. A column surmounted by a lion was erected near the church in 1886 on the 500 th anniversary of the victory.

A Chapel ( $2064^{\prime}$ ), $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the N.E. of Sempach, marks the spot where Leopold fell. His uncle, another Duke Leopold, had been defeated by the Swiss 71 years before at Morgarten (p. 86). The anniversary is still kept.

Rheinfelden ( $885^{\prime}$; pop. $30 \cup 0$ ), an old town, once strongly fortified, with walls and towers partly preserved, was one of the outposts of the Holy Roman Empire. After repeated sieges it was razed by the French in 1744. Since 1801 it has belonged to Switzerland. The river here dashes over the rocks, forming the Höllenhaken rapids. Near the town are extensive salt-works on the Rhine.

We quit the Rhine, which here bends to the N., pass ( 13 M. ) Möhlin and ( 17 M .) Mumpf (*Hôt.-Pens. Sonne, with saline baths; Anker), and then return to the river for a short time. - $18 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Stein ( $990^{\prime}$; Löwe), connected by a covered bridge with Säckingen (p. 25).

From Stein to Coblenz, 16 M., railway in 45 min . The line skirts the left bank of the Rhine; stations: Sisseln, Laufenburg (p. 2j̄), Sulz, Etzgen, Schwoaderloch, Leibstatt, Felsenau; then across the Aare to Coblenz (p. 24).

We quit the Rhine, and at ( $201 / 2$ M.) Eiken enter the fertile Sisseln-Thal. 23 M. Frick (1120'; Adler; Engel), a large village. The train ascends in a long curve to ( 26 M .) Hornussen (1275'). $281 / 2$ M. Effingen ( $1425^{\prime}$ ), the highest point on the line. Then a tunnel ( 2697 yds.; 4 min.) under the Bötzberg ( $1945^{\prime}$ ), the Roman Mons Vocetius. 31 M. Bötzenegg is the station for Schinznach (p. 24). The train descends, affording a magnificent view of the valley of the Aare to the right, and, in clear weather, of the St. Gall, Glarus, and Schwyz Alps, and crosses the Aare by a bridge 259 yds . long and $104^{\prime}$ high.

36 M. Brugg (1095'; pop. 15'72; *Rothes Haus; Rössli; Hôt. Central, near the rail. station; Hôt. Bahnhof; Restaurant St. Gotthard, near the rail. station, good beer), an antiquated little town, the junction of lines to Aarau and to Wohlen-Bremgarten (R. 7), is best surveyed from the bridge over the Aare, here hemmed in by rocks. In the main street, to the left, is the house in which Pestalozzi died. The 'Schwarze Thurm', by the bridge, dates from the later Roman Empire; the upper part was rebuilt in the 15 th century. Adjacent is the Town Hall, with good modern frescoes. A school adjoining the parish-church is adorned with interesting frescoes of 1640 (refreshed in 1885).

The ancient Abbey of Königsfelden ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the S.E. of Brugg), formerly a convent of Minorites, was founded in 1310 by the Empress Elizabeth and her daughter, Queen Agnes of Hungary, on the spot where Albert of Austria, husband of the former, had been murdered two years before (1308) by John of Swabia and his accomplices. It was secularized in 1528; the building was converted into a hospital, and in 1872 into a lunatic asylum (now installed in a large new building). Of the old buildings there now remain the S. part only, the charch, and the dwelling of Queen Agnes.

From the rail. station of Brugg a road leads to ( $1 / 3 \mathrm{M}$.) the entrance to the park of Königsfeldeu, most of whish is surrounded by an iron fence 5 ft . high. In 1 min . more we reach the large building of the lunatic asylum, where we ring and receive from the manager a ticket of admissiun to the Convent Church ( 50 c. ). The latter, which lies $200 \mathrm{yd} .$. to the S. (finger-post) and is shown by the custodiau (ring), was thoroughly restored in $1=90-98$. Along the incide walls are 35 tombstones with the armorial bearings of Bernese bailiffs whn died at Königsfelden. On the E. wall are modern and artistically insignificant portraits of the chief knights who fell at Sempach (1356), some of them reproductions of frescoes still extant in the room of Queen Agnes (see p. 2U). In the middle is Duke Leopold of Austria. The vault in the middle of the church, in which he, the Empress Elisabeth, Queen Agnes, and other royalties were interred, is now empty (no admission). The choir, adorned with stained glass of the $14-15$ th cent., was used for service down to the middle of the present century.

On the tongue of land formed by the Reuss and the Aare once stood the considerable Helvetian town of Vindonissa, which in the early centuries of the Christian era was the headquarters of a Roman legion with its Rhætian cohorts, as is proved by inscriptions. The foundation walls of the amphitheatre, which could contain 10,000 persons, were laid bare by excavation in 1897. The external diameters measured 344 ft . and $32 \overline{\mathrm{j}} \mathrm{ft}$.; those of the arena were 221 ft . and 177 ft . The well of the Abbey of Königsfelden is still fed by a subterranean Roman conduit, which has been frequently repaired in moderu days. The name of Vindonissa, which was destroyed in the 5th cent., still survives in that of the village of Windisch, 1 M . to the E. of Brugg.

The Hapsburg (p. 24) is also often visited from Brugg. The road leads, partly through wood, to ( 3 M .) the village of Habsburg (carr. from Brugg 6, with two horses 10 fr .), whence a footpath ascends to ( 5 min .) the castle.

From Brugg to Wohlen, 11 M ., railway in 40 minutes. - A little to the W. of ( 3 M .) Birrfeld is the village of Birr, with the grave of Pestalozzi ; and about $1 / 2 \mathrm{MI}$. to the S.E. of Birr is the manor of Neuhof, where he long lived and worked. - $51 / 2$ M. Othmarsingen (junction for Wettingen and Aarau, p. 24); $71 / 2$ M. Hendschikon (p. 23); 81/2 M. Dottikon-Dintikon (p.23); 11 M. Wohlen-Villmergen. (To Rothkreuz, see p.24.)

We cross the Reuss near its union with the Aare, and reach the Limmat beyond ( 38 M .) Turgi, the junction of the lines to Aarau and Waldshut (p. 24).

A good path leads hence to the S., for the most part through wood, to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Gebensdorfer Horn ( $1710^{\prime}$ ), which commands a fine view of the Jura, the Black Forest, and the confluence of the Aare, Reass, and Limmat.

42 M. Baden (12056'; pop. 5000; *Hôtel de la Gare, R., L., \& A. $11 / 2-2$, B. 1, D. $21 / 2$, pens. 6 fr.; *Hôtel de la Balance, R. 11/2-2, B. 1, D. 2, pens. $61 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.) was much visited even in Roman times for its mineral springs (Aquae Helvetiae). In the middle ages it was a fortress, and down to the 15 th cent. often the residence of the Counts of Hapsburg. The extensive ruins of the fortress Stein zu Baden $\left(1505^{\circ}\right)$, destroyed in 1415 and again in 1712, rise above the town ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the station); pretty view from the top and from the adjacent Café Belvedere.

The hot mineral springs ( $98^{\circ}-126^{\circ}$ Fahr.) lie in the narrow valley of the Limmat ( $1190^{\prime}$ ), 5 min . to the N. of the station, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the town. The 'Small Baths' (Adler; Hirsch; Rebstock; Schwan; Stern), in Ennetbaden, on the right bank of the Limmat, are chiefly frequented by the peasantry; the 'Great Baths' (*Grand Hôtel, pens. 9-12 fr., with Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer; *Schiff, pens. $71 / 2-10$ fr.; *Verenahof, *Limmathof, 7-9 fr.; *Blume, $61 / 2-81 / 2$ fr.; *Schweizerhof, 6-8 fr.; Ochs, 6-8 fr.; *Bär, pens. 7-8 fr.; Restaurant zur Sense) lie on the left bank. The Bad-Strasse leads from the station to the Curhaus with its pleasant grounds (*Restaurant; music several times daily) and to the Grand Hôtel (see above). Good view from the lower Limmat bridge (1175'); opposite, on the right bank, is the Cafe Brunner, with a garden. From both bridges paths lead to (ca. 1 M.$)$ the Restaurant Schartenfels (1538'), situated on the W. spur of the Lägernberg and affording a fine view of Baden, the valley of the Limmat, and the Alps from the Sentis to the Scheerhorn.

Excursions. The Lägernberg or Lägern, a projecting spur of the Jura chain, forms a ridge about 7 M . long from E. to W. From the Schartenfels Restaurant (see above) a rough and rocky path (steady head necessary) ascends to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Gugelhorn ( $2627^{\prime}$; view spoiled by the trees), whence an easier path leads to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the *Burghorn (2830), the highest point of the Lägern, affording a grand view of the High Alps from the Sentis to the Wildstrubel, of the Jura and Black Forest, and of the lower hills. [The usual and easiest way to ( $21 / 2$ hrs.) the Burghorn follows the road to the N.E. of Baden viâ the Höhthal; near ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the village of Ehrendingen we diverge to the right and ascend through wood (steep at places).] An almost identical view is enjoyed from the W. arête of the Lägern, reached from the Schartenfels Restaurant by a safe rock-path in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. The *Baldegg ( $1875^{\prime} ; 11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) is a deservedly popular point. At the crossroads (finger-post), $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. beyond the Café Belvedere (p. 21), we may take the narrow road to the left (blue marks), which ascends through wood to ( 50 min .) the Baldegg, a small plateau with a cottage and view-tower, affording a fine survey from the Sentis to the Bernese Alps. Or at the abovementioned cross-roads we may take the broader road to the right, which leads viâ Münzlihausen to the ( 1 hr .) Baldegg. - Hertenstein (1580), 1 M. to the N. of Baden, has a popular restanrant and affords a good view (finer still from the Geissberg, $1_{4} \mathrm{hr}$. farther on). - Another good point is the Martinsberg (1640'), 35 min . to the W. - From the Kreuzliberg ( ${ }^{(633}{ }^{\prime}$ ), $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S., we may proceed to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Zeicher Eiche ( $1715^{\prime}$; view), and descend to ( 10 min .) the Teufelskeller, a cave in which snow is often found at midsummer.

From Baden to Aarau, see p. 24; station on the S.W. side of the upper town, 1 M . from the baths.

We pass under the Stein zu Baden (p.21), and cross the Limmat to ( 43 M .) Wettingen. The village lies on the left, at the foot of the vine-clad Lägernberg (see above); on the right, enclosed by the Limmat, are the extensive buildings and gardens of the Cistercian Abbey of Wettingen, now a seminary for teachers. The church (adm. 50 c .) contains a sarcophagus in which the remains of the Emp. Albert (see p. 20) lay for 15 months before their removal to Spires. Stained-glass windows of the 16 th and 17 th cent.; carved stalls of the 17 th .

The train again crosses the deep bed of the Limmat and follows its left bank to Zürich. 46 M. Killwangen. - 49 M. Dietikon(1285'; Löwe). It was here that Masséna effected his famous passage of the Limmat, 24 th Sept., 1799 , after which he repulsed the Russians and took Zürich. - 51 M. Schlieren; $531 / 2$ M. Altstetten (p. 87). Gerber, at the station, R. 2-3, B. 1, D. 3, pens. 6-9 fr.; *Rössli; Ochs; Löwe; *Sauvage, R., L., \& A. 2, B. 1, D. $21 / 2$, pens. $5-7$ fr.; U.S. Consul, Mr. H. M. Morgan), a manufacturing place, the capital of Canton Aargau, on the Aare (crossed by a suspension-bridge), and at the foot of the Jura, on which a few vineyards appear. The Gross-Rathsgebäude contains fine stained glass (from the Abbey of Muri, 16th cent.) and the Cantonal Library ( 60,000 vols.). The Geographical and Commercial Society of Central Switzerland has an interesting *Ethnographical Industrial Museum. Adjacent is the handsome new Cantonal School. A house in the Rathhaus-Platz (No. 882) contains interesting antiquities from Vindonissa (p. 21). A bronze statue, designed by Lanz, was erected in 1895 to the historian Heinrich Zschokke (d. 1848), who once lived here; his house, the 'Blumenhalde', is passed on the way from the suspension-bridge to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Alpenzeiger on the Hungerberg (Curhaus Alpenzeiger, fine view, pens. $41 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.).

Above the town, to the N., rises the Wasserffuh ( $2850^{\circ}$ ), and to the N.E. the Giselafuh ( $2540^{\prime}$ ), over which a path, with a view of the lakes of Hallwyl and Baldegg, leads to the Baths of Schinznach. - Pleasant road from Aarau by Erlisbach (p. 14) to the ( $4^{1 / 2}$ M.) Near the town is the picturesque wooded Mühltobel, with several waterfalls. The tower, with walls 8 ' thick, is the only part now standing; the room said to have been occupied by Rudolph of Hapsburg is still shown. The adjoining house is occupied by a farmer. The view embraces the entire dominions of the ancient Counts of Hapsburg, the valleys of the Aare, Reuss, and Limmat, and the High Alps from the Glärnisch to the Urirothstock and from the Wetterhörner to the Wildhorn. - The village of Schinznach lies about $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S.W., on the left bank of the Aare. Restaurant. - Baths in the Rhine, at the upper end of the town, well fitted up, 6-1 and 5-8, for ladies 2-5.

Schaffhausen (1295'; pop. 14,300), a free imperial town down to 1501 and now capital of the Swiss canton of Schaffhausen, retains some of the features of a Swabian town of the empire. It is most picturesque when seen from the village of Feuerthalen, on the left bank of the Rhine, or from Villa Charlottenfels (1385'), on the right bank. Hr. Moser (d. 1874), the late owner of the villa, originated the great Waterworks in the Rhine (outside the Mühlenthor), for the supply of the factories of the town.

The Cathedral, once an abbey-chorch, an early-Romanesque basilica, was erected in 1052-1101 and is now a Protestant parish church. Interior lately restored. The Gothic cloisters are tolerably preserved. The inscription on the old bell, cast in 1486: Vivos voco, mortuos plango, fulgura frango, suggested Schiller's beautiful 'Lied von der Glocke'. This bell has, however, been removed to the Museum (see below) and a new one has taken its place (1898). - The late-Gothic Church of St. John has an excellent organ. In the Münstergasse is the Haus zum Ritter, a picturesque gabled building, decorated with paintings on the façade by Tobias Stimmer. - To the W., in the direction of the Herrenacker, stands (1.) the Old Barracks, a handsome Renaissance structure of 1617, now used for industrial exhibitions.

The castle of Munot (properly Unnot; 15̄64-82; recently restored), above the town, consists of a round tower, $155^{\prime}$ in diameter, with walls $16^{\prime}$ thick and bomb-proof vaulting. A winding inclined plane ascends to the platform, which affords a fine view and is much frequented in the evening (concerts, etc.).

The Imthurneum, in the Herrenacker, erected and presented to the town by Hr. Imthurn (d. 1881), a native of Schaffhausen and a London banker, contains a theatre, a picture-gallery, a musicschool, and concert-rooms. Opposite is the Museum, with antiquities (including those found in the Kesslerloch near Thayingen, the old Schiller-Glocke, etc.), natural history specimens, and the town-library. - The Rathhaus has a large porch and a fine panelled room of 1625 , with a carved door and a mechanical clock. In the neighbouring government-buildings is preserved a fine ancient onyx, representing a goddess of peace (adm. 11-12 gratis; at other times 1 fr .).

In the pretty Fäsenstaub Promenade is a bust of the Swiss historian Johannes von Müller (b. at Schaffhausen, 1752; d. at Cassel, 1809). The lofty terrace affords a fine view of the Rhine and the Alps.

From Schaffhausen to the Falls of the Rhine (2 M.), see p. 28. Omnibus and carriages, see p.29. - Pretty walk through the Mühlen-Thal to the Seckelamtshäuschen, with a view of the Alps, and back to Schaffhausen by the Hochfluh (another fine point of view) and the subarb of Steig ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. in all). Other fine views may be obtained from the Beringer Randen (belvedere), $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the W., and from the Hohe Randen ( $2^{5} 55^{\prime}$ ), $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the N.W., reached viâ Hemmenthal or Merishausen. - From Schaffhausen to Zürich, see pp. 34, 35; to Etzweilen, see p. 34.
$61 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Herblingen; 64 M. Thayingen ; 67 M. Gottmadingen. - 71 M. Singen (Krone; Adler; Ekkehard, all very fair; Rail. Restaurant), junction for the Black Forest Railway. About 3 M. to the N.W. rises the *Hohentwiel $\left(2265^{\prime}\right)$, with grand ruins and a noble view (see Baedeker's Southern Germany).

From Singen to Etzweilen, railway in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ( $1 \mathrm{fr} .30,90,65 \mathrm{c}$.). $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Rielasingen; 5 M . Ramsen. We cross the Rhine beyond ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Hemishofen (p. 27). 9 M. Etzweilen (p. 34).
$751 / 2$ M. Rickelshausen. - $771 / 2$ M. Radolfzell (Schiff; Krone; Sonne), an old town on the Untersee, with a Gothic church of 1436.

Near it, on the lake, is the Villa Seehalde, with a monument to the poet Victor von Scheffel (d. 1886). - 78 M. Markelfingen; 82 M . Allensbach. - 84 M. Hegne. - 86 M. Reichenau, station for the island in the Untersee, to the right, connected with the shore by an embankment.

The island of Reichenau ( 3 M. long, 1 M . wide), now belonging to Baden, was formerly the seat of a celebrated Benedictine Abbey, founded in 724 and secularized in 1799. The Schaffhausen and Constance steamers touch at the island twice daily (see p. 28). The road from the shore leads past the ruined tower of the castle of Schopeln, which was destroyed as early as 1384 , to ( $31 / 2$ M.) Mittelzell (boat from stat. Allensbach to Mittelzell in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). The former collegiate church of St. George, near the houses of Oberzell, is a Romanesque basilica of the 11th and 12th cent., with interesting frescoes of the 10th century. - In the centre of the island lies its chief village, Mittelzell (Mohren; Bär), with 1000 inhabitants. The parish church, or Münster, is the former abbey-church, which was consecrated in E06, and contains the remains of Charles the Fat, great-grandson of Charlemagne, who was dethroned in 887. The present edifice is a basilica of the 11 th and 12 th cent., borne by columns, with two transepts and a lateGothic choir of 1448-51; the treasury, in the sacristy, contains several fine reliquaries. - The church of Unterzell, on the N.W. side of the island, is another basilica of the $9-12 \mathrm{th}$ centuries.

The train passes the large barracks of Petershausen and crosses the Rhine to ( 89 M .) Constance ( p .31 ), by an iron bridge embellished with statues.

R. Rheinklingen; left, Bibern. We now pass under the handsome bridge of the 'Nordostbahn' (see p. 26). L. Hemishofen, with the pavilion of Wolkenstein above (see below). R. Wagenhausen.
$\dagger$ L. Stein am Rhein ( ${ }^{}$ Sonne, R. 2, B. 1, D. $2^{1 / 4}$, pens. $7 \mathrm{fr} . ;{ }^{}$ Hot. Rheinfels; Rabe), a picturesque old town, connected with the village of Burg (Wasserfels) by a new wooden bridge, and a station on the Winterthar railway (p. 34). The suppressed monastery of St. George has been restored and fitted up as a Museum (interesting rooms, cloisters, etc.; adm. 1 fr., including description $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). The Rathhaus contains stained glass, old weapons, etc. - Pleasant walks in the adjacent woods. The old châtean of *Hohenklingen (1945'), on a hill to the N. of the town ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. by road), was restored in 1897 and is now a frequented summer-hotel (pens. $41 / 2$ $51 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). It affords an admirable view of the Untersee, the picturesque valley of the Rhine, and the Alps from Vorarlberg to the Jungfrau. - Another good point of view is the Wolkenstein $(1920)$, a rocky hill with a pavilion, $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N.W. of Stein. We follow the road to ( 1 M .) a finger-post at the W. base of the Hohenklingen hill and then ascend through fine woods by a path denoted by white and yellow marks.

Above Stein is the island of St. Othmar, with the chapel of that name. The Rhine widens, the steamer enters the Untersee. - R. Eschenz (p.34). A road ascends hence to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the château of Freudenfels ( $1^{\prime 2} 20^{\prime}$ ), whence it goes on to ( 20 min .) the hamlet of Klingenzelf, with a pilgrimage-church and a fine view of the Untersee, the Rhine, and part of the E. Alps (better still from a height 10 min . to the S.E.).
$\dagger$ L. Oberstaad, an old mansion with a square tower, now occapied by a factory; beyond it is the suppressed monastery of Oehningen.
$\dagger$ R. Mammern ( p .34 ); in the wood, the rain of Neuburg; on the bank, the house of Glarisegg.
$\dagger$ L. Wangen ( ${ }^{*}$ Hotel \& Restaurant zum Frieden). A road leads to ( $11 / 4$ J.) the chàteau of Marbach (nuw a sanatorium; fine view and garden), on a hill about $160^{\prime}$ above the Untersee.

+ R. Berlingen (p. 34). The lake expands, and we now see the island of Reichenau (p. 27). On the hill to the right is the châtean of Eugensberg, erected by Eugène Beauharnais, viceroy of 1 taly, and now the property of Countess Reichenbach-Lessonitz.
$\dagger$ R. Mannenbach (p. 34), charmingly situated, above which is the handsome pinnacled château of Salenstein. An easy road ascends to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Arenaberg ( $1502^{\prime}$ ), situated on a wooded hill, once the residence of Queen Hortense (d. 1837) and her son Napoleon III. (d. 1873), now the property of the ex-Empress Eugénie. It contains pictures, sculptures, and other reminiscences of the Napoleonic dynasty (adm. 1 fr., 2 pers. $11 / 2,3$ pers. 2 fr., each addit. pers. 50 c .). The park affurds a beautiful view.
$\dagger$ L. Reichenau, on the island of Reichenau (p. 27).
$\dagger$ R. Ermatingen (p. 33), prettily situated on a promontory; on the hill above it, Schloss Wolfsberg (1690'; ${ }^{\text {EHôtel-Pension, pens. } 5-7 \text { fr.). }}$

We now enter the narrow arm of the Rhine connecting the Untersee with the Lake of Constance.
$\dagger$ R. Gottlieben (Krone), with a châtean, restored by Napoleon III., in which Huss, and afterwards Pope John XXII. were confined. Barnn Scherer's château of Castel, on the hill at the back of the village, was built by Tafel of Stuttgart and is sumptuously fitted up (Alhambra room, frescoes by Häberlin, etc.). Beantiful retrospect of the Untersee, with the peaks of the Höhgau in the distance.

The banks now become flat, and at places marshy. We thread our way through reedy shallows (. Petershausen, with large barracks), and at length pass under the handsome railway-bridge of Constance (p. 31). Passengers are landed at the pier with a lighthouse at its E. end.

Illumination of the Falls with electric and Bengal lights every evening in summer, for which $\mathbf{z} / \mathbf{z}-1 \mathrm{fr}$. is charged in the hotel-bill: - English Church in the 'Schweizerhof' grounds.

The stations for the Falls on the right bank are Neuhausen (p. 25) on the Baden Railway and the station of the same name on the Swiss Railway (p.34); that on the left bank is Dachsen (p. 35), on the Winterthor and Zürich line. The best way to see the Falls is to start from Neuhausen and follow the route described below (cross the bridge to Schloss Laufen, descend to the Fischetz, cross to the Schlösschen Wörth, and return along the right bank, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. in all). This round is often taken in the reverse direction, bat as the Fischetz, the most striking point of all, is then visited first, the other points lose much of their impressiveness. - From Dachsen we walk or drive to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Schloss Laufen (omn. in 8 min .), make the round above indicated, and return across the Rheinfall-Brücke. - From Schaffhausen

(p.23) an omnibus, starting at the rail. station, plies to Neuhausen (Falls of the Rhine) in summer 11 times daily in 20 min . ( 40 c. ; the last two trips, at 8.45 and 10 p.m., 50 c .). A pleasanter way is to drive in an open carriage to Neuhansen ( 1 fr .40 c ., with return 2 fr .40 c . ; two pers. 2 or 3 , three pers. $21 / 4$ or 4 fr ., four pers. $3 \mathrm{fr} .20,5 \mathrm{fr}$. 60 c .) or to Schloss Lanfen ( $1-2$ pers. 4 fr., each addit. pers. 2 fr .). The charge for the drive from Schaffhansen to Schlösschen Wörth and the Schweizerhof and back to Schafl hausen is 3 fr . (two pers. 4, three pers. 6 fr.). Waiting is charged 1 fr . per hour. - All the points of view should be visited by those who desire an adequate impression of the Falls.

The Falls of the Rhine are in point of volume the grandest in Central Europe. The Rhine takes three leaps over an irregular rocky ledge, which next to the left bank is about $60^{\prime}$ high, and on the right bank about 48'. Above the Falls the river is 125 yds. broad. If the rapids and the cataracts a few hundred paces farther up are included, the total height of the Falls is nearly $100^{\prime}$. (Level of the Rhine below the falls $1180^{\prime}$.) In June and July the river is swollen with melting snow. Before $8 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. and after 3 p.m. rainbows are formed by the sun in the clouds of silvery spray. The spectacle is also very impressive by moonlight.

Of the four limestone-rocks which rise above the Falls, that nearest the left bank has been worn by the action of the water to one-third of its original thickness, but has lately been buttressed with masonry. When viewed from a boat below, the rocks seem to tremble. The central and highest rock, surmounted by a small pavilion, may be reached by boat, and ascended by a path protected by a railing. The Falls are seen here to the best advantage. The passage, which only takes a few minutes, is free from danger ( $1-2$ pers. 3 fr. and fee; each additional person 1 fr .). It is curious that no mention of these Falls occurs in history before 960. It has therefore been supposed that they did not exist until about a thousand years ago, and that, while the bed of the river below the falls has been hollowed by erosion, the deepening process above the falls has been retarded by the hardness of the rocky barrier above mentioned.

Neuhausen Station of the Baden Railway (1443'), see p.25. We take the road to the left, and after a few paces descend by a path to the right to the ( 5 min .) village. From the Swiss Station Neuhausen ( $1312^{\prime}$; p. 34) we follow the footpath to the left (the carriage-road ascends straight on), which leads past the Hôtel Bahnhof to (10 min.) the village. The two paths unite at the Gruitli Restaurant. We now descend across the Eglisau and Zürich railway (p. 34) and follow the road for about 100 yds . The path to the left here leads to the Rheinfall-Brücke; in the middle and to the right are the direct routes to the Falls as described p. 30. Those who wish to make the round indicated at p. 28 take the shady path to the left, passing the Gun and Waggon Factory, to the ( 8 min.) *Rheinfall-Brücke ( 210 yds .), which carries the 'Nordostbahn' over the Rhine a little above the Falls (p. 35). The nine arches vary in span (42-66'), as it was difficult to find foundations for the piers. The footway over the bridge affords an interesting view of the rocky bed of the river, the rapids, and the falls below.

On the left bank a path ascends to the left in 5 min. to the Schloss Laufen ( $1360^{\prime}$ ), picturesquely situated on a wooded rock immediately above the Falls (adm. 1 fr.; no other fees). The balcony and a jutting pavilion with stained-glass windows command a good survey of the falls and the environs. Camera obscura, 50 c.

Paths descend through the grounds to the chief points of view : an iron Pavilion, the wooden Känzeli, and the *Fischetz, an iron platform projecting over the foaming abyss. The scene is stupendous. The huge emerald-green volume of water thanders down at our very feet and bedews us with its spray. (Waterproofs; 20 c .)

Boats are ready to ferry us across ( 50 c ., return-fare 80 c .) to Schlösschen Wörth (Inn, R. $13 / 4 \mathrm{fr}$.; camera obscura 50 c.), on an island opposite the Falls, which is connected with the right bank by a bridge. This point commands the finest general *Vibw of the Falls. (Boat to the central rock, see p. 29.) We may now follow the path on the right bank, ascending the river (benches; splendid views) and passing an Aluminium Factory (left), to the road (p. 29). Or we may follow the river beyond the factory and ascend by the flight of steps to the left (protected by a hand-rail), which affords fine views of the tossing waters and leads to ( 10 min .) the village.

A pleasant walk may also be taken from the Schlösschen Wörth down the right bank of the Rhine. The grounds of the Fischerhölzli, to the W. of the Schweizerhof garden, afford picturesque glimpses. - Numerous fossils are found among the rocks of the Falls and among the loose deposits at the Schlösschen Wörth.

10. From Friedrichshafen to Constance. Lake of Constance.

Steamboat six times daily in summer (twice direct, in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; four times viâ Meersburg in $11 / 2-13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). Between the chief places on the lake, Friedrichshafen, Lindau, Bregenz, Rorschach, Romanshorn, Constance, Meersburg, Ueberlingen, and Ludwigshafen, the steamers (about 26 in number) ply at least once daily, and on the chief routes (FriedrichshafenConstance $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., Friedrichshafen-Romanshorn 1 hr ., FriedrichshafenRorschach $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., Lindan-Romanshorn $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., Rorschach-Lindau 1 hr ., Constance-Lindan 3 hrs.) 2-6 times daily. Good restaurants on board (D. $21 / 2^{-3} \mathrm{fr}$.). The lake being neutral, luggage is liable to custom-house examination on arriving in Germany or Austria from Switzerland, and nominally in the reverse case also. Passengers from one German port to another may avoid these formalities by obtaining before embarkation a custom-house ticket for their luggage (gratis).

The Lake of Constance ( $1305^{\prime}$; Ger. Bodensee, Lat. Lacus Brigantinus), an immense reservoir of the Rhine, 207 sq . M. in area, is, from Bregenz to the influx of the Stockach, 40 M . long, about $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. wide, and between Friedrichshafen and Uttweil $825^{\prime}$ deep. In beauty of scenery the Bodensee cannot vie with the other $S$ wiss lakes; but its broad expanse of water, its picturesque banks and green hills, the chain of the Appenzell Alps in the distance, the snow-clad Sentis in particular, and several snow-peaks of the Vorarlberg Alps, visible in clear weather, present a very pleasing scene, In rough weather sea-sickness is not uncommon. The best fish are 'Felchen' and tront, and the best wine grown on the banks is the 'Mfeersburger'.

Friedrichshafen (Deutsches Haus; Drei Könige, well spoken of; Sonne; Müller's Restaurant), the S. terminus of the Würtemberg Railway (to Stattgart $41 / 4-6$ hrs.), is a busy place in summer. Its lake-baths attract many visitors, especially from Swabia, and it boasts of a Curhalle, with pleasant grounds on the lake. The Harbour with its Lighthouse is 1 M . from the railway-station.

Travellers going on by steamer keep their seats until the train reaches the terminus near the quay (restaurant, with terrace). Those arriving by steamer may take tickets on landing, and enter the train at once.

The Constance steamer steers to the W. On the N. bank are the village of Immenstaad, the châteaux of Herrsberg and Kirchberg; then the village of Hagnau. On the N.W. arm of the lake, the Ueberlinyer See, we see the picturesque little town of Meersburg; then the island of Mainau (p.33), and in the distance Ueberlingen. The steamer passes the promontory which separates the Ueberlinger See from the bay of Constance, and reaches ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) -

Baths in the lake (Pl. D, 4, 5), well fitted up (bath 40 pf.; ferry 10 pf.). - English Church Service in summer. - The former Constanzer Hof (Pl. D, 1), on the lake, is now an Institute for Nervous Patients.

Constance ( $1335^{\prime}$; pop. 18,694), a free town of the Empire down to 1548 , after the Reformation subject to Austria, and since the Peace of Pressburg in 1806 a town of Baden, lies at the N.W. end of the Lake of Constance, at the efflux of the Rhine. The episcopal see, founded in 781 , and held by 87 bishops in succession, was made an archbishopric and removed to Freiburg in 1827.

The *Cathedral (Pl. 4 ; B, 3), founded in 1052 , originally a cruciform Romanesque edifice, was rebuilt in its present form in 1435 and 1680. The Gothic tower ( $250^{\prime}$ high), designed by Hübsch, was erected in 1850-57; the open spire, with a platform on each side, commands an excellent survey of the town and lake (moun-tain-indicator at the top; adm. 20 pf .).

Interior. On the doors of the chief portal are *Reliefs in 20 sections, from the life of Christ, carved in oak by Simon Haider and Nicholas Lerch in 1470. "Choir-stalls, with satirical sculptures, of the same date. The organ-loft was enriched in the Renaissance style in 1680. In the nave, which is borne by 16 monolith columns ( $28^{\prime}$ high, $3^{\prime}$ thick), sixteen paces from the entrance, is a large stone slab, with a white spot which always remains dry when the rest is damp. On this spot Huss is said to have stood on 6th July, 1415, when the Council sentenced him to be burned at the stake. The N. chapel adjoining the choir contains a ${ }^{\text {"Death of the Virgin, in stone, date }}$ 1460. In the left aisle is the monument of J. H. von Wessenberg (p. 32).

The Treascry (verger $1 / 2-1 \mu$ ) contains missals of 1426 , with miniatures. On the E. side of the church is a Cript, containing the Chapel of the Sevulchre, a representation of the Holy Sepulchre in stone, $20^{\prime}$ high (13th cent.). Adjoining the church on the N . stand two sides of the once handsome Cloisters, erected abont 1480 in the Gothic style.

The Wessenberg Haus (Pl. 15; B,3), once the residence of Hr . von Wessenberg (d. 1860), who for many years was the chancellor of the bishopric, contains a collection of pictures, engravings, and books, bequeathed by him to the town, and a number of paintings and sketches left by Marie Ellenrieder (d. 1863), a lady-artist.

The late-Gothic church of St. Stephen (Pl. 6; B, 4), of the 14th cent., with its slender tower, but disfigured externally, contains interesting reliefs by H. Morink (in the choir). - The WessenbergStrasse leads hence to the Ober-Markt, at the corner of which is the modern 'Zum Hohen Hafen' (Pl. 2; B, 4), where, according to the house inscription, Frederick, Burgrave of Nuremberg, was invested with the March of Brandenburg by Emp. Sigismund on 18th April, 1417. Adjacent is an old house (now the Hôtel Barbarossa), styled by the inscription Curia Pacis, in which Emp. Frederick I. concluded peace with the Lombard towns in 1183.

The Stadt-Kanzlei or town-hall (Pl. 12; B, 4, 5), erected in 1593 in the Renaissance style, and embellished in 1864 on the façade with frescoes by $F$. Wagner, relating to the history of Constance, contains the Municipal Archives in the lower rooms ( 2800 charters, chiefly from the Reformation period). Handsome inner court. In the lobby of the second floor are five frescoes by Häberlin (1898), also relating to the town's history.

The Rosgarten (Pl. 8; B, 5), the old guild-house of the butchers, contains the *Rosgarten Museum of lacustrine remains, antiquities of Constance, and natural history specimens (open free on Wed., 2-5, and Sun., 10.30-12; at other times 50 pf .). - In the market-place stands a Victory, by Baur (Pl.10), erected in memory of the war of 1870-71. At the other end is a fountain erected in 1897, with statues of Emps. Frederick Barbarossa, Henry III., Maximilian I., and William I.

The Kaufhaus (Pl. 1; C, 4), on the lake, erected in 1388, contains the large hall, 52 yds. long, 35 yds. wide, and borne by ten massive oaken pillars, where the conclave of cardinals met at the time of the Great Council (1414-18) and elected Pope Martin V. Colouna. The hall has been restored and was adorned in 1875-85 with frescoes by Pecht and Schwörer from the history of the town (adm. 20 pf.). Upstairs is a collection of Indian and Chinese curiosities, the property of the castellan ( 40 pf .).

The Dominican Monastrry (Pl. a; C, 3), in which Huss was confined, on an island, has been partly converted into a hotel ('Insel-Hôtel', p. 31). The well-preserved Romanesque cloisters (with frescoes by Häberlin, illustrating the history of the monastery) are worthy of a visit; the former church is now the din-ing-room of the hotel.

Pleasant promenade in the Stadt-Garten on the lake, with a marble bust of Emp. William I., a music pavilion (band every evening in summer), and a charming view (mountain-indicator).

The house in which Huss was arrested, in the Husen-Strasse near the Schnetzthor (Pl. A, 5 ), is indicated by a tablet with a portrait of the Reformer in relief, put up in 1878. Adjoining it is an old relief, of 1415, with derisive verses. Behind it, in the 'Obere Laube', a bronze tablet with an inscription designates the spot where Jerome of Prague was imprisoned in 14100-16. In the Brühl, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the W. of the town, a large boulder with inscriptions ('Husenstein') marks the spot where the Reformers suffered martyrdom.

Fine view of the lake and the Vorarlberg and Appenzell Alps from the *Allmannsdorfer Aussichts-Thurm ( 1 hr . to the N.), 5 min . above the village of Allmannsdorf (Adler), on the road to the Mainau. - Pleasant walks to the Loretto-Kapelle ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ); the Jacob (Hôtel-Pension Waldhaus, pers. $5-6 .{ }^{-1}{ }^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hr}$.) ; Tabor (view-tower; 1 hr .); and the Kleine Rigi, above Münsterlingen (inn; 1 hr .).

In the N.W. arm of the Lake of Constance (Ceberlinger See, p. 31), $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Constance, lies the pretty island of "Wainau, formerly the seat of a commandery of the Teutonic Order, as is indicated by a cross on the S. side of the châtean, which was built in 1746. The island, $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. in circumference, is connected with the mainland by an iron bridge 150 paces long. Since 1853 it has been the property of the Grand Duke of Baden, and is laid out in pleasure-grounds, where cypresses and other semi-trepical plants flourish in the open air. Near the château is a small inn. Steamboat from Constance in $35 \mathrm{~min} . ;$ small boat (a pleasant trip of 1 hr .) 5 . $l l$ and gratuity; one-horse carr. 5 -6, two-horse 8 . M. Zürich (1345'), the capital of the canton, lies at the $N$. end of the lake, on the green, rapid Limmat, which divides it into the 'Grosse Stadt' on the right, and the 'Kleine Stadt' on the left bank. On the W. side flows the Sihl, unimportant except in spring, which falls into the Limmat below the town. Since the incorporation of the eleven 'Ausgemeinden' and other suburbs (1893), Zürich, with its 168,000 inhab., is the leading town of $S$ witzerland. It is one of the busiest manufacturing towns in the country. Silk is the staple product, and the cotton-mills, machine-works, and iron-foundries are also important.

Lacustrine remains prove that the site of Zürich was occupied in prehistoric times. In B.C. 58 Zürich (Taricum), with the other towns of the Helvetii, fell under the sway of the Romans. It owed its prosperity in the middle ages to the favour of the Carlovingians. In 1292 it joined Uri and Schwyz, and in 1351 it became a member of the Swiss Confederation. From an early date Zürich was the intellectual leader of Switzerland. As the home of Zwingli (1519-31) it was the focus of the Reformation, and its schools have for centuries sent forth men of distinction - Bodmer, Hottinger, Orelli, Gessner, Lavater, Hess, Pestalozzi, Heidegger, Horner, Hirzel, Henry Meyer, the friend of Goethe, and many others.

The Sitdation of Zūrich is very beautiful. Both banks of the clear, pale-green lake are enlivened with villages, orchards, and vineyards, scattered over a highly cultivated country. In the background rise the snowcapped Alps; to the left is the crest of the Glärnisch, then the perpendicular sides of the Griesetstock ( $9200^{\prime}$ ), near it on the right the Pfannenstock, and farther on, the Drusberg, the ice-clad Bifertenstock, and the Tödi (the highest of the group, the last two rising above the Linththal); in front of these the Clariden, with their westernmost point the Kammlistock $\left(10,610^{\prime}\right)$; between this and the double-peaked Scheerhorn lies the Gries Glacier; then on the N. side of the Schächen-Thal the long Rossstock Chain with its fantastic peaks; the broad Windgelle; between this and the Scheerhorn appears the dark summit of the lower Myten near Schwyz; above the depression between the wooded Kaiserstock and the Rossberg towers the pyramidal Bristenstock, near Amsteg on the St. Gotthard route; then, if we occupy a commanding position, the Blackenstock and Uri-Rothstock, and part of the snow-mountains of the Engelberger-Thal, appearing above the Albis, to the right, the northernmost point of which is the Uetliberg, with the hotel on its summit.

In the Bahnhof - Platz (Pl. H, 4) a fountain with a bronze Statue of Alfred Escher (d. 1882), the statesman and founder of the St. Gotthard Railway, by Kissling, was erected in 1889. The Barn-hof-Strasse (Pl. H-E, 3), nearly $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. long, leads to the S. to the lake. It passes on the right, in the Linth-Escher-Platz (Pl. H, 3), the Linth-Escher School, and, farther on, the Credit-Anstalt (Pl. F, 3); on the left the Centralhof, a block of houses with tempting shops, and the Kappeler Hof; and on the right the Zürich Cantonal Bank, the Federal Bank (Eidgenössische Bank), and the Exchange (Pl. E, 3). - Side-streets lead to the left to the shady Lindenhof (PI. G, 3, 4), $123^{\prime}$ above the Limmat, which was fortifled at an early period and afterwards became an imperial palace; to the late-Gothic Augustine Church (Pl. G, 3), now used by the Old Catholics, with paintings by Deschwanden; and to St. Peter's Church (Pl. F, 4), with its massive tower and large electric clock (dials $29^{\prime}$ in diamet r ), where Lavater (d. 1801) was pastor for 23 years (grave on the N. side).

The Stadthacs-Platz is adjoined by a Terrace on the lake (Pl. E, 4), commariding a beautiful view; to the right is the steamboat-quay, to the left are lake-baths (p. 36). - The broad *Seo-Quai (Alpen-Quai and Mythen-Quai), with its pleasant promenades (Arboretum) and fine views of the lake and the Alps, skirts the lake to the right, extending to the Belvoir Park, to the S. of the suburb of Enge (p.37). Near its E. end is the *Tonhalle ( Pl . D, E, 3), an effective building erected in 1893-95 by Fellner &-Helmer of Vienna, with café-restaurant, open-air terraces, and large concert-rooms (see p. 37).

To the E. of the Stadthaus-Platz the handsome Quai-Brücke (Pl. E, 4; 180 yds. long), constructed in 1882-83, crosses the Limmat near its issue from the lake. Below the bridge, on the left bank of the Limmat, is the Bauschanze, a small pentagonal island, shaded with trees, and connected by a bridge with the StadthausQuai, where a large and handsome new Post Office has been erected (entr. in the Kapplergasse). - On the right bank of the lake also promenades (Cto-Quai and Seefeld-Quai), with charming views, lead past the handsome Theatre (P1. D, 5) and the Panorama (Pl. C, 5) to the park of Zürichhorn (p. 37).

The next bridge below the Quai-Brücke is the four-arched Münster-Brücke (Pl. F, 4). Adjacent are the Frau-Münsterkirche of the 12-13th cent., with its high red-roofed tower, on the left bank, and the former Wasserkirche (1479-84), on the right bank. The latter now contains the Town Library (Pl. F, 4), with its 130,000 vols. and over 4500 MSS. (week-days $9-12$ and $4-6$; fee 50 c ., for a party 1 fr .; entr. in the open vestibule adjoining the bridge).

Its treasures include a letter of Zwingli ( p .40 ) to his wife; Zwingli's Greek Bible with Hebrew annotations in his own handwriting; autograph letter of Henry $I V$. of France and a cast of his features; three autograph Latin letters of Lady Jane Grey to Antistes Bullinger; letter of Frederick the Great, dated 1784, to Prof. Müller; the Codex Vaticauus; a Greek Psaltery; portraits of burgomasters and scholars of Zürich; eight panes of stained glass of 1506 ; and a large relief of part of Switzerland by Müller.

The steps opposite the E. end of the Münster-Brücke lead to the Romanesque Grossmünster (Pl. F, 4), erected in the 11-13th centuries. The upper stories of the towers are Gothic, and in 1799 they were crowned with helmet-shaped tops with gilded fiowers. On the W. tower is enthroned Charlemagne with gilded crown and sword, in recognition of his donations to the church. The choir contains three large modern stained-glass windows representing Christ, St. Peter, and St. Paul. The church and the Cloisters, of the beginning of the 13 th cent., are open daily in summer from 11 to 12 (adm. 20 c . ; tower 30 c .; sacristan, Kirchgasse 13).

On the quay to the S . of the choir of the Wasserkirche is a bronze statue, by Natter, of Zwingli, pastor of the Grossmünster from 1519 till his death in 1531. - To the N. of the MünsterBrücke, on the Rathhaus-Quai, is the Rüden, restored in the German Renaissance style, containing the Swiss educational exhibition and the Pestalozzi cabinet. At the Rathhaus-Brüclee (Pl. G, 4) we see on one side the Rathhaus (Pl. F, G, 4), a massive building of 1699 (in the vestibule a marble bust of Gottfried Keller, by Kissling), on the other the Fleischhalle, or meat-market. Opposite are the Museum (reading-room) and the Schneggen Club.

From the Quai-Brücke we ascend the Rämi-Strasse (Pl. E-H, 5, 6) to the E., then to the right to the Hohe Promenade (Pl. E, 5, 6), a loftily situated avenue of limes. Beautiful view (best by morning-light) from the platform with the Monument of Nägeli (d. 1836), the vocal composer. Adjacent is the Old Cemetery, with the English Church (p. 38). - From the Hohe Promenade a road passing the N. side of the cemetery rejoins the Rämi-Strasse, where (to the left) is the monument of Ignaz Heim (d. 1880), the composer. The street ascends to the Cantonal School (Pl. G, 6); it then bends to the N. To the left are the Physical and Physiological Institute of the University and the new Ophthalmic Institute (Pl. H, 5) ; to the right the Cantonal Hospital (Pl. H, 6); beyond it the Physical Institute of the Polytechnic, the School of Forestry and Agriculture, and the Chemical Laboratory (P1. I, 5).

At No. 15 Schönberggasse, behind the Physical Institute, Jacob Bodmer lived from 1739 till his death in 1783. - Lower down, on the slope, is the Künstlergut (Pl. The Platz Promenade (Pl. I, K, 3, 4), an avenue of fine trees to the N. of the railway-station, between the Sihl and Limmat, affords pleasant walks (band on Sun. morning). In this promenade are the Swiss National Museum (see below), and the simple monuments of the idyllic poet Salomon Gessner (d. 1788), the minnesinger Joh. Hadlaub, and the composer W. Baumgartner (d. 1867). It terminates in the 'Platzspitz', a point of land formed by the junction of the Sihl with the Limmat.

The *Swiss National Museum, an extensive building in the mediæval style by G. Gull, was opened in 1898 and contains historical and art-industrial objects from prehistoric days down to the 19th century. Though of very recent origin, it is the most important collection of the kind in Switzerland. A series of rooms fitted up with mediæval and Renaissance furniture is especially noteworthy, but there are also many large special collections, while various old architectural details, either originals or reproductions, have been most successfully made use of. The collection of stained glass, distributed throughout the various rooms, is the best in the world. - The maseum is open free daily (except Mon.), from June 15 th to Sept. 15th 10-5 (other months 10-4); adm. 10-12 a.m. 1 fr . On the right bank of the Limmat, in the Weinberg-Strasse, rises the new Roman Catholic Liebfrauenkirche (Pl. I, 4, 5), a handsome basilica in the Romanesque style, with an isolated tower (adm. 50 c. ; from the gallery a good survey of the town).

In Aussersihl (Pl. G, H, I, 1, 2), a quarter on the left bank of the Sihl mainly occupied by artizans (electric tramway, see p. 37), is the Military Depot of Canton Zürich, including barracks and an arsenal.

The Botanic Garden (Pl. F, 2), stocked with Alpine and other plants, contains bronze busts of A. P. de Candolle (d. 1841) and C. Gessner (d. 1565), and marble busts of H. Zollinger, a Swiss botanist (d. in Java, 1859), and Oswald Heer (d. 1883), the naturalist. The Katz, an old bastion, forms a lofty platform planted with trees.

To the E. of the Botanic Garden a bridge crosses the Schanzengraben (the old moat) to Selnau, with the stations of the Uetliberg and Sihlthal Railways (Pl. F, 1; see below).

On the Zürichberg, to the S. E. of Zürich (electric and cable tramway, see p. 37), are the Waldhaus Dolder (p. 37) and ( 10 min . farther up) the large now *Dolder Grand Hotel & Curhaus (2050'; R., L., & A. from 3, pens. $71 / 2$ fr.), with a park and charming views of the lake and the Alps.

Attractive walks may be taken through the woods to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) forester's house of Adlisberg ( $2100^{\prime}$; inn in summer), the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Loorenkopf ( $2305^{\prime}$; view), and other points.

The Uetliberg.

Railway to the top in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (fare, 1st class 3 fr .50 c ., 2 nd cl .2 fr , return-ticket, 5 and 3 fr.; on Sun. and holidays by excursion-trains 1 fr ., return-fare $11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; season-tickets at reduced fares). This line, $51 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long, with a maximum gradient of 7: 100, is constructed in the ordinary way, but, as on the Rigi Railway, the locomotives are placed behind the trains. The station is in the suburb of Selnau (see above; Pl. F, 1), on the Sihl, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Central Station and 12 min . from that of Enge.

The train (best views to the right) skirts the Sihl for a short way and crosses it to ( 5 min .) stat. Zürich-Binz (1390'), where the ascent begins. At first we traverse an open slope, with a pleasant view of Zürich and the valley of the Linmat; then ascend through wood to (17 min.) stat. Waldegg ( 2040 ; inn). The train describes a long curve on the slope of the hill and reaches the terminus (267\%). About 5 min . above the station is the large *Hôt.-Pens. Uetliberg (R., L., \& A. 3-5, B. 11/2, D. 4, pens. 7-9 fr. ; Engl. Ch. Serv. in Aug.), and 3 min . higher, at the top, are the Restaurant Uto-Kulm and a view-tower $100^{\prime}$ high ( 167 steps; adm. 20 c.). Pleasant shady walks near the hotel. On the S. side, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the top, are the *Hôtel Uto-Staffel (D. 2-2 $1 / 2$, pens. $4-5 \mathrm{fr}$.) and the *Hôtel-Pension Annaburg (pens. 5-8 fr.), with a restaurant.

The *Uetliberg ( $2865^{\prime}$ ), the northernmost point of the Albis range, is the finest point near Zürich. The view, though less grand than those from heights nearer the Alps, surpasses them in beauty. It embraces the Lake of Zürich and the valley of the Limmat; the Alps from the Sentis to the Jungfrau and the Stockhorn on the Lake of Thun, with the Rigi and Pilatus in the foreground; to the W. the Jura; to the N. the Feldberg and Belchen in the Black Forest, and the volcanic peaks of the Höhgau. Good panorama by Keller. - On the Uto-Kulm is a marble obelisk with a bust of the Zürich statesman Jakob Dubs (d. 1879).

Wale to the Uetliberg ( 2 hrs ). The road leads from the ParadePlatz (Pl. F, 3) viâ the Bleicher-Weg, the Beder-Strasse, and the UtoStrasse. After 1 M. we cross the Sihl, turn to the left viâ the GiesshübelStrasse, and reach ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{MI}$.) the Albisguitli (tavern; cab to this point $2-3 \mathrm{fr}$.). We now turn to the right and ascend by a well-trodden path, winding somewhat steeply up the valley, to the ( 1 hr .) Hotel Cto-Staffel (see above), on the brow of the hill, where a view of the Rigi, Pilatus, and the Bernese Alps is disclosed. To the summit 20 min . more.

From the Cetliberg to the Albis-Hochwacht, a beautiful walk of 3 hrs ., ascending and descending on the Albis range, and chiefly through wood. A few minutes' walk beyond the Hôtel Uto-Staffel (see above), at the fork, we follow the road to the right, which alternates with a footpath, keeping nearer the E. margin of the hill and affording beantiful views. Beyond Baltern (inn) we reach ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Felsenegg (restanant; view). To the left is the ravine of the Sihl, beyond it the blue lake with its thousand glittering dwellings, to the right the pretty Türler See, and farther off a fertile hilly tract, with the Alps rising in the distance. 1 hr . Nieder-Albis ( 2600 '; Hirsch; Windegg Restaurant); 20 min . AlbisHochwacht (2857'), with a pavilion and a splendid view of the Lake of Zug, the Rigi, Pilatus, etc. At ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a fork we may ascend to the right to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Albishorn ( $3010^{\prime}$ ), or descend to the left, through woods, to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the forester's house of Unter-Sihlooald (good quarters), on the Sihl, whence we may reach Zürich by the Sihlthal Line in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.

Sihlthal Railway from Zürich to Sihlbrugg, $131 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. in 52 min ., viâ Adiswoil, Langnau-Gattikon, and Sihloald. Near the station of Gontenbach ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. by rail) is the Langenberg, a park $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{M}$. in length, belonging to the town of Zürich and stocked with deer, chamois, etc. (restaurant). Sihlbrugg, and thence to $Z u g$, see p. $8 \overline{0}$.

The Lake of Zürich (1340'), 25 M . long, $2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{M}$. broad at its widest part, and $470^{\prime}$ deep, is fed by the Linth and drained by the Limmat. Its scenery, though without pretension to grandeur, is scarcely surpassed in charm by that of any other Swiss lake. The banks rise in gentle slopes; at their base are meadows and arable land; above these is a belt of vineyards and orchards; and on the E. side the hills, about $2500^{\prime}$ high, are wooded. Sprinkled for a long way with houses, villages, and manufactories, the banks may not unaptly be termed suburbs of Zürich. In the background rises the long chain of the snow-clad Alps (see p. 38).
a. N.E. Railway from Zürich to Meilen and Rapperswil (Right Bank). Central Railway Station, p. 35. The train curves to the N.E. (to the left the viaduct of the line to Winterthur, p. 52) and crosses the Limmat. 2 M . Zürich-Letten, with the pumping works for the Zürich water-supply (interesting to engineers; adm. free). The train ascends the right bank of the Limmat for a short time, beyond the Drahtschmidli passes under the Zürichberg by a tunnel ( 2288 yds .), and reaches ( $31 / 2$ M.) Zürich-Stadelhofen, in the square of that name (Pl.E, 5 ), near the Uto-Quai. The line then passes under the suburb of Neumünster by another tunnel (1463 yds.), and emerges at (5M.) The train passes through cuttings and a short tunnel, then runs high above the lake (views). - $101 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Herrliberg-Feldmeilen (Hôt. Raben), opposite Horgen (p. 47). $121 / 2$ M. Meilen (*Löwe, on the lake; Sonne; Rail. Restaurant; Bellevue), a large village ( 2860 inhab.) with an old church, at the base of the Pfannenstiel. At Obermeilen (Hirsch), $3 / 4$ M. to the E., lake-dwellings were first discovered in 1854.

The Pfannenstiel (Okenshöhe, 2418'), to which a good path ascends from Meilen in 1 hr ., affords a charming view of the lakes of Zürich and Greifen and of the Alps from Sentis to Pilatus (panorama by Keller). At the top a monument to L. Oken (d. 1851), the naturalist, and a refreshment-pavilion.

To the W., at Uetikon-am-See, is the Patriots' Monument, by A. Bösch, erected in 1898. The lake now attains its greatest width ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.). To the E., in the background, rises the Speer (p.49); to the left of it the Sentis, beyond which tower the Toggenburg Mts.; to the right, above the lake, the wooded Hohe Rhonen ( $4040^{\prime}$ ). Ofnau, the property of the abbey of Einsiedeln, contains a farm-house, and a church and chapel consecrated in 1141. Ulrich von Hutten, the Reformer, one of the boldest and most independent men of his time, sought refuge here when parsued by his enemies in 1523, and died a fortnight after his arrival, at the age of 36 . His remains repose in the little churchyard, but the exact spot is unknown.

The Parish Church, re-erected since a fire in 1881, contains valuable sacred vessels. At the foot of the Lindenhof on the lake are shady promenades, to which also steps descend from the Schloss and from the terrace in front. In 1878 the old wooden bridge connecting Rapperswil with ( 1 M. ) Hurden (Adler; Rössli) and Pfäffikon (p.47) was replaced by the Seedamm, a viaduct 1024 yds. long, with an iron swing-bridge $46^{\prime}$ long (railway from Rapperswil viâ Pfäffikon to Samstagern-Einsiedeln, see p. 47).

Beyond a tunnel the train descends, chiefly through wood. Near Jona (Schlüssel), a manufacturing village almost adjoining Rapperswil, we descry the Alps of Schwyz to the S., and farther on, the Mürtschenstock, Schäniser Berg, Speer, and Sentis on the left.

Beyond ( $391 / 2$ M.) Schänis ( 1450 ; * Hirsch; Löwe), another industrial place, the ancient frontier of Rhætia, we approach the Linth Canal, constructed in 1807-22 to connect the Lake of Zürich with the Walensee, and draining, in conjunction with the Escher Canal, a once dismal and swampy region. The canal runs parallel with the railway at the foot of the Schäniser Berg (5470'); to the right, a striking view of the Valley of Glarus with its snow-mountains.

On the opposite bank of the Linth Canal is the Linth-Colonie, originally a colony of poor people, now an agricultural institution. $421 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Ziegelbrücke (inn) is the junction of the Glarus line, which soon again diverges to the right (p. 72). The Weesen line rounds the Biberlikopf (see below), the extreme spur of the Schäniser Berg. Weesen (1410'), a favourite summer-resort, lies in a sheltered site at the W. end of the Walensee. A shady promenade skirts the lake, affording charming views. The Klosterberg yields good wine.

Excursions. Shady paths ascend to the ( 25 min .) Kapfenberg, which affords a charming survey. - Pleasant walk (from the station $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., or from stat. Ziegelbrücke 20 min.) to the top of the Biberlikopf ( $1^{\prime}{ }^{\prime} 5^{\prime}$ ); fine view of the Walensee and of the Linththal up to Netstal and down to the Bachberg. - A very attractive excursion may be made by boat across the lake to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the hamlet of Betlis, prettily situated beside the ruin of Strahlegg, at the foot of the Leistkamm. Fine view of Mühlehorn, the Mürtschenstock, etc. From Betlis we may walk to the ruined Seren-Mühle and the Falls of the Serenbach (p. 50), or we may ascend to ( 1 hr .) Amden.

A road (diligence from the rail. station twice daily in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; onehorse carr. 10 fr .), with fine views of the lake, but rather steep and destitute of shade, ascends from Weesen to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Amden ( $30 \varepsilon 0^{\prime} ;{ }^{}{ }^{}$ Hirsch $)$, loftily situated on sunny pastures. Beantiful view of the lake from the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ) Gyregarti. - From Amden to the Leistkamm ( $6905^{\prime}$ ), 4 hrs ., with guide ( 8 fr . ; Thoma of Amden), easy and interesting. - From Amden to Starkenbach or Stein in the Toggenburg (p. 63) over the Amdener Berg ( $5055^{\prime}$ ), 5 hrs . The *Speer ( $6415^{\prime}$ ), an admirable point of view, $4-41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide, 7 fr ., unnecessary). At the church of Weesen we turn to the left, and ascend

The *Walensee, or Lake of Walenstadt ( $1385^{\prime}$ ), $91 / 4$ M. long, $11 / 4$ M. wide, $495^{\prime}$ deep, is hardly inferior to the Lake of Lucerne in grandeur. The N. bank consists of precipices, 2000' to 3000' high, above which rise the barren peaks of the Curfirsten (Leistkamm $6905^{\prime}$, Selun $7245^{\prime}$, Frümsel $7440^{\prime}$, Brisi 7480', Zustoll 7345', Scheibenstoll '7342', and Hinterruck 75'75''). The hamlet of Quinten alone has found a site on the N. bank. On the S. bank also the rocks, pierced by nine tunnels, are very precipitous at places. At the mouths of the small torrents which descend from the Mürtschenstock ( $8012^{\prime}$ ) lie several villages. The 'Electra', a small electric launch, plies on the lake, if ten passengers are secured ( 80 c. per hour for each pers.).

Beyond Weesen we cross the Linth Canal (to the right the Glarus line, see R. 21), and, farther on, the Escher Canal (p. 72) near its influx into the Walensee, and pass through two tunnels with apertures in the side next the lake. Beyond them we see the Bayerbach waterfall on the opposite bank, and the village of Amden on the hill above; then the falls of the Serenbach, which sometimes dry up in summer. Three more tunnels, between which we obtain pleasant glimpses of the lake and the waterfalls opposite. - 50 M . Mühlehorn (Zur Mühle, Tellsplatte, both unpretending).

A fine new road (recommented to pedestrians) leads from Mühlehorn viâ ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Mühlethal, ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Tiefenwinkel (brewery), and ( 1 M .) Murg to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Unter-Terzen and ( 3 M .) Walenstadt ( p .51 ).

The road (diligence to Obstalden thrice daily in 1 hr ., fare 60 c .; one-horse carriage 5 , two-horse 8 fr.) ascends in wide curves (short-cuts for walkers) to Voglingen and (3 M.) Obstalden (2237'; ${ }^{*}$ Hirsch, with a shady garden, pens. $51 / 2-61 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; ${ }^{\text {a }}$ Stern, pens. 5-6 fr.), a charmingly situated summer-resort, affording a fine view of the Walensee. Thence viâ the Spannegg and the Platten-Alp to Glarus, see p. 74; from the Spannegg to the Mïrtschen-Alp and over the Murgsee-Furkel to the Murgseen, see p. 45. The Mürtschenstock (8012') may be ascended from Obstalden viầ the Meeren-Alp (4920) in 5 hrs . (toilsome and for thorough adepts only; guide, Jac. Heussi, 20 fr .). - Beyond Obstalden the road skirts the Sallerntobel. $11 / 4$ M. Filzbach (2335'; Höt. Mürtschenstock; Rössli, plain), a village also frequented as a summer-resort. From the Britterhöhe ( 2920 '), reached in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. by ascending to the left (finger-post), we enjoy an admirable view of the Walensee and the mountains of Toggenburg and Glarus; a more extensive view is obtained from the Neuenkamm ( $6253^{\prime}$ ), reached viâ Habergschwend in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide desirable). - The road ascends for a short distance, and then descends steadily. In 20 min . we reach a point (right), affording a good view of the head of the Walensee, the valley of the Linth Canal, bounded on the left by the Hirzli ( $5385^{\prime}$ ), and the Wiggis chain. Near ( 3 M .) Beglingen we get a glimpse of the Glänisch and the Tödi, and then descend in windings (avoided by short-cuts) to (1 M.) Mollis (p. 72).

Two more tunnels. To the left lies Quinten (see above), connected with Murg by a telephone-wire across the lake.

51 M. Murg (Schiffli, Rössli, both well spoken of, pens. from 4 fr.; Kreuz, Hirsch, all plain), charmingly situated at the mouth of the Murgthal, with a spinning-mill.

Walk along the road to Mühlehorn and Walenstadl, see p. ᄃ0. Pleasant footpaths lead to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Quarten, ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Obstalden, and other points. Fine views of the Walensee and Curbirsten.

A visit to the Murgthal, a valley 12 M . long, is recommended (gaide unnecessary). A good road ascends to the right from the spinning-mill to ( 20 min .) the mill-reservoir. Here we have a choice of paths, one, on the other side of the first bridge ( ${ }^{*}$ Waterfall), ascendiug between the Rössli and the factory-wall. At ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the second bridge the two paths unite. After a steep ascent of $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. on the left bank the path returns to the Murg and crosses it by a third bridge at the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) beginning of the Merlen-Alp (3640'). [To the right ascends the route to the MürtschenAlp (see beluw; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. farther up are the fills of the Sponbach, in a wild ravine).] The track then ascends on the right bank, through meadows and wood and past the Bachlaui and Mornen-Alps, to the ( $2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) three Murgseen ( 5490 ', 5955', and 5980'). From the highest lake the 'Roththor ( 8250 ') may be ascended in 2 hrs . Engi in the Sernfthal (p. 81); another (guide 17 fr .) leads over the Murgsee-Furkel ( $6570^{\prime}$ ) to the Mürtschen-Alp ( $6060^{\prime}$ ), and then past the Mürtschenstock and Fronalpstock to the Heuboden-Alp (p. 74 ) and ( 5 hrs .) Glarus. Or, from the Mürtschen-Alp we may proceed viâ the Spannegg (p. 74) to the Thalalp-See and to ( $41 / 2$ hrs.) Obstalden or Filzbach (p. 50).

We return by the Molveer-Alp (6065') and the saddle between the Manzkopf and the Breitmantel, which affords a fine view of the Mürtschenstnck and other peaks. "n reaching ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Munz-Alp ( $5833^{\prime}$ ) we descend either through the Kobeloold to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Quarten, or (steep) to the ( 1 hr .) Bachlaui-Alp in the Murgthal (see above).

On the steep rocks opposite are several waterfalls; to the right, the village of Mols (Thalhof, pens. from 4 fr .). Then a tunnel and a bridge across the Seez Canal.

56 M. Walenstadt (1407'; Hôtel-Pension Churfirsten, at the station, R., L., & A. 2-3, B. 1, D. 2, pens. 5-6 fr. ; *Hirsch, Krone Harmonie, Sonne) lies $1 / 2$ M. from the E. end of the lake, on which is the *Hôt.-Pens. Seehof.

St. Gallen $\left(2208^{\prime}\right)$, one of the highest of the larger towns of Europe, capital of the canton, and an episcopal see, is one of the chief industrial towns in Switzerland. Embroidered cotton goods are its staple product. Pop. 30,520.

From the station we go to the left through the Post-Strasse or the Bahnhof-Strasse to the Market-Place, the centre of the crowded Old Town. The busy Marktgasse then leads S. to the Prot. Church of St. Lawrence, rebuilt in the Gothic style in 1849-54, with a lofty tower. Adjacent is the N. entrance to the Klostrbriof ('Stiftseinfang'), containing the Bbnedictine Abbby, founded in the 7th cent. by St. Gallus, an Irish monk, rebuilt in the 18 th cent., and suppressed in 1805 , one of the most famous seats of learning in Europe from the 8 th to the 10 th century. The buildings now accommodate the Cantonal offices, the bishop's residence, and the celebrated Abbey.Library. The last (open on Mon., Wed., and Sat. 9-12 and 2-4, for strangers at other times also) contains 30,000 vols. ( 1558 incunabula) and many valuable MSS. (a psalter of Notker Labeo of the 10 th cent. and a Nibelungenlied of the 13 th cent.) ; of those mentioned in a catalogue of the year 823 about 400 still exist. The Abbey Church, rebuilt in $1755-65$ in the rococo style, contains finely carved choir-stalls and a beautiful iron choir-screen.

Behind the abbey flows the Steinach. - To the E., beyond the moat skirting this part of the old town, is the large Cantonal School House, containing the Town Library ('Bibliotheca Vadiana'; open Tues., Thurs., and Sat., 2-4; valuable MSS., chiefly of the Reformation period) and the collections of the Geographical & Commercial Society (open Sun. 10-12 & 1-3; Wed. and Sat.1-3). - Near it, in the Mu-seums-Str., by the Grosse Brühl, is the Museum. On the groundfloor are the Natural History Collections (open Sun. 10-12 and 1-3, Wed. and Frid. 1-3); on the first floor the Picture Gallery of the Kunstverein (open Sun. 10-12 & 1-3, Wed. 1-4; works by Koller, Diday, Makart, A. Feuerbach, Ritz, Schirmer, and others), and the collections of the Historical Society (open Sun., 10-12, and Wed. 1-4). Behind the museum is the Public Park, prettily laid out. -

In the Linden-Platz, outside the Rössli-Thor, is the *Broder Fountain, by A. Bösch, erected in 1893 to celebrate the completion of the aqueduct from the Lake of Constance.

The Industrial Museum, with a school of design, is in the VadianStrasse (open Sun. 10-12; on other days, except Mon., $9-12$ and $2-5$ ). - From the S . end of the town a cable-tramway ( 3 min .; fare 15 , down 10 c .) ascends through the gorge of the Steinach to the suburb of Mühlegg ( $2440^{\prime}$; restaurant). On the other side of the Steinach, $1 / 2$ M. to the E., are the open-air baths of Dreilinden ( $2540^{\prime}$ ), much frequented in summer.

From St. Gallen the line descends through a long cutting to ( $531 / 2$ M.) St. Fiden ( $2126^{\prime}$; Hôt. National), and enters the wild valley of the Steinach. Embankments and cuttings are traversed in rapid succession. Nearly the whole Lake of Constance is frequently visible, with Friedrichshafen on its N. bank. - Turning to the right, the line crosses the Goldach by a bridge of five arches near ( $561 / 2$ M.) Excursions. Above Rorschach rises the old abbey of Mariaberg, with handsome cloisters, now a school. The view from the Rorschacher Berg, the green orchard-like hill behind the town, embraces the whole lake, with the Vorarlberg Mits. and the Rhætikon chain. Its summit, the *Rossbühel ( $2925^{\prime}$; Inn, good wine), may be reached in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from Rorschach (boy to show the way desirable). The whole hillside is intersected by roads, which afford a great many pleasant walks. Good inns at ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Sulzberg and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Hohenrain. - The St. Anna Schloss ( 1335 '), since 1449 the property of the Abbots of St. Gallen, has been partly restored (restaurant); fine view from the upper rooms. The road, which is steep towards the end, takes about $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the station. The view from the Jägerhaus, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. farther up, is still more extensive (inn, good wine).

To the Martinstobel and Möttelischloss and back, 3 hours. By the St. Gallen railway to St. Fiden, see p. 56. Below the station we take the road to Neudorf (brewery on the left), descend the highroad, and diverge to the right by the Heiden road into the Martinstobel, the gorge of the Goldach (1860'), spanned by an iron bridge $100^{\circ}$ high. Here, at the beginning of the 10 th cent., the monk Notker composed his 'Media vita in morte sumus', upon seeing a man accidentally killed. Beyond the bridge we ascend the road to the left, passing the debris of a landslip which took place in 1845, to Untereggen ( $2080^{\prime}$; Schäfle), and thence descend the Goldach road as far as a road leading through a grassy dale past a large pond to the right to the Möttelischloss. This was formerly the seat of the Barons of Sulzberg, of whom it was purchased by the wealthy Mötteli family of St. Gallen, and after various vicissitudes it has now fallen into disrepair. . ${ }^{*}$ View from the platform on the top (gratuity), one of the finest near the lake. Lindau (pop. 5400), the terminus of the Bavarian S.W. Railway (express to Munich 5 hrs.), once an imperial town and fortress (1275-1803), and in the middle ages a busy commercial place, lies on an island in the Lake of Constance, connected with the mainland by a railway-embankment and by a wooden bridge, 356 yds. long. Lindau is said to have been the site of an ancient Roman fort, to which the venerable tower near the bridge perhaps belonged. On the quay is a monnment to King Max II. (d. 1864), in bronze, designed by Halbig. At the end of the S. pier, on a granite pedestal $33^{\prime}$ high, is placed an imposing lion in marble, $20^{\prime}$ in height, also by Halbig; opposite, on the N. pier, is a Lighthouse. The harbour is adjoined to the S. by the Alte Schanz, which commands a view of the Alps from the Scesaplana to the Sentis (moun-tain-indicator). In the Reichsplatz are the Town Hall, erected in 1422-36 and restored in 1885-87, with painted façades and a collection of antiquities (open 11-12, Sun. 2-5), and the handsome Reichsbrunnen, with a bronze figure of 'Lindania' and other allegorical figures, erected in 1884. At the Land-Thor, at the end of the wooden bridge, is an old Roman Tower. A viaduct at the N. end of the station leads to the W. across the railway to the walk round the island and to the men's baths. To the E. we may follow the Bahnhof-Str. to the Maximilian-Str., which contains the best shops.

Excursions. Lindenhof (or Villa Gruber), with its beautiful grounds and hot-houses (adm. on Frid. gratis; at other times $1 \mathscr{M}$, tickets at the Schachenbad; closed on Sun.). About $1 / 2$ M. farther on is the château of Alwind. - Beautiful view from the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) vine-clad *Hoierberg ( 1496 '), which is reached by a path skirting the railway and passing the village of Hoiren, or to the left viâ Enzisweiler ("Schmid's Restaurant) and Schachen (Zum Schlössle). The road from the Landthor leads viâ Aeschach (Schlatter). Two inns and a belvedere on the top. - To Bregenz, see p. 446.

17. The Canton of Appenzell.

The Canton of Appenzell cannot vie in grandeur with many other parts of Switzerland, but it includes within a small space most of the characteristics of the country. It boasts of one of Switzerland's largest lakes, of an almost southern vegetation, of great industrial prosperity, of the richest pastures, and even of lofty snow-mountains. The finest points are Heiden, St. Anthony's Chapel, Wildkirchli, Ebenalp, the Hohe Kasten, and the Sentis.

This canton, which is entirely surrounded by that of St. Gallen, was divided after the religious wars of 1597 into two half-cantons, AusserRhoden and Inner-Rhoden, and to this day party-feeling on religious questions is very strong. InNer-Rhoden, which consists of pasture-land and is 63 sq . M. in area, is almost exclusively Roman Catholic, and down to 1848 permitted no Protestants to settle within its limits; even Roman Catholics who were not natives of the canton were strictly excluded. This restriction was nominally rescinded by an article of the Federal constitution in 1848, but little change has practically taken place. Population 12,900, of whom about 700 only are Protestants. The inhabitants generally occupy scattered cottages and huts; they are, according to Merian (1650), 'a rough, hardy, homely, and pious folk'; their costume is picturesque and primitive, and cattle-breeding and cheese-making are their chief pursuits. - AusserRhoden ( 90 sq. M., 54,200 inhab., 3500 Rom. Cath.) belongs to the Reformed Church; one-fourth of its population is engaged in the cotton and silk manufacture, chiefly for firms at St. Gallen. Almost every house has its loom, the products of which often exhibit extraordinary taste and skill, and were objects of admiration at the London and Paris Industrial Exhibitions. Comp. 'Appenzell: Pure Democracy and Pastoral Life in Inner-Rhoden', by Irving B. Richman (1895).

Railway from Winkeln to Appenzell $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$; from St. Gallen to Gais $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; from Rorschach to Heiden 55 minutes. - Diligence from Rheineck to Heiden twice daily in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; from $A u$ to Heiden viâ Berneck. once daily in 3 hrs .; from Heiden viâ Trogen and Speicher to Teufen twice daily in $23 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.; from Altstätien to Gais daily in 2 hrs ; from Gais to Appenzell five times daily in 35 min .; from St. Gallen viâ Speicher to Trogen thrice daily in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. - Carriage from St. Gallen to Trogen 6 fr . (3- 4 pers. 10 fr .), to Appenzell 9 or 16, Weissbad 10 or $161 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; half-fare more for the return.

The Railway from Rorschach to Hbiden, $41 / 3$ M., is on the rack-and-pinion system (maximum gradient 1:11). The train starts from the harbour station (p. 56 ), stops at the outer station, where the toothed rail begins, and then ascends through orchards, affording charming glimpses of the lake. On the left, below, is the château of Wartegg, on the right, above, Wartensee. Near ( $21 / 2$ M.) stat. Wienacht-Tobel (2025 ${ }^{\prime}$ ) are large quarries of fossiliferous sandstone. We then skirt the deep Wienachter Tobel, obtaining to the left a beautiful view of the rich valley, with the mountains of the Bregenzer Wald beyond, and the mouth of the Rhine below. Beyond (3 M.) stat. Schwendi (2217') we cross the gorge by a lofty viaduct and ascendover pastures and through wood.

To the W.. below the Grub road (see below), the Krahenwald (pleasant grounds) ; N.W. ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Rossbühel above Grub ( $292 \mathrm{~J}^{\prime}$; see p. 57 ).

A road affording picturesque views leads from Heiden to the N.E. viâ Wolfhalden ( $2350^{\circ}$; Friedberg; Adler ; Pens. Blatter) to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Rheineck (p. 64; diligence twice daily in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.); another attractive road to the W. viâ Grub (2643'; Ochs; Löwe; Hirsch), a health resort, Eggersried, and the Martinstobel (p. 57) to (8 M.) St. Gallen (p. 55).

The *Chapel of St. Anthony ('St. Antönibild'; 3640 '), $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S. of Heiden, affords a famous view of the Rhine Valley (preferable to that from the Kaien), Bregenz, Lindau, part of the Lake of Constance, and the Vorarlberg and Appenzell Mits. One route to the chapel is by Oberegg ( $2900^{\prime}$; Bär, pens. $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{fr}$.) ; another, shorter, leads by the orphan-houses and the Bischofsberg (3095'; both routes denoted by blue marks). From the chapel to Altstätten (p.65) $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; to Landmark and the top of the Gäbris (p. 67) 2 hrs .

The Kaien, $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S.W. of Heiden, is also frequently ascended (guide, not indispensable, $11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). We follow the Trogen road for $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. and then diverge to the right beyond a small bridge (finger-post 'Steinli, Kaien') and ascend by a good, red-marked path to the ( $1-11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) \#Kaien. The view from the summit (highest point $3690^{\prime}$, signal $3612^{\prime}$ ) embraces a great part of the Lake of Constance and Canton Thurgau, the embouchures of the Rhine and the Bregenzer Ach, the Vorarlberg and Liechtenstein Mts., with the white chain of the Rhætikon and the Scesaplana above them to the S.E. To the S. it affords a characteristic glimpse of the Appenzell district: the Kamor and Hohe Kasten, the five peaks of the Furgglen-First and Kanzel, the double-peaked Altmann, the snow-fields of the Sentis, and the Tödi farther distant; in the foreground woods, meadows, and the thriving villages of Wald, Trogen, and Speicher; to the left above Trogen rises the Gäbris (see below); to the right, near Speicher, the Vögelisegg (see below); to the left, above Speicher, in the distance, the Pilatus and the Rigi. - The Kaien is $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from Speicher, and $2^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from St. Gallen. Trogen seems almost within a stone's-throw, though really 3 M . distant. The path descends to the right by the Gupf ( $3545^{\prime}$; inn) and Rehetobel ( $3140^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Hirsch), a village beyond which the road to Trogen is visible in the wooded ravine far below. Near the bridge, in the valley below, is a rustic tavern 'Am Goldach'.

The Gäbris (see below) may be ascended from Heiden direct (avoiding Trogen) : to St. Anthony's Chapel (p. 59) $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; then by a new road along the arête, with a charming survey of the Rhine Valley and the Sentis, to the Landmark (3265'; inn, comp. p. 65), on the road from Altstätten to Trogen, and the summit of the Gäbris, a beautiful walk of 2 hrs . About 8 min . below the summit the St . Anthony route is joined by that from Trogen (finger-post 'Gais, Trogen, Speicher').

The road to Trogen ( $61 / 2$ M.) ascends the E. slope of the Kaien (see above) to the ( $21 / 4$ M.) Langenegg ( $3185^{\prime}$; inn); then up and down hill, past Rehetobel (see above; lying beyond the ravine of the Goldach on the right), and ( $21 / 4$ M.) Wald ( $3150^{\prime}$; Schäfli; Krone; Harmonie, pens. 3-4 fr.), to (2 M.) -

Trogen (2975'; pop. 2578; *Krone; Schäfli; Hirsch; Rössli; Löwe), a prosperous village, pleasantly situated and visited as summer-resort.

Road over the Landmark to (7 M.) Altstätten, see p. 65. - From St. Gallen to Trogen ( 6 M .), diligence thrice daily in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; one-horse carr. 6-8, two-horse $10-12 \mathrm{fr}$. The road leads past the nunnery of Notkersegg and the inn of Kurzegg (p. 56), to the ( 4 MI .) "Vögelisegg (3155'; *Hôtel-Pension), which affords a fine view of the Lake of Constance, the populous and rich pasture-lands of Speicher and Trogen, and the Vorarlberg and Appenzell Mts. A point in front of the hotel commands a specially fine prospect of the Sentis. Descent to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Speicher (3070'; *Löwe; Krone; Schützen-Garten), and across the Bachtobel to (11/4M.) Trogen. - From Trogen to ( $43 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Teufen, diligence twice daily in 1 hr . Steamtramway from St.Gallen to Gais viâ Teufen, see p. 63.

From the charch at Trogen a road leads viâ ( $31 / 2$ M.) Bühler (p. 64) to ( $13 / 4$ M.) Gais, but the path over the *Gäbris (4100') is shorter and far more attractive.

The traveller coming from the Kaien follows the Trogen and Bühler road to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) top of the hill (3487'; view of the Sentis); a fingerpost here indicates the path to the left to Gais over the Gäbris. Those who come from Vögelisegg should not go on to Trogen, but quit the highroad beyond the Bachtobel (see above) by a flight of steps to the right. A small valley lies immediately on the right, and the path ascends gradually across meadows. After $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (from Speicher) this path reaches the road from Trogen to Bühler a few hundred paces from the finger-post. At the latter we take the path to the left, at the next finger-post to the right; beyond the tavern we pass through three gates, and proceed straight on (not to the right), ascending for a few min. by a bad path; then again by a good path, which slowly ascends to the ( 40 min .) \%Inn ( $4100^{\circ}$ ), whence a delightful prospect is enjoyed ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from Speicher). Hence to Gais a descent of $1 / 2$ hour. Walkers in the reverse direction find finger-posts at doubtful points. Numerous benches.

Gais (3075' ; pop. 2495 ; *Krone, R., L., & A. 2-3, pens. 7 fr. ; *Ochs, Adler, Hirsch, Gäbris, Hecht, plain; Hackerbräu, at the station), a trim-looking village, in the midst of green meadows, is the oldest of the Appenzell whey-resorts, having been in vogue since 1749. Fine view of the Sentis from the Curgarten, adjoining the 'Krone'.

Steam-tramway to St. Gallen, see pp. 63, 64. - The Road from Gais to Altstātten ( 6 M ., diligence daily in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., from Altstätten to Gais in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) is level for the first $11 / 2 \mathrm{Mr}$., and then descends uninterruptedly from the point where it diverges from the old road and winds round the mountain. The old road, preferable for pedestrians, leads to the left viâ the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Stoss ( $3130^{\prime}$; Pension Stoss), a chapel on the pass, with a celebrated view of the Rhine Valley, the Vorarlberg, and the Grisons. Here, on 17 th June, 1405,400 Appenzellers under Rudolf von Werdenberg signally defeated 3000 troops of the Archduke Frederick and the Abbot of St. Gallen. The shorter old road crosses the new immediately below the Stoss, and descends direct, partly through wood, to Altstätten (p.65).

A road traversing meadows leads from Gais to ( $31 / 2$ M.) Appenzell, while a shorter footpath to the Weissbad ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) diverges to the left halfway to Appenzell and crosses the Guggerloch (3084').

Appenzell ( 2560 '; pop. 4369 ; Hecht, ${ }^{}$ Löwe, *Hirsch, all moderate; Hoferbad; Schiff; beer at the Krone), the capital of Canton InnerRhoden, on the Sitter, a large village, chiefly of old wooden houses, contains two monasteries, and was formerly a country-seat of the Abbots of St. Gallen, Appenzell being a corruption of 'Abbatis Cella'. The Hospital, the Church, erected in 1826, and the Landes-Archiv, containing interesting charters, are worthy of note. Shady promenades on the Sitter. - Railway to Urnäsch and Winkeln, see p. 54.

A road leads from Appenzell (also a path from the station; omnibus to and from the station, five times daily, 70 c. ; carr. 4 , with pair 6 fr.) to the S.E., crossing the Sitter and passing the Hôtel Steinegg, to (2 M.) Weissbad ( $2685^{\prime}$ ), a summer and health resort (* Curhaus, R. \& A. 2-4, B. $11 / 4$, D. 3, S. 2 fr., cheaper for some stay; Weissbadbrücke and Gemse inns; also river-baths), pleasantly situated at the base of the Appenzell Mts., and a good centre for excursions.

Gordes: Huber, Jac. and Joh. Koster, Joh. Bapt. Rusch; to the Wildkirchli 5, Ebenalp 5, Sentis 10, over the Sentis to Wildhaus 20, Altmann 15, Hohe Kasten 6, over the latter into the Rhine Valley 10 fr . - Horse to Wildkirchli, Ebenalp, Seealp, or Ruhsitz 12 fr.

A favourite walk from the Weissbad is to the Wilderibchil, $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S . (guide, 5 fr ., unnecessary). Following the road to Brülisau (p. 63 ) for 100 paces, we ascend to the right; 8 min . a house, whence the bridle-track diverges to the left; the good footpath leads straight on through a gate, crossing the bridle-path at $(1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a double gate; we then cross the meadow, in the direction of the Ebenalp, to ( 40 min .) the depression between it and the wooded Bommen-Alp (to the left). We ascend in windings through wood to the right, and in 10 min . reach a way-post showing the direct path to the Ebenalp (to the right; see p. 62). The route to the Wildkirchli turns to the left and ( 10 min .) approaches the foot of the precipices which descend from the Ebenalp to the Seealp-Thal (see below). Near the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Zum Escher Inn ( $4790^{\prime} ;$ R. 11/2-2 fr.; *View) we ascend to the right by a narrow but safe path, skirting perpendicular rocks, to the ( 2 min .) *Wildkirchli $\left(4845^{\prime}\right)$, once a hermitage, with a chapel of St. Michael, situated in a grotto (33' wide; tavern). On the patron-saint's day (beginning of July) and on St. Michael's Day (29th Sept.) divine service is conducted here, and the grotto and the Ebenalp attract many visitors. View of the deep Seealp-Thal, and, to the left, of the Lake of Constance.

A cavern, 150 paces long, closed by a door (opened by the landlord, who provides a light, $1 / 2$ fr.), leads from the grotto to the *Ebenalp; the ( 25 min .) summit ( $5390^{\prime}$; Inn, 6 beds) commands a superb view of the Sentis, Altmann, Lake of Constance, etc. - We may descend direct to the ( 25 min .) saddle to the N. of the Bommen-Alp (p. 61; guide useful to the point where the path begins).

Pleasant walk from Weissbad viâ Schwendi and (50 min.) Wasserauen (see below), crossing the Schwendibach ( 4 min .), passing the Escherstein, and ascending a pretty wooded ravine to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Seealp-See ( $3735^{\prime} ;$ Inn), picturesquely situated in a basin between the Gloggeren and Alten-Alp (p. 63). From the Escher (see above) a steep path descends to the SeealpSee in 1 hr . From the Seealp-See to the Megglis-Alp (see below) 1 hr ., path recently improved (wire-rope at giddy points). The path joins that from the Weissbad, 20 min . from the Megglis-Alp. - To the Leuer Fall ( $3185^{\prime}$ ), $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathbf{~ h r}$., also interesting; the path ascends the Weissbach-Thal (way-post beyond the Weissbad), the last part through beautiful wood.

The snow-clad Sentis ( $8215^{\prime}$ ), the highest mountain in the canton, is often ascended from the Weissbad ( 6 hrs . guide 10 fr ., not indispensable for experts; one-horse carr. to Wasserauen 4 fr .). A road diverges to the right from the road to Brülisau beyond the ( 3 min .) bridge over the Schwendibach, and ascends on the right bank of the brook to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Schwendi $\left(2790^{\prime}\right.$; Inn Zur Felsenburg, on the left bank), and the ( 35 min .) Wasserauen Inn, where the road ends. The ascent now begins (Katzensteig), on the right side of a ravine with its rushing brook; 40 min . the Hütten-Alp ( $3940^{\prime}$; milk). The good though narrow path now skirts the Schrennen, the shelving pastures of the Gloggeren (below which are perpendicular rocks), affording beautiful glimpses of the Seealp-See far below, the Sentis and Altmann, and the Wildkirchli to the right. Then $\left(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}\right.$.) a refuge-hut, and ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Megglis-Alp ( $4985^{\prime}$; inn), in a picturesque basin. The path now ascends rather steeply on the slope of the Kühmaad, partly hewn in steps (the telegraphpoles, beginning 10 min . from the Megglis-Alp, may be followed). At the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Wagenlucke $\left(6785^{\prime}\right)$ the inn on the Sentis becomes visible. Passing some snow on the left, the path ascends, becomes steeper, and mounts in rocky steps (wire-rope) to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Inn (8087'; bed 3-5 fr., mattress in the garret $11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. ; food dear; often crowded, early arrival advisable). On the summit of the Sbntis, to which a path protected by a railing mounts in 5 min . more, is a meteorological station (adm. 30 c .). The ${ }^{}$. Viewt (see Heim's excellent Panorama) extends over N.E. and E. Switzerland, the Lake of Constance, Swabia and Bavaria, the Tyrolese Mts., the Grisons, and the Alps of Glarns and Bern. - The N. peak, separated from the S. by the 'Blaue Schnee' (not to be ascended without a guide; see below), is named the Girespitz ( $8040^{\prime}$ ).

From the Sentis we may descend, at first over snow, and then by a path, which is very steep at first, over the Schafboden (5660') and the F'lis-Alp ( $4930^{\prime}$ ) to ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.; in the reverse direction 6 hrs .) Wildhaus or Unterwasser in the Toggenburg (p. 68; guide desirable). - The usual Route from the Weissbad to Wildhaus ( $71 / 2-8 \mathrm{hrs}$.) leads by Brülisau and through the Brültobel to the Sämbtis-See (3965'), passcs the Fählen-See ( 4750 '; chalets), and ascends to the Zwingli Pass ( $6630^{\prime}$ ), between the Altmann (see below) on the right, and the Eraialptirst ( $69: 0^{\prime}$ ) on the left. We descend by the Krai-Alp ( 5933 '), and the Tesel-Alp ( $4575^{\prime}$ ) to Wildhaus. This ronte, however, is rough, and the Sentis route (not much longer) is preferable.

Mountaineers may combine a visit to the Wildkirchli ( p .62 ) with the ascent of the Sentis ( $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide necessary, 15 fr .) by leaving the valley of the Seealp-See to the left. The path leads high above the SeealpSee and at the base of the Zänsler and Schäfler, viâ the Alten-Alp and the Oehrli, to the Muschelenberg (numerous fossils); hence either to the left across the valley to the Wagenlucke ( $6785^{\prime}$ ) by the path which ascends from the Megglis-Alp (p. 62), or (1 hr. shorter) across the Blaue Schnee (caution on account of the crevasses), past the base of the Girespitz, and over the Platten direct to the summit. - A path, constructed by the S. A. C., ascends to the summit on the W. side also ( 6 hrs ., with guide). It starts from the Gemeinen-Wesen $A l p$ ( $4210^{\prime}$; reached from Urnäsch or Nesslau in 2 hrs., see p. 68), ascends over stony slopes, and mounts a steep rocky slope in zigzags to the first mountain-terrace. The ascent is then more gradual, over rock and pasture, to the Fliesbordkamm and the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Club Hut on the Thievvies (6835'). We next traverse rocks and debris on the Graukopf ( $7255^{\prime}$ ), and ascend in zigzags to the arête between the Girespitz and the Sentis. Lastly we mount the Platten by a flight of steps 140 yds . long, protected by a wire-railing, and reach the ( $1 \mathrm{I} / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) summit.

The Altmann ( $8000^{\prime} ; 7 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide; toilsome), is ascended from the Weissbad viâ the Fäh len-Alp and Zwingli Pass (see above); descent through the Löchlibetter to the Megglis-Alp (p. 62).

From Weissbad to the Rhine Valley. The direct route by the Hohe Kasten ( $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) leads to the S.E. through ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Brülisau ( 3030 ; Krone, rustic) ; passing the church, we follow the path, beyond the second house to the right, which ascends in the direction of the telegraph-wire to ( 1 hr .) the Inn 'Ruhsitz' ( 4445 '), at the S.W. base of the Kamor ( 5215 '). From the inn a steep but good path ascends to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the summit of the Hohe Kasten (5900'; ${ }^{}$ Inn), which slopes precipitously on the E. towards the Rhine Valley. Splendid view of the Sentis group, with its three spurs on the N.E., which is nowhere seen to such advantage; in the other direction we see the Rhine Valley, stretching as far as the Lake of Constance, and the Alps of the Vorarlberg and Grisons. We may now descend by a steep and stony path to ( $3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ) stat. Sennvoald-Saletz (p. 63). It diverges from the Weissbad path to the left, just below the saddle between the Kamor and Hohe Kasten, skirts the W. and S. slopes of the latter, and descends in zigzags (no possibility of mistake; several finger-posts lower down). Traversing wood for the last hour, we at length reach the village of Sennwald and the station.

Railway from Appenzell to Winkeln, viâ Urnäsch and Herisau, see p. 54. - It is preferable to drive by Gais and Teufen to St. Gallen (to Gais, $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., diligence five times daily in 1 hr .; thence to St. Gallen, $81 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., steam-tramway in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). To ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Gais, see p. 61. Thence the Steam Tramway (rack-and-pinion at places; pretty route) descends by Zweibrücken, where the road to Appenzell diverges to the left (p. 61), along the Rothbach to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the prettily situated village of Bühler ( $2735^{\prime}$; *Rössli, etc.), and beyond the Rose and Linde inns (pens. 4-5 fr.) ascends to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Teufen ( 2750 '; pop. 4629 ; *Hecht), an industrial village, pictnresquely situated, with a fine view of the Sentis chain. [About $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. farther up is the Bad Sonder (3020'), a frequented hydropathic.] It then skirts the W. slope of the Teuferegg, through meadows and wood, passing the stations of Sternen, Niederteufen, Lustmühle, and Riethäusle, and descends in sharp curves to $(81 / 2$ M.) St. Gallen (p. 55$)$.

The Footpath from Teufen to St. Gallen ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) leaves the highroad near the 'Hecht' inn, and ascends to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Schäfe's Egg ( 3185 '; inn ); it then descends to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) St. Georgen, $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from St. Gallen. To the W. of the Schäfle's Egg is ( 10 min. ) the Frölichsegg ( $3290^{\circ}$; ${ }^{}$ Inn), with an admirable view: Teufen in the foreground, the Appenzell Mts., beginning with the Fähnern, to the left, the Kamor, the Hohe Kasten about the middle of the chain, the green Ebenalp below the snow; more to the right, the Altmann and the Sentis with its snow-fields; in the distance, the Glärnisch and Speer; to the W., the railway and road to Wyl; to the N., part of the Lake of Constance. To St. Gallen, 1 hr .

From Rheneck to Walzenhatsen ( 3 M .) cable-railway in 14 min . ( 60 c ., descent 40 c .). The station is at the N. end of the town, above the Rhine bridge, to the right. The line runs through a tunnel 300 yds . long, and then ascends rapidly ( $17-26: 100$ ) on the open hillside, crossing the Ruderbach several times by means of lofty iron bridges. Lastly another tunnel, at the upper end of which is the station of Walzenhausen (2220'; "H8t.-Pens. Rheinburg, by the church, with view-terrace, pens. 6-S1/2 fr.; Hôt.-Pens. Koch; Höt. Bahnhof), a large village and health-resort, pleasantly situated and commanding beautiful views. The Rosenberg ( $2560^{\prime} ;$ $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) and the Gebhardshöhe (white way-marks; $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) may be visited if time permits. - A good road runs from the church along the hillside, affording charming views of the Rhine valley and traversing woods, to the ( 1 M. ) Convent of Grimmenstein ( $2185^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Löwe). Engineers will be interested in the works begun by the Swiss and Austrian governments in 1893 for the Regulation of the Rhine, designed to cut off the windings of the river, control its vagaries, and conduct it straight into the Lake of Constance. The two chief cuttings in progress are the Fussach Cutting, about 3 M . long, beginning at the village of Brugg, on the Bruggerhorn, $11 / 4$ M. to the E. of Et. Margrethen, which is to receive the waters of the Dornbirner. Ach, and to enter the lake at Fussach; and the Diepoldsau Cutting, about 4 M. long, destined to cut off the large peninsula of Diepoldsau, between Kriesseren and Widnau, 4 M. to the N. of St. Margrethen. This great undertaking is expected to occupy fourteen years, and the cost to the Swiss government alone is estimated at 8,636,500 fr.

The Rhine Valley, formerly called the Upper Rheingau, was, like Ticino and Thurgau, governed down to 1798 by bailiffs. Part of its floor is marshy and exposed to inundation. Maize abounds. The train skirts hills covered with vineyards and orchards, and from Heldsberg to Monstein runs between the river and abrupt rocks. 91/2 M. Au (1338'; *Schiff, good wine ; Rössli; Rail. Restaurant), prettily situated at the foot of the Meldegg (p.64). To the left, the snow-clad Scesaplana; farther off, the Drei Schwestern (p. 66); to the right, the Hohe Kasten with its inn (p. 63).

Railway to Feldkirch, see p. 446; custom-house examination at Buchs for travellers to or from Austria. - On a height, on the opposite bank of the Rhine, lies Vaduz ( $1525^{\prime}$; Engel; ${ }^{*}$ Löwe), with the white château of Liechtenstein on a lofty rock, the capital of the principality of Liechtenstein, at the foot of the Drei Schuestern ( $6965^{\prime}$ ), which may be ascended from the Alp Gafei ( $4920^{\prime}$; new *Hotel), 3 hrs. above Vaduz, by an excellent and highly interesting rock-path in 2 hrs ., with guide.

Beyond ( $34^{1} / 2$ M.) Sevĕlen (*Traube, plain) rises the ruined chàteau of Wartau ( $2185^{\prime}$ ). On a hill to the left, beyond the Rhine, near Balzers, is the ruin of Guttenberg, where the ascent of the Luziensteig begins (see below). Beyond (39 M.) Trübbach (1585'; Löwe) the road and the railway are hewn through the rocks of the Schollberg. By the roadside, a large quarry of black marble.

The "Alvier (7753'), ascended from Buchs, Sevelen, or Trübbach in $5-51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ., see p. 52. From Trübbach by Atzmoos, Malans, and past the ruin of Wartau, to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Oberschan and ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the top; descent 3 hrs . The Gonzen ( $6015^{\prime}$ ), from Trübbach in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., with gaide, is easy and interesting (comp. p. 52).

To the right, near Vilters, is the Lower Sar Fall, fine after rain.

45 M. Ragatz, p. 68. To the right, the ruin of Freudenberg (p. 70); then, to the left, the pension and ruin of Wartenstein (p. 71). Below the influx of the Tamina we cross the Rhine by a wooden bridge, 167 yds . in length.

Buhnhof, at the station, R. $11 / 2^{-21 / 2}$, pens. $4^{1} / 2^{-5} 1 / 2$ fr.; Hirsch; Rössli, near the church, good wine) is an old and thriving little town. The tower (fine view) is said to have been erected in the 4th cent. by the Roman Emperor Constantius.

At Boval ( $2185^{\circ}$ ), $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the N.E., is the Pension Annahof, commanding a good view.

The St. Luziensteig ( $2230^{\prime}$; inn, good wine), a fortified defile between the Fläscherberg ( $3730^{\prime}$ ) and the Falknis, through which the road to Vaduz and Feldkirch leads, is 2 M . from Maienfeld and is frequently visited from Ragatz. Fine view from the highest block-house (now destroyed), on the top of the Fläscherberg, $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. farther to the W., and also on the return. The *Falknis ( $8420^{\prime}$ ), ascended from the St. Luziensteig through the Glecktobel and by the Sarina-Alp or Fläscher-Alp ( 6 hrs.; guide 15 fr .), is fatiguing but interesting; better from Maienfeld (guides, Fortunat and Joh. Peter Enderlin, Jacob Just) by the path made by Furt. Enderlin, viâ Bargün and the Fläscher Fürkli.

On the vine-clad slopes to the left lie the villages of Jenins (above it, the ruins of Wyneck and Aspermont) and Malans (p. 371). The train crosses the Landquart, near its influx into the Rhine. 491/2 M. Landquart (1730'; Rail. Restaurant ; Hôt. At the foot of the last lies the village of that name, with a dilapidated châtean belonging to Count Salis (interesting wooden ceiling; old tile-stoves).

57 M. Coire, see p. 366.
Besides the direct railway a narrow-gauge line, constructed in 1896 by the Rhetian Railway Co. to connect the lines from Davos to Landquart (p. 371) and from Coire to Thusis (p. 381), runs from Landquart to Coire ( $83 / 4$ M., in $25-32 \mathrm{~min}$.). Wyl, on the Winterthur and St. Gallen line, p. 54. The train traverses the Toggenburg, the busy and populous valley of the Thur.

The ancient county of Toggenburg was purchased in 1469 by the Abbots of St. Gallen. The people having afterwards embraced Protestantism, they were persecuted by the abbots. This gave rise early in the 18th cent. to the Toggenburg War, in which the Roman Catholic cantons espoused the cause of St. Gallen, while the Protestants took the part of the Toggenburgers. In 1712 the Catholics were defeated at Villmergen in the Aargau'; and a general peace secured to the Toggenburgers full enjoyment of their ancient liberties.
$41 / 2$ M. Batzenheid; opposite is Jonswyl, with a new church. Opposite ( 6 M .) Lütisburg we cross the Guggerloch by a viaduct 170 yds. long, and $190^{\prime}$ high. 8 M. Bütschwyl; $91 / 2$ M. Dietfurt.

101/2 M. Lichtensteig (pop. 1529; *Krone), a pleasant little town on a rocky height, with a modern Gothic church. On a hill to the E. ( $1 \frac{1}{4} \mathrm{hr}$.) is the ruin of Neu-Toggenburg ( $3565^{\prime}$ ), a fine point of view.
$12 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Wattwyl (2027' ; pop. 5260; Ross; Toggenburg), a charming village, with a new church. On a hill to the right is the nunnery of St. Maria der Engeln, and above it the ruin of Yberg.
$151 / 2$ M. Ebnat-Kappel is the last station. The village of Ebnat (2106'; *Krone; *Adler; Rosenbühl, a restaurant with view) is a thriving place ; 1 M. to the N.W. is Kappel (Traube ; Stern).

The ${ }^{\text {*Speer }}\left(6415^{\prime}\right)$ is ascended through the Steinthal in 5 hrs . (rather trying near the top; guide advisable, comp. p. 49); or from Neu-St-Johann or Nesslau ( p .68 ), by the $A l p \mathrm{im}$ Laad and the Herren-Alp in 5 hrs . (guide 7 fr .).

The Road ascends on the right bank of the Thur viâ Krummenau ( 2385 '), where the 'Sprung', a natural rock-bridge, crosses the stream, to Neu-St-Johann (Schäfle), with an old abbey, and ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Nesslau ( $2470^{\prime}$; *Traube; Stern; Krone), with a pretty church.

To Ubnāsch over the Krázern Pass ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), interesting. A road from Neu-St-Johann ascends the Lauter-Thal, by Ennetbühl and the Rietbad ( $2800^{\prime}$; R. $11 / 2$, B. 1, D. 2 , pens. $5-6$ fr.), to the ( $(1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Bernhalden ( $3402^{\prime}$ ). Then a path through the Kräzernwald to the Krazern Pass (3936'), and across the pastures of Kräzern to the (2 hrs.) Bernhalden (see above) in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the Alp Gemeinen-Wesen ( $4210^{\prime}$ ); thence to the Thierwies Club Hut and (4 hrs.) the top (p. 63).

The scenery becomes more interesting. The road leads past a fine fall of the Weisse Thur to ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Stein ( $2755^{\prime} ;$ Krone) and ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Starkenbach (Drei Eidgenossen), a straggling village. To the right is the ruin of Starkenstein. (Over the Amdener Berg to Weesen, see p. 50 ; guide to the pass advisable.) Passing ( $11 / 2$ M.) Alt-St-Johann ( 2930 '; Rössli) and ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Unterwasser (Stern; Traube), prettily situated at the sources of the Thur, we ascend to $(33 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -

Wildhaus (3600' * Hirsch, pens. 5 fr.; Sonne; Tell). A little before the village, on the right, is the wooden house, blackened with age, in which Zwingli (p. 73) was born in 1484. Beyond the village we obtain a survey of the seven Curfirsten (p. 50); still better from the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Sommerigkopf ( $4317^{\prime}$ ).

Ascent of the Sentis from Wildhaus or Alt-St-Johann (viâ the FlisAlp and the Schafboden in $6 \mathrm{hrs} .$, with guide; toilsome), see p. 63. - To Weissbad by the Kraialp, the Fählensee, and Sämbtis-See ( 7 hrs .), see p. 63 . - To Walenstadt over the Käservuck, 6 hrs., see p. 5 '2.

The road descends past the ruin of Wildenburg through the wooded Simmi-Tobel, finally describing a long bend (short-cut for walkers to the right), to ( 6 M .) Gams ( $1575^{\prime}$; Kreuz), in the Rhine Valley, and then leads straight to (11/2 M.) Haag (p. 65), while a road to the right leads viâ Grabs and Werdenberg to $\left(3 \frac{1}{2}\right.$ M.) Buchs (p. 65).

RAGAZ

In the Cur-Garten is? the Zander Institute (Dr. F. Bally), for 'Swedish gymnastics', the electrotherapic treatment, and massage. Adjacent is a new Hydropathic.

Visitors' Tax 3 fr. per week for each person. Music in the morning, afternoon, and evening, alternately in the Cur-Garten (or Carsaal), the Badhalle at the Dorfbad, or in the Hof Ragatz.

English Church Service in summer.
Ragatz (1710'; pop. 1932), prettily situated on the boisterous Tamina, which falls into the Rhine lower down (see p. 66), is a famous watering-place and one of the most frequented resorts in Switzerland ( 50,000 visitors annually). The chief rallying-points are the Cursaal, with the Cur-Garten, and the Baths (see p. 69), which receive the mineral water from Pfäfers by a conduit, $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long. Music, see p. 69. The open colonnade on the E. side of the Cursaal affords a fine survey of the Rhine Valley.

In the Cemetery is the monument of the philosopher Schelling (d. at Ragatz in 1854), with his bust. - By the last houses (1 M.) on the Sargans road a path ascends to the left through vineyards to ( $1 / 2$ M.) the ruined castle of Freudenberg ( $915^{\prime}$ ), with a fine view of the Rhine Valley. We return by a road on the hillside, between houses and gardens.
*Bad Pfafers or Pfävers (1 hr.) is one of the most curious spots in Switzerland. It lies in the narrow gorge of the Tamina, a glaciertorrent, on the brink of which the good but narrow road (walking recommended) gradually ascends through wood, flanked by sombre limestone cliffs, 500 to $800^{\prime}$ high. Near the ( $1 \frac{1}{2}$ M.) Schwattenfall Restaurant a footpath leads to the left across the Tamina to Valurgut and the road from Ragatz to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Wartenstein (see p. 71). Farther on ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.), just before the road passes through a rocky gateway, is another path (shady and picturesque, but steep), leading to $(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the village of Pfäfers ( p .71 ). Both these paths are muddy in wet weather.

The Pfäfers Bathing Establishment (2240'), in a shady spot at the mouth of the ravine in which the springs rise, enjoys the most bracing air and is admirably adapted for patients in search of rest and quiet (pens. $7-8 \frac{1}{2}$, second-class $5-6 \mathrm{fr}$.). The charge for private baths is 1 fr ., for public baths 50 c . Temperature of the water $97^{\circ}$ Fahr. Electrical and massage treatment (Dr. Kündig). Band thrice a week in the afternoon and evening. The season lasts from June 1st to Sept. 15 th.

The clear and copious hot springs $\left(99-102^{\circ}\right)$, free from taste and smell, are slightly impregnated with carbonate of lime, chloride of sodium, and magnesia, resembling those of Gastein and Wildbad They rise about $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. above the bath-house in the narrow and.gloomy *Tamina Gorge ( $30-50^{\prime}$ wide). Tickets for the gorge and the springs ( 1 fr .; umbrellas advisable, on hire for 20 c .) are sold in the chief corridor of the bath-house, to the right. The pathway to the springs, resting on the rock or on masonry, $30-40^{\prime}$ above the torrent, passes under the 'Beschluss' (p. 71). In 6 min . we reach a small terrace, on the E . side of which the attendant opens a door. Laying aside hat and overcoat, we enter a narrow shaft, filled with vapour, and after 40 paces expanding to a cavern, where the spring rises in a cavity, $10^{\prime}$ deep, protected by a parapet (about 750 gallons per minute). - From the Ragatz station to the springs and back, 3 hrs. on foot, or 2 hrs . by carriage (p. 69).

From the Baths to the Village of Pfafers ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). The path ascends in windings on the left bank of the Tamina; after $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., by a finger-post, where the path to the right leads to Valens (p. 71; 10 min . from the Bad is the 'Calanda-Schau'), we descend to the left and ( 5 min.) cross the Tamina by a natural bridge, called the 'Beschluss', 230 ' above the springs. We now ascend a steep path on the right bank, cut in steps, and slippery in wet weather, to a ( 20 min .) meadow; then either ascend (finger-post) to ( 10 min .) an auberge on the road leading to the right to Vättis (p. 72) and to the left to the village of Pfäfers; or (preferable) ascend by the footpath to the left, through meadows and wood, to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) road, $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the village of Pfäfers.

A Cable Tramitay ascends from behind the Hôtel Hof Ragatz in 10 min . (gradient $27: 100$; 2nd cl. 1.fr., 3rd cl. $60 \mathrm{c} . ;$ returnticket $1 \mathrm{fr} .30,80 \mathrm{c}$.) to the *Hôtel-Pension Wartenstein ( $2463^{\prime}$; K., L., \& A. $21 / 2-4 \frac{1}{2}$, B. $11 / 4$, D. 3, board 5 fr.), a health-resort with a garden, affording a splendid view of the Rhine Valley as far as the Curfirsten to the N.W. (p. 50). Below are the ruin of Wartenstein and the Chapel of St. George. - The Village of Pfäfers (2696'; Adler; Löwe; Taube, well spoken of) lies $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther up, on the top of the hill (road from Ragatz, 21/2 M.). The once powerful Benedictine Abbey of Pfäfers was converted into a lunatic asylum (St. Pirminsberg) in 1838. The Tabor ( $2765^{\prime}$ ), a hill $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N. of the abbey, also affords a fine view.

Excersions from Ragatz. (Guides: Ernst Hofstetter, of Ragatz; Joh. and Gust. Rupp, of Valens; Dav. Kohler, father and son, and Jos. Sprecher, of Vättis.) The nearer excur-ions are all provided with sign-posts. - The Guschenkopf ( $2463^{\prime}$ ), a wooded hill to the W . of Ragatz, may be reached in 40 min., either by a path on the S . side, or by one on the W . side (diverging to the left from the road to Freudenberg, before the 'Felsenkeller'). Fine view of Ragatz, the Rhine Valley, the Appenzell and Prätigau Mts., the Graue Hörner, and the Calanda. - To Mraienfeld ( $11 / 2$ M.; by the new Rhine bridge), see p. 66; St. Luziensteig (direct path by the railway-bridge 3 M., road viâ Maienfeld $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.), see p. 66. - The Prätigau (Seewis, Valzeina, etc.). see R. ${ }^{2} 0$.
${ }^{\text {ePr Pizalun ( }} 4860$ '; 3 hrs .; guide, advisable for novices, 6 fr .), a splendid point of view. From ( 25 min .) Dorf Pfäfers partly through wood viâ Molinäris and Furggels to the pastures of ( 1 hr .) St. Margretenberg ( $4130^{\prime}$ ), thence to the Sennhaus St. Margreten $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., then to the left, and lastly by steps in the rock to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) top.

To Valens ( $3018^{\prime}$; Zum Frohsinn) from Bad Pfäfers, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (to the right at the finger-post mentioned at p. 70). On leaving the wood, the point of view called the Calanda-Schau affirds a striking view of the Tamina Valley, with the Calanda in the background to the left, and the Monteluna and the Graue Hörner to the right. Below the charch a path crosses the deep Mühletobel to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Vasön ( $301 \mathrm{I}^{\prime}$ ), amid sunny pastures, and the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) road to Vättis (see p. 72). - Ascent of the $=$ Vasanenkopf ( $6675^{\prime}$ ), from Valens, easy ( 4 hrs.; guide 8 fr .). Across pastures to the Lasa-Alp ( $6145^{\prime}$; club-hut) 3 hrs .; thence to the right to the top $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (wide view; still finer from the Schlöss likopf, $729 \overline{5}^{\prime}, 1 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Lasa-Alp, guide 9 fr.). Rich flora. ${ }^{}$ Monteluna ( $7955^{5}$ '), 4 hrs . from Valens by Vasön and the Alp Vindels (5410'), also easy and interesting (guide 12 fr .). - The ascent of ${ }^{ P i z}$ Sol or Pizol ( $9345^{\prime}$ ), the highest of the Graue Hörner, is grand and interesting, bat trying ( 7 hrs . ; guide 17 fr .). From ( 3 hrs .) the Lasa Alp (see above) we ascend to the ( 2 hrs .) Wildsee ( 7990 ), beyond which we clamber over rocks and snow to ( 2 hrs .) the summit. The magnificent view includes the Appenzell, Vorarlberg, and W. Tyrole e Alps, the Rhætikon, the Grisons Alps with the Siivretta and Bernina groups, the Glarns, Uri, Unterwalden, and E. Bernese Alps, and the valley of the Rhine. We may descend vià the Zanay Alp to ( $3 \mathrm{hrs}$. .) Valens (see above), or vià the Alp Lavtina to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Weisstannen (p. 52) and (2 hrs.) Mels.

From Ragatz to Reichenau over the Kunkels Pass ( $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$ ). To (10 M.) The road leads from the village of Pfäfers on the right side of the deep Tamina Valley, of which picturesque glimpses are obtained. After $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. the path to the Baths of Pfäfers diverges to the right (p. 71); farther on the road passes the hamlets of Ragol (opposite Valens) and Vadura (opposite Vasön, at the foot of the Monteluna, see p. 71), and skirts the precipitous slopes of the Calanda. The valley expands near ( 10 M .) Vättis ( $3120^{\prime}$; *Curhaus Vättis; *Hôt.-Pens. Calanda; *Tamina, plain, pens. 3-4 fr.; Zur. Levche), a large village and summerresort near the mouth of the Calfeisen-Thal (p. 52), from which the Tamina issnes. (Viâ the Sardona Pass or the Muttenthaler Grat to Elm, see p. 81; viâ the Heidel Pass to Weisstannen, see p. 52.) The road ends here. The bridle-path (which is practicable for vehicles to the top of the pass) quits the Tamina, crosses the Görbs three times, and ascends, generally on the E. side of the valley. The chalets of the upper valley are collectively called Kunkels. On reaching the ( 2 hrs .) Kunkels or Foppa Pass (4433'), we leave the conduit to the right and enter the defile of La Foppa. (About 5 min . to the right of the path a superb view of the Rhine Valley may be obtained.) Then a steep and stony descent to Tamins and ( $1^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Reichenau (p. 381). - The Ringelspitz or Piz Bargias (10,665') may be ascended from Vättis viâ Kunkels, the Hinteralp, and the Tamins Glacier in about 8 hrs . (difficult, for experts only; guide 30 , with descent to Flims or Elm 40 fr .).

From Vättis to Flims over the Trinser Furka, $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 25 fr .), trying but remunerative. We ascend to the W. through the Cal-feisen-Thal to St. Martin and ( 4 hrs .) the grandly situated Sardona Alp ( $5735^{\prime}$ ), whence a steep path leads upwards to the S.W. to the ( 2 hrs .) Trinser Furka (8165'), to the N.E. of the Trinser Horn (935'). We then descend to the Trinser Alp and round the E. side of the Flimserstein. viâ the Alps of Bargis and Fidaz, to ( 3 hrs .) Flims (p. 334). - At the head of the valley, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Sardona Alp, is the Sardona Club Hut ( $7350^{\prime}$; inn in summer), whence experts may climb the Saurenstock (Piz Sardona, $10,020^{\prime} ; 2 \frac{1}{2}-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.; quide 23 fr .), the Grosse $S^{2} h$ eibe $\left(9586^{\prime} ; 2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}\right.$.; guide 20 fr .), Piz Segnes (10,1i5'; 3 hrs .; guide 25 fr .), Trinser Horn or Piz Dolf ( $99355^{\prime} ; 31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 22 fr .), and other peaks. place, stand eleven memorial stones (monument in the Sändlen). The peasants of the district make a pilgrimage to the spot on the first Thurs. in April. - On the right bank of the Escher Canal lies Mollis (1470'; Bär, Löwe, moderate; *Pens. Haltli), an industrial village. (Over the Kerenzenberg to Mühlehorn, see p. 50.)

Excursions (guide, M. Hauser). The Rautispitz (7493'), the summit of the Wiggis Chain, is ascended from Näfels in $5-51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (interesting; no difficulty; guide 10 fr .). On the right bank of the Rautibach, with its numerous falls, we ascend in zigzags, crossing the Tränkibach, to ( 1 hr .) Brand ( $2510^{\prime}$ ). Hence a road leads through wood and past the Haslen-See ( $2460^{\prime}$ ) to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) small Curhaus Oberseethal ( $3115^{\prime}$; pens. $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.) and to the ( 2.3 min.) charming Obersee ( $3225^{\prime}$ ). We skirt this lake to the left, and ascend through wood to the Grappli-Alp (4730') and (2 hrs.) Rauti-Alp ( $5400^{\prime}$; shelter-hut), and in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more to the top, which slopes gradually on the W. side (beautiful view). - A rocky arête 1 hr . long, traversed by a dizzy path, connects the Rantispitz with the Scheye (7420'), the second peak of the Wiggis. The Scheye is also ascended from Voraueu (p. 80) by the Langenegg-Alp ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), or from the Klönthaler See (p. 80) by the Herberig and the Deyen-Alp ( 4 hrs .), or from Netstal by the AuernAlp ( $5 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 10 fr .). - The attractive route from the Obersee to ( $41 / 2$ hrs.) Vorauen (p. 80) viâ the Lachen-Alp ( 5120 ') and the Längenegg-Alp ( $5257^{\prime}$ ) affords a picturesque view of the Glärnisch and other peaks.

41 M. Netstal (1485' ; pop. 2326; St. Fridolin; Bär; Schwert), a large village, lies at the E. base of the Wiggis (see above). The Löntsch (p. 80) falls into the Linth here (road to the Klönthal, see p .80 ).

43 M. Glarus. - "Glarner Hof, at the station, R., L., & A. 21⁄2-5, B. $11 / 2$, D. 3 fr.; *Drei Eidgenossen. R., L., & A. 2, B. 1 fr. ; Löwe; Sonne; Schwetzerhof; Hôtel Bahnhof. - Beer at the Sonne and the Hôtel Bahnhof. - Summer Restaur ant on the Bergli (1883'), 20 min . to the W. of the town, an admirable point of view (adm. 20 c . for those who do not order refreshments).

Glarus (1490' ; pop. 6045), Fr. Glaris, the capital of the canton, with busy industries, lies at the N.E. base of the precipitous and imposing Vorder-Glärnisch (7648'), at the W. base of the Schild ( $7500^{\prime}$ ), and at the S.E. base of the Wiggis (see above), the barren, grey summits of which form a striking contrast to the fresh green on their slopes. The Kärpfstoclc ( $9180^{\prime}$ ) forms the background to the S. ; to the right, the Hausstock $\left(10,340^{\prime}\right)$, to the left, the Gandstock (7600'). In 1861, during a violent 'Föhn' (S. wind), the greater part of the town was burned down. The new Romanesque Church is used by the Roman Catholics and the Protestants in common. In 150616 the reformer Zwingli was pastor at the old church, burnt in 1861. Its site is now occupied by the Law Courts, which contain the Cantonal Archives and the Public Library. In the new Post Office Building are collections of antiquities and natural curiosities (fine fossils). The Town Hall contains an excellent relief-model of the canton of Glarus by F. Becker and a relief of the Elm Landslip by Prof. A. Heim (adm. free). In the art-cabinet is a small Gallery of Pictures, chiefly by Swiss artists (adm. 50 c.). The Public Gardens contain memorials to the statesmen J. Heer (d. 1879) and J. J. Blumer (d. 1876), natives of Glarus. - On the opposite bank of the Linth lies the industrial village of Ennĕnda (Adler; Schützenhof).

Excursions (guides, see p. 75). Pretty walk (road) viâ Schweizerhuus to ( $31 / 2$ M.) Schwändi (see below). - The Schild ( $7500^{\prime} ; 51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 8 fr.). The path from Glarus leads through wood and pastures, and over the Ennetberge, to the ( 3 hrs .) Heuboden-Alp ( $4770^{\prime}$ ); then to the right, without difficulty, to the top ( $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.). Admirable view of the Mürtschenstock, Tödi, and Glärnisch. - The Fronalpstock ( 6980 '; $5 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 7 fr ; similar view) is easily ascended by the Ennetberge and the Fronalp. - To the Mlrgthal from the Heuboden-Alp, by the Mürtschen-Alp (Oberstafel. 6063'), see p. 51 (to the Merlen-Alp direct, 2 hrs ; over the Murgsee-Furkel to the Murgseen, $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 10 fr .). - To Obstalden ( 8 hrs.; guide, 8 fr, , unnecessary for experts), a fine route: we cross the Fronalp (Mittlere 5193', Obere 6039'), pass between the Fronalpstock and Fähristock to the ( 5 hrs. ) Spannegg ( $5108^{\prime}$ ), skirt the little Spannegg-See (4757'; with the Märtschenstock on our right, p. 50), and descend the Platten-Alp to the Thalalp-See (3610') and (3 hrs.) Obstalden (p.50). - The Vorder-Glärnisch ( $7648^{\prime} ; 51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 10 fr .), from Glarns viâ Sackberg and through the Gleiter Ravine, laborious, for experts only; steep descent by Mittelguppen to ( $21 / 2$ hrs.) Schwöndi (see below).

The Klönthal (p. 80) as far as Richisau deserves a visit. Good road to the Klönthaler See $4^{1 / 2}$ M., thence to Vorauen $4^{1 / 2}$ M., to Richisau 6 M. (one-horse carr. there and back 18. two-horse carr. 25-32 fr.).

From Glarus over the Pragel to Schwyz, see R. 23.
The railway to Linthal crosses the Linth six times. 44 M . Ennenda (see above). Near ( $45 \frac{1}{2}$ M.) Mitlödi (1665'; Hirsch), and beyond it, we obtain a superb view of the Tödi and its neighbours. On the right bank lies Ennetlinth. The fertile valley with its factories contrasts picturesquely with the mountains.

47 M. Schwanden (1690'; Rail. Restaurant; *Schwanderhof; Adler), with 2360 inhab. and large factories, lies at the mouth of the Sernf-Thal (p. 80).

Pretty walk (road viâ Thon $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., direct path 25 min .) to $\mathrm{Schwändi}$ ( $2360^{\prime}$; Krone), with a splendid view of the Tö̀di and Selbsanft. - From Schwândi to the Oberblegi-See (see below) by the Guppen-Alp ( 5480 ) and Guppen-Seeli, 4 hrs .

We cross the Linth below the influx of the Sernf. 48 M . Nid-furn-Haslen; to the E., 2 M . higher up, is the plain Curhaus Tannenberg (view). Farther on is Leuggelbach (Höflibad, with restaurant and garden), with a fine waterfall on the right. - 50 M . Luchsingen-Hätzingen (1873').

From Luchsingen or Nidfurn a pleasant excursion to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Oberblegi-See ( $4680^{\circ}$ ), at the foot of the Bächistock ( p .80 ); descent by the Bössächi-Alp and Braunvald to (3 hrs.) Stachelberg. Fine view of the Tödi group, etc.

We cross the Linth to ( 51 M.) Betschwanden-Diesbach (1958'); on the left, the picturesque fall of the Diesbach.

The Saasberg ( $7227^{\prime}$ ), a spur of the Freiberg Range, is ascended from Betschwanden, Rüti, or Linthal in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (gnide 8 fr .); striking view of the Tödi, etc. - Kärpfstock (Hochkärpf, $9180^{\prime}$; $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 15 fr .), laborious, for experts only, from Betschwanden or Rüti, viâ Bodmen-Alp and Kilhthal.

Beyond stat. Rüti we cross the Linth for the last time. 53 M . Linthal, the terminus, on the left bank. To the N. ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) are the favourite *Baths of Stachelberg (2178'; *Glarner's Hotel, R., L.,

\& A. 2-5, B. $11 / 2$, D. 4, S. $21 / 2$, pens. $71 / 2-12$ fr., visitors' tax 1 fr . per week; dépendance at the 'Seggen', on the right bank), beautifully situated. The powerful sulphureous alkaline water trickles from a cleft in the Braunwaldberg; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. distant. *View of the head of the valley: in the centre the Selbsanft ( $9935^{\prime}$ ); to the right the Kammerstock ( 7100 '), and adjoining it part of the Tödi $\left(11,887^{\prime}\right)$ to the left; between the latter and the Bifertenstock $\left(11,240^{\prime}\right)$ lies the Biferten Glacier. Pleasant walks on the wooded hillside. - English Church Service at the hotel in summer.

Above the station, on the left bank of the Linth, is Ennetlinth with large spinning-mills. On the right bank lies ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Linthal (2238'; pop. 2240; *Rabe; *Bär or Post; Drei Eidgenossen, well spoken of; Klausen, at the station), a large village.

Excursions (guides: Leonh. Indermauer of Glarus, Melchior Jenny of Schwändi, Abr. Stüssi at the Glärnisch-Hütte, Fritz Zweifel, Heinrich Schiesser, Rob. Hämig, Thom. Wichser, Fritz Vögeli, and Tob as Indergand of Linthal ; Peter Elmer and Hilarius Rhyner of Elm). The ${ }^{\text {"Lower Fätsch- }}$ bach Fall is reached from the station viâ Ennetlinth in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (From the fall a foot-path ascends to the right to the Klausen roan.) The beautiful Central Fall (Bergli-Stüber) is best seen from the 5th bend of the Klausen road (p. 77), about $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{M}$. from Linthal; a path descends to the foot of the fall. - To the ${ }^{}$ Pantenbriiche, *Ueli-Alp, and Sandalp, see p. 76; also to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Braunwald (4920'; Niederschlacht and Rubschen inns), a mountain-hamlet with a magnificent view of the Tödi, best from beside the school, $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther on; to the Oberblegi-See (see above), etc. - Kammerstock (Thurm; $7100^{\prime}$ ), by the Kanmer-Alp $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., repaying, and not difficult (guide 8 fr .). - Ortstock or Silberstock ( $890 \mathrm{~S}^{\prime}$ ), by the $A l p$ Brach, the Bärentritt, and the Furkeli. $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$., laburious; splendid view (guide 15 fr .). - Grieset or Faulen ( $8935^{\prime}$ ), by the Braumoaldberge, 6 hrs., attractive, and not difficult (guide 15 fr .). The Böse Faulen ( $92000^{\prime}$ ), the N . and higher peak of the Grieset, is difficult ( $6-8 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 30 fr .). These peaks afford an interesting survey of the stony wilderness aronnd. Other fine points are the Pfannenstock ( $8440^{\prime} ; 7 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 17 fr .) and the Kirchberg (Hoher Thurm; 8761'; 8 hrs.; guide 20 fr.). From the Faulen viâ the DrecklochAlp ( 5560 ) to the Glärrnisch-Hütte (p. 80), $4^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$. - Gemsfayrenstock $\mathbf{( 9 7 5 8}^{\prime}$ ), not difficult, $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 20 fr .). We cross the Linth at the Auengiter (see below) and ascend throngh wood, crosing the Schreienbach and passing the Altenoren-Alp, to the ( 5 hrs ) Clariden Club Hut, on the Altenorenstock ( $801 \mathrm{~s}^{\prime}$ ); then over the Clariden Glacier to ( $21_{2}-3 \mathrm{hrs}$ ) the summit. The descent may be made by the Beckenen $\mathrm{t}_{\mathrm{n}}(2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the Upper Sandalp (p. 76). - The Cl riden Hut is also the starting-point of the ascents of the Geissbützistock '8925'; $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.; quide 15 fr .), th• ${ }^{-1}$ Vordere and Hintere Spitzalpelistock ( 9215 ' and $9: 52^{\prime} ; 41 / 2-5$ hrs.; 17 and 20 fr.), the Claridenstock ( $10,30^{\prime} ; 7$ hrs.; 30 fr .), and the Catscharauls ( $10,045^{\prime} ;$ bi $^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 30 \mathrm{fr}$.). Over the Clariden Pass to the Maderaner-Thal, see p. 130 (from the Clariden Hut to the Hôtrl Alpenklub 9 hrs ; guide from Linthal 30 fr.).

From Linthal to Elm by the Richetli Pass ( $61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 10 fr .), see p. 82; through the Bisi-Thal to the Muota-Thal, see p. 79.

A road, at first ascending (view of the *F'ätschbach Fall, see above) and then level, leads from Linthal (one-horse carr. 8 fr. for $1 / 2$ day, two-horse 12 fr .; whole day 12 or 20 fr .) by the Auengüter (Pens. Freihof; Inn 'Im Auen') to the ( $31 / 2$ M.) Thierfehd ( 2680 '; *Hôtel Tödi, R. \& B. $31 / 4$, D. 3, pens. ${ }^{1} 1 / 2$ fr.), a green pasture surrounded by lofty mountains. On the latter part of the route we have a view of the *Schreienbach Waterfall ( $230^{\prime}$ high), which the morning-sun tints with rainbow hues. Fine view of the gorge of the Linth from the *Känzeli, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the inn.

A few paces from the inn a bridge crosses the Linth, beyond which the narrow new road ascends for $1 / 2$ hour. A slab on a rock on the left is to the memory of Dr. Wislicenus, who perished on the Grünhorn in 1866. The road then descends a little towards the ravine, turns a corner, and reaches ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Panten-Brücke (3212'), $160^{\prime}$ above the Linth, amidst imposing scenery. On the right bank a path ascends the grassy slope to the ( 20 min .) *ÜeliAlp (3612'; superb view of the Tödi).

We return by the same path to the Hôtel Tödi; or we retrace our steps about 30 yds. and ascend to the E. by an ill-defined forest-path to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Lower Baumgarten-Alp ( 5250 ), high above the Thierfehd, with a magnificent view. We descend a narrow and dizzy path (guide desirable, but not to be had at the Alp, which is deserted in summer), skirting the precipice of the Tritt, tarning to the left, 5 min . beyond the Baumgarten-Alp, to Obbort ( 3425 '; Curbaus, rustic, pens. $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), and thence to the right vià the Auengüter to ( 1 hr .) Linthal. For persons sabject to giddiness this excursion is preferable in the opposite direction: Linthal, Auengüter, Obbort, Baumgarten-Alp, Üeli-Alp, Pantenbrücke. - A steep path leads to the E. from the Baumgarten-Alp (guide advisable; to the Muttsee Hut 10 fr .) along abrapt grassy slopes to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the rocks of the Thor ( $6755^{\prime}$ ); then it bends to the right to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Nüschen-Alp $\left(7270^{\prime}\right)$, thence skirting the Muttenwandli to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Muttsee Club Hut ( $8170^{\prime}$ ) on the Muttsee ( $8100^{\prime}$ ), the loftiest lake in the Alps (generally still ice-bound in July and Aug.). The hut is the starting-point for the Nüschenstock ( 9500 '; $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; gaide 15 fr .), Rüchi ( $9355^{\prime} ; 2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$; 16 fr .), Scheidstöckli ( $9220^{\prime}$; 3 hrs.; 20 fr .), Ruchi ( $10,190^{\prime} ; 31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; 20 fr .), Hausstock ( $10,340^{\prime}$; from the Ruchi across the icy arète in 1 br ; 25 fr .), and Muttenstock ( $10,140^{\prime} ; 41 / 2$ hrs.; 25 fr .). The Bifertenstock ( $11,240^{\prime}$ ), scaled viâ the Kisten Pass and the Limmern Glacier in 8 hrs . (guide 40 fr.), and the Selbsanft (Hintere 9.135', Mittlere 9625', Vordere 9020'), ascended viâ the Gries Glacier in 2 hrs . (guide $35-40 \mathrm{fr}$.), are two very difficult peaks. - Over the Kisten Pass to Ilanz, see p. 77.

The *Upper Sandalp ( $6358^{\prime}$ ), $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. above the Pantenbrücke, is frequently visited on account of its grand sitnation (guide, not indispensable, 8 fr.). The path ascends beyond the Pantenbrucke to the right and crosses the Limmern-Bach, which descends from a gorge. Some points here are rather unpleasant for unsteady heads. Farther on we cross the Sandbach and ascend the left bank to the ( 1 hr. ) Vordere Sandalp ( 4100 '; rfmts.), where we return to the right bank. By the ( 20 min .) Hintere Sandalp ( $4330^{\prime}$ ) the path crosses the Biferten-Bach, and then ascends the steep and fatiguing slope of the Ochsenblanken, $1600^{\prime}$ in height, where the Sandbach forms a fine cascade. Lastly we recross to the left bank, where the brook pierces a rocky gorge, and soon reach the ( 2 hrs .) chalets of the Upper Sandalp (Alpine fare and hay-beds in July and August). Finest view $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. beyond the chalets.

The Linth Valley ends with a magnificent group of snow-mountains. The giant of this group is the "Tödi or Piz Rusein (11,887'; from Linthal 11-12 hrs.; difficult, for experts only; guide 35 fr ., two required for a single traveller), with its brilliant snowy crest, ascended for the first timed in 1837. The route from the Hintere Sandalp leads through the BifertenThal viâ the Märenblanken to the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Thierfehd) Fridolin Hut of the S. A. C. (7070') on the Biferten-Älpeli. We thence ascend by a fair path over stones and the moraine of the Hinter Röthi Firn to the ( 1 hr .) old Grünhorn Hut ( $80 \pm 5^{\prime}$ ) and along the left side of the Biferten Glacier, crossing the Schneerunse, a gully exposed to ice-avalanches in the afternoon, and the Gelbwandli, to the upper snows of the glacier, and to the ( $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit. Magnificent view. We may descend by the Porta $d a$

Spescha ( $3360^{\prime}$ ), between the Piz Mellen $\left(11,085^{\prime}\right)$ and Stockgron $\left(11,215^{\prime}\right)$, to the Val Rusein and ( 6 hrs .) Disentis (p. 389 ; guide 45 fr.); or by the Gliemspforte ( $10,925^{\prime}$ '), between the Stockgron and the Piz Urllaun, to the Gliems Glacier; then over the Puntaiglas Pass to the Puntaiglas Glacier and down the Val Puntaiglas to Truns (comp. p. 388).

Passes. From the Upper Sandalp a fatiguing route crosses the Sandfivn and the Sandalp Pass (Sundgrat; 9210') to Disentis in $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. (p. 389; guide 30 fr .); another, laburious but interesting, crosscs ( 8 hrs. ) the Hûfi Pass (9645') to the Maderaner-Thal (p. 130; guide 30 fr .).

From Linthal over the Kisten Pass to Ilanz, 13 hrs . (guide to Brigels 27 fr.), fatiguing. Ascent by the ( 3 hrs.) Baumgarten-Alp to the (3 hirs.) Muttsee Club Hut (p. 76). Thence viâ the Mutten-Alp, the Lattenfirn, and the histenband, high above the Limmern-Thal and opposite the Selbsanft and Bifertenstock (with the Gries and Limmern glaciers), to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Kisten Pass ( $8290^{\prime}$ ), lying to the N. of the Kistenstöckli ( $9020^{\circ}$ ). Descent by the Alp Rubi in the Val Frisal to (3 hrs.) Brigels (p. 387) and theuce either to the left to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Ilanz (p.385), or to the right viâ Schlans to (2 hrs.) Truns (p. 388).

22. From Linthal to Altdorf. Klausen Road. Schächen-Thal.

Comp. Maps, pp. 74, 92.

10 hrs . : to Spitelrüti $31 / 4$, Klausen 2, Unterschächen 2, Altdorf $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. Road to the end of the Urner Buden ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Linthal; diligence daily in summer in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) ; bridle-path to 1 nterschächen (road in progress); road thence to ( 7 M .) Altdorf (diligence daily in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$; 3 fr .5 c ; ; onehorse carr. 10, from Altdorf to Unterschächen 15 fr.). Porter to Unterschächen 10, to Altdorf 15 fr .; horse to Unterschächen 28, to Altdorf 35 fr .

The new Klausen Road ascends in a long curve to the W. of Ennetlinth and skirts the rocks, passing through tunnels and galleries (charming glimpses of the valley). Beyond the second gallery is a path descending to the Lower Fätschbuch Fall (p. 705). The road then asceuds in long windings (short-cuts for walkers) over the grassy slopes of the Fruttberge, where several pretty views are enjoyed, to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Rämis Inn (rustic), and passes near ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the beautiful *Middle Fätschbach Fall ('Bergli-Stüber', p. 75). Beyond this we skirt the precipices at the foot of the Stöckli ( 6070 '), where we obtain a fine retrospect of the Freiberg chain and the Selbsanft. Thence the road ascends gently along the slopes of the Frittern, partly through wood, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) boundary between Glarus and Cri, where the Scheidbächli (4290') descends from the right.

The Urner Boden, a grassy and at places marshy valley, 4 M . long, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. broad, with a few groups of chalets, now begins. It is bounded on the N. by the jagged Jägernstöcke and Märenberge, culminating in the Ortstock ( 8908 ), and on the S. by the glaciers and snow-fields of the Clariden $\left(10,730^{\prime}\right)$. About $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the frontier of Glarus we pass the inn Zur Sonne; then ( 25 min .) the chalets of Spitelrüti (Restaurant Wilhelm Tell; new inn, opened in 1899), with a chapel on a hill ( $4560^{\prime}$ ).

The shady road traverses the pasture for $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more, and beyond the Trägerbalm (5275') ascends in bold curves through the wild rocky cauldron of the Klus to the ( 1 hr .) Klausen-Alp and the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Klausen Pass ( 6437 ). Beyond the pass the shorter footpath to the Schächen-Thal, viâ the Balmwand and Aesch (see below), diverges to the left. The new road gradually descends viâ the beautifully situated Bödmer Alp (to the left, the Grosse Scheerhorn, p. 130) and then sweeps round to the right to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of the Upper Balm (5890'). Farther on, it runs high up on the N. side of the wooded Schächen-Thal. Fine views of the Clariden Glacier, Stäuber Fall, Gries Glacier, Scheerhörner, Kammlistock, Claridenstock, and (farther on) the Brunni-Thal, with the Grosse Ruchen and the Grosse Windgelle. After threading the Seelithal Tunnel, we wind down to - $41 / 2$ M. Unterschächen (3345'; *Hôtel Klausen, R., L., \& A. $11 / 2-21 / 2$, B. $11 / 4$, D. 3 , pens. 6 fr.; Alpenrose, unpretending), a summer-resort, finely situated near the mouth of the Brunni-Thal, at the head of which rises the Grosse Ruchen $\left(10,295^{\prime}\right)$ with its glaciers. To the N. rises the Schächenthaler Windgälle (see below). To the S. ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) is a small bath-house, with a mineral spring.

Walkers from the Klausen Pass to Unterschächen save about $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. by taking the path above indicated, which leads to ( 5 min .) the chalets of the Lower Balm ( $5600^{\prime}$; inn) and ihen descends the steep slopes of the Balmwand to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) hamlet Im Aesch ( $1050^{\prime}$; *Hôt. Stäubi, plain). Fine view of the *Stäuber Waterfull. We then descend the left bank of the impetuous Schächenbach, and finally cross this stream to ( 1 hr .) Unterschächen.

Three toil-ome and difficult routes (guides, Vincenz Rissig and Ferd. Gisler uf Unterschächen; comp. pp. 130, 131) lead from Unterschächeu to the Maderaner-Thal viâ the Ruchkehlen Pass (9035') the Scheerhorn-Griggeli Pass ( $3180^{\prime}$ ), and the Kammiliücke ( $9355^{\prime}$ '). - The Schächenthaler Windgelle ( $0955^{\prime} ; 6-$ ? hrs. from Unterschachen) is fatiguing and not suitable fur any but steady-headed experts (guide 30 , porter 20 fr .). -Viâ the ( 3 hrs. ) Ruosalper Kulm ( ${ }^{2125}$ ') to Schwarzenbach and (4 hrs.) Muotathal, see p. 79.

A good road descends the valley, by Spiringen, Weiterschwanden, and Trudelingen, to ( 5 M .) Brügg, crosses the Schächenbach and the Fätschbach, and leads to (1 M.) Bürglen (p. 117) and (1 M.) Altdorf (see p. 117).

23. From Schwyz to Glarus over the Pragel.

Comp. Maps, pp. 92, 72.

11 hrs . Diligence from Schwyz to ( $61 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Muotathal twice daily in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ( 1 fr . 55 c .); carr. 9, with pair 14 fr . From Muotathal over the Pragel to ( $4 \mathrm{hrs}$. ) Richisau, a bridle-path, unattractive (guide advisable, 18 fr . ; Melchior Bürgler, Jos. Gwerder, or Xav. Hediger of Muotathal). No inn between Muotathal and Richisau. It is preferable to visit the Klönthal from Glarus (see p. 74).

Schwyz, see p. 116. The road ascends to the S. through orchards and meadows (view of the Lake of Lucerne to the right), and in a wooded ravine at the foot of the Giebel (3010') reaches the Muota, in its deep rocky bed. Opposite, to the right, is Ober-Schönenbuch, upon which the French were driven back by Suvoroff in 1799. Farther up the Muota ravine, but not visible from the road, is the Suvoroff Bridge, which was contested by the Russians and the French for two days. (At a sharp bend in the road, $21 / 2$ M. from Schwyz, a road descends to the right to this bridge in 3 min .; we may then return to Schwyz through wood and pastures on the left bank by Ober-Schönenbuch, a pleasant walk of 2 hrs. in all.) Beyond ( $41 / 2$ M.) Ried (1855'; Adler), on the left, is the pretty fall of the Gstübtbach, at first descending perpendicularly, and then gliding over the rock. At ( $3 / 4$ M.) Föllmis $\left(1900^{\prime}\right)$ we cross the Muota and pass the Mettelbach Fall in the Kesseltobel. Then (1 M.)

6/4 M. Muotathal (1995'; pop. 2015 ; *Kreuz; Hirsch, moderate; Krone), the chief village of the valley, with the Nunnery of St. Joseph, founded in 1280, and Suvoroff's headquarters in 1799. Fine rock-scenery and waterfalls near.

Over the Kinzig Pass to Altdorf, 8 hrs., somewhat fatiguing (guide not indispensable). After following the Pragel route for $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., we diverge to the right, cross the Moota and ascend the Huri-Thal, passing the chalets of Lipplisbühl and Wängi, to the ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Kinzig Pass (Kinzighulm or Kinzerkulm; $6790^{\prime}$ ), lying to the S.E. of the Faulen ( $8150^{\circ}$ ). Limited view. Then a rapid descent to the Schächen-Thal (p. 78), Weiterschwanden, and Birglen (p. 117). The Kinzig Pass is famous for the masterly retreat of Suvoroff, who, when cut off from the Lake of Lucerne by the French in Sept., 1799, marched with his army through the Schächen-Thal to the MuotaThal, thence over the Pragel to Glarus, and lastly over the Panixer Pass to Coire.

Throfgh the Bist-Thal to Stachelberg, 10 hrs ., rough but attractive; guide necessary. Good path (at first a road) through the narrow Bisi-Thal, watered by the Muota, to ( $2 \frac{1}{2}$ hrs.) Schwarzenbach ( $3153^{\prime}$; "Inn), with a fine fall of the Muota; steep ascent thence to the left to the ( 3 hrs .) Alp Melchberg ( $6293^{\prime}$ ); then across the dreary Karren-Alp, between the Kirchberg and Faulen (p. 75), and down the Braunwald-Alp to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Stachelberg. Another and more interesting route is the following ( $91 / 2-10 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide). From Schwarzenbach through wood and meadows (path generally well discernible) to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) * Waldibach Fall, the finest waterfall of Central Switzerland; ascend thence to the left to the ( 2 hrs .) Glatt-Alp, with the pretty blue Glatten-See ( $6090^{\circ}$ ), surrounded by lofty clifffs, and to the ( 3 hrs .) top of the Ortstock or Silberstock ( $8905^{\prime}$; p. 75); descend viâ the $B r$ räch-Alp to ( $3-3^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Stachelberg. - Or from the Waldibach Fall we may ascend to the right over the Waldi-Alp and Ruos-Alp to the ( 3 hrs .) Ruosalper Kulm ( $7125^{\prime}$ ), and descend to the new Klausen road and to ( 2 hrs .) Unterschächen (p. 78).

To Sisikon throvgh the Riemenstalden-Thal and across the Katzenzagel (4888'), a footpath, 7 hrs. (unattractive; comp. p. 99).

From Muotathal the path leads to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) foot of the Stalden, and ascends toilsomely over slabs of rocks to ( 1 hr .) a group of houses (fine retrospect); $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. farther on it crosses the Starzlenbach by the Klosterberg Bridge, to the left, and ascends rapidly to the right to two houses; $40 \mathrm{~min} .$, by a gate, we descend to the right, and cross the brook; $10 \mathrm{~min} .$, a cross ; $5 \mathrm{~min} .$, a cattle-shed in a picturesque valley; $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., the Sennebrunnen, with excellent water; 5 min., refuge-hut; $5 \mathrm{~min} .$, a cross. Then, almost level, to the ( 25 min .) chalets on the marshy top of the Pragel (5060'; no view).

Descent, at first steep and stony, to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of the Schvellaui ( $4367^{\prime}$ ); then through wood; ${ }^{1 / 4}$ hr. the Neuhüttli ( $4193^{\prime}$ ); here we descend to the right, where the pretty Klönthal and its lake become visible; $1 / 2$ hr. Richisau (3590'; *Curhaus, pens. $5-7$ fr.), a rich green pasture with fine groups of trees, to the N. of which tower the Wannenstock ( $6495^{\prime}$ ) and Ochsenkopf ( $7155^{\prime}$ ), and to the S. the furrowed slopes of the Silbern $\left(7570^{\prime}\right)$.

The Schwoummhöhe, an old moraine, $1 / 2$ M. to the E. of the Curhaus, affords a beautiful view of the Klönthaler See, Schild, Glärnisch, and (to the S.) the Faulen. Attractive excursions may be made to the W. to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. .) Cross on the Saasberg ( $62 \mathrm{~J}^{-1}$; pass to the Sihlthal and Einsiedeln) and to ( 5 min .) the Sihl-Seeli ( $5985^{\prime}$ ); to the S. to (3 hrs.) the top of the Silbern ( $7570^{\prime}$ ), with fossils and interesting furrowed slopes; to the Glärnisch (see below; to the club-hut $4 \mathrm{hrs}$. , thence to the top 3 hrs ); to the top of the Faulen (Grieset, 8935 ') viâ the Dreckloch-Alp in 6 hrs . (with guide), descending to ( 4 hrs .) Stachelberg (p. 75 ) ; to the N., viâ ( 1 hr .) the Schwoinalp Pass to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Hinterwäggithal (comp. p. 48); to the top of the Ochsenkopf ( 7155 t ; $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; with guide); to the top of the Scheye ( 7420 ; 5 hrs ; see p .73 ) viâ Längenegg.

From Richisau a road descends, across a fine open pasture, in full view of the imposing Glärnisch, to ( 1 hr .) Vorauen ( 2640 ; *Hôtel-Pension Klönthal, pens. 61/2-71/2 fr. ; Vorauen Inn, at the lower end of the village, plain), beautifully situated.

The *Glärnisch, the huge rocks of which bound the Klönthal on the S. side, one of the finest mountains in Switzerland, culminates in the Vorder-Glärnisch (7648'), the Vrenelisgärtli (9535'), the Ruchen-Glärnisch ( 9557 '), and the Bächistock ( 9583 '). The ascent of the Ruchen-Glärnisch is laborious, bat not difficult for experts ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 20 fr .; see p. 75 ). We cross the Richisauer and Rossmatter Klön, to the W. of Voranen, to the huts on ( 40 min .) the Klönstalden ( $3450^{\prime}$; direct path hither from Richisau in 25 min.), then enter the narrow Rossmatter-Thal (red marks), pass the chalets of Käsern (3968') and Werben (4562'), and reach the ( 3 hrs. ) Club Hut in the Steinthäli ( $6610^{\prime}$; inn in summer). We next ascend steep and stony slopes, cross the Glärnischfirn, regain the rock, and reach the top in 3 hrs from the hut. Superb view (panorama by Heim). - The VorderGlärnisch, from Glarns, $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$, comp. p. 74.

The *Klönthal is a picturesque, thinly-peopled dale, with meadows of freshest green. To the S. rise the precipices of the Glärnisch (see above). The pale-green Klönthaler See ( $2640^{\prime}$ ), $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Vorauen, 2 M . long and $1 / 3 \mathrm{M}$. broad, enhances the beauty of the valley, reflecting in calm weather the minutest furrows on the side of the Glärnisch. A rock on the S. bank, near a waterfall, bears an inscription to the poet Salomon Gessner (d.1788), who often spent the summer in a chalet here. The road skirts the N. bank; rowing-boat down the lake in $50 \mathrm{~min} ., 11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. At the ( $31 / 2$ M.) Seerüti, at the lower end of the lake, is a small Inn.

Below the lake the valley narrows to a gorge, through which dashes the Löntsch, the discharge of the lake, forming a series of small cascades, in grand rocky setting, down to its confluence with the Linth, below Netstal. To the left rise the huge cliffs of the Wiggis Chain (p. 73). Pretty view of the ravine ( $165^{\prime}$ deep) from the new stone bridge, reached by a footpath diverging to the right about $2 \frac{1}{4} \mathrm{M}$. from the Seerüti. The road divides at the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Staldengarten Inn. The left branch leads to ( 2 M.) Netstal ( p .73 ), the right crosses the Löntsch to ( 1 M .) Riedern and ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Glarus (p. 73). In descending we enjoy a fine view of the Fronalpstock, the Schild, and the Freiberge (between the Linth and Sernf valleys).

24. From Glarus to Elm through the Sernf-Thal. Comp. Map, p. 72.

$121 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Railway from Glarus to ( 3 M .) Schwanden, 17 min ; Diligence (2 fr. 55 c .) from Schwanden to ( $91 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Elm twice daily in $23 / \mathrm{h} \mathrm{hrs}$. (descent, $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.).

At Schwanden (p. 74), 3 M. to the S. of Glarus, the deep SernfThal, or Klein-Thal, diverges to the left from the Linth-Thal. The highroad gradually ascends the N. slope. Beyond ( $11 / 2$ M.) Wart, a pretty waterfall on the left. 3 M. Engi ( $2500^{\prime}$; pop. 1170 ; *Sonne), with cotton-mills, at the mouth of the narrow Mühlebach-Thal. (Over the Widerstein-Furkel to the Murgthal, see p. 51.) The slatequarries (Plattenberge) on the left bank of the Sernf are noted for their fossils. From (2 M.) Matt (2710') an attractive path to the N.E. leads in 6 hrs. through the Krauchthal and over the Riesěten Pass ( $664^{\prime} 4^{\prime}$ ) to Weisstannen (p. 52 ; guide 15 fr .).

3 M. Elm (3215'; *Curhaus Elm, prettily situated, R. from 2, board 5 fr.; Hôt. Elmer, weil spoken of; Gschwänd, with mineral baths; Sonne), the highest village in the valley, in a fine basin encircled by snow-mountains, is frequented as a summer-resort. It was partly destroyed on 11 th Sept., 1881, by a landslip from the Tschingelberg (S.E.), by which 114 persons lost their lives (memorial tablet at the church).

Ascents (for experts only; gaides, Peter Elmer and Hilarius Rhyner). Kärpfstock (9180'), by the Erbsalp in 6 hrs. (guide 15 fr.), and Vorab (9925'), by the Tschingeln-Alp and Bündnerberg Glacier in 8 hrs . (guide 10 fr .), both laborious, but interesting (comp. pp. 74, 82). - Hausstock ( $10,340^{\prime}$ ), by the Richetli Pass and the Leiterberg, or by the Panixer Pass (p. 82) in 9 hrs. (guide 20 fr.), laborious. - Piz Segnes ( $10,175^{\prime}$ ), from the Segnes Pass (see below) in $2 \mathrm{hrs.}$, , or from the Segneslücke (p. 82) by the S. arète in 1 hr . (8 hrs. from Elm; guide 10 fr .), not difficult for experts. - The Saurenstock or Piz Sardona ( $10,020^{\prime} ; 71^{\prime} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 20 fr .) and the Scheibe ( $9585^{\prime}$; 7 hrs.; 20 fr .) are both trying and better attacked from the Sardona Club Hat (p. 72).

Passes. To Flims over the Segnes Pass (pron. 'Senyes'), 8 hrs ., fatiguing, but interesting (guide 17 fr .). We cross the Sernf, amidst the remains of the landslip, and the Raminbach, and ascend the wild gorge of the Tschingelnbach, which forms picturesque falls, to the Tschingeln-Alp; then mount steep grassy and stony slopes to the ( 5 hrs .) Segnes Pass ( $8615^{\prime}$ ), lying to the S.W. of the Piz Segnes $\left(10,175^{\prime}\right)$. To the right rise the jagged Tschingelhörner or Mannen ( $9350^{\prime}$ ), pierced by the Martinsloch ( $8648^{\prime}$ ), a hole through which the sun shines on the charch of Elm twice a year. We descend the short but steep Segnes Glacier. (easy except in the absence of snow, when rope and ice-axe are useful) to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Segnes Club Hut on Segnes Sut ( 6855 ), then by a steep path, afterwards better, to the Fimser Alpen, and past a fine waterfall (to the left, the huge Flimser Stein, p. 384) to ( 2 hrs .) Flims (p. 334).

To Ilanz over the Panixer Pass, 9 hrs . (guide to Panix 15 fr .), fatigning; historically famous for Suvoroff's retreat of 5th-10th Oct., 1799 (comp. p. 79). A road ascends on the left bank of the Sernf from Elm by

Baedeker, Switzerland. 18th Edition.

Hinter-Steinibach to the ( 40 min.) Erbser-Brücke; 25 min. farther up, at Wallenbrugg, we cross the Sernf and ascend by a steep, rugged path to the chalets of the Jätzalp (Im Loch, 4822'; Ober-Staffel, 5587'). We next cross the Walenboden and traverse the snow-couloir of the Gurgel, at the base of the Rinkenkopf ( 8520 '). Farther on we traverse a tract of débris (with a small tarn on the left) and reach the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Panixer Pass (Cuolm da Pignieu; 7897'), with a small refnge-hut. To the left rises the Rothstock ( $8615^{\prime}$ ); to the right are the Ruch-Wichlenberg ( $9186^{\prime}$ ) and the Hausstock (ascent from the pass in $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$., see above), with the Meer Glacier. Descent over the Meer-Alp and the wild Ranasca-Alp to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Panix (4334'; Panixer Pass Inn), and viâ Ruis to (2 hrs.) Ilanz (p. 334). Another route, fatiguing and uninteresting, crosses the Sether Furka (8565'). It diverges from the Panix route to the left, by the tarn above mentioned, and ascends steeply to the pass, between the Rothhorn and the Vorab (ascent of the latter from the pass in 2 hrs ., see p. 81). Descent by the Ruscheiner Alp and the Sether Tobel to ( 9 hrs .) Ilanz ( p .385 ).

To Weisstannen by the Foo Pass, 7 hrs ., rough (guide 10 fr .). Up the right bank of the Raminbach, chiefly through wood, to the Ramin-Alp, and thence viâ Matt ( $6180^{\prime}$ ) to the ( $3^{1} / 2^{-4} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Foo Pass ( $7290^{\prime}$ ), which affords a fine though limited view. Then down by the Foo-Alp and Unter-Siez-Alp (4377') to the Seezthal and (3 hrs.) Weisstannen (p. 52).

To Vättis over the Sardona Pass, $11-12 \mathrm{hrs}$., difficult, but attractive (gaide 30 fr.). From the ( $\overline{0} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Segnes Pass (p. 81) we cross the glacier to the E., climb the steep rocky S. arête of the Piz Segnes to the Seg-nes-Lücke ( $9351^{\prime}$ ), just to the S . of the Piz Segnes, descend by a very steep snow slope to the Segnes Glacier, and cross it to the Sardona Pass ( 8317 '), to the S. of the Saurenstock (see below). We then descend accross the Sardona Glacier to the ( $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Sardona Club He ( $3500^{\prime} ;$ p. 72 ) and the (1 hr.) Sardona-Alp (p. 72), beyond which we traverse the Calfeisen-Thal to St. Martin (4483') and ( 3 hrs .) Vättis (p.71). - A better route ascends from the Segnes Pass to the ( 2 hrs .) top of the Piz Segnes ( $11,17{ }^{\prime}$; see p. 81) and then descends acruss the Sauren Glacier to the Sarduna Pass. The Saurenstock (Piz Sardona; 10,020') is also easily combined with this route (from the pass $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. ; descent direct to the club-hut). - Over the Muttenthaler Grat, 11 hrs . to Vättis, less difficult, bat rongh and fatiguing (guide 17 fr .). From the ( $3 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Foo Pass (see above) we first descend to the Obere Foo-Alp, then ascend to the right through the Mutten-Thal to the basin of the Haibützli, with a small tarn (7693'), and thence to the ( 3 hrs ) Muttenthaler Grat ( $8104^{\prime}$ ). Rough descent viâ the Platten-Alp and the Malanser Alp to ( 2 hrs .) St. Martin in the CalfeisenThal and ( 2 hrs .) Vättis (p.71).

To Linthal (p. 74), by the Richetli Pass (7425'), $7 \mathrm{hrs} .$, with guide ( 10 fr .), not difficult; "View of the Hansstock, Vorab, and Glärnisch. Descent by the Durnach-Thal.

( $3 \mathrm{fr} .15,2 \mathrm{fr} .20,1 \mathrm{fr}$. C 0 c .). This is the direct route from Zürich to Lake Lucerne and the St. Gotthard (to Arth-Goldau in $11 / 4-13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. ; 7 fr ., 4 fr . $90,3 \mathrm{fr}$. 50 c .).

To (8 M.) Thalweil (1437'), see p. 47. The line diverges to the right from the railway on the left bank of the Lake of Zürich, and skirts the hillside, crossing three arched viaducts, and affording beautiful views of the lake. $91 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Oberrieden-Dorf; $101 / 2$ M. Horgen-Oberdorf ( $1593^{\prime}$; Hôt. Bahnhof, well spoken of), lying $246^{\prime}$ above the station of Horgen on the bank of the lake (p. 47). Just beyond it the train passes through a tunnel $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. long, then sweeps round to the left, and enters the valley of the Sihl, which it crosses by an oblique iron bridge of 71 yds . span. - $12 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Sihlbrugg ( $1696^{\prime}$ ), close to the right bauk of the Sihl, is the highest point on the line and the junction of the Sihlthal railway (p. 44). At the end of the station the train enters the Albis Tunnel, 2 M. long, beyond which it traverses a hilly tract. On the left rises the wooded rocky hill of the Baarburg (2180'). Before us lies Baar, beyond which are the Lake of Zug, Rigi, and Pilatus. We cross the Lorze (p. 87).

17 M. Baar (1463' ; pop. 4065 ; Lindenhof, moderate; Krone; Schwert ; Rössli), a large village, with cotton and other factories.

In the wild valley of the Lorze, $21 / 23$. to the E. of Baar, are the interesting stalactite Grottoes in der Hölle (one-horse carr, there and back $4-5 \mathrm{fr}$.). The four caverns, at one time full of water, were made accessible in 1857 and are open from Easter Monday to Oct. 15th. They contain magnificent stalactite formations of varions shapes, besides stalagmites. Admission, 70 c ., on Sun. 50 c .; gaide and key at the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Restaurant Höll (1670'; tront). From the caverns routes lead to (2 M.) Schönbrunn (p. 86) and viâ the Tobel-Brücke and Thalacker to (3 M.) Zug.

Walkers will find their account in the charming route from Horgen (p. 47) to Baar viâ the Horger Egg ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). The road winds up to ( 2 M .) Wydenbach, about ${ }^{1} ; 4$ M. to the right of which rises the ${ }^{*}$ Zimmerberg ( $253 \bar{J}^{\prime}$ ), which commands a beautiful view of the Lake of Zürich (E.), the deep and sombre valley of the Sihl (W.), the Lake of Zng, and the Alps (S.) (Myten, Rigi, and Pilatus especially prominent). About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. beyond Wydenbach the road reaches its highest point, the Hirzel-Hohe ( $2415^{\prime}$; inn; view), whence it descends to the Sihl Bridge (1745̄'; *Krone), about 3 M. from Baar.

Farther on we traverse the fertile plain of Baar to - $181 / 2$ M. Zug (1385'; pop. 5600), the capital of the smallest Swiss canton, lies on the lake of that name. The lower town, part of which was submerged by the lake on 5th July, 1887, has fine Quays, with beautiful views of the lake, the Rigi, Pilatus, and Bernese Alps. The Oberstadt and Altstadt still retain a quaint and mediæval appearance, with their walls, towers, and substantial mansions. In the Old Rathhaus are a handsome Gothic room and an interesting Antiquarian Museum (stained glass, wood-carvings, gold and silver ornaments, tapestry, etc.; adm. 50 c.$)$. The Gothic Church of St.

Oswald (15th cent.) contains a Last Judgment by P. Deschwanden, and the Church of the Capuchins an Entombment by Calvaert. In the Arsenal are ancient captured weapons and flags, and a scarf stained with the blood of its bearer Peter Collin, who fell at Arbedo in 1422. Well-equipped Fish Breeding Establishment. On the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Rosenberg (1633'; restaurant) is the interesting Swiss Bee Museum.

The ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) \#Hochwacht ( $3250^{\prime}$ ), $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the N.E., commands a complete survey of the Alpine chain; below as, to the E., lies the Lake of Ageri (see below). - Pretty walks also to the ( 20 min .) Hüngigütsch ( $2400^{\circ}$; view interrupted by trees) and the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Horbachgütsch (3070'), which affords a charming view of the lakes of Zug and Lucerne and the Rigi. - The ascent of the ( $2^{1 / 2 \mathrm{hrs} \text {.) Wildspitz }}$ (Rossberg, p. 114) is attractive, over mountain-pastures with rich flora.

On the Menzingen hills above the Lorze, $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the E. of Zug (diligence twice daily, 1 fr .35 , coupé 1 fr .60 c .; one-horse carriage 8 , twohorse 16 fr .) and $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the diligence-station of Edlibach, is Dr . Hegglin's well-managed Schönbrunn Hydropathic (2215'; board 6, R. 11/25 fr.), with sunny terrace and forest-walks, much frequented by French visitors. The view from the chapel ( $2230^{\prime}$ ) extends as far as the Jura. About 6 M . to the E . of Zug (diligence twice daily in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) is the prettily situated village of Menzingen (2635'; ${ }^{}$ Löwe; Hirsch), with a large convent-school for girls; and 1 M. farther on, heyond the Edlibach, is the *Pens. Schwondegg ( $2770^{\prime}$; pens. $41 / 2-5$ fr.), with pine-cone and other baths. The summit of the Schroandegg-Gütsch commands a view of the Lake of Zürich and of the Sentis range.

Ägeri-Thal. A road (diligence to Ober-Ägeri twice daily in 2 hrs .) ascends through a froitful district viâ Thalacker (route at the bend to the left to Schönbrunn, the Hölle caverns, and Menzingen, see above) and Inkenberg to ( 3 M .) Allenuinden ( $2320^{\circ}$ ). Thence it descends into the valley of the winding Lorze (on a hill on the other side of the stream is the nannery of Gubel, $\left.2990^{\prime}\right)$ to ( $11 / 2$ M.) Neu-Ägeri, and past Mühlebach, with its large cotton-factories, to ( $11 / 2$ M.) Sattel-Ageri (p. 114; 50 c.). Stat. Eierhals (pension) commands a picturesque *View of the Uri-Rothstock, Krönten, etc. Between Eierhals and Morgarten are the houses of Haselmatt, where on 16th Nov., 1315, the Confederates in the Battle of Morgarten won their first victory over their Hapsburg oppressors commanded by Duke Leopold of Austria. A memorial chapel, containing a picture of the battle, was erected at St. Jakob, 1 M. from the S.E. end of the lake and $3 / 4$ M. from Sattel, where an anniversary service is held on the day of the battle.

arriving by steamer or railway with luggage cannot be sure of getting on by the corresponding train or boat unless they and their luggage are booked through to some station beyond Lucerne. If luggage is booked to Lucerne only, it is often impossible to reclaim it and get it rebooked in time.

Lucerne (1437'; pop. 27,500), capital of the canton of that name, lies picturesquely on the Lake of Lucerne or Vierwaldstätter See, at the efflux of the Reuss, and is enclosed by well-preserved walls with nine watch-towers, erected in 1385, while its amphitheatrical situation, facing the Rigi and Pilatus and the snow-clad Alps of Uri and Engelberg, is very striking.

The clear, emerald-green Reuss issues from the lake with the swiftness of a torrent. Its banks are connected by seven Bridges. The highest, the iron Seebrücke (Pl. D, 3), built in 1869-70, $500^{\prime}$ long, 50 ' wide, crosses from the town to the railway-station and the post-office, and affords charming views. The two interesting mediæval bridges, the Kapellbrücke (P1. D, 3) and the Spreuerbrücke or Mühlenbrücke (PI. B, C, 3), are both carried obliquely across the river. Each has a roof, which, in the case of the former, is painted with 154 scenes from the lives of St. Leodegar and St. Mauritius, the patron-saints of Lucerne, and from Swiss history; and in the case of the latter, with a Dance of Death. The paintings all date from the 18th century. Adjoining the Kapellbrücke, in the river, rises the old Wasserthurm (P1. D, 3), containing the Municipal Archives. According to tradition, this building was once a lighthouse (lucerna), and gave its name to the town. St. Peter's Chapel, on the N. bank, has four modern altar-pieces by Deschwanden (p.134). - Between the Kapellbrücke and Spreuerbrücke are the new iron Reuss-Steg (for walkers) and the Reussbrücke (Pl. C, 3); below the Spreuerbrücke the St. Karli-Brüclee (Pl. B, 2, 3) and the bridge of the St. Gotthard Railway (p. 115). - The Reuss and the lake are enlivened with swans and flocks of half-tame waterfowl (Fulica atra; black, with white heads).

The *Schweizerhof Quay and the *Quai National (Pl. D, E, F, 2), with their avenue of chestnuts, extend in front of the large hotels and the Cursaal (p. 89) along the N. bank of the lake and afford a delightful view. See the stone indicators or 'toposcopes', about the middle of the quays.

View. To the left, the Rigi Group; to the left is the Kulm with the hotels; on the saddle between the Kulm and the Rothstock is the Staffel Inn; more to the right, the Schild, the Dossen, and the isolated Vitznauer Stock. To the left of the Rigi, above the hills by the lake, rises the Rossberg; to the right of the Vitznauer Stock, in the distance, are the singularly indented peaks of the Liedernen Chain, the Clariden, the Tödi, and the Kammlistock; then the Nieder-Bauen or Seelisberger Kulm and the OberBauen; nearer are the dark Bürgenstock, with its hotel, and the Buochser Horn; to the left and right of the latter tower the Engelberg Alps, the last to the right being the Titlis; farther to the right, the Stanser Horn, the mountains of Kerns and Sachseln, and to the extreme right Pilatus.

On a height near the quays is the *Hofkirche, or Stiftskirche (St. Leodegar; Pl. E, F, 2), said to have been founded in the 7th cent., and restored after a fire in 1633. The two slender towers were erected about 1506. It contains a carved pulpit and stalls of the 16 th cent., two altars with gilded reliefs in carved wood, that on the $N$. side representing the death of the Virgin (15th cent.), a fine crucifix by the Engelberg wood-carver Custer, and old stained-glass windows. The rich treasury, containing valuable works of the 12 th cent., deserves inspection (apply to the sacristan). Organ-concert daily 6.30-7.30 p.m. (1 fr.). In the arcades enclosing the old Churchyard are several frescoes by Deschwanden.

The Alpen-Strasse and Zürich-Strasse, passing Meyer's Diorama of the Rigi and Pilatus (P1. D, E, 2; adm. 1 fr.), the Panorama (p. 89), and Stauffer's Museum of stuffed Alpine animals (Pl. E, 1; adm. 1 fr .), lead in 5 min . to the famous *Lion of Lucerne (Pl. E, 1), executed in 1821 to the memory of 26 officers and about 760 soldiers of the Swiss guard, who fell in defending the Tuileries on 10 th Aug., 1792. The dying lion ( $28^{\prime}$ in length), reclining in a grotto, transflxed by a broken lance, and sheltering the Bourbon lily with its paw, is hewn out of the natural sandstone rock after a model (exhibited in the adjoining building) by the Danish sculptor Thorvaldsen. Inscription: Helvetiorum fidei ac virtuti. Die X Aug., II et III Sept. 1792. Haec sunt nomina eorum, qui ne sacramenti fidem fallerent, fortissime pugnantes ceciderunt. Duces XXVI. Solerti amicorum cura cladi superfuerunt Duces XVI. The rock is overhung with trees and creepers. A spring at the top flows down and forms a dark pool at the base, surrounded by trees and shrubs. - The Chapel (inscription: Invictis Pax) contains the escutcheons of the officers (adm. free); and the Alpineum, opposite the Lion, contains five large Alpine views by Ernst Hodel (adm. 1 fr.).

To the N. of the monument is the entrance to the *Glacier Garden (adm. $1 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ explanatory guide by Prof. Heim 20 c .), a relic of the iceperiod, with 32 'pot-holes', 'glacier-mills', or 'giant's cauldrons', of different sizes (the largest being '26' wide and 30 ' deep), well-preserved 'Gletscherschliffe', or rocks worn by the action of the ice, etc., discovered in 1872, and connected by means of steps and bridges. The house contains a reconstruction of a lacustrine village, with some genuine relics; a relief of a glacier, with erratic blocks, by Prof. Heim ( $1: 18,000$ ); a *Relief of the St. Gotthard Railway ( $1: 25.000$ ), by Imfeld and Becker; and a relief of the Mnota valley ( $1: 2500$ ), with a representation of the battle between the French and the Russians in 1799. A kiosque contains Pfyffer's Relief of Central Switzerland, on a scale of $51 / 3$ inches to the mile, $25^{\prime}$ long, and 14 ' wide. There is also an interesting reproduction of the Reuss Glacier (seen from a club-hut) by X. Imfeld, with a greenish-blue ice-grotto in which a glacier-mill is seen in action. Adjacent is a view-tower. In the evening the whole garden is lighted by electricity.

Quaint and picturesque houses of the 16-17th cent. still survive in the crooked streets of the older parts of the town. The ancient Rathhaus (Pl. C, D, 3), in the corn-market, dates from 1519-1605. A fresco on the tower represents the death of the Lucerne burgomaster Gundoldingen at the Battle of Sempach.

On the groundfloor are a permanent Exhibition of Art and the Historical \& Industrial Museum, with the Antiquarium of the Five Cantons (open in summer, $9-60^{\circ} \mathrm{cl} . ;$ adm. 1 fr .). Roos 1 contains the armory from the Arsenal, embracing weapons, flags, and trophies of the battles of the 14th cent. and of the Burgundian and Milanese wars; in the glass-case on the right are the coat-of-mail of Duke Leopold of Austria, and several banners captured by the townsmen at the battle of Sempach. A chased sword-handle ('Tellenschwert', i.e. 'Tell's sword') of the 16 th cent., and the uniforms of different Swiss gaards (in the middle of the large glass-case) should also be noticed. At the windows is exhibited a *Collection of Stained Glass of the 14-18th cent., including a series of armorial bearings of the 17th century. - Room II contains the collections of the Historical Society, comprising relics of the prehistoric, Celtic-Roman, Germanic, and mediæval periods; in glass-cases in the centre are Roman objects (bronze statue of Mercury; tripod) and the blue and white banner presented to Lucerne by Pope Julias II. - On the first floor is the Council Chamber, with beautiful 16th cent. carving on the ceiling and walls. In the ante-chamber are a number of portraits of magistrates, most of which are by Reinhart.

The late-Gothic Fountain in the Weinmarkt (Pl. C, 3) is by Conrad Lux (1481).

On the left bank of the Reuss are the Jesuit Church (Pl. C , 4), built in 1667 in the rococo style, and the former Jesuit College, now the Government Building, with a picturesque court, the state archives, and a collection of coins. In the same neighbourhood are the new Cantonal School, with extensive botanical and geological collections on the third floor (open free on Sun., 1-3, and on Tues., $1-4$; at other times 50 c .) ; the Museum (Pl. C, 4), with the cantonal library of 80,000 vols. (including many rare books; adm. 10-12), and the CivicLibrary, on the Reuss, containing a valuable collection of works on Swiss history and copies of Holbein's frescoes on the Harter house, pulled down in 1824.

The *Gütsch (1720'), a height on the left bank of the Reuss, at the W. end of the town, affords a splendid view of the town, the lake, the Rigi, and the Alps of Uri, Unterwalden, and Engelberg; best from the view-tower (lift 30 c .). It is reached from the quays or the railway-station on foot in 10-12 min. (electric tramway, see p. 89 ; cab for $1-2$ pers. 1 fr ., 3-4 pers. 2 fr.) and then by Cable Tramway (196 yds. long; gradient 53 : 100; train every 10 min ., in 3 min . ; fare 35 , return-ticket 60 c .). At the top (1920') is the *Hôtel-Pension Gütsch, with restaurant and wooded grounds.

Pretty walk by wood and meadows from the Gütsch to the ( 35 min .) ${ }^{*}$ Hötel Sonnenberg ( p .88 ), which may also be reached from Lucerne direct in 50 min ., by ascending from the Hirschgraben (Pl. B, 4) viâ the KlosterStr. and Sonnenberg-Str., and past the interesting new Alpine Deer Park. About 10 min . beyond the hotel is the *Kreuzhöhe auf der Langen Furen ( $2560^{\circ}$ ), a charming point. From the hotel a road descends to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Kriens (see below).

Another beautiful point near the town is the *Drei Linden (1810'), to which a good road leads in 20 min . from the Hofkirche. We ascend the Adligenswyler-Strasse, to the right, behind the church, and after 3 min . take the broad new Dreilinden-Strasse to the left, which leads to the top in about $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. Halfway, to the left, diverges a somewhat more direct route. At the top is a cluster of tasteful villas. The 'Drei Linden' stand in private grounds (no admission). In front is a terrace, with benches, commanding the finest view of the environs of Lucerne and the Alps, with the Titlis and Stanserhorn in the middle and the Finsteraarhorn and Schreckhorn in the distance to the right. We may return to the N.W., by the Capuchin Convent on the Wesemlin, to the ( 20 min .) Lion Monument (p. 90).

From Lucerne to Kriens, $21 / 2$ M., electric tramway (p. 89) in 12 min., skirting the Krienbach. - Kriens (1695'; Pilatus; Linde), a large manufacturing village, lies in a fertile valley at the N. foot of Pilatus. To the S. a road ascends to ( 1 M.$)$ the château of Schauensee ( $\mathbf{1 8 5 j}^{\prime}$ ) and the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) ${ }^{\text { Hotel- }}$ Pension Himmelreich ( $2264^{\prime}$; pens. 4.5 fr .), a health-resort amid woods, with fine view. To the N. is the Sonnenberg ( 2560 '; to the hotel, 1 hr .; see above). The road ascends the valley from Kriens to the Renggbach, whence a path leads through wood to ( 1 hr .) Herrgottswald ( $2800^{\prime}$; "Hôt.--Pens. Haas, pens. $5-7 \mathrm{fr}$.), a health-resort in a fine situation, and to ( 1 hr .) Eigenthal ( $3375^{\prime}$; ${ }^{\text {a }}$ Pens. Burri, $5-51 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), another health-resort. (Thence to Schwarzenberg, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; see p. 146.) - From Eigenthal a path ascends by the Rümligbach past the hats of Buchsteg and Rothstock; then steeply to the left to $(11 / 2-2$ hrs.) the Bründlen-Alp ( $4985^{\prime}$ ), with the little Pilatus Lake (generally dry in summer), where, according to a curious tradition, Pontius Pilate drowned himself from remorse. From this point the Widderfeld ( $6825^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$; and a rough and indistinct path leads ronnd the slopes of the Widderfeld and Gemsmättli and over the Kastelen-Alp to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. Tickets are procured at the purser's office on board. Time-tables and maps of the lake to be had at the steamboat-offices gratis.

The ake of Lucerne (1435'; Vierwaldstätter See, or 'Lake of the Four Forest Cantons', viz. Uri, Schwyz, Unterwalden, and Lucerne) is unsurpassed in Switzerland in magnificence of scenery. Its beantiful banks are also intimately associated with the traditions so graphically depicted by Schiller in his William Tell. The lake is nearly cruciform in shape. Length from Lucerne to Flüelen 23 M.; width $1 / 2-2$ M.; greatest depth $700^{\prime}$.

The wind on the lake is apt to change very suddenly. The boatmen declare that it blows from a different quarter beyond each promontory. The most violent is the Föhn (S. wind), which sometimes makes the Bay of Uri dangerous for small boats, and even for steamers. In fine weather the Bise (N. wind) usually prevails the whole day.

Soon after leaving Lucerne the steamer affords a strikingly picturesque view of the town, with its towers and battlements. To the left rises the Rigi, to the right Pilatus, and facing us the Bürgenstock, the Buochser Horn, and Stanser Horn. High above the lake runs the St. Gotthard Railway (p. 115). To the left of Pilatus, above the hills of Unterwalden, the Wetterhörner (Rosenhorn, Mittelhorn, Wetterhorn), Schreckhorn, Mönch, Eiger, and Jungfrau gradually become visible. The small promontory to the left, with a pinnacled villa, is the Meggenhorn. In front of it lies Altstad, an islet with fragments of an old custom-house.

Beyond the Meggenhorn the bay of Küssnacht opens to the left, and that of Stansstad to the right, and we have now reached the centre ('Kreuztrichter') of the cross formed by the lake. In the distance to the left lies Küssnacht (p. 111); in the foreground, NeuHabsburg (p. 111). To the right rises the wooded Bürgenstock (p. 107). From this part of the lake Pilatus (p. 108) is very striking. Its weird peaks, seldom free from clouds, form a marked contrast to the Rigi opposite, the lower slopes of which are covered with gardens, fruittrees, and houses, and the upper with woods and pastures.

Beyond the promontory of Tanzenberg, in a small bay to the left, is *Hôtel Schloss Hertenstein (pens. 8-12, before and after the season $6-8 \mathrm{fr}$.; reached on foot from the pier in 10 min ., or by boat in 5 min .). Before us, in the distance, peeps the double-peaked Scheerhorn (p. 130). Stat. Hertenstein (Pens. Hertenstein, dépendance of the above); then -

To the N. of the pier rises the Rigiblick, a hill overlooking the lake (leave of proprietor necessary). - From Weggis to Greppen (p. 111). a nearly level road, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. Pleasant path across the hill, between the Rigi and the Rigiblick, preferable ( 1 hr. ). It starts from the back of the schoolhonse, a little to the E. of the church (ascend in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to a farm; for 4 min . level; by a second farm ascend again; by the third farm descend to the left). - Beautiful walk to the E., by the road skirting the lake, to *Hot.Pens. Flora Alpina Restaurant, on the Gersau road, 1 M . from Vitznau (also a few rooms).

Vitznau, prettily situated at the W. base of the Vitznauer Stock (see below), is the terminus of the Rigi Railway (p. 101). High above the village rises the precipitous Rothenfluh, with the Waldisbalm, a stalactite grotto 200 yds . long (difficult of access).

A beautiful road leads from Vitznau viâ the Obere Nuse (p. 95; fine view of the lake) to ( $3 \mathrm{t} / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Gersau and past the Kindlismord Chapel (p. 96) to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Brunnen.

On the S.W. slope of the Vitznauer Stock (bridle-path in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from Vitznau, shady in early morning) is the finely situated *Hotel-Pens. Weissenfluh or Wissifuh ( $3100^{\prime}$; pens. from $51 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), a health-resort, with beautiful view (finest from the Bliimlismatt, 5 min , to the S.). Beyond Vitznau are two long promontories, called the Nasen (noses), apparently terminating the lake, the Obere Nase (1.), a spur of the Rigi, the Untere (r.), of the Bürgenstock (p. 107). To the left of the E. Nase the Glärnisch (p. 72) rises above the Pragel. Beyond this strait the lake is called the Buochser See, from Buochs (*Krone, R., L., \& A. 1-2, B. 1, D. 2-3, pens. 41/2-5 fr.; Hirsch; Restaurant Kreuzgdrten), a village to the right, above which rise the Buochser Horn (see below) and the E. slopes of the Bürgenstock. The village was burned by the French in 1798, on which occasion the painter Würsch (p. 134) lost his life (monument in the eharnel-house). Buochs is a pleasant residence in spring and autumn (shady walks).

Diligence to Stans (p. 134) thrice daily in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (or walk direct by Ennerberg and Wyl). Between Buochs and Beckenried (pleasant walk of $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) uge dams control the torrents descending from the Buochser Horn and the Schwalmis.

The "Niederbauen or Seelisberger Kulm (6322'; 3 hrs .; guide, $6-7 \mathrm{fr}$., unneces ary), a very fine point, is best ascended from Emmeten. The path (fine views) begins beyond the bridge over the Kohlthalbach ( $1 / 3 \mathrm{M}$. to the E. of the churcti) and ascends to the right. Beyond a group of three houses it ascends in windings through pine-wood, and in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. reaches the Kählen ( $4576^{\prime}$ ), on the ridge descending to the W. fr m Niederbauen. We then proceed to the E. over pastures to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Niederbauen-Alp ( $5220^{\prime}$; rfmts.), whence we ascend grassy slopes to ( 1 hr .) the broad summit. Another route ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. longer; less recommended) diverges to the S. from the road, near the Hôt. Engel. and ascends the narrow Kohlthal. At ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a group of huts it crosses a bridge to the left and ascends a steep and stony path to ( 2 hrs .) the $N$ ederbauen-Alp (see above). - The routes from Beroldingen ( p .96 ) and the Seelisberger Seeli ( p . 86 ; each $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) are rough and not recommended. - The summit commands an imposing and highly picturesque view of the Lake of Lucerne, from Lucerne to Flüelen, of the Uri-Rothstock, Bristenstock, Tödi, Scheerhorn, and Windgellen, and of the Reuss valley as far as Amsteg. Less of distant view than from the Rigi. - The Oberbauen ( $6960^{\circ}$ ), another fine point, is ascended from the Niederbauen-Alp (see above) in 2 hrs . (guide 8 fr .). A steep descent may be made by the Bauberg-Alp to ( $21 / 2$ hri.) Isenthal ( p .100 ).

On the bank beyond Gersau is the Kindlismord Chapel. To the E. rise the two Myten, at the base of which lies Schwyz (p. 116); nearer is the church of Ingenbohl; to the right, the broad Fronalpstock.

The steamer now crosses to Treib (Inn, rustic), in Canton Uri, at the foot of the Sonnenberg, the landing-place (telephone) for the village of Seolisberg (2637'; Hôt.-Pens. Bellevue, 6-8 fr.; Pens. Brunnen, the port of Canton Schwyz, a station on the St. Gotthard Railway (p. 116), and one of the most beautiful places on the lake, is partly situated in a flat valley near the mouth of the Muota. In the background rise the two Myten. The old Susthaus, or goods-magazine, is adorned with quaint frescoes. New Protestant Charch on the Schwyz road, opposite the railway-station.

The Glitsch ( 1700 ; hotels, see above), a hill behind Brunnen, overlooks the two arms of the lake and the pretty valley of Schwyz. Shady walks in the environs. The new Olympus Road ('Olymp-Strasse'), beginning at the Leewasser near the middle of the village, winds up through the wood, passing the Eden Hotel, to the top of this hill. It is to be prolonged to Axenfels.

From Brunnen to Morschach, a good road (shade in the morning) ascends in 1 hr . from the Axenstrasse (electric tramway projected). The shady footpath which diverges at the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) guide-post to the left cuts off a long curve. 40 min . ${ }^{\circ}$ Hotel Axenfels ( $2100^{\prime} ; \mathrm{R}$. from $21 / 2$, L. \& A. $11 / 2$, B. $1 \frac{1}{2}$, lunch 3, D. 5 , pens. $8-14$, in spring and autumn $7-10 \mathrm{fr}$.; Engl. Ch. Service), with a glazed promenade, gardens, park, and a fine view. About 4 min. farther on is the charmingly situated hamlet of Morschach ( $2120^{\prime}$; *Hot.--Pens. Frohnalp \& Curhaus Morschach, R. 2-3, B. 11/4, D. $31 / 2$, S. 2, pens. 6-8 fr.; *Pens. Bettschardt, 5 fr.; Pens. Degenbalm, on a height $230^{\prime}$ above the village, pens. $5-8$ fr.). The road forks at the Pens Bettschardt, the right branch leading to the Stoos (p. 98) and viâ OberSchönenbuch (p. 78) to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Schoyz, while the left branch ascends past the *H6t.-Pens. Rütliblick (pens. 5-7 fr.) to ( 12 min.) the *Grand Hotel Axenstein ( $2360^{\circ}$; R. 2-7, L. \& A. 1, B. 11/2, lunch 3, D. 5, board 7 fr.), splendidly situated on the Brändli, with a magnificent ${ }^{\text {"0 S Survey }}$ of both arms of the lake. Large covered promenade and beautiful shady grounds close to the hotel, containing numerous erratic blocks and interesting traces of glacier-action. Strangers are admitted to the park, bnt if residing at the Hôtel Axenfels or at Morschach only by special permission. Besides the road, there is a path from the Gütsch to the hotel, for the most part in shade ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). Adjacent is an English Church (All Saints). Omnibuses run between the Axenstein Hotel and Brunnen ( 40 min ., 3 fr.; one-horse carr. 5, two-horse 10 fr .).

The Stoos (4242), the N. spur of the Fronalp ( ${ }^{*}$ Hot.-Pens. Stoos, R., L., \& A. $31 / 2-6$, B. $11 / 2$, D. 4, pens. $8-12$, in June and Sept. 7-10 fr.), another good point of view (best from the Stooshorn, 5 min . to the N.), with varied walks, is reached by a road (in shade in the morning for most of the way) from Morschach in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (carr. and pair from Brunnen in $21 / 4$ hrs., 20 fr., there and back $25-30 \mathrm{fr}$., with one horse 15 fr ; ; saddle-horse 10, porter 5 fr.). - The ${ }^{2}$ Fronalpstock ( $629{ }^{\prime}$ '; small Inn , ten beds), $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S.W. of the Stoos, reached by a rough path (finger-post; milk at a chalet halfway), affords a magnificent view, hardly inferior to that from the Rigi, of the Alps and of the entire Lake of Lucerne. - A footpath leads from the Stoos to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ried (p. 79) in the Muota-Thal, at first traversing meadows, but beyond the Stoosbach descending in steep zigzags through wood to the bridge over the Muota.

Other excursions from Brunnen: by the St. Gotthard Railway to ( 12 min. ) Schwyz-Seewen, and then by boat (in 25 min . from Seewen) to the island of Schwanau in the Lake of Lowerz (p.116); to the MuotaThal as far as the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Suvoroff Bridge (p. 79), viâ Ingenbohl, Unter- and Ober-Schönenbuch, or viâ Morschach (p.97), and back on the right bank viâ Ibach or Schwyz in $2 \frac{1}{4}$ hrs.; by steamboat to Tellsplatte, ascend to the Axenstrasse, walk to Flüelen (shady iu the morning), and return by steamer or railway; to the Kindlismord Chapel (p.96) and Gersau ( $41 / 2$ M. ; p. 90) ; to the Rütli (see below; boats, see p. 97), and thence, or viâ Treib, to Seelisberg (p. 96); ascent of the Rigi (p. 101; 1 day); by the St. Gotthard Railway to Göschenen-Andeımatt and back (R.32; 1 day).

At Brunnen begins the S. arm of the lake, called the Urner See or "Lake of Uri. The mountains rise very abruptly, and the lake narrows. Lofty peaks, often snow-clad, peep through the gorges at intervals, in particular the huge Uri-Rothstock with its glacier. By the sharp angle which juts into the lake from the W. bank rises the Mytenstein, a rock $80^{\prime}$ high, bearing an inscription in memory of Schiller, the 'Bard of Tell'. A little farther on, below Seelisberg (p. 96), and 8 min . above the lake, is the grassy clearing in the wood called the Rütli, or Grütli (1646'), with three springs trickling from an artificial wall, and shaded with trees. This spot, with the custodian's house in the old Swiss style (refreshments) and pretty grounds, belongs to the Confederation. At a fine point of view, 5 min. to the W., is a block of granite with medallions of the author (J. G. Krauer, 1792-1845) and the composer (Jos. Greith, 1798-1869) of the 'Rütlilied'.

On this spot, on the night of 7th Nov., 1307, thirty-three men, from Uri, Schwyz, and Unterwalden, assembled and swore to drive out their oppressors. Tradition relates that the three fountains sprang up on the spot where the three confederates, Werner Stauffacher of Steinen in Schwyz, Erny (Arnold) an der Halden of Melchthal in Unterwalden, and Walter Fürst of Attinghausen in Uri, stood when the oath was taken. - A shaded path ascends in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Rütli to the Hôtel Sonnenberg ( p . ${ }^{96 \text { ). }}$ Boat from Brunnen to the Rütli, see p. 97; pleasant also to row (3-4 fr.) from Treib.

On the E. bank of the lake runs the *Axenstrasse, leading from Brunnen to ( 9 M .) Flüelen, of strikingly bold construction, being mainly hewn in the rock. It was made by Cantons Uri and Schwyz in 1863-65. Below, alongside, or above the road, runs the St. Gotthard Railway (p. 117), skirting the lake in many tunnels and cuttings. The steamer touches at Sisikon (*Hôt.-Pens. Urirothstock, 4-5 fr.), at the entrance to the narrow Riemenstalden-Thal (p. 79).

From the hamlet of ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Riemenstalden ( $3410^{\prime}$; inn) the Rophaien ( 6830 ; $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; fine view of the Lake of Lucerne, best by morning-light) is easily ascended. Descent by a path, distinct beyond the Buggisgrat, to ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Tell's Chapel or to ( 3 hrs .) Flüelen. - The *Rossstock ( 8080 '; $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. ), with splendid view, is another easy ascent (comp. p. 108). - The Liedernen or Kaiserstock ( $82 \overline{5} 5^{\prime} ; 4-41 / 2$ hrs., with guide) is for experts only. - Over the Katzenzagel to the Nuota-Thal, see p. 79.

Stat. Tell's Platte (Restaurant, with baths, at the landing-place), 8 min. above which, on the Axenstrasse, is the *Hôt.-Pens. Tellsplatte ( $1680^{\prime} ;$ D. 3, pens. 6-8 fr.), with grounds and view. A little to the S . of the landing-place (path in 1 min .) is the 'Platte', a ledge of rock at the base of the Axenberg, shaded by trees and washed by the lake, on which stands Tell's Chapel, rebuilt in 1880, and adorned with four frescoes by Stückelberg of Bâle. It is said to have been originally erected by Canton Uri in 1388 on the spot where the Swiss liberator sprang out of Gessler's boat. On Friday after Ascension Day, when mass is celebrated, and a sermon preached, the natives flock to the Platte in their gaily decorated boats. Near the chapel the lake is $700^{\prime}$ deep.

The finest part of the Axenstrasse is between the Tellsplatte Hotel and Flüelen ( $2 \frac{1}{2}$ M.; shady in the forenoon), where it pierces the curiously contorted limestone strata of the Axenfluh, $360^{\prime}$ above the lake, by means of a tunnel. Beyond the chapel, Flüelen ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. by steamer) becomes visible. Scenery very striking. Opposite the chapel, on the W. bank, lies the hamlet of Bauen (Tell Inn, plain), and, farther on, the dynamite-factory of Islĕten, at the mouth of the Isenthal (see below).

Flüelen. - Hotels. *Croix Blanche, R., L., \& A. $2-21 / 2$, B. $11 / 4$, D. 3, pens. 6-7 fr.; *Tell \& Post, R. 2, B. 1, D. 3 fr.; *Adler, R., L., \& A. $2-3$, B. $11 / 4$, lunch $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; *St. Gotthard, R., L., \& A. $1^{11} 2-2$, B. 1 , D. $11 / 2-2$, pens. $4^{1 / 2}-5$ fr.; Hirsch, R. $11 / 2-2$, B. 1 , D. $1^{1 / 2} 2-21 / 2$, pens. $4-6$ fr., all on the lake; Flǘelerhof; Ochs; Stern. - Rail. Restaurant (beergarden). - Baths in the lake, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the N. of Flüelen. - Omnibus to Altdorf (p. 117) 50 c .

Flüelen is the port of Uri and a station on the St. Gotthard Railway (p. 117). Beyond the church is the small château of Rudenz, once owned by the Attinghausen family. The Reuss, which falls into the lake between Flüelen and Seedorf, has been 'canalised' here ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.'s walk, or $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. by boat to its influx).

The Isenthal (see DIap, p. 136) may be reached from Flüelen or Altdorf on foot in 3 hrs . viầ Seedorf (see above), by a path skirting the lake and ascending to the Kr euzhöhe ( $2160^{\prime}$ ), with a picturesque view, where the path turns to the left into the valley; or by the steamer from Fluelen, which touches at Isleten twice daily. These two routes unite at the Kreuzhöhe. The pleasantest and shortest route is by row-boat or sail-boat ( $11 / 2$ fr.) from the baths of Fluelen to the path from Altdorf along the W. bank ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). From Bauen (p. 99) a pleasant path, affording splendid views of the lake, ascends round the slope of the Furkelen direct to Isenthal in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. - About 1 hr . from Isleten we reach the prettily situated village of Isenthal ( $2550^{\prime}$; Gasser's Inn, three beds, rustic but clean; guides, Albin Infanger, Mich. and Joh. Gasser, Andreas, Josef, and Jost Aschwanden), at the S. base of the precipitons Oberbauen ( $6960^{\circ}$ ), which may be ascended viâ the Bauberg-Alp in $3^{1 / 2-4} \mathrm{hrs}$. (recommended to adepts; guide necessary; comp. p. 95). The valley divides here into the Grossthal to the right and the Kleinthal to the left. Through the Grossthal, in which lies the Alpine hamlet of ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) St. Jakob ( $3235^{\prime}$ ), we may either proceed to the W., passing over the Schonegg Pass ( $6315^{\prime}$ ), between the Hohe Brisen ( $7940^{\prime}$ ) and the Kaiserstuhl ( $7877^{\prime}$ ), or over the Bannalp Pass (7054'), between the Kaiserstuhl and Ruchstock (9225'), to OberRickenbach and ( $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Wolfenschiessen (p. 135). A more interesting but also more difficult route (guide 18 fr .) leads to the S.W., over the Rothgrätli ( $8420^{\prime}$ ), between the Engelberger-Rothstock and the Hasenstock, to ( 10 hrs. ) Engelberg. The Engelberger-Rothstock ( $9250^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended without difficulty from the Rothgrätli in 1 hr . (comp. p. 137). Over the Jochli and the Bühlalp to ( $4^{1} / z^{-5} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Nieder-Rickenbach, see p. 135.

Through the Kleinthal leads the shortest route to the summit of the Uri-Rothstock ( $6-61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; not easy ; guide 15, or with descent to Engelberg 30 fr .). A fatiguing path leads to the Neien-Alp and ( 2 hrs .) Musen-Alp ( $4885^{\prime}$; night-quarters in the chalet); then a toilsome ascent across two torrents and along precipices of slate-rock to the upper snow-fields of the Kleinthal Glacier, to the E. of the Kesselstock (8455'); ; next an ascent in sweeping curves over the névé to the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) arête separating it from the Blümlisalp Glacier (striking view of the Bernese Alps); lastly by an obvious path over slopes of rubble to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) summit of the ${ }^{}$ Uri-Rothstock ( $9620^{\prime}$ ). - An easier, but longer, route through the Grossthal (see above, guide 20 fr.$)$, passing St. Jakob (see above) and the Schlossfelsen, ascends by a steep and rough path to the ( 3 hrs .) Hangbaum-Alp ( $5660^{\prime}$ ), grandly situated (fine cascades), where the night is spent (tourist-hut, with bunks, sheets, and rugs) ; thence (starting early in the morning) over pastares and loose stones, and along the N. edge of the Blumpisalpfirn to the ridge between the Grossthal and Kleinthal; and lastly up the arête towards the $W$. to the summit ( $3^{1} / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Hangbaum), which is usually free from snow in summer. The mountain-group which culminates in the Uri-Rothstock and the Brunnistock ( $9683^{\prime}$ ) is, like the Titlis, almost perpendicular on the E. and S.E. sides (towards the Gitschen-Thal and Surenen), and is composed of gigantic and fantastically contorted limestone rocks. The ${ }^{}$ View from the summit is exceedingly grand : to the S. the chain of the Alps, from the Sentis, Rhätikon, and Bernina on the E. to the Diablerets on the W.; at our feet, $8000^{\prime}$ below, the Lake of Lucerne and the Schächen-Thal; to the N.E., N., and N.W. the Myten, Rossberg, Rigi, Pilatus, and the Entlebuch Mts., the lower hills of N. Switzerland, and the plains of S. Germany. Easy descent by the Blümlisalp Glacier, the Schlossstock-Luicke, and the Roth-stock-Lücke to the ( 3 hrs .) Plankenalp Club Hut, and to ( 3 hrs .) Engelberg (p. 13亏).

The Gitschen ( $8233^{\prime}$ ), the E. summit of the Uri-Rothstock group, may be ascended from Isenthal by adepts in $4-4^{1} / 2$ hrs. (guide 12 fr .). The view is grand and picturesque. We may fullow the arête on the N. side of the summit to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Kleinthalfirn and the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Uri-Rothstock (see above).

28. The Rigi.

The Mountain Railways which ascend from Vitznau and Arth are now used by most visitors of this famous point of view. The trip may easily be made from Lucerne or Zürich in one day (circular tickets good for 3 days). The lines are on the rack-and-pinion system. Between the rails run two others connected by cross-bars, on which works a cog-wheel under the engine. The latter is always placed below the passenger-car. Maximum gradient of the Vitznau line $1: 4$, of the Arth line $1: 5$. The average speed is $4-6 \mathrm{M}$. per hour.

The Footpaths to the top of the Rigi are now little used, but the Descent to Weggis ( $2-21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; see p. 103) is recommended.

Hotels. On the Kulm (p. 104), "Schreiber's Rigi-Kulm Hotels (three houses, the two higher and older being now dépendances of the lower; Restaurant on the groundfloor of the last, Beer and Wine Room in the middle one), R., L., \& A. 4-7, lunch 4, D. 5, pens. 12-14 fr. - On the RigiStaffel (p. 102), where all the routes converge, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. below the Kulm : *Hôt.Pens. (Engl. Ch. Service).

The Rigi ( $5905^{\prime}$, or $44 \% 0^{\prime}$ above the Lake of Lucerne), a mountain group about 25 M . in circuit, lying between the lakes of Lucerne, Zug, and Lowerz, consists chiefly of conglomerate (p. 115), while the N. and W. sides belong to the meiocene formation. The N. side is abrupt, but the S . side consists of broad terraces and gentle slopes, covered with pastures which support some 4000 head of cattle, and planted below with fig, chestnut, and almond trees. Owing to its isolation, the Rigi commands a panorama 300 M . in circumference, unsurpassed for beauty in Switzerland. The mountain was known to a few travellers in the 18th cent., but it was not till after the peace of 1815 that it became a resort of tourists. In 1816 a modest inn was erected on the Kulm by subscription, and in 1848 this was superseded by the oldest of the houses on the summit. Since then many inns have sprung up on other parts of the hill, and the Rigi is now one of the most popular of Swiss resorts.

From Vitznau to thr Rigi-Kulm, 41/2 M., Mountain Raflway in 1 hr . 16 min., fare 7 fr . (to Kaltbad $41 / 2$, Staffel 6 fr .); descent also in 1 hr . 16 min ., fare $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; 10 lbs . of luggage free. First-class returntickets from Lucerne to the Rigi viâ Vitznau $13{ }^{1} / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; Sunday tickets 7 fr . Return-tickets give no alternative return-route. Subscription-tickets 30 per cent cheaper.

Vitznau (1443'), see p. 94. The station is at the quay. The train (views to the left) ascends gradually through the village ( $1: 15$ ), and afterwards more rapidly ( $1: 4$ ), skirting the cliffs of the Rothenfluh. $\mathbf{A}^{*}$ View of the lake is soon disclosed, grander as we ascend. Opposite first appears the dark Bürgenstock, then the Stanser Horn, Pilatus, and Lucerne. Farther up, the Alps of Uri, Engelberg, and Bern peer above the lower hills. The train ( 20 min . after starting) goes through a tunnel 73 yds. long, crosses the Schnurtobel, or ravine of the Grubisbach, $75^{\prime}$ deep, by a bridge borne by five iron pillars, and soon reaches the station of Grubisbalm, near the Curanstalt of that name (p. 101). Beyond the watering and passing station of Freibergen (3365') the line is double. Stat. Romiti-Felsenthor (3955'; comp. p. 101) and ( 50 min. from Vitznau) -

$23 / 4$ M. Rigi-Kaltbad ( $4730^{\prime}$ ); to the left is the large Curhaus (p. 101), with its covered promenade, on a sheltered plateau.

A path leads through a gap in the rock, to the left of the hotel, to ( 5 min .) St. Michael's Chapel, the walls of which are covered with numerous votive tablets. One of those on the left records that two pious sisters sought refuge here from the persecutions of a governor of the district in the time of King Albert, and built the chapel. The spring ( $42^{\circ}$ Fahr.) which bubbles from the rock adjoining the chapel was formerly called the 'Schwesternborn'.

A level path among the conglomerate blocks near the chapel, afterwards traversing park-like grounds, leads to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) "Känzeli ( $4820^{\prime}$ ), a pavilion on a projecting rock, which commands a superb view of the snow-mountains, and of the plain towards the N. with its numerous lakes, similar to that from the Staffel, but with a more picturesque foreground. - A path leads hence to the Staffel in the same time as from the Kaltbad ( 50 min .), ascending to the right as far as the point where the S. Fart of the Lake of Lucerne becomes visible, and following the crest of the mountain until it joins the path from the Kaltbad, at the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Staffelhöhe.

Railway from the Kaltbad to the Scheidegg, see p. 106.
In 5 min . more the train reaches stat. Staffelhöhe ( $5090^{\prime}$ ), where the view towards the W . and N . is suddenly disclosed. It tben ascends to the left, round the Rigi-Rothstock, in 8 min . to ( 4 M. ) Rigi-Staffel (5270'), the junction of the Arth line (p. 103).

The *Rigi-Rothstock ( $5460^{\prime}$ ), $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S.W. (direct path from the Kaltbad 35 min. ), affords a very picturesque survey of the central part of the Lake of Lucerne, which is not visible from the Kulm. A clear view is often enjoyed from this point while the Kulm is in fog. The sunset is said to be finer from the Rothstock than from the Kulm, but the sunrise should be witnessed from the latter.

The railway (here parallel with the Arth line) now ascends steeply to the Kulm (in 7 min .; a walk of $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), skirting the precipices on the N. side of the hill. $4{ }^{1} / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Station Rigi-Kulm ( $5^{7} 740^{\prime}$ ), see p. 104.

From Arth-Goldau to the Rigi-Kulm, $51 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., Mountain Railway in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., fares $10 \mathrm{fr} .80,7 \mathrm{fr} .20 \mathrm{c}$. (to the Klösterli 4 fr . 80 , Staffel 6 fr. 40 c .); 10lbs. of luggage free. Subscription-tickets 30 per cent cheaper. - Steam-tramway from Arth to Arth-Goldau in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (fare 30 c ., return-fare 50 c .), see p. 110; the terminus at Arth-Goldau adjoins the Gotthard station.

Arth-Goldau (1725'; *Rail. Restaurant), a station on the St. Gotthard line, and the junction of the lines Zug-Goldau (p. 110) and Wä-densweil-Einsiedeln-Goldau (p.114), see p.115. The station of the Rigi railway is about 100 yds . to the W. of the main St. Gotthard station; travellers ascend from the road by a flight of steps to the ticket-office and waiting-rooms. The Rigi line (seats should be secured on the right) crosses the Gotthard railway, traverses part of the scene of the Goldau landslip (p. 115), and curves to the W.; it then ascends more rapidly, at the foot of the Scheidegg, to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) stat. Kräbel (2513'). Farther on, ascending $1^{\prime}$ in $5^{\prime}$, we skirt the precipitous Kräbelwand, and obtain a fine view of the valley and lake of Lowerz, with the island of Schwanau, the Myten near Schwyz, the Rossberg, with the scene of the great landslip, and the Lake of Zug. Beyond the Rothenfluh Tunnel we are carried through a fine wooded valley, and across the Rothenfluhbach, to the passing-station Fruttli (3730'). Still ascending rapidly, the train traverses the Pfedernwald, crosses the Dossenbach and (beyond the Pfedernwald Tunnel) the Schildbach, and reaches ( $31 / 2$ M.; 52 min . from ArthGoldau) -

Stat. Rigi-Klösterli (4320'; hotels, p. 101), in a basin enclosed by the Rigi-Kulm, Rothstock, and First. The 'Klösterli' is a small Capuchin monastery, with the chapel of Maria zum Schnee, built in 1712, and much visited by pilgrims, especially on 5th Aug. and 6th Sept.; on Sundays there is mass with a sermon for the herdsmen. This spot has no view, but is sheltered, and the air is often clear while the Kulm, Staffel, and Scheidegg are shrouded in mist. Walk from the Klösterli to the Rigi-First 20 min., Unterstetten $1 / 2$ hr., to the Staffel, the Rothstock, or the Schild $3 / 4$, to the Dossen or Kulm $1 \frac{1}{4} \mathrm{hr}$., to the Scheidegg $1 / \frac{\mathrm{hr}}{\mathrm{h}}$.

At (5 M.) stat. Rigi-Staffel (p. 102) a striking *View is suddenly disclosed to the W. and N. To the ( $51 / 2$ M.) Rigi-Kulm, see p. 102.

Foot and Bridle Paths to the Rigi (comp. p. 101). From Weggis (p. 94) a bridle-path ( $3^{1 / 4} \mathrm{hrs}$.), which cannot be missed (finger-post 5 min . from the landing-place), winds at first through productive orchards. It crosses the track of a mud-stream which descended from the mountain in 1795, taking a fortnight to reach the lake. 50 min . Sentiberg Restaurant ( $2643^{\prime}$ ); 25 min . Heiligkreuz-Capelle ( $3150^{\prime}$ ); $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. *Hôtel-Pension Felsenthor (p. 101), near the Hochstein or Käsbissen, an arch formed of huge masses of conglomerate. (Stat. Romiti, higher up, p. 102.) The path runs parallel to the railway part of the way. $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. Kaltbad, p. 102. This route commands beautiful views and is recommended for the descent (comp. p. 101).

From Küssnacht (p. 111), $31 / 4$ hrs., bridle-path. From the Tell Fountain, in the middle of the village, a lane to the E. leads to a finger-post indicating the good path to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Vordere Seeboden-Alp ( $3372^{\prime}$; our path unites with those from Immensee and Tell's Chapel. Lastly a steep zigzag ascent, partly through wood, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Rigi-Staffel (p. 102).

From Goldau (p. 115), $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., an excellent bridle-path. Opposite the Rüssli, below the chapel, we direrge to the right from the Arth and Schwyz road, and ascend to the left of the $A a$ through meadows, pinewood, and rocky debris, by steps at places. To the left, the precipitous Rothfuh ( $5233^{\prime}$ ). 1 hr . Untere Dächli ( $3083^{\prime}$; Inn); good view of the valley of Goldau, Lake Lowerz, and the Myten of Schwyz. By the adjacent cross begin the thirteen stations or oratories which lead to the chapel of Our Lady of the Snow. At ( 20 min .) the Obere Dächli, with its fresh spring, the wood is quitted; on the opposite side of the valley runs the railway. The second half of the ronte is easier. 10 min . MalchusKapelle, the 8th station; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. Klösterli (see above); thence to the RigiStaffel (p. 102) 40 min., to the First 20 min . (p. 106).

The Rigi-Kulm (5905'), the highest and northernmost point of the Rigi, descends abruptly on the N. to the Lake of Zug, while on the S.W. side it joins that part of the mountain which encloses the basin of the Klösterli and extends to the Scheidegg. At the top rises a wooden belvedere. The hotels (p. 101) stand about 130 paces below the summit, sheltered from the W. and N. winds.

The Kulm almost always presents a busy scene, especially in the morning and evening. The sunset is the chief attraction. A performer on the Alpine horn blows the 'retreat' of the orb of day, after which the belvedere is soon deserted.

Half-an-hour before sunrise the Alpine horn sounds the reveille. All is again noise and bustle; the crowded hotels are for the nonce without a tenant; and the summit is thronged with an eager multitude, enveloped in all manner of wraps. Unfortunately a perfectly cloudless sunrise is rare.

A faint streak in the E., gradually paling the brightness of the stars, heralds the birth of day. This insensibly changes to a band of gold on the horizon; each lofty peak becomes tinged with a roseate blush; the shadows between the Rigi and the horizon melt away; forests, lakes, hills, towns, and villages are revealed; all is grey and cold, until the sun bursts from behind the mountains in all his majesty, flooding the superb landscape with light and warmth.
View. The first object which absorbs our attention is the stupendous range of the snow-clad Alps, 120 M . in length (comp. the Panorama). The chain begins in the far E. with the Sentis in Canton Appenzell, over or near which the first rays of the rising sun appear in summer. Nearer us rises the huge snowy crest of the Glärnisch; then, the Tödi, in front of which are the Clariden, and to the right the double peak of the Scheerhorn; next, the broad Windgelle, immediately opposite, and the pyramid of the Bristenstock, on the St. Gotthard route; then the Brunnistock and the Uri-Rothstock, side by side, so near that we can distinguish the ice of their glaciers; next, the broad Schlossberg and the serrated Spannörter, and more to the right the Titlis, the highest of the Unterwalden Mts., easily recognised by its vast mantle of snow. The eye next travels to the Bernese Alps, crowning the landscape with their majestic peaks clad with perpetual snow. To the extreme left is the Finsteraarhorn, loftiest of all $\left(14,025^{\prime}\right)$; next to it the Lauteraarhorn and the Schreckhorn, the Wetterhörner (Rosenhorn, Mittelhorn, and Wetterhorn), the broad Mönch, the Eiger with its dark precipices on the N. side, and the Jungfrau with the Silberhorn. To the W. tower the jagged peaks of Pilatus, the extreme outpost of the Alps in this direction. - Towards the North we survey the entire Lake of $Z u g$, with the roads to Arth, and the villages of Zug, Cham, Risch, and Walchwyl. To the left of Lake Zug, at the foot of the Rigi, stands Tell's Chapel, midway between Immensee and Küssnacht, a little to the left of a white house;

then, separated from Lake Zug by a narrow strip of land, the Küssnacht Bay of the Lake of Lucerne; more to the W., Lucerne with its battlements and towers, at the head of its bay. Beyond Lucerne is seen almost the whole canton of that name, and farther to the N. Canton Aargau, with the Emme streaking the landscape like a silver thread; the Reuss is also visible at places. More distant are the Lake of Sempuch, the W. side of which is skirted by the railway to Bâle, and the lakes of Baldegg and Hallwyl. - To the West and North-West the horizon is bounded by the Jura Mts., above which peep several crests of the Vosges. To the N., but to the left of the Lake of Zug, in the distance, rises the Hapsburg; farther off is the Black Forest, with its highest peaks, the Feldberg (right) and the Belchen (left). Beyond Lake Zug is seen the crest of the Albis with the Uetliberg, which nearly conceals the Lake of Zürich; the long cantonal hospital and the cathedral of Zürich are, however, visible, with the large new Hôtel Dolder above them. On the horizon rise the basaltic cones of Hohenhöwen and Hohenstoffeln (close together) and the Hohentwiel in Swabia. - To the East, behind the N. slope of the Rossberg, we get a. glimpse of the Lake of Ägeri. Beyond Arth, opposite the Kulm, is the Rossberg, the S. slope of which was the scene of the terrible Goldau landslip (p. 115). Between the Rossberg and the E. spurs of the Rigi lies the Lake of Lowerz, with its two islets; beyond it, the town of Schwyz, at the foot of the two bald Myten, overtopped by the imposing Glärnisch. To the right, the Muota-Thal. - To the South-East and South the different heights of the Rigi form the foreground: the Hochfluh (below it the Rothenfluh), Scheidegg, Dossen, and the Schild, at the foot of which lies the Klösterli. To the left of the Schild part of the Lake of Lucerne is seen near Beckenried, and to the right the Bay of Buochs, with the Buochser Horn above it; more to the right the Stanser Horn with Stans at its base; nearer, the less lofty Bürgenstock and the Rigi-Rothstock. Beyond these, to the left, is the Lake of Sarnen, amid forest; to the right, the Bay of Alpnach, separated from the Lake of Lucerne by the Lopperberg, a spur of Pilatus. - Good panorama by Keller, upon which ours is based.

For a quarter of an hour before and after sunrise the view is clearest; at a later hour the mists form into clouds, which often completely shroud the Kulm. To quote the chamois - hunter in Schiller's Tell:

> 'Through the parting clouds only
> The earth can be seen,
> Far down 'neath the vapour
> The meadows of green.'

But even the mists possess a certain charm, surging in the depths of the valleys, and struggling against the rays of the sun. The lights and shades, ever varying, are also a source of constant interest. In the morning the Bernese Alps are seen to the best advantage, and in the evening those to the E. of the Bristenstock. One whole day at least should be devoted to the Rigi. A visit may also be paid (on foot or by rail) to the Staffel (p. 102) and the Rothstock (p. 102), the Kaltbad (p. 102) and the Känzeli (p. 102), the Klösterli (p. 103), or the Scheidegg (see below).

As the temperature often varies $40-50^{\circ}$ within 24 hours, wraps should not be forgotten. During the Föhn, or S. wind, the Alps seem to draw nearer, their outlines become more definite, their tints warmer; and during a W. wind the Jura Mts. present a similar appearance. These phenomena portend rain.

From the Kaltbad to the Rigi-Scheidegg. - 41⁄4 M. Railway (ordinary line) in 25 min ; fare 2 fr . 50 , there and back 3 fr .60 c .

Rigi-Kaltbad (4730'), see p. 102. The railway skirts the S. slope of the Rothstock, being hewn in the rock the greater part of the way, and ascends gradually to stat. Rigi-First (4795'; *Hotel, see p. 101), which commands a superb view of the Lake of Lucerne, the Uri and Unterwalden Mts., and the Bernese Alps. The train describes a wide curve round the N. slopes of the Schilt (5088' ; 20 min . from the Hôtel Rigi-First), affording a pleasant view, towards the E., of the Myten, the Glärnisch, and the Alps of Appenzell. Beyond stat. Cnterstetten (hotel, see p. 101) we traverse the saddle of the hill and cross a bridge, with a view to the N. and S. We pass through the Weissenegg Tunnel, cross the Dossentobel by a viaduct, and follow the ridge connecting the Dossen with the Scheidegg (riew towards the S.) to Unter-Dossen.

Stat. Rigi-Scheidegg, 190' below the *Hotel \& Curhaus (5462'; p. 101). The view here is less extensive than from the Kulm, but it embraces the chief mountains, and some points not visible from the Kulm (view-tower 70'; panorama at the hotel). The plateau of the Scheidegg, 1 M . long, affords a pleasant walk, which may be prolonged by the 'Seeweg' on the N. slope of the Dossen as far as Unterstetten. The Dossen (see below), a splendid point of view, is $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. distant.

The ${ }^{*}$ Hochfluh ( $5564^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended in $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Scheidegg, by a new path which follows the ridge, passing the Gätterli (pass from Gersau to Lowerz; p. 96) and Scharteggli (4625'). In the couloir, on the N.W. side of the summit, an almost perpendicular iron ladder, 80 high, must be ascended (wire-railing; steady head indispensable). This interesting ascent affords a most picturesque view of the Lake of Uri, the Alps of Uri and Schwyz, and the Glarner Alps. The older route ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.), crossing the saddle towards the Zihlistock-Hütte, and ascending among the rocks on the S. side, has also been improved, and is preferable to the route on the N. side (see p. 96).

Paths to the Scheidegg. From Gersat (p. 96) a new road ( $31 / 4 \mathrm{~J}$. long) ascends at a gradient of 9 to 13 per cent to the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Alp Obermatt, whence a footpath leads to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Rigi-Scheidegg.

From the Klösterli (p. 103) a bridie-path ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), beginuing at the Schwert Inn, ascends to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hôtel Rigi-Unterstetten (see above), situated on the saddle between the Schild and Dossen ( $5540^{\circ}$ ), 40 min . below the summit, which commands the whole of the Lake of Lucerne and Canton Unterwalden. Descent viâ Unterdossen to Scheidegg in 40 minutes.

29. From Lucerne to Alpnachstad. Pilatus.

Comp. Map, p. 93.
Brūnig Railway from Lacerne to ( $81 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Alpnachstad in $27-32 \mathrm{~min}$., ( $1 \mathrm{fr} .40 \mathrm{c} ., 1 \mathrm{fr}$., 70 c .; return-tickets $2 \mathrm{fr} .25,1 \mathrm{fr} .60,1 \mathrm{fr} .15 \mathrm{c}$.), see p. 128. - Steamboat 9 times daily in $3 / 4-11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ( 6 times viâ Kehrsiten, thrice viâ Hergisw yl, twice direct viâ Stansstad), connecting at Alpnachstad with the Brünig and Pilatus Railways. Passengers with through-tickets may use as far as Alpnachstad either the Brünig Railway or the steamboat. The ascent or descent by the Pilatus Railway (p. 108) takes 1 hr .25 min.; fares, up 10, down 6 fr ; return-fare for the first and the last train 12 fr .; combined tickets for railway and hotel, including R., D., \& B. 25 fr., recommended; Sunday tickets, valid in May and Oct. for the first, in JuneSept. for the first and second trains (return by any train) 9 fr . (from Lucerne 10 fr .).

The Brïnig Railway to Alpnachstad, viâ Hergiswyl, see p. 139. - The Steamboat steers towards the 'Kreuztrichter' (p. 93), skirting the W. bank and passing the country-seat of Tribschen, the Pension Stutz (p. 83), the St. Niklaus-Capelle, and the station of Kastanienbaum (*Pension & Restaurant, with pretty grounds, pens. $5-7$ fr.), and enters the bay of Stansstad. To the left rises the bold Bürgenstock, at the N.E. angle of which lies the station of Kehr-siten-Bürgenstock (restaurant).

A Wire-Rope Railway ascends the *Bürgenstock ( $2855^{\prime}$ ') from Kchrsiten in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (fares, up $11 / 2,1 \mathrm{fr}$.; down $1 \mathrm{fr} ., 50 \mathrm{c}$.), a distance of 1025 yds.; average gradient 45:100. The motive power is electricity, which is also utilised for pumping water and for lighting. At the top of the railway ( $1420^{\prime}$ above the level of the lake) is the Railway Restaurant (Munich beer), with terrace, beside which are the "Park Hotel and "Restcurant Helvetia (moderate prices); 3 min . farther to the S . the large ${ }^{\text {\# }}$ Htel Bürgenstock ( R . $21 / 2-7$, B. $11 / 2$, D. 5 , board 7 fr.; resident physician; Engl. Ch. Service; S. B. G. H.), a favourite health-resort, with extensive and shady gronnds (music-tax $21 / 2$ fr. per week). The hotel and several points near it command beautiful views of the lakes of Lucerne, Zug, Sempach, and Baldegg, the Rigi, etc. A good path leads to the S.E. viâ the Trogen Dairy to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Honegg ( $2906^{\prime}$; Restaurant in summer); another asceuds through wood to the N.E. to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) "Hammetschwand (3713'), the summit of the Bürgenstock, which descends abruptly to the Lake of Lucerne: striking view of the greater part of the lake, of the lakes of Sarnen, Sempach, Baldegg, Hallwyl, and Zug, of the Rigi, Pilatus, Myten, Weissenstein, and of the Alps of Glarus and Unterwalden, and part of the Bernese Alps (panorama 50 c .). An easy descent leads viâ Obbür'gen (Flüeler`s Inn, plain) to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Stansstad (see below), where we may take the steamer for Lucerne.

To the right the promontory of Spissenegg juts into the lake and forms a bay extending N. to Winkel. The steamer calls at Kehr-siten-Dorf and then steers S.W. to Hergiswyl (*Hôt.-Pens. Rössli; *Pens. Pilatus, pens. 5-6 fr.; *Hôt.-Pens. Friedheim, 4-6 fr.; *Pens. Rütli, $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{fr}$; Pens. Schweizerheim, moderate), at the foot of Pilatus (see p. 109); thence again to the E. to Stansstad (1445'; Hôtel Winkelried, R. 2-4, B. 11/4, D. 31/2, pens. from 5 fr.; Freienhof, pens. 4-6 fr., well spoken of ; Rössli; Schlüssel), the 'harbour of Stans'. The square pinnacled Schnitz-Thurm was erected by the Swiss in 1308 to vindicate their newly-won independence.

Electric Tramway from Stansstad to Stans, and cable-line thence to the top of the *Stanser Horn, see p. 134. - From Stans to Engelberg, see R. 36.

Wale from Stansstad to Sarnen, 3 hrs. The path skirts the lake for a short way, enters the Rotzloch, and at Allweg ( ${ }^{*}$ Inn), 2 M . from Stansstad, where there is a chapel in memory of Winkelried ( $\mathrm{pp} .19,134$ ), joins the Stans and Sarnen Road (no diligence). This road leads past the W. base of the Stanser Horn (p. 134), and by Rohren to ( 2 M.) St. Jakob, a village with an old church, then across the Mehlbach, and through the Kernocald to ( 3 M.) Kerns and ( $11 / 2$ M.) Sarnen (p. 140).

The Lopper, the F. spur of Pilatus, extends far into the lake. At its base runs the Lucerne and Alpnach road, while the Brünig railway (p. 139) pierces the hill by a tunnel. The brook opposite, which falls into the lake at Stansstad, has further narrowed the channel between the Lake of Lucerne and the Lake of Alpnach with its deposits, and the strait is now crossed by an embankment and a swing-bridge (Acheregg-Brücke), which is opened for the passage of steamers. Within the bay of Alpnach rises the Rotzberg ( $2214^{\prime}$ ), crowned by a ruined castle (ascent from the Rotzloch $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; view). The hill is separated from the Plattiberg by the Rotzloch, a narrow ravine. Portland cement factory (dust unpleasant). On the lake is Hôtel-Pension Rotzloch, with a sulphur-spring and grounds (pens. 4-5 fr.).

At the S.W. angle of the Lake of Alpnach lies Alpnachstad (1443'; *Hôt. Pilatus, R., L., & A.2-3, B. 11/4, D. $31 / 2$, pens. $6-8$ fr., with veranda and garden; Rössli, moderate), a station of the Brünig Railway and the starting-point of the Pilatus Railway.
*Pilatus (6995'), the lofty mountain to the S.W. of Lucerne, rises boldly in a rugged and imposing mass, almost isolated from the surrounding heights. The W. and N. portions belong to the canton of Lucerne, the E. and S. to Unterwalden. The lower slopes are clothed with beautiful pastures and forests, while the upper part consists of wild and serrated cliffs, from which its ancient name Fractus Mons (broken mountain) is derived. The names 'Fracmont', 'Frakmund', have in later times been occasionally applied to it, but the name Pilatus (perhaps from the mediæval 'Mons Pileatus', the hatted mountain) came into general use about the close of last centtury. The summit is generally free from clouds and fog in the evening and early morning, but is apt to be shrouded at midday. It is, therefore, advisable to spend the night on the top (prices, etc., see pp. 107, 109). The flora is very rich (nearly 500 species).

The names of the different peaks from W. to E. are the Mittaggüpf or Gnepfstein (6290'), the Rothendossen (5833'), the Widderfeld (6817', the wildest), the Tomlishorn (6995', the highest), the Gemsmättli (6732'); to the S. the Matthorn ( 6693 '); to the N. the Klimsenhorn ( $6265^{\prime}$ ', which, seen from Lucerne, is the farthest W.); in the centre the Oberhaupt ( $6920^{\prime}$ ), then the Esel ( $6962^{\prime}$, the most frequently ascended), and lastly the SteigliEgg ( 6485 ').

The Pilatus Railway (fares, etc., see p. 107; best views to the right), constructed in $1886-88$ by Col. Locher of Zürich, is nearly 3 M . long, with an average gradient of $42: 100$, and a maximum gradient of $48: 100$. The line rests throughout on a substructure of massive granite blocks and slabs, to which an upper framework of iron and steel is securely fastened with huge screws. The toothed rail has vertical teeth on both sides, into which two pairs of toothed wheels attached to the train work horizontally.

The engine and the passenger-carriage ( 32 seats) form a single car with two axles.

The railway begins near Hôtel Pilatus (1443'; see p. 108), and at once ascends, traversing orchards and afterwards wood. 21 min . Wolfort (2985'), a watering-station, beyond which the train crosses the gorge of the Wolfort; fine view of the Lake of Alpnach to the right. We enter the Wolfort Tunnel ( 48 yds .) and are carried along the stony slope of the Risleten, the most difficult portion of the line to construct (gradient 48:100). Then through the Lower (56 yds.) and Upper Spycher Tunnel ( 106 yds.; 3773' above the sealevel) to the ( 43 min .) Aemsigen-Alp (4430'), a passing-station with pumping-works which force water to the Pilatus-Kulm, 2360' above. The train now ascends through wood on the brink of a gorge, crosses the Mattalp (to the right the Steigli-Egg; in front the Esel ; to the left the precipitous Matthorn), turns to the N., and mounts the steep rocky slope of the Esel through four tunnels (48, 60, 50, and 12 yds.). The terminus Pilatuskulm (6790') adjoins the old Hôtel Bellevue, now a dépendance of the Hôtel Pilatuskulm (R., L., \& A. $5-8$, B. 2, lunch 4, D. 5 fr.; with hotel-tickets, p. 107, nearly one third less; restaurant in the sunk floor). The terrace commands a splendid mountain-view. - An easy path leads from the station to ( 6 min. ) the top of the $$ Esel, or Etzel $\left(6962^{\prime}\right.$ ), the chief point, with a spacious plateau, enclosed by a parapet. The view surpasses that from the Rigi in grandeur and variety, the Bernese Alps in particular looming nearer and more massive (comp. the panorama). A similar but less picturesque view is that from the *Tomlishorn ( $6995^{\prime}$ ), the highest peak of Pilatus, to which a good path (varying views), skirting the rocky slopes of the Oberhaupt and Tomlishorn and crossing the arête (railings; no danger), leads from Hôtel Pilatuskulm in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (panorama by Imfeld). - Another new path, cut in the rocks, leads to the top of the Matthorn (6693'; from Hôtel Pilatuskulm 2 hrs., there and back).

Walkers will find the ascent of Pllatus easiest from Hergiswyl (p. 107), at its N.W. base. There is a bridle-path as far as ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Hôtel Klimsenhorn, whence a footpath ascends to ( 40 min.) the Pilatuskulm. In front of the church we take the broader path to the left, and after 3 min . turn to the right, traversing orchards and meadows, and afterwards wood. At ( 1 hr .) the Curhaus Brunni ( $3230^{\prime}$; pens. from 5 fr.) a terrace affords a fine view. After $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. the path leads through a gate to the Gschuend-Alp; 20 min . farther up, near a chalet (inn, with beds), we pass through another gate, and ascend in steep zigzags to the left, at first through beautiful pinewood, and then across slopes of grass and debris, to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hôtel Klimsenhorn (R., L., \& A. $3-4$, B. $1^{1 / 2}, \mathrm{D} .3^{11 / 2}$ fr.), on the saddle ( $5940^{\circ}$ ) connecting the Oberhaupt with the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Klimsenhorn ( $6260^{\prime}$ ), which affiords an extensive and picturesque prospect to the E., N., and W., from the Uri Mis. to the Lake of Neuchâtel. The view to the S. is hidden by the loftier peaks of Pilatus.

From the Hôtel Klimsenhorn a good zigzag path (iron railing higher up) ascends the steep slope of the Oberhaupt, to the ( 40 min .) Kriesiloch, a hole in the rock resembling a chimney, $20^{\circ}$ high, through which 52 steps ascend to the arête between the Oberhaupt and the Esel. "View of the Bernese Alps suddenly disclosed. Then in 4 min . to the Hôtel Pilatuskulm.

The Pilatuskulm is also reached by footpaths from Alpnachstad ( $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.; by the Aemsigen-Alp and Maltalp) and from Alpnach (p. 140; $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.; by the Alps of Lütholdsmatt, Schwodndi, and Hinter-Frakmïnd). - From Kriens (p. 92) a path leads to ( $31 / 2-4$ hrs.) Hôtel Klimsenhorn, passing the château of Schavensee, through the Hochoold, and marshy pastures, by the Mühlenmäs-Alp and Frakmünd-Alp (guide). Viâ the Bründlen-Alp (last part very rough), see p. 92.

30. From Zug and Lucerne to Arth-Goldau.

i. From Zug to Arth-Goldau. Lake of Zug.

$101 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. St. Gotthard Railwat in $23-28 \mathrm{~min}$. ( 1 fr . $70,1 \mathrm{fr}$. $20,85 \mathrm{c}$.). Steamboat from Zug to Arth during the season thrice daily in 1 hr . 22 minutes.
a. Railway. - Zug (1385́), see p. 85. The line intersects the suburb of Zug by a long viaduct, passes under the town by a tunnel ( 638 yds.), and after about 3 M . approaches the Lake of $\mathbf{Z u g}$ (see below), which it then skirts, in a series of cuttings, embankments, and viaducts over the ravines descending from the Zuger Berg. Charming view, to the right, of the lake, with the château of Buonas and Immensee on its E. bank. Two tunnels; then ( 6 M .) stat. Walchwil (see below). After five more tunnels the line quits the lake and ascends along the base of the Rossberg to $\left(10^{1 / 2} \mathrm{M}\right.$.) stat. Arth-Goldau (p. 115).
b. Steamboat. - The Lake of Zug (1368'), $83 / 4 \mathrm{M} . \operatorname{long}, 2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{M}$. wide, and $650^{\prime}$ deep, is very picturesque. Its richly wooded banks rise gently to a moderate height, while to the S., above its azure waters, towers the Rigi, visible from base to summit. Soon after the steamer has left the pier, Pilatus appears to the S.W., and then the Bernese Alps and the Stanser Horn to the left. On a promontory on the W. bank is the handsome château of Buonas ; on the E. bank lie the village of Oberwil; to the N., the church-tower of Cham (p. 87). On the W. bank, farther on, the wooded promontory of Kiemen projects far into the lake. The steamer touches at Lothenbach on the E. bank, and then crosses to Immensee ( ${ }^{*}$ Hôt. Rigi, pens. from 5 fr .), charmingly situated at the foot of the Rigi. (Rail. stat., see p. 115.) The steamer then steers diagonally across the lake to Walchwil (*Curhaus \& Pens. Neidhardt, pens. $0-6 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ *Stern), on the E. bank. The mildness of the climate is indicated by chestnut-trees and vines. To the left lies St. Adrian, at the foot of the Rossberg (p. 114). Arth (1395'; 3400 inhab. ; *Adler, with garden on the lake; *Hôt. Rigi) lies at the S. end of the lake, between the Rigi and the Rossberg, but not exposed to the landslips of the latter, the strata of which dip in another direction.

Steam Tramocay from Arth to Arth-Goldau in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. ( 30 c ., retarn$t^{\text {icket } 50} \mathrm{c}$.); comp. p. 102.

ii. From Lucerne to Küssnacht and Arth-Goldau.

Gotthard Ratlway in $30-50 \mathrm{~min}$. ( $2 \mathrm{fr} .95,2 \mathrm{fr} .5,1 \mathrm{fr} .45 \mathrm{c}$.), see p. 115. - Steamboat from Lucerne to ( 8 M .) Küssnacht in 45.55 min . ( 1 fr . 80 , 30 c.). Railway from Küssnacht to (5 M.) Arth-Goldau in 19 minutes. From Küssacht through the 'Hoble Gasse' to Immensee by the road $13 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. (one-horse carr. 3 fr .).

Departure from Lucerne, see p. 93. The steamer touches at Pens. Seeburg, rounds the Meggenhorn (p. 93), and enters the Bay of Küssnacht. High above the W. bank runs the St. Gotthard Railway (p.115). To the left, near stat. Vorder-Meggen (Zur Balm Inn; Hôt.-Peus. Angelfluh), rises the picturesque château of Neu-Hapsburg, behind which peeps the ancient tower of the castle of that name, once a frequent resort of the Emp. Rudolph when Count of Hapsburg, and destroyed by the Lucerners in 1352. The incident which induced Rudolph to present his horse to the priest is said to have occurred here (see Schiller's ballad, 'The Count of Hapsburg').

Stations Hinter-Meggen ( ${ }^{*}$ Curhaus \& Pens. Gottlieben, pleasantly situated $1 / 4$ M. from the lake, pens. $6-71 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.) and Mörlischachen (*Eintracht; Linde), a prettily situated village. The steamer now crosses to Greppen, on the E. bank, skirts the wooded slopes of the Rigi, and soon reaches - 8M. Kūssnacht(1443'; pop. 2940; *Hôtel-Curhaus Mon-Séjour, with hydropathic, garden, and lake-baths, R. 11/2-2, déj. 2, D. $21 / 2$, pens. 5-6 fr.; *Hôt.-Pens. du Lac, pens. from 5 fr. ; *Schwarzer Adler; Pens. Dr. Aufdermaur; Rössli; Tell), a village prettily situated at the N. end of this bay of the lake, with a fine distant view. - Ascent of the Rigi, see p. 103.

A good road from Küssnacht ascends viâ Haltikon to the thriving and finely situated village of ( 1 hr .) Udligenswyl ( 2050 ; Engel), whence the *St. Michaelskreuz (2615'), locally known as the 'Kleine Rigi', may be easily reached in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. Unpretending *Inn and chapel on the top, which commands a beautiful view of the lakes of Zug and Lucerne, the Alps, and the hilly landscapes of N . Switzerland. A more extensive view is enjoyed from the Ochsenvaldhöhe ( $2685{ }^{\prime}$ ), 5 min . from the inn. The St. Michaelskreuz may also be ascended by good roads from Gisikon (in 1 hr .), from Rotkreuz ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), and from Lucerne, viâ Adligensxyl ( 1770 '; Pens. Sackhof) and Udiigenswyl (in 3 hrs .).

The road ascends the 'Hohle Gasse' ('hollow lane'; see Schiller's 'Tell'), now half filled up, shaded at one point by lofty beeches. At the upper end of it, $1 \frac{1}{4} \mathrm{M}$. from Küssnacht, to the left, is Tell's Chapel ( $1585^{\prime}$ ), rebuilt in 1834, marking the spot where the tyrant Gessler is said to have been shot by Tell. Over the door is a painting of the event, with an inscription. By the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) inn $* Z u r$ Eiche the road divides. A few paces to the right is stat. Immensee (p.115). The road to the left descends to $(1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the village of Immensee ( p .110 ).

commanding beantiful views of the lake, with the Curfirsten and Sentis in the background. $171 / 2$ M. Burghalden ( $1740^{\prime}$ ); 191/2 M. Samstagern (2080'; restaurant), junction of the line (to the left) to Rapperswil-Pfäffikon viâ Wollerau (p.47). - Beyond ( 21 M.) Schindellegi ( 2480 ' ; *Freihof ; Hirsch) we cross the brawling Sihl.

Diligence twice daily in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to ( 3 M .) Feusisberg ( 2233 '; *Curhaus Feusisgarten; Hot. Reichmuth; at both pens. $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{fr}$.), a health-resort, pleasantly situated, with fine view of the Lake of Zürich and the Alps of Appenzell. - About $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the W . of Schindellegi (diligence twice daily in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) is the whey-cure resort of Hütten ( $2428^{\prime}$; Krone; Kreuz), charmingly situated on the idyllic Hüttensee, at the foot of the wooded Hohe Rhonen ( $405^{5} 5^{\prime}$ ). - The Dreiländerstein ( $3907^{\prime}$ ), the E. point of the Hohe Rhonen, marking the boundaries of Cantons Zürich, Zug, and Schwyz, may be reached from Schindellegi in 1 hr ., and the walk may be continued along the crest of the hill to the Gottschalkenberg (see below).

The line rounds the E. slopes of the Hohe Rhonen and approaches the $A l p$, which falls into the Sihl here. To the S. appear the Myten (p. 116). - Beyond ( 23 M.) Biberbrūcke (2730'; Post), where the Biber falls into the Alp, the Glarus Mts., bounded on the left by the pyramidal Köpfenstock ( $6240^{\prime}$ ), form the background.

Pleasant excursion from Biberbrücke (by road $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; omnibns twice daily, 3 fr .: damp footpath, to the right, about halfway, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) to the top of the *Gottschalkenberg ( $3780^{\prime}$; "Curhaus, pens. $6-10$ fr.), the W. prolongation of the Hohe Rhonen (see above), commanding a fine view of the Alps (finest from the Belvedere, 10 min . to the S.). The descent may be made to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Ober-Ageri ( p .66 ), to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Richtersweil (p. 47), or by Menzingen to ( 6 M.) Zug (p. 85).

From Biberbrückb to Einsibdeln, 3 M., branch-railway in 13 min ., through the narrow Alpthal.

Fron Pfäffikon (p. 47) by the Etzel to Einsiedeln, 31/2 hrs. A narrow road commanding fine views of the lake ascends in windings, past the Pens. Lugeten, to the ( 3 M .) pass of the Etzel ( $3145^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*} I n n$ ), with the Chapel of St. Meinrad. The Hohe-Etzel ( $3610^{\prime}$; steep ascent of $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the inn) is wooded, and commands no view, but the *Schönboden ( $3513^{\prime}$ ), $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the E., affords a splendid view of the lake, the LimmatThal as far as Baden, the Alps of Appenzell and Glarus, the Sihlthal and Alpthal, with Einsiedeln, the Myten of Schwyz, the Rossberg, and the Rigi ; to the W. rises the Hohe Rhonen (see above). Travellers bound for Einsiedeln may descend from the Schönboden towards the S.W. direct to Egg, visible below, cross the Sihl, and join the road from the Etzel. From the Etzel Inn the road descends to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Teufelsbriucke ( $2755^{\prime}$ ) over the Sihl. Thence $3^{3} / 4 \mathrm{Mr}$. to Einsiedeln.

Einsiedeln (2900'; pop. 9000; *Pfau, R.& A. from 21⁄2, B. 1.20, D. with wine 3, pens. $61 / 2$-10 fr.; *Sonne; Drei Könige; St. Catharina; St. Georg; Schwan; Restaurant Ochslin, with rooms), or Notre-Dame-des-Ermites (Monasterium Eremitarum), in a green valley, watered by the Alpbach, vies with Rome and Loreto in Italy, St. Jago de Compostella in Spain, and Mariazell in Styria as one of the most famous pilgrim-resorts in the world.

Its foundation is attributed to Count Meinrad of Sulgen, who built a chapel here in honour of a wonder-working image of the Virgin presented to him by the Abbess Hildegard of Zürich. After Meinrad's death in 861, a monastery of Benedictine Hermits ('Einsiedler') sprang up here. In 1274 it was created an independent principality by Emp. Rudolph of Hapsburg, and owing to the ever increasing throng of pilgrims it soon vied with St. Gallen as one of the richest monasteries in Switzerland.

In the large open space between the houses (a great many of which are inns for the pilgrims) and the lofty buildings of the monastery rises a black marble Fountain with fourteen jets, surmounted by an image of the Virgin, from which the pilgrims are wont to drink. The pilgrims, chiefly from Switzerland, Bavaria, Swabia, Baden, and Alsace, number about 150,000 annually. The chief festival takes place on 14th September.

Under the Arcades, which form a semicircular approach to the church on the right and left, as well as in the Platz itself, there are numerous stalls for the sale of prayer-books, images of saints, rosaries, medals, crucifixes, and other 'devotional' objects. So great is the demand for engravings, religious works, and other souvenirs of the place, that at Benziger' &' Co.'s establishment no fewer than 900 workmen are employed in printing and stereotyping, engraving on wood and zinc, chromo-lithographing, book-binding, etc.

The extensive Abbey Buildings, in the Italian style, which were re-erected for the sixth or seventh time in 1704-19, are 148 yds . long, 41 yds . of which are occupied by the Church and its two slender towers. On the right and left of the entrance are Statues of the Emperors Otho I. and Henry II., two benefactors of the Abbey.

The Interior of the church is gaudily decorated with gilding, marble, and pictures of little value. In the nave stands the Chapel of the Virgin, of black marble, the 'Sanctum Sanctorum', with a grating, through which, illuminated by a solitary lamp, a small Image of the Virgin and Child is visible, richly attired, and decked with crowns of gold and precious stones. In the chapel to the right, a Crucifix by J. Kraus; in the choir, an Assumption by the same artist, skilfully restored by Deschwanden in 1858. The magnificent chandelier was dedicated by Napoleon IlI. in memory of his mother. - The Abbey contains a well-arranged Library of 50,000 volumes, chiefly historical, a number of MSS., and a small natural history collection. The Fürstensaal is hung with good lifesize portraits, including those of Pius IX. and the emperors William I., Francis Joseph, and Napoleon III. The Private Chapel of the abbot is adorned with paintings of ecclesiastical events. - Connected with the Abbey are a Seminary and a Lyceum.

The Herrenberg ( 3650 '; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), a hill above the Abbey to the S.E., commands a beautiful view. Similar views from the Kreuz or from the St. Meinradsberg, $3 / 4$ M. to the S. of the town. - About $1 / 4$ M. to the W., near the station, is an interesting Panorama of the Crucifixion, by Leigh, Frosch, and Krieger (adm. 1 fr .).

From Einsiedeln to Schwiz over the Hacken ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), destitute of shade, and very disagreeable in bad weather. We ascend the monotonous Alpthal (with the nunnery of $A u$ on the right) to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) village of Alpthal ( $3255^{\prime}$; "Stern), where the somewhat rough and steep log-path ascending the Hacken begins. In $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. we gain a point where the space between the two Myten ( p .116 ), shaped like the letter V , is distinctly observed, and in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more reach the Inn on the Hacken Pass ( $4568^{\prime}$ ), which commands a splendid view of the lakes of Lucerne and Lowerz, etc. (The view is still finer from the Hochstuckli, $5105^{\prime}, 1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. higher up, to the N., and embraces the N. part of the lake and the town of Zürich.) Descent to ( 1 hr .) Schoyz steep and stony.

From Einsiedeln to Schwyz over the Iberger Egg, $151 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Good road through the Sihlthal or Euthal by Steinbach and Euthal to ( 8 M .) Ober-Iberg (34S3'; *Hôt.-Pens. Holdener, pens. from 4 fr ; Post, well spoken of), a health-resort; thence to the ( $3^{3 / 4} \mathbf{M}$.) Iberger Egg ( 4823 ) or Heilighäuschen, affording a fine survey of the Lake of Lucerne and the Alps, and by Bülisberg and Rickenbach to ( $33 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Schwyz.

Beyond Biberbrücke (p. 112) the railway crosses the Biber, and ascends across a monotonous plateau. From ( $25^{1 / 2}$ M.) Altmatt ( $3030^{\prime}$; Rössli), a poor hamlet on a large moor, a road leads in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the Gottschalkenberg (p. 112).

28 M. Rothenthurm (3040' ; Ochs, R. 11/2, B. 1, D. 2, pens. $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{fr}$.; Schlüssel), with a new Romanesque church, where to the left the Myten, and to the right the long back of the Rigi and the hotels on the Kulm become visible, is named after a red tower belonging to fortifications (Letze) once erected by the Schwyzers to protect their N.W. boundary. In the vicinity, on 2nd May, 1798, the Schwyzers under Reding defeated the French, who lost 2000 men. The railway then descends the wooded valley of the Steiner-A $a$ to (31 M.) Sattel-Ägeri; to the left is the prettily situated village of Sattel ( 2540 '; Neue Krone, at the station, plain, pens. $41 / 2-6$ fr.; Alte Krone, in the village).

The Schlagstrasse, as the picturesque road from Sattel to Schwyz is called ( $6 \mathrm{M}_{.}$; a fine walk), crosses the Steiner-Aa and ascends on the W. slope of the Hacken (p. 113), affording beautiful views of the fertile valley of Steinen, the Lake of Lowerz with the Schwanau, the scene of the Goldau landslip, and the Rigi. At ( $3^{3 / 4}$ M.) the ${ }^{\text { Hirsch Inn (a little }}$ farther on, the Burg Inn), Schwyz and the Myten become visible. Thence to stat. Seewen $11 / 4$ M., to Schwyz (p. 116) 2 M.

From Sattel-Ägeri to Morgarten, 2 M., omnibus in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ( 50 c .); steamboat on the Ägeri Lake, see p. 86.

The railway descends the slopes of the Rossberg, by several viaducts and a short tunnel to (34 M.) Steinerberg (1950' ; *Rössli; *Löwe, both unpretending), a village with a fine view of the valley of Lowerz, framed by the Rigi, the Fronalpstock (with the Liedernenstöcke and Märenberge in the distance), and the two Myten.

The "Rossberg (highest peak, Wildspitz, $5190^{\circ}$ ) is ascended from Steinerberg by a bridle-path in $21 / 2$ hrs. At the top, which commands a fine view (panorama by Imfeld), is the Hotel Rossberg-Kulm. From the Gnippen ( $5127^{\prime}$ '), or W . summit of the Rossberg, reached from the hotel by a level path in 20 min ., we obtain a good survey of the scene of the landslip of 1806 (comp. p. 115). - We may descend to Ägeri (p. 86) or to the Zuger Berg (p. 86).

The railway traverses the scene of the Goldau Landslip, and joins the St. Gotthard Railway (p. 115) at ( 36 M .) Arth-Goldau (Hôt. Steiner, etc.). - Rigi Railway, see p. 102.

32. From Lucerne to Bellinzona. St. Gotthard Railway.

Comp. Maps, pp. 92, 100, 136, 118, 124, 394.

$1051 / 2$ M. Railway. Express ('Blitzzug'; first class only) in $31 / 2$, fast trains in $33 / 4-51 / 3$, ordinary trains in 7 hrs .; fares $23 \mathrm{fr} .35,16 \mathrm{fr} .45,11 \mathrm{fr} .70 \mathrm{c}$. (To Lugano, $124 \mathrm{M} .$, in $41 / 4-61 / 3 \mathrm{hrs}$; 27 fr . 70 , 19 fr .40 , 13 fr .85 c . ; to Milan, $172 \frac{1}{2}$ M., in $6-9 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 36 \mathrm{fr} .5$ ), $2 \overline{\mathrm{fr}} .60$, 18 fr .20 c .). - For the day express there is a table-d'hôte at Göschenen, where the traveller should be careful to avoid an involuntary change of carriages, or even of trains. The other express trains have dining or sleeping cars. Finest views from Lucerne to Flüelen to the right, from Flüelen to Göschenen to the left, and from Airolo to Bellinzona to the right.

The *St. Gotthard Railway, constructed in 1872-96 at a cost of 262 million francs, is one of the grandest achievements of modern engineering. The highest point of the line, in the middle of the great tannel, is $3786^{\prime}$ above the sea-level, and the maximum gradient is about $1^{\prime}$ in $4^{\prime}$. At places the ascent is rendered more gradual by means of carved tunnels, piercing the sides of the valley; there are three such tunnels on the N. side, and four on the S. side of the mountain (comp. Map, p. 119). Altogether the line has 79 tunnels (of an aggregate length of $281 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.), 83 bridges, 14 viaducts, and 32 minor bridges. In order to examine the most interesting structure of the line itself, the traveller may drive in an open carriage or walk from Amsteg to Göschenen ( 12 M.) and from Airolo to Giornico ( 15 M. ). Those who are not pressed for time should take the steamboat from Lacerne to Fluielen, in preference to the train (holders of through-tickets and circular tickets have the choice of either route); or, if they have not yet visited the Rigi, they may take the railway to ArthGoldau, the Rigi-Kulm, and Vitznau, and the steamer thence to Flüelen.

Lucerne, see p. 87. Beyond the Gütsch Tunnel the Gotthard Railway diverges to the right from the Central Line (p. 18), crosses the Reuss, and passes through the Allenwinden-Wesemlin-Tunnel ( 2313 yds. ), emerging by the Hôtel de l'Europe, on the E. side of Lacerne. It gradually ascends towards Seeburg (p. 111), affording a splendid view of the town, the lake, and the Alps, and passes through three tunnels. By the château of Neu-Hapsburg (p. 111) the line turns to the N.E. and runs high up on the W. bank of the Bay of Küssnacht (opposite the Rigi) to (7 M.) Stat. Meggen, between the villages of Vorder- and Hinter-Meggen (p.111). 10 M. Stat. Küssnacht (p.111). Then a tunnel, beyond which the line joins that coming from Rothkreuz (p. 87). View of the Lake of Zug (p. 110) to the left; on the N. bank Walchwil, and beyond it St. Adrian (p. 110).

17 M. Arth-Goldau (1725'; *Rail. Restaurant ; *Hôt. Steiner, near he station ; Hôtel Hof-Goldau; Rössli, 3 min . from the station, plain, R. $1 \frac{1}{2}$, B. 1, D. 2 fr. ; $^{}$ Hôt.-Pens. Schönegg, pens. $41 / 2^{-}$ 5 fr.), also the terminus of the Arth-Rigi Railway (p. 102), and junction for $Z u g$ and Wädensweil (pp. 110, 114). The station is situated on the scene of the Goldau Landslip, which occurred on 2nd Sept., 1806. This terrible landslip, which descended from the Gnippen (5127'), the W. summit of the Rossberg (p. 114), buried four villages with 457 of their inhabitants. The railway traverses part of this scene of desolation, which extends far up the Rigi. Time has covered the fragments of rock with moss and other vegetation, and picturesque pools of water have been formed between them at places. The track of the landslip may be distinctly traced on the side of the Rossberg, which is still entirely barren.

On the slope to the left lie the houses of Steinerberg (p. 114); on the right, high above, is the Curhaus Rigi-Scheidegg (p. 106). We skirt the pretty Lowerzer See ( $1480^{\prime}$; 3 M. long). To the right lies the village of Lowerz (Pens. Bücheler-Peter, $41 / 2-5$ fr.), and in the lake the island of Schwanau with its ruined castle, a chapel, and a fisherman's house (inn; boat from Lowerz or Seewen in 25 min .). - $20 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{M}$. Steinen ( $1540^{\prime}$; *Rössli), a large village in a fertile site, the traditional birthplace of Werner Stauffacher (p.98). On the supposed site of his house stands the Chapel of the Holy Rood with frescoes by Ferd. Wagner of Munich. The train crosses the Steiner-A $a$ to - $221 / 2$ M. Schwyz-Seewen (1500'; Hôt.-Pens. Schwyzerhof, Railway Inn, both at the station). The village of Seewen ( ${ }^{}$ Rössli, R., L., \& A. $11 / 2-2$, B. 1, D. 3, pens. $6-71 / 2$ fr. ; *Stern, R., L., \& A. $11 / 2$, D. 2, pens. $4^{1} / 2^{-5}$ fr.; *Pens. Seehof, near the Lowerzer See, with lake-baths, pens. $4-41 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), to the W. of the line, at the foot of the E. spur of the Rigi, has a chalybeate bath which attracts visitors. About 1 M. to the E. lies Schwyz (1685'; pop. 6719; *Rössli, R., L., \& A. 2-2 $1 / 2$, D. with wine 3, pens. $51 / 2-61 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. ; *Hôtel Hediger; Bür, plain; Café Central, near the church, with garden), a straggling town, lying picturesquely at the base and on the slopes of the Little Myten ( $5955^{\prime}$ ) with its two peaks, and the Great Myten (6245'). The Town Hall, restored in 1891, and embellished externally with frescoes from Swiss history by Ferd. Wagner of Munich, contains portraits of 43 'landammanus' (magistrates) from 1534 downwards, and an old carved ceiling. The large Jesuit Monastery, above the town, is now a grammar-school.

The Great Myten ( $6245^{\prime} ; 31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 6 fr ., unnecessary for the experienced; horse to the Holzegg $8-10$ fr.) is a magnificent point of view, little inferior to the Rigi and Pilatus. Road from Schwyz to (1 M.) Rickenbach (Bellevue; Stern, pens. 4 fr.); bridle-path thence to the ( 2 hrs .) Holzegg ( $4642^{\prime}$; small inn), which may also be reached by a direct path from Schwyz viâ the Hölle and the pastures of Hasli and Holz (guide desirable). From Brannen (p. 97; diligence to Schwyz five times daily, 80 c.) by Ibach and ( 3 M. ) Rickenbach to the Holzegg in 3 hrs., Schwyz remaining on the left. - Good path from Einsiedeln by Alpthal to the Holzegg in $23 / 4$ hrs. From the Holzegg the new Myten path (railings at the steepest parts) ascends in 49 zigzags on the E. side of the mountain, and then follows the narrow arête to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) summit ( ${ }^{} \mathrm{Inn}$, plain, 10 beds). Good panorama by A. Heim. - The ascent of the Little Myten ( $5955^{\prime}$ ) is difficult; view inferior to that from the Great Myten.

Interesting walk from Schwyz to the Suvoroff Bridge in the MuotaThal, returning viâ Ober-Schönenbuch (2 hrs. in all); comp. p. 78.

We now turn to the S. (on the left, the Fronalpstock with the Curhaus Stoos far above us, p.98), cross the Muota near Ingenbohl, passing the large nunnery of Mariahilf, and reach -

25 M . Brunnen ( $1445^{\prime} ;$ p. 97), one of the most frequented spots on the Lake of Lucerne. (Station $1 / 2$ M. from the lake.)

Passing through a tunnel under the Gütsch and the Axenstrasse (p. 99), the train reaches the *Lake of Uri, or S.E. bay of the Lake of Lucerne ( p .98 ), and is carried along its bank through tunnels and rock-cuttings. Splendid views of the lake to the right. High above, on the opposite bank, lie the houses of Seelisberg, at the foot of which are the Mytenstein and Rütli (p. 98); and farther to the left towers the Uri-Rothstock with its glacier (p. 100). We pass through the Hochfluh Tunnel, the St. Franciscus Tunnel, and the Oelberg or Schiefernegg Tunnel (2169 yds.). - 281/2 M. Sisikon, at the mouth of the narrow Riemenstalden-Thal (p.99). Crossing the Axenstrasse, we thread several tunnels, passing under the Stutzeck (1082 yds.), the Tell's Platte (chapel not visible; p. 99), the Axenberg ( $3670^{\prime}$ long), and the Sulzeck.
$321 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Flüelen ( $143{ }^{\prime}{ }^{\prime}$; Restaurant), see p. 99.
We now ascend the lower Renssthal, with the Bristenstock (p. 118) in the background, and the two Windgellen (p.130) to the left of it.

34 M. Altdorf, or Altorf (1475'; pop. 25553 ; *Schlüssel, R., L., & A. $11 / 2-3$, B. 1, D. $21 / 2$, pens. $5-6$, omn. $1 / 2-1$ fr.; * Löwe, R. $11 / 2^{-3}$, B. 1, D. 3, pens. $5-7$ fr. ; *Tell, with garden, pens. $41 / 2^{-5}$ fr.; Krone; Bür; Hôtel de la Gare, at the station, R. 1-2 fr.), the capital of Canton Cri, 1 M . from the station, lies in a fertile valley surrounded by mountains. This pleasant little town is the traditional scene of the exploits of William Tell, the liberator of Switzerland from the Austrian yoke (comp. p. xxviii). A bronze statue of the intrepid archer, with the child by his side, from Kissling's model, was erected in 1895 to the N.W. of the tower (dating from the 13 th cent.) in the principal 'Platz' of the village. The Church contains a Madonna in relief, by Imhof. The Capuchin Monastery, above the church, and the neighbouring Pavillon Waldegg command beautiful views. (Ascent near the tower, or from below Tell's statne.) Above the monastery lies the Bannwald, a 'sacred grove', in which the woodman's axe is proscribed, as it protects Altdorf from falling rocks (see Schiller's Tell, Act iii, Scene 3).

To the right, beyond the town, is a Nunnery, to the left the Arsenal; then, 1 M. to the left, prettily situated on a hill at the entrance to the Schächen-Thal (p. 78), the village of Bürglen (1810'; ${ }^{*}$ Tell, pens. $4^{1 / 2}-5$ fr.), the traditional home of Tell. The supposed site of his house is marked by a Chapel, erected in 1522, and adorned with paintings of his exploits.

Through the Schächen-Thal and over the Klausen to ( 23 M.) Linthal, see R.22. A glimpse at the Schächen-Thal is best obtained by ascending from Weiterschooanden or Epiringen (p. 78) to the N. in about $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$. to one of the farm-houses in the Kessel ( $4505^{\prime}$ ), which afford a most picturesque survey of the grand head of the valley (Scheerhorn, Griesgletscher, Kammlistock, and Claridenstock), with beautiful fresh pastures and dark pineforest in the foreground. - The Rossstock ( $8080^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 12 fr .), a splendid point of view, is ascended without difficulty by experts from Bürglen, vià the Mettenthal-Alp. Descent, if preferred, through the Riemen-stalden-Thal to Sisikon (p. 99). - Belmistock, or Belmeten ( $9950^{\prime}$ ), from Altdorf viâ Schattdorf (p. 118) in 5 hrs . (guide 8 fr .), also interesting.

The train crosses the Schächenbach in its artificial bed, near its confluence with the Reuss. Among fruit-trees to the left is the church of Schattdorf. To the right, beyond the Reuss, we see the church-tower and the ruined castle of Attinghausen (restored in 1898), in which the Baron Werner of Attinghausen, one of the characters in Schiller's Tell, is said to have died in 1320 (*Inn at the foot of the castle-hill). The background of the valley towards the S . is formed by the pyramidal Bristenstock (see below); to the right rise the bold precipices of the Gitschen (8335') and the Bockli ( $6810^{\prime}$ ), to the left the Schwarzgrat ( 6636 ), Belmistock ( 7950 '), Hohe Faulen ( $8260^{\prime}$ ), and lastly the two Windgellen (Grosse, or Kalkstock, 10,470'; Kleine, or Sewelistock, $9800^{\prime}$ ).

38 M. Erstfeld (1558'; Hôtel zur Post, R. $11 / 2$ fr., B. 60 c., well spoken of; Hof Erstfeld, Hôt. Bahnhof, both at the station, unpretending), a large railway-depot, where the ascent begins. The village lies on the opposite bank of the Reuss, at the mouth of the Erstfelder-Thal, above which peep the jagged Spannörter and the Schlossberg (p. 138), with its strangely contorted glacier.

The Erstfelder-Thal (comp. Map, p. 136) extends on the S.W. to the Glatten firn. At the head of the valley are two Alpine lakes, the gloomy Faulensee ( $5820^{\prime}$ ), $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the glacier, and the Obersee ( $6463^{\prime}$ ), $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. farther to the S. Above the Faulensee, 5 hrs. from Erstfeld, is the Krönten-Hütte of the Swiss Alpine Club ( $6290^{\prime}$ ), whence the Krönten ( $10,195^{\prime}$ ) is ascended by the Weissen Platten and the Glattenfirn in $41 / 2$ hrs. (guide from Erstfeld 20 fr.; grand view), and the Great Spannort ( $10,515^{\prime}$ ) in 5 hrs . (difficult; gnide 25 fr .). The Faulenbach, which flows out of the Obersee, forms a beautiful fall. Fatiguing passes lead from the Krönten-Hütte to the W. over the SchlcssbergLuicke ( $8632^{\prime}$; guide 25 fr .) and over the Spannörter-Joch ( $9610^{\prime}$; guide 35 fr .) to ( $61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Engelberg (comp. p. 138); also to the S. over the Leidensee Pass (7695') to the Leutschach-Thal and (7-8 hrs.) Inschi (p. 119). Guide, Gebhard Püntener of Erstfeld.

From Erstfeld or Altdorf over the Surenen Pass to ( 9 hrs .) Engelberg (guide 20 fr .), see p. 139.

The Reussthal narrows, and the train begins to ascend on the right bank. 41 M. Stat. Amsteg ( $1795^{\prime}$ ), above Silenen, a village in the midst of fruit-trees. Near the station, on a rocky hill to the right, are the ruins of Zwing-Uri, the traditional castle of Gessler (rooms in the adjoining house). About 1 M.farther on lies the village of Amsteg ( $1712^{\prime}$; *Stern \& Post, R. 11/2-21/3, D. 3, pens. 6-7 fr.; *Hirsch, R. 2, B. 1, D.3, S. 21/2 fr.; *Weisses Kreuz; *Engel; Freihof, R. 11/2-2, B. 1, pens. 4-6 fr.), prettily situated at the mouth of the Maderaner-Thal, from which the Kärstelenbach descends to the Reuss.

Excursions (guides, see p. 130). A pleasant walk of 1 hr . is enjoyed by following the old St. Gotthard road (bridle-path) to Ried and Meitschlingen, and returning by the new road (p. 119). - "Maderaner-Thal (bridle-path in $31 / 4$ hrs. to the Hobtel Alpenclub), see R. 34 . - Over the Kreuzli Pass or the Brunni Pass to Disentis and over the Clariden Pass to Stachelberg, see pp. 130, 131.

The Bristenstock ( $10,085^{\prime}$ ), ascended from Amsteg in $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. by the Bristenstäfeli ( $5000^{\prime}$ ) and the Blacki-Alp ( $6133{ }^{\prime}$ ) and past the small Bristen-Seeli ( $7090^{\prime}$ ), affords a grand panorama, but is very fatiguing (guide 25 fr .). Descent to the Etzli-Thal or Felli-Thal difficult. - Oberalpstock ( $10,925^{5}$ ), Kleine and Grosse Windgelle $\left(9800^{\prime}\right.$ and $10,470^{\prime}$ ), etc., see p. 130. - The Hohe Faulen ( $8260^{\prime}$ ), ascended from Silenen in 5 hrs. (guide 10 fr.) through the Evi-Thal and over the Strengmatt, Rhonen, and Belmeten Alps, is not difficult.

A walk or drive on the St. Gotthard Road from Amsteg to Göschenen (comp. Maps, pp. 136, 124), is recommended for the sake of the scenery and the interesting railway. We cross the Kärstelenbach, and then the Reuss by a bridge of two arches. To the left runs the railway; below us the Reuss dashes through its deep ravine, forming a succession of falls. In the early summer huge masses of avalanche-snow, looking like earth or detritus, are seen in the gorges. Beyond ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Inschi ( $2168^{\prime} ;$ Lamm ) we pass a fall of the Inschi-Alpbach. From Inschi we may visit the picturesque LeutschachThal (to the Obernsee, at the foot of the Mönntliser, $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; hence over the Leidensee Pass to the Erstfelder-Thal, see p. 118). - A second bridge carries the road back to the right bank of the Reass (the railway remaining on the left bank), on which lies ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Meitschlingen, with a chapel. About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. farther on we cross the Fellibach. (Through the narrow Felli-Thal, which abounds in crystals, the Oberalp-See may be reached by the Felli-Lücke in 6 hrs.; p. 391 ; gaide 12 fr.) On the hill opposite stands the hamlet of Gurtnellen (3045'). Beyond the village of Wyler is ( 3 M .) a third bridge (2660'), called the Pfaffensprung, by which the road recrosses to the left bank. The first of the curved tunnels of the railway begins here (see below). Far below, the river dashes through a narrow gorge. View beautiful in both directions. The road crosses the turbulent Meienreuss (see below) near ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Wasen (p. 120). To the right are the three railway bridges. A path to the right, 50 yds . beyond the bridge, cuts off the windings of the road which ascends to the loftily situated church.

Near ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Wattingen ( $3010^{\prime}$ ) is the fourth bridge over the Reuss, above which, to the right, is a fall of the Rohrbach (p. 120). The (1 M.) fifth bridge (Schönibrück, 3212') crosses to the left bank of the Reuss. To the left rises the Teufelsstein, a huge mass of rock. The next place ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) is Göschenen ( $3640^{\prime}$; p. 120).

Above Amsteg the line pierces a projecting rock by means of the Windgelle Tunnel (1828'; 189 yds.), crosses the Kärstelenbach by an imposing iron bridge ( 147 yds . long, $1^{\prime 7} 8^{\prime} \mathrm{high}$ ), affording a fine view of the deeply-cut Maderaner-Thal, with the Grosse Windgelle, to the left, and of the Reussthal to the right, and is then carried through the slope of the Bristenstock, which is much exposed to avalanches, by means of the two Bristenlaui Tunnels ( 436 yds. and 234 yds.), and across the brawling Reuss by an iron bridge $256^{\prime}$ high. We now follow the left bank of the picturesque Reussthal (views to the left), traverse the Inschi Tunnel, cross the Inschi-Alpbach and the Zgraggen-Thal (viaduct about 100 yds.), thread the Zgraggen, Breiten, and Meitschlingen tunnels and a long cutting, and skirt the hillside by a viaduct to ( 46 M .) Gurtnellen ( $2428^{\prime}$; Alte Post or Schäfli, well spoken of), with large granite-quarries.

Above Gurtnellen we come to a mostinteresting part of the line, which, in order to make the ascent more gradual, passes through three curved tunnels and describes a wide double bend. It crosses the Gornerenbach and the Hägrigenbach (fine waterfall on the right), enters, near the Pfaffensprung-Brücke, the Pfaffensprung Loop Tunnel ( 1635 yds., 3 min.), in which it mounts $115^{\prime}$, traverses the short Mühle Tunnel, recrosses the Hägrigenbach (overlooking the Pfaffensprung bridge on the left), and then traverses the Mühren Tunnel ( $2822^{\prime} ; 93 \mathrm{yds}$. ). Next follow a handsome bridge over the ravine of the Meienreuss (p. 146), the Kirchberg Tunnel under the 'church-hill' of Wasen ( 330 yds .), a bridge across the Reuss to the left, the Wattinger Loop Tunnel ( 1199 yds ; ascent of $76^{\prime}$ ), another bridge over the Reuss, and the Rohrbach Tunnel (242 yds.). 51 M. Wasen or Wassen (3055'), a large village (*Hôt. des Alpes; Ochs, Krone, both good and unpretending; Walker's Restaurant). The loftily situated church commands a survey of the bold structure of the railway. - Over the Susten to Meiringen, see R. 39.

The imposing Mittlere Meienreuss Brücke (69 yds.; $260^{\prime}$ high) and the Leggistein Loop Tunnel (1204 yds.; ascent of 82') carry us to the Upper Meienreuss Bridge ( 59 yds. long; 148' high), beautifully situated, the third bridge over the deep, wild gorge of the Meienreuss. We then pass through the short Meienkreuz Tunnel ( $3250^{\prime} ; 84 \mathrm{yds}$. ), skirt the hillside, and obtain a view of Wasen and the windings just traversed. Opposite rises the Rienzer Stock (9785'). Crossing the Kellerbach and the Rohrbach, the train passes through the Naxberg Tunnel (1719 yds.; ascent of 118'), crosses the deep gorge of the Göschenen-Reuss (bridge 69 yds. long, 161' high; view of the Göschenen-Thal to the right, with the beautiful Dammafirn, p. 124), and reaches - 56 M. Göschenen ( 3640 '; Rail. Restaurant, D. with wine $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$., in the third-class waiting-room $1 \mathrm{fr} .80 \mathrm{c} . ;{ }^{}$ Hôt.-Pens. Göschenen, opposite the station, R., L., \& A. 2-4, B. 11/2, D. 4, pens. 6-10 fr.; *Rössli, with garden, R., L., \& A. 2-21/2, B. $1 \frac{1}{4}$, lunch $2 \frac{1}{2}$, D. 3 fr.; Hôt. Bahnhof, well spoken of; Löwe; Krone; Engl. Ch. Serv. in Aug.). In the little cemetery is a monument (1889), by Andreoletti, to L. Favre, the engineer of the St. Gotthard Tunnel, who died in the tunnel on 19th July, 1879. - From Göschenen to Airolo by the St. Gotthard Road, 22 M., see R. 33.

Beyond the station the train crosses the Gotthard-Reuss (p. 125) by a bridge $105^{\prime}$ high, and enters the great *St. Gotthard Tunnel, $16,393 \mathrm{yds}$. $(91 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) in length, being 3114 yds . ( $12 / 3$ M.) longer than the Mont Cenis Tunnel. The central point is $3786^{\prime}$ above the sea-level, from which it descends on both sides, about $6^{\prime}$ in 1000' towards Göschenen, and $2^{\prime}$ in $1000^{\prime}$ towards Airolo. The work was begun in June, 1872, at Göschenen, and a month later at Airolo, and the boring was completed on 29 th Feb., 1880. During seven years and a half no fewer than 2500 workmen were on an average employed here daily, and the number sometimes rose to 3400 . The cost was $563 / 4$ million fr. $(2,270,000 l$. $)$. The tunnel, $28^{\prime}$ broad and $21^{\prime}$ high, is lined with masonry throughout, and is laid with a double line. In the interior there is always a strong current of air; temperature $70^{\circ}$ Fahr. The tunnel lies $1083^{\prime}$ below Andermatt, $6076^{\prime}$ below the Kastelhorn (which rises above the centre of the tunnel), and $3350^{\prime}$ below the Sella Lake. Express trains take $14-20 \mathrm{~min}$. to pass through the tunnel, slow trains 21-25 min.; lanterns are placed on each side of the tunnel at intervals of 1000 mètres (even numbers on the right, uneven on the left). To the right, above the exit from the tunnel, are new fortifications.

66 M. Airōlo (3755'; pop. 1800; *Hôt. Lombardi, with gar-Restaurant), in the upper valley of the Ticino (Valle Leventina, p. 122), the first ItalianSwiss village, was rebuilt after a fire in 1877, but was again partly destroyed in 1898 by a landslip from the Sasso Rosso. It is frequented as a summer-resort. The scenery retains its Alpine character until near Faido. To the W. is the imposing Pizzo Rotondo group.

Excursions (guides, Clem. Dotta and Basil Jori of Airolo). From Airolo to the picturesque Stalvedro Gorge (p. 122), 20 min.; to the Lombar $\cdot$ T Tower, 35 minutes. - Pizzo Rotondo ( $10,490^{\prime}$ ), the highest peak of the St. Gotthard, is ascended from Airolo in 8-9 hrs. (difficult; for experts only ; guide 40 fr .). Walk in the afternoon (rough cart-track as far as Villa, $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) to ( 3 hrs .) All Acqua in Val Bedretto (p. 326; inn), and spend the night; steep ascent thence overgrassy slopes, debris, and snow-fields to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Passo Rotondo ( $9515^{\prime}$ ), whence the rocky summit is reached in $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. by a difficult climb up a steep snow - couloir (foot-irons desirable) and over loose stones. EView very grand and picturesque (comp. p. 12i).

Passes. To the St. Gotthard, see p. 128 (rich Alpine flora as far as the Tremola gorge). - Through the Val Bedretto and over the Nufennen Pass to the Valais, see p. 326; over the San Giacomo Pass (7572') to the Falls of the Tosa, see p. 331. Through the Val Canaria and over the Unteralp Pass ( $8300^{\prime}$ ) to Andermatt ( 8 hrs.), fatiguing; ascent very steep. Over the Bocca di Cadlimo ( $\$ 340$ ') to Sancta Maria (p. 393), 8 hrs., attractive. By the Passo Bornengo to Val Maigels, see p. 391. Over the Sassello Pass to Val Maggia, see p. 457. - To Val Maggia over the Passo dei Sassi (ca. 8200'), interesting, but for steady climbers only (to Fusio 8 hrs .) From Airolo past the hamlet of Nante and the ( 2 hrs .) Alp Piscium ( $5630^{\circ}$ ) to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Comaschne (6234') and along precipitous rocks, where the path disappears, to the ( $2^{1 / 4} \mathrm{hrs}$.) pass, between the Poncione di Vesper.o and Poncione di Mezzodi, with superb view of the St. Gotthard mountains. Descent across steep grassy slopes (plenty of edelweiss) into the Val Maggia, to (2 hrs.) Corte and ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Fusio (p. 457).

From Airolo to Disentis through the Val Piora ( 11 hrs .; guide, unnecessary, to Piora 6, to Santa Maria 10 fr .; porter from Airolo, 15 c . per kilogramme up to Piora, 10 c . down; horse to Piora, 3 hrs ., 15 fr. ). Descending the St. Gotthard road for $3 / 4$ M., we cross the Canaria to the left, and ascend to ( 20 min .) Madrano ( $3780^{\prime}$ ). After $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more the path ascends to the left to ( 20 min .) Brugnasco ( $4548^{\prime}$ ). It then rans nearly level, overlooking the picturesque valley of the Ticino, and afterwards through wood. From ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Altanca ( 4567 ; inn) we ascend to the left in zigzags past a little chapel to the ( 40 min .) Alp in Valle (a spring by the wayside). The rock below it bears a very ancient inscription. In the gorge to the right the Fossbach forms several falls. Fine retrospect of the Ticino mountains. We cross a rocky saddle to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) sequestered Lake Ritom ( $6000^{\prime}$ ). On the right is the ${ }^{*}$ Hotel Piora (R. 2, B. 1, D. 4, pens., even for a short stay, $7-9 \mathrm{fr}$.), an attractive and well-sheltered health-resort. Pine-woods close to the hotel; great variety of geological formations and of plants. Bath in the lake ( $56^{\circ}$ Fahr.), including towels, 50 c . Pleasant walks near. In secluded basins lie six little lakes, and there are four others just beyond the ridges in the direction of Val Cadlimo. Delightful view of the lake, the Ticino valley, etc., from the Bella Vista ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.); more extensive from Fongio (7257'), 1 hr . farther on (skirt the hillside to the W.), and from the Cima di Camoghe ( $7740^{\circ}$; $1^{3} / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). - Taneda ( $8760^{\prime}$ ), an easy ascent of $2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide advisable for novices), past Lake Tom to the ridge separating Val Piora from Val Cadlimo, between Taneda and Punta Nera, where we keep to the right, over debris and rocks, to the broad summit. Splendid view of the Val Piora, the Val Bedretto. and the Alps of Valais, Bern, Uri, Ticino, and the Grisons. A similar view is obtained from the Punta Nera (8925'), ascended (to the left from the Taneda saddle) in $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.

Other good points (guides at the hotel) are the Corandoni ( $8733^{\prime}$; 3 hrs.), Piz dell' Uomo (9020'; $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), Pizzo Lucomagno (9115'; 5 hrs .), ${ }^{}$ Piz Blas ( 9920 ; $5^{1 / 2}$ hrs.), and ${ }^{} \mathrm{Piz}$ Rondadura ( $9905^{\prime} ; 5^{1 / 2-6} \mathrm{hrs}$.). T The path to Sancta Maria ( $3^{3} / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$; porter 7 fr .) leads round the lake, to the left. By the ( 20 min .) Ritom Chalets we ascend a good path, to the left, to the ( 20 min .) chapel of San Carlo. Crossing the brook, and passing a cross on the right (leaving the small lake of Cadagno, with its chalets, to the left), we reach ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Alp Piora and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Murinascio, a group of huts. The path, indicated by crosses, leads straight on for $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. , and then ascends to the left. Farther on it always bears to the left. [The last hats of Piano de' Porci lie to the right, below. Persons bound for Olivone may from this point cross direct by the Passo Columbe (7792'), between the Scai and Piz Columbe, to the Casaccia hospice; p. 393.] We ascend the secluded Val Termine, with the Piz dell' Uomo ( $9020^{\prime}$ ) on the left, to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Uomo Pass (7257'; 10 min . before which is a good spring by a heap of stones), with its deserted hut. Descent on the other side by a bad path, marshy at places. To the left the Medelser Rhine descends from the Val Cadlimo in a fine fall. Before us, to the right, rises the Scopi, to the left the distant Tödi chain. The ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hospice of St. Maria, see p. 303. Thence to Disentis, or across the Lukmanier to Olivone, see R. 95.

Below Airolo the train crosses the Ticino, which descends from the Val Bedretto (p. 326), passes through a tunnel (209 yds.), and enters the Stretto di Stalvedro. On the left bank of the Ticino the highroad runs through four apertures in the rock. The valley expands. $691 / 2$ M. Ambri-Piotta (3200'; Restaurant Soldini ; Brasserie Piotta). To the left lies Quinto. Beyond ( $72 \frac{1}{2}$ M.) Rodi-Fiesso ( $3100^{\prime}$; *Hôtel-Pens. Helvetia) we come to one of the most curious parts of the line (comp. Map, p. 119 ; walk to Faido recommended). The Platifer (Monte Piottino) here juts into the valley from the N. ; the Ticino has forced a passage through the barrier, descending in a series of falls through a wild gorge to a lower region of the valley, while the railway descends by means of two circular tunnels. At Dazio Grande it crosses the Ticino, is carried through two tunnels, and the Freggio Loop Tunnel (1712 yds.), and emerges into the Piottino Ravine, $118^{\prime}$ lower down. It then recrosses the Ticino (fine scenery), passes through the Monte Piottino and Pardorea tunnels, and descends 118 ' more by means of the Prato Loop Tunnel (1711 yds.), beyond which opens the beautiful valley of Faido. Bridge across the Ticino, and another tunnel.
$771 / 2$ M. Faido (2485'; pop. 991 ; *Hôt.-Pens. Suisse, Hôt. Faido, both at the station; *Angelo, R., L., \& A. 3, B. $1^{1} / 4$, lunch $2 \frac{1}{2}$, D. 3½, pens. 6-7 fr. ; *Hôt.-Pens. Fransioli, R., L., \& A. 2-3, B. 1, lunch 2, D. 3, pens. 5-7 fr.; Hôt. Vella; Restaurant Belgeri; Birraria Rosian), capital of the Leventina, very picturesquely situated, is frequented as a summer-resort. In the Piazza Grande is the statue of the Swiss educationist and statistician Stefano Franscini, born here in 1796. On the right the Piumogna descends to the Ticino in a fine fall.

The Valle Leventina, or Ticino Valley, formerly belonged in common to the thirteen confederated cantons (with the exception of Appenzell), and was governed most despotically by bailiffs, who purchased their appointments. A revolt broke out in 1755 , but was suppressed by the $S$ wiss troops. The French put an end to this mode of government in 1798, and in 1814 the Congress of Vienna formed the Leventina and other Italian districts into the canton of Tessin or Ticino.

From Faido over the Predelp Pass to the Lukmanier, see p. 393; over the Campolungo Pass to the Val Maggia, see p. 457.

We now traverse beautiful scenery, richly wooded with walnut and chestnut trees, on the left bank of the Ticino. To the right, Chiggiogna, with an old church. From the cliffs on both sides fall several cascades, the veil-like fall of the Cribiasca on the right, near ( 82 M .) Lavorgo (2025'), being the finest. Huge masses of rock lie scattered about, interspersed with fine chestnut-trees. Below Lavorgo the Ticino forces its way through the picturesque Biaschina Ravine to a lower part of the valley, and forms a fine fall, while the railway descends about $300^{\prime}$ on the left bank by means of two loop-tunnels, one below the other in corkscrew form. We pass through the La Lume Tunnel, cross the Pianotondo Viaduct (114yds. long), and enter the Pianotondo Loop Tunnel (1643 yds.; descent of $115^{\prime}$ ). Then the short Tourniquet Tunnel, the Travi Viaduct, and the Travi Loop Tunnel (1706 yds. ; descent of 118'), from which we emerge upon the floor of the lower Valle Leventina. Crossing the Ticino, we reach -

E6 M. Giornico (1480'). The village (1295' ; Posta, Cervo, both well spoken of), lying among vineyards on the left bank, $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the S., has an old Lombard tower and remains of fortifications near the church of Santa Maria di Castello. The church of San Niccold da Mira is early Romanesque. Below Giornico we cross the Ticino again. On the right is the pretty fall of the Cramosina.

90 M. Bodio (1090'). Beyond Polleggio (Corona) the Brenno descends from the Val Blenio (p. 394) on the left, and is crossed by two bridges. The Ticino valley expands, and takes the name of Rivièra down to the mouth of the Moësa. Luxuriant vines, chestnuts, walnuts, mulberries, and fig-trees indicate that we are nearing 'the garden of the earth, fair Italy'. The vines extend their dense foliage over wooden trellis-work supported by stone pillars, $6-10^{\prime}$ in height.

94 M. Biasca ( $970^{\prime}$; Rail. Restaurant ; in the village, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the N., Union et Poste, mediocre), with an old Romanesque church on a hill (1112'). A series of oratories near the station ascends to the Petronilla Chapel, near which is a pretty waterfall. - To Olivone, and over the Lukmanier to Disentis, see R. 95.

The train skirts the richly clothed E. slopes of the valley, which is very hot and dusty in summer. Two tunnels. $971 / 2$ M. Osogna ( $870^{\prime}$; Posta) lies at the foot of an abrupt round rock. 101 M . Claro ( $830^{\prime}$ ) lies at the base of the Pizzo di Claro ( $8930^{\prime}$ ), a beautiful mountain with luxuriant pastures, on the slope of which, on a spur to the left, stands the monastery of Santa Maria (2074'). Beyond ( $103^{1 / 2}$ M.) Castione ( $800^{\prime}$ ) we pass the mouth of the Val Mesocco (p. 402 ) and cross the Moësa. To the left lies Arbedo (p. 402). Beyond a short tunnel we come in sight of Bellinzona, with its three old castles.
$105^{1 / 2}$ M. Bellinzona ( $760^{\prime}$ ), see p. 447.
From Bellinzona to Lugano and Como, see p. 448; to Locarno, see p. 454 ; to Laveno, see p. $45 \%$.

33. From Göschenen to Airolo over the St. Gotthard.

22 M . Diligence from Göschenen to Andermatt twice daily in 1 hr . (fare 1 fr .40 , coupé 1 fr .70 c .); to Hospenthal twice in $11 / 3-11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ( 2 fr .10 or 2 fr .55 c .). No diligence from Hospenthal over the St. Gotthard. Omnibuses from the Göschenen station to the Andermatt ( $1-11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.) and Hospenthal hotels ( 2 fr.). Carriage and pair from Göschenen to Andermatt or Hospenthal 10, to the Hospice 35, to Airolo 60 fr .; from Andermatt to the Hospice 30, to Airolo 50 fr.; from Hospenthal to the Hospice 25 (there and back 30 fr .), to Airolo 45 fr . Carriage with one horse from Göschenen to Andermatt or Hospenthal $6 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ from Hospenthal to the Hospice $1 \overline{5}$ (there and back 25 fr .), to Airolo 25 fr . Driver's fee, 10 per cent of the fare.

The St. Gotthard was probably the most frequented of Alpine passes till the beginning of this century, but was gradually deserted for the new roads over the Simplon, the Splügen, and the Bernardino. In 1820-32 the cantons of Uri and Ticino constructed the carriage-road, which was much frequented for half-a-century, but since the completion of the railway is again deserted. It is still interesting to drive or walk over the pass. On foot from Göschenen to Andermatt, $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$; thence to Hospenthal, 35 min. ; thence to the Hospice, $23 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$; and thence to Airolo, $23 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$., or by footpaths, $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. Those whose object is to make excursions from the Hospice will reach it more quickly from Airolo than from Göschenen ( 3 hrs .; one-horse carr. 15, two-horse 30 fr. and fee). Early in the morning almost the whole way from Airolo to Hospenthal is in the shade.

Göschenen (3640'), on the St. Gotthard Railway, see p. 120.
The Göschenen-Thal ( 3 hrs . to the Göschenen-Alp; guide unnecessary) deserves a visit. A good path (red marks) leads by Abfrutt to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Wicki ( 4350 '), where the Voralp-Thal opens to the right (see below); then by St. Niklaus and the Brindlistaffel ( $5033^{\prime}$ ) to the ( $1^{3} / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Göschenen-Alp ( $5740^{\prime} ;{ }^{}$ Hotel Dammagletscher, pens. 7 fr .), grandly situated. To the W. descends the beautiful Damma Glacier from the Winterberg; and 1 hr . farther up the valley the Göschenen-Reuss issues from the Kehle Glacier, imbedded between the Winterberg and Steinberg. Pleasant walks may be taken to the ( 1 hr .) Damma Glacier, the ( $1^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Kehle Glacier, the ( 1 1/2 hr.) Bergsee ( $7710^{\prime}$ ), and the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Kehlen- 17 p ( $7560^{\prime}$ ). The ascent of the Mfoosstock ( $\left.8 \pm 0^{\prime}\right)^{\prime}$; $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide) is easy and very attractive. More difficult (for adepts only) are the Dammastock ( $11,920^{\prime}$ ), Rhonestock ( $11,0^{\prime} 0^{\prime}$ ), and Schneestock ( $11,<37^{\prime}$; guide in each case 35 fr ) ; these are better assailed from the 1 rift-Hitte (p. 145). - A toilsome but very interesting path ( $61 / 2^{-7} \mathrm{hrs}$., guide 15 fr .) leads from the Göschenen-Alp over the Alpligen Glacier and the Alpligen-Lücke (9115'), between the Lochberg and Spitzberg (p. 131), to Realp (p. 132). The ${ }^{}$ Lochberg $\left(10,130^{\prime}\right.$; splendid view of the Galenstock and St. Gotthard groups) is ascended in 1 hr . from the pass. - Over the Winterlücke to the Furka, see p. 132. - Several difficult passes, for experts only, cross from the Goschenen-Alp to the Rhone and Trift Glaciers (Winterjoch, Damma Pass, Maasplank-Joch; comp. p. 145). Over the Susten-Limmi $\left(10,180^{\prime}\right)$ or the Thierberg-Limmi (about 10,500') to the Steinalp, 9 hrs ., laborions (see p. 145). - Ascent of the Fleckistock (Spitzliberg, 11,215 '; 7-8 hrs., guide 3 Jr.), for experts only, difficult. We ascend from Wicki (see above) through the Voralp Thal, past the chalets of Hornfeli, Bodmen, and Flachenstein, to the ( $2^{1} / 2$ hrs.) Voralp Hut of the Swiss Alpine Club ( $7120^{\prime}$ ), finely situated at the foot of the Wallenbühlfirn; thence we mount to the right to the Flühe ( $7875^{\prime}$ ), and over loose stones and steep rocks to the summit ( 5 hrs . from the club-hut). The Salbitschyn (9305'; $3 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 25 fr.$)$, Stücklistock ( $10,855^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 3 \overline{\mathrm{fr}}$ ), and Sustenhorn ( 11.520 ; $6-61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; 30 fr .) may also be ascended from the Voralp Hut to Airolo.

(for experts only). Over the Wallenbühlfirn and the Susten-Joch (8717') to the Meien-Thal, with descent to the Kalchthal (p. 146), steep and difficult; fine view from the Joch. Guides: Jos. and Barth. Gamma, Frz. Senn, Christ. Gerig, Mich. Hoff'mann, Xav. Tresch at Göschenen.

Above the Göschenen station the *St. Gotwhard Road crosses the Reuss by the Vordere or Häderli Brücke (3720'). On the left are the railway-bridge and the $N$. end of the great tunnel. Here, $1 / 4$ M. beyond Göschenen, begins the sombre defile of the *Schöllenen ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long), bounded by lofty and almost perpendicular granite rocks, at the base of which dashes the Reuss. The road ascends in windings, most of which may be cut off by footpaths or by the old bridle-path, passing the dilapidated Lange Brücke (a little above which are the Göschenen waterworks, with a large waterfall), and crossing the ( 1 M.) Sprengibrück $\left(4018^{\prime}\right)$. The road in the Schöllenen is much exposed to avalanches, and at one of the most dangerous points is protected by a gallery, 60 yds. long, at the farther end of which is the bull's head of Uri.

The road next crosses (3M. from Göschenen) the ( $11 / 2$ M.) *Devil's Bridge (Teufelsbrücke, $4593^{\prime}$ ), amidst grand rocky scenery. The Reuss here falls into an abyss $100^{\prime}$ below, bedewing the bridge with its spray. The wind (aptly called 'Hutschelm', or 'hat-rogue', by the natives) often comes down the gorge in violent gusts. The new bridge, built of granite in 1830 , has a single arch of $26^{\prime}$ span. The old bridge, $20^{\prime}$ below, carried away by a flood in 1888 , was the scene of fierce conflicts, in Aug. and Sept., 1799, between the French on the one side and the Austrians and Russians under Suvoroff on the other, the former being compelled to retreat to the Lake of Lucerne. In memory of this event the Suvoroff Monument, consisting of a large granite cross, $39^{\prime}$ high, was erected in 1899 in a niche on the face of the rocks, to the left, above the bridge. On the pedestal is a Russian inscription.

Beyond the Devil's Bridge (cabaret; collection of St. Gotthard minerals) the road winds upwards, passing new fortifications (see below), to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.$) Urner Loch ( 4642^{\prime}$ ), a tunnel 70 yds. long, cut through the rock in 1707 , originally broad enough for the bridlepath only. Both above and below the Urner Loch, as well as at Andermatt and Hospenthal, strong fortifications have been erected, and roads have been made from below the Devil's Bridge to the Bäzberg and from the Oberalp to the top of the Musch (not accessible).

The Urseren Valley, on which the road emerges from the dark Urner Loch, contrasts strikingly with the wild region jnst quitted. This peaceful green valley ( p .131 ), watered by the Reuss, is about 8 M . long and $1 / 2-1 \mathrm{M}$. broad, and is surrounded by lofty and barren mountains partially covered with snow. Corn grows but scantily, and trees are scarce. Winter lasts nearly eight months, and during the short summer fires are often necessary. Near Andermatt ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the tunnel), on the left, is a training-camp of Swiss artillery.

4 M. Andermatt. - Hotels: *Hôt.-Pens. Andermatt (4738'; pop. 711), or Urseren, Ital. Orsĕra, is the principal village in the valley. Adjoining the church is a charnelhouse adorned with skulls bearing inscriptions. By the artillery camp (p. 125) is a much older church, said to date from the time of the Lombards (recently restored and embellished with ceilingfrescoes representing the spread of Christianity in the Urseren valley; closed). The Mariahilf Chapel affords a good survey: to the W. the barren grey Bäzberg, in the background the Furka with its inn, to the left the Muttenhorn; a few paces beyond the chapel the Badus (see below) is visible; to the E., in long zigzags, ascends the Oberalp road (p. 392). Above the village is a Bannwald (p. 117).

Excursions. To the "Hot. Oberalpsee by the Oberalp road, a walk or drive of 2 hrs .; thence to the Calmot ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.), or to the Stock ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. ; incl. the Lautersee, $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.), both easy and interesting (see p. 391). - The Badus or Six-Madun ( $9615^{\prime}$ ), the huge outpost of the Alps of the Grisons, is ascended from Andermatt in $4^{1 / 2}$-5 hrs. (toilsome; guide 15 fr . ; better from the Hôt. Oberalpsee, p. 391). The summit, which consists of blocks of gneiss, commands numberless peaks of the Alps of the Grisons, Bern, and the Valais, the Urseren-Thal, and the whole of the Vorder-Rheinthal. - The Gurschenstock ( $9423^{\prime} ; 4$ hrs.; guide 15 fr .) and Gamsstock ( $9728^{\prime} ; 4 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 12 \mathrm{fr}$.) are also fine points.

From Andermatt over the Oberalp to Coire, R. 94; over the Furka to the Rhone Glacier, R. 35; over the Unteralp Pass to Airolo ( 8 hrs ), p. 121.

Between Andermatt and Hospenthal we observe the Glacier of St. Anna, high above the brow of the mountain to the left.
$51 / 2$ M. Hospenthal (4870' ; *Meyerhof, R., L., \& A. 2-4, B. 11/2, lunch 3, D. 4, pens. 7-10 fr. ; *Goldner Löwe, with restaurant, R., L., \& A. $2 \frac{1}{2}$, B. $11 / 4$, D. 3-4, pens. from 6 fr.; Kreuz \& Post, well spoken of ; Stern; Schäfli, unpretending; guide, Sam. Camenzind) was formerly the seat of the barons of Hospenthal, of whose castle the ancient tower on the hill is a relic. Engl. Ch. Service in summer. The Furka Road (R. 35) diverges here to the right.

The St. Gotthard road winds up through a bleak valley, on the left bank of that branch of the Reuss which descends from Lake Lucendro (p.127). A short-cut diverges to the left by the second house beyond the Reuss bridge. Pleasant retrospects of the Ur-seren-Thal and the jagged Spitzberge (p. 131), and, to the W., of the Galenstock. To the left of the bleak ( 3 M .) Gamsboden opens the abrupt Guspis-Thal, at the head of which are the Guspis Glacier and the Pizzo Centrale (p.127). At a bend in the road ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) is the first Cantoniera ( $5876^{\prime}$; closed), at the foot of the Winterhorn or Piz Orsino (8747'). The road enters Canton Ticino, passes the dilapidated second Cantoniera, and crosses the Reuss for the last time, near its outflow from the Lake of Lucendro, by the ( 3 M .) Rodont Bridge (6620').

To the *Lake of Lucendro (6835') a digression of $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. The path diverges below the Rodont Bridge (left bank), leads over rocks to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) beautiful green lake, and skirts its N. bank. To the S. the grand Piz Lucendro ( $9708^{\prime}$ ), to the W. the Y'zerberhörner ( $9265^{\prime}$ '), Piz dell' Uomo ( $8820^{\prime}$ ), etc. - The path crosses the Reuss at its exit from the lake, and rejoins the St. Gotthard road at the top of the pass.

On the ( 1 M .) Pass of St. Gotthard ( $6935^{\prime}$ ) the road passes between several small lakes.

The St. Gotthard is a mountain-group, 160 sq. M. in area, with a number of different peaks, extensive glaciers, and about thirty small lakes. The pass is a barren depression, destitute of view, bounded on the E. by the precipitous Sasso di San Gottardo (8235'), and on the W. by the rocks of the Fibbia (8995') and the Pizzo la Valletta (8331'). The chief peaks of the St. Gotthard are: E., the Prosa ( 8983 ') and P. Centrale ( $9850^{\prime}$ '; see below); W., the Piz Lucendro (9708'), Ywerberhorn (9265'), Piz dell Uomo (8820'), and Winterhorn or Piz Orsino (8747); then, more to the W., the Leckihorn ( $10,070^{\prime}$ ), Muttenhorn ( $10,184^{\prime}$ ), Pizzo Pesciora ( $10,250^{\prime}$ ), Pizzo Rotondo (10,490'), and Kühbodenhorn ( 10,080 '). - The St. Gotthard is famous for its rich Alpine flora, and for its highly interesting geological formation. Many rare minerals are found here.
$133 / 4$ M. Hôtel Monte Prosa (6873'; pens. 8-9 fr.; telephone to Airolo), 5 min . to the S . of the pass. Opposite, to the right (W.), are its 'dépendance', the old Albergo del San Gottardo, and (left) the former Hospice. On a rock a little to the S. is the old Mortuary Chapel.

Excersions. (The servants of the hotel act as guides for the shorter excursions, and their services are charged in the bill at the full rate of the guides ${ }^{\text { }}$ tariff.) To the Sorescia or Scara Orell ( $7350^{\prime}$ '), pleasant ( 1 hr .). We descend the road to the S., cross the Ticino, and ascend a narrow path to the left. Fine view, especially of the Ticino Alps, the Cristallina, Campo Tencia, Basodino, etc. Descent to the Sella valley inadvisable, there being no bridge over the Ticino.
${ }^{\text {chizzo Centrale ( } 9850}$; $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 10 fr .), fatiguing, but most interesting. Beyond the hospice we cross the brook to the left, and ascend the slope of the Sasso San Gottardo over detritus to the entrance of the Sella Valley, through which the route leads. To the left, Mie. Prosa (see below). We skirt the slope high above the Sella Lake ( $7320^{\circ}$ ) and ascend snow-fields to the base of the peak, which consists of crumbling hornblende. *View of striking magnificence, embracing almost all the highest mountains in Switzerland (panorama by A. Heim). The ascent is also made from Hospenthal in 5 hrs ., viâ the Gamsboden and the Guspis-Thal (see p. 126). - Monte Prosa (8983'; $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.; guide 7 fr .), less interesting. By the hut above the Sella Lake ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) we diverge to the left from the Pizzo Centrale path, and ascend poor pastures and patches of snow to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) saddle ( $8520^{\prime}$ ) between the Prosa and Blauberg. Then to the left, up the arête, and lastly over sharp rocks to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the top. The W. peak, $41^{\prime}$ higher than the E., is separated from it by a cleft $20^{\prime}$ deep.

The Fibbia ( 8995 '; $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 7 fr .), a gigantic rock which commands the St. Gotthard road on the W. and descends suddenly to the Val Tremola, is fatiguing. Excellent survey of the St. Gotthard group, the valley of the Ticino, and the Ticino Alps. - "Piz Lucendro (9708; ; $31 / z$ 4 hrs.; guide, 10 fr., unnecessary for the experienced), a fine point, free from difficalty. From the Lucendro Lake (see above) we ascend by the Lucendro-Alp and the depression between the Ywerberhörner and the Pizzo la Valletta to the Lucendro Glacier and gradually mount to the rocky summit. - Leckihorn ( $10,070^{\prime}$ ), see below. - "Pizzo Rotondo ( $10,490^{\prime}$ ), the highest peak of the St. Gotthard group, from the Hôtel Prosa $7-8$ hrs. (guide 30 fr. ), difficult. We follow the Lecki Pass route (see below) past the Piz Lucendro to the Wyttenwasser Glacier, ascend to the left to the Wyttenwasser Pass (9365') and skirt the precipitous slopes of the Pizzo Rotondo to the Passo Rotondo ( $9692^{\prime}$ ), whence we climb to the left to the summit (p. 121).

Passes. Over the Orsino Pass to Realp, not difficult for adepts ( $41 / 2$ hrs.; guide advisable). We ascend either from the Rodont Bridge (p. 127) across the stony Rodont Alp and past the Orsino Lake ( $7515^{\prime}$ ), or from the Lacendro Lake to the N.W. over grassy slopes, past the Orsirora Lake ( $8058^{\prime}$; to the left), to the Orsino Pass ( $8150^{\prime}$ ), to the S.W. of Piz Orsino (p. 127); striking view (S.) of the St. Gotthard group from the Furka to the Fibbia. (N.W.) of the Finsteraarhorn and Agassizhorn, and (N.) of the Galenstock and Dammastock range as far as the Sustenhörner and Titlis. Descent over the pastures of the Eisenmanns-Alp and then (steep) through brushwood, intersected by many small water-courses, to Realp (p.131).

Over the Lecki Pass to the Furka ( $10-11 \mathrm{hrs}$., guide 30 fr ), fatiguing, but repaying at places. From the Lucendro Lake to the Lucendro Glacier, see p. 127; thence across the depression to the N. of Piz Lucendro (ascent highly recommended, see p.127) to the Wyttenwasser-Thal and the Cavanna Pass (p. 132). We then traverse the Wyttenwasser Glacier', pass the Hühnerstock, and reach ( $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the Lecki Pass ( 9555 '), lying to the N. of the Leckihorn ( $10,070^{\prime}$; easily ascended from the pass in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). Descent across the Mutten Glacier, past the Muttenhörner; then an ascent between the Thierberg and Blauberg to the small Schwörze Glacier, and down to the ( $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Furka Hotel (p. 132). - Or we may proceed from the Wyttenwasser Glacier to the Wyttenwasser Pass ( $9365^{\prime}$ ) and the Passo Rotondo (see above) and thence descend to All' Acqua in Val Bedretto (p. 326; 10 hrs . from the Hôtel Prosa, an interesting expedition for experienced mountaineers).

From the Hospice to Airolo is a walk or drive of $2-2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$.; in the reverse direction 3 hours. In winter and spring the snow-drifts on the roadside are often $30-40^{\prime}$ high, and they sometimes remain throughout the summer. Snow-storms and avalanches are most prevalent on the S. side. About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S.E. the road crosses that branch of the Ticino which issues from the Sella Lake (p. 127), and enters the Val Tremŏla, a dismal valley endangered by avalanches; it then descends past the Cantoniera San Giuseppe (6010') in numerous windings, avoided by the old bridle-path. Rich Alpine flora. At the Cantoniera di Val Tremola (5564') the Val Tremola ends, and the Valle Leventina (p. 122) begins. *View down to Quinto. To the right opens the Val Bedretto (p. 326), from which the main branch of the Ticino descends.

22 M . Airōlo ( $3755^{\prime}$ ), $81 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the St. Gotthard Pass, see p. 120.
Travellers going from the St. Gotthard to the Val Bedretto need not descend to Airolo, but save an hour by leaving the road below the Cantoniera di Val Tremola (see above), at the angle of the first great bend in the direction of the Val Bedretto. The path descends to the right, and at Fontana (p. 326) joins the road leading from Airolo to All'Acqua.

34. The Maderaner-Thal.

Comp. Map, p. 74.
The "Maderaner-Thal, a picturesque valley about 12 M . in length, enclosed by lofty mountains (N., the Great and Little Windgelle, the Great and Little Ruchen, and the Scheerhorn; S., the Bristenstock, Weitenalpstock, Oberalpstock, and Düssistock), and watered by the turbulent Kärstelenbach, is worthy of a visit. Bridle-path (shaded in the early morning) from Amsteg to the ( $31 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Hotel Alpenclub (porter 6, horse 12 fr ., there and back within two days 24 fr .). Beautiful return-route viâ the Stöfeln (see below), $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$., practicable even for ladies.

Amsteg $(1712)$, see p. 118. We diverge from the St. Gotthard road on the left bank of the Kärstelenbach and ascend by a good zigzag path, passing nnder the hnge railway-bridge ( $\mathrm{p} .119 ; 178^{\prime}$ high), to the St. Antoni-Kapelle; then, throngh gently sloping pastures and orchards, to ( 50 min .) the hamlet of Bristen ( $2615^{\prime}$; quarters at the chaplain's, pens. from 4 fr . F Fedier, a tavern, with garden and collection of minerals, beyond the chapel, to the right). The path descends a little, crosses by ( 5 min .) an iron bridge to the right bank of the foaming Kärstelenbach, and again ascends. After 7 min . we avoid a bridge to the right, leading to the narrow Etzli-Thal (see p. 131), in which, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. farther up, is a fine waterfall. After 20 min . the path recrosses by the Thal-Brücke ( $2685^{\prime}$ ) to the left bank and leads to the ( 5 min .) houses Am Schattigen Berg. It then ascends rapidly to ( 40 min .) the top of the Lungenstutz ( $3600^{\prime}$; two taverns), and ( 8 min .) a cross commanding a fine riew. Passing through wood at places, we next cross the Griessenbach and the Staldenbach to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the chalets of Stössi (3904'). Crossing the Kärstelenbach at a ( 5 min .) Saw Mill, and passing the houses of Balmwald on the left, we reach in 25 min . more the Balmenegg ( $4442^{\prime}$ ) and the *Hotel zum Schweizer Alpenclub (R., L., \& A. 3, D. 4, pens. 7-10 fr.; Engl. Church Service). Fine view from the terrace on the W. side. Pleasant wood-walks near. About $1 / 2$ M. from the hotel is the small Butzli-See.

To the Hüfi Glacier, an interesting walk ( 1 hr ; ; guide unnecessary). From the inn a path, at first through wood, ascends the grassy slopes on the N. side of the valley (passing opposite the falls of the Brunnibach, the Stäuberbach, and the Lämmerbach), crosses the Spritzbach, the Seidenbach, and the Milchbäche, and ascends to ( 1 hr .) a rocky height ( $5385^{\prime}$ '), overlooking the glacier (which has greatly receded), from which the Kärstelenbach issues. We may now descend to the end of the glacier (guide, advisable, 3-4 fr.) and return to the hotel on the left bank of the Kärstelenbach, passing the waterfalls above mentioned, and crossing the $A l p$ Gufern ( $3-4$ hrs. in all). - The Seelegg ( $\overline{772} \overline{5}^{\prime}$ ), which rises to the S.W. above Lungenstutz (see above), is easily ascended, turning to the left at Stössi, in 2 hrs . (guide). The *View includes the Etzli and Reuss valleys, the Bristenstock, and the mountain-chain to the N. of the Maderaner-Thal.

Beantiful return-route to Amsteg by the *Stäfeln (6-7 hrs.; guide 8 fr .), the lofty pastures on the N . side of the valley. We may either ascend from the hotel by a steep path through wood ('Eselsweg') direct to the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Stäfel-Alp; or we may first proceed to the above-mentioned rock overlooking the Hüfi Glacier ( 1 hr .), and then ascend by a zigzag path viâ the Tritt to the ( 1 hr .) Alp Gnof ( $6215{ }^{\prime}$ ), the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Stäfel-Alp ( $6285^{\prime}$ ), and the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Bernetsmatt ( $6555^{\prime}$; Alpine fare). Magnificent view of the Hüfl Glacier, Clariden Pass, Düssistock, Tschingel Glacier, Oberalpstock, Weitenalpstock, Crispalt, Bristenstock, Galenstock, Spitzliberg, the Windgellen, and Ruchen. [A still finer view, especially of the Windgellen, is to be had from the *Widderegg $\left(7840^{\prime}\right), 11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from

Baedeker, Switzerland. 18th Edition.

Bernetsmatt and 3 hrs, from the Hôt. Alpenclub viâ the Stäfel-Alp, with guide.] We then descend rapidly to the pretty Golzeren - See ( $4625^{\prime}$ ) and the ( 1 hr .) Golzeren-Alp ( $4583^{\prime}$; plain fare at Fedier's), and lastly descend in zigzags through underwood to the hamlet of ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Bristen and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Amsteg (to the station $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more).

Excursions from the Hôtel Alpencleb. (Guides: Ambros, Car-l Ambros, snd Josef Zgraggen; Josef, Josef Maria, Melch., and Joh. Jos. Tresch; Joh. and Jos. Gnos; Jos. Furger; Albin Walker; M. Fedier, and others; ordinary excursions, 8 fr . per day.) The ascent of the Düssistock (Piz Git, 10,702; $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 20 fr .) is difficult and requires experience. The path leads up the Brunni-Thal to the ( 2 hrs .) Waltersfirren-Alp $\left(6330^{\prime}\right)$, ascends to the left to the (2 hrs.) Resti-Tschingel Glacier, and crosses it; we then clamber over the precipitous rocks of the Kleine Düssi $\left(10,280^{\prime}\right)$ and ascend the arête to the ( 2 hrs .) summit. Splendid view. - The *Oberalpstock (Piz Tgietschen, $10,925^{\prime}$; guide 20 fr ., with descent to Disentis 25 fr .), presents no serious difficulty to adepts. We either proceed from the Alpenclub Hotel by the Brunni Pass route ( p .131 ) to the upper part of the ( $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Brunni Glacier (p. 131), and mount the snowy slopes to the right, to the summit in $2-21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; or (harder) ascend from the Kreuzli Pass (p. 131) across the Strim Glacier ( $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the top). Ascent from Sedrun ( $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$ ), see p. 390. - Weitenalpstock (9870'), from the Alp Culma, on the Kreuzli Pass route ( 4 hrs . from Amsteg), over the Weiten-Alp in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., very toilsome (guide 25 fr .). - Bristenstock ( $10,085^{\prime}$ ), see p. 118. - Piz Cambriales ( $10,540^{\prime} ; 25 \mathrm{fr}$.), $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Hüfi Club Hut (see below), and Claridenstock $\left(10,720^{\prime} ; 25 \mathrm{fr}.\right), 5 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the club-hat, not very difficult for practised climbers. Kammlistock ( $10,624^{\prime} ; 25 \mathrm{fr}$ ), 5 hrs . from the club-hut, by the Kammlilücke, laborious. - The Grosse Windgelle or Kalkstock (10,470'), from the Alp Bernetsmatt (p. 129) by the Staffel Glacier in 5 hrs. (guide 30 fr.$)$, very difficult and sometimes dangerous. - The Grosse Scheerhorn $\left(10,815^{\prime}\right)$, from the Hüfi Club Hut by the Hüfifirn in $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 25 fr .), not very difficult in a favourable state of the snow. - The Grosse Ruchen (10,290'), from the Alp Gnof ( $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 20 fr. ), not very difficnlt, but fatigaing). - The Kleine Windgelle ( $9800^{\prime}$ ), from the Ober-Käsern Alp ( $6390^{\prime} ; 31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Amsteg, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from Bernetsmatt) in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 20 fr.), not very difficult.

Passes. To Linthal over the Clariden Pass, $11-12$ his. from the Alpenclub Hotel, a grand and most interesting expedition, withont serious difficulty to experts with able guides ( 35 fr .). We ascend the slopes of the Düssistock (see above), on the left bank of the Hüfi Glacier, to the ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Club Hut on the finely situated Hiifi Alp (6558'; spend night). Then a steep ascent for a short distance, over the moraine, to the ( 40 min ). Hüfi Glacier, and gradually up the Hüfifirn and Claridenfirn to the ( $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Clariden Pass (9740'), between the Hinter Spitzalpeli-Stock (9852') and the Claridenhorn ( $10,184^{\prime}$; fine view of the Tödi, the Rheinwaldgebirge, etc.). We then descend the Claridenfirn, passing the Bocktschingel. a rock with a hole throngh it, and the Gemsfayrenstock ( $p$. 75), to the ( 2 hrs.) ClaridenHitte of the S.A.C. on the Altenorenstock (E015'; p. 75), whence we proceed viâ the Altenoren-Alp to ( 3 hrs .) Linthal (p. 75). Or from the Claridenfirn (keeping to the right before reaching the Clariden Pass) we may cross the Hüfi Pass or Planura Pass (9645'), between the Hinter Spitzalpeli-Stock and the Calscharauls $\left(10,045^{\prime}\right)$, to the Sandfirn, and then either descend to the left to the Upper $\operatorname{Sandalp}(\mathrm{p} .76)$ or to the right by the Sandalp Pass to Disentis (p. 389 ; guide 30 fr .). - Another grand but difficult pass to Stachelberg or Unterschächen (12-13 hrs. from the Alpenclub Hotel; guide 35 fr. ) is the Kammli-Lücke (Scheerjoch; 9364'), lying between the Scheerhorn and the Kammlistock (see above). Ascent from the Hüfialp Hut to the pass, $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. Steep descent over precipitous ice-slopes to the Giries Glacier and viâ the Gemsplanggen to the ( 2 hrs .) Kammli-Aly (clean chalets) and the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Klausen Road ( $\mathrm{p} .7{ }^{7}$ ). Or from the Gries Glacier viâ the Ober-Alp to ( $23,4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Aesch (p. 78) and (1 hr.) Cnterschächen (p. 78).

To Unterschächen over the Ruchkehlen Pass ( $8790^{\prime}$ ), $8-9 \mathrm{hrs}$., laborious (gaide 25 fr .). From the Alp Gnof (p. 120) we ascend precipitous grassslopes, rock, and glacier to the pass, between the Suttelhörner and the Grosse Ruchen, and descend steeply through the ice-clad Ruchkehle into the BrunniThal and Schächen-Thal (p. 78). - The Scheerhorn-Griggeli Pass (9180') is also toilsome. The pass, between the Scheerhorn and the Kleine Ruchen, is reached from the Hôt. Alpenclub (p. 129) direct in 5 hrs ., or from the Hüfi Club Hut viâ Hüfi Glacier and the Bockischingelfirn in 4 hrs. Descent viâ the Opper Lammerbach-Alp to ( 4 hrs .) Unterschächen.

To Disentis over the Brunni Pass (8975'), 9 hrs., interesting but fatiguing (guide 25 fr ). We ascend the Brunni-Thal by Rinderbiel and Waltersfirren (p. 130) to the ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Brunni-Alp $\left(6810^{\prime}\right)$, cross the E. lateral moraine and the upper snow-fields of the Brunni Glacier to the ( $21 / 2$ hrs.) pass between the Piz Cavardiras ( $9735^{\prime}$ ') on the left and the Piz $d^{\prime}$ Acletta ( $9570^{\prime}$ ) on the right, and descend through the Val Acletta, past the small Lac Serein, to Acletta and ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Disentis (p. 389).

From Amsteg over the Kreczli Pass ( 7710 ) to Sedrun, 9 -10 hrs., fatiguing (guide 20 fr .). Through the Etzli-Thal to the pass, $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; thence down the Strimthai to Sedrun (p. 380), $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.

The *Furka Road, constructed chiefly for military purposes, a convenient route to or from the Grimsel and the Bernese Oberland, commands striking views of the Rhone Glacier and the Bernese and Valaisian Alps. From Realp onwards it should be traversed in an open carriage or on foot. Rich flora.

To ( $51 / 2$ M.) Hospenthal ( $4870^{\prime}$ ), see p. 126. At the upper end of the village the road diverges to the right from the St. Gotthard route, ascends a little, and skirts the Realper Reuss in the bleak Urseren-Thal (p. 125). On each side rise steep grassy slopes, overshadowed on the N. by the jagged pinnacles of the Spitzberge ( $10,050^{\prime}$ ). $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. Zumdorf ( $496 \overline{5}^{\prime}$ ), a group of huts with a chapel. Farther on we cross the Reuss and the Lochbach, which descends from the Tiefen Glacier (p. 132), and soon reach ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) - $91 / 2$ M. Realp (5060'; *Hôt. des Alpes, R. $11 / 2-2$, B. $11 / 4$, D. $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Post, both plain), a hamlet at the W. end of the Urseren Valley.

Over the Alpligen-Lücke to ( 6 hrs .) the Göschenen-Alp, see p. 124; over the Orsino Pass to the St. Gotthard, see p. 123. - From Realp to Villa in the Val Bedretto (p. 326) by the Cavanna Pass (8565'), between the Piz Lucendro and Hilhnerstock, 5 hrs., uninteresting. Guide, W. Ambros of Realp.

Beyond Realp the road begins to ascend in long windings, which the old road to the right, 50 paces beyond the second bridge, $1 / 2$ M. from Realp, avoids, and then follows the telegraph-wires all the way to the Hôt. Galenstock. (In descending from the Furka we quit the new road a few hundred paces beyond the 50 th kilomètre stone, and descend by a few steps to the left.) Looking back, we soon obtain a fine view of the broad Urseren-Thal, with the zigzags of the Oberalp Road in the background (p.392); on the left are the Wyttenwasser-Thal with its glacier, the Ywerberhörner, and the Piz Lucendro. By the last winding of the road (Fuchsenegg, $6595^{\prime}$ ), $31 / 2$ M. from Realp, is the small Hôt.-Pens. Galenstock (R. 2, D. $31 / 2$, pens. 6 fr.). About $11 / 2$ M. farther on, beyond the EbnetenAlp, is Tiefenbach (6790'; Hôtel Tiefengletscher, R., L., \& A. 2½, lunch $2 \frac{1}{2}$, D. $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), where the diligence halts.

By following the slope from this point and crossing the moraine, we reach ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; guide) the Tiefen Glacier, imbedded between the Galenstock and the Gletschhorn ( $10,850^{\prime}$ ), where beautiful crystals (more than $121 / 2$ tons) were found in 1868 (p. 158). The Tiefen Glacier is highly interesting on account of its enormous crevasses (some of them upwards of $200^{\prime}$ deep). - Over the Tiefen-Sattel to the Rhone Glacier. (Grimsel, Trift-Hütte), see p. 145. - Over the Winterlïcke ( $9450^{\prime}$ ) to the Göschenen-Alp (p. 124), 6 hrs., with guide; steep descent to the Winter Glacier.

The road crosses the Tiefentobel and ascends, running high up on the N. slope of the Garschen-Thal. On the right lies the Siedeln Glacier, the discharge of which forms a fine fall; above it rise the pinnacles of the Bielenstock (9670'). Before us rises the Furkahorn (p. 133). The ( $31 / 2$ M.) - $17 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Furka ( $7990^{\prime}$ ) is a saddle between the Muttenhörner on the left and the Furkahörner on the right, descending abruptly on both sides. We first reach, on the right, the barracks for the garrison of the fortifications (see p. 133) and the *Hôtel-Restaurant Furkablick (R., L., \& A. from $21 / 2$, B. $11 / 4$, lunch 3, D. $31 / 2^{-4}$, pens. $8-10 \mathrm{fr}$.). A little farther on, to the left, is the *Hôt.-Pens. Furka (R., L., \& A. 3-5, lunch 4, D. 5 fr.; post and telegraph office). Magnificent view of the Bernese Alps with the imposing Finsteraarhorn; to the left of it, the Oberaarhorn, Walliser Fiescherhörner, Siedelhorn, and Wannehorn, and to the right, the Agassizhorn and Schreckhörner. From the Signal, 10 min . from the hotel, we get a view of the Upper Valais and its Alps (Mischabelhörner, Matterhorn, Weisshorn, etc.); the *Känzli, 20 min . from the hotel, also commands the upper part of the Rhone Glacier (advisable to have the way pointed out). To the left of the Hôt. Furka diverges the Längisgrat-Strasse, a new military road which walkers may follow to the ( 10 min .) *Schönblick, affording an, admirable view of the Rhone Glacier, the Grimsel Pass, and the Bernese Alps.

Excursions (guides for the shorter tours at the hotels). *Furkahorn ( 9935 '; $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide, 7 fr ., not necessary for adepts), to the N. of the pass, by an easy bridle-path past the barracks. Admirable panorama of the Alps of Bern and the Valais, the Galenstock, St. Gotthard group, etc. The nearer summit ( $9248^{\prime}$ ) may be scaled in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. - The Blauberg ( $9110^{\prime}$ ), to the S. of the Furka road, is easily ascended by a new path in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (attractive; guide not indispensable). - "Muttenhorn (10,184'; 4 hrs .; guide 10 fr .), to the S. of the Furka, a very fine point, not difficult.

Galenstock ( 11,805 ; 5 hrs .; guide 15 fr. ), not difficult for adepts, if the snow is favourable (axe and rope). From the Furka we ascend to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Rhone Glacier (see below), skirt its left margin, climb a steep snowy slope to the right, a rocky arête, and lastly very steep névé to the overhanging snowy summit (caution required). View exceedingly grand.

From the Furka over the Lecki Pass and Piz Lucendro to the St. Gotthard ( 10 brs., with guide), see p. 123; over the Trift-Limmi to the TriftHütte (to Innertkirchen 16 hrs.; guide 40 fr .), see p. 145.

To the Grimsel (p. 198), 5 hrs . (guide necessary, 10 fr .; alpenstock and nailed boots requisite). Walkers descend from the Furka by a good path, diverging to the right from the road $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the inn, to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) upper part of the Rhone Glacier, cross it above the ice-fall in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., ascend the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Nägeli's Grätli ( $8265^{\prime}$ ), affording a splendid view of the Bernese and Valaisian Alps, and descend by a steep path along the face of the rocks to the ( 2 hrs .) Hospice ( p .193 ).

The road follows the slope to the right, passing the new fortifications of the Furka, to the ( $11 / 4$ M.) Galen-Hütten (7900') and descends to the left in long zigzags (short-cuts for pedestrians), high above the huge *Rhone Glacier (p.325), affording admirable views of its fantastic ice-masses. At the second bend of the road is the small Hôtel Belvedere (7218'; well spoken of). A path leads hence in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., over the moraine, keeping to the left, to a point commanding the upper part of the glacier, and to a glacier-cave (adm. 50 c.). A little below the Belvedere, to the right, is a short-cut leading direct to the point where the Rhone issues from the glacier and then skirting the infant stream to the Rhone Glacier Hotel. The road in the valley crosses the Muttbach and is joined on the left by the steep old bridle-path from the Furka ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). It then gradually descends the slope of the Längisgrat, and again describes several long bends, which the old bridle-path, to the right, cuts off. Crossing the Rhone, we reach the ( $61 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.$) -$

36. From Lucerne to Altdorf viâ Stans and Engelberg. The Surĕnen Pass.  Comp. Maps, pp. 92, 136.

Steamboat from Lucerne to Stansstad 8 times daily in $30-10 \mathrm{~min}$; fare 1 fr .40 or 70 c . (p. 107). - Electric Railway from Stansstad to (14 M.) Engelberg in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (fares $5 \mathrm{fr} .5,2 \mathrm{fr} .65 \mathrm{c}$.; there and back 7 fr ., 3 fr . 70 c .). As far as ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Stans there is another electric tramway, used for local trafic and in connection with the Stanserhorn Railway. - Travellers coming from the St. Gotthard viâ the Lake of Lucerne do not need to go on to Lacerne, but change steamers at Vitznau and proceed direct to Stans (four times daily, in 50 min .; fares 2 and 1 fr .). - From Engelberg to Altdorf over the Surĕnen Pass, fatiguing (bridle-path, 9 lorsoj gaide, 15 fr., unnecessary in fine weather; travellers from Altdorf need a guide to the top of the pass only, 8 fr .).

To Stansstad, see p. 107. The narrow-gauge Engelberg Electric Railway runs to the S. of the highroad, between the Bürgenstock (p. 107) on the left and the Stanser Horn (see below) on the right. On the road is the older tramway mentioned at p. 133.

2 M. Stans (1500'; pop. 2458; *Hot.-Pens. Stanser Hof, R., L., \& A. $11 / 2^{-3}$, B. 1, D. 3, S. 2, pens. 5-7 fr.; *Engel, R., L., \& A. $11 / 2-2 \frac{1}{2}$, B. $11 / 4$, D. $2^{1} / 2-3$, pens. 6-7 fr. ; Winkelried, R. from 2, B. 1, D. $2^{1 / 2}$, pens. $5-6 \mathrm{fr}$. Adler, R. $1-1 \frac{1}{2}$, B.1, D. $2-2 \frac{1}{2}$ fr.; Krone, R. $1-1 \frac{1}{2}$, B. 1 , D. $1 \frac{1}{2}$, pens. $3-4$ fr. ; Rössli), the capital of Nidwalden, the E. half of Canton Unterwalden, lies amidst a vast orchard, on which, however, from 11th Nov. to 2nd Feb. the sun shines for one hour only in the morning, between the Brisen ( $7890^{\prime}$ ) and the Stanser Horn (see below). Adjoining the handsome Parish Church, a baroque building of 1641 , is the *Monument of Arnold von Winkelried (p.19), a fine group in marble by Schlöth (1865). A tablet by the Burial Chapel in the churchyard, on the N. side of the church, commemorates the massacre perpetrated here in 1798 by the French, who were exasperated by the obstinate resistance they met with. The Town Hall contains portraits of all the 'landammanns' from the year 1521; below them is a collection of Unterwalden flags; a picture by the artist Würsch, who afterwards became blind, and perished in 1798; another by Volmar, representing Brother Klaus taking leave of his family (p.139). In the studio of the late painter Deschwanden a number of his paintings are exhibited gratis. The Historical Museum, in the Bahnhof-Platz, contains historical and antiquarian curiosities, weapons, coins, minerals, a library, and an interesting relief of Stans on the scale of $1: 500$ (adm. 30 c.). Fine view from the Knieri, above the Capuchin Monastery.

The "Stanser Horn (6233') is a splendid point of view, scarcely inferior to Rigi and Pilatus. Cable-railway in 1 hr .; return-ticket 8 fr ., on Sun. forenoon 5 fr., or, including railway from Stansstad, and S., R., and B. at the hotel, $151 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. The line ( 4265 yards in length; maximum gradient $60: 100$ ) is divided into three sections, and carriages are changed twice. Each section has its own power-house; the electric motors are supplied from the central station at Buochs. In the middle of each section is a crossing, where the ascending and descending cars pass each other; there is no toothed rail, but safety is guaranteed by strong automatic brakes. - The line ascends gradually (12:100) from the entrance of the village through lnxuriant meadows, and farther on more rapidly ( 27 : 100) to the ( 13 min. ) station of Kälti ( $2343^{\prime}$ ), where carriages are changed. The second section has a gradient at first of $40: 100$, afterwards of $60: 100$; the line ascends a wooded ravine, crosses a torrent, and intersects a deep cutting to the ( 13 min. ) second station of Blumatt ( $1006^{\prime}$ ), whence it proceeds (third section) with the same gradient ( $3: 5$ ) through a tunnel ( 150 yds .) to the terminal station (6070), at the *Hotel Stanserhorn (R., L., \& A. 4-5, D. $31 / 2$, pens. $8-12 \mathrm{fr}$.). A good path leads hence to the top ( $60^{\prime}$ higher), which commands a highly picturesque *View of the Bernese Alps (with the Titlis rising to the left), the Lake of Lucerne, and the hills of N.W. Switzerland. - The ascent of the Stanserhorn on foot takes $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Stans, but is fatigaing and not recommended; better from Dallenwyl ( 4 hrs .) or Kerus ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.).

The railway ascends the left bank of the Engelberger $A a$, between the Stanser Horn on the right and the Buochser Horn on the left. In the background, the snow-clad Titlis. Beyond ( $43 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Büren-Dallenwyl we cross the Aa.

A good bridle-path, diverging to the left, ascends to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M} . ; 6 \mathrm{M}$. from Stans viâ Büren; one-horse carr. from Stansstad to Büren in 1 hr ., 4 fr.; from Buochs 5 fr.) the finely-situated health-resort of Nieder-Rickenbach (3780'; "Hot.-Pens. Engel, pens. $5-7$ fr.). The following ascents are made hence: Buochser Horn ( $5910^{\circ}$ ), 2 hrs., repaying (comp. p. 95 ); Musenalp ( 5870 '; chalet, with rimts.), vià the Aahorn-Alp (2 hrs.; attractive); *Brisen ( $7900^{\prime}$ ), 3 hrs., bs the Aahorn-Alp and the Steinalp, interesting (guide 10 fr ., not indispensable for adepts) ; Schwalmis (7380'; $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide unnecessary), by the Aahorn-Alp, the Bärfallen (with a cross), and the Bühl-Alp, and thence up the N.W. arête. The descent from the last may be made to ( 3 hrs .) Isenthal viâ the Jochli (see below). - An interesting pass ( $\mathbf{~} 1^{1 / 2}-5 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide) leads from Nieder-Rickenbach by the Buihl-Alp (see above) and the Jochli ( $6915^{\prime}$ ), between the Schwalmis and the Rissetestock, descending by the Bolgen-Alp and the Laueli to St. Jakob in the Isenthal (p. 100).

6 M. Wolfenschiessen (1700'; *Eintracht ; Kreuz; *Einhorn, outside the village, plain, pens. $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). Beside the church is the hermit-hat (brought hither from Altzellen) of Conrad Scheuber, grandson of Nikolaus von der Flüe (p.140), whose worship he shares.

From Wolfenschiessen viâ (11/4 hr.) Ober-Rickenbach (2355'; Post, plain) and the Schonegg Pass (6315') or the Bannalp Pass (7035') to ( $4^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) Isenthal, see p. 100. Guide advisable (Al. Christen or Konr. Scheaber of Wolfenschiessen). The Kaiserstuhl (7875'), with a fine view and a rich flora, is ascended from Ober-Rickenbach vià the Bannalp in $4^{11 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$. (gaide).

At ( $91 / 2$ M.) Grafenort (1885'; inn, good wine) the line reaches the mountains. At first it ascends gradually through beautiful wood, but beyond the power-station at Obermatt comes a section nearly 1 M . long, worked on the rack-and-pinion system and attaining a gradient of $25: 100$. - 12 M . Grünen Wald (inn, much frequented by the visitors of Engelberg). Below, in the valley to the right, the brook descending from the Trübsee (p.144) falls into the Aa. After another slight ascent we turn to the left, and suddenly obtain a view of the Engelberger-Thal, a green Alpine valley, 5 M . long and 1 M . broad, bounded on three sides by lofty, snow-clad mountains. The Titlis with its ice-mantle stands forth majestically, and to the left rise the rocky pinnacles of the Great and Little Spannort (p.138); in the foreground is the Hahnenberg or Engelberg ( $8565^{\prime}$ ).

Engelberg (3340'; pop. 1973), loftily and prettily situated, and sheltered from the N., is a favourite health and summer resort. At the upper end of the village rises the handsome Benedictine Abbey of the name, founded in 1121, named Mons Angelorum by Pope Calixtus XI., and rebuilt after a fire in 1729.

The "Churce contains modern pictures by Deschwanden, Kaiser, and Würsch (p. 134). High-altar-piece, an Assumption by Spiegler, 1734. In the chapter-house, two transparencies by Kaiser, the Conception and the Nativity. The Library ( 20,000 vols., 210 MSS.), which was pillaged by the French in 1798, contains a good relief of the Engelberg Valley. Permission to visit the monastery is now not very often granted. - The School connected with the abbey is well attended. The Farm Buildings, with the labourers' dwellings, are very extensive, and in the cheese-magazine several thonsand cheeses are frequently stored at one time. The revenues of the abbey were considerably reduced by the French in 1798.

Opposite the abbey, $1 / 2$ M. to the S., on the left bank of the Aawasser, are pleasant walks (Café Bänklialp). The shady 'ProfessorenWeg' leads along the Aawasser to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Eienwäldchen, a popular coffee-garden on the road to Herrenrüti.

Excursions. "Schwand, an easy and charming walk of $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. The path ascends from the Hôt. Mïller along a brook and then mounts gradually through the Grïss, where it is joined by a path from the Hôt. Sonnenberg (charming retrospects of the Engelberg Valley). Beyond the Gschneit$A l p$ ( $3825^{\prime}$ ) we proceed through wood and roand the ridge to the hamlet of Unter-Schwoand and over pastures to Ober-Schwoand (3970'; $\left.{ }^{} \operatorname{Inn}\right)$. The view is limited; to the W. is the Melchthal chain from the Hanghorn to the Göhrlifluh. A little farther on, at the chapel on the way to the Wandalp (p. 137), the Titlis and other peaks also come into sight. - The ${ }^{} \mathbf{B e r g l i}$ ( $4300^{\prime}$; Inn), commanding the best view of the valley and the Titlis, is reached either by a direct path (with steps) viâ Fellenruiti ( 1 hr .), or by an easier path ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) diverging to the right in the Grïss from the route to Schwand (see above). A similar view is obtained from the *Flühmatt ( $4285^{\prime}$; rfmts.), ascended by a path leading to the left above the Hôt. Engel, mostly through wood ( 1 hr .). All three points may be combined in a round of $2^{1} 4^{-3} \mathrm{hrs}$. From the ( 1 hr .) Flithmatt we go on past the house to ( 5 min .) another farm-house, where we turn to the left and follow the level meadow-path along the hill. After a time this descends to the ( 40 min.) Bergli, whence we descend through the Vorhag Wood to Unter-Schound, or take the upper path to ( 20 min .) Ober-Schecand (see above) and return thence to ( 1 hr .) Engelberg.
${ }^{*}$ Tátschbach Fall and Herrenrüti, a favourite excursion (omn. to Herrenruiti several times daily, 1 fr., to the fall 60 c . $;$ carr. to Herrenrüti and back with stay of 2 hrs . 8 fr ., for half-a-day 10 fr . (carr. and pair 14 and 18 fr .). We either follow the road past the Eienwäldchen (see abuve), or we take the shorter path, to the left of the abbey, which passes ( 12 min. ) the Neue Heimat Inn, at the mouth of the Horbis-Thal, and the ( 8 min.) Schweizerhaus Inn. [The rocky basin at the head of the Horbis-Thal, reached in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., is known as the End der. Welt.] In $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more the road reaches the Tätschbach Fall (3575'; inn), which descends from the Hahnenberg or Engelberg. It then goes on tbrough wood and across the Fürrenbach to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) alp of Herrenruiti ( $3370^{\circ}$ ), which belongs to the abbey. Carriages are left here, and their inmates proceed by the Surenen Pass route (see p. 138) to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Nieder-Surenen Alp ( $4133^{\prime}$; rfmts.), which affords a fine view of the pyramidal Schlossberg, the serrated Spannörter, the Firnalpeli and Grassen glaciers, and the huge precipices of the Titlis.

Arnitobel and Arni-Alp. We follow the valley-road to the W. viâ Espen to (1 M.) the bridge over the Aawasser at Oertigen, beyond which we ascend to the right. After 6 min . we turn to the left (to the right the way to the Schwendli-Alp, see below), cross the Eggli-Tobel and the Truibseebach, and enter ( 25 min .) the Arnilobel, a wooded ravine with waterfalls. Thence a new path ascends to the left to $\left(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}\right.$; $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$. from Engelberg) the Arni-Alp or Wang-Alp (4210'; good inn), on a pleasant green pasture. The view is limited, but better from a point 5 min . to the right, indicated by a flag. - A similar view is enjoyed from the Schwendli-Alp ( $3365^{\prime}$; rfmts.), reached in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. by the path diverging from the Arnitobel route as above indicated. - A pleasant circuit of 2 hrs . leads to the Gerschni-Alp ( $4125^{\prime}$ ) and returns viâ Hegmatt.

Longer Excursions. Fürren-Alp, 3 hrs., very attractive (guide, not indispensable, 7 fr .). Before reaching the Tätschbach Fall, beyond the bridge over the Kühlauibach we ascend to the left through wood (rather steep) to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Tagenstall-Alp ( $4710^{\prime}$ ), pass two slate-quarries (fossils), and reach ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the chalets of the Fürren-Alp (rfmts.). From the Hundsschopf ( 5972 ), 5 min . to the S., a grand view is obtained of the imposing amphitheatre of mountains from the Schlossberg to the Titlis. A pleasant return-route (guide desirable) descends to the E. to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ebnet-Alp ( 5557 '), the Hohbiel-Alp, and the ( 40 min .) Städfeli-Alp, on the Surenen Pass route, 20 min . from the Nieder-Surenen-Alp (p. 138). -Wand-Alp (4885), viẩ Schwand (p. 135) in 3 hrs., last part rather toilsome; charming view of the Aathal and the mountains of Central Switzerland. Finer still is the view from the Wallenegg ( $5495^{\prime}$ ), 50 min , farther to the N. - Viâ the Gerschni-Alp to the ( $2-21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Hôl. Hess on the Trübsee-Alp, see p. 144. - Viâ Port or Bord to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Obhag-Alp aud the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Planken-Alp, with its rich flora (see below).

Ascents. Hahnenberg or Engelberg ( $8565^{\prime} ; 4^{3} / 4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.), an interesting but fatiguing scramble for experienced climbers. The route leads from the Horbis-Thal (p.136) vià the Furggi-Alp and over the saddle between the Hahnen and Gemsispiel. - Rigidalstock ( $8515^{\prime} ; 41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 9 fr .), the last part toilsome; fine panorama. - "Widderfeld (7723'), from the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Arni-Alp (see above) in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; preferable by the Zingel-Alp and Hohlicht ( $5 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 8 fr .). - ${ }^{*}$ Hutstock ( $8790^{\prime}$; guide 12 fr .), a fine point, from the Arni-Alp viâ the Juchli (p. 138) in $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$, not difficult for mountaineers (comp. p. 140). - The "Hanghorn (8793') is reached from the Arni-Alp in $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 12 fr. ) by traversing the Schattband, on the rocky face of the Hutstock. - ${ }^{\circ}$ Engelberger Rothstock ( 9250 '; $6-61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 9, with a night out 12 fr .), not difficult. We ascend by the Alp Obhag to the ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Club Hut above the Planken-Alp (7560'), on the Ruchhubel, not far from the Griessen Glacier; thence to the Rothgrätli (p. 1C0) 2 hrs ., and to the top in 20 min . more.
*Uri-Rothstock ( $9620^{\prime} ; 81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 16 , with descent through the Grossthal to Isenthal 22 fr .), very interesting, not difficult for adepts. From the Plankenalp Club Hut to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) gap ( 8878 ) on the S.E. of the Engelberger-Rothstock; thence across snow to the ( 1 hr .) Porla or Schloss-stock-Lücke, adjoining the Schlossstock (9055); then a rather steep descent to the Blümlisalpfirn; again an ascent to the arete separating it from the Kleinthal, and lastly up the Kleinthalfirn to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) top (comp. p. 1C0).

The *Great Spannort ( 10,515 ') is ascended from the Spannort Club Hut ( $6500^{\prime}$ ), 4 hrs. from Engelberg, by the Schlossberg-Lücke (p. 138) and the Glattenfirn, or direct by the Spannörter-Joch (p. 138) in $41 / 2-5$ hrs.; highly interesting, though toilsome (comp. p. 118; guide 25 fr .). The descent may be made to the Krönten Hut (p. 118; guide to Erstfeld 30 fr.). The Little Spannort ( $10,380^{\prime}$ ) is climbed from the Spannort Hut by the Spannörter-Joch in $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 35 fr .) ; difficult, for expert climbers only. Adepts may ascend the Little and Great Spannort in one day (guide 50 fr .). - Schlossberg ( $10,280^{\prime}$ ), from the Blacken-Alp (p. 138) in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. , laborious (guide $2 \bar{j}$ fr.). Admirable view, scarcely inferior to that from the Titlis. Edelweiss abundant.

The *Titlis ( $10,627^{\prime} ; 61 / 2-7 \mathrm{hrs}$; gaide 12, to Engstlen-Alp 18 fr .) is very interesting, though fatiguing. It is advisable to go on the previous evening to the Hotel Hess (p. 144; 2 hrs ; horse 10 fr .), 80 as not to have the steep Pfaffenwand (p.144) to ascend at starting. From this point the guides like to start at $2 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$., in order to get back before the snow melts; but the ascent by lantern-light is disagreeable and toilsome, and it is better to wait till daybreak. From the Hôtel Hess the path ascends over the Laubersgrat to the ( 2 hrs .) Stand ( 8033 '); it then mounts a steep incline in zigzags, over rock and detritus, to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Rothegg ( $9030^{\prime}$ ), where the glacier is reached, and a rest is taken. We ascend the glacier, at first gradually, then more rapidly (step-cutting sometimes necessary), and, if the snow is in good condition, reach the ( $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit, called the Nollen, without material difficulty. The view, highly picturesque and imposing, embraces the entire Alpine chain from Savoy to Tyrol, N. Switzerland, and S. Germany (panorama by Imfeld). Descent to the Joch Pass (Engstlen-Alp), see p. 144.

Passes. From Engelberg over the Joch Pass to Meiringen ( $91 / 2-10 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide, unnecessary, to Engstlen-Alp 8 fr. ), see R. 38 ; over the Storegg ( $7 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 12 fr .) or the Juchli ( 9 hrs .; guide 12 fr .) to Sarnen, see p. 140 ; over the Rothgrätli to the Isenthal (to Flüelen 12 hrs .; guide 18 fr .), see p. 100.

From Engelberg to Erstfeld (p. 118) by the Schlossberg-Lücke ( $8632^{\prime}$ ) and the Glattenfirn ( 10 hrs ; guide 25 fr. ), a fine route, but fatiguing. By spending a night in the Spannort Hut (p. 137; 2 hrs . below the pass) mountaineers may combine the ascent of the Great Spannort (p. 137) with this pass. - To Erstfeld across the Spannörter-Joch (9610'; 10-11 hrs.; guide 25 fr .), between the Great and the Little Spannort, toilsome.

To Wasen over the Grassen Pass (Bärengrube, $8917^{\prime}$ ), 10 hrs , difficult (guide to Meien 25 fr.). - To the Steinalp over the Wenden-Joch (8695'), 10-11 hrs., fatiguing, but interesting (guide 25 fr.).

The road from Engelberg to the Surenen Pass leads past the Tätschbach Fall to the ( 4 M .) Herrenrüti-Alp (p. 136), whence a bridle-path ascends to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Nieder-Surenen Alp $\left(4133^{\prime}\right)$ and the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Stäffeli-Alp ( $4652^{\prime}$ ). From this point a steep ascent of 50 min . brings us to the Stierenbach Fall $\left(5425^{\prime}\right)$, the foot of which may be reached by a narrow path, bedewed with spray. We next cross ( 5 min .) the brook, and in 40 min . more recross it to the Blacken-Alp (5833'), with its chapel. The path then ascends gradually over snow, which melts in July, to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Surennen Pass ( $7560^{\prime}$ ), on the S. side of the Blackenstock ( 95877 ).

The Titlis becomes grander as we ascend, and we see a long range of peaks and glaciers, particularly the Klein- and GrossSpannort and the Schlossberg, extending as far as the Surĕnen. On the other side we survey the mountains enclosing the Schächen-Thal, the Windgelle being most conspicuous. On the E. side of the pass the snow, which never entirely melts, is crossed in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. in the height of summer. Then a steep descent to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Wald-nacht-Alp ( $4754^{\prime}$ ). At a stone bridge ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the route divides. The very steep path, straight on, leads to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Altdorf ( p .117 ); that to the right, crossing the bridge, to (2 hrs.) Erstfeld (p. 118). The latter leads by the ( 5 min .) Bockitobel, with the picturesque falls of the Waldnachtbach, descends through wood and over pastures to the village of Erstfeld, and crosses the Reuss to the station on the St. Gotthard line (p. 118).

37. From Lucerne over the Brünig to Meiringen and Brienz (Interlaken).

Comp. Maps, pp. 92, 93, 160.
Railway from Lucerne to ( $281 / 2$ M.) Meiringen in $31 / 2$ (first-class express in 3) hrs. (fares $7 \mathrm{fr} .90,5 \mathrm{fr} .45,3 \mathrm{fr} .55 \mathrm{c}$.) ; to ( 36 M .) Brienz in $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. (fares $10 \mathrm{fr} .30,7 \mathrm{fr} .25,4 \mathrm{fr} .25 \mathrm{c}$.). From Brienz to Interlaken, railway and steamboat in $11 / 3-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (through-fares from Lucerne to Interlaken $30 \mathrm{fr} .30 \mathrm{c} ., 10 \mathrm{fr} ., 5 \mathrm{fr} .65 \mathrm{c}$. ). - Steamboat (preferable) from Lucerne to Alpnachstad ( $3 / 4-11 / 2 \mathrm{hr} . ;$ p. 98) ; the direct trips are timed to connect with the Brünig Railway at Alpnachstad. From Alpnachstad to Weggis direct steamer thrice daily in $1-1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$.

The =Brünig Railway, opened in 1888-89, is an ordinary narrow-gange line, as far as Giswyl, about halfway; but it then crosses the pass (3295') by means of the 'rack-and-pinion' system and the ordinary system alternately. Maximum gradient, 18:100. Views to the right. As, however, the old Brünig Road is more picturesque, those who visit the Bernese Oberland for the first time will be repaid by walking from Giswyl or Lungern across the Brünig to Meiringen.

Lucerne, see p. 87. The Brünig Railway runs to the S.W. in a wide curve into the broad valley of the Allmend, and, leaving Kriens (p.92), at the foot of the Sonnenberg, to the right, passes ( 3 M .) Horw (a village, with two inns, to the left), and approaches the S.W. arm of the Lake of Lucerne (p. 107). 51/2 M. Hergiswyl (p. 107), at the foot of Pilatus (bridle-path to Hôtel Klimsenhorn, p.109). The railway pierces the Lopperberg (tunnel, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) and skirts the Lake of Alpnach to - 81/2 M. Alpnachstad (*Hôt.-Pens. Pilatus; Rössli), the startingpoint of the *Pilatus Railway; see p. 108.

Thence through the somewhat marshy valley of the $A a$ and across the Kleine Schlierenbach to ( $91 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Alpnach or Alpnachdorf (1530'; *Krone; Sonne; Schlüssel). The church, with its slender tower, was erected with the proceeds of the sale of timber from the Pilatus forests, rendered accessible by a wooden slide, 8 M . long, and cut down in 1811-19.

Beyond Alpnach the train crosses the broad stony bed of the Grosse Schlieren and the Sarner $A a$, the right bank of which it follows past Kägiswyl (on the right), with its large parquetry-factory, to (12 M.) Kerns-Kägiswyl (1620'), the station for the Melchthal.

The Melchthal, an idyllic valley, 15 M . long, studded with chalets and watered by the Melch-Aa, repays a visit. From the station of Kägiswyl or Sarnen a diligence plies daily in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the village of Melchthal, viâ ( ${ }^{\prime} / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Kerns ( $1865^{\prime}$; ${ }^{}$ Krone, pens. $5-6 \mathrm{fr}$. ; ${ }^{}$ Sonne; Hirsch; *Rössli, pens. $4-5 \mathrm{fr}$.), a village with a pretty church, finely situated at the foot of the Arvigrat ( $6416^{\prime}$ ), and frequented as a health-resort. Good views from ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Melchaa-Egg and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Burgfiuh ( $2253^{\prime}$ ). At the entrance of the Melchthal, 3 M . from Kerns and $33 / 4$ M. from Sarnen, is St. Niklausen ( $2752^{\prime}$; Schlüssel, pens. from 4 fr .), with the first Christian church erected in this district. The ancient tower adjoining it is locally called the Heidenthurm (heathens' tower). In the ravine of the Melchaa, opposite, below Flüeli (p. 141), is the Ranft, with the hermitage of St. Nikolaus von der Flúe, who is said to have lived here for twenty years on the sacramental elements, of which he partook monthly. After their victory over Charles the Bold of Burgundy in 1482 the confederates disagreed at the Diet of Stans about the division of the spoil, but through the intervention of the venerable hermit were reconciled. After his death (1487) he was canonised. His memory is still revered, and there is scarcely a hut in the Forest Cantons that does not possess a portrait of Brother Klaus.

From the hermitage the road leads to the ( 3 M .) village of Melchthal (2933'; *Hôt.-Pens. Melchthal, R. $11 / 2-21 / 2$, B. 1, D. 3, S. 2, pens. $5 \cdot 61 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; * Hot --Pens. Alpenhof, pens. 5 fr.), frequented as summer-quarters. A cart road (practicable for light vehicles) leads hence viâ the Balmmatt-Alp, at the foot of the precipitons Ramisfluh ( $6115^{\prime}$ ), to ( 8 M.) Melchsee-Frutt (see below). At the Ohr-Alp (3975'), 3 M . to the E. of Melchthal, is one of the largest maple-trees in Switzerland, with a girth of 30 ft . The Widderfeld ( $7725^{\prime}$ ) is easily ascended from Melchthal in $4^{1 / 2}$ hrs. (guide). A better and also fairly easy ascent is that of the ${ }^{}$ Hutstock ( $8790^{\prime}$; 5 hrs .; guide 10 fr .; Werner or Kaspar Durrer); splendid view of the High Alps and the lakes of Central Switzerland. Descent to Engelberg, see p. 137. - From Melchthal a safe mountain-path crosses the Storegg ( $5710^{\prime}$ ) to ( $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Grafenort or ( $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Engelberg (p. 138; with guide); another, more interesting bat more fatiguing (guide 9 fr.), leads to Engelberg in 6 hrs. over the Juchli ( $7120^{\prime}$ ). The Nünalphorn (Juchlistock, $7830^{\circ}$ ) may be ascended in 1 hr . from the Juchli (guide 6 fr .). - The basin of Melchsee-Frutt ( $6165^{\prime}$; CurhausPens. Frutt, Pens. Reinhard, both unpretending) affords an attractive Alpine picture. Rich flora. Interesting excursions: to Boni ( $7120^{\prime}$ ), 1 hr .; Spicherfuh ( $6690^{\prime}$ ), $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr} . ;$ Hohmatt ( $7950^{\prime}$ ), 2-21/2 hrs.; ${ }^{}$ Erzegg ( $7140^{\prime}$ ), $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr} . ;{ }^{}$ Balmeregghorn (7280), $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr} . ;$ Abgschütz, $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs} . ;{ }^{}$ Hohenstollen ( $8150^{\prime}$ ), $2^{1 / 4}$ hrs., with fine view (comp. p. 192; guide 5 fr .) ; Glockhaus ( $832 \mathrm{U}^{\prime}$ '), 2 hrs., toilsome; Wildgeissberg ( $8710^{\prime}$ ) and Rothsandnollen ( $8905^{\prime \prime}$ '), 3 hrs . viâ the Tannen-Alp (comp. p. 144). To the E. an easy pass crosses the Tannen-Alp ( $6500^{\prime}$ ) in 2 hrs. to the Engstlen-Alp (p. 144); to the W. an interesting pass (last part of ascent steep and stony; descent to Meiringen easy) leads viâ the Weit Ries (about $7700^{\prime}$ ), to the S. of the Hohenstollen, in 5 hrs. (guide 12 fr .) to Meiringen (p. 190).

13 M. Sarnen ( 1545 '; pop. 4000 ; *Hôt.-Pens. Seiler, R., L., \& A. $11 / 2-2$, B. 1, D. $2^{1} / 2$, pens. 5 fr. ; *Obwaldner Hof, pens. $4-5 \mathrm{fr}$.; Adler; Metzgern, moderate; Pens. Landenberg, see below; Wylerbad, on the S.W. bank of the lake, $11 / 2$ M. from Sarnen), capital of Obwalden, the W. part of Canton Unterwalden, with a nunnery and a Capuchin monastery. The Rathhaus contains portraits of all the magistrates of Obwalden from 1381 to 1824, and one of St. Nikolaus von der Flüe (see p. 139), and a relief model of Unterwalden and Hasli. The large church, on a hill, with pictures by Deschwanden and Kaiser, the cantonal hospital, the poorhouse, the Niklaus von Flüe Pensionat (for students), and the arsenal on the Landenberg ( $1676^{\prime}$; fine view; pension, see above) are conspicuous.

At the head of the Schlieren-Thal, $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the W. of Sarnen, is the solitary *Schwendi-Kaltbad (4737'), with chalybeate spring and whey-cure. Road up the W. slope of the Schwendiberg to ( 1 hr. ) Stalden ( $2614^{\prime}$; rfmts. at the curés; good view), whence a bridle-path leads across the meadows of Schwendi to the ( $21^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Kaltbad. Thence to the Feuerstein ( $6700^{\prime}$ ) $2^{11 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.; to the Schimberg Bad, $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., see p. 147. By the Seewenegg to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) The train (views to the right) crosses the Melch-Aa, which has been conducted into the Sarner See ( $1530^{\prime}$ ), a lake 4 M . long and $1-1 \frac{1}{4} \mathrm{M}$. broad, well stocked with fish. - 15 M . Sachseln (1598'; pop. 1556 ; *Kreuz, pens. $41 / 2-5$ fr. ; *Engel, pens. $4-41 / 2$ fr.), a thriving village near the E. bank of the lake.

From Sachseln a good road (carr. 5, with two horses 8 fr.; short-cut halfway, to the right, in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) leads to ( 3 M .) Flüeli-Ranft ( $2450^{\prime}$; "Hôt.Pens. Nünalphorn, well situated, pens. 6-8 fr.; ${ }^{*}$ Pens. Anderhalden, kept by the curé, $41 / 2 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Pens. Stolzenfels), a health-resort, the birthplace of Brother Klans (1417; p. 139), above the Ranft, with a cbapel commanding a fine view. Hence to the village of Melchthal, a pleasant and shady walk, high above the Melch-Aa, $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. - From Hôt. Nünalphorn a path descends through wood into the Gorge of the Melch-Aa, with its imposing rocky scenery and foaming waterfalls. - A new road leads from FlüeliRanft to to the N. to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M1}$.) Kerns (p. 139), passing ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Flüeli) a covered wooden ${ }^{}$ Bridge over the Melch-Aa, $85^{\prime}$ long, and $318^{\prime \prime}$ above the torrent, the highest of its kind in Switzerland.

Ascending a little from the S. end of the lake, and passing (on the left) the entrance of the Kleine Melchthal, the train halts at ( $181 / 2$ M.) Giswil (1665'; *Hôtel de la Gare; Krone). Fine view from the churchyard, beside the high-lying church; to the S.W. rise the Giswiler Stock ( $6605^{\prime}$ ) and the Brienzer Rothhorn ( $7715^{\prime}$ ). Above the station are the relics of the château of Rudenz.

Excursions. The romantic *Kleine Melchthal has been made accessible and deserves a visit. From the hamlet of Eiwil (Schiff, rustic), 1 M. to the N. of Giswil, at the S.E. end of the Sarner See, the road ascends to the E . to the entrance of the narrow and very picturesque wooded ravine, through which it is carried for about 3 M . - The Giswiler Stock ( $660{ }^{\circ}$ '; ; beautiful view) is ascended from Giswil in 4 hrs. , with guide ( 10 fr .), viâ Kleintheil and Alpboglen. The descent may be made to the Marien-Thal (Entlebuch, p. 147). - The Brienzer Rothhorn (7715'; p. 192) is ascended from Giswil in 6 hrs. (guide 12 fr., not needed by experts); good road for the first 3 hrs., afterwards a steep footpath. - Pedestrians should walk by the old *Brûvig Road from Giswil to ( 3 hrs .) the Brünig Pass (see below), whence they may descend to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Meiringen or ( 3 hrs .) Brienz (p. 192).

At Giswil, where the first steep incline occurs, the 'rack-andpinion' system begins. The line rapidly ascends the side of the valley ( $10: 100$ ), through wood, across two torrents, and through two rock-cuttings, and at Bürgeln reaches the top of the Kaiserstuhl ( 2305 '). The three peaks of the Wetterhorn are visible to the S. over the depression of the Brünig. The train runs high above the picturesque Lake of Lungern ( $2160^{\prime} ; 11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long), and through a short tunnel, to - $221 / 2$ M. Lungern (2475'). The large village (pop. 1756; *Curhaus Lungern, pens. 5-7 fr.; *Löwe \& Hôt. Brünig, pens. 5-6 fr.; Hôt.-Pens. Alpenhof; Bär), with the adjoining Ober-Seewies, is the last in the valley, and lies $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the S . end of the lake, half of which was drained into the Lake of Sarnen in 1836, by means of a channel $3 / 4$ M. long. - The Dundelbach forms a picturesque fall on the hillside to the W. The Giebel (6680'; fine view), to the S.E., is easily ascended from Lungern in $31 / 2^{-4}$ hrs. (see p. 191).

The second steep gradient begins beyond Lungern. Fine view of the Lungern-Thal. The train passes through the Käppeli Tunnel ( $2970^{\prime} ; 150$ yds.) and ascends the wooded Brünigmatt-Thal (above us, to the right, is the road), at a moderate gradient, which becomes steeper near ( $251 / 2$ M.) Brünig (3295'; Rail. Restaurant, D. incl. wine $3-3 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{fr}$.; *Hôt.-Pens. Curhaus Brünig, 3 min . from the station, R. 3-5, B. 11/2, lunch $31 / 2$, D. $4^{1} / 2$, pens. $7-12 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Engl. Ch. Serv. in the season), well situated near the old Brünig Pass. Opposite us tower the Engelhörner (p. 195) and the Faulhorn chain (p. 188); to the left we overlook the valley of Meiringen as far as the Kirchet (p. 196); at the foot of the hills to the S. is the lower fall of the Reichenbach (p. 194); opposite is the fall of the Oltschibach (p. 192); below us flows the Aare, and to the right is part of the Lake of Brienz.

Fine prospect from the Wyler Alp ( $4855^{\prime}$ ), $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N.W. of the Brunig; more extensive from the Wylerhorn ( $6590^{\prime}$ ), $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$. farther on, viâ the Brünig-Aelpeli (guide desirable for novices).

From the Brunig station a footpath (road projected) descends, mostly through wood, to the finely sitaated village of ( 1 hr .) Hohfluh (p. 191). New road thence to ( $21 / 2$ M.) Meiringen ( p .191 ). - A road (good view) leads from the Brünig viâ Brienzuiler to ( $\mathrm{\rho}^{1} / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Brienz (see p. 192).

The railway is carried down the steep rocks (maximum gradient $12: 100$ ) by means of retaining-walls and cuttings, and across the ravines of the Grossbach, Kehlbach, and Hausenbach (charming view at the Brunnenfluh), into the Aare-Thal, to Hausen, and -

38. From Meiringen to Engelberg. Engstlen-Alp. Joch Pass.

Comp. Maps, pp. 124, 136.

$91 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.: Im-Hof $11 / 4$, Engstlen-Alp $41 / 2$ (direct from Meiringen 5 hrs .), Joch $11 / 2$, Hôt. Hess $1 / 2$, Engelberg $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. - Horse from Im-Hof to Engstlen-Alp 15, to Engelberg 30, for two days 45 fr.; guide (unnecessary) 16; porter from Im-Hof to Engstlen-Alp 8, from Meiringen 9 fr.; horse from Engstlen-Alp to Engelberg 15, guide 8 fr. - If the traveller can devote two days to this interesting journey (still more attractive in the reverse direction), he should sleep on the Engstlen-Alp, where an afternoon may be pleasantly spent. - Luggage addressed to the Hôtel Engst-len-Alp and left with Herr Immer at Meiringen is despatched daily at 8 a.m. and arrives in the evening ( 1 fr . per 5 kilogrammes or 11 lbs .).

From Meiringen to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Im-Hof ( $2053^{\prime}$ ), see p. 197. We then follow the Susten route (p.144) to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) saw-mill in the Mühle-Thal ( $2735^{\prime}$ ), and, beyond the bridge over the GenthalWasser (finger-post), ascend to the left through wood to the ( 1 hr .) Wagenkehr Inn, whence we descend to the ( 8 min .) Leimboden $\left(3910^{\prime}\right)$, where we recross to the right bank.

A direct path to the Engstlen-Alp, saving about $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., leads from Meiringen (p. 190) to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hôt.-Pens. Alpbach, on the Hasleberg (p. 191), turns to the right 10 min . farther on, and leads to ( 20 min. ) the hamlet of Rüti ( $3160^{\circ}$ ), the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) hamlet of Arni ( $47155^{\prime}$ ), the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Baumgarten-Alp ( $55^{\circ} 0^{\circ}$ ), and ( 1 hr .) the Engstlen-Alp. This route affords good walking and commands fine riews of the Bernese Alps, the Tritt district, the Titlis chain, and (lastly) of the deep Genthal. - The direct path called the 'Hundschüpfi', also $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. shorter, is not recommended.

Our path gradually ascends the monotonous Genthal. Behind us rise the Wetterhörner and the Hangend-Gletscherhorn at the head of the Urbach-Thal (p. 197). We pass ( 10 min .) the chalets Bei den Spichern and (10 min.) the Genthal Chalets (3993'; on the left bank of the brook), and after a slight ascent reach ( 1 hr .) the Schwarzenthal Chalets (4596'; rfmts.).

The scenery becomes more interesting. From the precipices of the Gadmer Flühe ( $9750^{\prime}$ ) on the right, which become grander, falls a series of cascades, varying with the state of the melting snow, and eight of these are seen close together (Achtelsassbäche). The Engstlenbach; as the brook is named above this point, also forms several falls. The path crosses the stream and ascends, often steeply, through fine wood, to the ( $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$.) *Engstlen-Alp (6033'; *Immer's Hotel, with dépendances, R., L., \& A. $2^{1} / 2^{-4}$, B. $11 / 2$, D. 4, S. 3 , pens. $7-9$, in June and Sept. $61 / 2^{-8}$ fr.; good water), a beautiful and sheltered pasture, with fine old pines and 'Alpine cedars', frequented as a health-resort. *View, to the S.W., of the majestic Wetterhorn; to its left, the Mittelhorn, Rosenhorn, Schreckhörner, Lauteraarhorn, and Finsteraarhorn; to the right, the Gspaltenhorn, Tschingelhorn, and Blümlisalp; to the E., the Wendenstöcke and Titlis. A little to the E. of the hotel is the picturesque Engstlen Lake ( $6075^{\prime}$ ), with baths and rowing-boat.

Excursions. Schafberg ( 7850 ; 2 hrs .), easy (guide needless). Starting to the E. from the hotel, we ascend the steep Schafthal, keeping, farther ap, well to the right, along a grassy ridge till near the top, which affords an interesting view of the Engelberg valley and its surrounding mountains, and a peep of Lake Lucerne to the left.

Sätteli ( $6890^{\prime} ; 2$ hrs.). At the W. end of the Engstlen-See (see above) we cross the Engstlenbach to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Scharmadläger, and ascend a narrow path, diverging to the left above the Bäregg-Alp, on the slope of the Gadmer Flühe, to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Sätteli, which lies at the S.W. base of the Tellistock (see below) and commands a splendid view of the GadmenThal, Trift Glacier, and Bernese Alps (descent to Gadmen, see p. 144). A still finer view is obtained from the *Achtelzassgrätli ( $6540^{\circ}$ ), to the S.W. of the Sätteli, reached in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more by keeping above the Bäregg-Alp straight along the slope at a lower level.

To Melchsee-Frutt ( 2 hrs .; gaide, 4 fr ., unnecessary; horse 10 fr .). From the hotel we go to the N.W. to the ( 10 min .) Jenti Waterfall and ascend rapidly on the right side, soon obtaining a splendid view of the Bernese Alps (among which the Finsteraarhorn comes in view to the left of the Schreckhörner). At the top we round the grassy Spicherfluh ( $6690^{\prime}$ ), pass a small lake, and reach the ( 1 hr .) Tannen-Alp ( $650 \mathrm{U}^{\prime}$ ), with its numerous chalets. We next traverse level pastures, pass three other small lakes and a shelter-hut ( $6415^{\prime}$ ), and reach ( 1 hr .) Melchsee-Frutt ( $6165^{\prime} ;$ see p. 140). - Or, after passing the Spicherfluh (see above), the regular path may be quitted and the grassy ridges to the left followed as far as the Erzegg ( $7140^{\prime}$ ), affording grand views of the above-mentioned giants of the Bernese Oberland. From Erzegg we descend to the right to Melchsee-Frutt (this route takes 1 hr . more, but is repaying).

Ascents. Gwärtler (7950'; 2 hrs.; guide 6 fr.), not difficult; good view to the S. and W., but shut in on the N. Edelweiss abundant on the lower rocky ledges. - ${ }^{*}$ Hohmatt ( 2950 '; $21 / 2$ hrs.; guide, not indispensable, 6 fr .), the central peak of the Tannenband, an easy and very attractive climb viâ the Tannen-Alp and the Kringen-Liicke. - *Rothsandnollen (8905'; 3 hrs.; guide 8 fr .), the highest of the Melchthal chain ; roomy plateau at the top. ${ }^{\circ}$ Hohenstollen ( $8150^{\prime}$; 4 hrs.), rather fatiguing (guide 10 fr ); magnificent prospect (comp. p. 192). - Graustock ( $8737^{\prime}$; $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 8 fr .), tatiguing; but the lower ridge to the E. is easy and repaying. - Hutstock ( $8790^{\prime} ; 41 / 2$ hrs. ; guide 12 fr .), see p. 140 . - *Tellistock ( $8467^{\prime} ; 3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide $8-10 \mathrm{fr}$.), the W. peak of the Gadmer Flühe, not difficult. Footpath to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) $A l_{p}$ Scharmadläger (p. 143); then through a valley and over broad terraces of grass and rock to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit. Fine and very picturesque view. - Wendenstock ( $999 \mathrm{u}^{\prime}$; 4 hrs ; guide 30 fr .), difficult, for steadyheaded experts only; imposing view.

The ascent of the *Titlis $\left(10,627^{\prime}\right)$ is shorter but more toilsome from the Engstlen-Alp than from Engelberg (p. 133). From the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Joch Pass we ascend to the right over turf, rocks, debris, and snow, and reach the ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) top after a steep and fatiguing climb. On the névé the route unites with that from Engelberg (p.133). Guide from the hotel 15 fr . (charged in the bill) and gratuity (with descent to Engelberg 20 fr.).

Over the Sätteli to Gadmen, $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide to Gadmen 10 , Steinalp 14, Wasen 21 fr. ), a fine ronte; see pp. 143, 145.

The bridle-path (to Engelberg $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., in the reverse direction $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) ascends gently to the E. over pastures, touches the apper end of the Engstlen-See ( $6075^{\prime}$ '), and then ascends 'hinter der Engi' (to the right, the Wendenstöcke, with the Pfaffen and Joch Glaciers) to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Joch Pass ( $7265^{\prime}$; view limited). The path then descends in windings and leads throngh the flat and marshy valley ( to the left, the turbid Trübsee), and across the brook which descends from the Titlis glaciers, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Hôt.-Pens. Hess (R., L., \& A. $21 / 2-31 / 2$, B. $11 / 2$, D. $31 / 2$, pens. from 7 fr.), on the brink of the Pfaffenuxand ( $5870^{\prime}$ ). View of the Titlis and the Engelberg Valley; finer from the Bitzistock (6225'; easily ascended in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the hotel), where it includes the Schlossberg, Spannörter, and other mountains. Ascent of the Titlis, see p. 133.

The path now descends the steep Pfaffenwand in zigzags, traverses the Gerschni-Alp ( $4125^{\prime}$ ), enters a wood, crosses the Aawasser at the foot of the hill, and reaches - 11/2 hr. Engelberg (p. 135).

39. From Meiringen to Wasen. Susten Pass.

Comp. Maps, pp. 118, 136, 124.

12 hrs : : Im-Hof $11 / 4$, Gadmen 3, Am Stein $23 / 4$, Susten Pass $11 / 4$, Meien $23 / 4$, Wasen 1 hr . Horse 35 (two days, 40), guide 18 fr . (needless).

From Meiringen to $\operatorname{Im}-H$ of $\left(2053^{\prime}\right), 11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., see p. 197. The Susten Road, constructed by Bern and Uri in 1811, and still tolerably well kept on the Bernese side (practicable for driving as far as the Stein Inn), diverges here to the E. from the Grimsel route. It ascends over pleasant meadows to ( 25 min .) Wyler ( 2430 ), crosses ( 10 min .) the Gadmenbach, and, at ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a saw-mill in the Mühle-Thal (2735'), the Genthalbach. (Path to the Engstlen-Alp, see p. 142.) The path then follows the right bank of the Gadmenbach, through the well-wooded Nessen-Thal, to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Nessenthal or Mühlestalden (3117'). To the right opens the narrow Triftthal, with the Trift Glacier in the background.

Triftthal (comp. Map, p. 124; $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the Trift Hut; guide necessary; Andreas von Weissenfluh of Miihlestalden, Joh. Moor and Joh. Luchs of Gadmen). The path ascends on the right bank of the Triflucasser to the Trift-Alp ( $1365{ }^{\prime}$ ) and on the right side of the ice-fall to the ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.

Graggi-Hütte (6280'). We now cross the glacier, here tolerably level, and mount the steep rocks of the Thältistock to the ( 2 hrs .) Trifi Hut of the Swiss Alpine Club ( $8250^{\prime}$ ), affording a good survey of the upper basin of the Trift Glacier. From the Trift Hut over the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Trift-Limmi $\left(10,170^{\prime}\right)$ and the Rhone Glacier to the ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Furka (p. 132), an interesting glacier expedition. From the Trift-Limmi the Thier'alplistock (11,040'), an excellent point of view, is easily ascended in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. - The *Dammastock ( $11,920^{\prime}$; splendid view) is ascended without very serions difficulty from the clab-hnt in $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide from Meiringen, 40 fr .; descent by the Rhone Glacier and Nägeli's Grätli to the Grimsel, 6 hrs.). - The Schneestock ( $11,837^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$.), Rhonestock ( $11,825^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$.), Diechterhorn ( $11,120^{\prime} ; 4 \mathrm{hrs}$ ), and Gwöchtenhorn $\left(10,560^{\prime}: 4 \mathrm{hrs}\right.$.) may also be ascended from the Trift Hut by experts without difficulty. - Passes to the Göschenen-Alp over the Winterberg Range (Maasplank-Joch, Damma Pass, Winter-Joch), 8 hrs., difficult (comp. p. 124). - Over the Tiefen-Sattel $\left(10,820^{\prime}\right)$ and the Tiefen Glacier. (p. 132) to the Furka, 9 hrs ., interesting, and in certain states of the snow not difficult. - Interesting passes also cross the Furtwang-Sattel (8392') to Guttannen (a steep ascent of 3 hrs . from the Windegg-Hütte, 6235', opposite the Graggi-Hütte on the W. side of the glacier; descent by the SteinhausAlp to Guttannen in 3 hrs .), and the Stein-Limmi (8970) to the Stein-Alp. The latter route leads from the Graggi-Hütte by the Trift Glacier and the Drosi-Thal to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) col, between the Giglistock and VorderThierberg, and descends over the Stein-Limmi Glacier and round the slopes of the Thaleggli to the ( 2 hrs .) Stein Inn (see below). By combining the two last-named passes, a good walker may reach the Stein Inn from Guttannen in a single day (11-12 hrs.).

The road crosses the Gadmenbach and ascends by Schaftelen to ( 1 hr. ) Unterfüren $\left(3848^{\prime}\right.$ ), where the beautiful Gadmen-Thal begins, and ( 20 min.) the village of Gadmen (3960'; Bär, moderate), consisting of the hamlets of An der Egg, Bühl, and Obermatt. (Path over the Sätteli to the Engstlen-Alp, see p. 144.) The green valley with its fine old maple-trees contrasts strikingly with the barren and precipitous Gadmer Fluh (see p. 143). To the E., on the slope of the Uratstöcke $\left(9545^{\prime}\right)$, lies the Wenden Glacier.

After a level stretch the road ascends through wood in numerous windings to the chalets of Feldmoos (4935'), and then traverses a wild rocky region ('Hölle') to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Stein Inn (6122'), at the foot of the huge Steinen Glacier.

Over the Susten-Limmi to the Göschenen-Alp, 8 hrs ., laborious (guide from Meiringen 35 fr .). We ascend the slopes of the Thaleggli, cross the Stein-Limmi Glacier to the Thierbergli, and traverse the névé of the Steinen Glacier to the ( 5 hrs .) Susten-Limmi ( 10,180 '), lying between the Steinberg $\left(11,245^{\prime}\right)$ and the Gletscherhorn (11,445'). Descent over the Susten Glacier to the Kehlen-Alp (7560') and across the Kehle Glacier to the Hintere Röthe and ( 3 hrs .) Göschenen-Alp (p. 124). - A more difficult pass is the Thier-berg-Limmi (about 10,500'): we cross the Steinen Glacier to the col between the Steinberg and the Hinter-Thierberg, and descend (very steep and difficult) the Kehle Glacier to the ( $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Göschenen-Alp. - Ascent of the "Sustenhorn or Brunnenstock $(11,520$ '), the highest of the Sustenhörner", viâ the Sleinen Glacier, toilsome but interesting ( $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Stein Inn; guide $3 \overline{5} \mathrm{fr}$.). The descent may be made to the Voralp Hut, or viâ the Susten-Limmi to the Göschenen-Alp (p. 124).

Over the Stein-Limmi to the Trift Glacier ( 5 hrs . to the Windegg Hut), see above. Another ronte crosses the snow-saddle of $Z$ wischen-Thierbergen (about 9780'), between the Vorder- and the Hinter-Thierberg, to the ( $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Trift Hut (see above). - To Engelberg over the Wenden-Joch, see p. 138.

The bridle-path now leads above the moraine, and ascends in windings (short-cut), overlooking the grand Steinen Glacier, environed by the Sustenhörner, Susten-Limmi, Steinberg, Hinterand Vorder-Thierberg, and Giglistock, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Susten Pass ( 7420 '), between the Heuberg ( $8510^{\prime}$ ) on the left (ascent 1 hr ., interesting), and the Suslenspitz ( $9615^{\circ}$ ) on the right. Admirable survey, to the E., of the imposing mountains bounding the MeienThal on the N. and culminating in the Spannörter (p. 137).

The path, now uninteresting, winds down to the Meienbach, a brook issuing from the Kalchthal, a wild gorge on the right, into which avalanches often fall from the Stücklistock $\left(10,855^{\prime}\right)$ and the Mittlere Sustenhorn (10,890'; over the Susten-Joch to the VoralpHütte, see p. 125). Below us lie the Susten-Alp (5767'), on the right, and the ( 1 hr .) Guferplatten-Alp $\left(5725^{\prime}\right)$, on the left. The path traverses the stony valley of the Meien-Reuss, and crosses the brook twice. It next crosses the deep ravine of the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Gorezmettlenbach (5137'), and passes the Gorezmettlen-Alp. Several brooks issue from the Rüttifirn on the right.

The first group of houses ( 20 min .) is Färnigen ( $4787^{\prime}$; poor inn); then ( 40 min .) Meien ( $4330^{\prime}$; Kreuz, Stern, both unpretending) and ( 20 min .) the hamlet of Husen ( $3865^{\prime}$ ). Above Wasen we pass the Meienschanz ( $3600^{\prime}$ ), an intrenchment erected in 1712 during the Religious War (p. 67), and destroyed by the French in 1799. Descending rapidly for a short way, and crossing the St. Gotthard Railway, we at length reach ( 40 min .) Wasen (p. 120).

$591 / 2$ M. Railway in $21 / 4-4$ hrs. ( $10,7,5 \mathrm{fr}$.).
Lucerne, see p.87. - Near the Reuss bridge the train diverges to the left from the Zürich line (p. 87), and passes through a tunnel under the Zimmeregg, 1248 yds. long, into the broad valley of the Kleine Emme. $31 / 2$ M. Littau, at the base of the wooded Sonnenberg (p. 92). - $71 / 2$ M. Malters ( $1693^{\prime}$; Kreuz), with a handsome church.

About 2 M. above it is the rustic Curhaus Eigenthal (3475), in a sheltered sitation. (Fine view of Lucerne and its lake from the Wiirzenegg.) Hence to ( 6 M .) Kriens, viâ Herrgottsoold, see p. 92.

From Schachen (see below) the old Bramegg Road leads to the (2 M.) prettily-situated Farnbuihlbad ( $2460^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Curhaus, pens. 5-6 fr.), with chalybeate springs, and thence over the Bramegg ( $3366^{\prime}$ ) to ( 6 M.) Entlebuch.

Above Schachen ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Malters) the valley contracts. The train approaches the Kleine Emme, and crosses it near Werthenstein (on the left), with its monastery, now a deaf-and-dumb asylum. Beyond a short tunnel we reach ( $121 / 2$ M.) Wolhusen (1873'; pop. 1661 ; Rössli; Kreuz), a large village, divided by the Kleine Emme into Wolhusen-Wiggern on the left bank, and Wolhusen-Markt opposite. - About 6 M. to the W., at the foot of the $\operatorname{Napf}(p .148)$, lies the Curhaus Menzberg (3314'), a health-resort.

From Wolhosen to Langenthal, $251 / 2$ II, narrow-gauge railway in 2 hrs . The line, which generally follows the highroad, passes the small DürntenSee, and leads viầ Menznau to (7 M.) Willisau (1830'; pop. 1647; Rössti, Stern), a pleasant little town at the confluence of the Buchwiggern and Enzwoiggern, with handsome church and old castle. The line now turns to the W. and runs by Gettnau, Zell on the Lutherbach, and Hüswil to ( 16 M .) Huttwil (2105'; pop. 3376; Mohr, Krone), a thriving place with mineral baths. Beyond ( $181 / 2$ M.) Rohrbach the line descends the Langeten Valley, with its rich meadows; stations: Kleindietwyl, Lindenholz, Mädiswil, ( $321 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Brd Gutenburg, with mineral baths (Curhaus, pens. 4-5 fr.), Lotzwil, and ( $251 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Langenthal (p. 17).

We here enter the Entlebuch, a valley 15 M . long, with wooded slopes and rich pastures. The train recrosses the Emme and ascends the E. side of the valley (several embankments and tunnels).

18 M. Entlebuch (2225'; pop. 2720; *Hôtel du Port; Drei Könige; *Pension Jenni), a well-built village, picturesquely situated. - Ascent of the Napf, see p. 148.

Engstlenmatt Inn, descends to the Entlen-Brücke, and again ascends in windings to the ( 5 M .) Schimberg-Bad ( $4680^{\prime}$; ${ }^{} \mathrm{Cuv}{ }^{}-$ haus, R. $11 / 2-3$, board 6 fr .), with an alkaline sulphur-spring. Fine mountainview to the N. and N.W. A good path ascends in 1 hr . to the top of the Schimberg (5975'), which affords an admirable panorama. Still grander and more extensive are the views from the ( $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) ${ }^{*}$ Feuerstein ( 6700 ) and from the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Schafmatt ( $6505^{\prime}$ ). Footpaths lead also to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Heiligkreuz (see below), to the ( $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) Schwendi-Kaltbad (p. 140), etc.

The train crosses the rapid Entlenbach, which here falls into the Kleine Emme. On the left lies the village of Hasle, prettily situated.

221/2 M. Schūpfheim (2388'; pop. 2808; Adler; Kreuz; Rössli), capital of the valley. About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the station are the $B a d$ and Curhaus Schüpfheim (chalybeate spring, with iodine). To the E. ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) is Heiligkreuz ( $3700^{\prime}$; rustic inn), a summer-resort, with fine view.

A road (diligence twice daily in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; carr. for one pers. 5 , two pers. 7 fr.) gradually ascends to the $S$. through the picturesque valley of the Waldemme or Kleine Emme, to the ( 5 M .) pretty mountain-village of Flühli ( 2930 '; ${ }^{*}$ Curhaus, R.1-11/2, B.1, D.2, pens. $4-5$ fr.), with a sulphar-spring. Fine woods; rich flora. Pleasant excursions to ( 1 hr .) the Kessiloch, a rocky gorge with a high waterfall; to ( 3 hrs .) the Bäuchlen ( $5810^{\prime}$ ); to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Hagleren ( $6400^{\prime}$ ); and to the ( 4 hrs .) *Schrattenftühe ( $6810^{\prime}$ ), with interesting slopes of debris and a splendid view, particularly from the Scheibengütsch ( $6600^{\prime}$ ), the W. point of the long ridge.

From Flühli a road '(diligence daily in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) leads to ( $51 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Sörenberg ( $3812^{\prime}$; Hotel, pens. $4-41 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), a health-resort in the upper Emmen-Thal or Marien-Thal. The road goes on for about $5 \frac{1}{2}$ M. more to the foot of the *Brienzer Rothhorn (p.192), which may be ascended hence in 3 hrs . (guide, desirable, 6 fr .).

From Flühli to Sarnen viâ the Seewenegg, $61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., an attractive route. The path diverges to the left. $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the S . of Flühli, passes the hamlet of Kragen and the Alps of Bleiki, Eggli, Stäldeli, and Blattli, leads through wood and past a saw-mill, and reaches ( 3 hrs .) the *Seewen-Alp (5640 ), a health-resort on the Seeweenalp-See, with a small Curhans (pens. $4-41 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). Splendid view of the Bernese Alps. The ${ }^{\ddagger}$ Feuerstein $\left(6700^{\prime}\right)$, which affords an imposing survey of the Alps, from the Sentis to Mt. Blanc, is easily ascended bence in 1 hr . - From the Seewen-Alp the foutpath ascends the ( 20 min .) Seewenegg, another fine point of view (still better frum a height 250 yds . to the left). It then descends to the right into the valley, passing a saw-mill and leaving the Schwendi-Kaltbad (p. 140) to the left, to Stalden and (3 hrs.) Sarnen (p. 140).

We now cross the Kleine Emme, ascend the valley of the Weisse Emme to - 27 M. Escholzmatt (2815'; *Löwe; Krone), a scattered village ( 3086 inhab.) with a new Gothic church, on the watershed between the Entlebuch and Emmen-Thal, and then descend to ( 29 M .) Wiggen ( $2600^{\prime}$; Rössli).

From Wiggen a road ascends to the S. through the Ilfis-Thal (diligence to Schangnau twice daily in 1 hr .50 min .) viâ Marbuch (2887' ; Krone) and Wald to ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Schangnau ( $30 \overline{5} 5$ '; * Löve) in the Grosse Emmen-Thal, whence the *Hohgant ( $7215^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended in $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. by the Lautere Wängli (guide desirable; rustic quarters in the Mast-Alp or the Grossen-steinen-Alp, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from Schangnau). Descent to Habkern, see p. 172. About $41 / 2$ M. above Schangnau in the upper Emmen-Thal (road viâ Bumbach) is the Kemmeriboden-Bad ( $3100^{\prime}$; Curhaus, modest, pens. 5 fr.), with sulphur-springs, much visited by the natives. It lies at the base of the Scheibengütsch ( 6690 '), which may be ascended hence in 3 hrs . (see p. 147). From Kemmeriboden-Bad to the top of the Hohgant (see above), $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. with guide; to the Tannhorn (7290'), with imposing view, $4-41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. with guide (the descent may be made to Brienz, p. 192).

We now follow the right bank of the Ilfis, and reach ( $321 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Trubschachen (2396'), at the confluence of the Trubbach and Ilfis, the first village in Canton Bern.

The ${ }^{*}$ Napf ( 4620 ; $31 / 2^{-4}$ hrs., guide needless; *Inn at the top, healthresort, overcrowded on Sat. \& Sun., pens. 5-6 fr.), to the N. of Trubschachen, deserves a visit. A road leads viâ ( $2 \frac{1}{4} \mathrm{M}$.) Trub ( $2675^{\prime}$; inn) to ( 6 M .) Mettlen (3454'; carr. for 1 pers. to this point, 6 fr.), and a bridle-path thence to the $(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) top of the Napf, whence there is a fine panorama from the Sentis to the Dôle, and a beautiful view of the Bernese Alps. - From Entlebuch (p. 147) a road crosses the Entlenbach and the Kleine Emme, to the W.; we then either follow the road by Dopleschwand to ( 5 M .) Romoos ( 2592 '; inn), or reach the same point by a direct path in 1 hr. ; from Romoos a good bridle-path leads to the top in $2 \frac{1}{2}$ hrs. more. - From the Napf a footpath, with almost continuous view, leads viâ the ( 2 hrs .) Luss-Hütte (rustic inn), the Lüderen-Gässli (Hôtel zu den Alpen, moderate), and the Rafrilti (see below) to ( 4 hrs .) Langnau (guide, desirable, 5-6 fr.).
$361 / 2$ M. Langnau (2245'; pop. 7644; *Hirsch, R., L., \& A. 2, B. 1, D. 2, pens. 5 fr.; *Löwe ; Bär; Hôt. Bahnhof; Hôt. Emmenthal), a large and wealthy village, is the capital of the Emmen-Thal, a valley about 25 M . long, $10-12 \mathrm{M}$. wide, watered by the Ilfis and the Grosse Emme, and one of the most fertile in Switzerland. Carefully kept pastures, a fine breed of cattle, and neat dwellings with pretty gardens indicate the prosperity of the natives.

Railway to Burgdorf, see p. 18. - The Bageschwand Höhe, 1 hr . to the N.W., commands a fine view of the Emmen-Thal and the Alps; the view from the Rafrüti ( $3950^{\prime}$ ), $2^{1 / 4} \mathrm{hrs}$. to the N., is still more extensive (panorama by G. Studer).

Beyond Langnau the train crosses the Ilfis and the Emme. 38 M . Emmenmatt, 401/2 M. Signau (2090'; Bär; Thurm), 441/2 M. Zäziwyl (Krone), thriving villages. It then skirts the Hürnberg in a wide curve to ( 47 M .) Konolfingen-Stalden (*Hôtel-Restaurant Bahnhof), where it intersects the electric line from Burgdorf to Thun (p. 18).

- $491 / 2$ M. Tägertschi. - 52 M . Worb (*Bär; Löwe; Stern), a large village with a Schloss dating from the 11th cent. (electric tramway viâ Gümlingen and Muri to Bern, see p. 153). Fine view of the Bernese Alps and the Stockhorn chain to the left.
 mineral springs, situated in a pleasant valley, and to the ( 1 M . farther) ${ }^{*}$ Rüttihubelbad ( $2414^{\prime}$; pens. $3^{1 / 2}-4^{1 / 2}$ fr., unpretending), situated among woods, with a saline chalybeate spring, pleasant walks, and a fine view, especially from the Knörihubel ( $302 \mathrm{~T}^{\prime} ; 35 \mathrm{~min}$.). Magnificent views from the Gummegg ( 3208 '), reached by Walkringen in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., and from the Ballenbühl, the W. summit of the Hürnberg, reached by Schlossoyl in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (descent to the station of Tägertschi in 20 min .).

4 M. Emmen ( $1410^{\prime}$; Stern), near the Reuss, on the right bank of which, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the E., is the old nunnery of Rathhausen, now an asylum for poor children. We traverse the fertile Emmenboden to ( 6 M .) Waldibrücke. The line quits the road, here unsuitable for a tramway, and ascends, affording a fine view of the Rigi to the right, to ( 8 M. ) Eschenbach ( $1560^{\prime}$; Rössli; Löwe), with its large Cistercian Abbey and valuable gravel-pits. (Diligence twice daily in 40 min . to Gisikon, p. 87.)

At ( $91 / 2$ M.) Ballwyl (1693') we cross the watershed between the Reuss and the $A a$, and descend into the Seethal, one of the most fertile and attractive valleys in Central Switzerland. This 'lake-valley', $18 \frac{1}{2}$ M. long, is bounded on the E. by the long Lindenberg ( $2953^{\prime}$ ) and on the W. by the Ehrlose ( $2670^{\prime}$ ) and the Homberg ( $2595^{\prime}$ ). In the middle of it lie the pretty Baldegg or Obere See and the larger Hallwyl or Untere See.

11 M. Hochdorf (1653' ; Hirsch, Kreuz, both plain), a picturesque and prosperous village, with beautiful pine-woods near it.

Excursions. On a hill to the $\mathbf{E}$. Rain, near Oberbuchen (2133'), where we get a picturesque survey of Pilatus and the Entlebuch Mts.
$121 / 2$ M. Baldegg (Löwe), a pretty village with an old castle, now a nunnery and girls' school, lies at the S.E. end of the Baldegger See ( 1530 ), a lake 3 M. long. Skirting the E. bank of the lake, we next reach ( 15 M .) Gelfingen (Stern), where the vine begins. Charming view of the lake and the Bernese Alps. On the right is the castle of Heidegg, and $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the N. is the pretty village of Hitzkirch (Kranz; Engel), once a Teutonic commandery, with a seminary for teachers.

To the N. of Hitzkirch a road (diligence from Gelfingen to Fabrwangen twice daily in 1 hr .10 min .) leads by Altuis and Aesch to ( 5 M .) Fahrwangen (Bär) and Meisterschoanden (Löwe; *Pens. Bern (1765'), the capital of Canton Bern, with 57,162 inhab. (including its extensive suburbs), has been the seat of the Swiss government since 1848. It is also the seat of a university (500-600 students), founded in 1834, and of the Central Office of the International Postal Union. - The city, in a striking situation, is built on a peninsula of sandstone-rock, formed by the Aare, which flows $100^{\prime}$ below. The streets in the old part of the town are flanked with arcades (Lauben), which form a covered way for foot-passengers. One of the chief characteristics of Bern consists in its numerous fountains, mostly dating from the 16 th cent., and recently restored. In other respects also Bern retains more mediæval features than any other large town in Switzerland.

Founded by Duke Berthold V. of Zähringen in 1191, the town became independent of the Empire in 1218. By 1288 its powers had so increased that it warded off two sieges by Rudolph of Hapsburg, and in 1339 the Bernese overthrew the Burgundian nobles at the battle of Laupen (p.225). In 1353 Bern joined the Confederation, and in 1528 the citizens embraced the reformed faith. In 1415 they conquered part of Aargau, and in 1536 they wrested the Pays de Vaud from the princes of Savoy; but in 1798 they were deprived of these territories.

Bern is celebrated for its splendid *Views of the Alps, and the phenomenon of the 'Alpine glow' (p. xvi) is seen here to great advantage. The most important mountains are marked in the annexed Panorama. From other points (the Klosterhof, Bundes-Terrasse, Kleine Schanze, Café Schänzli, and the Enge outside the Aarberger Thor) the following mountains are also visible: to the right of the Doldenhorn, the Balmhorn $\left(12,180^{\prime}\right)$ with the Altels ( $11,930^{\prime} ; 37 \mathrm{M}$. distant), and over the Gurten, the bellshaped summit of the Stockhorn ( $7195^{\circ}$; 18 M .); also, to the extreme left, the peaks of the Spannörter ( $10,515^{\prime} ; 53 \mathrm{M}$.) and the Schlossberg ( $10,280^{\prime}$; 54 M.), both in the canton of Uri ; the crest of the Bäuchlen near Escholzmatt ( $5810^{\prime} ; 24 \mathrm{M}$. ), and the Feuerstein above the Entlebuch ( $6700^{\prime} ; 30 \mathrm{M}$.).

The chief artery of traffic is a series of broad streets, the Spitalgasse, Marktgasse, the Kramgasse, and Gerechtigkeitsgasse, which extend from the Obere Thor (PI. C, 4) to the Nydeck Bridge ( p .155 ), a distance of nearly a mile. In the Spitalgasse is the pretty Bagpiper Fountain, dating from early in the 16th century. At the beginning of the Marktgassb, where the Bären-Platz and the Waisenhaus-Platz mark the W. limit of the town down to 1346, stands the Käfigthurm (Pl. D, 3), restored in the 17th century. The Marktgasse contains the fine Schützenbrunnen (Archer Fountain; 1527) and the Seilerbrunnen, the latter with a statue of the foundress of the Insel Hospital (p. 158) on an ancient marble column. Farther on, beyond the interesting old guild-houses (Webern, Schmieden, Zimmerleuten), is the Zeitglockenthurm (PI. E, 3), the W. gate of the townin its earliest phase, but now its central point, rebuilt in the $15-17$ th cent., and recently decorated with frescoes. On the E. side is a curious clock, which proclaims the approach of each hour by the crowing of a cock, while just before the hour a troop of bears marches in procession round a sitting figure. Being the heraldic emblem of Bern, the bear frequently recurs. Thus, on the neighbouring Zähringer-Brunnen (Pl. E, 3, 4), in the Kramgassb, Bruin appears with shield, sword, banner, and helmet. The Samson Fountain and the Gerechtigkeitsbrunnen, the latter in the Gbrechtigmbitsgasse, also deserve notice.

The Kornhaus-Platz (Pl. E, 3) is embellished with the grotesque Kindlifresser-Brunnen (Ogre Fountain), with a procession of armed bears on the shaft of the column. The Kornhaus (Pl. E, 3), built in 1711-16, rebuilt and fitted up as an Industrial School in 1896, contains a large open hall on the groundfloor, with 34 columns, in which the weekly corn-market takes place. In the basement is the frequented Kornhaus-Keller (p. 1053), lately restored and decorated in the early-Bernese style (the largest cask contains about 8800 gal .). On the upper floor is the cantonal Industrial Museum (collection of samples and models, open gratis, 10-12 and 2-5, Sun. 10-12, and on Frid. evening, 7-9). - The imposing *Korn-haus-Brücke, built in 1895-98 from the plans of A. \& H. von Bonstetten and consisting of an iron roadway $1165^{\prime}$ long and $41^{\prime}$ broad, supported by stone piers, and $15^{\prime 7}{ }^{\prime}$ above the water (main arch $400^{\prime}$ in span), leads from the Kornhaus-Platz, at an incline of $21 / 2: 100$, over the deep valley of the Aare, to the Schänzli (p. 159) and the new quarter on the Spitalacker (Pl. E-H, 1, 2).

At the E. end of the Metzgergasse are the modern Old Catholic Church (Pl. F, 3), Romanesque-Gothic, designed by Deperthes of Rheims, and the cantonal Rathhaus or Town Hall (Pl. F, 3), erected in 1406-16 in the Burgundian late-Gothic style, and restored in 1862. The Rathhaus, approached by a fine flight of steps, and adorned with the arms of the Bernese districts, contains the Great Council and the Government Council rooms. - Adjacent is the State Chancellery, a late-Gothic building of 1520-41.

On the E. side of Bern, where the old castle of Nydeck stood, the Aare is crossed by the handsome Nydeck Bridge (Pl. H, 3), in three arches, built in 1844 by K. E. Müller (tramway, see p. 153). The central arch has a span of $165^{\prime}$ and is $100^{\prime}$ high. On the right bank of the Aare is the Bears' Den (Bärengraben), where Bruin is maintained, according to immemorial usage, at the cost of the manicipality. Bread and fruit are the only offerings permitted. - From this point the Muri-Stalden, a handsome avenue of plane-trees, affording a fine view of the town, ascends to the right, whence we may return to the ( 20 min .) centre of the town by the Marien-Strasse and the Kirchenfeld-Brücke (p. 1066).

The *Cathedral or Münster (Pl. F, 4), a fine late-Gothic edifice, $285^{\prime}$ long, $118^{\prime}$ broad, and 77 ' high, was begun in 1421, completed in 1598 , and restored in 1850 . Round the roof runs a beautiful open Balustrade, the design of which is different between each pair of buttresses. The sculptures of the *W. Portal (end of 15 th cent.) represent the Last Judgment; in the outer arches are Christ, above, with the Virgin and John the Baptist on the left and right, and the Apostles; in the inner arches are the Prophets and the Wise and Foolish Virgins. The Tower, $328^{\prime}$ high, was completed in 1890-94 by the German architect Beyer (d. 1899).

Interior (adm. 20 c .; Sun., $2-6$, free). The Stained Glass on the N. side of the Choir (one window representing the dogma of Transubstantiation) dates from 1496; that on the S . side is modern (1867). The Choir Stalls (1522) are adorned on one side with Christ and the Apostles, on the other with Moses and the Prophets. A monument with the armorial bearings of Berthold von Zähringen, the founder of Bern (see p. 154), was erected by the city in 1600 . Another in memory of the magistrate Friedrich von Steiger, bears the names of the 702 Bernese who fell on 5th March, 1798, at the Grauholz and at Nenenegg, in an engagement with the French. In front of this is an Entombment in marble, by Tscharner (1870). The great organ dates from 1849 and has 60 stops (performance four times weekly in summer at 8.30 p.m.; adm. 1 fr.). - The octagonal gallery of the Tower ( 340 steps; 20 c .) commands a magnificent view.

The Platz in front of the cathedral is adorned with an Equestriun Statue of Rudolph von Erlach, the victor at Laupen (p. 225), in bronze, designed by Volmar of Bern, and erected in 1848, with bears at the corners and inscriptions and trophies on the pedestal.

The *Cathedral Tbrrace (Münster-Terrasse; Pl. F, 4), rising abruptly $110^{\prime}$ above the Aare, formerly the churchyard, is now a shady promenade with seats, adorned with a bronze statue of Berthold von Zähringen (p. 154), by Tscharner, with Bruin as a helmetbearer. The view is justly celebrated. At the S.E. corner an electric lift descends to the quarter of Matte (p. 157), on the Aare.

From the Cathedral Square we follow the Herrengasse to the Municipal Library (Pl. E, 4; adm. on week-days, 2-4), containing numerous works on Swiss history, the Cniversity Library, and the Unicersity (Pl. E, 4). We then turn to the left and cross the Klosterhof (whence our panorama was taken) to the *Kirchenfeld-Brücke (Pl. E, 4 ; splendid riew), a bold iron bridge built in 1882-83, 113' above the Aare, which crosses the Aare Valley in two spans of $285^{\prime}$ each, and connects the old town with the Kirchenfeld quarter.

Here, in the Helvetia- Platz, rises the Bernese Historical Museum (Pl. E, 5), a picturesque building in the mediæval style, designed by Lambert (adm. in summer daily, 8-12 and 1-6, 50 c .; Sun. $10 \frac{1}{1}-12$ and 2-4, Tues. and Sat. 3-4, free; also on Tues. \& Sat., 4-6, 50 c.).

Middle Floor (first entered). The vestibule contains a Roman mosaic pavement from Toffen. - To the left (E.) is the Ethnographical Collection, consisting chiefly of objects from N. America (Greenland, United States, Canada), the islands of the Pacific (collection of Weber, the companion of Capt. Cook on his third voyage), China, Japan, Persia, Central Africa, ${ }^{9}$ Borneo, and Java. - To the right (W.) is the Archaeological Collection, including antiquities from lake-dwellings, implements of the flint, bronze. and iron periods, and Roman remains (fragments of a mosaic floor from Herzogenbuchsee, bronze vase from Grächwyl).

Upper Floor. In the handsome staircase are Armour of the 15-16th cent. and modern Weapons and Banners, all from the Bern Arsenal. - To the right (E.). Room I. Tapestry from Burgundy and the Netherlands, including embroidered Antependia from Lausanne and the Convent of Königsfelden (p.20), of the 13-15th cent.; table from the Bern Town Hall, 1576; Ecclesiastical Vestments of the $14-16$ th cent. (by the windows); Staine.l Glass of the 16 th century. - Room II. Articles in Wrought Iron, including some well-preserved swords of the 13-14th cent. (in a case); Swiss coins, tiles, etc. - Room III (Silver Chamber). About 100 silver Guild, Family, and Church Cups; *Diptych, formerly supposed to be the field-altar of Charles the Bold, execnted at Venice at the end of the 13th cent. for King Andrew of Hungary, presented before 1357 to the Convent of Königsfelden by Queen Agnes, and in Bern since the Reformation; Bernese Coins and Medals. - To the left (W.) of the staircase. Room I. Tapestry from Lausanne and Burgundy (with the Bargundian and other arms); Bernese Magistrate's Chair of the 18th cent. ; views of Bern in the 17-18th centuries.

Groted Floor. Reproductions of Early Swiss Rooms.

The new Suiss National Library is now being erected on the S.W. side of the Kirchenfeld.

On a height to the N.W. of the Kirchenfeld-Brücke rise conspicuously the Bundeshäuser (Pl. D, 4), or Federal Buildings, two handsome ediffees in the Florentine palatial style, which are to be connected by a domed building not yet completed. The BundeshausOst, erected from Auer's designs in 1888-92, a commodates the departments of war, industry, and agriculture; the Bundeshaus-West, built by Stadler and Studer in 1852-57, contains the chambers of the two legislative assemblies (the 'Nationalrath' and the 'Ständerath'). In the large hall of the latter the Postal Union was founded on Oct. 9 th, 1874. Both buildings are shown (free) by the custodian, $9.30-11.30$ and 2-4. In front of the Bundeshaus-West is a fountainfigure of Berna, in bronze, on a pedestal adorned with figures of the Seasons (1863). The Bundes-Terrasse, adjoining the S. façade, commands a splendid view.

Near the Bundeshaus-Ost is the Federal Statistical Office, in the house once owned by A. von Haller (d. 1777), the physician and poet; adjacent, at the corner of the Inselgasse, is the Mint (1790-93). - Between the two federal buildings, to the N., extends the Bären-Platz, in which, to the left, is the Museum (p. 153), adorned with statues of celebrated Bernese.

A Cable Tramcay, 360' long (gradient $3: 10$ ), descends on the W . side of the Bundes-Terrasse to the Marzili quarter (baths, see p. 153). Car every 5 min .; fare 10 c . - Interesting walk thence, under the Kirchenfeld Bridge, and through the busy Matte quarter to the Nydeck Bridge (p. 155).

To the W. of the Bundeshäuser, passing the Bernerhof, a few paces bring us to the *Kleine Schanze(Pl. C, 4), with its promenades, which afford a superb survey of the Bernese Alps (comp. p. 153; panorama by Imfeld on a round stone in the upper promenade): in the foreground, the Aare Valley and the Kirchenfeld-Brücke, with the cathedral-tower to the left and the Historical Museum to the right. In the grounds is a bust of Niggeler (d. 1887), the 'Turnvater' ('father of gymnastics'). - On the N. side of the Kleine Schanze is the new Roman Catholic Church, a Romanesque basilica.

The Christoffelgasse leads hence to the N. to the ChristoffelPlatz, where a Monument to Adrian von Bubenberg, the victor of Morat, from a design by Leu, was erected in 1897.

The Kunst-Museum (Pl. D, 2) in the Waisenhaus-Str., built by Stettler in 1879, is open on week-days, 9-12 and 1-5 (adm. 50 c.; free on Tues. and on Sun., 10.30-12 and 2-4; catalogue 50 c.).

The grounds on the Grosse Schanze, above the station to the W. (Pl. B, C, 3), afford an extensive panorama, but the view of the city is less picturesque than from other points. At the top are the Observatory (1880'), the Offices of the Jura-Simplon Railway, the Women's Ilospital, and a bust of President Stämpfli (d. 1879). About $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther on are the Physiological Institute and the Chemical Laboratory (PI. A, 2).

To the W. of the town, in the continuation of the Lanpen-Strasse (Pi. A, 3, 4), are the large Inselspital, on the pavilion system (1 $580-84$ ), originally founded in 1354 (in the Inselgasse), and the Un ver'sity Clinical Institutes.

Crossing the Railuay Bridge (p. 18), at the N. W. end of the town, we pass the Botanic Garden (Pl. D, 2) and reach ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the *Schänzli (Pl. Thun (18.4'; pop. 5750), a quaint old town, charmingly situated on the rapid green Aare, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. below its efflux from the lake, is a fitting portal to the beautiful Oberland. All the open spaces in the town command splendid views to the S.E. of the snowy peaks of the Blümlisalp and the Doldenhorn (see the Niesen Panorama, lower range, to the left), with the Niesen in the foreground and the Stockhorn chain to the left of it. Than is the headquarters of the Swiss artillery, with barracks and training grounds. The Artistic Pottery of Thun has some reputation. One of the chief potteries is that of Wanzenried at Schwäbis, 1 M. to the N.W. (depot in Thun-Hofstetten).

Above the town rises the bold square tower of the old Castle of Zähringen-Kyburg (1935'; Pl. S), with its corner-turrets, erected in 1182. Within the castle is the Amts-Schloss, or residence of the Bernese bailiffs, erected in 1429. It may be reached from the N. gate ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the station, viâ the bridges), by a covered flight of steps from the market-place (Pl. R P), and on the S.E. by another flight of steps, or by an easy path from the Hôtel Baumgarten. The tower contains a small historical museum ( 50 c .). A walk round the castle reveals beautiful views. Still more picturesque are the views from the Church (Pl. K; 1738), to the S.E. of the castle, and from the pavilion in the corner of the churchyard.

Walks. On the right bank of the Aare, about 110 yds . above the ThunHofstetten landing-place (p. 160), is a finger-post (left) indicating a flight of steps, which ascends, at first between houses, to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) ${ }^{*}$ Pavillon St. Jacques (Jakobshübeli; $2100^{\prime}$ ), commanding the lake, the Alps from the Finsteraarhorn to the Doldenhoru, Thun, and the valley of the Aare. [Guests of the Hôtel Bellevae can reach this point by a prettier route through the hotel-grounds.] A sign-post here shows the way to ( 10 min.) the Pavilion (fine view of Thun); to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Rabenfluh; to the ( 25 min .) Kohleren Waterfalls; and to ( 1 hr .) the Haltenegg (see below). Close to the Pavillon St. Jacques is the Pension-Curhaus Obere Wart (pens. 5 fr.). - Another walk is by the road on the right (N.) bank of the Aare and of the lake across the Bächimatt, with its pretty grounds and Alpine view, to the ( 20 min.) Chartreuse. Here (or by a shorter path 8 min . farther back) we turn to the left, passing the Bächihölzli, cross ( 10 min .) the Hünibach, and follow a path through the picturesque Kohleren Ravine, where the brook forms several small falls. This path ascends to the Grüsisberg wood (see below) and the Goldiwyl road ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; see below).

The Goldivol Road, which diverges to the right from the Steffisbarg road, at the 'Hübeli', a few hundred yards to the N. of the town (shorter path to the right at the Hôt.-Pens. Baumgarten, with numerous guideposts), leads along the slope of the Gruisisberg, the fine woods of which are intersected by numerous walks. Fine view of the town, the valley of the Aare, and the Stockhorn chain from the Rappenfluh or Rabenfluh ( $2910^{\prime}$; 1 hr. ). Hence we may return to the town, in a carve towards the $\mathrm{N}^{\prime}$., viâ the Brändlisherg (2397'; 20 min. ), another view-point, and the Pavillon St. Jacques ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), or we may go to the S. direct to the Pavillon ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). After about $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. the Goldiwyl road joins a road connecting it with the Bächimatt road on the right bank of the Aare, and divides. The left branch leads to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Goldivyl ( $3155^{\prime}$; Pens. Blümlisalp, from $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), the right to ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Heiligenschwendi $(3324), 3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the S . of which is the *Haltenegg (3283), affording a magnificent view of the lake and the Alps.

Schloss Schadau, $1 / 4$ M. to the S. of Scherzligen, see p. 164 (park open on Sun.). - Schloss Hünegg, $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S. of Than-Hofstetten, see p. 161 (visitors admitted to the grounds and hothouses on application to the gardener).

Longer Excursions. To the N. of Thun ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{Mr}$; carr. with one horse 3 fr .) is the considerable village of Steffisburg ( 1930' $^{\prime}$; Landhaus Inn), on the $Z u l g$ (rail. station, see p. 18), whence we may ascend in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the small and well-sheltered "Schnittuceyer-Bad ( 2625 ', pens. 5 fr.), with its mineral spring and pretty walks. - Thierachern (1867'; Löwe), with fine view, 3 M . to the W.; 3 M . farther to the W., Bad Blumenstein and the Fallbach; thence footpath, passing the Pavillon Bellevue, to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the Gurnigel-Bad (p. 159). - Baths of Schwefelberg ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the W. of Blumenstein, beyond the Gantrisch Pass), see p. 213. - Burgistein (2690'), a village and castle with fine view, 8 M . to the N.W. of Thun. - Amsoldingen (Roman tombstones), $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S.W., and the ancient tower of Strätlligen ( p .163 ), $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S . of Thun, the latter a splendid point of view. The undulating district between the Stocken-Thal and Thun abounds in beautiful walks and mountain-views. - The Stockhorn ( $\mathbf{7 1 9 5 { } ^ { \prime }}$; from Blumenstein or Amsoldingen $4-41 / 2$ hrs.), see p. 213.

Electric railway from Thun to Burgdorf, see p. 18.

44. The Niesen.

Two Bridle Paths: on the N. side from Wimmis (see below; $4^{3} / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.), on the E. from the Heustrich-Bad (p. 163; $4^{1} / 4-41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.). The former has shade in the morning, the latter in the afternoon. Horse to the top and back 15 fr., or, if the start is later than $10 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m} ., 20 \mathrm{fr}$; ; to Heustrich over the Niesen (or from Heustrich over the Niesen to Wimmis), 22 and 28 fr. - Gcide (unnecessary) 10 fr . Chair-porters 12 fr . each (four porters required for one chair).

Spiez (p. 164) is the station both for Wimmis ( $31 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.; railway in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., 28 or 20 c .) and for the Heustrich-Bad ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.; diligence twice daily in $55 \mathrm{~min} ., 1 \mathrm{fr} .10 \mathrm{c}$. ; one-horse carr. 5 , two-horse 10 fr .). The diligence starts from the railway-station; carriages may also be had at the pier. - Railway to Wimmis, see p. 212. - The Kanderthal road (comp. p. 201) crosses the railway near Spiezmoos, at its junction with the Thun road, and leads to the left to ( $11 / 4$ M.) Spiezwyler (Bär). It then divides, the left branch leading to Heustrich-Bad and Frutigen (see below), while the right branch descends in a wide curve (or we may take a direct path through wood to the left) to the Kanderbrücke. Fine view of the Blümlisalp. Then a slight ascent to ( 2 M.) -

Wimmis (2075'; pop. 1242; *Löwe; Hôt. Niesen, unpretending), a pretty village at the E. base of the Burgfluh (3248'), overlooked by a castle, now a school and public offices. The chnrch is mentioned in ancient documents as early as 533.

Ascent of the Niesen from Wimmis. The roate (at first a narrow cart-track) ascends on the S. side of the Burgfluh. After 35 min . it crosses the Staldenbach; 3 min . later, by a gate, is a finger-post indicating the path to the left ('Niesen $33 / 4$ hrs.'), which ascends in zigzags through pastares and wood, passing the chalet on the Bergli. By the ( 2 hrs. ) chalets of Unterstalden (4940') the path crosses to the right bank of the Staldenbach, and winds up the slopes of the Niesen, past the chalets of Oberstalden ( 5933 '). The prospect first reveals itself beyond the ( $1^{1 / 4} \mathrm{hr}$.) Staldenegg (6315'), a sharp ridge connecting the Eettfuh or Fromberghorn (7864') with the Niesen. Thence to the top $1-11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more.

Beyond Spiezwyler (see above) the road to Heustrichbad and Frutigen follows the hill, in view of the Blümlisalp and the Niesen (r.). After $3 / 4$ M. a road diverges to the left to Aeschi (p. 165), while the main road descends to the Kander-Thal. At the Casino Inn at Emdthal, 4. M. from Spiez, our road diverges to the right from that to Frutigen (p. 201) and crosses the Kander. On the left bank, at the foot of the Niesen, lies the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) -
*Heustrich-Bad (2295'; R.1-6, board 41/2-7 fr.; S.B.G.H.), with an alkaline-saline sulphur-spring and a view of the Blümlisalp.

A bridle-path (poor at places) ascends the grassy slopes behind the baths in windings. When it divides, the steeper branch must be selected. We first reach ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) an old lime-tree, with a bench. Then through wood ( 1 hr .) and over pastures, past the chalets of Schlechtenvaldegg and the Hegern-Alp ( $6308^{\prime}$ ), and in numerous windings to the ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit. The Niesen Inn lies to the left. Milk at the two upper chalets.

The *Niesen (7763'; Weissmüller's Inn, 5 min . below the top, R. 4, B. 2 fr .), the conspicuous N. outpost of a mountain - chain extending S. to the Wildstrubel, and like Pilatus regarded as an infallible barometer, rises in the form of a pyramid. The rocks at the base are clay-slate, those of the upper part sandstone-conglomerate. The view vies with that from the Faulhorn (comp. the Panorama, p.161). The beautiful snow-clad Blümlisalp is seen to great advantage. Best light towards sunset or before 10 a.m.

Beyond Strättligen, with its old tower (p. 162), we cross the gorge of the Kander (p. 201) by a handsome bridge, $98^{\prime}$ high.

6 M . Spiez ( $2070^{\prime}$ ). The station is high above the village ( p .164 ); splendid view of the Lake of Thun and the mountains on its N. bank (Ralligstöcke, Sigriswyler Rothhorn, etc.) ; in the foreground, Spiez with its chåteau, and to the S.E. and S., the Bernese Alps. Simmenthal Railway, see p. 212.

Beyond Spiez the line descends past Faulensee (p.165) ; it then skirts the precipitous S. bank, passing through three tunnels near Krattigen. 12 M. Leissigen (Steinbock, Weisses Kreuz), pleasantly situated at the foot of the Morgenberghorn (p. 171; road to Aeschi, see p.165). Beatenberg (p.166) is visible high above the N. bank. - $141 / 2$ M. The train skirts the Aare Channel and reaches the station of ( $171 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Interlaken ( p .167 ).

b. Steamboat Journey.

Steamboat (restaurant on board, D. $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), 6-7 times daily in 2 hrs . from Thun-Stadt (p. 160) to Interlaken (fare 2 fr .75 c .). Railway passengers wishing to go on by steamboat change at Scherzligen (p. 163). - Stations: Hofstetten, Scherzligen, Oberhofen, Gunten, Spiez, Merligen, Beatenbucht, Leissigen, Därligen (the last two not always touched at).

The steamer starts from the Freienhof Hotel (p. 160), ascends the Aare, stops at Hofstetten on the right bank (p.160), and then at rail. stat. Scherzligen (p. 163). To the left, among trees, is the Chartreuse (p. 161); to the right, on a peninsula at the efflux of the Aare, Schloss Schadau, a turreted building in the English Gothic style, with a large park (p. 161).

The Lake of Thun (1840'), which the steamer now enters, is $11 \mathrm{M} . \operatorname{long}$ and nearly 2 M . wide ; its greatest depth is $702^{\prime}$. The *View from the steamer is magnificent. The Stockhorn ( $7195^{\prime}$ ), with its conical summit, and the pyramidal Niesen (7763') rise on the right and left of the entrance to the valleys of the Kander and Simme (p. 212). To the left of the Niesen are the glittering suow-fields of the Blümlisalp; on the right, at the head of the Kan-der-Thal, the Fründenhorn, Doldenhorn, Balmhorn, Altels, and Rinderhorn gradually become visible (from left to right). In the direction of Interlaken appear successively (from right to left) the Mittaghorn, Jungfrau, Mönch, Eiger in the foreground, and farther off the Schreckhorn and Wetterhorn.

The steamer skirts the N.E. bank, with its villas and gardens, and woods above them, and passes the pretty village of Hilterfingen. To the left is the château of Hünegg, in the French Renaissance style. The boat touches at Oberhofen (*Pens. Moy; *Pens. Oberhofen; Restaurant Zimmermann), which has a picturesque château of Count Harrach, and at Gunten (*Hôt.-Pens. Hirsch, with garden, *Pens. du Lac, 5 fr., recommended for a stay, both on the lake; *Pens. Alpenrose, 41/2-5 fr.; Weisses Kreuz; Pens. Schōnberg, on the hill). In the vicinity ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the lake) the water of the Guntenbach has formed a curious gorge with waterfalls.

A road (one-horse carriage from Gunten 6, from Than 10, two-horse 18 fr .) ascends from Gunten to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Sigriswyl ( $2620^{\prime}$; Pens. Bär, R. $11 / 2-2$, B. $1^{1}, 2$, pens. $4^{1 / 2}-5^{1 / 2} \mathrm{fr}$.), a prettily situated village. The Blume ( $4577^{\prime}$; fine view) is ascended hence in 2 hrs . viâ Schwanden; the Sigriswyl-Grat (VorderBergli, 5508'; Hinter-Bergli, 6056') by the Alpiglen-Alp in $21 / 2-3$ hrs.; the "Sigrisuyler Rothhorn (6735'), the highest point of the Sigriswyl-Grat, in 4 hrs . (with guide). - On the steep slope of the Sigriswyl-Grat towards the Justis-Thal (p. 165) is the Schafloch ( $5840^{\prime}$ ), a large ice-cavern, reached from the Obere Bergli by a giddy path in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (guide, ice-axe, and torches necessary).

The steamer now crosses the lake, at its broadest part, to - Spiez. - Hotels. Spiezer Hof, by the pier, with garden and lakebaths, R. $21 / 2-6$, L. 1, A. $3 / 4$, B. $11 / 2$, lunch 3, D. 4 , pens. from 7, omn. 1 fr.; ${ }^{}$ Hôt.-Pens. The village of Spiez, the starting-point for an ascent of the Niesen (p. 162) and for excursions to the Kander and Simme valleys (pp. 201, 212), is attractively situated. The picturesque old chatteau, formerly that of the Erlach family, has been restored and is surrounded with grounds. The road ascends among the houses and orchards of the village and divides into three branches at ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Pension Itten. That in a straight direction leads to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Railway Station (p. 163; 230' above the lake; $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the pier), that to the left to Faulensee (see below), and that to the right to Wimmis and the Kander-Thal (pp. 162, 201).

From Spiez to Aeschi, 21/4 M. (carr., see above). The road diverges to the left from the Kander-Thal road, about $3 / 4$ M. to the S. of Spiezwyler (p. 162). Walkers may follow the Faulensee road from the rail. station and then ( 20 min .) ascend the path leading first to the right and then to the left (finger-post; ${ }^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hr}$.). The village of Aeschi ( $2818^{\prime} ;{ }^{*}$ Hôt.-Pens. Bär, R., L., \& A. from 2, B. $11 / 2$, lunch $21 / 2$, D. $31 / 2$, pens. 6-10 ir.; *Hôt.Pens. Blümlisalp, pens. 5-7 fr.; "H6t.-Pers. A pleasant road also leads in 2 hrs. from Leissigen (p.163) to Aeschi viâ Kraltigen (Stern). From Aeschi to the Heustrichbad (p. 1(3), footpath in 40 min.; to the Mülinen road, $3,4 \mathrm{hr}$. (The Faulenseebad, see below, is 1 M . to the S.E.) Descent to Emdthal or Mülinen, $11 / 2$ M. - From Aeschi to the SaxetenThal, a pleasant route ( $61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide unnecessary). Road by Ae:chi-Ried in the Suldthal to the ( 6 M .) Untere Suldalp ( $3118^{\prime}$ ); then a bridle-path, past a fine fall of the Suldbach, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) The Morgenberghorn ( 7385 ') may be ascended from the Renggli Pass in 1 hr . (guide desirable for the inexperienced; comp. p. 171). The Schwalmeren (8135'), ascended from the Renggli Pass in 3 hrs ., see p. 172.

From Spiez two black peaks are visible for a short time to the E., above the S. bank of Lake Brienz; that to the right is the Faulhorn, that to the left (the broader) the Schwarzhorn. The next station on the S. bank is Faulensee, above which (3 M. from Spiez, one-horse carr. 5 fr.) is the Faulensee-Bad ( $2625^{\prime}$; *Hôtel Victoria, pens. 7-12 fr.), with a mineral spring, pleasant grounds, and beautiful view.

On the N. bank we observe the abrupt Sigriswyl-Grat, with the bold Ralligstöcke (5452') and the Sigriswyler Rothhorn ( $6735^{\prime}$ ). On the lake is Schloss Ralligen. Beyond stat. Merligen (*Hôt. Beatus, with garden on the lake, pens. 5-6 fr.; Löwe), at the mouth of the Justis-Thal, the steamer touches at the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Beatenbucht (restaurant), the station for St. Beatenlerg (p. 166).

The Nase, a rocky headland, here juts into the lake. High up on the steep bank runs the bold road (p.166), hewn in the rock and passing through two tunnels. On the lake is the château of Lerow, near the Beatenbach, which issues from the Beatushöhle, $3 / 4$ M. above the road, making a noise like thunder in spring and after heavy rain. Farther on the road threads three more tunnels, crosses the ravine of the Sundgraben (p. 167), in which lie the houses of Sundlauenen, and leads past the Küblibad or St. Beatusbad, the Neuhaus, and the Pension Simpkin, to Unterseen.

The steamer, which sometimes calls at Leissigen (p. 163) on the S. bank, next enters the Aare Channel ( $13 / 4$ M. long; to the left, the ruin of Weissenau, p. 163) and stops at the landing-place Inter-laken-Thunersee, near the W. or principal station of Interlaken (p. 167).

From Beatrnbucht to St. Beatenberg, Cable Tramway in 16 min . (ascent $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{fr}$., descent 1 fr ., return-fare 3, on Sun. 2 fr .). The line is 1 M . long and has an average gradient of $1: 3$. The station at the top is 5 min . from the Curhaus.

From Intbrlaken to St. Bbatbnbbrg, by road, 7 M . The directroad diverges to the left from the Habkern road (p.172), about 1 M. from Unterseen, crosses the Lombach, and winds upwards through the wood (one-horse carr. 13, two-horse 24, to the Curhaus 14 or 25 fr .). Walkers, with the aid of short-cuts, take 1 hr . from the Lombach bridge to a roadside inn, and $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. thence to the Hôtel des Alpes; as, however, there is little shade, walking is not recommended in warm weather. - The road from Interlaken to Beatenbucht ( 5 M. ), resembling the Axenstrasse (p. 99), is also attractive for either walking or driving. It leads from Neuhaus along the steep and wooded bank of the lake, finally high above it (two tunnels), and affords splendid views of the lake and the Bernese Alps (carr. from Interlaken to Merligen and back 9, with two horses 16 fr.).

At Pens. Edelweiss is a finger-post indicating the way to the Waldbrand ( 25 min.; green marks), the Vorsass, and the Niederhorn; one at the Hôt.-Pens. Blumlisalp indicates the Parallel Promenade (blue marks); another between the church and the Victoria shows the way to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Beatushöhle (p.166; red marks); a fourth, at the Bellevue, points upwards towards the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Känzli (white and blue marks).

Walkers from Interlaken diverge from the road to the right by a finger-post (where another sign-post indicates the route down to the Beatushöhle, to the left), 2 M . above the roadside inn mentioned on p. 166, and $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. before the Hôtel des Alpes is reached. Superb view, ranging from Pilatus to the Stockhorn chain and the Diablerets; at our feet lies the Justis-Thal (p. 165), beyond it are the Aare valley, Bern, and the Jura Mits. The Lake of Thun is not visible. - The *Niederhorn ( $6445^{\prime}$ ) and Burgfeldstand ( $6780^{\prime}$ ), each $2^{1} / 2^{-3} \mathrm{hrs}$. from Beatenberg, are also fine points (guide 6, horse 12 fr .). The low land between the lakes of Thun and Brienz, which are 2 M. apart, is called the 'Bödeli'. These lakes were probably once united, but gradually separated by the deposits of the Lütschinne, flowing into the Lake of Brienz, and the Lombach, falling into the Lake of Thun. These accumulations, descending from the S., out of the valley of Lauterbrunnen, and from the N. out of the Habkeren valley, account for the curve which the Aare describes. Beautifully situated on this piece of land, 'between the lakes', lies Interlaken (1863'; pop. 5385), consisting of the villages of Aarmühle, Matten, and Unterseen, and extending nearly as far as the Lake of Brienz. It is a favourite summer-resort, noted for its mild and equable temperature, and is a good starting-point for excursions to the Oberland.

The chief resort of visitors is the *HöHeweg, an avenue of old walnuts and planes, extending from the village of Aarmühle to the upper bridge over the Aare, and flanked with large hotels and tempting shops. It commands a beautiful view of the Lauter-brunnen-Thal and the Jungfrau (finest by evening-light). To the right, near the upper or N.E. end of the Höheweg, rises the old Monastery of Interlaken, founded in 1130, and suppressed in 1528 , surrounded by beautiful walnut-trees. The monastery, with the Schloss added in 1750, is now occupied by the hospital and the government-offices. Different parts of its old church are now used for the Anglican, Presbyterian, French Protestant, and Roman Catholic services. The prolongation of the Höheweg leads to rail. stat. Interlaken-Ost (p. 167; near the landing-place of the Brienz steamer) and to Bönigen (2 M.; p. 194). The Brienz road, diverging to the left at the Hôtel Beaurivage (to Ringgenberg 2 M., to Brienz 10 M. ), crosses the Aare (Brückwald, see p. 172).

At the S.W. end of the Höheweg. opposite Hôtel Oberländer Hof, the road to the Kleine Rugen (p. 170) diverges to the S.E., while that in a straight direction leads past the Post Office (P1. P) to the Thunersee Station (p. 167). - The road diverging to the N.W. at the post-office crosses the two islands of Spielmatten (fine view, from the middle bridge, of the Jungfrau, rising to the $S$. between the two Rugen) and leads to Unterseen, with its old timber-built houses and modern church. Large manufactory of parquetry. The road to Merligen and Thun (p. 166) begins here to the left, by the hotels mentioned on p. 163. The road to the Habkern valley and to St. Beatenberg leads to the N.W. (pp. 172, 166).

The *Kleine Rugen, a wooded spur of the Grosse Rugen, offers attractive walks and varying views. The principal path ascends straight from the Hôtel Jungfraublick to the walk encircling the hill. Turning to the left, we reach the 'Humboldtsrube' (view of the Jungfrau and Lake of Brienz) and the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Trinkhalle (café), commanding the Jungfrau, Mönch, and Schwalmeren. Farther on, beyond the 'Scheffel Pavilion' (with a view of Lake Thun), is the KasthoferStein, a memorial of the chief forester Kasthofer, who, at the beginning of the century, planted the hill with specimens of all the Swiss trees. Then past a reservoir and a chamois-enclosure, and back to Hôtel Jungfraublick. Other paths, with benches and points of view, ramify in every direction. One of these ascends to the ( 25 min .) Rugenhöhe ( $2425^{\prime}$ ), where three clearings in the wood disclose views of the Jungfrau and the lakes of Thun and Brienz.

Just beyond the Trinkhalle a path to the left, and then to the right, by a ( 1 min .) bench (where the path straight on leads in 10 min . to Café Unspunnen), descends to the Wagnĕren-Schlucht, between the Kleine and the Grosse Rugen. Near the Studer memorial (p. 171) our path joins a road which leads through the ravine, past the Hôtel and Café Unspunnen and the Bavaria Beer Garden, and below the ruin of Unspunnen, to Wilderswyl (p.174), affording views of the Lauterbrunnen valley and the Jungfrau, and of Lake Brienz to the left.

In the middle of the Wagneren-SchIucht, about 300 paces from the parting of the roads at its W. end, is a rock inscribed with the name of Bernh. Studer (d. 1887), the geologist. Here a path diverges to the right (W.), and ascends rapidly, passing a fine point of view on the right, to the ( 20 min .) *Heimwehfluh (2218'). The terrace in front of the restaurant commands a charming view (best in the afternoon) of the Bödeli and the lakes. The Jungfrau, Mönch, and Eiger are seen from the adjacent belvedere.

A more extensive and picturesque view is commanded by the *Abendberg, above the Grosse Rugen ( $11 / 2-2$ hrs.; horse 8, mule 6 fr.). This is recommended for an afternoon-walk. We follow the Heimwehfluh path in the Wagneren-Schlucht (p. 170), and after $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. turn to the left, and farther on (notice-board) to the left again, through wood all the way. On the top is the *Hôtel Bellevue ( $3735^{\prime}$; pens. $5^{1} / 2^{-7}$ fr.). - A path ascends from the hotel, across grass and past some chalets, to ( 20 min .) the 'Siebenuhr Tanne' ( $4125^{\prime}$ ), whence there is a charming view of Lake Thun, lying far below.

A footpath leads past the different peaks of the Abendberg to the ( 3 hrs. ) Rothenegg ( $6234^{\prime}$; shortest way from the hotel, 2 hrs .). The next peaks of the range are the Fuchsegg (6348'), the Grosse Schiffli (6675'), the Kleine Schifli (6587'), and finally the Morgenberghorn (7380'). The last is very difficult from this side (better from Saxeten, by the Renggli Pass, see below). - A path leads from the Hôtel Bellevue to Saxeten in 1 hr . (take the upper path to the right in the meadow, behind the second chalet).

The Saxĕten-Thal, between the Abendberg and the Bellenhöchst ( $6970^{\prime}$ ), is reached from Wilderswyl (p. 174) by a new road. The ( 5 M.) village of Saxĕten (3600' ; *Hôt. - Pens. Alpenrose, pens. $4-6 \mathrm{fr}$.) is a health-resort, in a sheltered situation. Beyond it ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) are the falls of the Gürbenbach and Weissbach. The valley is picturesquely closed by the Schwalmeren (p. 1'2).

The ${ }^{\text {Sulegg ( }} 7915^{\prime}$ ), an excellent point of view, is ascended from Saxeten in $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide ( 5 fr .). Following the well-made path, we cross ( 2 min .) the Gürbenbach, and beyond the saw-mill ascend rapidly across mountain-pastures to the ( 1 hr .) Schlipfweng-Alp (4986') and the ( 1 hr .) Bellen-Alp ( $6205^{\prime}$ ); after ${ }^{1 / 4} \mathrm{hr}$. more we turn to the right between the Bellenhöchst ( 6870 '; easily ascended in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. ; "View) and the Sulegg, skirt the E. slope of the latter for $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (good new patb), nearly as far as the Suls-Alp, and reach the top in 1 hr . more. The descent may be made to Isenfluh (p. 174), by the Suls-Alp and Sengg-Alp (guide 10 fr .). - The "Morgenberghorn ( $7385^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended from Saxeten in 3 hrs . without difficnlty (guide 5 fr .). The path, diverging to the right from the road $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the W. of Saxeten, ascends past the ( 2 hrs .) chalets of the Innerberg Alp to ( 1 hr. ) the Renggli Pass ( 6168 '), between the Morgenberghorn and the Schwalmeren (p. 172). Thence we asceud (no path) along the S. and S. W. flanks of the mountain and after 40 min . reach the new club path, which leads up the W . side to ( 20 min .) the top. The view, especially of Lakes Thun and Brienz and of the mountains to the N., is very picturesque; but the hi her Alps appear less imposing than from the Sulegg. The descent on the E. side to the Abendberg, over the rocks of the Schiffigrat and the Leissigengrat, is very dangerons (see p. 171). The Schwalmeren ( $8135^{\prime}$ ) is also ascended without trouble ( 5 hrs .; guide 8 fr.). We follow the Sulegg route to ( $23 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the $\operatorname{Suls}-\operatorname{Alp}$ (p. 171), whence we proceed to the W. through the Sulsthal, and skirt the S. side of the Lobhörner' ( $3430^{\prime}$ ) till we reach the snow and debris of the sloping E. flank of the Schwalmeren. A gradual ascent over this brings us to $(21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the arête and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the summit. [From the Sulegg (p. 171) we may follow the arète to the W., pass to the N. of the Lobhörner, and reach the top of the Schwalmeren in 2 hrs .] The magnificent view excells that from the Schilthorn (p.177). Descent to Isenfluh (p. 174), $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.

About 100 paces beyond the Aare bridge on the Brienz road (p. 169) a notice-board indicates a number of walks on the Brückwald, which stretches to the left up the slopes of the Harder. Fine view of the Bödeli, the lakes, and the mountains from the ( 20 min .) Hohbühl ( 2070 '), where a pavilion commemorates the visits of Weber, Mendelssohn, and Wagner to Interlaken. The Jungfrau is better seen from the Lustbühl pavilion, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. farther along the slope, whence we may return by the middle Aare bridge or Unterseen (a walk of $1-11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. in all).

The Obere Bleiki, 1 hr . above the Hohbuhl, affords a more distant but not a finer view. The Pavillon Falkenfluh (see below) is $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. higher. These two points are also reached by a bridle-path, to the left (waypost) from the Brienz road, 350 paces from the Aare bridge.

The castle-hill of Goldswyl ( $2210^{\prime} ; 1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) , beyond Schönegg on the Brienz road (p. 157), overlooks Lake Brienz and the sombre little Fanlensee or Lake of Goldswyl ; the ruined tower is inaccessible. - A walk may be taken by the same road (or by a picturesque path crossing the hills between the road and Lake Brienz) to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ringgenberg (Pens. \& Restaurant Seeburg, with garden, at the pier; Pens. Beauséjour, farther up the slope; Bär, Chalet zur Post, in the village, pens. 4-5 fr.), with a church built among the ruins of the castle (view), and to the Schadenburg ( $2388^{\prime} ; 1^{1 / 2} \mathbf{M}$. farther on), on a spur of the Graggen, an unfinished castle of the ancient barons of Ringgenberg.

A guide-post at the upper Aare bridge in Unterseen (p. 169) indicates the road to Beatenberg (p. 166), which skirts the S.W. slope of the Harder, enters the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Habkern-Thal, watered by the Lombach, and diverges to the left ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from Unterseen) from the road to the $\left(31 / 2 \mathrm{M}\right.$.) village of Hableern $\left(3500^{\prime} ; \mathrm{inn}\right)$. One-horse carr. from Interlaken to Habkern and back 15 fr .

Just before the above-mentioned parting of the roads a bridle-path to the right ascends through wood to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hardermatte ( $3990^{\circ}$; fine view of the Bernese Alps). Then level for a short way; down to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the pavilion on the Falkenfluh; and back by the Obere Bleiki to the Brienz road ( p .169 ) and to Interlaken ( $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. in all).

Three fine points of view may be visited from Habkern. The *Gem. menalphorn ( $6770^{\prime}$ ) is reached by the Brändlisegg and Gemmen-Alp in 4 hrs . (comp. p. 167). The Hohgant (7215') is ascended in 4 hrs. by Bohl ( $5902^{\prime}$ ) and the Aelgäu-Alp (descent to Schangnau in the Emmen-Thal, see p. 148). The Augstmatthorn ( $7020^{\circ}$ ) is ascended by the Bodmi-Alp in $3^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.

A pleasant morning walk may be taken from Gsteig (p. 173; $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the Höheweg), where the cemetery of the district lies, down the right bank of the Lütschine, either to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Bönigen (p. 194), or to the bridge halfway, across the river, and hack to Matten. Another walk from Gsteig ascends the right bank of the Lütschine to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Gsteigoyler.

From Bönigen to the Giessbach viâ Iseltwald, see p. 193.

The *Schynige Platte, one of the finest points of view in the Bernese Oberland, is reached by a Rack- and -Pinion Railway from station Wilderswyl-Gsteig (1925'; p. 174) in $1 \frac{1}{4} \mathrm{hr}$. (fare 8, down 4, return 10 fr . ; one class only), or from Interlaken-Ost (change at Wilderswyl-Gsteig) in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (fares $9,5,11 \mathrm{fr} .60 \mathrm{c}$. ; 3 rd cl. $8 \mathrm{fr} .60,4 \mathrm{fr} .60 \mathrm{c} ., 11 \mathrm{fr}$.). - The line (maximum gradient 1:4) crosses the Lütschine and ascends in curves to the Rothenegg Tunnel, beyond which it enters a wood of beeches and pines, affording pretty glimpses to the left of Interlaken, and the lakes. 3 M . Stat. Breitlauenen (5068'; Hotel, pens. from 5 fr.), with view of the lakes of Brienz and Thun and the hills to the N.W. (or better from the Vogelistein, a jutting rock 150 paces to the N.). The line then ascends in a curve to the mountain-crest and passes through the Grätli Tunnel to the S. side of the hill, where we obtain a view of the Lauterbrunnen Valley, and then of the Lütschine Valley; to the left towers the majestic Jungfrau. Following the S. slope of the crest, overlooking the Grindelwald Valley with the Schreckhörner and Wetterhörner, and threading a short tunnel, we reach the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Schynige Platte (6463'; *Rail. Restaurant, D. 4 fr.), the terminus. A broad path leads from the station along the Platte, a slope of crumbling and 'shining' slate, in a few minutes to the *Hôtel-Restaurant, rebuilt after a fire in 1898 and re-opened in the summer of 1899.

Magnificent *VIEW of the Bernese Alps to the S.: from left to right, the Wellhorn, Wetterhörner, Berglistock, Upper Grindelwald Glacier, Schreckhörner, Lauteraarhörner, Lower Grindelwald Glacier, the Finsteraarhorn peeping over the Eigergrat, the Fiescherhörner, Eiger, Mönch, Jungfrau, Ebnefluh, Mittaghorn, Grosshorn, Breithorn, Tschingelhorn, Tschingelgrat, Gspaltenhorn, Weisse Frau, Doldenhorn, and the peaks of the Niesen and Stockhorn chains. The ridge concealing the base of the Jungfrau group is the Männlichen (p. 181).

An easy winding path ascends from the hotel past the Geisshorn (view like that from the hotel) and the precipitous Gummihorn (6893') to the ( 20 min.) "Daube ( $6772^{\prime}$; rfmts.), whence the survey of the lakes and of the peaks to the N. is particularly fine; N.E. is the Brienzer Rothhorn, with Pilatus to the right in the distance. Towards evening the lakes of Neuchâtel and Bienne glitter in the distance. - The Oberberghorn ( $6790^{\prime}$ ), 25 min . to the E. of the Daube, has also been made accessible by flights of steps and affords a fire view of the Lake of Brienz.

From the Schynige Platte to the Faulhorn, see p. 189. - Descent from the Platte by Gündlischwand to Zweilütschănen, 3 hrs ., steep at places. By the small pond near the Platte we descend to the right across pastures to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) lower chalets of the Iselten-Alp ( 5116 '; guide advisable to this point, 2 fr .); thence through wood.

Pate from Gsteig to the Schynige Platte (4 hrs.; neglected at places). We either cross the bridge by the church of Gsteig, and take the road to the right to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Gsteigwyler; in the middle of the village take the bridle-path to the left, and soon to the left again; after 17 min . ascend to the right, through wood; or, shorter, we ascend from Gsteig to the left, by a path between the church and the Steinbock, turning to the right where the path divides, and in 20 min . reach the bridle-path where it enters the wood. Then by numerous zigzags, crossing the railway twice, to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Schönegg $\left(4754^{\prime}\right.$ ) and the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Breillauenen Hotel (see above). Thence to the top, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.

47. The Lauterbrunnen Valley and Mürren.

From Interlaken to Lauterbrunnen, 8 H ., Bernese Oberland Railway in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (fares $3 \mathrm{fr} .25,1 \mathrm{fr} .95 \mathrm{c} .$, return $5 \mathrm{fr} .20,3 \mathrm{fr} .15 \mathrm{c}$.); circular tour from Interlaken to Lauterbrunnen, the Kleine Scheidegg, Grindelwald, and back to Interlaken, $22 \mathrm{fr} .6 \overline{5}, 13 \mathrm{fr} .9 \overline{\mathrm{c}} \mathrm{c}$. (tickets valid for 6 days). The railway (maximum gradient $35: 1000$ ) has short sections on the rack-and-pinion system (maximum gradient 120:1000). The traveller should see that he enters one of the carriages marked 'Lauterbrunuen'. - Carriage from Interlaken to Lauterbrunnen and back, including 2 hrs.' stay, with one horse 9 , two horses 15 fr.; to Trümmelbach 12 or 22 , to Stechelberg 14 or 27 fr . - The following "Exconsion (one day) is recommended: by railway to Mürven (p. 177), walk to the Upper Steinberg (p. 176; 23/4-3 hrs.), descend to ( 1 hr .) Trachsellauenen (p. 175), and return by the valley, past the falls of the Trummelbach and Staubbach (p. 175) to Lauterbrunnen ( $23 / 4$ lirs. to the station). The views from Mürren and the Upper Steinberg are among the finest in Switzerland.

The line begins at the Interlaken-Ost station (1865'; p. 167) and curves round through the fertile plain to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Wilderswyl-Gsteig (1925'; change for the Schynige Platte, p. 173). To the right is the village of Wilderswyl; to the left, the church of Gsteig (see p.173). -The train crosses the Lütschine and ascends its right bank through wood. On the left bank is the highroad. To the right rises the precipitous Rothenfluh, overtopped by the Sulegg; in the foreground, to the left, is the Männlichen, with the Mönch and Jungfrau adjacent. We cross the Black Lütschine, which descends from Grindelwald. To the left, in the background, peers the finely-shaped Wetterhorn.

51/2 M. Zweilütschinen (2150'; Hôt.-Pens. Zweilütschinen), junction of the Lauterbrunnen and Grindelwald line (p. 181; unless in a through-carriage, change for Lauterbrunnen).

Interesting excmrsion to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Isenfluh ( $3610^{\prime}$; Hót.-Pens. Jungfrau, $41 / 2-6 \mathrm{fr}$.). About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Zweilutschinen the bridle-path diverges to the right from the Lauterbrunnen road, and ascends the steep $W$. slope of the valley (shade after 3 p.m.). Isenfluh commands a splendid View of the Jungfrau and its neighbours, from the Grosshorn to the Eiger. From Isenfleh to Mürren ( 3 hrs ; guide desirable), a fine walk: follow the path straight to the ( $3,4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Sausbach; ascend to the $(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Sprissenweid; then level to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Griutsch-Alp station (p. 176), and thence to ( 1 hr .) Mürren. - Ascent of the Sulegg ( 7915 '; $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; ; guide 10 fr .), see p. 171.

The train crosses the White Lütschine, and ascends (two rack-and-pinion sections) the wooded *Valley of Lauterbrunnen, bounded by limestone cliffs, $1000-1500^{\prime}$ in height. It crosses the Sausbach, which dashes down on the right, passes the Hunnenfluh, a huge tower-like rock on the left, and crosses the road several times.

8 M. Lauterbrunnen. - The Railway Station lies $2620^{\circ}$ above the sea-level; change carriages for Wengen, Scheidegg, and Grindelwald (p. 181); 3 min . higher up, to the right, is the station for the cable-railway to Mürren (p. 176). - Hotels: *Stelnbock, at the station, R., L., \& A. $2^{1 / 2-5, ~ B . ~} 11 / 2$, lunch 3, D. 4, pens. 8-10 fr.; *Hôt. Oberland; Hôt.Pens. Schweizerhof, opposite the station; *Hốt.-Pens. Trümmelbach (p. 175). - Guides: Christ., Joh., and Peter Lavener, Heinr., Fritz, and Ulrich von Almen, Fritz and Carl Christ. Graf, Fritz Fuchs, Ulrich Brunner, Karl Schlunegger, Christ. and Fr. Steiner. - English Church Service in summer at the Steinbock.

Lauterbrunnen ( $2615^{\prime}$ ), a pretty, scattered village, lies on both banks of the Lütschine, in a rocky valley $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. broad, into which in July the sun's rays do not penetrate before 7 , and in winter not till 11 a.m. It derives its name ('nothing but springs') from the numerous streams which descend from the rocks, or from the springs which rise at their base. The snow-mountain to the left, rising above the huge rocky precipices of the Schwarze Mönch, is the Jungfrau; to the right is the Breithorn.

By the Hôtel Staubbach, about 8 min . from the station, the road forks. The left branch descends past the church to the Trümmelbach (see below); the right branch leads straight on to the ( 5 min .) *Staubbach ('spray-brook'), the best-known of the Lauterbrunnen falls. This brook, never copious, and in dry summers disappointing, descends from a jutting rock in a leap of $980^{\prime}$, most of it, before it reaches the ground, being converted into spray, which bedews the meadows and trees far and near. In the morning-sun it resembles a silvery veil, wafted to and fro by the breeze, and by moonlight also it is beautiful. The best point of view is in a meadow in front of the fall, to the left of a seat marked by a flag. In the rock behind the fall is a gallery with three vaulted recesses ( 20 c.).

The road to the left at the fork (see above) crosses the White Lütschine near the church, and ascends its right bank, in view of the snowy Breithorn and the Schmadribach Fall. (To the left, a bridle-path to Wengen, p. 182.) In $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. we reach the Hôt.-Pens. Trümmelbach (R., L., \& A. 3-4, déj. 3, D. 4, pens. 6-9 fr.; omn. at Lauterbrunnen station; carr. there and back, including stay, 4 fr .). A path ( adm .50 c .) diverges here to the left to the ( 7 min .) *Trümmelbach Fall. The narrow gorge, with the copious Trümmelbach, fed by the glaciers of the Jungfrau, is rendered accessible by steps and paths. The sun forms beautiful rainbows in the spray.

Through the Trumleten-Thal to the Wengern-Alp (p. 152; 3 hrs ., with guide), trying buft interesting. - To the Roththal Hut, see p. 180. - From Stechelberg (see below) viâ the Sefinen-Thal and the Bussen-Alp to the Tanzbödeli ( $7010^{\circ} ; 2^{1 / 2}-3$ hrs.; with guide), repaying (better in combination with the excursion to the Upper Steinberg, p. 176).

The road ascends the valley, in view of several waterfalls, and passes the ( 18 min .) Dornigen-Brücke, where we join the old route coming from the Staubbach. Beyond Stechelberg we reach ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the *Café \& Pens. Stechelberg ( $3020^{\prime}$; pens. $4^{1 / 2}-5 \mathrm{fr}$.), where the road ends. The main bridle-path (to the left; that to the right leads to the SefinenValley and Mürren, p. 178) skirts the right bank of the wild Lütschine, and crosses it near the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of Sichellauenen (3275'). Thence we traverse wooded meadows to ( 50 min .) Trachsellauĕnen (4145'; Hôt. Schmadribach, R., L., \& A. 2-21/2, B. $11 / 2$, pens. 5 fr., well spoken of), a picturesque cluster of chalets on the left bank of the Lütschine, $1^{3} / 4-2$ hrs. from the Trümmelbach and $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Lauterbrunnen.

The path bence to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Schmadribach Fall ascends the left bank of the Lütschine to the ( 12 min .) 'Bergwerk', the ruined furnace of a deserted lead-mine. Here it diverges to the left from the main path (which goes on to the Upper Steinberg, see below), and ascends (notice-boards) round a jutting rock (the 'Nadla'; the top of which, 20 min . from the inn, affords a good riew of the waterfall), and past the chalets of the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Lower Steinberg Alp (4480'), where it crosses (to the left) the Thalbach (two bridges). Ascending the pastures on the right bank, we pass a waterfall, mount the Holdri, and reach ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Läger Chalet, in sight of the *Schmadribach Fall. Nothing is gained by going closer to the fall. - From the 'Bergwerk' it is preferable to follow the path to the right, which zigzags up a gorge, clad with firs and ferns (not pleasant in wet weather; lantern necessary after dusk), to the chalets of the Ammerten-Alp, and thence to the Upper Steinberg ( 5820 ). Here ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from Trachsellauenen) are the small Hôtel Tschingelhorn (unpretending; R. \& L. $31 / 2$ fr., B. 1 fr. 60 c., pens. 5 fr .) , and ( 20 min . farther up) the Hôtel Ober-Steinberg (pens. 5-6 fr.). The *View of the mountains and glaciers enclosing the upper valley of Lauterbrunnen is very fine (best point of view about 200 yds . beyond the Obersteinberg Hotel); from right to left are seen the Lauterbrunner Wetterhorn, with the Tschingelhorn behind it, the Breithorn, the beautiful Tschingel Glacier between these, then the Grosshorn, the Mittaghorn, the Ebnefluh, the Gletscherhorn, and the Jungfrau, while directly opposite is the Schmadribach Fall. In descending to Trachsellauenen, we diverge to the right 20 min . lueyond the Hôt. Tschingelhorn.

A still grander view is obtained from the "Tanzbödeli ( $7010^{\prime}$ ), the last E. spur of the Tschingelgrat, reached from the Obere Steinberg in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (there and back; see p. 170). A boy will show the way (steady head necessary) for $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{fr}$.

A somewhat fatiguing ronte (guide advisable) leads from the Upper Steinberg along the moraine of the Tschingel Glacier to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) ${ }^{\text {\# }}$ Oberhornsee (6823), a beautiful little blue lake, magnificently situated in the rocky hollow between the Tschingel and Breithorn Glaciers. Adjacent is the Oberhorn Alp. - Hence to the (3 hrs.) Mutthorn Hut, see p. 180.

From Lauterbrunnen to Mürren. - Cable and Electric Railoay

 in 55 min . (fares 3 fr .75 c .; return-ticket, valid for 3 days, 6 fr .). The station of the cable-railway in Lauterbrunnen lies 5 min . from that of the Bernese Oberland Railway (see p. 174).The Cable Railway (nearly $1 \mathrm{M} .10 n g$; average gradient $55: 100$ ) mounts straight through meadows and wood, to the Grütsch-Alp ( $4890^{\prime}$ ). Here we change carriages for the Electric Railway, which follows the slope, crossing several streams, to ( $21 / 2$ M.) Mürren. To the left (even below the Griitsch-Alp) a magnificent *VIEw of an amphitheatre of mountains and glaciers is revealed: the Figer and the Mönch, the Jungfrau with its dazzling Schneehorn and Silberhorn, the huge precipices of the Schwarze Mönch rising abruptly from the valley, the wall of the Ebne-Fluh with its conical peak to the left and its mantle of spotless snow; then, as we approach Mürren (near which the Jungfrau disappears behind the Schwarze Mönch), the Mittaghorn, the Grosshorn (from which the Schmadribach descends), the Breithorn, the Tschingelhorn, the Tschingelgrat, and the Gspaltenhorn.

The Bridle Path from Ladterbrunnen to Mürren, $2-21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs} .(11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. in the opposite direction), is very attractive in dry weather. It ascends rapidly to the right about 3 min . from the station, beyond the Adler Hotel, at the gaide-post ('Mürren 5.7 Kil.', i.e. $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.), and crosses the Greifenbach twice. Beyond the second bridge ( 20 min .) it ascends through wood, crosses the Fluhbächli, the ( 20 min.) Lauibach (fine waterfall), and the Herrenbächli, and reaches ( 25 min .) the bridge over the scanty Pletschbach or Staubbach (4037'; rfmts.). In 5 min. more, where the wood has been much thinned, we obtain a beantiful view of the Jongfrau, Mönch, and Eiger, which remain in sight for the rest of the way. Farther up, by ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) a saw-mill ( 4920 '), we cross two branches of the Spissbach, in 25 min . more reach the top of the hill (view see above), and then walk alongside the railway to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Mürren. Comp. Map, p. 174.

Mürren. - Hotels. Grand Hôtel \& Curhads Mürren, 5 min. from the station, beautifully situated, with restaurant, Carsaal, and several dépendances (Bellevue, Fontana, Victoria), R., L., \& A. 5-8, B. $11 / 2$, lunch 3, D. 5, pens. from July 15th to Sept. 10th 10-16, at other times 814 fr ; ${ }^{}$ Grand Hôtel des Alpes, nearer the station, with restaurant (Munich beer on draught, 60 c .), R., L., \& A. $5-8$, B. $1^{3 / 4}$, lunch 4, D. 5 , pens. $10-16 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ S. B. G. H. at both. - Hôt.-Pens. Jungrrau, R. 3-4, lunch 3, D. 4, pens. 8-10 fr., near the English Church, above the Curhaus; *Hôt. Alpenrdie, farther to the S., in an open situation, pens. 6.7 fr.; Pens. Blumenthal; *Hôt.-Pens. Edelweiss, 3 min. from the station, R. $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. - English Church and Roman Catholic Chapel.

Mürren (5385'), situated on a terrace high above the Lauterbrunnen Valley, is one of the most frequented points in the Bernese Oberland. It commands a famous view, including not only the above-mentioned peaks, but also the Wetterhorn to the left, and the Sefinen-Furgge to the extreme right (p.179). Pleasant walks with numerous benches skirt the slopes of the Allmendhubel, a height to the W., on which firs grow higher up.

The top of the Allmendhubel (6358') is reached in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., by following the above-mentioned paths to the left to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the first chalets of Allmend, then the path to the Schilthorn to ( 20 min .) a solitary chalet, and finally to the right for 6 or 8 min . more. The view includes the snowy Jungfrau in addition to the peaks seen from Mürren. - Another good view-point is the Obere Winteregg ( $5738^{\prime}$ ), $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N.W. of Mürren, by a path diverging to the left above the electric railway, 10 min . from Mürren.

The "Schilthorn ( 9753 '; $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$., guide 8 fr., not indispensable for experts) is an admirable point of view. The path ascends along the S . or N. side of the Allmendhubel (see above), enters the bleak Enge-Thal, and mounts over the Seelifuren to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) rocky basin above the Graue Seeli ( $8540^{\circ}$ ). Then a steep ascent over snow, loose stones, and rock, past the monument to Mrs. Arbuthnot. who was killed here by lightning in 1865, to the Kleine Schilthorn ( $9400^{\prime}$ ) and across the arête without difficulty to the ( 1 hr .) flat summit of the Grosse Schilthorn. Magnificent survey of the Jungfrau, the queen of the Bernese Alps, and of the whole chain (including the Blümlisalp, to the S.W., quite near), and of N. Switzerland (Rigi, Pilatus, etc.) ; panorama by Imfeld. Mont Blanc is not visible hence, but is seen from the arête, about 250 yds. to the W., a little below the summit. - The descent may be considerably curtailed by glissades down three snow-slopes (quite free from danger). The route through the imposing Sefinen-Thal (see below), by the Sefinen-Alp and the Teufelsbrücke (a fine point above Gimmelwald), is longer by $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. than the direct path, but far more interesting (unfit for ladies). A shorter way back leads past the Graue Seeli and down the steep Schiltflühe (gaide advisable), and afterwards through the beautiful pastures of the Schiltalp (63s0'), with views of the Jungfrau, etc.

At the Chalet Bellevue, beyond the Curhaus, a guidepost indicates the way (to the left) to Stechelberg, and 100 paces farther on the path divides; here we descend to the left. In 5 min . more we cross a bridge over a fall of the Mürrenbach, and at (20 min.) the beginning of Gimmelwald $\left(45455^{\prime}\right)$ the road forks. The branch to the right leads straight to the ( 8 min.) Hôt.-Pens. Schilthorn (50-6 fr. ; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer), on the brink of the grand Sefinen-Thal, which is enclosed by the Büttlassen, the Gspaltenhorn, and the Tschingelgrat. The branch to the left descends in 4 min . to the Hôt.-Pens. Gimmelwald ( $41 / 2^{-5} \mathrm{fr}$.).

To the Sefinen-Thal, an interesting walk (as far as the Gspaltenborn Glacier and back 3 hrs ; guide unnecessary). To the W. of Pension Schilthorn we cross the ( 5 min .) Schiltbach, and ascend on the left side of the Sefinen-Thal (with the snperb Jungfrau behind us); then ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) cross a bridge (Furten) and enter a pine-wood, and lastly, in a grand basin, with numerous waterfalls, traverse stony debris to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Gspaltenhorn (or Kilchbalm) Glacier, at the foot of the Gspaltenhorn (11,275'; p. 201). - Experts (with guides) may return from the Furten viâ the Ozen-Alp to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{br}$.) Oberberg-Alp (6020) and to the $(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Brünnli (6995'; fine view). A steep rocky path descends hence to Gümmelen and ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Mürren.

The route to Stechelberg descends to the left past the Hôtel Gimmelwald and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) crosses the Sefinen-Lütschine. After a short ascent we again descend through wood, and cross a brook descending from the right, enjoying a view, to the left, of the beautiful Sefinen Fall. The path divides ( 12 min. ): the branch to the left descends steeply to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Stechelberg (p. 175ँ); that to the right goes on at the same level to Trachsellauenen ('Hôt. Schmadribach 40 min.'; p. 175). A footpath (steep at places) diverges to the right from the latter after 6 min., passes a deserted shaft, and, after affording a view of the Schmadribach, reaches ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Hôtel Tschingelhorn on the Upper Steinberg (p. 176; in all about 3 hrs . from Mürren; guide, 7 fr ., unnecessary in good weather).

Passes. From Mürren over the Sefinen-Furgge to the Kienthal, not difficult, and on the whole attractive ( 8 hrs . to Reichenbach; guide from Lauterbrunnen 25 fr.). From Mürren the path ascends viâ the Schiltalp (p. 178) and Alp Boganggen ( 6710 ') to the ( 3 hrs. ) Sefinen-Furgge ( $8583^{\prime}$ ), between the Great Hundshorn ( $962 U^{\prime}$ ) and the Bittlassen ( $10,490^{\prime}$; p. 201). (The path by Gimmelwald and through the Sefinen-Thal is easier, but 1 hr . longer.) Descent (fine view of the Wilde Frau and Blümlisalp) past the chalets of Dürrenberg ( $65455^{\prime}$ ), Bilrgli ( $5327^{\prime}$ ), and Steinenberg ( $4856^{\prime}$; quarters) to the Gorneren-Alp, by the Bärenpfad to the ( $2 \frac{1}{2}$ hrs.) Tschingel-Alp ( $3783^{\prime}$ ), and down the Kienthal to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Reichenbach (p. 201). - From the Bürgli-Alp over the Gamchilücke to the Tschingelfirn. see pp. 180, 201.

From Mūrrex to Kandersteg over the Sefinen-Furgge and the Нонтнürli, a fatiguing but interesting expedition ( $11^{1} / 2-12 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide from Lauterbrunnen 30 fr.). Over the Sefinen-Furgge to the Kienthal, see above. At the ( 4 hrs .) chalet of Bürgli (see above) we follow a narrow path to the left through the rocky gorge of the Pochtenbach (observe the curiously contorted strata of the rocks on the opposite bank) to the Gamchi ( $5500^{\circ}$ ), near the end of the Gamchi Glacier (Gamchilücke. see p. 201); here we cross the brook, ascend rapidly to the Upper Bund-Alp, and traverse pastures, stony slopes, and snow to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the Hohthürli or Dünden Pass ( $8880^{\prime}$ ), a depression of the Oeschinengrat between the Schwowzhorn ( $9150^{\prime}$ ) and the Wilde Frau ( $10,693^{\prime}$ ), affording a superb view of the Blümlisalp, Doldenhorn, etc. Descending on the S . side of the pass for about $200^{\prime}$, and then keeping to the left at the foot of the arête, we reach first the old Frauenbalm Hut, and beyond it ( 20 min .) the new Blïmlisalp Hut of the Swiss Alpine Clab ( $9055^{\prime}$ '). We now descend over debris and the rocky ledges of the Schafberg (with the Bliimlisalp Glacier quite near us on the left) to the Upper Oeschinen-Alp ( $6470^{\prime}$ ), and by steep steps cut in the rock to the Lover Oeschinen-Alp, pass round the N.W. side of the Oeschinen-See (5223'), and reach (4 hrs.) Kandersteg (p. 202).

From Lauterbrennen to Kandersteg over the Tschingel Pass ( $13-14 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 30 , porter 25 fr .), fatiguing, but for tolerable mountaineers free from difficulty. A night had better be spent at ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Trachsellauenen or at the Upper Steinberg ( $\mathrm{p} .176 ; 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Lauterbrunnen). We now follow the W . slope of the valley to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) left lateral moraine of the receding Tschingel Glacier and toil up it for some time (a nearly perpendicular part, called the Tschingeltritt, about ${ }^{13}{ }^{\prime}$ high, is now avoided by means of a narrow path). Farther np ( 1 hr .) we come to turf (pleasanter; a halt usually made here; superb view). Then again across debris in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the upper Tschingelfir $n$, an immense expanse of snow ; for 20 min . we follow the left moraine, and then take to the glacier, where the rope becomes necessary. A gradual ascent of $1^{3} / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. brings as to the top of the Tschingel Pass ( $9265^{\prime}$ ), where a view of the mountains of the Gastern-Thal is disclosed; behind ns towers the majestic Jungfrau with her S. neighbours, and to the left is the Eiger. On the right are the furrowed Gspaltenhorn (p. 201) and the Gamchilücke (9295'; pass to the Kienthal, p. 201). An additional hour may be devoted to the Gamchilücke, which affords a striking survey of the Kienthal, the Niesen, and the Bernese plain. To the left of the Tschingel Pass rises the Dfutthorn (see below). The descent across the Kanderfinn, bounded on the right by the rocky walls of the Blümlisalp and the Fründenhorn and on the left by the Petersgrat, is easy. After $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. we quit the snow for the left lateral moraine and descend steeply, over loose stones and then over grass, to the Gastern-Thal, passing a spur which overlooks the Alpetli Glacier, descending from the Kanderfirn. We then follow the narrow crest of a huge old moraine, which descends precipitously on the right to the former bed of the glacier, $65-80^{\prime}$ below; $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., bridge over the Kander; 6 min., the first chalet of Heimritz ( $5315^{\prime}$; coffee, milk, and beds); $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., chalets of Selden or Gasteren. Hence through the *Klus to ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Kandersteg, see p. 209.
*Fbom Lauterbrunnen to the Lötschen-Thal over the Petersgrat (from the Steinberg to Ried $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$.), trying, for experts only, but very grand (guide 50 fr .; for one tourist two guides or a guide and a porter are required). From the Obersteinberg Hotel we ascend to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Oberhornsee ( p .176 ) and across the Tschingel Glacier to the ( $3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ) Muthorn Hut of the S.A.C. $\left(9515^{\prime}\right)$, at the S.E. base of the Mutthorn (9975'), which may be ascended hence in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., with guide. More difficult are the Tschingelhorn ( $11,750^{\prime} ; 3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$ ) and the Lauterbrunner Breithorn ( $12,400^{\prime}$; 4-5 hrs. from the club-hat). - An easy ascent of $3 / 4-1 \mathrm{hr}$. over the névé of the Tschingelfirn brings us to the Petersgrat ( $10,515^{\prime}$ ), a lofty snowarête commanding a superb view of the Alps of the Valais. We then descend over the Äussere Thal Glacier to the N.W. base of the Tellispitzen ( $9595{ }^{\prime}$ ), whence a steep descent leads over snow, debris, and turf to the Telli-Thal, Blatten, and ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Ried (p. 208). - Over the Wetterlücke (from the Upper Steinberg to Ried $10 \mathrm{hr} . ;$ gnide 45 fr .), difficult. From the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Oberhornsee (p. 176) we cross the Breithorn Glacier to the ( $4-41 / 2$ hrs.) Wetterlücke ( 10,365 '), between the Tschingelhorn and Breithorn. The descent leads by the Innere Thal Glacier to ( 4 hrs .) Blatten and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ried (p. 203). - Over the Schmadri-Joch ( $101 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 50 fr ), also difficult. From the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Oberhorn $-A l p$ (p. 176) we ascend to the left over the Breithorn Glacier to the ( 4 hrs .) Schmadri-Joch ( $10.863^{\prime}$ ), between the Breithorn and Grosshorn. On the other side we descend over the Jägifirn to the ( 4 hrs .) Gletscherstaffel $A l p$ (chalets) and to ( 1 hr .) Ried (p. 208). Or from the Gletscherstaffel Alp we may proceed to the ( 1 hr. ) Lötschenlücke $\left(10,510^{\prime}\right)$ and descend viâ the Grosse Aletschfirn to the ( 3 hrs .) Concordia Pavilion (p. 327). - The passage of the Mittagjoch (12, 150 '), between the Grosshorn and Mittaghorn, is also difficult (guide 50 fr .).

From Lauterbrunnen to the Eggishorn over the Lauithor ( $12,140^{\prime}$ ), difficult and hazardous ( 18 hrs .; spend night in the Roththal Hut; guide 100 fr.$)$, through the wild Roththal, across the huge ice and rock arête connecting the Roththathorn ( $12,945^{\prime}$ ) and Gletscherhorn $\left(13,064^{\prime}\right)$, and down the Kranzberg-Firn and the Great Aletsch Glacier to the Concordia Pavilion and the Eggishorn Hotel (p. 327). - Over the Roththal-Sattel (12,330'), between the Jungfrau and the Roththalhorn, also very difficult and dangerous (1920 hrs . to the Eggishorn). - Over the Ebnefluh-Joch ( $12,300^{\prime}$ ), between the Ebneftuh ( $13,005^{\prime}$ ) and Mittaghorn ( $12,750^{\prime}$ ), very laborious, but without danger to experts ( $15-16 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 80 fr .). - It will repay a robust and steady-headed expert to go as far as the Roththal Hut ( $8860^{\circ}$; 5 hrs. from Stechelberg, crossing the Stufenstein-Alp), and to return the same way (a good day's walk; guide 25 fr.). Ascent of the Jungfrau from this hut, see p. 183.

a. Direct Line (carriages marked 'Grindelwald'). From Interlaken to ( $51 / 2$ M.) Zweilütschinen ( 2150 '), see p. 174. The Grindelwald train ascends the left bank of the Black Lütschine, traversing a tunnel and an avalanche gallery in the wooded and populous Lütschen-Thal. To the left are the slopes of the Schynige Platte (p. 173); to the right rises the precipitous Mănnlichen (p. 184). Beyond ( $81 / 2$ M.) Lütschenthal ( $2355^{\prime}$ ) the train crosses to the right bank and ascends the Stalden by rack-and-pinion ( 1935 yds . ; gradient $12: 100)$ to ( 10 M .) Burglauenen $\left(2915^{\prime}\right)$. In front appear the Wetterhorn and the Berglistock. Farther on we pass through the defile of the Oriweid, after which a view of the beautiful valley of Grindelwald is suddenly disclosed: to the right is the massive Eiger, adjoined by the Jungfrau with the Schneehorn and the Silberhorn; in the middle are the Mettenberg and the Schreckhörner, and to the left the Berglistock and the majestic Wetterhorn. The train lastly ascends another toothed rail section ( 1420 yds .) to (13 M.) Grindelwald (p. 185).
b. By the Wengern-Alp Line (Riggenbach's rack- and-pinion system). There is only one car on this line, but when passengers are numerous extra trains are despatched (journey and fares, see above). - Lauterbrunnen ( $2640^{\prime}$ ), see p. 175. The railway describes a curve, crosses the Lütschine, and rapidly ascends the steep slopes below the village of Wengen, where it passes over several viaducts and bridges. Hence we enjoy a fine retrospect of Lauterbrunnen and its valley and of the Schmadribach Fall in the background, with the Breithorn and Grosshorn above it. Higher up, to the right of the former, is the Tschingelhorn, and to the left of the precipitous Schwarze Mönch are the Silberhorn and Jungfrau. On the opposite (W.) side of the valley ascends the cable-railway to Mürren, above which (r.) rises the Solegg-Grat, with the serrated Lobhörner, resembling the fingers of a hage hand. A wide curve brings us to -- Wengen $\left(4190^{\prime}\right)$, situated amidst well-shaded meadows, below the precipitous Tschuggen (p. 184), with a view of the Lauterbrunnen Valley and of the Jungfrau and other mountains to the S., is much visited as a summer-resort. Attractive walks to the Leiterhorn, 1 hr . from the station, below the Männlichen (p. 181); to the Mettlen-Alp and Wengern-Alp (see below), etc.

Bridle Path from Lauterbrunnen to the Wengern-Alp ( 3 hrs .). From the station we descend to the left, cross the Lütschine, and ascend straight on, soon joining the path mentioned at p. $175.3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. Restaurant Linder, with pavilion and view. Farther up a ( 20 min .) finger-post shows the way to the left, by the Hôt. Mittaghorn and Hôt. Alpenrose, to the (20 min.) Wengen station; to the right to ( 10 min.) Pens. Wengen, and thence uphill, and ( 10 min .) to the left again, to a point below the wateringstation (see below). - This steep ascent is avoided by taking the railway to Wengen. From the station we cross the terrace in front of Hôt. Blümlisalp, turn to the left, and a little farther on to the right, crossing the line and following the fenced path amidst houses and meadows; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. a chalet (rfmts.); 10 min. we join the above-mentioned path from Pens. Wengen; 8 min . pass throngh a gate into the pine-wood, from which we emerge 20 min . farther on, and turn to the left. In $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more, passing under the line, we reach the Hôtel Jungfrau (see below). - If we go straight on after quitting the wood, we reach the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) "Mettlen Alp ( $5 \overline{5} \mathrm{SO}^{\prime}$ ), on the N. side of the Trumleten-Thal, directly facing the Jungfran. Hence we may either ascend to the Wengern-Alp in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., or walk round the head of the Trümleten-Thal to the ( 1 hr .) Biglen-Alp, with the Kühlauenen Glacier, and thence to the $(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Wengern-Alp.

Beyond Wengen the railway curves towards the Tschuggen, affording a continuous view of the snow-mountains and glaciers from the Grosshorn to beyond the Gspaltenhorn, with the Breithorn in the centre. After a short halt at a Watering Station below the Lauberhorn (p. 184) we skirt the Galtbachhorn (7610') and reach 41/2 M. Wengern-Alp (6160'; Hôt. Jungfrau, R., L., \& A. 4-5, B. $13 / 4$, lunch $31 / 2$, D. $4-5$, pens. $8-10$ fr.), where we enjoy a celebrated *View, across the Trümleten-Thal, of the Jungfrau $\left(13,670^{\prime}\right)$, with her dazzling shroud of eternal snow, flanked by the Silberhorn $\left(12,155^{\prime}\right)$ on the right and the Schneehorn $\left(11,205^{\prime}\right)$ on the left. The proportions of the mountain are so gigantic, that the eye attempts in vain to estimate them, and its distance ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) seems annihilated. To the left of the Jungfrau, the highest peak of which is not visible, rise the Mönch (13,465') and the Eiger $\left(13,040^{\prime}\right)$. To the right, farther back, are the Tschingelgrat, Gspaltenhörner, and the broad mass of the Büttlassen. To the N. of the last are the Hundshorn, Schilthorn, and Schwar:horn (named from W. to E.).

The view from the ( 20 min.) Hundsschopf (hench and flag) is little superior to that from the Hotel Jungfrau. A fine view of the Lauterbrunnen valley is obtained from the Gürmschbü̈hl (6223'), reached by diverging to the left from the Wengen path, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. below the station, and turning, 8 min . farther on, to the right (while the path to the left leads to the Mettlen-Alp, p. 1ヶ2).

On the Wengern-Alp, at Grindelwald, and elsewhere the traveller may witness Snow or Ice Avalanches, which, on warm, suuny days, generally occur several times an hour. Except that the solemn stillness of these desolate regions is broken by the echoing thunders of the falling masses, the spectacle can hardly be called imposing. The avalanche, as it descends from rock to rock on the mountain-side, to disappear at its foot, resembles a huge white cascade. The more destructive avalanches, bearing with them rocks, earth, and gravel, occur only in spring and winter.

The *Jung frau ( $13,670^{\prime}$ ) was scaled fur the first time in 1811 by $R u$ dolf and Hieronymus Meyers of Aarau, and from that time to 1851 the ascent was only accomplished four times; but it has since been undertaken frequently. Though difficult and fatiguing, it is nattended with danger to experts with good guides and in favourable conditions of the snow. The easiest ascent is that by the S. side, the night being spent in the Concordia Pavilion (p. 327), 5 hrs. from the Eggishorn Hotel; thence to the summit $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 70 fr .). The ascent from Grindelwald is more trying (guide 80 fr., with descent to the Eggishorn 100 fr. ; porter 60 and 80 fr.). It is facilitated by spending a night in the Bergli-Hütte (p. 188), 8 hrs. from Grindelwald; thence over the Mönchjoch and the Jungfraufivn to the Roththal-Sattel (p. 180) $4-41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., and to the top in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more. The ascents from the Guggi Hut ( p . 184) over the Silberlicke and from Lauterbrunnen by the Roththal-Sattel are very difficult and hazardous. That from the Roththal Hut (p. 180) over the S.W. arête ( $6-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. ) is also trying, but is nut dangerous when the rocks are dry and free from snow or ice. We ascend over rocks for $4-41 / 2 \mathrm{brs}$, the last part being a steep climb up the granite walls of the arête. We then cruss a snow-arête, which refuires a steady head and is sometimes rather unpleasant (in late summer often solid ice). This brings us to the upper névé, over which we ascend withont trouble to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the summit. The View is, perhaps, the finest of all the main peaks of the Alps. - The Silberhorn ( $12,155^{\prime}$ ) was ascended for the first time, in 1863, by Ed. von Fellenberg and Karl Baedeker. (from the Wengern-Scheidegg by the Eiger, Guggi, and Giessen Glaciers, in $121 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; difficult and trying; guide 50 fr ). The ascent by the W. arête was first performed in 1857 by Mr. Seymour King.

The Jungfrau Railway (electric line; $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long; maximum gradient $25: 100$ ), the con-truction of which was begun in the autumn of 1896, nnder the auspices of Herr Adolf Gujer-Zeller of Zürich (d. 1899), ascends from the Kleine Scheidegs to the station Eigergletscher ( $7565^{\prime} ;$ p. 184), and the entrance of the tunnel $(795 \%$, beyond which it is carried through a constant succeasion of tunnels ( 14 ' high and 12 'wide). Projected stations : Eigerwand ( $9233^{\prime}$ ), Eism er ( $\left(10,275\right.$ ), MÖ̈nch ( $\left.10,995^{\prime}\right)$, on the S. side of the Mönch, and Jungfrau-Joch (p. 187). The terminus Jungfrau (Elecator. 13.428') will be connected with the summit of the Jungfrau by a lift 242 ' high, with a winding staircase on the :utside. - The completion of the line will take at least 7-8 years; the estimated cost is 10 million francs. The electric power is derived from the Weisse Lütscline near Lauterbrunnen and the Schwarze Lütschine near Burglauenen. The premature death of Herr Guyer-Zeller has, however, made the complete realization of this bold undertaking somewhat problematical.

From the Wengern-Alp the train ascends gradually. Splendid views of the Jungfrau. Walkers follow the bridle-path, which crosses the line near the Hôtel Jungfrau, and then skirts it to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) station of Scheidegg. This walk is recommended for the descent.
$5^{3 / 4}$ M. Scheidegg (carriages changed in both directions; detention frequent), on the summit of the Little, Lauterbrunnen, or Wengern Scheidegg (6770'; *Curhaus Bellevue, R., L., & A. 41/2-5, B. $1^{3 / 4}$, lunch $31 / 2$, D. 4-5, pens. 8-12 fr. ; S. B. G. H.; Engl. Ch. Serv. in July and August; Rail. Restaurant, lunch $31 / 2$ fr.). This ridge affords a striking view of the valley of Grindelwald to the N., as far as the Great Scheidegg, dominated on the right by the broad summit of the Wetterhorn, with its rocky peaks and snow - fields, and bounded on the N . by the Faulhorn range. (To the extreme left is the blunt cone of the Faulhorn, with its inn.) On the S. opens a splendid view of the Mönch, Eiger, and Jungfrau, with the Silberhorn and Schneehorn (but more in profile than from the Wengern-Alp).

To the Eiger Glacier, a pleasant walk of $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., with fine views, especially from the ${ }^{\circ}$ Fallbodenhubel ( $7136^{\prime}$; about halfway). Those who prefer may use the Jungfrau Railoay (see p. 183), which was opened in 1898 as far as ( $11 / 4$ M) the Eigergletscher. Station ( 20 min ; fare 2 fr ., there and back 3 fr .). The train starts on the arrival of those from Lauterbrunnen and Grinde!wald. In the glacier is an artificial ice-grotto (adni. 50 c.$)$. - At the lower end of the Guggi Glacier we can descry, with a telescope, the Guggi Club Hut (7864'; 2 hrs . from the Little Scheidegg; guide 5 fr .), seldom used, as the Mönch is now ascended from the Bergli-Hut, and the Eiger direct from the Little Scheidegg.

The easy ascent of the "Lauberhorn ( $8120^{\circ}$ ), 1 hr . by a path (guide-post between the station and the Bellevue Hotel), is recommended for its magniticent view. The entire chain of the Bernese Alps is in sight. To the right of the imposing Wetterhorn are the broad and jagged Berglistock, the Mettenberg. Great and Little Schreckhorn, Lauteraarhorn, Eiger, Mönch, and Jungfrau; still farther to the right, the Ebnefluh, Mittaghorn, Grosshorn, Breithorn, Tschingelhorn, Gspaltenhorn, and Blümlisalp; in front, the plateau of Mürren, with Lauterbrunnen and the Staubbach below; above are the Schilthorn, the Sulegg-Grat with the Lobhörner (p. 181), and farther to the right, the Niesen; then the Abendberg, Wilderswyl, Unterseen with St. Beatenberg above it; above the Grindelwald valley rises the Faulhorn range, with the Schwarzhorn; and in the distance beyond the Great Scheidegg, the Wendenstöcke and the Titlis.

On the N. the Lauberhorn is adjoined by the precipitous Tschuggen (8278'; ascent laborious, for experts only) and, farther on, by the 'Mannlichen ( $7695^{\prime}$ ), another famous point of view, easily ascended in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Little Scheidegg. From the station a well-made bridle-path ( $5-6$ ' wide) gradually ascends to the right, skirting the slopes of the Lauberhorn and Tschuggen, and affording a succession of charming views of Grindelwald and its mountains, to the ( 1 hr .5 min .) H8t. Grindelooald-Rigi ( $7220^{\prime}$; R., L., \& A. $3^{1 / 2}-4$, B. $1^{11 / 2}$. lunch $31 / 2$, D. $4^{1 / 2}$ fr.), on the saddle between the Tschuggen and Männlichen. The top of the latter is reached in 20 min . more. The view of the Eiger, Mönch, and Jungfrau is inferior to that from the Lauberhorn, owing to the intervening Tschuggen, but the more distant peaks to the right and left are better seen (panorama by G. Studer). - Direct descent to Grindelwald in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., by a path that cannot be mistaken.

The railway and bridle-path ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to Grindelwald) follow the slope to the right, immediately behind the Hôtel Bellevue. To the right, a final view of the Jungfrau. Then over the stony WergisthalAlp, at the foot of the Eiger, to ( 8 M .) Alpiglen (5287' ; Hôt. des Alpes, $1 / 4$ M. from the station, unpretending, R. $1^{1} / 2^{-}-21 / 2$, pens. 5 fr .), on a commanding terrace. The Wetterhorn becomes more conspicuous, with the Mettenberg in front of it; farther on the Schreckhorn is seen through the gap between the Mettenberg and the Eiger. The line descends steeply into the valley of the Black Lütschine and crosses the stream. - $10 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Grund $\left(3100^{\prime}\right)$, the lower station for Grindelwald, whence the train backs out to ascend to the ( 11 M. ) principal station of Grindelwald (see below). - Walkers from Grindelwald to the Little Scheidegg cross the Lütschine above the station of Grund, and thence follow the bridle-path to the left, which crosses the line farther on; to Alpiglen 2 hrs., thence to the Scheidegg $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.

Grindelwald (3415' at the station; 3468' at the charch ; pop. 3087), properly Gydisdorf, a large village in a sheltered and healthy situation, almostentirely rebuilt since the fire of 1892, is an excellent starting-point for excursions, and a favourite summer-resort. Three gigantic mountains bound the valley on the S., the Eiger ( $13,040^{\prime}$ ), the Mettenberg $\left(10,193^{\prime}\right)$, which forms the base of the Schreckhorn, and the beautiful three-peaked Wetterhorn $\left(12,150^{\prime}\right)$, the characteristic feature of the entire landscape. Between the Wetterhorn and the Mettenberg descends the Upper Grindelwald Glacier, and between the Mettenberg and the Eiger the Lower Grindelwald Glacier. These glaciers feed the Black Lütschine.

Most visitors are content with a visit to the *Upper Glacier (a walk, there and back, of $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; horse 8 fr.). From the station we follow the principal street, passing the ( 10 min .) Church; and beyond the schoolhouse, decorated with mottoes, we take the footpath to the right (while the bridle-path leads straight on). The undulating path leads past several refreshment-huts to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hôtel Wetterhorn ( $4040^{\prime} ;$ R. $11 / 2-2$, pens. $4^{1} / 2-6$ fr. ; well spoken of ), just before which we pass a memorial to Dr. A. Haller of Burgdorf, who perished on the Lauteraar Glacier in 1880. Here we diverge to the right from the main path (which goes on to the Great Scheidegg, see p. 196), cross the Lütschine (3935'), and in 10 min . reach the glacier. The artificially hewn Ice Grotto (adm. 50 c.) is the finest near Grindelwald.

Another way back to Grindelwald (guide, 6 fr., not essential) is by a path ascending the left moraine to the Chalet Milchbach ( $4330^{\prime}$; rfmets.; visible from below), which affords a good view of the ice-fall. The path (finger-posts) then enters the wood to the right, passing between the Mettenberg and the Halsegg, and descends on the left bank of the Lütschine and across the Sulz to the bridge near the saw-mill mentioned below, and back to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Grindelwald. - From the Chalet Milelibach climbers may, by means of ladders (guide 1 fr .), ascend to the Wetterhorn path (comp. p. 187), and pass through the Milchbach Gorge to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) edge of the glacier above the ice-fall (about $525 \mathrm{u}^{\prime}$; fine survey of the glacier).

A narrow, and in wet weather muddy, path leads to the E. from the Hôtel Wetterhorn. past the 'Camera Obscura' and the small pavilion, through shrubs and pines, to ( 20 min .) the *Eisboden ('Ischbode'; 4400'), a beautiful pasture close to the base of the Wetterhorn, affording a superb survey of the Upper Grindelwald Glacier, the Mettenberg, the Schreckhörner, the Eiger, and the Grindelwald Valley.

The Lower Glacier has so receded that an ascent to the Bäregg will alone repay the visitor (see below; guide, 7 fr., needless for moderately experienced walkers; horse to the Weissenfluh, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. below the Bäregg, 10 fr ., not advisable), while the only other interesting point is the imposing Gcrge of the Lütschine. Bridle-paths, above the Hôtel Eiger, above the former Eagle Hotel, and between the church and the school-house, descend to the right to the bridge spanning the branch of the Lütschine that issues from the upper glacier. On the opposite bank, on which is a saw-mill, the path straight on ascends to the Bäregg, while we keep to the right at the same level, and finally, ascending a little, cross a wooden bridge over the discharge of the glacier to the entrance of the Gorge of the Lütschine, to which wooden galleries and steps afford access ( 50 c .). At the upper end is a high waterfall. We may now ascend the left (W.) lateral moraine to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ice Grotto ( $230^{\prime}$ long) hewn into the glacier; or we may follow the right bank for 80 paces from the wooden bridge, and then ascend the right lateral moraine to the Bäregg path. On this latter ascent we pass ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a refreshmenthut, by a bridge high above the gorge ( 50 c .), and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more) a second hut, with another Ice Grotto near it (50 c.). - From the bridge and saw-mill mentioned above a path ascends along steep rocky slopes to ( $11 / 2^{-1} / 4 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Chalet Bäregg ( $5 \mathrm{~S}^{\prime} 10^{\prime}$ ), which commands the *Lower Eismeer ('sea of ice'), the large basin in which the glacier accumulates before it descends to the valley. Above it rise the Zäsenberghorn, Grindelwalder Grünhorn, Little and Great Grindelwalder Fiescherhorn, Fieschergrat, aud Eiger. A rocky knoll, 20 min . farther on, affords a more complete view.

A fight of wooden steps, 5 min . from the chalet, descends to the edge of the 'Eismeer'. The glacier may be crossed, with guide (from Grindelwald, 9 fr .), to ( 1 hr .) the Zäsenberg ( $6050^{\prime}$ ), on the grassy slopes of which sheep are pastnred in summer. - The ascent of the $\#$ Zäsenberghorn (7687'; magnificent survey) takes $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Zäsenberg (guide 12 fr .). On every side tower huge and wild masses of ice, and the view is bounded by the imposing peaks of the Eiger, Schreckhörner, Fiescherhörner, etc. Experts may now cross the Fiescherfirn, descend the Kalli by a steep path, and return to the Bäregg ( 7.8 hrs ; a comparatively easy round ; guide 20 fr .).

The Mettenberg (Mittelberg, 10,193'; 8 hrs . from Grindelwald, by the Bäregg; guide 30 tr.) commands an imposing view of the Wetterhorn, Schreckhorn, Finsteraarhorn, and the Upper Grindelwald Glacier, but is seldom ascended.

The favourite ascent is that of the "Wetterhorn $(12,150$ '; $10-11 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 60 , porter 45 fr .), first scaled in 1844 . The ascent, now made almost daily in fine summer weather, requires perseverance and a steady head. From the Chalet Milchbach by the ladders to the upper glacier, see p. 186. We cross the glacier to the Schlupf and traverse the precipitous Ziebachs platten, with numerons brooks in wet weather, to the Gleckstein Club Hut ( $7670^{\prime} ; 4^{11} / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Grindelwald), where the night is spent. Thence over the Krinne-Firn and by a steep ascent to the snow-covered Wettersattel or Sätteli ( $11,615^{\prime}$ ), between the Mittelhorn $\left(12,165^{\prime}\right)$ and the Vordere Wetterhorn or Hasli-Jungfrau ( $12,150^{\prime}$ ), and to the left to the top of the latter, $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. The Rosenhorn ( $12,110^{\prime}$ ), the third peak, is better ascended from the Dossen Hut (p. 195). Descent to the Dossen Hut (and Rosenlaui or Innertkirchen), see pp. 195, 197 (guide from Grindelwald, 70 or 80 fr .). From the Gleckstein Hut over the Rosenegg to the Dossen Hut, see p. 195; over the Bergli-Joch to the Gauli Hut, see p. 197. - The Berglistock (12, $000^{\prime}$ ), to the right of the Bergli-Joch ( $5^{1 / 2}-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Gleckstein Hut; gaide 70 fr. ), commands a superb view of the Schreckhörner, Wetterhörner, etc.

Ascent of the Jungfrau, p. 183; Finsteraarhorn (from Grindelwald viâ the Agassiz-Joch, dangerous as a descent on account of falling stones), p. 199. - Gross-Schreckhorn ( $13.3 \div 5^{\prime}$; from the Schwarzegg Club Hut 7 -S hrs.; guide 80 fr .), ascended for the first time by Mr. Leslie Stephen in 1861, very difficult. - Gross-Lauteraarhorn ( $13,265^{\prime}$; guide 80 fr .), also very difficult. - Klein-Schreckhorn (11,4i5'), from the Schwarzegg Club Hut 5-6 hrs., interesting and for expert climbers not difficult (guide 60 fr.). - Mönch ( $13,465^{\prime}$; first scaled by Dr. Porges of Vienna in 1857), ascended either from the Bergli Hut by the Upper Mönchjoch (p. 188) and the S.E. arête in $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 70 fr .), or trom the Guggi Hut (p. 184) by the N. side in $8-9$ hrs. (very difficult and not always feasible; guide 80 fr .). - Eiger ( $13.040^{\prime}$; first ascended by Mr. Chas. Barrington in 1858), from the Little Scheidegg by the Eiger Glacie: and up the W . arête, $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 80 fr .). All these are for thorough experts only.

Passes. To the Grimsel Hospice over the "Strahlegg ( $10,995^{\prime} ; 14 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ two guides, 40 fr . each), a grand but tnilsome route. The night is passed in the Schwarzegg Club Hut ( $3265^{\prime}$ ), on the upper Eismeer, $5-51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Grindelwald. Thence a steep ascent over ice and rock to the ( 3 hrs .) pass, lying between the Gross-Lauteraarhorn and the S'rahlegghörner; descent over the $(3 / 4-1 \mathrm{hr}$.) Strahleggfirn and the Finsteraar and Unteraar Glaciers to the ( 6 hrs. ) Grimsel Hospice (p. 193). In the reverse direction the route is less trying and mure interesting (from the Pavillon Dollfuss to the Strahlegg 5 hrs., thence to Grindelwald 6 hrs.). - Over the Finsteraar-Joch ( $11,025^{\prime} ; 14 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 50 fr .), between the Strahlegghörner and the Agassizhorn, very trying, with splendid views of the Finsteraarhorn, etc. - Over the Lauteraar-Sattel ( $10,355^{\prime} ; 14-15$ hrs.; guide 50 fr.), between the Schreckhörner and the Berglistock, fatiguing, but usually without serious difficulty to proficients. The night is spent in the ( 5 hrs .) Gleckstein-Hütte; thence we ascend the Upper Grindelvoald-Firn in 5 hrs . to the pass, which affords a grand survey of the Gross-Schreckhorn, Lauteraarhorn, etc. We then descend a steep snow-slope to the Lauteraarfirn (sometimes guarded by a wide 'Bergschrund' or chasm) and the ( 3 hrs.) Pavillon Dollfuss (p. 199).

Passes from Grindelwald to the Eggishorn (p. 327), all difficult and for experts, only, with able guides. The Jungfrau-Joch ( $11,090^{\prime}$; guide 80 fr.), between the Jungfrau and Mönch, from the Little Scheidegg to the Eggishorn Hotel in 16 hrs., viâ the Guggi Glacier, is very difficult and dangeruns. - The passage of the Mönchjoch ( 11,385 '; guide 60 fr .), 17 hrs. from Grindelwald to the Eggishorn Hotel, is facilitated by spending a night in the Bergli-Hütte (see below), or when the journey is made in the reverse direction, in the Concordia Pavilion (p.327). This is the most frequented of these passes, but it is also difficult and should not be attempted except when the snow is in good order. From the Bäregg we cross the lower Eismeer to the opposite moraine, and ascend the precipitons Kalli for $2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$; then cross the much crevassed Grindelwould-Fiescher Glacier to the ( 3 hrs.; 8-9 hrs. from Grindelwald) Bergli Club Hut ( $10,825^{\prime}$ ), commanding a grand though not extensive view of the Fiescherwand, Schreckhörner, Eiger, etc. From the hat a steep climb of $1-1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the Lower Mönchjoch ( $11,910^{\prime}$ ), between the Mönch and Walcherhorn; thence either to the right over the Upper Mönchjoch $\left(11,870^{\prime}\right)$, between the Mönch and Trugberg, to the Jungfraufirn ( $\mathrm{p}, 183$ ) and down to the Great Aletsch Glacier. and the ( $61 / 2-71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Eggishorn Hotel; or to the left, over the vast Ewoigschneefeld, to the Aletsch Glacier (the two routes unite at the Concordia Pavilion). - The Eiger-Joch (11,875'; guides 100 fr.$)$, between the Eiger and Mönch, 20 hrs . from the Wengern-Alp to the Eggishorn, and the Fiescher-Joch or Ochsen-Joch (about 12,630'), to the E. of the Kleine Fiescherhorn or Ochs $\left(12,812^{\prime}\right), 14-15 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Schwarzegg Club Hut to the Eggishorn Hotel, are both very toilsome and difficult.

49. The Faulhorn.

Guide (unnecessary): from Grindelwald and back 10, if a night be spent at the top $13 \mathrm{fr} \cdot$; from the Schynige Platte 6, with descent to Grindelwald 12 , or viâ the Great Scheidegg to Meiringen or Im-Hof 25 fr . - Chair Porters 6 fr . each; if they pass the night on the top, 12 fr. (three generally suffice; a bargain should be made beforehand). - Horse from Grindelwald and back 20 (or with one night out, 25) fr.; to the top and viâ the Great Scheidegg to Meiringen or Im-Hof 40 fr .; from the Schynige Platte to the top 20 fr .; from Meiringen to the Faulhorn in one day 30 fr ., to the Faulhorn and Grindelwald 36 fr . - *INN on the summit (not cheap, R. 5, L. \& A. $11 / 2$, B. $2 \frac{1}{4}$, D. 5 fr ., cup of coffee 75 c .).

The *Faulhorn (8803'), rising between the Lake of Brienz and the valley of Grindelwald, and composed of friable, calcareous schist (foul, 'rotten'), affords a closer survey than the Rigi of the giants of the Bernese Oberland (see Panorama). To the N., at our feet, lies the Lake of Brienz, with its mountains, from the Angstmatthorn to the Rothhorn; part of Lake Thun, with the Niesen and Stockhorn, is also visible; to the N.E. are parts of the Lakes of Lucerne and Zug, with Pilatus and the Rigi ; then Lakes Morat and Neuchâtel.

From Grindilwald to the Faulhorn ( $43 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$; descent 3 hrs .). From the Bear Hotel we cross the road and ascend straight between the hotel-stables and the new chalet; after 3 min., to the right (the path to the left leads to Hôt. Victoria, p. 185) ; 10 min ., at the fork, straight on; 5 min ., to the right; 2 min ., to the left, past a cottage. The footpath soon unites with the bridle-path that begins opposite the former Eagle Hotel (ascent thence to this point $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). We now follow the main path, partly through wood. After $40 \mathrm{~min} .$, on the Hertenbühl pasture ( $5157^{\prime}$ ), the path turns sharply to the left, ascending past a little cabaret into ( 10 min .) wood; 10 min ., to the right, past a small pond; 20 min ., a gate; 25 min ., Waldspitz ( $6200^{\prime}$; Hôt.-Pens. Alpenrose, unpretending, R. $21 / 2$ fr.), with a splendid view. This point is nearly halfway. Farther on ( 20 min. ), to the left, is a fall of the Mühlibach, which we cross near the upper chalets of the Bach-Alp (6496'). The path keeps to the left at the fork 10 min . farther on, crosses a brook, and ascends to the ( 35 min .) Bach-See ( $7428^{\prime}$ ), in a stony basin, bounded on the left by the Röthihorn ( $9052^{\prime}$ ) and Simelihorn ( $9030^{\prime}$ ), and on the right by the Ritzengrätli ( $8282^{\prime}$ ). (By the stone hut the path for those descending to the Scheidegg diverges to the left, see below.) The top of the Faulhorn is now in view. The path, indicated by stakes, ascends rapidly for nearly 1 hr . over a stony chaos. We pass another stone hut (Alpine horn), cross the nearly level pastures at the foot of the peak, and reach the top by a zigzag path in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more.

For the Return to Grindelwald ( 3 hrs .) pedestrians may take the path by the Buss-Alp, which diverges to the right at the last-mentioned stone hut. To the W. of the upper chalets rises the Burg (7247'), which is sometimes ascended from Grindelwald direct in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. for the sake of the view.

From the Schynige Platte to the Faulhorn ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. descent $21 / 2-3$ hrs.). The picturesque bridle-path, the beginning of which is indicated by a finger-post below the station (p. 173), first crosses the Iselten-Alp, below the steep Oberberghorn (6791'). Beyond ( 20 min .) a gate we keep to the right, skirting the S. slopes of the Laucherhorn (8333'), and traverse the rocky debris of the Bütschi, beyond which, at the foot of the Sägishörner, a footpath descends along the brook to the right. (In descending, therefore, we here keep to the right, with the hotel on the Schynige Platte in sight, and the Geisshorn and Gummihorn above it.) We turn to the left and cross the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Schynige Platte) watershed of the Egg ( $6915^{\prime}$ ), whence the new bridle-path (red way-marks), to the right, gradually ascends on the N. slope of the Sägisgrat. Farther on, high above the Sägisthal-See, the path rounds the N.E. end of the Sägisgrat to its $S$. side (refuge-hut; 1 hr .) and ascends the N . flank of the Winteregg. About 10 min . farther on, where the path emerges from behind the Winteregg, a beautiful view of the Blümlisalp and other snow-mountains is suddenly disclosed. Hence to the top of the Faulhorn an ascent of $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more.

From the Faulhorn to the Grbat Schbidegg (guide advisable; $3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; ascent 4 hrs .). The path diverges to the left from the Grindelwald path, near the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) hut on the Bach-See, traverses the stony slopes of the Ritzengrätli, and is nearly level for some distance; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., a gate between the Bach-Alp and the Wid-derfeld-Alp; we follow the main path to the left, not down the bed of the brook; 12 min ., we cross the ridge of the Langenbalm-Egg ( $7106^{\prime}$ ), with a magnificent view; 8 min., we keep to the left and cross the brook; 7 min., we descend to the left over black, crumbling slate. Beyond a gate the path becomes indistinct at places, the direction being to the left on the slope above the upper Grindel-

Alp, towards the conspicuous Scheidegg Inn (to the left of the Wetterhorn); $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., a small brook is crossed; 0 min., another brook; 10 min ., a rude bridge over the Bergelbach; 5 min., upper chalets of the Grindel-Alp $\left(6410^{\prime}\right)$. At ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a gate we ascend to the right on this side of the fence, pass through the next gate ( 12 min .), and make for the top of a hill; 8 min., Scheidegg Inn (p. 196).

In ascending from the Scheidegg, be careful not to turn to the left at the bridge over the Bergelbach; farther on, where the path is lost on the pastures, again avoid turning to the left, but follow a direction parallel with a long enclosure lying a little to the left, and make for the slope of the mountain, at the foot of which the path is regained.

The view from the Faulhorn is partially intercepted by the neighbouring group of the Simelihorn ( $9030^{\circ}$ ) and the Röthihorn ( $9052^{\prime}$ ), rising between the Finsteraarhorn and the Schreckhorn, which conceals part of the Alpine chain and the valley of Grindelwald. The Röthihorn, from which the magnificent view is uninterrupted, is ascended from the BachSee in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (guide advisable; from the Faulhorn 5 fr .).

The view is still grander and more extensive from the *Schwarzhorn ( $9613^{\prime}$ ), which, with the Wildgerst ( $9488^{\prime}$ ), intercepts the view from the Faulhorn on the E. side. (The lakes of Lungern, Sarnen, Alpnach, and Küssnacht are visible hence, all lying in the same line.) The ascent is made from the Faulhorn in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; from the Great Scheidegg by the Grindel-Alp and the Krinnenboden in 3 hrs .; from the Hotel Schwarzwaldgletscher (p. 195) in $33 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$; or from Axalp (p. 193) in 6 hrs . (guide 12 fr .).

Meiringen (1968'), the principal station on the Brünig Railway (R. 37), is the chief village of the Hasli-Thal, the inbabitants of which, according to tradition, immigrated with the Schwyzers from Scandinavia. The village, almost entirely burned down in 1891, but since rebuilt in an improved style, lies on the right bank of the Aare, in a wide valley, surrounded by wooded mountains, above which rise several snowy peaks. To the S. appear the Reichenbach Falls (see below), with the snow-fields of the Wellhorn and the Rosenlaui Glacier above them. The Mühlebach, Alpbach, and Dorfbach, descending from the Hasleberg to the N. of the village, form considerable falls. The massive detached church-tower of Meiringen originally belonged to a castle. Both tower and church have repeatedly been unearthed from the debris which the Alpbach used to deposit before its canalisation. Meiringen is a pleasant place of sojourn on account of its fine situation and favourable climate. Woodcarving is extensively practised here. - To the E. of the village rises the ruined tower of Resti.

The *Gorge of the Aare (Aareschlucht; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the station; carr. there and back, with stay of $1 \mathrm{hr} ., 4 \mathrm{fr}$., with $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.'s stay, and back from the Lammi Inn, 6 fr.; two-horse 7 and 10 fr .) is the chief point of interest near Meiringen, next to the Reichenbach Falls. We follow the main road to beyond the Hirsch, diverge to the right, cross the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Willigen-Brücke ( p .196 ), and take the road to the left (that to the right leading to the Hôt. Reichenbach, p. 190). At the entrance to the gorge is a Restaurant, where tickets ( 1 fr .) are obtained. The wild and romantic rocky gorge, which carries the Aare through the Kirchet (p. 196), is about $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. long, and has been made accessible by means of an iron gallery. After 10 min . we pass a pretty waterfall on the left. Hence we reach the head of the gorge in 20 min ., which is on the S . side of the Kirchet, on the Innertkirchen riad (p. 197). We return the same way, or we ascend through the 'Finstere Schlucht' to ( 4 hrs.) the Lammi Inn, on the road over the Kirchet, by which we regain the Willigen-Brücke in 25 minutes. - A finger-post, 2 min . from the Lammi Inn, indicates the way to the upper Reichenbach Fall ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; comp. p. 195).

From the Hotel Reichenbach an electrical wire-rope railway runs to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the *Upper Reichenbach Fall (fare 1 fr ., there and back $11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). The line ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long; $m$ ximum gradient $60: 100$ ) crosses the Reichenbach near the central fall and ends (buffet) on the left side of the fine upper fall, which descends in one huge leap into a deep rocky bacin. On summer evenings the fall is illuminated by electricity. - Walkers from the Hôt. Reiclienbach f.llow the footpath ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; sign-posts) which is repeatedly crosced by the wire-rope railway; or (better) they follow the new road viầ Willigen ( p .194 ) 10 the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pens. Wyss (carr. to this point 7, with two borses 14 fr.$)$, and take the path to the right, which leads to ( 6 min .) the pavilion (rfmts.) on the right side of the upper fall.

About 1 M . to the N . of Meiringen is the Gorge of the Alpbach (adm. 50 c .), commanding a fine view of Meiringen, the Wetterhorn group, the Rosenlaui Glacier. and the lower Hasli-Thal as far as the Lake of Brienz (small restaurant at the head of the gorge). In the season the Alpbach Falls are electrically illuminated in the evening.

On the Hasleberg, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N . of Meiringen, is the Hot.-Pens. Alpbach ( $2854^{\prime} ;$ R. $21 / 2$. D. 3, S. 2, pens. $51 / 2-8$ fr.), with a view of the Wellhorn and Wetterhorn group. Abont $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. farther to the E., in Reuti ( 3150 '), are the Pensions Kohler (with restaurant), Huber, and Von Bergen. - About 3 M. to the N.W. of the Hôt. Alpbach (good path by Golderen and Weisstanne or Wasserwendi; direct road from Meiringen in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., one-horse carriage 9 , two-horse 16 fr .) lies the village of Hohfluh ( $3443^{\prime}$; ${ }^{}$ Hot.-Pens. Hohfluh, 6 fr.; Pens. Alpenruh; Pens. Tännler), another fine point of view, visited as a health-resort. Numerous pleasant excursions: to the Schoren-Alp ( $4115^{\prime} ; 111 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.); Giebel ( $6680^{\prime} ; 21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; see p. 141); *Planplatte ( $7340^{\prime}$; interesting), ascent by the Mägis-Alp in 4 hrs , descent by the Gummen-Alp, 3 hrs . - The "Hohenstollen ( $8150^{\circ}$; splendid view) may be ascended from Hohfluh by the Balis-Alp in 4 hrs. (guide J, from Meiringen 12, from the Hôt. Alpbach 7 fr.), or from Meiringen direct, by the Mägis-Alp and the Schicarzenfuh in 5 hrs. Descent to Melchsee-Frutt, see p. 140. - Over the Weilries to Melchsee-Frult, see p. 140.

The train skirts the right bank of the canalized Aare. The beautiful Oltschibach and other cascades fall from cliffs on the left. Beyond (5 M.) Brienzwyler (Restaurant Balmhof), where it crosses the Brünig road, the line skirts the geologically interesting Ballenberg ( $238 \jmath^{\prime}$ ), then bends to the right, and follows the bank of Lake Brienz, by Kienholz, a village destroyed by a mud-stream of the Lammbach in 1896 and 1897, to - $71 / 2$ M. Brienz. - The Station is at Tracht, to the E. of Brienz, close to the station of the Rothhorn Railvoay, and the Steamboat Pier. Most of the steamers also touch near the Hìt. de l'Ours in Brienz. - Hotels. Crorx Blasche, at Tracht, near the stations, R... L., \& A. $11 / 2 \cdot 4$, B. $11 / 4$ D. $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; Hôtel de lours ( $B a ̈ r$ ), $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the stations, with a terrace on the lake, R., L., \& A 2-4, B. 11/4, D. 3 fr.; Schūtzen. to the E. of the stations, plain. - English Church Service in summer (at the Hôt. de l'Ours).

The village of Brienz ( 2530 inhab.), adjoined on the E. by Tracht, stretches for $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. along the bank of the Lake of Brienz, backed by green pastures dotted with fruit-trees, above which rises the Brienzer Grat, whence descend the falls of the Trachtbach and the Mühlbach. Brienz is the centre of the Oberland wood-carving. which here employs about 600 persons, and of which the Industrie-Halle, near the Bear Hotel, contains good specimens. The Wood Carving School deserves a visit. On a hill about $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther to the W. is the Church, commanding the valley of Meiringen, with the Sustenhörner in the background, the Faulhorn chain, Sulegg, Morgenberghorn, etc.

The *Brienzer Rothhorn (7715'), the highest peak of the Brienzer Grat, is a famous point of view. Rack-and-Pinion Railway (opened in 1892) in $11 / 3 \mathrm{hr}$. (up 8 fr ., down 4 fr ., there and back 10 fr .). This line ( $4^{3 / 4} \mathrm{M}$. long; maximum gradient $2 \overline{5}: 100$ ascends through lnzuriant meadows, soon affording a view of the Lake of Brienz and the Schwarzh rn range. Beyund the bridge across the Trachtbach the ascent becomes steeper; the line approaches the Mühlbach, turns to the right by means of the short Schroarzflin Tunnel, and monnts to the ( $11 / 3 \mathrm{M}$.) station of Geldried ( $3360^{\prime}$ ). To the right we overlook the valley of Meiringen and the Sustenbörner. Describing a large loop, we pass throngh the Stockisgraben Tunnel and the five tunnels of the Planalpfluh to the (2M.) station Hausstadt ( 4415 ; rfmts.), in view of the Blümlisalp, Doldenhorn, and Wildstrabel. Then on the left, and, farther up, on the right, bank of the Miihlbach, over the pastures of the Planalp, past the chalets of Mittelstaffel ( $5023^{\prime}$ ), and beyond the Kühmatt Tunnel ( 1.0 yds .) we reach the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{MI}$.) watering-station of Oberstaffel ( $590^{\circ} 0$ ). Finally the line sweeps round the uppermost valler, bends back by means of the two Schönegg Tunnels, and reaches ita terminus at ( $43 / 4$ M.) station Rothhorn-Kulm ( $7388^{\prime}$ ), on the Breitengrat, 3 min . below the *Hotel Rothhorn-Kulm ( $744^{5}{ }^{1} ;$ R. $31 / 2$, B. $1^{1 / 2}, ~ D .31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.) and $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. below the summit (good path). on which a triangular stone marks the contact of the cantons of Bern, Lucerne, and Unterwalden. The $=$ View (panorama at the hotel; best in the morning and evening) vies in extent and picturesque charm with that from the Rigi, especially as the great peaks are nearer. The prospect embraces the chain of the Uri, Engelberg, and Bernese Alps, with the Lake of Brienz in the foreground; the HasliThal from Meiringen nearly to the Grimsel; on the other side the small Ey-See, the Lake of Sarnen, a considerable part of the Lake of Lucerne with the Rigi, part of the Lake of Zug, and a long strip of the Lake of Neuchâtel. - From the Rothhorn to Giswil, see p. 141; viâ Sörenberg and Flühli to Schüpfheim, see p. 147.

The Lake of Brienz (1857'), $83 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. Iong, and $11 / 4-11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. wide, $500^{\prime}$ deep near the Giessbach and $860^{\prime}$ near Oberried, lies $20^{\prime}$ higher than the Lake of Thun. It is enclosed by lofty wooded rocks and mountains. A beautiful road skirts its N. bank (from Brienz to Interlaken, $10 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{M}$. ; one-horse carr. 8-10 fr.). To the S.E., in the background, are the snow-clad Sustenhörner, to the right of which are the Thierberge. The steamboat crosses the lake to the ( 10 min.$)$ -

Giessbach. - From the landing-place (restaurant) we may walk to the terrace opposite the falls by a broad road in 20 min ., or ascend by the Cable Tramway (380' long; gradient 28:100) in 6 min . (there and back 1 fr .).

Hotels. "Hôtel Giessbach ( $23 C 0^{\prime}$ above the sea), a large establishment, with a restaurant on the terrace and a pension (see below), R., L., \& A. from 3 , B. $11 / 2$, lunch $31 / 2$, D. $41 / 2$, S. $31 / 2$, pens. $10-15 \mathrm{fr}$; illumination of the falls 1 fr . (for the first evening only), music 2 fr . per week; post, telegraph, telephone, and railway ticket cffice. In the Pensionshaus (the old hotel; pens $71 / 2$ - 12 fr .) is a well-equipped hydropathic, with electric baths. English Church Service at the hotel. - "Hôtel Bead-Site, 1/4 M. higher, less pretentious, R., S., \& B. 3, D. 3, pens. 6 fr.

The *Giessbach is one of the prettiest and most popalar spots in the Bernese Oberland. The stream, copious at all seasons, rises on the N. slope of the Schwarzhorn (p. 1S0), and on its way to the Lake of Brienz, $980^{\prime}$ below, forms seven cascades falling from rock to rock, and framed in dark-green foliage. Only the lowest fall is seen from the steamer; the terrace in front of the hotel affords a complete view. The falls are crossed by three bridges. Paths lead on both banks to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) second bridge, whence a badly kept path ascends on the right bank to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) third and highest bridge, where the Giessbach, issuing from a sombre ravine, is precipitated into an abyss, $190^{\prime}$ in depth. (Best view from a projecting rock to the right of the bridge.) A wooden gallery enables visitors to pass behind the second fall. About noon rainbows are formed in the falls. - The falls are illuminated with Bengal lights every evening at 9.30 from 15 th May to the end of September.

A guide-post behind the 'Etablissement Hydrothérapique' indicates the way, to the left, to the ( 20 min .) Rauft, a wooded rock on the N. side of the valley, rising abraptly $600^{\prime}$ above the lake and commanding a view of the Lake of Brienz. - The path to the right from the guide-post leads to the Alpine hamlet of Enge, situated among beantiful pastures. Pretty view at the point ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$ ) where the path reaches the lake. We then descend past the Näseli to the Aare Bridge and the Meiringen and Brienz road (p. 192). - Above the Giessbach ( 3 hrs ; porter 5 fr .) lies Axalp ( $4985^{\prime} ;{ }^{*}$ Pens. Axalp, pens. $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{fr}$.; ${ }^{\text {P Pens. Bellevue, }} 10 \mathrm{~min}$. farther on, both unpretending), a health-resort, whence the Axalphorn ( $7635^{\prime}$; 2 hrs.), the Faulhorn (p. 188; 5 hrs ), the Schwarzhorn ( 9610 ; $6 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide $12 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ comp. p. 150), and the Wildgerst ( 9490 '; 5 hrs .) may be ascended. - About 1 hr . from Pens. Axalp ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Giessbach) is the HinterburgSee ( $5000^{\prime}$ ), charmingly situated in wood at the base of the Oltschikopf.

Ascent of the Facliorn (p. 183) from the Giessbach, 7 hrs . (guide 12 fr. ), fatiguing at places, especially on the Bätten-Alp, which is exposed to the morning-sun. To the S. of the Schwabhorn this path joins the bridle-path from the Schynige Platte to the Faulhorn (p. 188).

Baedeker, Switzerland. 18th Edition.

From the Giessbach to Interlaken ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$ ). A good, well-shaded path, crossing the first bridge over the falls, and bearing to the right (see linger-posts), leads to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hochfluh, a charming point of view. It then runs high above the lake and descends to ( 1 hr .) Iseltuoald (see below), from which a road (steep ascent at first) leads to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Sengg, (3 M.) Bönigen, and ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Interlaken.

From the Giessbach the ordinary steamers steer to Oberried, on the N. bank of the lake, but the express-boats follow the precipitous S. bank, past the small wooded Schnecken-Insel, with its little chapel, direct to the pretty village of Iseltwald (*Hôt. - Pens. Iseltwald, 5-6 fr. ; *Hôt.-Pen. du Lac; Zum Strand), on the S. bank, whence a picturesque road leads to Interlaken ( 6 M .; see above). - Then Niederried, charmingly situated on the N. bank at the foot of the Augstmatthorn (p. 172). Farther on, beyond a wooded promontory, is Ringgenberg ( p .172 ), with its rain and church. On the S. bank is the influx of the Lütschine, which descends from the valley of Laterbrannen. The steamer stops at Bönigen (p. 168) and enters the canalised Aare. The pier at Interlaken is near the railway station Interlaken-Ost (p. 167).

51. From Meiringen to Grindelwald.

Comp. Map, p. 174.

$\pi 1 / 2-S \mathrm{hrs}$. Road (and also footpath viâ the Reichenbach Falls) to the Zuirgi Inn $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$ : bridle-path thence to Rosenlaui $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (descent from Rusenlaui to Meiringen 2 hrs .); from Rosenlaui to the Great Scheidegg $23 / 4$ (descent $13 / 4$ ) hrs.; from the Scheidegg to Grindeluald 2 (ascent 3 ) hours. [Walkers bound for Rosenlaui cannot use the wire-rope railway, as there is no bridge over the chasm of the Reichenbach.] - Guide (unnecessary) 12 fr ., including the Faulhorn, 20 fr . - Horse from Meiringen to Rosenlaui 10. Scheidegg 15 , Grindelwald 25 fr .

Meiringen, see p. 190. At the hamlet of Willigen, 1 M . to the S.E. of the rail. station of Meiringen, the new road diverges to the right from the Grimsel road and ascends in windings, passing $(1,2$ hr. ) the Hôt.-Pens. Wyss and finally traversing wood, to ( 40 min .) the Zuirgi Inn (see below). A path to the right at the Hôt. Wyss ascends to ( 6 min .) the pavilion (rfmts.) on the right side of the *Upper Fall of the Reichenbach, the spray of which bedews everything in the vicinity. Opposite, on the left bank, is the terminus of the Wire Rope Railway (p. 191).

Thnse who wish to visit the less important Lower Falls turn to the right beyond the ( 10 min ) Willigen-Brïcke (p. 1!6) and reach ( 5 min .) the $\boldsymbol{H} \hat{0} \ell$. Reichenbach, at the $f$ ot of the hill from which the falls descend. The Lower Fall is 5 min . to the W . of this hotel (road); beside it is a saw-mill. We now return to the hotel and follow the broad bridle-path behind it, which is often crossed by the cable-railway. After 10 min . a foot-path diverges to the right t, the falls and 10 Rosenlaui; 5 min., hut commanding the Central or Kessel Fall. Here we ascend to the left to ( $2 \overline{\mathrm{~J} m i n}$.) the Upper Fall.

From the above-mentioned parilion a narrow path, passing a gallery (riew of the fall from the side), leads back to the road in 25 minutes. The latter brings us in 3 min . to the little inn Zum Zuirgi (3200'), orerlooking the Hasli-Thal and the mountains around the Brünig and Susten. In a gorge to the right the Reichenbach forms another fine fall ( 30 c .).

Travellers from Rosenlaui to Innertirirchen (the Grimsel, Engstlen-Alp, etc.), may, omitting the Falls of the Reichenbach and Meiringen, save nearly an hour by following the road for 8 min . beyond the path to the falls, and then turning to the right by a footpath to the village of ( 25 min .) Geissholz (2628'), hidden among fruit-trees. Here we ascend the pastures, and then rapidly descend the Kirchet (p. 196) to ( 40 min .) Im-Hof (p. 197).

The bridle-path now ascends the Reichenbach, high above the right bank. Before us soon appears the Wellhorn, with the Wetterhorn to the right of it, and the Rosenhorn behind it, to the left; farther on, the Rosenlaui Glacier also comes in sight. Beyond the Kaltenbrunnen Saw Mill (3986'; Inn, pens. $31 / 2-4 \frac{1}{2}$ fr.) we cross a bridge ( 4238 ') to the left bank, and reach the ( $1^{1 / 3} \mathrm{hr}$.) Gschwanden-mad-Alp (4260'), commanding a celebrated View : the bare pinnacles of the Engelhörner ( $9130^{\prime}$ ), the beautiful Rosenlaui Glacier between the Dossenhorn $\left(10,303^{\prime}\right)$ and the Wellhorn $\left(10,485^{\prime}\right)$, and the snow-clad pyramid of the Wetterhorn $\left(12,150^{\prime}\right)$ to the right, together with the beautiful foreground, present a picture unsurpassed in Switzerland. Beyond the bridge the path forks; the main branch, to the left, leads to ( $20-25 \mathrm{~min}$.) Rosenlaui, the right branch is a shorter route to the Schwarzwaldgletscher Hotel (see below).

The Baths of Rosenlaui (4363'; *Hôt.-Pens. Curhaus, R., L., & A. 3-6, B. $11 / 2$, lunch 3, D. $41 / 2$, pens. $8-12$ fr.; Engl. Ch. Serv.) occupy a secluded site in the well-watered, fir-clad valley of the Reichenbach, which forms a pretty fall in the gorge behind the Curhaus.

From the other side of the bridge opposite the Curhaus a path to the left leads to the Rosenlaui Glacier. One of the guide-posts on this path shows the way (wooden steps) to the glacier stream. The glacier, famed for the beauty and purity of its ice, has receded so much of late that we must ascend $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. on the left lateral moraine, to a height of about $5740^{\prime}$ (very rongh towards the end), in order to get a survey of it.

The Dossen-Hütte ( $8860^{\prime}$ ), grandly situated 5 hrs . above Rosenlaui, affords a highly interesting expedition for mountaineers (reached also from Im-Hof through the Urbach-Thet in $61 / 2-7$ hrs., see p.197). This is the startingpoint for the Dossenhorn ( $10,300^{\prime} ; 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.). the Wellhorn ( $10,485^{\prime} ; 21^{1 / 2}-3 \mathrm{hrs}$., laborious), the Renfenhorn ( 10.777 ; 3 hrs.), the Hangend-Gletscherhorn ( $10,810^{\prime} ; 4$ hrs.). the Rosenhorn ( $12,110^{\prime}$ ), by the Rosenegg (see below) and the S E. arête in $5 \mathrm{hrs}$. , and tue Wetterhorn (Hasi-Jungfrau, 12,15U'), by the Wettersattel $\left(11,615^{\prime}\right)$ in 6 hrs. (much easier hence thin from the Gleckstein Hut, p. 187). From the Dossen Hat we may cross the Wetterlimmi $\left(10.440^{\prime}\right)$, the Gauli Glacier, and the Gauli Pass $\left(10,260^{\prime}\right)$ to the Grimsel, $14-15$ hrs., fatiguing; with this route the ascent of the Ewigschneehorn ( 10,930 ) is easily combined (p. 199). - From the Dossen Hut over the Ros-negg ( $11355^{\prime}$ ), between the Rosenhorn and Bergli-Joch, to the Gleckstein Hut $5-51 / 2$ hrs., not difficult for experts (see p. 187).

The path to Grindelwald now ascends the right bank of the Reichenbach, at first on the wooded N. slope of the Welligrat, and then continues level for a time. After 20 min . we cross the stream to the Breitenboden-Alp $\left(4650^{\prime}\right)$, and ascend on the left bank, crossing the Pfannibach and traversing the Schwarzwald-Alp (4810'; passing through a gate), to the (1-11/4 hr.)*Hôt.-Pens. Schwarzwald-gletscher ( $5020^{\prime} ;$ R. $21 / 2-3$, B. $11 / 4$ fr., unpretending), prettily situated amidst wood. To the left are the precipices of the Wellhorn ( 10,485 ') and Wetterhorn ; high up, the Schwarzwald Glacier. We pass a Saw Mill, quit the wood, cross a bridge ( $25 \mathrm{~min} . ; 5315^{\prime}$ ), and ascend over the Alpiglen-Alp to the (1 hr.) -

Great Scheidegg or Hasli-Scheidegg ( $6430^{\prime}$; Inn, R. $31 / 2$, B. $1^{1 / 2}$, D. $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$., mediocre), which commands a striking view to the W. The smiling valley of Grindelwald, bounded on the S.W. by the pastures and woods of the Little Scheidegg, contrasts picturesquely with the bare precipices of the Wetterhorn, which tower giddily above us. To the S.W. of the Wetterhorn are the Mettenberg, Fieschergrat, Mönch, Eiger, and lastly the Tschingelgrat, Gspaltenhorn, and Blümlisalp. To the N. the view is intercepted by the sombre Schwarzhorn and other peaks of the Faulhorn chain.

The Rudte to the Faulhorn ( 4 hrs .; see p. 190) diverges to the right close to the hotel, and cannot be mistaken in clear weather. The ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) upper chalets of the Grindelalp, where the Faulhorn view begins to open, are visible from the Great Scheidegg. Thence to the top, see p. 189.

We descend from the Scheidegg, with the church of Grindelwald in sight below. At the Obere Lauchbühl-Hütte (5900'; ascent to the Scheidegg, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), and at other points, we are greeted with a blast of the Alpine horn, the notes of which are echoed by the Wetterhorn. To the left of the Mettenberg, the Little and Great Schreckhorn and the Lauteraarhorn become visible. In 1 hr . we reach the Hôtel Wetterhorn, near the Upper Grindelwald Glacier. Thence to Grindelwald, $3 / 4-1 \mathrm{hr}$., see p. 185.

52. From Meiringen to the Rhone Glacier. Grimsel.

Only 20 passengers are booked for each trip; no extra-post supplied on this route. (to Guttannen 12, 22, 30 fr.; Handegg 17, 32, 40 ; Grimsel Hospice $27,50,65$ fr.); from Meiringen to Andermatt 65, 120, 165, Göschenen 72, 135. 175. Fiesch 55. 100, 135, Brig $75,140,185 \mathrm{fr}$. (occasionally cheaper return-carriages). From Im-Hof to the Grimsel one-horse carriage 23, two-horse 42, Rhone Glacier 32 or 60 , Göschenen 65 or 120 , Briy 72 or 155 fr . - On Foot ( 9 -10 hrs.) : Innertkirchen $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., Guttannen $23 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$., Handegg $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., Grimsel Hospice 2 hrs ., Rhone Glacier $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (in the reverse direction about $81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. in all).

Meiringen, see p. 190. We cross the Aare by the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Willi-gen-Brücke (passing on the left the road to the Gorge of the Aare, p. 191, through which runs the shortest footpath to Innertkirchen), pass the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) hamlet of Willigen, where the road to the Zwirgi diverges to the right (p. 194), and ascend the Kirchet; a wooded hill, sprinkled with granite blocks, which divides the valley into the Lower and Upper Hasli-Thal. Near the top (1 M.) is the auberge
'Zur Lammi' (2313'), where the path from the Aare Gorge through the 'Finstere Schlucht' (p. 191) debouches.

The road descends the Kirchet in long windings (short-cuts), with views of the Gelmerhörner at the head of the valley and of the Ritzlihorn to the right. At the third and last curve we pass the S. entrance of the Aare Gorge (pp. 191, 196). The road then traverses the fertile basin of Hasli im Grund, and, at the inn Zur Alpenrose (unpretending), crosses the Aare to (1 M.; 3 M. from Meiringen) Im-Hof (2053'; *Hôt. Hof, with the dépendance Alpenhof, R., L., \& A. $21 / 2-3$, B. $11 / 2$, D. 3 , pens. $5-6 \mathrm{fr}$.), the chief village in the parish of Innertkirchen, where the Susten (p. 144) and EngstlenAlp (p. 142) routes diverge to the left.

Travellers from the Grimsel to Grindelwald may go from Im-Hof direct (or better from the Kirchet, see p. 196), by Winkel and Geissholz, to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ) Upper Reichenbach Fall (p. 194; enquire for the beginning of the path).

The Urbach-Thal (comp. Map, p. 174), opening here towards the S.W., deserves a visit. A new rad ascends from Hasli im Grund (opposite ImHof) in windings to the ( 1 hr .) beginning of the level floor of the valley, whence an Alpine path leads to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Rohrmatten ( $33 \mathrm{C} 0^{\circ}$ ) and to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Schrättern (4940'; beds), where the path to the DossenHütte diverges to the right (see below). Just before reaching the ( 1 hr .) Matten-Alp (6102') we ascend to the right to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Gauli Club Hut on the Crnen-Alp $\left(7220^{\circ}\right)$, at the edge of the huge Gauli Glacier. Thence over the Gauli Pass ( $10,26^{\circ}$ ) to the Grimsel, combined with the ascent of the ${ }^{}$ Ewigschneehorn ( $10,830^{\prime} ; 41 / 2$-5 hrs.), fatiguing, but very grand ( $101 / 2-11 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 35 fr .; see p. 199). Other ascents from the Gauli Hut are the ${ }^{}$ Ritzzlihorn ( $10.75^{\prime}$; 4 hrs ; guide 25 rr .), an interesting and not dangernus scramble (grand and very picturesque view); the Hangendgletsclierhorn ( 10.807 '; 4 hrs.; 35 fr.), interes'ing ; the "Rosenhor'n ( $12,110^{\prime}$; $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$.; 50 fr .), viâ the Gauli Gla-ier and the Rosenegg, grand and not very hard; and the Hühnerstock ( $10,985^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 40 \mathrm{fr}$.). difficult. - Over the Bergli-Joch (11.240') to Grindelwald, 11-12 hrs. from the Gauli Hot, very toilsome (guide from Im-Hof 35 fr.). From the Gauli Hut we ascend the Gauli Glacier to the ( $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$.) pass, to the N. of the Berglistock (p. 187), and descend the Grindelucaldfivn to the ( 2 hrs .) Gleckstein Hut and ( $3^{1 / 2-4} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Grindelcoald (comp. p. 187). - The Dossen Hut (p. 195) is reached in $31 / 2-4$ hrs. from the Alp Schrattern (see above), by the Fläschen-Alp (guide from Meiringen or Im-Hof 20 fr .). Thence to Rosenlaui, ascent of the Wetterhorn, and to Grindelwald, see p. 195. All these expeditions are for adepts only, with good guides. (At Innertkirchen, Kaspar Maurer, Joh. and Alex. Tännler, Heinr. and Ulrich Fuhrer, Joh. Meier, Joh. Moor, etc.)

Beyond Im -Hof the road is at first level, and then gradually ascends on the right side of the fir-clad valley, running high above the rapid Aare to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Aeussere Urweid. Beyond the short Zuben Tunnel, over which a waterfall descends, it reaches the (3/4 M.) Innere Urweid ( $2464^{\prime}$; small inn), and beyond another tunnel through a cliff of the Tönende Fluh arrives at ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) ImBoden (2933'; Restaurant Mettlen), where it crosses the Aare by a new bridge. - $2 \frac{1}{4}$ M. -

83/4 M. Guttannen (3480'; Bär, mediocre and dear) is the last village in the Oberhasli-Thal, at the foot of the Ritzlihorn (10,765'; ascended hence in 7 hrs., trying ; see above). The pastures are covered in spring with the debris of torrents and avalanches, which is carefully removed in summer. (Over the Furtwang Sattel to the Trift Glacier, see p. 145 ; guides, Joh. Fahner and Kaspar Streuer).

Beyond Guttannen ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the road crosses the wild and foaming Aare by the T'schingel-Brücke (3733'). The valley becomes wilder, and barren black rocks rise on the right. Huge masses of debris are reminiscent of avalanche and torrent. About 1 M . farther on we recross the Aare by the handsome Schwarzbrunnen-Brücke (3976'). The stream becomes wilder and desceuds in noisy rapids. The road skirts the cliffs of the Stäubenden and ascends the Handegg Saddle in long windings, often hewn in the rock. From the (13/4 M.) Restaurant zum Handeggfall (simple fare) we may reach (on the left) a point of view below the $* *$ Handegg Fall, about 100 yds . from it. This cascade of the Aare, which descends into an abyss, $240^{\prime}$ in depth, falls unbroken halfway to the bottom, and in its rebound forms a dense clond of spray, in which rainbows are formed by the sunshine between 10 and 1 o'clock. The silvery water of the Erlenbach falls from a height to the left into the same gulf, mingling halfway down with the grey glacier-water of the Aare. Diligence passengers may alight at the restaurant and rejoin the vehicle at the Hôtel Handegg. The road leads through a tunnel, and, above the fall, crosses the Ærlenbach, near which is a terrace with a splendid *View of the fall; $1 / 2$ M. ( $121 / 3$ M. from Meiringen), the Hôtel Handegg ( $4570^{\prime}$; R. $21 / 2-31 / 2$, B. $11 / 2$, D. 4 fr.), situated above the road, to the right.

The road now traverses the boulder-strewn floor of the valley, with a view of a fall of the Gelmerbach, which descends from the Gelmersee (5968'), a lake on the hill to the left, between the Gelmerhorn and Schaubhorn ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Handegg; rough path viâ the Hellemad-Brücke). The old bridle-path (no longer practicable) diverges to the right and leads over rounded slabs of rock, called the Helle or Hehle ('slippery') Platte, worn by glacier-friction. The road crosses the Aare below a waterfall by means of the Hellemad Brücke and ascends in a wide curve. To the right (N.W.), above us, is the Ærlen Glacier, with the rocky ridge of the Ærlengrätli peering over it. The last dwarf-pines now disappear, and the road gradually ascends, with the brawling Aare below it. On the opposite bank appear the chalets in the Räterichsboden ( $5595^{\prime}$ ), and high up, to the left, is the Gersten Glacier. Beyond the wild defile of Spitullamm, traversed by the Aare, with interesting glacier striation, the bridle-path joins the road on the right. The Zinkenstöcke come into sight on the right; behind them, to the right, rise the Finsteraarhorn and the Agassizhorn. In $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Handegg the road reaches the - 17 M. Grimsel Hospice (6160'; Inn, R., L., \& A. 4-5, B. 1¹/2, D. 5 fr .), lying at the W. end of the sombre little Grimsel Lake, in a desolate basin, enclosed by rocks with patches of scanty herbage or moss.

Excursions (comp. Maps, pp. 124, 174 ; guide, Caspar Roth). The *Kleine Siedelhorn (9075'; 3 hrs.; guide 6 fr., not essential). We follow the Grimsel road nearly to the top of the pass, then turn to the right, and ascend on the right side of the brook descending to the Grimsel Lake, towards the height marked by a signal-cross (the Siedelhorn is not yet in sight), over pasture, debris, and rocks (no path at first). We keep somewhat to the right, as the signal-cross must afterwards be on our left. A distinct path now ascends the ridge to the Siedelhorn, latterly over fragments of granite. The view is imposing. Gigantic peaks surround us on every side: to the W. the Schreckhorn, the Finsteraarhorn, and the Fiescherhörner; to the N.E. the Galenstock, from which the Rhone Glacier descends; to the S. the Upper Valais chain with its numerous ice-streams, particularly the Gries Glacier; to the S.W., in the distance, the Alphubel, Mischabel, Matterhorn, Weisshorn, etc. (comp. Dill's Panorama). - Travellers bound for Obergestelen (p. 325) descend on the S.E. side, and there regain the bridle-path (guide advisable; comp. p. 200).

To the Pavillon Dollfuss, $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (there and back $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 10 fr. ), easy and attractive. The Aare is formed, to the W. of the hospice, by the discharge of two vast glaciers, the Unteraar and the Oberaar Glacier, separated by the Zinkenstöcke. The Unteraar Glacier is formed by the confluence of the Finsteraar and Lauteraar Glaciers, which unite at the foot of the rock-arête 'Abschoung' $\left(10,310\right.$ '), beyond a huge medial moraine, $100^{\prime}$ high at places. At the foot of this arête ( $8256^{\prime}$ ) the Swiss naturalist Hugi erected a hut in 1827. In 1841 and several following years the eminent naturalist Agassiz, with Desor, Vogt, Wild, and other savants, spent some time here, dating their interesting observations from the 'Hôtel des Neuchâtelois', a stone hut on the medial moraine. These huts have long since disappeared. 11. Dollfuss-Ausset next erected the Pavillon Dollfuss (7675') lower down, on the N. side of the Lauteraar Glacier, now used as a club-hut (comp. p. 187). A footpath leads from the hospice along the right bank of the Aare to the ( 20 min .) Balmsteg ( 6013 '; solid bridge) and then up the left bank viâ the Unteraar-Alp (path narrow and indistinct) to the ( 40 min .) chalets of Ghälter (6160'). About 5 min . farther on the path ascends to the right and in 10 min . more we take to the middle of the glacier (direction indicated by cairns). We ascend for $1 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. over debris and for 1 hr . more over névé, until we reach a point where the pavilion comes in sight, to the right. Here we ascend the large moraine (cairn) and strike a path leading to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Club Hut, admirably situated on a rocky height overlooking the Unteraar Glacier. Opposite rise the Zinkenstöcke, Thierberg, Scheuchzerhorn, and Escherhorn; in the background, above the Finsteraar Glacier, the Finsteraarhorn; and to the right of the Abschwang the hage Lauteraarhörner and Schreckhörner. - We may continue our walk on the glacier as far as ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the foot of the Abschwung (see above), where we enjoy a full view of the majestic Finsteraarhorn. In the medial moraine adjoining the Lauteraar Glacier, nearly opposite the Pav. Dollfuss, is a fragment of rock bearing the names of 'Stengel 1844; Otz, Ch. Martins 1845', inscribed during the observations above referred to. The rock, re-discovered in 188t, was then about 2650 yds . from its original site.

The Ewigschneehorn ( $10,930^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Pav. Dollfuss) is a toilsome climb, suited only for adepts, with guides. It is better attacked from the Gauli Hut (p. 197; $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.). Descent to the Pav. Dollfuss, 3 hrs .

The Finsteraarhorn ( $14,025^{\prime}$; guide from Hof or Meiringen 70, from Grindelwald 90, from the Eggishorn Hotel 60 fr.), the highest of the Bernese Alps, was scaled for the first time by three guides in 1812, then in 1829 and twice in 1842, and has pretty often been ascended since. Even when the ice is favourable the ascent is difficult, very trying, and fit for experts only, with first-rate guides. Travellers from the Grimsel spend the night in the ( $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Oberaarjoch Hut (p. 200). The route thence ascends to the Gemslücke (Rothhorn-Sattel, 10,020') between the Rothhorn and Finsteraarhorn, skirts the W. flank of the latter to the Hugi-Sattel (13,415'), and follows the N.W. arête to the top ( $7-9 \mathrm{hrs}$.). This is the most advisable route. On the ascent from Grindelwald the Schwarzegg Hut (p.187) affords nightquarters; thence to the top in $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$., over the Finsteraar-Joch $\left(11,122^{\prime}\right)$, the Agassiz-Joch $\left(12,630^{\prime}\right)$, to the S.E. of the Agassizhorn $\left(12,960^{\prime}\right)$, and the Hugi-Sattel. It is by no means advisable to descend by this route, as it is endangered by falling stones. If the Eggishorn Hotel be the starting-point, the night is spent in the ( 5 hrs .) Concordia Pavilion (p. 327), whence the summit is reached in 8 hrs . over the Grünhorn-Lücke ( $10,843^{\prime}$ ), the Walliser Fiescherfivn, and the Hugi-Sattel.

From the Grimsel to the Forka direct over the Nägeli's Grätli ( $8470^{\prime}$ ), $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 10 fr .), a fine walk, though laborious, for good walkers preferable to the Grimsel, see p. 133.

From the Grimsel to the Eggishorn Hotel over the Oberaar-Joch, $14 \mathrm{hrs} .$, fatiguing, but interesting (two guides, 40 fr . each, including the Oberaarhorn 50 fr . each). We ascend viâ the Oberaar-Alp and the Oberaar Glacier in 7 hrs . to the finely situated and well-appointed Oberaarjoch Hut of the S.A.C. ( 10,605 ' ; provision depot, to be used only in case of necessity), situated about 400 yds. to the $W$. of the Oberaar-Joch ( $10,625^{\prime}$ ), among the rocks above the Studerfirn. The Oberaarhorn $\left(11,950^{\prime}\right)$ may be ascended from the hut by experts in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. We next traverse the Studerfirn, passing the Finsteraar-Rothhorn $(11,345$ '), to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Gemslücke (ca. 11,020'; see above), and then descend (very steep) to the Fiescherfirn. Hence the route (now safe and easy) curves to the right to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) GrünhornLücke $(10,83$ ) and descends by the Grünhornfirn to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Concordia Pavilion (p. 527), beyond which we traverse the Great Aletsch Glacier to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Hôtel Jungfrau-Eggishorn (p.326). Or from the Oberaarjoch Hut we may descend viâ the Studerfirn and the difnicult and sometimes dangerously crevassed Fiesch Glacier to the Stock-Alp (p.327) and the ( 7 hrs .) Hôtel Jungfrau ( p .326 ). - Over the Studer-Joch to the Eggishorn Hotel, $14-15 \mathrm{hrs}$, difficnlt. The route ascends the Unteraar and Finsteraa1 Glaciers to the Studer-Joch $\left(11.550^{\prime}\right)$, between the Oberaarhorn and the Studerhorn (11,935'; a splendid point of view, easily attained from the pass in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). Descent over the Studerfirn, as above. - The passage of the Oberaar - Rothooch ( $10,910^{\prime}$ ) is very difficult and rarely attempted.

From the Grimsel over the Strahlegg, the Finsteraar-Joch or LauteraarSattel to Grindelvoald, p. 187; over the Gauli Pass to the Gauli But or Dossen Hut, see pp. 197, 195; over the Triftlimmi to the Trift-Hütte, p. 145.

The road skirts the Grimsel Lake, and, with a retrospect of the Schreckhorn, winds up to the ( 3 M .) Grimsel Pass ( $7103^{\prime}$ ), which marks the boundary between Canton Bern and the Valais. The small Todtensee ('lake of the dead'; '7034'), recalls the struggle in 1799 between the Austrians and the French advancing from the Hasli-Thal. Fine view of the Valais Alps and the great Gries Glacier.

A footpath to the right, at the topmost bend of the pass, ascends a stony tract to the height of $7230^{\prime}$, and descends to ( 2 hrs .) Obergestelen (p. 325 ; in the opposite direction $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide, 4 fr ., advisable in dull weather). - Thnse who have seen the Rhone Glacier and intend to climb the Kleine Siedelhorn (p. 199) do not ascend direct from the pass, but follow the road for some way beyond the curve on the Bern side before diverging to the left.

From the pass the road descends the Maienwang, a steep slope carpeted with rhododendrous and other Alpine plants, in view of the Rhone Glacier, the Dammastock, and the Galenstock. The bridlepath (shorter) is in bad condition. The ( 3 M .; up $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) -

23 M . Rhone Glacier Hotel ( $5750^{\prime}$ ), see p. 325. Thence to Brig, see R. 80 ; over the Furka to Andermatt, R. 35.

53. From Spiez to Leuk over the Gemmi.

Comp. Maps, pp. 160, 202.

14 hrs . Diligence daily from Spiez to (18 M.) Kandersteg in $51 / 3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( $5 \mathrm{fr} .6 \overline{0}$, coupé $6 \mathrm{fr} .3 \overline{\mathrm{c}} \mathrm{c}$.). One-horse carriage to Frutigen 10, two-horse 18 fr ., to the Blaue See 12 and 22, to the Kienthal 12 and 24, to Kandersteg 18 and 32 fr. - From Kandersteg a well-kept bridle-path leads over the Gemmi, one of the grandest of the Alpine passes, to the Baths of Leuk ( $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide needless; porter 10 fr ; ; riding duwn the Gemmiwand impracticable). - Carriage-road from Leuk to the Rhone Valley ( $91 / 4 \mathrm{M} . ;$ $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. down, $31 / 2 \mathrm{up}$ ).

From Spiez to ( 4 M .) Emdthal, opposite the Heustrichbad, see p. 162. Our road descends to the Kander. Beautiful view of the Blümlisalp at the head of the Kienthal. We cross the Suldbach before reaching ( $111 / 4$ M.) Mülĭnen ( $2260^{\prime}$; Pension Mülinnen, $4-\overline{5} \mathrm{fr}$., unpretending; Bär). A road to the left leads hence vià ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Aeschi to (11 M.) Interlaken (comp. p. 165).

The road forks, the right branch being the shorter. The diligence passes through ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Reichenbach ( $233 \mathrm{o}^{\prime}$; *Bär, pens. 6 fr.; Kreuz, plain), at the mouth of the Kienthal.

A visit to the Kienthal is interesting. From Reichenbach a new road ascends in windings (short-cuts for walkers) to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Scharnachthal ( $2780^{\prime}$ ); from the Bütschistutz, a height near the E. end of the village, the glaciers at the head of the valley are well surveyed. A narrow road leads hence to the ( 3 M.) village of Kienthal (3096'; ${ }^{\prime}$ Hod.-Pens. Kienthaler Hof, pens, from 5 fr .) ; cart-road thence to ( 4 M .) the Tschingel-Alp (3783'), $1 / 4 \mathrm{~h}_{1}$ from which is the Pochtenbach Fall with the interesting *Hexenkessel, a kind of 'glacier mill' (guide advisable). Thence over the Sefinen-Furgge to Mïrren ( $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$.), and over the Hohthürli to Kandersteg ( $81 / 2-9 \mathrm{hrs}$.), see p. 179. - To the S.E. the valley is closed by the crevassed Gamchi Glacier, the source of the Pochtenbach. Experts with able guides will find it interesting to cross the Gamchilücke ( 9295 '), between the Blümlisalp and the Gspaltenhorn, to the Tschingelfirn (p. 179). We may then either cross the Pelersgrat to Ried in the Lötschen-Thal (p. 180), or the Tschingel Pass to Kandersteg ( $p .180$ ), or descend by the Tschingeltritt to Lauterbrunnen (p. 179). Distances : from the Tschingel-Alp to the Bürgli-Alp $1^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hr}$., end of Gamchi Glacier 1 hr ., Gamchilücke 21/2, Ried 6-7, Kandersteg 6, Lauterbrunnen 4 hrs . - Ascents from the Kienthal: Schilthorn ( $9753^{\prime}$ ), from the Dürrenberg-Hütte ( $6545^{\prime} ; 21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. above the Tschingel-Alp, see p. 179). $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. with guide; descent to Mürren, see p. 177. - Büttlassen ( $10,490^{\prime}$; guide 25 fr. ), from the Dürrenberg-Hütte $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$., toilsome, but repaying. - Gspaltenhorn (11,275'; gaide 70 fr .), reached by the Leitergrat between the Büttlassen and the Gspaltenhorn, very difficult (first scaled by Mr. Foster in 1869). - Wilde Frau (10,693'), from the Blïmlisalp Hut (p. 179) over the Blümlisalp Glacier. $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide, laborious.

The road crosses the Kander (fine view of the Blümlisalp and Gspaltenhorn), and beyond ( $21 / 2$ M.) Wengi reaches ( 1 M.) - $91 / 2$ M. Frutigen ( $2717^{\prime}$; pop. 4021 ; *Bellevue, R., L., \&A. $21 / 2$, B. $11 / 2$, D. $31 / 2$, pens. from 5 fr ; Adler; Helvetia, R. $11 / 2-2 \frac{1}{2}$. pens. 5 fr.; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer); a village in a fertile valley, on the Engstligenbach (p. 206), which falls into the Kander lower down (to Adelboden, see p. 206). Matches are largely made here. From the church and other points we obtain beautiful views of the Kander-Thal, the Balmhorn, the Altels, etc.

Excursions. The Gerihorn (6995'; 31/2-4 hrs.; guide not indispensable) is an easy and attractive ascent. - A far more imposing view is afforded ly the "Steinschlaghorn ( 7620 ), which may be scaled by the Ueblenberg in about 4 hrs . (guide, 5 fr., unnecessary for experts). - From Frutigen to the top of the Niesen (p. 163), $5-5^{1 / 2}$ hrs., path bad in places, not advisable. - Road to Adelboden, see p. 206.

Our road crosses the Engstligenbach and turns into the KanderThal on the left, between the Gerihorn on the left, and the Elsighorn on the right. In front appear the Balmhorn and Altels. At the ( 1 M.) ruins of the Tellenburg we cross the Kander, traverse the pleasant Kandergrund, and finally ascend, leaving the church of Bunderbach (2880'; Altels Inn) on the left, to the ( $21 / 2$ M.) Hôt.Restaurant Blauseehöhe (unprotending; R. 11/2-2, B. 11/4 fr.).

About $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the right is the "Blaue See (2950'), picturesquely embosomed in wood, and remarkable for its brilliant colour (best by morninglight; adm. 1 fr ., including a row on the lake). On the lake is a Pension ( $5^{1 / 2-71 / 2}$ fr.; not for transient guests).

Near ( $11 / 4$ M.) Mittholz $\left(3154^{\prime}\right)$ we pass the picturesque ruined Felsenburg. We then ascend the Bühlstutz in windings (old road shorter; view of the Doldenhorn at the top), pass the ( 3 M.) Bühlbad (Hotel, R. 11/2-2, D. 21/2, pens. from 5 fr.), and reach ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -

18 M. Kandersteg (3835'). - Hotels. "Hôt. Victoria, R., L., \& A. 3-5, B. $11 / 2$, lunch 3, D. 4 , pens. from 6 fr .; "Hôt. Gemmi, *Bear, similar charges, both well situated in Eggenschwand, $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther on; all three belong to the Egger family. *Pens. J. Reichen, plain. - Guides (Abraham Müller, Hans Ogi-Mfiller, Fritz and Samuel Ogi, Christian and Samuel Hari, Joh. Künzi, Jac. Reichen, etc.) : to Schwarenbach (unnecessary; 3, descent 2 hrs .) 5 fr .; to the Gemmi (top of the pass 1 , descent $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) 7 fr .; to the Baths of Leuk ( $11 / 2$, ascent $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) 10 fr . - Carriages (return vehicles cheaper): one-horse to Frutigen 10, two-horse 18 fr ; Spiez, 18 or 32; Thun, 22 or 40 ; Interlaken, 25 or 45 fr . - English Church near Hôtel Victoria.

A grand panorama is disclosed between Bühlbad and the Hôtel Victoria: N.E. is the jagged Birrenhorn; E. the glistening snowmantle of the Blümlisalp or Fran, the beautiful Doldenhorn; S.E. the barren Fisistöcke. Farther on, the snow-peaks disappear, leaving only the Gellihorn, Lohner, and other rocks at the end of the valley in sight. On the left the Kander bursts from the Klus (p. 209). The road ends in Eggenschwand, 11/4 M. from the Victoria and near the Bear $\left(3940^{\prime}\right)$. On the $W$. side of the valley is an old moraine.

To the E. lies the interesting Oeschinen-Thal. The path (to the lake $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$; guide, 4 fr ., unnecessary; horse 8 fr .) diverges to the left by the Hôtel Victoria, ascends for 50 min . on the left bank of the Oeschinenbach, partly through wood, then crosses to the right bank (pretty waterfall to the right), and descends to the beautiful *Oeschinen-See (5223'), 1 M. in length (Hôt.-Pens. Oeschinensee, well spoken of, R. 11/2-2, D. 21/4, pens. 4-5 fr.). Above the lake tower the snow-clad Blümlisalp, Fründenhorn, and Doldenhorn, from the precipices of which fall several cascades. A row on the lake is enjoyable (to the gorge at the S.E. angle and back 1 hr , fare 1 fr ). Walkers may go round the lake to the left as far as the Berglibach, opposite the glaciers. Thence to the Deschinen-Alp and over the Hohthürli into the Kienthal (guide to Reichenbach, 20 fr.), see p. 179.

The Blümlisalp or Frau, a huge mountain-group, covered on the N. side with a dazzling mantle of snow, and on the S. descending in bold precipices to the Kander Glacier, culminates in three peaks. To the W. is the Bliimlisalphorn ( $12,040^{\prime}$ ), the highest ; in the centre is the snowy Weisse Frau (12,010'); and to the E. is the Morgenhorn ( $11,905^{\prime}$ ) with the lower Wilde Frau ( $10,693^{\prime}$; p. 201), Bliimlisalpstock ( $10,50^{\circ}$ ), Bliimlisalp-Rothhorn $\left(10,828^{\prime}\right)$, and Oeschinenhorn ( $11,450^{\prime}$ ). The Blümlisalphorn was first ascended by Mr. Leslie Stephen in 1860, the Weisse Frau by Dr. Roth and Hr. E. von Fellenberg in 1862, and both have often been ascended since. (Both toilsome, but very interesting; guide, 50 fr . for each; night spent in the Blümlisalp Club Hut on the Hohthürli; thence up the Blümlisalp Glacier, $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the summit.) - The Doldenhorn ( $11,965^{\prime}$; guide, 40 fr.), first ascended by Messrs. Roth and Fellenberg in 1862 (from Kandersteg by the Biberg-Alp in 8-9 hrs.), is difficult. - The Fründenhorn ( $11,030^{\circ}$; guide 40 fr.), first ascended in 1871 (from Kandersteg by the Alp In den Friinden, $101 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), is also difficult. - Interesting but toilsome passes lead from the Deschinen - Thal to the Kander Glacier, across the Oeschinen-Joch (about 10, $430^{\prime}$ ), between the Oeschinenhorn and the Fründenhorn, and across the Friinden-Joch ( $9842^{\prime}$ ), between the Fründenhorn and the Doldenhorn.

The "Dündenhorn or Wittwe ( $9400^{\prime} ; 6 \mathrm{hrs}$; ; guide 20 fr .), ascended from Kandersteg by the Oeschinen-Alp, rather difficuit, for experts only, affords a splendid survey of the Blümlisalp group. We may then follow the arête to the Bundstock (9050') and the Blimmisalp Hut (see above), and descend to Kandersteg ( $13-14 \mathrm{hrs}$. in all).

The wild Gastern-Thal, from which the Kander descends in picturesque falls, deserves a visit ( $3 / 4-1 \mathrm{hr}$.). A good path, diverging between the Bear and Gemmi hotels, skirts the left bank and ascends steeply through the Klus ( p .209 ) to the upper part of the valley, bounded on the S. by the precipices of the Tatlishorn and Altels. Splendid fall of the Gelterbach.

The Alpschelenhubel (7385'; 3 hrs ; guide advisable, 8 fr .), to the W . of Kandersteg, is easy and attractive. We diverge to the right from the Gemmi road beyond the Bear Hotel, ascend by the Ueschinen-Thal to the ( 1 hr. ) Ueschinen-Alp (p. 208), and thence to the right by the Bonder Krinden route (p. 207; steep at places, but safe) to the Alpschelen-Alp ( $6870^{\prime}$ ). Thence to the ( 2 hrs .) Hubel, over pastures to the N.E. (fine view).

From Kandersteg over the Bonder Krinden to Adelboden, see p. 207 ( 6 hrs . ; guide 10 fr .); over the Lötschen Pass to Ried, see R. 55 ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 20 fr .); over the Tschingel Pass to Lauterbrunnen, see p. 180 (guide 30 fr ; preferable the reverse way, as there are no inns in the GasternThal, and the ascent thence is long and fatiguing). - Over the Petersgrat to the Lötschen. Thal ( $11-12$ hrs. from Kandersteg to Ried; guide 40 fr.), a fine route. We follow the Tschingel Pass route to the top of the Kanderfirn, then turn to the right and ascend snow-slopes to the Petersgrat (p. 180; ${ }^{\text {t }}$ View). We descend to Ried (p. 208) through the Telli-Thal.

The bridle-path beginning at the Bear Hotel (p. 202; shady in the morning) ascends straight towards the Gellihorn ('Mittaghorn'; $7510^{\prime}$ ). On the right the Alpbach descends from the UeschinenThal, forming several small falls. The path winds up the slope of the Gellihorn for about $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., and on reaching the first ridge ('beim Stock') leads through pine-forest high above the Gastern-Thal (p. 209) and, farther on, above the Schwarzbach Valley, affording fine views of the Fisistock, Doldenhorn, etc. About $2-2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Bear Hotel we reach the Spitalmatte ( $6240^{\prime}$ ), a pasture which was entirely devastated in Sept., 1895, by a burst of the glacier covering the slopes of the Altels $\left(11,930^{\prime}\right)$, to the left. A tablet commemorates those who lost their life on this occasion. Between the Altels and the black rocky peak of the Kleine Rinderhorn ( $9865^{\prime}$; adjoining which is the snow-clad Grosse Rinderhorn, 11,372'), lies imbedded the Schwarz Glacier, drained by the Schwarzbach. We next traverse a stony chaos to the ( 40 min .) Inn on the Schwarenbach ( $6780^{\prime}$; R., L., \& A. 3, B. $1 \frac{1}{2}$ fr.).

Ascents. The ${ }^{*}$ Balmhorn $\left(12,180^{\prime}\right)$, ascended in $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$., over the Schwarz Glacier and the Zagengrat (toilsome, but free from danger; guide 30 fr. ), affords a magnificent panorama of the Alps of Bern and the Valais, extending to N. Switzerland. Expert climbers may descend from the Zagengrat direct to the Baths of Leuk. - The Altels ( $11,930^{\prime}$ ) is also interesting ( $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 25 fr ; ; much step-cutting necessary when there is little snow). Those who have steady heads may combine the Balmhorn with the Altels (passage from one to the other, $1-1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; guide 50 fr .). - The Wildstrubel ( 10,670 '; guide 25 , with descent to Leuk 35 fr.$)$ is ascended from the Gemmi over the Lämmern Glacier in $4 \cdot 4^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$. (p. 211). - Over the Engstligen-Grat to Adelboden ( $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$; with guide), ste p. 208.

We next reach the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) shallow Duubensee ( $7265^{\prime}$ ), $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. long, fed by the Lämmern Glacier, with no visible outlet, and generally frozen over for seven months in the year. The path skirts the E. bank of the lake for about 20 min ., and, 10 min . beyond it, reaches the summit of the pass, the Gemmi or Daube ( $7640^{\prime}$; *Hôtel Wildstrubel, R., L., \& A. 3-31/2, B. $11 / 2$, lunch 3, D. $31 / 2$, pens. 9 fr.), at the base of the Daubenhorn ( $9685^{\prime}$ ), commanding a magnificent *View of the Alps of the Valais (panorama by Imfeld). To the extreme left are the Mischabelhörner; more to the right, and farther off, rise Monte Rosa, the Barrhorn, and the Brunnegghorn; in the centre, the huge Weisshorn, the Zinal-Rothhorn, the Ober-Gabelhorn, the blont pyramid of the Matterhorn, the Pointe de Zinal, the Dent Blanche, the Bouquetins, and the Dent de Perroc. To the right of the Daubenhorn is the range of the Wildstrubel, with the Lämmern Glacier, and far below lie the Baths of Leuk. Rich flora.

About 4 min . beyond the pass we reach the brink of an almost perpendicular rocky wall, $1660^{\prime}$ high, down which, in 1736-41, the cantons of Bern and Valais constructed one of the most curious of Alpine rontes, $5^{\prime}$ in width. The windings are hewn in the rock, often resembling a spiral staircase, the upper parts actually projecting at places beyond the lower. The steepest parts and most sudden corners are protected by parapets. Distant voices reverberating in the gorge sometimes sound as if they issued thence. The descent on horseback is now prohibited; a marble cross, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the top, commemorates an accident to a rider. At the foot of the cliff extends a slope of debris, the lower part of which is covered with firs. The descent from the pass to the Baths takes $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (ascent $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.).

Baths of Leuk. - Hotels (the first six all belonging to the same companyi). ${ }^{* H o ̂ t e l}$ des Alpes, R. $\&$ A. $31 / 2$, B. $11 / 2$, lunch $31 / 2$, D. $41 / 2$, pens. 7 -12 fr.; ${ }^{*}$ Maison Blanche; *Hôtel de France; "Union; Hôt. Des Frebes Brunyer; ${ }^{}$ Bellevue (Cursaul), in these R., L., \& A. 3, D. $31 / 2$, pens. from 6 fr.; Guillaume Tell, similar charges; Rōssli, unpretending, R., L., \& A. 2, B. 1, D. 2, pens. $4-5$ fr. - Beer at the Maison Blanche, Bellevue, and Restaurant des Touristes. - Horse to Kandersteg 20, Schwarenbach 12, Daubensee 8 fr . (riding practicable only to the beginning of the windings in the Gemmi Ravine, ca. 11/4 hr. from Kandersteg). Porter to Kandersteg 10, Schwarenbach 6, Gemmi 4 fr. - Diligence (from the Hôtel de France) to the Leuk station every forenoon in summer in 2 hrs . (3 fr. $9 \overline{\mathrm{c}} \mathrm{c}$.) ; one-horse carr. 12-15, two-horse 25 fr. - English Church.

Bad Leuk (4630'), Fr. Loëche-les-Bains, locally known as Baden, a village ( 620 inhab.) consisting of wooden houses and the large hotels and bath-houses, lies on green pastures in a valley opening to the S., and watered by the Dala. Even in the height of summer the sun disappears at 5 p.m. The huge, perpendicular Gemmi presents a weird appearance by moonlight. The Thermal Springs ( $93-123^{\circ}$ Fahr.), impregnated with lime, about 22 in number, are chiefly beneficial in cases of cutaneous disease and rheumatism. Patients are numerous from June to September. The bath-houses (Grosse Bad, Neue Bad, St. Lorenz-Bad, and three others) are connected with the hotels, and contain both private and common basins, in which the patients onder full treatment spend several hours daily. Spectators are admitted to the galleries of the common basins, where they are expected to contribute a small sum 'pour les pauvres'. The animated conversation of the patients is chiefly in French. Small tables or trays float on the water, bearing cups of coffee, newspapers, books, etc. The baths are open from 5 to 10 a.m. and from 2 to 5 p.m. - The Cur-Promenade, an avenue $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long, leading from the Neue Bad past the Hôtel Bellevue, is frequented in the morning by patients drinking the waters and in the afternoon by promenaders (music). Below the end of it, to the right, are the promenades of the 'Bois de Cythère'.

Excursions (guides, Wend. and Donat Brunner, R. Grichting, L. Lehner, J. J. Sihurwey). A walk leads from the end of the Cur-Promenade to the ( 20 min .) foot of a lofty precipice on the left bank of the Dala. Here we ascend by eight rude Ladders (échelles), attached to the face of the rock, to a good path at the top, which leads in 1 hr . to the village of Albinen ( $4252^{\prime}$ ). The fine view obtained from a jutting rock above the second ladder will repay the climber; but persons liable to dizziness should not attempt the ascent. The descent is more difficult. - Excursions may also be made to the Fall of the Dala, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N.E., above Leuk; to the Feuillerelte-Alp ( 5850 '), 1 hr . to the E., with fine view of the Altels, Balmhorn, and Gemmiwand; and to the Fluh Alp (6710'), $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.

To the Hotel Torrent-Alp, a charming excursion of $2 \frac{1}{2}-3 \mathrm{hrs}$. (porter 4, horse 10 fr .). A winding bridle-path (red marks) ascends through wood and up the Pas du Loup (Wolfstritt) and then traverses the pastures of the Torrent-Alp (beautifnl flowers) to the *Hotel-Pension Torrent-Alp (8005'; Engl. Ch. Serv.in July), affording fine views and good headquarters for mountain-excursions. The chief ascent is that of the *Torrenthorn ( $9852^{\prime} ; 11 / 2 \mathrm{hr} . ;$ guide, unnecessary, 5 fr .). The bridle-path runs to the lefl along the slope at the back of the hotel, then turns to the right over the arête to the saddle, and finally ascends to the left to the summit (bench), which commands a magnificent view of the Bernese and Valaisian Alps (good panorama by $\mathbf{X}$. Imfeld). On the N. side is the Majing Glacier, reached from the hotel in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. - The Galmhorn ( 8080 '), ascended from the hotel by a good path in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (guide needless), commands an exteusive view of the Rhone Valley and Valaisian Alps. - Proficients should ascend the "Mrajinghorn (10,035'; 3 hrs .; guide, 8 fr ., not indispensable), the view from which resembles that from the Torrenthorn. To the N. we look down ver ically into the Dala-Thal; to the E. we have an unimpeded view of the Lötschen-Thal. Other fairly easy ascents are the Ferden-Rothhorn ( $10,440^{\prime} ; 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. 12 fr ), the Laucherspitzen ( $9345^{\prime} ; 3 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 8 \mathrm{fr}$ ), the Faldum-Rothhorn ( $9640^{\prime} ; 3 \mathrm{hrs}$.; 8 fr .), and the Niven ( $9105^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$.; 12 fr ). The Resti-Rothhorn ( $9757^{\prime}$; 5 hrs.; 15 fr.) takes good climbing. - Passes: To Kandersteg over the Gitzifurgge (9613') and the Lötschen Pass (8840'), laborious ( 10 hrs ; 20 fr.), comp. p. 209. To Ried over the Ferden Pats ( $8593^{\prime} ; 41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 14 \mathrm{fr}$.) or over the Resti Pass ( $8658^{\prime}$; $4 \mathrm{brs} . ; 14 \mathrm{fr}$.), interesting and not difficult (comp. pp. 208, 209).

The road to Lenk erosses the Dala and descends on the right bank 1.0 (3 M.) Inden (3730'; *Restaurant des Alpes, plain), whence walkers should take the shorter bridle-path to the left. Above, to the left, lies the village of Albinen (p. 205). The road, after following the slope of the Dala Gorge a little farther, winds down, and recrosses the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Dala by a lofty bridge (fine view).

Pedestrians bound for Sierre (p. 318) take the old road, which aiverges to the right from the above road. below the last curve and about 500 yds . before the bridge, passes through three tunnels, and gradually descends the slope by Faren and Salgesch (to Sierre 2 hrs .).

The road quits the Dala ravine about $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther on, high above the Rhone Valley, of which a fine view is disclosed, extending to the Dent de Morcles and Dent du Midi. Opposite is the lllgraben, with the Pfiner Wald below it. From the angle (2998') walkers follow the finger-posts direct to Leuk ( $24^{\prime} 70^{\prime} ;$ p. 318), while the carriage-road describes a curve of nearly $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. From the town to Leuk Station (2044'; p. 318), 1 M.

We then cross the ( 2 hrs .) Engstligen-Grat ( $85\left(0^{\prime}\right.$ ), passing the serrated Tschingellochtigitorn (8990'), and descend intu the Ueschinen-Thäli, with its little lake (far below to the left lies the Ueschiner-Thal). To Sierre over the Strubelegig, $12-13 \mathrm{hr}$., a trying glacier-tour, for adepts with good guides. The steep route ascends viâ the Engstligen-Alp and the Strubel Glacier to the ( $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Strubelegg ( $9610^{\circ}$ ), between the Gross-Strubel (p. 207) and the Steghorn ( $10,340^{\prime}$ ), and then traverses the névé of the Lämmern Glacier to the Lämmern-Joch ( $10,275^{\prime}$ ), adjoining the W. summit of the Wildstrubel (see p. 207). We then descend by the Plaine Morte to the Raspilli-Thal, the Hott. du Parc-MLntana, and (5-6 hrs.) Sierre (p. 317).

55. From Gampel to Kandersteg. Lötschen Pass.

 Comp. Map, p. 202.12 hrs . For good walkers only, in fine weather. Guide from Ferden or Ried to Kandersteg necessary ( 18 tr.). The Lötschen-Thal itself deserves a visit. A rough and steep cart-road to Goppenstein ; thence to Ried and Gletscherstaffel a bridle-path.

From Gampel (2100'; Hôt. Lötschenthal), on the right bank of the Rhone, 1 M. to the N. of the station of that name (p.319), the road ascends the Lötschen-Thal, or gorge of the Lonza, which is much exposed to avalanches. Mounting rapidly at first, it passes the chapels of ( 1 hr .) Mitthal ( $3425^{\prime}$ ) and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Goppenstein ( 4035 ). The bridle-path crosses the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Lonza, where the valley expands, and leads to ( 1 hr .) Ferden ( $4557^{\prime}$ ) and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Kippel ( $4514^{\prime}$; bed at the cure's). It then ascends by Wiler to ( 40 min .) Ried ( $4950^{\prime}$; *Hôt. Nesthorn, plain), finely situated at the base of the Bietschhorn.

Excursions. (Guides, Jos. Rubin, Jos., Gabriel, Joh., and Theod. Kalbermatten, etc.) The Hohgleifen (Adlerspitze $10,828^{\prime}$; $6-7$ hrs., guide 25 fr .) is not difficult for experts, viâ the Schönbuihl and the W. flank. (The ascent from the E. side, by the Kastlerjoch and the Ijolli Glacier, is much more difficult.) Superb view of the entire Valaisian Alps, the W. Bernese Alps, the Lötschen-Thal and Rhone Valley. - The Bietschhorn ( $12.965^{\prime}$; $9-10 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 80 fr. ), first ascended by Mr. Leslie Stephen in 1859, is very fatiguing and difficult, and fit for thorough experts only. The night is spent in the Club Hut on the Schafberg (8440'), 3 hrs. from Ried.

Other ascents from Ried: *Lauterbrunner Breithorn ( 12,400 ; 7-8 hrs.; guide $4^{7} \mathrm{fr}$.), not difticult for experts (see p. 180); *Hockenhor ${ }^{\circ} \mathrm{n}$ (11,8171'; $5^{1} / 2^{-61 / 2}$ hrs.; guide 15 fr .), not difficult (see p. 209); T'schingelhorn (11,750'; over the Petersgrat in $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 27 fr .), not difficult; Grosshorn ( $12,352^{\prime}$; 8 hrs.; guide 45 fr .), not difficult for experts.

Passes. Over the Petersgrat ( $10,515^{\prime}$ ) to Lauterbrunnen ( 12 hrs .; 35 fr .), fatiguing but highly interesting, see p. 180. - Wetterlücke ( $10.365^{\prime}$ ), SchmadriJoch ( $10.863^{\prime}$ ), and Mittagjoch ( $12,150^{\prime}$ ), all difficult, see p, 180. - Over the Lötschenlücke to the Eggishorn (guide 40 fr.), see p. 328 ; over the Beichgrat to Belalp (guide $2 \bar{J} \mathrm{fr}$.), see p. 320.

Ojer the Baltschieder-Joch (about 11,150'; from Ried to Visp 12 hrs ; guide 25 fr .), interesting but fatiguing. - The Bietschjoch ( $10,600^{\prime} ; 9 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Ried to Raron; guide 2 ) fr.) is a fine route, free from difficalty.

From Ried to Bad Leuk over tue Ferden Pass, $8-9$ hrs. (guide 18 fr .), repaying, and not difficult. At the Kummen-Alp (p. 209) the path diverges to the left from the Lötschen Pass route, and ascends the FerdenThal to the Ferden Pass ( $8593^{\prime}$ ), between the Majinghorn ( $10,035^{\prime}$ ) and the Ferden-Rothhorn $\left(10,440^{\prime}\right)$. Descent over long stony slopes to the Fluh-Alp, and through the Dala-Thal to Bad Leuk (p. 204). - Over the Gitzi-Furgge ( 9613 '), $9-10$ hrs. to Bad Leuk, interesting, but laborious (guide 20 fr .). The pass lies to the S.W. of the Lötschen Pass, between the Ferden-Rothhorn and the Balmhorn. Descent over the Dala Glacier to the Fluh-Alp (see above). - Over the Resti Pass, $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$., also interesting (guide 18 fr .). From Ferden we ascend the Resti-Alp ( $6926^{\prime}$; two beds) in $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$, to the Resti Pass ( $865 S^{\prime}$ '), between the Resti-Rothhorn (9757') and the Laucherspitze ( 9460 '; easily ascended from the pass in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; admirable view) and descend to the ( $11,2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hot. Torrent-Alp (p. 205) and the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) baihs of Leuk. - To Leuk-Susten over the Faldum Pass (8675'), between the Laucherspitze and the Faldum-Rothhorn (9310'), or over the Niven Pass ( $8563^{\prime}$ ), between the Faldum-Rothhorn and the Niven ( $9110^{\prime}$; a fine point of view, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the pass), both easy (guide 18 fr .).

The Lötschen Pass route ascends from Ferden (see p. 208), towards the N.W., through beautiful larch-wood and pastures, to the ( 2 hrs .) Kummen-Alp ( 6808 '); then over rock, debris, and patches of snow to the ( 2 hrs .) Lötschen Pass ( 8840 ), commanded on the W. by the Balmhorn ( 12,180 '; p. 204), and on the E. by the Schilthorn or Hockenhorn (10,817; ascended from the pass in $21 / 2$ hrs.; splendid view). We obtain the finest view on the route before reaching the pass itself: to the S.E. rises the Bietschhorn; to the S. the magnificent group of the Mischabel, Weisshorn, and Monte Rosa; to the N. are the rocky buttresses of the Doldenhorn and Blümlisalp; to the N.E. the Kander Glacier, overtopped by the Mutthorn (9975').

The path descends on the right side of the Lötschenberg Glacier, and then crosses it to the Balm (7940'), near the end of the glacier. Hence it descends rapidly over moraine-debris and leads over the Schönbühl to the (11/2 hr.) Gfäll-Alp (6036'; milk), overlooking the upper Gastern-Thal. At the bottom of the valley we cross the Kander to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the huts of Gasterndorf or Selden (5315'; the first, a small cabaret). The Gastern-Thal was better peopled at the beginning of the century than now; but indiscriminate felling of timber has so exposed it to avalanches that the inhabitants have to leave it from February to the hay-harvest. Beyond a beautiful forest, which has resisted the avalanches of the Doldenhorn for centuries, we reach ( 1 hr .) Gasternholz (4462'), amidst a chaos of rocks. The valley bends here and expands, being bounded on the S. by the snow-clad Altels $\left(11,930^{\prime}\right)$ and the Tatlishorn ( $8220^{\prime}$ ), and on the N. by the Fisistöcke ( $9200^{\prime}$ ). Waterfalls descend from the cliffs to the S.; the finest is that of the Geltenbach. At the end of the valley the road enters the ( 1 hr .) Klus, a picturesque defile $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. long, through which the Kander forces its way in a series of cascades. In the centre of the gorge we cross the river. On the other side we turn to the left to reach the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Bear Hotel, or to the right, again crossing the stream, to reach the ( 20 min .) Hôt. Gemmi iu Kandersteg (see p. 202).

Guide desirable (to Sion 16 fr ; horse 30 fr .).

To (201/4 M.) Zweisimmen, see pp. 212-214. The Lenk road crosses the Simme near Gwatt, and ascends the Upper Simmen-Thal by Bettelried, passing Schloss Blankenburg on the right (p. 214), to (3 M.) St. Stephan (3297'; Adler), Grodei, Matten (inn), at the mouth of the Fermel-Thal (p. 212), and ( $51 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) - $281 / 2$ M. Lenk (3527'; *Hirsch, R. $1 \frac{1}{2}$, B. 1, pens. 5 fr .; *Krone, R. \& A. $21 / 2$, B. 1 fr. 20 c., pens. 5 fr.; *Stern, pens. 5 fr.; Bär; Pens. Victoria, 1 M . to the N. of the village, on the road to Zweisimmen), a village rebuilt since a fire in 1878 , situated in a flat and somewhat marshy part of the valley. About $1 / 2$ M. to the S.W. lies the *Curanstalt Lenk (3625'; R., L., \& A. 2-6, D. 4, S. $21 / 2$, board $71 / 2$, pens. out of the season $7-8 \mathrm{fr}$.), with well fitted-up sulphur-baths and grounds. The Wildstrubel $\left(10,670^{\prime}\right)$, with its huge precipices and glaciers, whence several streams descend, forms a grand termination to the valley.

Excorsions. (Guides, Hans and Herm. Jaggi; Gottlieb Luidin.) The Simme rises, 4 M. to the S. of Lenk, in the so-called Siebenbrunnen, to which an interesting walk may be taken ( 4 hrs . there and back). Road (passing on the left the Burgfluh, an isolated nummulite rock with a 'glacier mill', and view of the Wildhorn) by Oberried (inn) to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Saw Mill (3668') at the end of the level part of the valley. A path now ascends close to the mill, between alders, in a curve on the right bank of the Simme, skirting a deep gorge with fine waterfalls. It passes the chalets of Stalden (4232'), traverses pastures, and crosses the Ammertenbach and the Laubbach to ( 1 hr .) the chalets of the Räzliberg ( 4583 '; Fridig's Inn, small). To the S., the 'Siebenbrunnen' (4744'), now in a single stream, issue from the precipitous rocks of the Fluhhorn ( $8025^{\prime}$ ). Farther to the left is the Upper Fall of the Simme, which is conspicuous from a long distance. To the right rise the Gletscherhorn ( $9672^{\prime}$ ) and Laufbodenhorn $\left(8878^{\prime}\right)$, to the left the Ammertenhorn (8713').

The Oberlaubhorn ( 6570 '; with guide; easy and repaying), to the $W$. of the Räzliberg, is ascended from Lenk, either by Trogegg (3196') in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., or by Pöschenried and the Ritzberg $A l p\left(5710^{\prime}\right)$ in 4 hrs . ; descent by the Räzliberg, Stalden, and Oberried. - The *Mülkerblatt (6355'; $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) affords a superb fine view of the Wildstrubel, etc. Beyond the Curhaus we ascend the left bank of the Krummbach, ( 10 min .) cross it, traverse pastures and wood, passing several chalets, and mount the Bettelberg to the top.

The Iffigensee ( $6826^{\prime} ; 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) is also worth seeing. By the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Iffigen Inn ( p . 211) we turn to the right to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Stieren-Iffigenalp ( $5512^{\prime}$; rfmts.). The path, steep and stony at places, then ascends the ( 1 hr .) saddle bounding the lake, and skirts the lake to the right (where edelweiss abounds) to the ( $1 / \mathrm{shr}$.) shepherd's hut at the W. end. - At the base of the Niesenhorn ( $9113^{\prime}$ ), $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. higher up, is the Wildhorn Club Hut ( $7550^{\prime}$ ), from which the *Wildhorn ( $10,705^{\circ}$ ) is ascended in 3$3^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$. (at places steep and laborious; guide from Lenk 25 , porter 18 fr.). We ascend the moraine of the Dungel Glacier, and the E. slope of the Kirchli $\left(915{ }^{\circ}\right.$ ') to the top of the glacier, whence a gentle ineline leads to the E. summit, which is connected by a snow-clad arète, 300 yds . long, with the equally high W. summit. Splendid view of Mt. Blanc, Grand-Combin, the Valaisian and Bernese Alps, the Diablerets, Oldenhorn, and Dent du Midi; to the W. are the Vaudois Alps, to the N. the Freiburg Alps; farther off are the Jura, Black Forest, and Vosges. Descent, if preferred, to the S., by the Glacier du Brozet, to Zanfleuron ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.; see p. 263).

The ${ }^{\text {RRohrbachstein }}$ ( $9690^{\prime} ; 61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 15 fr .) is not difficult. From the ( 4 hrs .) Rawyl Pass (see below) we mount to the left to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) saddle between the Rohrbachstein and the Wetzsteinhorn, and the ( 1 hr .) top. Splendid view. Fossils found here.

The Wildstrubel (W. peak $10,666^{\prime}$; central peak $10,656^{\prime}$; E. peak or Gross-Strubel, 10,670') is best ascended from the Rawyl Pass. From the Iffigen Inn (spend night) to the Rawyl 2 hrs .; we ascend to the left to the snow-arête between the Weisshorn and the Rohrbachstein ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), cross the Glacier de la Plaine Morte, and mount snowy slopes to the W. summit in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., and the central peak in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more (from Iffigen $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. in all). Guide from Lenk 27, down to the Gemmi 30 fr. - From the Räzliberg (see above) a steep path ascends the Fluhwönde above the Siebenbrunnen to the ( 2 hrs .) Fhuseeli ( $6710^{\prime}$ ): thence over debris, moraine, and the Räzli Glacier to the W. peak ( 4 hrs .). - A third route (toilsome) ascends steeply from the ( $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) Ritzberg Alp (see above; bed of hay) past the Laufbodenhorn (8878'), by the Thierberg and the Thierberg Glacier, and past the Gletscherhorn (9672) to the Räzli Glacier and to the W. peak ( 6 hrs . from Ritzberg). Descent to the N.W. by the Ammerten Glacier, difficult; or to the E. over the crevassed Lämmern Glacier to the ( 3 hrs .) Gemmi (p.204); or to the N. over the Strubelegg Glacie. to the EngstligenAlp and Adelboden (p. 207).

Fbom Lenk to Gsteig ( 7 hrs .) : over the Trüttlisberg ( $6713^{\prime}$ ) to ( $4^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Lauěnen (p. 263), and thence over the Krinnen ( 5463 ) to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Gsteig (p. 263); an easy and interesting route (guide 12, horse 5 fr.; see R. 67).

From Lenk to Saanen (p. 214), 6 hrs., path over the Reulissenberg or Zoitzer Egg (5636'), and down the Turbach-Thal (guide 8 fr.). - To AdelBODEN over the Hahnenmoos (guide 3, horse 10 fr.), p. 207. By the Ammerten Pass (S032'), to the S.E. of the Ammertengrat ( $8580^{\prime}$ '), fatiguing but interesting ( 8 hrs ; guide).

The Rawyl Roote (at first a road) ascends the W. side of the valley to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the left bank of the Iffigenbach and the smiling Pöschenried-Thal. The road ends 2 M . farther on (about 4200'). By the fine ( 5 min .) Iffigen Fall the bridle-path ascends to the right. After 20 min . we turn, above the fall, into a wooded valley, through which the Iffigenbach dashes down its narrow rocky bed, and traverse a level dale (with the precipices of the Rawyl on the left) to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Iffigen-Alp ( $5253^{\prime}$; rustic Inn). Here, to the left (finger-post), we ascend through a small wood on a stony slope, skirt the rocks, cross ( 10 min .) a brook, and reąch ( 50 min .) the refuge-hut on the Platten, whence we overlook the Simmen-Thal. We skirt the W. side of ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the little Rawyl-See ( $7743^{\prime}$ ) and reach ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a cross (la Grande Croix), which marks the boundary of Bern and Valais and the summit of the Rawyl ( $7943^{\prime} ; 41 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Lenk), with a refuge-hut. The pass is a desolate stony plateau (Plan des Roses), enclosed by lofty and partially snow-clad mountains: to the W. the long Mittaghorn (8815'); S.W., the Schneideliorn ( $9640^{\prime}$ ) and the snow -clad Wildhorn (10,705'; p. 210); S., the broad Rawylhorn (9540') and the Wetzsteinhorn (9114'); E., the Rohrbachstein ( $9690^{\prime}$; see above) and Weisshorn ( $9690^{\prime}$ ).

Beyond the pass the path is bad. It leads past a second little lake to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the margin of the S. slope (les Hors), which affords a limited, but striking view of the Valais mountains. We descend a steep rocky slope (leaving the dirty chalets of Armillon, 6926', to the left), and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) cross a bridge in the valley ( $5970^{\prime}$; a good spring). Instead of descending to the left to the chalets of ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Nieder-Rawyl (Les Ravins, $5^{7768}$ ), we ascend slightly by a narrow path to the right, and skirt the hillside. Then ( 25 min .) a steep ascent, to avoid the Kändle (see below); 20 min., a cross on the top of the hill ( $6330^{\prime}$ ), whence we descend to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Praz Combeira ( $5344^{\prime}$ ), a group of huts. Lastly a long, fatiguing descent by a rough, stony path, ascending at places, to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ayent ( $3400^{\prime}$; quarters at the curés, good wine, or at the merchant Mosoni's).

The footpath from Nieder-Rawyl to Ayent, shorter by 1 hr ., leads by the 'Kändle' (i.e. channel), Fr. Sentier' du Bisse, along the edge of a waterconduit skirting a steep slope $1300^{\prime}$ high. Being only $1^{\prime}$ wide, the path is only fit for steady heads, and is dangerous at places.

The path, which now improves, leads by Grimisuat ( $2894^{\prime}$ ) and Champlan to ( 2 hrs .) Sion (p. 317; 101/2 hrs. from Lenk); or we may go to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) St. Léonard (p. 318).

57. From Spiez to Saanen through the Simmen-Thal.

From Spiez to Erlenbach ( $61 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Rallway in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (fares, 2 nd cl. 1 fr . $20,3 \mathrm{rd} \mathrm{cl} .85 \mathrm{c}$. ). - From Frlenbach to Saanen ( $231 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.), Diligence t wice daily in 6 hrs . ; fare 7 fr . 65 ; coupé 9 fr .60 c . (to Weissenburg 1 fr . $2 \overline{0}$ or 1 fr . 60 c .; Zweisimmen 4 fr . 90 or 6 fr . 15 c .; Château d'Oex 10 fr . or 12 fr . 55 c .). - One-horse carr. from Thun to Weissenburg 13, twohorse 24 fr., to Zweisimmen 28 or 50 , to Saanen 35 or 50 , to Château d'Oex 40 or 70 , to Aigle 80 or 150 , to Bulle 70 or 120 fr .

Spiez, see p. 164. - The railway diverges to the left from the Thun line (p. 163), descends past Spiezmoos in a wide bend to the Kander, which it crosses below the hamlet of Lattigen (splendid view of the Blümlis-Alp to the left), and traverses the Wimmis-Allmend to ( $21 / 2$ M.) Wimmis ( $2075^{\prime} ;{ }^{*}$ Löwe), at the N.W. base of the Niesen (ascent, see p.162). It then passes through a romantic defile (Port) between the Simmenfluh and the Burgfluh into the Simmen-Thal (locally, 'Sieben-Thal'), a fertile valley with numerous villages. 5 M . Oey-Diemtigen, opposite the village of Latterbach (Bär), on the left bank. To the S. opens the Diemtig-Thal.

From Oef to Matten a shorter, but uninteresting route ( 8 hrs .) leads through the Diemtig-Thal. The road follows the right bank of the Kirel (passing Diemtigen on the hill to the right), and then the left bank, to Wamoffen and ( $2^{1} / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Tschuepis (3763'), where the valley divides into the Mäniggrund (right) and the Schwenden-Thal (left). We follow the latter, which after 1 hr . again divides at Warttannen (3970'). The path now diverges from the road, ascends to the W. through the Grimbach-Thal to the ( $21^{\prime} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Grimmi ( $6644^{\prime}$ ), a little-frequented pass, and descends the fertile Fermel- Thal to (2 hrs.) Matten (p. 210).

We now cross the Simme to ( $61 / 4$ M.) Erlenbach, the present terminus of the railway; the village (2320'; Pens. Portmann; Krone, Löwe, both mpretending), with its neat wooden houses, lies to the right, above the station.

The Stockhorn (7195') may be ascended hence by experts (guide) in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; better from Amsoldingen viâ Ober-Slocken (Bär, rustic) in $43 / 6 \mathrm{hrs}$., or from Blumenstein ( p .162 ) by the Wahlalp (new chalet, dear) in 5 hrs .; descent, if preferred, by the Wahlalp to Bad Weissenburg, which is reached by means of ladders. Splendid flora and grand view.

The High Road (diligence and carriages, see p. 212) follows the left bank of the Simme to - 33/4 M. Weissenburg (2418'; *Hôtel Weissenburg, R. \& A. $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), a group of neat houses.

In a steep defile, 80 narrow at places as almost to exclude the sun, $11 / 4$ M. to the N.W., lies the Weissenburg-Bad ( $2770^{\prime}$ ). The mineral water, impregnated with sulphate of lime ( $70^{\circ}$; at its source $81^{\circ}$ ) and beneficial for bronchial affections, is used for drinking only. The Neue Bad, burned down in 1898, has been rebuilt; the Alte Bad is buried in the ravine $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. higher up (pension 1st class 7-9, 2nd cl. 5 fr.).

From Weissenburg to the Gurnigelbad ( 6 hrs .). Attractive path through the Klus, passing the Morgetenbach Fall, 200' high, and the Mor-geten-Alp to the ( $3{ }^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) Bürglen-Sattel ( $6435^{\prime}$ ); then down (passing Bad Schwefelberg. $1^{1} / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the left) to the Gantrisch Pass (5215'), with a charming view, and over the Guinigelberg to the ( $1^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Gurnigelbad (p.159).

9 M. Boltigen (2726'; Hôt. Simmenthal, Bär, both moderate), a thriving village with handsome houses, is reached beyond the Simmenegg or Enge, a defile formed by two rocks. Above rise the two peaks of the Mittagfluh ( $6198^{\prime}$ ). To the left peep the snow-fields to the E. of the Rawyl (p. 211). The coal-mines in a side-valley near Reidenbach ( $2756^{\prime} ; 3 / 4$ M. from Boltigen) account for the sign of the inn (a miner).

From Reidenbach to Bulle, 25 M . A little above Reidenbach the road diverges to the right and ascends in windings (which paths cut off) to the ( 6 M. ) pass of the Bruchberg ( $4940^{\prime}$; tavern). It then descends (preferable to the bad footpath) to ( 4 M .) Jaun, Fr. Bellegarde ( $3336^{\prime}$; Hôt. de la Cascade), a pretty village with a waterfall $86^{\prime}$ high. (Path to the Schwarzsee-Bad by Neuschels, 3 hrs., see below.) (A cart-track to the S. ascends the left bank of the Jaunbach to ( $1^{1 / 2} \mathbf{~ h r}$.) Abländschen ( $4280^{\prime}$; inn), at the foot of the bare rocky chain of the Gastlose (6542'). Easy passes hence to the S. over the Grubenberg (5113'), to the S.E. of the Dent de Ruth ( $7345^{\prime}$ ), to ( 3 hrs ) Saanen, and over the Schlündi to ( $2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Richenstein (p. 214).] We traverse the beantiful pastures of the Jaunthal or Bellegarde Valley, which yield excellent Gruyère cheese (see p. 214), cross the Jaunbach (Jogne) at La Tzintree, and reach ( $71 / 2$ M.) Charmey, Ger, Galmis (2955'; *Hot. du Sapin, pens. 5-7 fr.; Maréchal Feriant, pens. 5 fr.). a large village and summer-resort, charmingly situated (diligence to Bulle twice daily in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). Fine view from the church. The road next passes $C_{p} \cdot{ }^{2} s u s$, Châtel, and the ruin of Montsalvens (rare flora), crosses the Jaun, and beyond Broc (2380'; Pens. de la Grue), the Sarine, and leads throngh wood to La Tour-de-Trême (p.266) and (71/2M.) Bulle (p.265). - From Crésus (sce above) a pleasant route leads by Cerniat and the old monastery of Valsainte ( $3336^{\prime}$ ), and over the Chésalette ( $4659^{\prime}$ ), to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Schwar'zsee-Bad (p. 227). On the Kalte Sense, 4 hrs . to the N.E. of the Schwarzsee (diligence daily in summer from Freiburg viâ Plaffeien), are the sequestered and well-kept Baths of Schwefelberg ( 4585 '; pens. $41 / 2-5$ fr.), with lime springs, at the foot of the Ochsen ( $7185^{\prime} ; 2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$; fine view). Thence over the Selibühlgrat to the $(21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Gurnigelbad (p. 159); bridle-path over the Gantrisch Pass (see above) to ( 3 hrs ) Bad Blumenstein (p. 162).

The road crosses the Simme at (2M.) Garstatt, turns suddenly to the left, round the Laubeggstalden rock, passing a fine waterfall, recrosses the stream, and leads past the ruin of Mannenberg to ( 3 M .) -

14 M. Zweisimmen (3215'; pop. 1910; *Krone, with grounds, pens. $5-7 \mathrm{fr}$.), the chief village in the valley, with an old church, situated in a broad basin on the Kleine Simme. It is famed for its cattle and frequented as a summer-resort. Pleasant views from the churchyard, and from Schloss Blankenburg, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S.E., now used as public offices and a prison (p. 210).

Excursions. The *Hundsrück ( $6720^{\circ}$ ), easily climbed in 3 hrs., commands a grand view of Mt. Blanc, the Grand Combin, and the Bernese, Freiburg, and Vaudois Alps. - The *Riederberg ( $6825^{\prime}$ '; 3 hrs.), also easy, is another fine point of view.

The road ascends gradually for 5 M., crossing the Schlündibach at ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Richenstein. (To Abländschen, see p. 213.) In a pine-clad valley on the left flows the Kleine Simme. The road crosses several deep lateral ravines. At the top of the hill (4227'; inn) begin the Saanen-Möser, a broad Alpine valley, sprinkled with chalets and cottages. A striking view is gradually disclosed of the frowning Rüblihorn ( $7570^{\prime}$ ), the barometer of the district, the serrated Gumfluh ( 8068 '), the snow-fields of the Sanetsch beyond it, and lastly the huge Gelten Glacier (p. 263) to the left. Lower down we obtain a fine survey of the Turbach, Lauenen, and Gsteig valleys (p. 263).
$231 / 2$ M. Saanen, Fr. Gessenay (3382'; pop. 3733; Grand Logis or Gross-Landhaus; Ours, unpretending), is the capital of the upper valley of the Saane (Surine). The inhabitants rear cattle and manufacture the famous Gruyère and Vacherin cheese.

To Gisteig, and over the Col de Pillon to Aigle, see p. 263; over the Sanetsch to Sion, see p. 263.

From Saanen to Château-d’Ex (p. 267), 7 M .; diligence twice daily in $11 / 3 \mathrm{hr}$., by Rougemont or Rothenberg ( ${ }^{2}$ Pens. du Rubli), the frontier between Bern and Vand, and between German and French, and Flendruz.

41 M . Rallway in $11 / 2-23 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. (fares 6 fr .90 c ., 5 fr ., 3 fr .65 c .).
Bern, p. 152 ; from Bern to ( 21 M.) Bienne, p. 12. (Münsterthal Railway to Bâle, R. 2 ; by St. Imier to Chaux-de-Fonds, p. 221.)

Near the shady avenues to the S.W. of Bienne the train reaches the Lake of Bienne ( 1420 ; $91 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long, $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. broad), and then skirts its W. bank, affording in clear weather a survey of the Bernese Alps beyond the lake. - Beyond ( $271 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Douanne, Ger. Twann (*Ours), we pass a fall of the Twannbach.

Interesting excursion through the gorge of the Twannbach to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Curhaus Twannberg ( $2865^{\prime}$; pens. $4-51 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), with view of the lakes of Bienne and Morat and the High Alps. Hence to Macolin (p. 12), $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; to the top of the Chasseral (see below), $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.

29 M. Gléresse, Ger. Ligerz.

To the left, in the lake, lies the Isle of St. Peter ( $140^{\circ}$ ), clothed with old oaks, vineyards, and fruit-trees, now connected on the S. side with the mainland near Cerlier. Ronsseau spent two months here in 1765. (His room is shown in the Hotel.) Boat from Douanne or from Gléresse, there and back, 4 , from Neuveville 6 fr. Steamboat in summer several times daily from Neuveville to Cerlier and ( 25 min .) the Isle of St. Peter.

301/2 M. Neuveville, Ger. Neuenstadt (pop.2368; *Faucon; Trois Poissons), a pleasant little town, the last in Canton Bern, is the first place where French is spoken. The Museum, near the station (adm. 50 c. ), contains interesting antiquities from lake-dwellings (p.217) and the Burgundian wars. On the Schlossbery $\left(1750^{\prime}\right), 20 \mathrm{~min}$. from the station, rises a ruined castle of the Bishops of Bâle (fine view from the top and on the way up), near which the Bron forms a fall (often dry in summer). An erratic boulder near it bears an inscription to Lord Montagu, a benefactor of the town.

To the N. of Neuveville rises the Chasseral or Gestler ( 5250 ), studded on the S. side with villages amid green meadows. Road (diligence twice daily in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) from Neuveville viâ Lignières ( $2654^{\prime}$; ${ }^{}$ Hôt.-Pens. BeauSéjour, $4-5 \mathrm{fr}$.) to ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Nods ( $2916^{\prime}$ ), whence a steep road ascends to the ( 2 hrs. ) Chatet-H 6 tel du Chasseral ( 4700 '; 20 beds, fair). The view from the ( $2 \overline{\mathrm{~J}} \mathrm{~min}$.) signal ( $5280^{\prime}$ ) embraces W. Switzerland, the Black Forest, the Jura, and the Alps. - The ascent may also be made from Macolin (p. 12) in 4 hrs ., or from St. Imier (easiest) in $21 / 2^{-3} \mathrm{hrs}$. (see p. 221).

The old town of Cerlier, or Erlach (Erle), with its château, lies opposite Neuveville (steamboat in 10 min. ), at the N. base of the wooded Jolimont ( $1860^{\prime} ; 1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), a charming point of view. The 'Teufelsbürde' is a groap of large erratic blocks on the top. - On the E. bank of the lake, at Lüscherz, and at Mörigen, farther to the N., many remains of lakedwellings have been discovered.

Near (33 M.) Landeron (Hôt. de Nemours) we quit the Lake of Bienne; the little town lies on the left, near the influx of the Thièle (or Zihl) Canal into the lake; beyond the Thièle is the abbey of St. Johannsen, now a penitentiary, at the foot of the Jolimont (p. 216). $34^{1 / 2}$ M. Cressier, with its church on a lofty rock; $3 \overline{1} / 2$ M. Cornaua. - Tunnel. 38 M. St. Blaise (tramway to Neuchâtel). At Marin (? 3 ens. Nusslé), 1 M. to the S.E., are the famous lake-dwellings of La Tène, a name applied to the period of civilization on the N . side of the Alps prior to the Roman period. Farther on is the lunatic asylum of Préfargier. - The train next reaches the Lake of Neuchâtel (1420'), the Roman Lacus Elurodunensis ( 25 M . long, $4-6 \mathrm{M}$. broad ; greatest depth $500^{\prime}$ ). Near the N.E. end the Thielle or Zihl issues from the lake, the level of which has been lowered $6^{\prime}$ by the widening of this outlet. Above the vine-clad banks rise the Jura Mts., to the W., and to the E. we enjoy a view of the Alps from the Bernese Oberland to Mont Blanc.

41 M. Neuchátel. - Railway Station ( $1555^{\prime}$; buffet), above the town, 1 M . from the hotels, which send omnibuses. A Rack-and-Pinion Tramway (fares $20,10 \mathrm{c}$.) descends in 9 min . to the harbour (Port; Pl. C, 3), and thence runs to the W . as an ordinary steam-tramway, past the station of Evole (Pl. A, 4), to Colombier, Cortaillod, and Boudry (p. 223). - Another tramway llies to St. Blaise (see above). - Steamboat on the Lake of Neuchâtel, see pp. 227, 230.

English Church, Rue Collégiale (Rev. J. H. H. Best).
Neuchâtel (1433'; 20,000 inhab.), Ger. Neuenburg, capital of the canton of that name (once a principality of the Orange family; then nnder Prussian sway, from 1707 to 1815, when it joined the Confederation; finally given up by Prussia in 1857), is charmingly situated on the Lake of Neuchâtel, to the E. of the mouth of the Seyon (p. 222), and at the base and on the slopes of the Jura. The banks of the lake are skirted for about $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. by a *Quay, planted with trees and affording a beautiful view of the Alps. Near the middle of this avenue is the little Harbour (P1. D, 3, 4), on which is the handsome Post Office ( $\mathrm{Pl} . \mathrm{C}, 3$ ). Opposite is a monument erected in 1898 to commemorate the accession of the Canton Neuchâtel to the Swiss Federation (1848).

The Collège Latin (Pl. C, 4), to the W. of the harbour, contains a valuable natural history collection, founded by Agassiz (p. 199) and Coulon (Thurs., 10-12 & 2-4; Sun., 2-4), and a public library (100,000 vols.; daily, except Sun. & Mon., 10-12 & 2-4). - Near it, in the Place Purry (Pl. B, 4), rises a bronze statue of David de Purry (1709-86), a native of Neuchâtel, who left $41 / 2$ million franes to the town. Observe also the Halles (Pl. B, 4; now a club), a picturesque little Renaissance edifice of 1570, in the Place des Halles.

The *Musée dbs Bbaux-Arts (Pl.D,3), a handsome Renaissance building, to the E. of the harbour, contains the interesting municipal Collection of Antiquities and Picture Gallery (adm. to each, 50 c. ; free on Sun. and Thurs., 10-12 and 1-5).

Ground Floor. The rooms to the right and left of the entrance contain the valuable Historical & Archaeological Collection, largely reminiscent of the Prussian period. - On the Staircase is a bronze bust of M. de Meuron (d. 1868), fonnder of the museum. At the top are three "Paintings by Paul Robert, executed in 1836-94. The central picture represents intellectual life as mirrored in the Christian dispensation : among clouds at the top appears the Saviour, with the Gospel below him; to the left ascends a procession of female forms symbolising Art, Science, and Morality, in blessed harmony; to the right the Archangel Michael stands apon the defeated dragon; and in the background is a view of Neuchâtel. In the painting on the left Celestial Grace bestows flowers and fruits upon the earth while evil spirits are driven off. The picture to the right depicts industrial life: in the foreground are working men and women, a manufacturer, a foreman, and a merchant; in the centre of the background rises the golden statue of Industry, round which throngs an eager multitude; a beam of Christian light falls npon the group on the right; at the top are the Angel of Justice, to the right, and the Recording Angel, to the left. - The balcony affords a beautiful view of the lake and the Alps. - To the right is the -

Next the museum is an interesting 'Sépulcre Préhistorique', discovered at Auvernier in 1876.

A little to the N.E. is the new Academy (Pl. E, F, $2 ; 40$ teachers, 150 stadents), between the Jardin Anylais and the Jardin Desoir. - Near the Palais Rougemont (Pl. D, 2), on the groundfloor of which is the Cercle du Musée (a club), is the Musée Alpestre, a collection of stuffed Alpine animals ( 1 fr .).

The Chatrau ( $\mathrm{Pl} . \mathrm{B}, 3$ ), on the hill above the town, dating partly from the 12 th, but mainly from the $15-17$ th cent., and restored in 1866, is now the seat of the cantonal government. Adjacent is the *Abbey Church (Collégiale; Pl. A, 3; key at 6 Rue du Château), built in 1149-90 and restored in the 13 th cent., with two pointed Gothic towers of the 15 th century. The choir contains a large Gothic monument with 15 lifesize figures (partly renewed), erected in 1372 to the Counts of Neuchâtel, and restored in 1840. There are also memorial stones to two Prussian governors. The Place in front of the church is adorned with a Statue of Farel, the Reformer (d. 1565), erected in 1875. The pleasing cloisters on the N. side, rebuilt after a fire in 1450, were restored in 1860-70. - A bridge crosses the old castle-moat to the Public Park.

The Observatoire Cantonal, 25 min . above the town, erected for the benefit of the watch-manufacturers, is in telegraphic communication with Chaux-de-Fonds, etc. (p.220). The adjoining Mail, a grass-plot planted with trees, commands a charming view of the lake and the Alps. Another good view is enjoyed from the new Parc du Plan, to which a cable-tramway ascends (Pl. B, 2, 1).

Near the town there are pleasant wood-walks: to the Roche de l'Ermitage (2007'), Pierre à Bot, Gorges du Seyon, Chanelaz (p. 223), etc.

The *Chaumont (3845'; "Grand-Hôtel de Chaumont, a large house near the top, $3700^{\prime}$, pens. $6-10 \mathrm{fr}$.; Hotel du Château, lower down, 3 min . to the S.E.), a spur of the Jura, to the N., is the finest point of view near Neuchâtel. The road to it diverges from the Chaux-de-Fonds road, $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from Neuchâtel, and leads to the top in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (diligence twice a day in summer in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., 2 fr., down in 1 hr ., $11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; carr. with one horse 10 , with two ho:ses 20 fr .). Near the hotels at the top are a chapel and a school-house. The view from the Signal, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. above the hotels (at the top, indicator of the Swiss Alpine Club, by Imfeld), embraces Lakes Neuchâtel and Morat, and the Alpine chain from the Sentis to Mont Blanc in the background. Eveninglight best, but a perfectly clear horizon is rare. Charming view of the Val de Ruz and the Jura, to the W ., from the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pre Louiset. We may return to Neuchâtel by descending from the Signal to the rizht through wood to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Fenin, in the Val de Ruz, on the Chaux-de-Fonds road, and then following the shady Chemin des Quatre Ministraux de Pierre- $\dot{\alpha}$ Bot to the left, which affords a beautiful view of the Alps. An attractive route, following the brow of the hill, by La Dame and Chuffort (guide advisable), leads in 4 hrs . from the Chaumont to the Chasseral (p. 216). - *Gorges de la Reuse, see p. 223; *Têle de Rang, see p. 220.

59. From Neuchâtel to Chaux-de-Fonds and Locle.

Railway viâ Chaux-de-Fonds to ( $231 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Locle in $13 / 4-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (fares $5 \mathrm{fr} .25,3 \mathrm{fr} .80,2 \mathrm{fr} .80 \mathrm{c}$.). This route, as far as Les Hauts-Geneveys, is very attractive; views to the left.

Neuchâtel, see p. 217. The train skirts the slopes behind the town and crosses the Seyon, a stream descending from the Chasseral, which was carried down to the lake by means of a tunuel in 1839. Beyond a tunnel $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long the line affords a superb *View of the lake and the Bernese Alps, and of Mont Blanc to the S. 3 M. Corcelles (1750'). The train ascends through wood; two short tunnels.

7 M. Chambrelien ( $2255^{\prime}$ ), beautifully situated high above the valley of the Reuse (p. 222). The train backs out towards the N.E. and skirts a wooded chain of hills. To the right is the fertile Val de Ruz, with its numerous villages, above which rises the Chaumont (p. 219).

101/2 M. Les Geneveys-sur-Coffrane (2770'; Hôt.-Brasserie du Jura). - 121/2 M. Les Hauts-Geneveys (3135'; Buffet; Hôt. du Jura, Hôt. du Nord, both plain), the highest point of view on the line, where Mont Blanc becomes very conspicuous.

The *Tėte de Rang (4668'), ascended in 1 hr . from Hauts-Geneveys (by a lane to the left, 10 min . beyond the village), commands a superb distant view of the Jura, of the Vosges, and of the Alps from the Sentis to Mont Blanc and the mountains of Savoy. On the saddle, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. below the top, is the $\# H o ̂ t . d u$ Jura ( $4340^{\prime}$; moderate). - Hence to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Col des Loges and ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) La Chaux-de-Fonds, see below.

The train passes through a tunnel ( 2 M. long; 9 min .) under the Col des Loges to ( 16 M .) Les Convers, a solitary station in a rockgirt valley. Beyond a tunnel ( $3 / 4$ M. ; 3 min.) under Mont Sagne, and a shorter one, we reach - 181/2 M. La Chaux-de-Fonds (3260'; *Grand Hôtel Central, R. from $2 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ *Fleur de Lys, R. \& A. 3, B. $11 / 4 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Lion d'Or ; Croix d'Or; Balance ; Hôt. de la Gare; U. S. Consular Agent), an important watch-making place ( 32,000 inhab.), with handsome streets and public buildings. It claims to be the largest 'village' in Europe. The Church, with its artistically vaulted roof, and the Collège, containing the picture-gallery (good pictures by Swiss masters), the library, and the historical museum deserve a visit.

A pleasant walk may be taken by a path to the N. to ( 1 hr .) the hill of Pouillerel ( $4200^{\prime}$ ), commanding a view over Franche-Comte to the Vosges and of the Bernese Alps to the Wildstrabel and Mont Blanc. To the S. a road (one-horse carr. 8 fr.) leads from Chanx-de-Fonds to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) ${ }^{\text {Col }}$ des Loges ( $4065^{\prime}$; ${ }^{}$ Hôtel à la Vue des Alpes), a fine point of view. A more extensive prospect is enjoyed from the ${ }^{}$ Tête de Rang $\left({ }^{\prime} 638^{\prime}\right), 3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S. of the Col (see above). - Aqueduct, see p. 222. A narrow-gauge railway runs to the S.W. to La Sagne and ( $101 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Les Ponts-de-MLartel (Hồt. de la Loyauté).

From Chaux-de-Fonds to the picturesque Cótes du Doubs, a pleasant excursion of one day. The road leads past the ${ }^{}$ Restaurant Bel-Air* to a ${ }^{*}$ Hotel near the Combe de la Greffiere (view of the Doubs below), then descends through wood (short-cuts) towards the Doubs, reaching it at ( 5 M .) the charmingly-situated Maison Monsieur, and skirting its bank viâ the *Pavillon des Sonneurs (restaurant) to ( $2^{1 / 4} \mathrm{M}$.) Biaufond ( $190^{\prime} 0^{\prime}$ ). Then by boat to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Le Refiain, and on foot through grand and wild scenery to the (2 M.) picturesque Moulin de la Mort (1835). Opposite are the curious Echelles de la Mort, used by the natives. Here, and farther to the N., the Doubs (lower course also attractive) forms the boundary between France and Switzerland. Visitors may take a boat to ( 50 min .) the Verrieres du Bief $d^{\prime} E t o z$, then below the Fall of the Doubs continue either by boat or on foot along the French bank past (right) La Goule to ( ${ }^{3},{ }_{4} \mathrm{hr}$.) Bief d'Etoz.

Thence we proceed on the Swiss bank to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) mill of Theusseret, ascend to the right to Belfond, and again descend to ( 1 hr .) Goumois ( ${ }^{*}$ Couronne, good trout), charmingly situated on both banks of the river. A road ascends hence to the $\mathbf{E}$. in windings to ( 3 M.) Saignelégier. (Hôt. de la Gare, R. $1 \frac{1}{2}$, , B. 1, D. $2 \frac{1}{2}$, pens. $4-6 \mathrm{fr}$; Hôt. du Cerf), whence a railway (Chemin de fer régional) runs to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Chaux-de-Fonds.

A pleasant road leads to the W. from La Chanx-de-Fonds to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Planchettes (restaurant) and the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Saut $d u$ Doubs (see below).

From Chaux-de-Fonds to Bienne, 27 M ., railway in $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (fares 4 fr . E0, 3 fr . $15,2 \mathrm{fr} .25 \mathrm{c}$.). The line passes the station of ( $2^{1 / 2}$ M.) Halte $d u$ Creux, and enters the industrious Val St. Imier, watered by the Suze or Schüss. 5 M . Renan; $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Sonvilier, with the picturesque ruins of the castle of Erguel on a pine-clad rock. - 81/2 M. St. Imier (2670'; 7114 inhab.; Hôt. de la Ville; Hot. des Treize-Cantons; Rait. Restaurant), the capital of the valley, with considerable watch-manufactories. (Ascent of the Chas-ser-al, p. 216 , by a bridle-path, $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) - 10 MI . Villeret; 12 M . Cormoret; $121 / 2$ M. Courtelary; 15 M . Cortébert ; 17 M . Corgémont. $-17^{1} / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Sonceboz, and thence to ( 27 M .) Bienne, see pp. 11, 12.

The railway turns abruptly to the S.W. - 20 M. EplaturesTemple; 201/2 M. Crêt-du-Locle.
$231 / 2$ M. Le Locle (3035'; pop. 12,274 ; *Hôt. des Trois Rois; Hôt. du Jura; National), famed for its watches. Opposite the Watchmakers' School a bronze statue was erected in 1888 of D.J.Richard (d.1741), founder of the watch-making of Le Locle and La Chaux-de-Fonds. The hill of Sommartel ( $4350^{\prime}$ ), 1 hr . to the S., affords a fine view of the Jura.

From Locle to Morteau (Besançon), 8 M ., railway in 35 min . by Col des Roches (whence an interesting road leads through the Col to Les Brenets, 2 M.), and Villers-le-Lac, 1 M. to the S.W. of the Lac des Brenets (see below). From Morteau to Besançon, 42 M .

From Locle to Les Brenets, $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., narrow-gauge railway in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (fares 60.40 c. ). The train ascends to the right, and throngh a tunnel, to stat. Les Frêtes; then through wooded valleys and meadows, along the deep gorge of the Bied (opposite runs the Morteau line, see above) and through two tunnels, to the large village of Les Brenets ( 2800 '; "Couronne; "Lion d'Or; Bellevue), in the valley of the Doubs. From the station we descend through the village to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. ascent 20 min .) Pré du Lac, on the *La des Brenets $\left(2470^{\prime}\right)$, a lake $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long, which the Doubs forms above the waterfall. A boat ( 3 fr . there and back; more than 3 pers. 1 fr . each), or the small steamboat which plies on Snndays (for large parties on week-days also) now conveys us down the dark-green lake, narrowing between wooded sandstone rocks, and presenting a series of picturesque scenes. In $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. we reach the "Saut du Doubs (H8t. du Saut du Doubs, with garden, on the Swiss side; Hot. de la Chute, on the French side, both unpretending). In 6 min . from the French inn we obtain a fine view from a point high above the picturesque fall, which is $80^{\prime}$ in height. A road on the right bank, through wood, affording charming glimpses of the basin of the Doubs, leads back to ( 3 M .) Les Brenets.

60. From Neuchâtel to Pontarlier through the Val de Travers.

$33^{1} / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Railway in $13 / 4-23 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$; fares 6 fr .75 c ., 4 fr ., 2 fr . 80 c . (From Pontarlier to Paris by Dijon, express in $73 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$; from Bern to Paris $93 / 4-10^{1} / 3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) This Jura Railway (comp. p. 219) also traverses a most picturesque region. Views to the left. French time at Pontarlier, 55 min . behind Central European time (that of Switzerland and Germany).

Neuchâtel, see p. 217. The line, parallel with the Yverdon line (p.223) as far as Auvernier, crosses the Seyon (p. 217), passes under the Val de Travers road, and affords a beautiful view of the lake and the Alps. The train skirts lofty vine-clad slopes, and crosses the Gorge of Serrières by a bold viaduct. In the valley is Suchard's large chocolate-factory. Above rises the small châtean of Beauregard.

4 M. Auvernier; the little town lies below, to the left ( $1480^{\prime}$; Hôtel du Lac, moderate). The train diverges to the right from the Yverdon line (p. 223) and ascends, in full view of the lake and the Alps. Entering the rocky and wooded ravine of the Reuse or Areuse, we observe the lofty viaduct of the Lausanne line (p. 224) far below, to the left. The last glimpse of the lake down this valley is very picturesque. We soon enter a tunnel, high on the N. slope of the valley, almost under the station of Chambrelien (p. 220). Seven more tunnels, beyond the fourth of which is ( $81 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) stat. Champ du Moulin (2155'; Hôt. du Sentier des Gorges, trout), in a picturesque site. (To the Gorges de la Reuse, see p. 224.)

Neuchâtel and Chaux-de-Fonds ( 13 M . distant) are supplied with water from this point; the engine-house (2137'), $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. up the Reuse, is interesting. The neighbouring house of Lient. Col. Perrier was, according to the inscription, once occupied by J. J. Rousseau. A footpath, beyond the wa-ter-wheels, leads on the right bank of the Reuse to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Saut de Brot.

12 M. Noiraigue ( $2380^{\prime}$; Croix Blanche), at the N. base of the Creux du Vent. The valley, called the Val de Travers from this point to St. Sulpice, changes its character here, and the Reuse now flows calmly through a grassy dale.

From Noiraigue a path ascends the Creux du Vent ( 4807 ; 2 hrs .), a view, extending from Pilatus to Mont Blanc, is suddenly revealed. At the top is a basin, $500^{\prime}$ deep, shaped like a horseshoe, nearly 3 M . in circuit. better ronte than from Boudry (p. 223) or St. Aubin (p. 224), as the striking Within it is an excellent spring, to which the descent is steep and fatiguing. In stormy weather this 'hollow of the wind' is filled with surging white vapour, like the steam in a boiling cauldron. Rare plants and minerals. Rfmets. at the Maison du Creux du Vent (3218), on the N.E. side.

From ( $14 \frac{1}{2}$ M.) Travers (2392'; Ours) a branch-line runs in the valley, by Couvet, Môtiers, and Fleurier, to Buttes and St. Sulpice (see p. 223). Opposite, farther on, are asphalt-mines. -17 M . Couvet (2418'; Ecu de France), a pretty town. Here, and at Môtiers and Fleurier, excellent absinthe is made.

Diligence twice daily in 2 hrs .10 min . (one-horse carr. 10 fr .) to (7 M.) La Brévine ( 3430 '; Hotel), a health-resort with a chalybeate spring.

The line again ascends the N . slope of the valley. Opposite, far below, lies Môtiers-Travers (2425'; Maison de Ville), where, by permission of the Prussian governor General Keith, Roussean lived in 1762 after his expulsion from Yverdon by the government of Bern, and wrote his 'Lettres écrites de la Montagne'.

The Ravine of the Raisse (affluent of the Reuse), with its picturesque rocks and waterfalls, deserves a visit. We pass a bridge, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Môtiers, and follow the brook to the right, ascending a pretty wooded gorge. In 1 hr . we reach a new path to the top ( $3 \overline{5} \mathrm{~min}$.). From this point, with a guide or a good map, we may ascend the Chasseron (p. 225). - Beyond Môtiers is the Grotte de Moftiers, a limestone cavern, one arm of which is $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long. It may be safely explored for $1 / 2 \mathrm{MI}$. (rough walking; swarms of bats). At the entrance, a waterfall.

19 M. Boveresse is the station for Fleurier and Môtiers (p. 222). In the valley, farther on, is Fleurier ( $2455^{\prime}$; *Poste; Couronne), with extensive watch and absinthe factories. Hence to the top of the Chasseron in $2 \frac{1}{2}$ hrs., see p. 225. Beyond a tunnel, 600 yds. long, we observe St. Sulpice ( $2557^{\prime}$ ') below, on the left, with a Portland cement factory. Scenery again very picturesque. Two bridges and two tunnels. In the valley, $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{M}$. to the W . of Fleurier, the Reuse, which probably flows underground from the Lac des Taillères, rises as a considerable stream, soon capable of working several mills. Road and railway pass through the defile of La Chaine.

The line attains its highest point (Col de Verrières, 3084'), and then enters a monotonous green valley with beds of peat. At ( 25 M .) Verrières-Suisse ( $3040^{\prime}$; Hôt. de la Ville), the last Swiss village, the French 'Army of the East' under Bourbaki crossed the frontier in Feb., 1871. The train enters France (luggage examined at Pontarlier, see below). Then ( 26 M.) Verrières-France ( $3015^{\prime}$ ). Near St. Pierre de la Cluse the scenery is again interesting. The defile of La Cluse, which railway and road traverse, is fortified. On the left rises the Fort de Joux; on the right, $100^{\prime}$ higher, is the new Fort de Larmont. We cross the Doubs. On the right, a monument in honour of the 'derniers défenseurs de la patrie' in Feb., 1871.

331/2 M. Pontarlier (2854'; *Hôt. de la Poste; Hôt. de Paris; National), a small town on the Doubs. See Baedeker's N. France.

From Pontarlier to Cossonay and Vallorle, see R. 64.

61. From Neuchâtel to Lausanne.

47 M . Rallway in $2-21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; fares $7 \mathrm{fr} .80,5 \mathrm{fr}$. $50,3 \mathrm{fr} .90 \mathrm{c}$. (to Geneva in $23 / 4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$; fares $12 \mathrm{fr} .70,8 \mathrm{fr} .90,6 \mathrm{fr} .35 \mathrm{c}$.). Best view to the left. Travellers to Geneva at certain trains must change at Renens (p. 225; apply to the conductor). - Steamboat on the Lake of Neuchatel between Neuchâtel and Morat (p. 230), and between Neuchâtel and Estavayer only (twice daily in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., corresponding with the train to Freiburg, p. 227).

Neuchâtel, see p. 217. To (4 M.) Auvernier, see p. 222. Our train quits the lake, to which it returns beyond Bevaix. - 5 M . Colombier (Cheval Blanc), with an old château, now a barrack, and fine avenues, yields excellent white wine. (On the lake, $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{M}$. to the F., is the Chanélaz Hydropathic, with park and views; pens. 6-8 fr.) - 6 M. Boudry ( $1693^{\prime}$ ); the little town ( $1542^{\prime}$; Maison de Ville), the birthplace of Marat (1744-93), lies below, on the right bank of the Reuse, 1 M. from the station. Steam-tramway to Neuchâtel, see p. 217.

The *Gorges de la Reuse are interesting. Leaving stat. Boudry, we cross the line (passing the viaduct on the left) and pass through the village of Troisrods. Before the last house we turn to the left, between walls, and descend in 20 min . to the entrance of the ravine. A path, hewn in the rock at places, affords striking views of the narrow, wooded gorge. In 5 min , we come to a path to the left, leading to the Chalel aux Clées (fee for the use of the path expected). In 20 min . more we observe the Grotle aux Fours, above us, on the right, with a large entrance (easily accessible). Farther on, the Pontarlier railway runs high above the gorge, on the right, and still higher is the road. We next reach ( 55 min ; 1 hr .40 min . from Boudry station) the Champ du Moulin station (p.222). Or we take the train to Champ du Moulin, and walk down the Gorges to Boudry. Another path descends to the Gorges from Chambrelien (p.220). Circular ticket from Neuchâtel and back viâ Chambrelien and Bondry, 2nd cl. $1 \mathrm{fr} .40 \mathrm{c} ., 3 \mathrm{rdcl} 1 \mathrm{fr}$.

From Boudry to the Creux du Vent (p. 222), 3 hrs .
Beyond Boudry the train is carried by a great viaduct over the deep valley of the Reuse or Areuse. The stream falls into the lake near Cortaillod, where the best red wine in the canton is produced. 9 M . Bevaix (1560'). The line returns to the lake, which it skirts to Yverdon. 11 M. Gorgier-St-Aubin; 14 M. Vaumarcus, with the well-preserved castle of that name. At $(151 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Concise (1453'; Eicu de France) many relics of ancient lake-villages have been found. - $171 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Onnens-Bonvillars.

201/2 M. Grandson (pop. 1708 ; Lion d'Or; Croix Rouge ; Hôtel de la Gare, D. $21 / 2$ fr., well spoken of), a picturesque little town, probably of Roman origin, has a handsome Château of Baron de Blonay (view from the terrace). The old Church, Romanesque, with a Gothic choir, once belonged to a Benedictine abbey.

The château of Grandson, once the seat of a family of that name and said to have been built about the year 1000 , was taken by the Bernese in 1475, and in Feb., 1476, was captured by Charles the Bold, Duke of Burgundy. A few weeks later, on 3rd March, 1476, the Duke was surprised by the advancing Confederates near Grandson, and in spite of his numerical superiority ( 50,000 Burgundians, it is said, against 20,000 Swiss) was utterly defeated. Enormous booty was captured on the occasion.

The train skirts the S.W. end of the lake, and crosses the Thiele near its influx into the lake.

23 M. Yverdon (1433'; '7464 inhab. ; *Hôt. de Londres, R. \& A. $21 / 2$, D. 3, pens. $61 / 2$ fr. ; Paon, pens. $61 / 2 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Faucon), the Roman Eburodunum, is a thriving little town on the Thièle, with pleasant promenades. The Château, erected by Duke Conrad of Zähringen in 1135, and the seat of Pestalozzi's famous school in 1805-25, is now occupied by the town-schools, a library, and a collection of coins and antiquities. In front of it rises a Monument to Pestalozai (d. 1827), a bronze-group designed by Lanz. The Hôtel de Ville contains Roman antiquities found in the environs, and on the first floor a collection of clocks of the 18 th century. Near the churchyard are fragments of a Roman fort. To the S.E. ( $3 / 4$ M.) are the Bains d'Yverdon, with a sulphur spring and a Curhaus (pens. 7 fr .), halfway to which are the Pens. La Prairie ( $4-5 \mathrm{fr}$.) and the Maison Blanche (pens. 4-41/2 fr.), both with gardens.

From Yverdon to Ste. Croix, $151 / 2$ M., narrow-gauge railway (trains on week-days only) in $1-11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. ( 2 fr . 50 c ., return-tickets 4 fr .). The line diverges, to the N. of Yverdon, from the Neuchâtel line, crosses the Brinaz, and ascends its ralley viâ Valleyres-sous-Montagny and Essert to ( $51 / 2$ M.) Peney-Vuiteboeuf (1942'). To the W. ( $51 / 2 \mathrm{MI}$.; diligence thrice daily in 50 min ., by Neueneck) lies Laupen (Bär), a small town with an old château, at the confluence of the Sense and the Sarine, famed in Swiss annals for a victory gained in 1339 by the Bernese under Rudolph von Erlach (p.145) over the army of F reiburg and the allied nobility of the Uechtland, Aargau, Savoy, and Burgundy. The Bramberg Bellevce, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the town, beyond the suspension-bridge, well spoken of. Electric Tramooy from the station to the large bridge (p. 227).

Freiburg (2100'; pop. 13,328), Fr. Fribourg, capital of Canton Freiburg, the ancient Uechtland, founded in 1178 by Berthold IV. of Zähringen, stands on a height nearly surrounded by the Sarine (Saane). The town retains some of its ancient walls and towers. A Roman Catholic university was opened here in 1889. Most of the inhabitants speak French. The town lies on the boundary between the two tongues, and German is still spoken in the lower quarters. As the grand situation of the town and its bridges is not seen from the railway-station, the following walk of $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$. is recommended.

From the station, to the left, past the little Protestant church and through the suburb to ( 7 min .) an open space (where the Rue $d u$ Musée ascends to the left, see p. 227), and thence by the Rue de Lausanne to the Place de l'Hôtbl-de-Ville. Here stands a venerable lime-tree, $14^{\prime}$ in circumference, supported by stone pillars.

According to tradition, this tree was originally a twig, borne by a young native of Freibnrg when he arrived in the town, breathless and exhausted from loss of blood, to announce to his fellow-citizens the victory of Morat (1476). 'Victory' was the only word he could utter, and having thus fulfilled his mission, he expired.

To the right rises the old Hôtel de Ville, on the site of the château of the Dukes of Zähringen, with an octagonal clock-tower of 1511. In front of it stands a monument to Canisius (Peter de Hondt; d. 1597), the celebrated Jesuit. - To the left of the lime-tree the Rue du Tilleul leads past a bronze Statue of Father Grégoire Girard (d. 1850) to the Gothic -
*Church of St. Nicholas, founded in 1283, rebuilt in the 15 th cent., restored in 1860. The handsome tower, $280^{\prime}$ high, was erected in 1470-92. The portal has curious reliefs of the Last Judgment.

The large Organ, with 67 stops and 7800 pipes, some of them $32^{\prime}$ in length, was built by $A l$. Mooser (d. 1839), whose bust has been placed to the left of the entrance. Performances in summer at 1.30 and 8 p.m. daily. Adm. 1 fr . - The late-Gothic carved Stalls deserve notice. The second chapel on the S. side contains a picture by Deschwoanden, St. Anne and 8t. Mary. The chnir has three modern stained-glass windows (St. Nicholas and other saints). A tablet on the S. pillar at the entrance to the choir is to the memory of Canisius (p. 226).

Behind the choir of St. Nicholas is the Post Office, and a little to the left the great *Suspension Bridgr, or Grand Pont Suspendu, constructed by Chaley in 1834,270 yds. long and $168^{\prime}$ above the Sarine. It is supported by six wire-ropes, 410 yds . long, the ends of which are secured to blocks of stone far below the surface of the earth.

Ascending the right bank to the right for 8 min ., we reach the Pont de Gottrion ( 250 yds . long, $245^{\prime}$ high), a similar bridge, constructed in 1840 over the Vallée de Gotteron, a deep ravine descending to the Sarine. We cross this bridge and follow the road on the other side (short-cut to the right closed), and then descend to the right, through the old Porte de Bourguillon, to the $(12 \mathrm{~min}$. from the Pont de Gotteron) picturesquely situated Loretto Chapel, built in 1648, restored in 1888 (fine view of the town). Farther on we obtain, to the left, a view of the valley of the Sarine, which has been converted into a reservoir. A path with steps descends 5 min . from the chapel to the lower town, turning to the left at the fountain and passing the church of St.John (founded by the Knights of Malta), beyond which we cross the Sarine by a stone bridge, and either ascend by the steps to the ( 5 min .) Hôtel de Ville, or follow the road to the left to the ( 12 min .) station.

Those who have time may follow the Rue du Musée (p.226) to the Jesuits' Collège St. Michel, founded by Father Canisius in 1580. The Lycée, adjacent, contains the valuable Cantonal Museum.

Two rooms on the groundfloor contain the *Marcello Musedm, left to the town by the sculptress Duchess Adela Colonna (d. 1879), a native of Freiburg, who took the name of Marcello: busts, statues (Abyssinian sheikh; Pythia, from the Opera House at Paris) by Marcello; pictures by her, and by Regnault, Hébert, Delacroix, Fortuny, Courbet, and others; furniture, etc.; also the Canional Picture Gallery of ancient and modern works. - On the first floor (five rooms), a valuable collection of antiquities from lake-dwellings, Roman and Swiss relics, ethnographical objects, weapons and armour, coins, etc. - The second floor (two rooms) contains zoological and physical, the third floor mineralogical and botanical collections.

It then ascends to the N.W. through a lateral valley to ( 8 M.$)$ Courtepin and ( $101 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Cressier-sur-Mforat (188 $\mathrm{j}^{\prime}$ ). After skirting the hill on which the latter lies, we descend viâ ( 13 M.) Villars-les-MoinesCourgevaux to ( $141 / 2$ M.) Morat (p. 230).

To the S.E. of Freiburg ( 15 M .; by Rechthalden and Plaffeyen; one-horse carriage 15 , two-horse 25 fr .), in the valley of the Sense, is the Schwarze See

As the train proceeds we survey the Simmenthal and Freiburg Mts. to the left, notably the Moléson. The Glane, with its steep banks, and a bridge of four arches which crosses it, are also seen to the left. 24 M. Matran; $251 / 2$ M. Rosé; 27 M. Neyruz; $28 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Cottens; 30 M . Chénens. Near ( 33 M .) Villaz-St-Pierre the train enters the valley of the Glane; on the left are the fertile slopes of the Mont Gibloux (3947'). Near Romont, to the left, is the nunnery of La Fille-Dieu.

36 M. Romont ( $25040^{\prime}$; pop. 1885 ; *Cerf; Couronne; *Croix Blanche; Hôt. de la Gare; *Rail. Restaurant), a little town on the Glane, with ancient walls and watch-towers, is picturesquely situated on a hill. The Castle, founded by the Burgundian kings in the 10 th cent., is occupied by the local authorities (picturesque inner court). The old Gothic Church contains choir-stalls with grotesque carving. At the $S$. end of the hill rises a massive round tower; the adjoining grounds afford a pleasing view.

The "Signal de Chexbres ( 2150 '; * Hot. du Signal, with extensive grounds), 25 min . from the station, affords a superb view. At our feet lies the greater part of the Lake of Geneva; to the left, Vevey; above it, from left to right, are the saddle of the Col de Jaman, the tooth-like Dent de Jaman, the broad back of the Rochers de Naye, and the Tour d’Aï and Tour de Mayen; farther back, the Grand-Mœveran and the Dent de Morcles. In the centre of the background is the pyramid of Mont Catogne; on its left rise the snowy cones of Mont Vélan and Grand Combin; to the right, the Savoy Mts., with the Dent d'Oche. - Travellers bound for Vevey may descend direct from the Signal to the ( 25 min .) village of Chexbres.

37 M. Payerne (1480'; pop. 4339; *Ours; Hôt. de la Gare), the Roman Paterniacum (?), was in the 10 th cent. a frequent residence of the Kings of Burgundy, who then ruled over the modern FrancheComté, Switzerland as far as the Reuss on the E., and part of Savoy.

Bertha of Swabia, wife of Rudolph II. (912-937), erected a church and Benedictine abbey here. Her bones, with those of her husband and her son Conrad, were discovered in 1864, and were baried in the Parish Church, where the queen's saddle with a hole for her distaff is shown. To this day the expression, 'Ce n'est plas le temps où Berthe filait', is a regretful allusion to the 'good old times'.

From Payerne to Freiburg and Yverdon, see p. 227.
The valley of the Broye becomes broad and marshy. $381 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Corcelles; $401 / 2$ M. Dompierre; 42 M. Domdidier.

Remains of an Amphitheatre and other buildings, and of the old townwalls, testify to its former prosperity. The mediæval Castle, at the entrance to the town, occopies the site of the Roman capitol. To the N.W. rises a solitary Corinthian column $39^{\prime}$ high, the remnant of a temple of Apollo, now called Le Cigognier, from the stork's nest which has occupied it for centuries. The Museum (custodian lives near the charch; small fee) contains mosaics, inscriptions, and other relics recently found here; in its garden is the above-mentioned amphitheatre.

In his Childe Harold (iii. 65) Lord Byron alludes to the 'Cigognier': 'By a lone wall a lonelier column rears
A grey and grief-worn aspect of old days.'
At ( $45 \frac{1}{2}$ M. ) Faoug (Soleil; Hôt.-Pens. Wicky) we approach the Lake of Morat (1420'), the Roman Lacus Aventicensis and the Uecht-See of the middle ages, $51 / 2$ M. long. It is separated from the Lake of Neuchâtel by the narrow Mont Vully towards the N. and the Charmontel to the S., but connected with it by the Broye.
$471 / 2$ M. Morat, Ger. Murten (1522 ${ }^{\prime}$; pop. 2360; Couronne; *Croix, R. 11/2-2, D. 21/2, pens. $41 / 2$ fr. ; Lion; Pens. Kauer, on the lake, moderate; Rail. Restaur.), a small and ancient town with wellpreserved gates and walls, which in 1476, with a garrison of 1500 Bernese under Adrian von Bubenberg, resisted the artillery of Charles the Bold for ten days before the battle of Morat. Its arcaded streets are overshadowed by an old Castle. The School contains a collection of Burgundian weapons. Pleasant Lake Baths at the S. end of the town.

Near the lake, $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S . of Morat, rises a marble Obelisk, erected in 1822 in memory of the battle of 22nd June, 1476. This was the bloodiest of the disastrous contests (Grandson, Morat, and Nancy), in which the puissant Duke of Burgundy lost his treasure, his courage, and his life ('Gut, Mut, und Blut'). The Burgundians lost 15,000 men and all their military stores.

The Steamboat from Morat to Neuchâtel ( $2-3$ times daily in $2-21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) crosses the lake to Motier and Praz, at the E. base of the vine-clad Mont Fully (2267'); at Sugiez it passes under a wooden bridge and enters the Broye. To the W. stretches the Jura, from the Weissenstein to the Chasseron. Near La Sauge we enter the Lake of Neuchatel (p. 217), steering first S.W. to Cudrefin, and afterwards N.W. to St. Blaise and Neuchâtel (p. 217).

From Morat to Freiburg, see p. 227.
Near ( $50 \frac{1}{2}$ M.) Galmitz, Fr. Charmey, we leave the lake. To the left is the Grosse Moos, partly reclaimed. $52 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Kerzers, Fr. Chiëtres; $5 \frac{1}{1} / 2$ M. Fräschels, Fr. Frasse; 57 M. Kallnach.

The train crosses the Aare to ( 63 M. ) Lyss, on the Bienne and Bern line (p. 13).

64. From Lausanne to Vallorbe and Pontarlier.

45 M . Railway in $11 / 4-3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( $7 \mathrm{fr} .70,5 \mathrm{fr}$. $35,3 \mathrm{fr} .70 \mathrm{c}$.). Express from Lausanne to Paris ( 327 M. ) in $91 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( $58 \mathrm{fr} .50,39 \mathrm{fr}$. $65,26 \mathrm{fr} .5 \mathrm{c}$.).

Two short tunnels. We then ascend to (18 M.) Arnex $\left(1791^{\prime}\right) ; 13 / 4$ M. to the N. lies the little town of Orbe (p. 225). The windings of the line afford a splendid view, Le Day, the junction for Le Pont (see below). Below (to the right) the Orbe forms the picturesque Saut du Day. Near Vallorbe we cross the Orbe.

$281 / 2$ M. Vallorbe (2520'; pop. 2147, *Gr.-Hôt. de Vallorbe, R. 3-5, pens. from 6 fr.; *Hôtel de Genève-Terminus, at the station; Muison de Ville; Croix Blanche), a watch-making place, at the base of the Mont d' $\operatorname{Or}\left(47 i 0^{\prime}\right)$, mostly rebuilt since the fire of 1883.

On the N. side of Lac Brenet its water disappears in apertures (entonnoirs) in the rocks, and after a subterranean course of 3 M . re-appears as the 'Source of the Orbe', 750 ' lower. Le Pont lies at the S . foot of the "Dent de Vaulion ( $4880^{\prime}$ ), the $W$. side of which presents a precipice, $1600^{\prime}$ high, while the E. side is a gentle, grassy slope. The top is reached in $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$. from Le Pont (best with guide). Geneva (1243'; pop. 86,535, including the suburbs), Fr. Genève, Ital. Ginevra, capital of the smallest canton next to Zug (total pop. 106,738), lies at the S. end of the lake, where the swift blue waters of the Rhone emerge from it, and a little above the confluence of the Rhone and the Arve (p. 242). The Rhone divides the town into two parts: on the left bank lies the Old Toun, the seat of government and centre of traffic, with the suburbs of Plainpalais, to the S.W., and Eaux Vives, to the S.E.; on the right bank is the Quartier St. Gervais, with the suburb of Pâquis, to the E. Since the removal of the old fortifications (after 1850) both parts of the town have extended with extraordinary rapidity.

History. Geneva appears in the 1st cent. B. C. as Genava, a town of the Allobroges (Cæs. de Bell. Gall., i. 6-8), whose territory became a Roman province. In 433 it became the capital of the Burgundian kingdom, with which it came into the possession of the Franks in 533; it was annexed to the new Burgundian kingdom at the end of the 9th cent., and fell to the German Empire in 1033. In 1034 Emp. Conrad II. caused himself to be crowned here as King of Burgundy. In the course of the protracted conflicts for supremacy between the Bishops of Geneva, the imperial Counts of Geneva, and the Counts (afterwards Dukes) of Savoy, the citizens succeeded in obtaining various privileges. In 1518 they entered into an alliance with Freiburg, and in 1526 with Bern. Two parties were now formed in the town, the Confederates ('Eidgenossen', pronounced by the French 'Higuenos', whence the term 'Huguenots'), and the Mamelukes, partisans of the House of Savoy.

In the midst of these discords dawned the Reformation, which Geneva zealously embraced. In 1535 the Bishop transferred his seat to Gex, and the following year the theologian Jean Colvin (properly Caulvin or Chauvin), who was born at Noyon in Picardy in 1509, a refugee from Paris, sought an asylum at Geneva. He attached himself to Farel, the chief promoter of the new doctrines at Geneva, and soon obtained great influence in all affairs of church and state. In 1538 he was banished, but on his return three years later he obtained almost sovereign power and established a rigid ecclesiastical discipline. His rhetorical powers were of the highest order, and the austerity which he so eloquently preached he no less faithfully practised. In accordance with the spirit of the age, however, his sway was tyrannical and intolerant. Castellio, who rejected the doctrine of predestination, was banished in 1540 , and Michael Servet, a Spanish physician who had written against the doctrine of the Trinity (de Trinitatis erroribus), and was only a visitor at Geneva, was arrested in 1553 by Calvin's order, and condemned to the stake and executed by the Great Council. In 1559 Calvin founded the Genera Academy, which soon became the leading Protestant school of theology. He died on 27th May, 1564, but his doctrine has been firmly rooted in Geneva ever since. - The attempts made by the Dukes of Savoy at the beginning of the 17 th cent. to recover Geneva were abortive, and Protestant princes, who recognised the town as the bulwark of the Reformed Church, contributed considerable sums towards its fortification.

In the 18 th cent. Geneva was weakened by dissensions, often leading to bloodshed, between the privileged old families (bourgeois), who enjoyed a monopoly both of power and of trade, and the unprivileged and poorer classes (natifs, habitants, and sujets). This unjust distinction was farther emphasised by the writings of Jean Jacques Rousseau, the son of a watchmaker, born here in 1712. At the instigation of Voltaire and the University of Paris, Rousseau's 'Emile' and 'Contrat Social' were burnt in 1763 by the hangman, by order of the magistrates, as being 'téméraires, scandaleux, impies, et tendant à détruire la religion chrétienne et tous les gouvernements'. In 1798 Geneva became the capital of the French Departement du Léman, and in 1814 it joined the Swiss Confederation as the 22nd Canton. In 1816, under the leadership of James Fazy, the canton overthrew the Conservative government, and in May, 1847, it adopted a democratic constitution, which is still substantially in force.

From the Railway Station (Gare de Cornavin, p. 232) the broad Rue du Montblatc leads to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the lake. To the left is the handsome new Post Office (Pl. D, 3), on the attic of which are statues of the five Continents. Opposite, at the corner of the Rue Chantepoulet, is a colossal bust of Louis Favre (p.237), the contractor of the St. Gotthard Tunnel (p. 120), by E. Lambert. Farther on, to the left, is the Gothic Church of the Holy Trinity (English; Pl. D, 3, 4).

From the end of the Rue du Montblanc the handsome *Pont du Montblanc (Pl. D, 4, 5), 280 yds. long, leads to the Promenade du Lac (p. 237). Between the Pont du Montblanc and the Pont des Bergues is Rousseau's Island (Pl. D, 4), united to the latter by a chain-bridge. In the centre rises the bronze Statue of Rousseau, by Pradier (1834). By the third bridge, the Pont de la Machine (Pl. C, 4, above which are the Rhone baths, p. 233), is the Central Station of the Electricity Works. The Island, on which lies one of the oldest quarters of the town, partly removed of late, divides the Rhone into two branches (p. 241).

Handsome quays with tempting shops flank the river near these bridges, the chief being the Grand-Quai on the left bank, and the Quai des Bergues on the right. Adjoining the latter is the Quai du Montblanc (PI. D, E, 4), extending N.E. from the Pont du Montblanc, and affording a view of the *Mont Blanc group, which presents a majestic appearance on clear evenings. (See the mountain-indicator.)

An idea of the relative heights of the different peaks is better obtained here than at Chamonix. Thus Mont Blanc is $15,782^{\prime}$ high, while the Aiguille du Midi on the left is $12,608^{\prime}$ only. More to the left are the Grandes Jorasses and the Dent du Géant; in front of the Mont Blanc group are the Aiguilles Rouges; then, more in the foreground, the Môle, an isolated pyramid rising from the plain; near it, the snowy Aiguille d'Argentière; then the broad Buet; lastly the long crest of the Voirons, which terminate the panorama on the left, while the opposite end is formed by the Salève.

On the left side of the Quai du Montblane rises the sumptuous Monument Brunswick (Pl. E, 4), erected to Duke Charles II. (d. 1873), who left his property (about 20 million fr.) to Geneva.

The monument ( $66^{\prime}$ in height), designed by Franel, is a modified copy of that of Can Signorio della Scala at Verona. It consists of a hexagonal canopy in marble, in three stories, on a platform, 220 ft . long and 78 ft . broad, the approach to which is guarded by two colossal lions in yellow marble by Cain. A sarcophagus in the central story bears a recumbent figure of the duke, with reliefs from the history of Branswick, all by Iguel. At the projecting corners are marble statues of six celebrated Guelphs (Augustus; Otho the Child; Charles William Ferdinand; Frederick William; Henry the Lion; Ernest the Confessor), by Schoenewerk, Thomas, A. Millet, and Kissling. On the roof are the Christian virtues, the Apostles, etc. The bronze equestrian statue of the duke (by Cain), which crowned the monument, proved too heavy and has been taken down.

On the adjoining Quai des Pâquis, to the left, is the Cursaal (Pl. E, 3; p. 234), behind which is the American Church (p. 235). Beyond the Jetée des Pâquis (Pl. F, 4), at the end of which is a lighthouse (flash-light), the Quai du Léman extends to the villas of Sécheron.

On the S. bank of the lake, in the Place by the Pont du Montblanc, is the National Monument (P1. D, 5), a bronze group of Helvetia and Geneva by Dorer, commemorating the union of Geneva with the Confederation in 1814. - Adjacent is the pleasant Promenade du Lac, or Jardin Anglais, with a café, where a band often plays on summer evenings. To the left of the entrance is a 'barometer column', and in the centre of the garden are a fountain and bronze busts of Al. Calame (p. 239) by Iguel, and Fr. Diday by Bovy. A pavilion here contains an interesting Relief of Mont Blanc (adm. 50 c.; Sun., $9-3$, gratis), on a scale of $1: 6000$ (Mont Blanc 31 inches in height; proportion of vertical to horizontal dimensions, 2:1).

From the lake, off the Quai des Eaux-Vives (Pl. E, F, 5), rise two granite rocks, the larger of which, the Pierre à Niton, is traditionally said to have been a Roman altar to Neptune. At the end of the Quai is a pier, on which a Fountain, with a jet 115 ft . high (illumination, see p. 234), plays on Sundays and holidays in summer. Near the Quai is the Salle de la Réformation (Pl. E, 6), containing a large concert-hall, the Calvinium, with memorials of Calvin, ethnographical curiosities, etc. (adm. 50 c.), and a Model of Jerusalem by Illès. - Farther to the E., $1 / 4$ M. from the city-bounds, on the lake (easily reached by tramway or electric launch), is the *Parc des Eaux-Vives, formerly the property of Louis Favre (p. 236), with pretty walks, a restaurant, and a mineral spring (adm. 50 c .).

Following the Rue d'Italie by the Hôtel Métropole, and then ascending a few paces, we reach the Promenade de St. Antoine (Pl. $\mathrm{C}, \mathrm{D}, 6)$, a terrace planted with trees. On the right is the Collège de St. Antoine, founded by Calvin in 1559 ; on the left (E.) is the Observatory; on a height to the S.E. rises the Russian Church, with gilded cupolas and elaborate interior. Adjacent is a bronze bust of $R$. Töpffer (d. 1846), the author.

The highest point on the left bank is crowned by the old Romanesque Cathedral (St. Pierre; Pl. C, 6), completed by Emp.

Conrad II. in 1034, altered in the 12-13th cent., and disfigured in the 18 th by a Corinthian portico. It has just been thoroughly restored.

The verger lives at the back of the church, Rue Farel 8. Adm. by the side-door, next the choir; on Tues., Thurs., & Sat., 1-3, free; at other hours, except Sun. $10-12$, each pers. 20 c .; ascent of the tower 50 c ., 25 pers. 1 fr., each additional pers. 20 c .

Interior. To the right of the entrance, Monument of Duke Henri de Rohan (leader of the French Protestants under Louis XIII.), who fell at Rheinfelden (p.20) in 1638, of his wife Mrarguerite de Sully, and of his son Tancrede; the black marble sarcophagus rests on two lions; the statue of the duke, in a sitting posture, by Iguel, is modern. Beneath a black tombstone in the nave lies Cardinal Jean de Brogny (d. 1426), president of the Council of Constance. - Adjacent is the tasteful Gothic *Chapelle des Macchabees ( 1406 ; restored 1878-88), with stained-glass windows of the 15th cent., the chair of Calvin (under the pulpit), and the monument of Agrippa d'Aubigne (d. 1630 at Geneva, in exile), the confidant of Henry IV. of France. - Organ Concerts, see p. 234.

Near the cathedral is the Hôtel de Ville (Pl. C, 5,6 ), a clumsy building in the Florentine style, entered by an inclined plane, which once enabled the councillors to be conveyed in litters to or from the council-chambers. The Court of Arbitration to settle the Alabama claims sat here in 1872. - Opposite is the Arsenal (Pl. C, 5; Sun. and Thurs., 1-4), containing the Musée Historique, a collection of old armour and weapons, the ladders of the 'Escalade' (see below), etc.

Grand' Rue, No. 40, is the house in which Jean Jacques Roussear, the son of a watchmaker, was born (1712, d. 1778 at Ermenonville near Paris). His grandfather lived at Rue Rousseau 27, on the right bank of the Rhone, which bears an erroneous tablet asserting that Roussean was born there.

The Musee Fol (Pl. C, 5; Sun. & Thurs., 1-4; Grand' Rue 11, in the court to the right) contains a valuable collection of Greek, Roman, and Etruscan antiquities, the yield of recent excavations, and medirval and Renaissance curiosities.

The Rue de la Cité, the lower prolongation of the Grand' Rue, leads to the Rue des Allemands, where the tasteful Fontaine de l'Escalade (Pl. C, 4) commemorates the last and nearly successful attempt of the Savoyards to gain possession of the town (comp. p. 233). The day on which the 'Escalade' was repulsed (early on 12 th Dec., 1602) is still kept with public rejoicings.

A gateway adjoining the Hôtel de Ville leads to the promenade of La Treille, planted with chestnut-trees, below which is the Botanic Garden (Pl. B, C, 5,6 ), laid out in 1816 by the celebrated Aug. de Candolle (d. 1841). On and near the hot-house are busts of famous Genevese naturalists.

The Prombnade des Bastions, with its Kiosque des Bastions (p. 234), separates the Botanic Garden from the University. In the grounds are a statue of David, by Chaponnière, and the 'Pierre aux fées', or 'aux dames', with four figures, supposed to be Druidical. To the E. is a plain monument to H. A. Gosse, the geologist.

The University (P1. B, 6), erected in 1868-72, consists of three buildings connected by glass galleries. The Central Part contains the lecture-rooms and laboratories (except the medical and chemical schools), the $\boldsymbol{E}$. Wing the collections of antiquities and coins, and the Library, and the W. Wing the Nat. Hist. Museum. In front of the university are the bronze busts of Ant. Carteret (d. 1889), the statesman and educationist, of F.J. Pictet de la Rive, the palaontolngist (d. 1872 ; r.), and Colladon, the engineer (1.); and on the S. side (Rue de Candolle) is the bust of $K$. Vogt, the naturalist (d. 1895). The vestibule of the central building contains a bronze bust of the Swiss author Marc Monnier (d. 1885), by Dufauz, and a model of the Saussure Monument at Chamonix (p. 284). The university has 70 professors and about 500 students.

The Library, founded abont the middle of the 16th cent., contains 130,000 vols. and 1600 MSS . The Salle Lullin on the groundfloor, to the right of the entrance (Sun. and Thars., $1-4$; at other times apply to the concierge; fee), contains 250 ancient and modern portraits of reformers, statesmen, and scholars, either Genevese, or connected with the history of Geneva; also valuable MSS., exhibited in glass-cases: homilies of St. Augustine on papyrus (6th cent.); house-keeping accounts of Philip le Bel (1308) on wax tablets; many with miniatures, some of them captured from Charles the Bold at Grandson (p. 224). On an old reading-desk is a French Bible (printed at Geneva in 1588), richly bound in red morocco, and bearing the arms of France and Navarre, destined by the Council of Geneva as a gift to Henry IV., but never presented owing to his abjuration of Protestantism. - On the groundfloor is also the Cabinet of Coins; and on the sunk-floor is the Archaeological Museum, containing prehistoric and other antiquities, chiefly of local interest (Sun. and Thurs., 1-4). The first floor contains the reading-room (week-days, $9-12$ and 1-6; closed in the afternoon during vacation). - In the court is the Musée Epigraphique, a collection of Roman and mediæval inscriptions found at Geneva.

The Natural History Museum (free on week-days, except Tues. and Sat., 1-4; Sun. 11-4; at other times apply to the concierge, fee), arranged by F. J. Pictet, contains the famous collection of conchylia of B. Delessert ; Pictet's collection of fossils; De Saussure's geological collection; Melly's collection of about 35,000 coleoptera; a collection of the fauna of the environs of Geneva; valuable rock-crystals from the Tiefen Glacier (p. 132), etc.

The Athínfe (Pl. C, 6), to the S.E. of the Botanic Garden, contains lecture-rooms, a library of works on art, and an exhibition of art (p. 234). Near it is the Ecole de Chimie (Pl. B, 6).

To the N.W. of the Botanic Garden and the Bastion Promenade extends the circular Place Neuve (Pl. B, 5), adorned with an equestrian statue of Gen. Dufour (d. 1875), in bronze, designed by Lan7. On the S.W. side is the Conservatory of Music. On the N.W. rises the *Theatre, erected in 1872-79, a Renaissance building, with a façade enriched with columns and figures. The interior ( 1400 seats), with its handsome 'foyer', deserves a visit (week-days, 1-4). - To the N.E., at the beginning of the Corraterie, is the -
*Musée Rath (free in summer, Mon., Wed., Thars., \& Frid. 1-4, and Sun.11-4; fee at other times; catalogue $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), an art-collection founded by the Russian general Rath (1766-1819), a Genevese, presented to the city, and since much extended.

Barton, formerly British Consul at Geneva. Above the door is a fine Figure of Harmony by Massarotti. Below the bridge, on the left bank, are the Water Works (Forces Motrices du Rhône), constructed in 1883-86, which supply the houses and afford 6000 horsepower for the use of factories (at a charge of 60 fr. annually per litre per hr.). The left branch of the Rhone (p. 236) is dammed up for this parpose, the right branch being left open for the free discharge of the lake. A visit to the large hall, entered from the Quai de la Poste, will interest even the unscientific; the huge water-wheels represent 300 horse-power each and describe 26 revolutions per minnte. - Similar works, supplying 12,000 horsepower for electric light, etc., are $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. down-stream at Chèvres.

Mornex ( ${ }^{*}$ Hott. BeauSite, pens. 7-8 fr.; Hot. de TEcu de Savoie; "Pension Bain, in the old chatteau; Engl. Ch. Service), a charming village on the S. slope of the Petit-Saleve, is visited as a health-resort. -- From Veyrier (see above) the electric tramway crosses the Annemasse and Bellegarde line (p. 270), skirts the extensive limestone-quarries of Veyrier, runs above the Pas de l'Echelle (p. 244), passes through a tunnel ( 120 yds .), and reaches ( 2 M. ) Monnetier-Eglise (2336'; "Hôt.-Pens. de la Reconnaissance ; H8t. du Chateau; ${ }^{}$ Hot.- Pens. Trottet, R., L., \& A. $3^{1 / 2}$, B. $1^{1 / 4}$, D. ${ }^{21 / 2}$, pens. $61 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; Hott. Belvedere, R , L., \& A. 3½, B. $11 / 2$, D. 3, pens. from $6 \mathrm{fr} ;$ Hot. des Platanes), situated in a depression between the Petit and Grand-Saleeve. From this point the Petit-Saleve is easily ascended in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., the Grand-Salève in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (see below). - The line then goes on to the ( 3 M.$)$ central station of MonnetierMairie (2625'; *Hôt.-Pens. Bellevue, with full view of the Alps, pens. 6-10 fr.), and thence ascends the partly wooded slopes of the Grand-salève to the ( $33 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) terminus at Treize-Arbres ( $3746^{\prime}$; Buffet; Hôt.-Pens. \& Restauraut des Treize Arbres, 5 min . farther up). The height 6 min . beyond the hotel affords a beautiful survey of the Mont Blanc chain, the Lake of Geneva, the Jura, Cantons Geneva and Vaud, and a part of France. We now ascend the ridge, passing the Grande Gorge (p. 244), and in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. reach the Crêt de Grange Tournier ( ${ }^{(524}$ '), the highest point of the Grand-Salève, whence we survey the Lake of Annecy also. The walk may be extended to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pitons (see above). - The Breaks of Thom. Cook \& Son (see p. 234), affording a pleasant mode of transit for ladies and others, start at 2 p.m. and return between 6 and 8 p.m. ( 5 fr.). - Veyrier (p. 243) is the best starting-point for the ascent of the Saleve on foot. We follow the Pas de $l$ 'Echelle, running below the electric tramway, then ascend a flight of 101 steps in the rock to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Monnetier-Eglise (p. 243), whence a good bridle-track, to the right, winds up to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Treize Arbres. - Ascent from Etrembier'es (p. 278) longer but easier. We cross the Arve; after 5 min . turn to the left and follow the road to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Mornex; thence take the upper road, by the ( 20 min .) Hotel Bellevze, at the Monnetier-Mairie station, to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more) Monnetier-Eglise (p. 243). - A third, but more fatiguing, route ascends from Bossey (steam-tramway station, p. 243), by Crevin, and through the Grande Gorge, by a steep and stony path, to the ( 2 hrs. ) plateau (p.243). The route throngh the Petite Gorge, to the left of the Grande Gorge, is dangerous.

On the E. Bank of the lake a walk (tramway from Cours de Rive to Vésenaz, 50 c.) may be taken along the Quai des Eaux-Vives, planted with plane-trees, to ( 3 M .) Vésenaz (garden-restaurants by the lake, at La Belotte); return to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Geneva by Cologny (Chalet Suisse; Cafe-Restaurant des Alpes), with a charming view of the lake and the Villa Diodati, where byron wrote 'Manfred' and Canto III. of 'Childe Harold' in 1816; or farther to the E. viâ Vandoeuvres and Chougny, with a fine survey of Mont Blanc. - The steam-tramway goes on from Vésenaz to ( 10 M .) the little French town of Douvaine.

The long range of the oirons, to the N.E. of Geneva, commanding a superb view of the Alps of Savoy, the Jura Mts., etc., is another favourite point. Railway (Geneva and Eaux-Vives Station, p. 232) viâ Annemasse (p. 278) to ( 50 min. ) Bons-St-Didier; thence a drive of 4 hrs. over the Col de Saxel (one-horse carr. 15, two-horse 25 fr .) or a walk of $21 / 2$ hrs. to the summit. On the E. slope, $100^{\prime}$ below the summit, is the ${ }^{}$ Hotel de l'Ermitage (pens. 7-10 fr.; frequented by the French), in the midst of pine-wood, visited as a health-resort; and 10 min . below it is the *Nouvel Hot. des Chalets, with baths (R. 3-5, lunch 3, D. 4, pens. 6-10 fr.). Charming walks to the ( 10 min.$)$ pavilion on the Calvaive or Grand Signal, the highest point ( $4875^{\prime}$ ); to the ( 20 min .) old monastery ( $4590^{\prime}$ ) on the N.W. slope; to the Créte $d^{\prime} A u d o z$, an eminence $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S.W.; and to the ( 1 hr .) Fortnightly ticket, allowing unlimited use of the steamers, 25 fr ., monthly ticket 40 fr . - Steamboat stations on the N. bank (all with piers) : Bellevue, Versoix, Coppet, Celigny, Nyon, Rolle, St. Prex, Morges. St. Sulpice, Ouchy (Lausanne), Pully, Lutry, Cully, Rivaz-St-Saphorin, Vevey (Grand Hotel), Vevey-Marche, Vevey-la-Tour, Clarens, Montreux-Vernex, Territet-Chillon, Villeneuve, Bouveret. The ex-press-steamers leaving Geneva (Quai du Montblanc) at $9.15 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. and 1.40 p.m. touch only at Nyon, Thonon and Evian on the S. bank, Ouchy, Vevey, Clarens, Montreux, Territet, Villeneave, and Bouveret. - Several steamboats also ply between the N. and S. banks (Nyon-Nernier, NyonThonon, Evian-Ouchy). - Good restaurants on board the steamers (D. $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.).

The *Lake of Geneva (1220'), Fr. Lac Léman, the Lacus Lemanus of the Romans, is 45 M . long, upwards of 8 M . broad between Morges and Amphion, and $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. between the Pointe de Genthod and Bellerive; $250^{\prime}$ deep near Chillon, $940^{\prime}$ near Meillerie, $1015^{\prime}$ between Ouchy and Evian (deepest part), and $240^{\prime}$ between Nyon and Geneva. The area is about 224 sq. M., being 17 sq. M. more than that of the Lake of Constance. This lake differs in its deep blue colour from the greenish hue of the other Swiss lakes. For centuries it has been a favourite theme with writers of every nationality (Byron, Voltaire, Rousseau, Alex. Dumas, etc.). On the N. side it is bounded by gently sloping hills, richly clothed with vineyards and orchards, and enlivened with smiling villages. To the E. and S. a noble background is formed by the long chain of the mountains of Valais and Savoy.

The Birds which haunt the lake are wild swans (Cycnus olor), the descendants of tame birds introduced at Geneva in 1838, gulls (Larus ridibundus), sea-swallows (Sterna hirundo), and numerous birds of passage, such as ducks and divers. There are twenty-one kinds of Fish, the most esteemed of which are the trout, the 'Ritter', the 'Féra' (Coregonus; the 'Felchen' of Lake Constance), and the perch.

A phenomenon observed on the Lake of Geneva, and on other lakes also, consists in the so-called 'Serches', or fluctuations in the level of the water, caused by sudden alteration in the atmospheric pressure. The seiches longitudinales run from one end of the lake to the other; the seiches transversales cross from the Swiss to the Savoy side in 10 minates. The highest longitudinal swell on record was over 6 ft . in height. - The Temperature of the lake near the surface varies from $45^{\circ}$ in winter to $75^{\circ}$ or $80^{\circ}$ in summer; in the deeper parts it is uniformly $42-44^{\circ}$.

Steamboat Journey (piers, see p. 232). The banks of the lake are clothed with rich vegetation and studded with charming villas. On the left, the Musée Ariana, and the châtean of Pregny (p. 242); farther on, Genthod, once the residence of the famous naturalists Ch. Bonnet (d. 1793), H. B. de Saussure (d. 1799), Theod. de Saussure (d.1845), F. J. Pictet de la Rive (d. 1872), and Ed. Boissier (d. 1885). The steamer stops at Bellevue.

Versoix (pop. 1379), a large village, once belonged to France.
Coppet (Hôt.-Pens. du Lac; Café-Restaurant du Port, by the pier). The château, now owned by M. d'Haussonville, was occupied from 1790 to 1804 by Necker, a Genevese, who became finance minister to Louis XVI. His daughter, the celebrated Mme. de Staël (d. 1817), also resided at the château for some years. Her portrait as Sappho by David, several paintings by Gérard, and a bust of Necker are shown (Thurs. only, 2-6).

From Coppet (carr. at the station; omnibus twice daily in 40 min ., 1 fr .50 c .) a road leads by Commugny and Chavannes de Bogis to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.)

Divonne (1543'; ${ }^{*}$ Hydropathic, pens. from $101 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.) charmingly situated beyond the French frontier in the Pays de Gex (from Nyon 5 M.; diligence, meeting the express trains, in 55 min . ; from Geneva 12 M ., carr. in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., with one horse $15-18$, with two 25 fr .). Ascent of the D8le, see below.

Céligny lies prettily on a hill a little inland. Farther on is the handsome château of Crans, belonging to Herr Van Berchem.

Nyon (pop. 5025; *Beaurivage, with terrace on the lake; *Hôt. $d u$ Lac, small; Ange, pens. $5-7 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Hôt. du Jura, at the station) was the Colonia Julia Equestris, or Noviodunum, of the Romans. The ancient Castle, with walls $10^{\prime}$ thick, and five towers, built in the 14 th cent., contains the Musée, with the municipal collection of antiquities (Sun. \& Thurs., 1-4). The terrace (with Roman relics) and the fine Promenade de Perd-Temps afford a beautiful view of the lake, the Jura, and the Alps, with Mont Blanc. - About 1 M. to the W. (railway in 3 min .) is the *Pension de Bois-Bougy (p. 257).

Ascent of the Dôle, very interesting. A highroad (diligence to St. Cergues twice daily in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., 2 fr . 55 , coupe 3 fr .30 c .; one-horse carr. 15 , two-horse 25 fr .) leads from Nyon through the Jura by ( 1 hr. ) Trélex, (2 hrs.) St. Cergues, and ( 2 hrs .) Les Rousses, a small French frontier fort, to ( 1 hr. ) Morez, a little town in the French department of Jura. Walkers ascend from Nyon in $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. to St. Cergues ( 3432 '; "H8t, de TObservatoire, on a height, 5 min . to the E., with a splendid view of the Lake of Geneva and Mont Blanc, R. 4-5, B. 11/2, lunch 3, D. 4, pens. $7-10 \mathrm{fr}$. ; Poste; ${ }^{*}$ H8t.-Pens. The traveller should drive from Nyon (one-horse carr. 6 fr.) as far as the beginning of the well-shaded old road, $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. beyond Trélex, which follows the telegraph-wires, and ascends straight to St. Cergues ( 3 M .). From St. Cergues (guide 5 fr.$)$ we ascend to the ( 1 hr .) Chalet de Vuarne, and through the depression (Sur Porta, 5127') between the Vuarne and the Dôle, to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) top of the ${ }^{\circ}$ Dole ( $5505^{\prime}$ ), the highest peak of the Swiss Jura. The view (best in the afternoon) is picturesque and extensive, and Mont Blanc is seen in all its majesty. - From Gingins, $11 / 2$ M. to the W. of Trélex, a good road leads to the ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Chalets de la Divonne, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the top of the Dôle. - Another route leads by La Rippe, $33 / 4$ M. from Céligny (see above), and $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Divonne (see above), and before reaching ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Vendome enters the broad path (to the right) through the wood, which after 3 M . joins the road from Gingins. - The best route for walkers from Geneva ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the top of the Dôle) is by the Col de la Faucille, a deep depression in the Jura chain, to the N.W. of Geneva. Steam-tramway to Ferney, see p. 242 ; omnibas thence in 1 hr . to Gex ( $2120^{\prime}$; Hôt. de la Poste; Hôt. du Commerce), a small French town, at the foot of the Jura, whence we proceed (shorter by the old road) to the ( 2 hrs .) Col de la Faucille (4355'; Hôt.-Pens. de la Faucille, unpretending; Couronne, smaller). We keep to the road (to Morez, see above) for $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more, finally diverging to the right beyond the La Vasserode Inn, whence we ascend to the top in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.

Diligence from Les Rousses (see above) to Le Brassus, to the Lac de Joux, and Le Pont, a pleasant route (comp. p. 231).

Farther on, among trees, is the château of Prangins, once (after 1815) occupied by Joseph Bonaparte and the Empress Josephine, now a Moravian school for boys. The lakeside part of the estate of I.a Bergerie, or Chalet de Prangins, afterwards belonged to Prince Jérôme Napoléon (d. 1891).

On a promontory lies Promenthoux, and on the opposite(Savoyard) bank, 3 M. distant, Yvoire (p. 270). The Jura Mts. recede; the conspicuous peaks are the Dôle, and to the right of it the Noirmont ( $5150^{\prime}$ ). The lake forms a bay between the mouth of the Promenthouse and the Aubonne (p. 257) beyond Rolle, and here attains its greatest width. The banks of this bay, called La Côte, yield one of the best $S$ wiss white wines.

Rolle (Tête Noire, with garden), the birthplace of the Russian general F. C. de la Harpe (1754-1838), one of the most zealous advocates for the separation of Canton Vaud from Bern in 1814. An artificial islet in the lake contains an Obelisk to his memory.

On a vine-clad hill, 1 hr . to the N . of Rolle, above the village of Bougy, is the "Signal de Bousy ( $232 j^{\prime}$; pavilion, with rfmts.), a famous point of view, which commands the lake, the Savoy Mts., and Mont Blanc. From Rolle an electric line to Gimel (see below), passing near the Signal, will be opened in summer 1899. Or from stat. Allaman ( p . 257 ) we may take the Gimel electric tramway viâ (2 M.) Aubonne ( $1653^{\prime}$; ${ }^{\text {T Couronne }) \text { ), an old and }}$ picturesque little town, with gardens, a beatiful avenue, and pleasant grounds, to ( 23 min. ) Montherod, whence we ascend on foot to the top in 25 minutes. - About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S.W. of Aubonne, and $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from stat. Aubonne-Allaman, lies the finely-situated chatteau of Trevelin in a large park ( 1666 '; Hôt.-Pens., 5 -7 fr.); thence to the Signal in 40 minutes. The tramway goes on viâ $L a$ Fouly and $L e$ Prunier-Saubraz to ( 7 M . from Allaman ; $3 / 4$ hr.) Gimel ( 2395 '; Union, pens. from 5 fr.), with wood-walks, a summer-resort of the Genevese.

A road (diligence to St. Georges daily) leads to the N.W. from Rolle by Gilly, Burtigny, and Longirod to ( 9 M .) St. Georges ( $3100^{\prime}$; inn) and over the ( 4 M.) Col du Marchairuz ( $4767^{\prime}$; Inn) to ( $4^{1 / 2}$ M.) Le Brassus (p. 231). Between St. Georges and the Col we enjoy charming views of the Lake of Geneva and the Rhone Valley down to the Fort de l'Ecluse, and beyond the Col we overlook the Lac de Joux and the Dent de Vaulion.

The bank of the lake between Rolle and Lausanne is somewhat flat. On a promontory lies the village of St. Prex; then, in a wide bay, Morges (*Hôt. du Montblanc, pens. from 5 fr.; * Hồ. du Port ; Couronne), a busy little town (pop. 4100), with a harbour and an old château now used as an arsenal. Good lake-baths. From Morges we obtain a fine view of *Mont Blanc in clear weather through a valley on the S . bank.

From Morges to Biere, 12 M ., railway in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; 1 fr .90 or 1 fr .35 c. - The line ascends the valley of the Morges to (2 M.) Vufflens, at the foot of the mediæral château of that name, with its tower 160 in height, said to have been erected by Queen Bertha (p. 229). Describing a wide bend towards the W., we next pass the stations of Bussy, Yens (beyond which, to the left, is the château of Chardoney, with a beautiful view of the Lake of Geneva and the Savoy Alps), Apples (branch-line to L'Isle), and Ballens. - 12 M. Bière ( 2285 '; pop. 1345; Hôt. Guillaume Tell) is a considerable village, with large barracks and an artillery training-camp, situated on a plateau at the base of Mont Tendre. Carriage-road hence to the ( $81 / 2$ M.) Col $d u$ Marchairuz (see above).

British Consul, Mr. Alfred Galland.
Lausanne ( $1690^{\prime}$; pop. 38,119), the Lausonium of the Romans, now capital of the Canton de Vaud, occupies a beautiful and commanding situation on the terraced slopes of Mont Jorat, overshadowed by its cathedral on one side, and its castle on the other. The new quarters are handsome, but the interior of the town, with its hilly and irregular streets, is less prepossessing. The two quarters are connected by the handsome Grand-Pont ( 135 yds. long), also named Pont Pichard after its bailder (1839-44). The valley of the Flon, spanned by the bridge, has been partly filled up and built over. A nearly level street, passing the castle and cathedral, skirts the town and leads under the castle to the N . by a tunnel, 50 paces long. Lausanne possesses excellent schools; the Collège, founded in 1806, was ereoted into a University in 1891.

The *Cathedral (Pl. E, 2 ; Prot.), built in 1235-75, and consecrated by Pope Gregory X. in presence of Radolph of Hapsburg, is a simple but massive Gothic edifice. Since 1875 it has been under restoration from plans by Viollet-le-Duc (d. 1879). The terrace on which it stands is approached from the Place de la Palud by a new and winding street, or by 160 steps. The church is open in summer on week-days, $9-12$ and 1-4; at other hours, adm. 30 c. each person. Bell for the sacristan by the entrance.

The "Interior ( $352^{\prime}$ long, 150 ' wide) is remarkable for its symmetry. The vaulting of the nave, $62^{\prime}$ high, is supported by 20 clustered columns of different designs. Above the graceful triforium is another arcade, which serves as a framework for the windows. The choir contains a semicircular colonnade. In the arcades of the choir-ambulatory appears an ancient form of pilaster, a relic of the Burgundian-Romanesque style. The beautiful but sadly damaged rose-window, the sculptured portals, and the carved choirstalls (completed in 1509) at the S. wall also merit inspection. (The W. portal is being restored; the $S$. portal was restored in 1884.) Above the centre of the charch rises a slender tower (213'), erected in 1874. The finest Mondments are those of Otho of Grandson, who fell in 1398 in a judicial duel with Gerard von Estavayer (hands on the cushion, a symbol of the ban; statue accidentally deprived of its hands); Bishop Guillaume de Mfenthonex (d. 1406) ; the Russian Princess Catherine Orloff (d. 1782); the Duchess Caroline of Courland (d. 1783); Henrietta Stratford-Canning (d. 1818), first wife of Lord Stratford de Redcliffe, then ambassador in Switzerland (by Bartolini) ; Countess Wallmoden Gimborn (d. 1783), mother of the Baroness of Stein, the wife of the celebrated Prussian minister. The wall of the N. transept bears a tablet to Major Davel, executed in 1723 for attempting to free the Vaudois from the dominion of Bern. - In 1536 a famons Disputation took place in this church, in which Calvin, Farel, and Viret participated, and which resulted in the separation of Vaud from the Romish Church, and the overthrow of the supremacy of Savoy.

Fine views from the Terrace (1735'), formerly the churchyard, of the town, the lake, and the Alps of Savoy, and (more extensive) from the church-tower (137'); also from the terrace of the old episcopal Palace (Evêché; now cantonal offices), higher up. The Bishop's Hall contains old carved furniture and stained-glass windows.

The Cantonal Museum (Pl. E, 2 ; free on Wed. and Sat. 10-12 & 1-4, Sun. 11-12 & 1-3; at other times 50 c .; two or more pers. 30 c. each), in the Collège near the cathedral, contains natural history collections, a valuable collection of freshwater conchylia, presented by M. de Charpentier (d. 1855), relics from Aventicum (p. 229) and Vidy, the ancient Lausanne, interesting antiquities from lake-dwellings, coins, medals, etc. The same building contains the Cantonal Library (120,000 vols.).

The Musée Arlaud (Pl. D, 3 ; Sun. 11-2, Wed. and Sat. 10-4; at other times, 50 c ., each pers. more 30 c .), in the Riponne opposite the corn-hall (Halle aux blés), contains a small picture-gallery.

The Blind Asylum (Asile des Aveugles), to the W. of the town (Pl. A, 3), was founded by Mr. Haldimand (d. 1862), who amassed a fortune in England, and Mlle. de Cerjat. - In the Champ de l'Air (Pl. F, 1), to the N.E., the highest point in the town, are the Hôpital Cantonal ( 250 beds), the Viticole (wine-growing) and Météorologique stations, and an Ecole d'Agriculture.

The *Signal ( $2125^{\prime}$ ), $1_{14} \mathrm{hr}$. above the castle, is a famous point of view. Cable-tramway from the Place du Vallon (near the Pl. de la Barre) to the top in 3 min . Pedestriacs cross the Place de la Barre (Pl. E, 1) and follow the road straight on for about 100 paces; then ascend to the right by a paved path and flights of steps to the carriage-road, and follow this to the right till the hut with the trigonometrical pyramid and grounds are seen on the right. At the top are a restaurant and chalet-pension. The view embraces a great part of the lake, the Diablerets, Grand Mœveran, etc.; Mont Blanc is not visible, but is seen from the Grandes Roches $(1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the town, to the right of the Yverdon road). - A pleasant way back from the Signal is through the wooded valley of the Flon, on the E. side of the hill, and then by the Rue des Eaux to the Place de la Barre. Cab from the town to the Signal, and thence to the station, 5 fr .

From Lacsanne to Bercher, $121 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., narrow-gange railway ( 1 hr . 27 min .). Near ( 2 M .) Jouxtens-Cery, the second station, is a large lunatic asclum. (Asile des Aliénés). 83/4 M. Echallens (2064'; pop. 1089; *Balances), a thriving little town; old castle, now a boys' school. - $12 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Bercher.

The slopes rising to the E. of Lausanne are named La Vaux, and yield good wine. Above the station of Pully, on the hillside, is the lofty viaduct crossing the Paudèze (p. 229), below which is the bridge of the Martigny Railway (p. 2558); above Lutry (Hôt. Continental et de la Gare) is the viaduct near La Conversion, mentioned at p. 229. The amphitheatre of mountains becomes grander as the steamboat proceeds: the Rochers de Verraux, Dent de Jaman, Rochers de Naye, Tour d’Aï, Tour de Mayen, Grand Mœveran, Dent de Morcles, and Dent du Midi ; between these, to the S., Mont Catogne, and in the background the snowy pyramid of the Grand Combin. - Cully (*Hôt. de la Ville), the next station, is noted for its wine; on the quay is an obelisk in memory of Major Davel (p. 249), a native of this place. - Then Rivaz-St-Saphorin.

English Church, at the E. end of the town (p. 252).
Vevey ( 1263 '; pop.10,482), Ger. Vivis, the Vibiscus of the Romans, situated mainly on the left bank of the Veveyse, near its influx into the lake, is the second town in the Canton de Vaud, and has considerable manufactories of tobacco, infants' food, and chocolate. It is the scene of Rousseau's famous romance, the 'Nouvelle Heloise' (1761). Vevey commands a beautiful view of the head of the lake, with the mouth of the Rhone and, in the background, the Alps of the Valais, particularly the Mont Catogne (the 'Sugar Loaf') and the mountains near the Great St. Bernard; to the right, the jagged, snow-covered Dent du Midi; to the left, the Dent de Morcles; on the S. bank of the lake, the rocks of Meillerie, overshadowed by the spurs of the Dent d'Oche; and then, to the left, at the foot of the Grammont, St. Gingolph (p. 272). Near the pier of Vevey-Marché are the turreted Château Couvreu (beautiful garden, open to the public; fee to gardener) and the Promenade de l'Aile (band in summer). The Quais Sina and Perdonnet, to the E., with the pier of Vevey-la-Tour, afford a beautiful walk, sheltered from the N. wind.

Ascending the market-place, with the Theatre to the right, and then the Rue de Lausanne, we reach the Railway Station, to the E. of which are the Russian Chapel with its gilded dome and the handsome new Musée (paintings and natural history collections, library). The road passing the Russian chapel and crossing the railway leads to the Church of St. Martin, erected in 1498, on a hill ('Terrasse du Panorama') outside the town, surrounded by lime and chestnut trees, and commanding a charming, but limited view. Service in summer only (organ-concerts).

In this church repose the remains of the regicides Ludlow ('potestatis arbitrariae oppugnator acerrimus', as the marble tablet records) and Broughton. The latter read the sentence to King Charles ('dignatus fuit sententiam regis regum profari, quam ob causam expulsus patria sua' is the inscription). Charles II. on his restoration demanded the extradition of the refugees, a request with which the Swiss government firmly refused to comply. Ludlow's House, which stood at the E. end of the town, has been removed to make way for an addition to the Hôtel du Lac. The original inscription by himself, 'Omne solum forti patria', was purchased and removed by one of his descendants. A new memorial tablet was erected in 1887 on the Quai Sina.

At the E. end of the town are the Roman Catholic Church and the English Church. The tower among the trees on the lake farther on, the Tour de Peilz (Turris Peliana), said to have been built by Peter of Savoy in the 13 th cent., was once used as a court of justice, and afterwards as a prison. The neighbouring château of M. Sarasin contains a collection of ancient weapons and furniture.

The château of Hauteville (1650'), 2 M. to the N.E. of Vevey, with an admirably kept park, commands a beautitul view from the terrace and the temple (fee to the gardener). In the same direction, 2 M . higher, is the mediæval château of Blonay (2118'), which has belonged the family of that name for centuries. The road from Hauteville to Blonay passes through the villages of St. Légier and La Chiésaz, several houses in which are adorned with clever sketches by A. Béguin, a native of the place, now an artist in Paris. In returning we may descend by a path to the right beyond the bridge (finger-post: 'Montreux 5 kil'.) to the road below, which leads to (1 M.) Chailly (p. 253), the bridge of ( 1 M. ) Tavel, below the Chateau des Crêtes ( p .253 ), and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the Clarens station. - About 1 hr . to the N.E. of Blonay are the Pleiades ( $4488^{\prime}$ ), a famous point of view, commanding the Lake of Geneva, Mont Blanc, etc. (auberge 20 min . from the top), at the E. base of which, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the top, are the small sulphur-baths of $L^{\prime}$ Alliaz ( $3428^{\prime}$; Pens. des Bains, $41 / 2$ fr.; Pens. Cochard, $4-5$ fr.). L'Alliaz is 6 M . by road from Vevey, a drive of $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (carr. and pair 25 fr .).

Other interesting excursions may be taken to the Mont Pèlerin ( $3555^{\prime}$ ), 2 hrs . to the N.W., beyond Chardonne; splendid view from the top (monntain railway and hotel projected). - To the Signal de Chexbres, see p. 228; from Chexbres a new road, the *Corniche du Leman, skirts the hillside (beautiful views) and descends by Epesses to ( $33 / 4$ M.) Lutry (p. 250). - To Chatel St. Denis (p. 266) roads lead on both banks of the Veveyse ( 9 M .; electric tramway projected). - To the Mont de Gourze ( 3050 '), from Cully (p. 250) $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr} . ;$ to Jongny (Hôt. Bellevue), 1 hr . to the N. of Vevey, etc. - To St. Gingolph (p. 2T2; $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. by boat), on foot to Novel. and thence to the top of the Blanchard (p. 272). - To Fribourg, see R. 62.

On the lake, 3 M . from Vevey, lies the village of Clarens (English Church, on the road to Vernex), immortalised by Rousseau. On a height to the N.W. rises the Château des Crêtes (1498'), with its pleasant grounds, and a beautiful view from the terrace (visitors admitted by the gardener in the absence of the owner). Adjoining it is a chestnut copse, called the 'Bosquet de Julie'; but Rousseau's 'Bosquet' has long since disappeared. Splendid view from above Clarens, near the churchyard; at Tavel, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N., is the old château of Châtelard (1645'; no admission). To the S.W., in the lake, opposite the Villas Dubochet (see below), is the Roche des Mouettes, an artificial island with gardens.

Clarens, Charnex, Vernex, Glion, Colonges, Veytaux, and the other villages which lie scattered about, partly on the lake and partly on the hillside, are collectively called Montreux (pop. 12,700). The parish of Montreux, which extends to the Dent de Jaman, is divided into three parts, Le Châtelard, Les Planches, and Veytaux, by the brook (Baye) of Montreux and the Verraye. The central point is the town of Montreux-Vernex, on the lake, with railway-station and pier, quays with gardens, a large covered market on the lake, and, 5 min. to the S., a Cursaal, with pleasant grounds (see p. 254), opposite which is the Roman Catholic Church, in the Romanesque style. About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. higher up, at the foot of the hill, lies the village of Les Planches, separated from Sâles, to the W., by the Baye de Montreux, which descends from the Gorge du Chauderon (see below) and is spanned by the handsome *Pont de Montreux, 100' high (electric cable-line from the Cursaal in 5 min .). Above Les Planches rises the quaint old Church of Montreux, the shady terrace in front of which commands a superb and far-famed *View. On the terrace is a bust of Dean Bridel, a popular author, who was pastor at Montreux in the first half of the present century.

Excorsions from Montredx (electric tramway from Chillon to Vevey, see p. $2 \overline{1} 1$ ). Chief excursion to *Glion and the *Rochers de Naye. To Glion (2270'; Hotels, see p. 254) a cable-tramway ('Chemin de fer funiculaire') ascends in 9 min ., starting from the Territet-Glion station on the Jura-Simplon Railway ( 21 trains daily; fare 1 , return-ticket $11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). The line, constructed by Hr. Riggenbach, is about 750 yds. long, the maximum gradient being $1: 1^{3} / \mathrm{H}$. At the top is a Buffet-Restaurant, which commands a delightful survey of the apper end of the Lake of Geneva and the mountains enclosing it. Pleasant way back throngh the Gorge du Chauderon (see below) to the village of Montreux in 1 hr . (enquire for beginning of path).
*From Glion to Naye, $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., rack-and-pinion railway in $11 / 3 \mathrm{hr}$. (returnfare $101 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; from Territet to Naye and back 12 fr .). The station adjoins that of the 'Funiculaire' to the right. The line is carried under the houses of Glion by a tunnel, beyond which, to the left, we look down into the deep Gorge du Chauderon (see below); above are the village of Sonzier and the reservoir of the Montreux electric works. We ascend through meadows and pass over a viaduct, enjoying a fine view to the left of Montreux and the Lake of Geneva and of the large Hôtel des Avants below us (see below). Ascending more rafidly, we pass throngh a cutting and the curved tunnel of Tremblex ( 147 yds . long) to the E. side of the ridge and the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) station of Caux ( 3457 '; buffet). Above is the *Grand Hotel de Caux ( $3610^{\prime}$; R., L., \& A., 3-10, B. $11 / 2$, lunch $31 / 2$, D. 5 , pens. from $71 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. ; Engl. Ch. The line ascends rapidly to the ridge ( $5593^{\prime}$ ) between Jaman and Naye, and passes through a tunnel ( 82 yds.) to the ( $33 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) station of Jaman ( $5708^{\prime}$; buffet), in the sequestered Combe d'Amont, at the foot of the Dent de Jaman ( 6165 '; ascent in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., easy and attractive). To the left below is the small Lac de Jaman ( 5144 '; to the Col de Jaman, see p. 267). Farther on we are carried over a narrow arête, commanding the Lake of Geneva to the right and the mountains of the Gruyere to the left. We then pass through the rocks of the Rochers de Naye by a tunnel ( $6055{ }^{\prime} ; 267$ yds.), and ascend round the nppermost valley to the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) station of Naye ( $648{ }^{-1}$ '; Grand Hôtel, R. 3-6, B. $11 / 2$, D. 4 , pens. $8-12 \mathrm{fr}$.), $230^{\prime}$ ( 10 min .) below the summit of the ${ }^{}$ Rochers de Naye ( $6708^{\prime}$ ). Stat. Territet-Chillon (*Hôt. des Alpes, etc.; see p. 254), opposite the railway-station of Territet-Glion (p. 258). The *Castle of Chillon, with its massive walls and towers, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the pier $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from stat. Veytaux-Chillon), stands on an isolated rock 22 yds. from the bank, with which it is connected by a bridge. Above the entrance (adm. 50 c. ; tickets at the entrance; closed $12-1.30$ and after 7p.m.) are the arms of the Canton de Vaud. The interior has lately been thoroughly restored.

> 'Chillon! thy prison is a holy place, And thy sad floor an altar, - for 'twas trod, Until his very steps have left a trace, Worn, as if the cold pavement were a sod, By Bonivard! - may none those marks efface, For they appeal from tyranny to God.'

The poet quoted has invested this spot with much of the interest which attaches to it, but it is an error to identify Bonivard, the victim to the tyranny of the Duke of Savoy, and confined by him in these gloomy dungeons for six years, with Byron's 'Prisoner of Chillon' (composed by him in the Anchor Inn at Onchy in 1817). The anthor calls his poem a fable, and when he composed it he was not aware of the history of Bonivard, or he would, as he himself states, have attempted to dignify the subject by an endeavour to celebrate his courage and virtue. Francis Bonivard was born in 1496. He was the son of Louis Bonivard, Lord of Lune, and at the age of sixteen inherited from his uncle the rich priory of St. Victor, close to the walls of Geneva. The Duke of Savoy having attacked the republic of Geneva, Bonivard warmly espoused its cause, and thereby incurred the relentless hostility of the Duke, who caused him to be seized and imprisoned in the castle of Grolée, where he remained two years. On regaining his liberty he returned to his priory, but in 1528 be was again in arms against those who had seized his ecclesiastical revenues. The city of Geneva supplied him with munitions of war, in return for which Bonivard parted with his birthright, the revenues of which were applied by the Genevese to the support of the city hospital. He was afterwards employed in the service of the republic, but in 1530 fell into the power of his old enemy, the Duke of Savoy, who confined him in the castle of Chillon. In 1536 he was liberated by the Bernese and Genevese forces under Nögelin, and returning to the republic, he spent the rest of his life as a highly respected citizen. He died in 1570 at the age of 74 years.

It is a historical fact that in 830 Louis le Débonnaire imprisoned the Abbot Wala of Corvey, who had instigated his sons to rebellion, in a castle from which only the sky, the Alps, and Lake Leman were visible (Pertz, Monum. ii. p. 556); this could have been no other than the Castle of Chillon. Count Peter of Savoy improved and fortified the castle in the 13 th cent., and it now stands much as he left it. The strong pillars in the vaults are in the early-Romanesque style, and belonged to the original edifice. The Counts of Savoy often resided in the castle, and it was afterwards converted into a state-prison. It is now under restoration. - A fine effect is produced by the beams of the setting sun streaming through the narrow loopholes into these sombre precincts, which are now lighted by two small electric lamps. Among the names on the pillars are those of Byron, Eugène Sue, George Sand, and Victor Hugo.

Between Chillon and Villeneave is the Hôtel Byron (p. 254). The He de Peilz, an islet $1 / 3 \mathrm{M}$. to the W. of Villeneuve, was laid out and planted with three elms a century ago, and recalls Byron's lines: -
'And then there was a little isle,
Which in my very face did smile,
The only one in view.'
In the E. bay of the lake, $11 / 2$ M. from Chillon, lies Villeneuve (*) Hôt. du Port, at the pier, plain ; Hôt. de Ville), a small and ancient $_{\text {a }}$ walled town, the Pennilucus or Penneloci of the Romans. The 'Clos des Moines' is a good wine grown here. (Railway-station, see p. 258.)

Railfay Journey. (The so-called 'Tramway Trains' between Geneva, Nyon, and Lausanne stop at a great many wayside stations.) - Geneva, see p. 232. The train rans high above the lake, overlooking the hills on the E. bank with their numerous villas, above which rises the long ridge of the Voirons and in clear weather Mont Blanc. $2 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Chambésy (station for Pregny, p. 242); 4 M. GenthodBellevue; $51 / 2$ M. Versoix (p. 245) ; $81 / 2$ M. Coppet (p. 245). At (11 M.) Céligny the Dôle (p. 246) becomes visible to the left. Near ( $141 / 2$ M.) Nyon (p. 246) is the tramway-station Bois-Bougy (*Pens. Château de Bois-Bougy, from 5 fr.). Farther on the line skirts Prangins with its château, and then quits the lake. Near (171/2 M.) Gland the train crosses the Promenthouse (p. 247).

About 2 M . to the N. of Gland (omn. 4 times daily in 25 min .; onehorse carr. 5 fr.) is the large village of Begnins (1765'; Pens. Cuendet; Pens. Piquet-Mury, unpretending), a prettily situated summer-resort. - The village of Arzier ( $2895^{\prime}$; Pens. Dorier, 4 fr .), situated on the slopes of the Jura, 5 M. from Gland and $71 / 2$ M. from Nyon (carr. 6, with two horses 10 fr .), is another summer-resort, commanding beautiful views, best from ( $11 / 2$ M.) the Villa La Violette (road to St. Cergues, 3 M., see p. 216).

20 M. Gilly-Bursinel; $21 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Rolle (p. 247). The height to the left is the Signal de Bougy (2910'; p. 247), a splendid point of view, most easily reached from the next station ( 25 M .) Allaman (electric tramway to Aubonne and Gimel, see p. 247).

The train crosses the Aubonne and returns to the lake. 28 M . St. Prex; the village lies on a promontory below, to the right. From ( $301 / 2$ M.) Morges (p. 247; station 8 min . from the pier) Mont Blanc is seen in all its majesty in clear weather, but soon disappears. In the distance, to the N.W., above the valley of the Morges, which the train crosses here, is the château of Vufflens (p. 247).

The line leaves the lake, crosses the Venoge, and joins the Neuchâtel railway (p. 225). $351 / 2$ M. Renens.

38 M. Lausanne ( ${ }^{*}$ Hôt. Terminus & Rail. Restaurant), see p. 248.

The train (views on the right) skirts the lake the greater part of the way to Villeneuve. We cross the Paudèze by a handsome bridge (above which, to the left, is the lofty nine-arched viaduct of the Freiburg line, p. 229), pass through a short tunnel, and skirt the vine-clad slopes of La Vaux (p. 250). 42 M. Lutry.

From ( 44 M.) Cully (p. 250 ) to ( 47 M.) Rivaz-St-Saphorin the train runs close to the lake, then quits it, and crosses the Veveyse. 50 M. Vevey (Buffet ; p. 251); 501/2 M. La Tour de Peilz (p. 252); 52 M. Burier. Beyond a tunnel we obtain a fine view of Montreux, Chillon, and the E. bay of the lake. 53 M. Clarens (p. 252).

54 M. Montreux-Vernex (p. 254), beyond which we again approach the lake. 55 M . Territet-Glion (Café-Restaurant, and small bazaar) is the starting-point of the cable-tramway to Glion (p. 255). $551 / 2$ M. Veytaux-Chillon (p. 254 ), $1 / 4$ M. from the castle.

57 M . Villeneuve, p. 257 . The train enters the broad and somewhat marshy Rhone Valley, flanked with high mountains. The Rhone flows into the lake 3 M . to the W., near Bouveret. Its grey waters, the deposits of which have formed an extensive alluvial tract, present a marked contrast to the crystalline azure of the same river where it rushes through the bridges at Geneva.

The first station in the Rhone Valley is ( $591 / 2$ M.) Roche. Part of the mountain near Yoorne (1560'), to the left, was precipitated on the village by an earthquake in 1584. Excellent wine is grown in the gorge ('Crosex-Grillé' and 'Maison Blanche' or 'Clos du Rocher'). To the right towers the jagged Dent du Midi (p. 273).

The train crosses the Avançon and the Rhone, joins the line on the S. bank (p. 274), and passes through a curved tunnel.

71 M. St. Maurice (1377'; pop. 1666 ; Hôt. Grisogono, in connection with the Rail. Restaurant, R., L., & A. 3, D. 4, pens. 6-10 fr.; Hôt. des Alpes, moderate), a picturesque old town with narrow streets, on a delta between the river and the cliffs, the Roman Agaunum, is said to derive its name from St. Maurice, the commander of the Thebaic legion, who, according to tradition, suffered martyrdom here with his companions in 302 (near the Chapelle de Véroilley, see belsw). The abbey, probably the most ancient on this side of the Alps, supposed to have been founded at the end of the 4th cent. by St. Theodore, is now occupied by Augustine monks, and contains some curious old works of art (shown by special permission only) : a vase of Saracenic workmanship, a crozier in gold, a chalice of agate, Queen Bertha's chalice (p. 229), and a rich MS. of the Gospels, said to have been presented to the abbey by Charlemagne. On the walls of the churchyard and on the tower of the venerable abbey-church are Roman inscriptions. - On the rocky slope, to the W. of the station, is perched the hermitage of Notre-Dame-du-Sex (sax, i.e. rock), to which a narrow path has been hewn. Farther to the N., above the mouth of the tunnel, is the Grotte des F'ées, an interesting stalactite cavern with a pond and a waterfall (from the station and back 1 hr. ; tickets and guides at the rail. restaurant).

Travellers descending the valley change carriages at St. Manrice for Bouveret, where steamers (far preferable in fine weather) correspond with the trains. Comp. pp. 244, 270.

The Baths of Lavey (1377'; ${ }^{*}$ Etablissement Thermal, R. 2-5, lunch $21 / 2$, D. $2^{1 / 2}$, board 7, omnibus $3 / 4 \mathrm{fr}$.), $11 / 21$. above St. Maurice, are much frequented. The warm spring ( $100^{\circ}$ Fahr.), discovered in 1831, impregnated with sulphur and common salt, rises in a pump-room on the bank of the Rhone, 8 min . from the hotel. - A narrow road (one-horse carr. 11 fr .) ascends through wood in zigzags, to the E. of the baths, to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Morcles (3822'; Pens. Cheseaux; guides, Ch. Buillat and Jul. Cheseaux), prettily situated at the foot of the Dent de Morcles. Ascents (guides, Ch. Buillat, Jul. Cheseaux): Croix de Javernaz (6910'), from Morcles viâ Planhaut in 3 hrs . (guide 5 fr ., with descent to Les Plans 8 fr .); Pointe des Martinets ( $8680^{\prime}$; $4^{11 / 2}$ hrs.; 8 fr .); Dent de Morcles ( $9775^{\prime}$ ), $61 / 2$ hrs. (guide 13, with descent to Les Plans 15 tr .); bed of hay if required on the Haut de Morcles ( $5740^{\prime}$ ), $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from Morcles (comp. p. 260).

Beyond St. Manrice, on the right, is the Chapelle de Véroilley, with rude frescoes. Opposite, on the right bank, are the Baths of Lavey (see above). The line approaches the Rhone and passes a scene of devastation caused in 1835 by huge mud-streams from the Dent du Midi. 75 M. Evionnaz. Before us rises the pointed Mont Catogne and the mountains near the Great St. Bernard. Near La Balmaz railway and road skirt a jutting rock close to the Rhone. On the right is the *Pissevache, a beautiful cascade of the Salanfe (p. 274), which here falls into the Rhone Valley from a height of $215^{1}(1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Vernayaz; best light in the forenoon). A path ascends on the right side, and passes behind the waterfall (adm. 1 fr.).

77 M. Vernayaz (1535'; *Grand-Hôtel des Gorges du Trient, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the station, finely situated at the entrance of the Gorge, first-class, R., L., \& A. $31 / 2-7$, B. $11 / 2$, lunch 3 , D. 5 , pens. 6-10 fr. ; *Hôt. Victoria et des Alpes, R., L., \& A. 2-4, B. 1½, D. 3-4 fr.; Hôt. de la Gare, at the station, with veranda, unpretending), the starting-point of the routes to Chamonix viâ Salvan (p.294) and viâ Gueuroz (p. 294 ; guide to the Tête-Noire 6 fr.).

On the right, beyond Vernayaz, are the bare rocks at the mouth of the *Gorges du Trient, which may be ascended for nearly $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. by a wooden gallery attached to the rocks above the torrent. Tickets ( 1 fr .) at the Grand Hôtel ; guide needless.

The view at the entrance to the gorge is imposing. The rocks approach so closely at every turn, that the gorge almost resembles a huge vaulted cavern. Where the path crosses the Trient for the second time, the stream is said to be $40^{\prime}$ deep; at the end of the gallery it forms a fall, $30^{\prime}$ high. - The interval between two trains suffices for a visit from Veraayaz to the Pissevache and the Gorges du Trient.

Near Martigny, at the right angle which the Rhone valley here forms, on a hill to the right, stands La Batiaz (1985'), a castle of the bishops of Sion, erected in 1260, and dismantled in 1518. The tower (ascent from the Drance bridge in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., adm. 30 c .) commands a splendid view. - The train crosses the Drance (p. 295).

81 M. Martigny. - "Hôtel Clerc, R., L., \& A. 3-5, lunch $31 / 2$, D. $4-5$, pens. 8-12 fr.; "Hôtel de Montblanc, R., L., \&A. 3-5, D. $41 / 2$, pens. $7-12 \mathrm{fr}$. -Aigle, R., L., \&A. 2 fr., B. $11 / 4$, D. $31 / 2$, pens. 6 fr.; ${ }^{*}$ National, R. from $11 / 2$, D. $2 \frac{1}{2}$ fr., unpretending; Grand St. Beryard, R., L., \& A. 2-3, B. $11 / 4$, D. $31 / 2$, pens. 5 fr.; "Hôtel-Restaurant de la Gare, R. $11 / 2-2$, B. $11 / 4$, D. $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; the last two at the station, $1 / 3 \mathrm{M}$. from the town.

Martigny-Ville ( $1560^{\prime}$; pop. 155 2 ), the Roman Octodurum, is a busy little town in summer, being the starting-point of the routes over the Great St. Bernard to Aosta (R. 77), over the Col de la Forclaz (RR. 73, 74) to Chamonix, and for the Val de Bagnes (R. 78). The market-place, planted with trees, is adorned with a bronze bust of Helvetia by Courbet. A large Roman building has recently been excavated at Martigny. - Above Martigny lies (1 M.) MartignyBourg (*Trois Couronnes), the rineyards of which yield excellent wine (Coquempey and Lamarque, known to the Romans).

Exccrsions (guide, Ant. Farquet). Near Branson, on the right bank of the Rhone, 3 M. to the N.E. of Martigny, is the rocky hill of Les Follaterres, famed for its flora.

Ascent of the "Arpille ( $6 \Im 30^{\prime} ; 4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$., guide 6 fr .). The bridle-path ascends beyond La Batiaz ${ }^{\circ}$ (see above) through vineyards to the hamlet of Sommet des Vignes; then past the hamlets of Ravoire, through wood, to the chalets of Arpille ( $5965^{\prime}$ ) and the top. Superb view. Descent to the S., through wood, in 1 hr . to the Col de la Forclaz (p. 295).

The "Pierre-à-Voir (8123'), a peak of the limestone range which separates the Rhone Valley from the valley of the Drance, is ascended from Martigny, Saxon (p. 316), Sembrancher (p. 303), or Chable (p. 313; guide from Martigny 8, with descent to Saxon 10 fr.). A new road ascends from Martigny through wood, with views of the Drance valley, to the ( 10 M .; a walk of 5 , a drive of $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ) Frand Hotel de la Pierre-à-Voir (R., L., \& A. $3^{1 / 2}-5$, B. $1^{1} / 2$, D. 4 , pens. 6.10 fr .), on the Col du Len ( 5250 '), with beautiful view, a large natural park, and rich flora (Engl. Ch. Serv. in July). Hence a narrow path (steady head and guide desirable) leads to ( 3 hr 3 .) the summit, which commands a magnificent view of the Valaisian and Bernese Alps, and of the Rhone, St. Bernard, and Bagnes valleys, with the imposing Grand-Combin.
*Gorges of Durnant ( $3-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Martigny, there and back), see p. 307.

One-horse carr. from Saanen to Gsteig 8, two-horse 15 fr ., to Ormont-Dessus 20 and 38 , to Aigle 40 and 70 fr . and fee; from Aigle to Sepey 10 and 18, to the Hôt. des Diablerets 15 and 25 fr .

Saanen (3382), see p. 214. The road leads to the S. through the broad and smiling Gsteigthal to Ebnit and (13/4 M.) Gstad (3455'; Bär), at the mouth of the Lauĕnen-Thal.

A road ascends on the right bank of the Lauibach, crossing the Turbach after $1 / 2$ M., to ( 4 M .) Lauĕnen ( $4130^{\prime}$; Bär, rustic; guides, Jacob and Gottfried Schwitzgebel), the chief place in the valley, beautifully situated. The picturesque Lauenen-See ( 4557 '), 1 hr . higher up, is best surveyed from the Bühl, a hill on the E. side. To the S. the brooks descending from the Gelten and Dungel glaciers form fine waterfalls ('Dungelschuss') on both sides of the Hahnenschritthorn (9304'). The *Lauenenhorn ( $8133^{\prime}$ ) is easily ascended from Lauenen in 3 hrs , with guide; splendid view from the top. The Gifferhorn ( $8313^{\prime} ; 4 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide) is another fine and easily accessible view-point - From Lauenen to Lenk over the Trüttlisberg, and to Gsteig by the Krinnen, see p. 211. Over the Gelten Pass (Col du Brozet, 9270') to Sion (to Zanfleuron, see below, $8 \mathrm{hrs} .$, with guide), toilsome. - The Wildhorn (10,710') may be ascended from the Gelten Pass in 3 hrs . (from Lauenen 8 hrs ., guide 25 fr ; comp. p. 211).
$61 / 4$ M. Gsteig, Fr. Châtelet (3937'; Ours, primitive), finely situated. To the S., the Sanetschhorn ( $9665^{\prime}$ ) and Oldenhorn (10,250').

To Sion over the Sanetsch, $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$., attractive on the whole (guide $13 \mathrm{fr} .$, not indispensable in fine weather; horse 25 fr .). The path crosses the ( 20 min.) Sarine, and ascends steeply over pastures, and afterwards through the Rothengraben, in windings partly hewn in the rock, to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) dreary Kreuzboden ( $6565^{\prime}$ ); thence 1 hr . to the pass of the Sanetsch ( $7330^{\prime}$ ), on this side of which there is a cross (La Grande Croix). Descent (passing the large Zanfleuron Glacier on the right) to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Zanfleuron (6770'; Hôt. Theiler, plain), with fine view of the Alps of the Valais. From this point the oldenhorn (p. 264) may be ascended in 4 hrs ., the Wildhorn (p. 211; difficult) in $4^{1 / 2}$ hrs., and the Diablerets (p. 26i) in $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. (ascent of the latter easiest from this side). The Sublage (8973'), $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the hotel, affords a magnificent view of the valleys and mountains of the S. Valais as far as Mont Blanc. Then by a winding path down to the Alp Glary ( $4920^{\prime}$ ) and through the wild ravine of the Morge to the bold Pont Neuf, whence a road leads to ( 3 hrs .) Chandolin, and by Granois and Ormona to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Sion (p. 316). Ascent from Sion to the pass 6, descent thence to Gsteig 3 hrs .

The road here turns to the S.W., and ascends the valley of the Reuschbach through woods and pastures, in view of the precipices of the Oldenhorn (see below) and the Sex Rouge (9767'), to ( 5 M .) the Col de Pillon ( $5085^{\prime}$ ), at the S. foot of the Palette (see below). In descending (passing the Cascade du Dard, above us on the left) we soon obtain a view of a valley bounded by fine wooded mountains, and thickly studded with houses and chalets known collectively as Ormont-Dessus. To the left is the Creux de Champ (see below), the numerous brooks falling from which form the Grande-Eau. We first reach ( 3 M . from the Col) Le Plan des Iles ( $3815^{\prime}$; *GrandHôtel des Diablerets, with baths, R., L., \& A. 3-4, D. 4, pens. 6-8 fr., opposite the post-station for Ormont-Dessus; *Pens. Bellevue, du Chamois, du Nouveau Chalet; English Church); about 11/2 M. farther on, beyond the prettily-situated *Hôtel Pillon, lies Vers l'Eglise (3650'; Pens. Mon Séjour; Pens. Busset ; Hôtel de l'Ours, all unpretending), with the church of the upper part of the valley.

Excursions from Le Plan. (Guides: Mollien, V. Gottraut, Fr. Berruex, Moise Pichard.) To the ( 1 hr. ) Creux de Champ ( $42755^{\prime}$ ), a grand rocky basin at the N. base of the Diablerets, with waterfalls on every side. A good survey of the Creax de Champ, the Oldenhorn, etc., is obtained from La Layaz ( $5340^{\circ}$ ), $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S. of Plan. - Ascent of the "Palette ( $7133^{\prime}$; guide 5 fr., unnecessary for experts; horse 12 fr.), easy as far as the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) chalets of Isenaux; thence, withoat path, and rather rough, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more to the top; view of the Bernese Alps from the Diablerets to the Jungfrau and of the Dent du Midi to the S.W.; at the N. base of the mountain lies the pretty Lac d'Arnon. Or we may ascend from the Col de Pillon in $11 / 2-2$ hrs., past the small Lac de Rettau. - Pointe de Meilleret ( $6404^{\prime}$ ), $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs. from Vers $1^{\prime}$ Eglise, easy; view extending to Mont Blanc. We may descend to ( 10 min .) the Col de la Croix (see below). - Pare de Marnex ( $8333^{\prime} ; 4$ hrs.; guide, 7 fr., not indispensable for adepts), not difficult, viâ Le Lavanchy and the pastures of Marnex. The Tète de Moine (7707'; 4 hrs.; 7 fr.) gives more trouble and less satisfaction. - Pic Chaussy (7798'), 4 hrs. (guide, 7 fr., not required by experts provided with Siegfried's map), see pp. 265, 268. The descent may be made to La Comballaz, or past the pretty Lac de Lioson to Les Mosses (p. 268). - The Oldenhorn $\left(10,250^{\prime}\right)$, Fr. Becca d'Audon, a superb point of view, is ascended by experts from Gsteig in $71 / 2$ hrs., or from the Col de Pillon viâ the Glacier du SexRouge in $51 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 10 fr .). Travellers from Ormont spend the night in the chalet of Pillon (4563'); those from Gsteig on the Upper Oldenalp. The Diablerets ( $10,650^{\prime}$ ), from the Hôtel Diablerets by the Glacier and Col de Prapioz ( $926 S^{\prime}$ ) in 7 hrs., or from the ( 1 hr .) Col de Pillon by the Glacier $d u$ Sex Rouge and the Zanfleuron and Diableret Glacier's in 6-í hrs. (guide 13 fr .; difficult). Descent to Anzeindaz steep and difficult (guide 18 fr .); over the Zanfleuron Glacier to Sanetsch and Sion comparatively easy (guide 25 fr.; comp. p. 263). In favourable snow-conditions the Diablerets and the Oldenhorn may both be vanquished in one day.

To Villars ( 4 hrs .) or Gryon ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) by the Col de la Croix, a fine route (or over the Col de la Croix and the Chamossaire to Villars $61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.); guide, 7 fr., not indispensable. From the Hôtel des Diablerets we ascend the valley of the Grande-Eau for $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$., and then enter a lateral valley by a bridle-path to the right (S.W.). After a somewhat steep ascent of $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., with almost uninterrupted views of the Diablerets, we reach the Col de la Croix ( $5690^{\prime}$ ), 5 min . to the N. of the hamlet of La Croix. View of the Dent du Midi; at Ensex ( $5965^{\prime}$ ), 25 min . to the W., also of the Mont Blanc (travellers need not hence return to the col, but may descend straight down into the valley). The path descends on the right bank of the Gryonne, and after $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. divides : to the left to Arveye, 10 min .; to the right to Villarg, 20 min. (p.258). - The path to Gryon descends to the left a little above Arveye, crosses the Gryonne and the Col de la Barbouleuse (3983'), and reaches Gryon in 40 min . (p. 26S). This route is 1 hr . longer, but preferable (on account of the fine view) to the path which crosses the Gryonne, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the pass, by the Pont de Coufin (4737'), and follows the left bank, viâ Sodoleuvroz and Praz-Hudry to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Gryon.

Adjoining Ormont-Dessus are the houses of the middle part of the valley, known as Ormont-Dessous. About $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Vers l'Eglise the road joins that from Château-d'Ex (p. 268); to the S. rises the Dent du Midi. $11 / 2$ M. Le Sepey (3704'; *Hôt. du Mont d'Or ; Cerf, moderate; Hôt. des Alpes; Engl. Ch. Serv. at the Mont d'Or in summer), the chief village in the lower valley.

Excursioss. Pic Chaussy (7798'), $4^{1 / 2}$ hrs., not difficult (pp. 264, 263). Walkers can follow a good path (view) from Ormont-Dessous direct to ( $2 \frac{1}{2} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Les Mosses (comp. p. 265); hence to the summit $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$. Ascent of the "Chamossaire via Bretaye ( $31 / 2-4$ hrs.), see p. 259 . - A road, with fine views (diligence from Aigle twice daily in 4 hrs ; one-horse carr. 12-15, two-horse $25-30 \mathrm{fr}$.), leads from Le Sepey By Les Crétes to the lofty village of ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Leysin ( $4150^{\prime}$; "Grand Hotel Sanatorium, 650 above the village, in a sheltered situation, with splendid view towards the S., visited by consumptive patients, pens. 7-15 fr.; *Hôtel du Mont-Blanc, pens. from 6 fr.; *Pens. du Chalet, 5-6 fr.; Pens. Cullaz, Pens. de l'Espérance, in the village, well spoken of). Pretty walks near the hotel; excursions to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Prafondaz, with view of the Lake of Geneva, and to the Lac $d^{\top} A i$ ( $6300^{\prime} ; 2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$. , fatiguing), at the foot of the Tour d'Ai (p. 259). From Leysin to Aigle a good path, mostly through wood ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., ascent $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.). - Footpath to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Corbeyrier (p. 259).

The road turns suddenly to the right in a fine wooded valley. Far below, the Grande-Eau forms several falls; to the left rises the Chamossaire (p. 259). Near Aigle we cross the Grande-Eau.

Aigle, 7 M. from Le Sepey, see p. 2558.

68. From Bulle to Château-d'Ex and Aigle.

Comp. Maps, pp. 316, $26 \pm$.

41 M . Diligence thrice daily to ( 18 M .) Château-d'Ex in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 5 fr . 70 c .) ; thence to ( 23 M .) Aigle daily in $51 / 3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 8 fr .90 c .). One-horse carr. from Bulle to Château-d'EEx 15, two-horse 30 fr ; two-horse from Bulle to Aigle $75-80 \mathrm{fr}$.

Bulle (2487'; pop. 2797 ; Hôt. des Alpes, near the station, R. 2-3, B. 1, D. $21 / 2-3$, pens. $5-6 \mathrm{fr} . ;{ }^{}$ Union; Cheval Blanc; *Hôtel de la Ville $\&$ Poste, R. $11 / 2-2$, D. $21 / 2$, pens. 5 fr.), a busy little town, the chief place in the Gruyère, is the terminus of the Romont and Bulle railway (p. 228). The rich pastures in the environs are famed for Gruyère cheese and the melodious 'ranz des vaches'. The natives speak a Romanic dialect, known as 'Gruérien'.

At the base of the Moléson, 3 M . to the S . (one-horse carr. 3, two-horse 6 fr .), lie the sulphur-baths of Montbarry (2712'; *Hôt.-Pens. du Moleson, pens. 6-7 fr.; Engl. Ch. Serv.). Charming view. Ascent of the Moléson hence by an easy path, viâ Les Clefs and Le Petit-Plané, in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.

Ascent of the Moleson from belle, 4 hrs.; guide ( 8 fr.) unnecessary. We follow the Châtel St. Denis road (see p. 266) for $3 / 4 \mathrm{MH}$., and diverge to the left by a saw-mill. The path gradually ascends by the brook $L a$

Trême, which it crosses by a ( 20 min .) mill, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) red-roofed buildings of Part-Dieu (3133'), formerly a Carthusian monastery, and follows the W. slope (guide-posts) of the mountain, crossing several brooks. We pass ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Gros-Chalet-Neuf; ( 1 hr .) Gros-Plané ( 4855 '; a rustic inn in a large pasture); the Petit-Plané; and ( 1 hr .) the chalet of Bonne Fontaine ( $5945^{\prime}$; good spring). Thence by a steep path to the top in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more.

The "Moleson (6550') is a bold rock, precipitous on every side, surronnded with meadows and forests, and rich in flora. The view embraces the Lake of Geneva, the Mis. of Savoy, the Dent d'Oche, the Dent du Midi, and the Mont Blanc chain, of which the summit and the Aiguille Verte and Aiguille d'Argentière are visible. To the left of the latter, nearer the foreground, rises the Dent de Morcles, the first peak of the Vaudois Alps, which culminate in the Diablerets, and extend to the heights of Grayere at our feet. Most of the Valaisian and Bernese Alps are concealed. To the extreme left, the Titlis. To the W., the Jura.

Ascent of the Moléson from Albeuve (see below; $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.). On the outskirts of the village the path, marked with red, white, and red, crosses the Marivue, traverses pastures, enters a picturesque ravine, and follows a well-shaded slope to a small chapel. Here we cross the stream, recross it $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. farther on, and reach ( 5 min .) the first chalet. Towards the N.N.W. the ridge separating the Moléson from the Little Moléson is now visible. The path continues to the vicinity of the highest chalet, which we leave on the left. Thence a climb of $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the arête, which is easily found, and to the summit, which rises before us, in 10 min . more.

From Bulle through the Jaunthal to Boltigen in the Simmen-Thal, p. 213. (Diligence in summer daily in $61 / \neq$ hrs.) - From Bulle diligence every afternoon, by Vuadens, Vaulıuz, and Semsales, to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Chàtel St. Denis ( $2670^{\prime}$; Hôt. de la Ville; Hôt. des Treize Cantons), a small town prettily situated on the Veveyse. (The Moléson is ascended hence, by Alp Ti•emettaz, in 4 hrs .) From Châtel St. Denis a diligence plies thrice a day in 50 min . to stat. Palézieux (p. 228); another every morning in 1 hr .40 min. to Vevey ( p .251 ).

The road to Château-d'Ex leads past (3/4M.) La Tour-de-Trême, with its picturesque tower, to (11/2 M.) Epagny (2390'; Croix Blanche). On a steep rocky hill to the right lies the little town of Gruyères, Ger. Greierz (2723' ; *Fleur de Lys, plain), with an old castle of the Counts of Gruyères, who became extinct in the 16 th century. The castle, now restored, contains frescoes, a collection of old weapons, etc. (fee).

We enter the pretty valley of the Sarine or Saane. At ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Enney ( $2410^{\prime}$ ) we see the tooth-like Dent de Corjeon ( $6460^{\prime}$ ) in the background; on the right are Les Vadalles (5207'), spurs of the Moléson. At the mouth of a ravine opposite ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Vil-lard-sous-Mont lies the large village of Grand-Villard (Hôt.-Pens.). Passing Neirivue, we reach (1 M.) Albeuve (2487'; *Ange, moderate; Pens. Mussy), cross the Hongrin (below, to the left, is a picturesque old bridge), and arrive at (3 M.) Montbovon (2608'; *Hôt.Pens. du Jaman, unpretending).

From Montbovon over the Jaman to Montreux ( 6 hrs ., to Vevey $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 8 fr ., unnecessary; horse to the pass 15 , to Les Avants 20 , to Montreux or Vevey 25 fr .), a most interesting excursion. From the Hôt. du Jaman we follow the road for 30 paces, and then ascend to the right; $25 \mathrm{~min} .$, we tarn to the right by a house; $35 \mathrm{~min} .$, bridge over the Hongrin; $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., charch of the scattered village of Allieres (3300'); $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., Croix de Fer Inn. (A direct ronte from Albenve to this point follows the Montbovon road for $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., and diverges to the right by a path to Sciernes and Allières, $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$; beyond Sciernes we take the path descending a little to the left.) The path now ascends gradually, then more rapidly over pastures (several sign-posts) and past the chalets of Les Cases ( $4070^{\prime}$ ) to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) "Col de Jaman ( $4974^{\prime}$ ), where a beautiful prospect is snddenly disclosed, embracing the E. angle of the Lake of Geneva, and the long range of the Savoy and Valais Alps. To the S. is the Dent de Jaman (6165'), which may be ascended (steep) from the col by the N. side in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. A better route ascends on the S. side from the Jaman station, on the Glion-Naye railway, which may be reached from the col in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. by a path skirting the S. side of the Dent, above the small Lac de Jaman (see p. 255). The top of the *Rocher's de Naye (6730'; "View) is reached from Jaman by railway in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. or on foot in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (comp. p. 255). From the Col de Jaman to Montreux the path is distinct; after 12 min . we turn to the right and soon reach the new road; 25 min . a bridge over the Baye, or brook of Montreux; then, where the path divides, we descend to the left through wood and over meadows to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Les Avants ( $3188^{\circ}$; p. 255). Thence to ( 2 hrs .) Montreux, see p. 256.

From Montbovon over the Col de la Tinière to Villenewve, see p. 257.
The valley turns to the E. We enter a wooded ravine, the Sarine flowing far below in a deep rocky bed. At the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) end of the ravine the road forks. The old road keeps to the 'shady side', on the left bank of the Sarine. The new road (diligence) crosses to the right bank and runs viâ Perreys (rustic inn) to ( 3 M .) Rossinière (3025'; *Hôt.-Pens. Grand-Chalet, pens. 5-6 fr. ; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer; Hôt. de la Sarine), a large village, attractively situated at the foot of Mt. Cray (see below) and visited as a summer-resort. At Chaudanne, about 1 M . above Rossinière, the road returns to the left bank and rejoins the old road. At ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Les Moulins the Aigle road diverges to the right (see below). We cross the Sarine at ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Le Pré (2930'), and ascend to (1 M.) -

18 M. Château-d'Ex. - Hôt. Berthod, in an open situation, R., L., \& A. from 3, B. $11 / 2$, lunch 3, D. 4, pens. from 6 fr ., patronized by English visitors; ${ }^{}$ Oors, in the village, R., L., \& A. $2^{1 / 2}-3$, B. $1^{1 / 2}, ~ D .2 \frac{1}{2}$, pens. 6-8 fr.; Hôt. de Ville; *Pens. Rusat, Bricod, de la Chenead, Martin, du Midi, Morier, Villa d`EEx, etc., pens. from 5 fr. - Turrian, confectioner, ices, also a few rooms, opposite Berthod. - Engl. Church Service in summer.

Château-d' Ex, Ger. Esch (3150'; pop. 2691), is a scattered village and summer-resort in a green valley, with delicious air. The church, situated on a hill, commands a good view. To the E. rise the jagged Rüblihorn ( $7500^{\prime}$ ) and the Gumfluh (8074').

Exccrsions. Pleasant walk to the Chalets de la Pierreuse (4986'), situated 2 hrs . to the S.E. at the foot of the Gumfluh. - Laitemaire ( 5535 '), $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the N.E., easy and repaying; view of Mont Blanc and the Bernese Alps. "Mont Cray (6805'), 3 hrs . (guide, 5 fr ., not necessary for experts with Siegfried's map), not difficult. The ronte leads viâ Perisset, Cray-Dessous, and Cray-Dessus. The view embraces the Alps from the Wetterhorn to Mont Blanc, and the lakes of Bienne and Neachâtel to the N. - Gumfluh (8074'), by the valley of the Pierrense in 6 hrs ., or viâ Etivaz in $6 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$. with guide ( 9 fr.), toilsome; splendid view.

From Château-d'Oex to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Saanen, see p. 214.
From Châtbau-d’Ex to Aigle ( 23 M .; diligence daily in $51 / 3 \mathrm{hrs}$.). The road diverges from the Bulle road at ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Les Moulins (see above) to the left, and ascends the valley of the Tourneresse (Vallée de l'Etivaz) in long windings. (Walkers follow the old road, diverging at Le Pré, just beyond the Sarine bridge.)

The road runs high above the valley, affording picturesque views of the deep rocky bed of the brook. At ( $31 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Au-Devant the road enters a more open tract, and its continuation is seen on the hill to the right, but it remains in the valley as far as (2 M.) L'Etivaz ( $3865^{\prime}$; Auberge du Chamois), where it turns, crosses the Tourneresse, and quits the ravine. (Pedestrians avoid this long bend by a rough, stony path ascending to the right by a saw-mill in the valley, and rejoining the road much higher up.) About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. above L'Etivaz are the Bains de l'Etivaz (4100'; *Hôtel-Pension, 4 fr.), with sulphur-springs, in a wooded district. The road ascends for about $2 M$. more and then passes to the S.W. from the valley of the Tourneresse to that of the Hongrin, which it crosses above ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) La Lécherette ( $\left.4530^{\prime} ; \mathrm{inn}\right)$. It then ascends again over the Col des Mosses, the watershed between the Rhine and the Rhone, to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Les Mosses (474't; *Hôt. des Alpes, plain), where we gain a sudden view of the Dent du Midi. The road now descends the valley of the Raverette to ( 2 M. ) La Comballaz (4475'; *Couronne, pens. $5-8 \mathrm{fr}$; Engl. Ch. Serv, in summer), charmingly situated, and noted for its mineral spring and its pure air. (Pic Chaussy, 7798', an easy ascent of 3 hrs . from here or Les Mosses, see pp. 264, 265.) Beyond this the road overlooks a picturesque basin, with the Diablerets and Oldenhorn in the background, and winds down to (23/4 M.) Le Sepey (p. 265 ) and ( 7 M.) Aigle (p. 258).

69. From Bex to Sion. Pas de Cheville.

Comp. Map, p. 264.

12 hrs . From Bex to Gryon 7 M . (diligence daily in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., 2 fr . 90 c. ; one-horse carr. 12 , descent 8 , two-horse 22 fr.); then a bridle-path. Guide to Aven desirable (L.P. Amiguet and Henri Aulet at Gryon, F. Fontannaz at Anzeindaz; from Gryon to Sion 18 fr.). Horse 25 fr . - This route, cutting off the right angle formed by the Rhone Valley at Martigny, presents a series of wild rocky landscapes, especially on the Valais (S.) side, and afterwards commands the Rhone Valley.

Bex, see p. 259. The road leads to the N. to Bévieux (p. 260), crosses the Avançon, and ascends in zigzags (which the old path cuts off), passing the villages of La Chêne, Fenalet, and Aux Posses. Fine view of the Dent du Midi to the S.W., the Vallée des Plans and Grand Mœveran to the S.E., and the Diablerets to the N.E.

7 M. Gryon (3630'; *Pens. Morel, 5-51/2 fr.; *Pens. Cuendet) is a considerable village on a fine site. (To Villars and OrmontDessus, see pp. 259, 265.)

Bridli Path. At ( 10 min .) En Rabou (3765'), at the N.E. end of Gryon, we follow the path to the right, and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) where the path to Frenieres ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; p. 260) diverges to the right, we go straight on. Before us rise the peaks of the Diablerets. We skirt their steep S. slopes in the valley of the Avançon. On the right rise the Argentine (7980') and the Grand Maveran (10,040'). Above the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of Sergnement (4245') we cross the Avançon, and for a short way traverse a pine-forest on the abrupt limestone slopes of the Argentine, which glitter like silver in the sunshine. Crossing the Avançon again, and passing the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of Solalex ( 4810 ), we ascend a stony slope in a long curve, and reach the chalets of ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Anzeindaz (6220'; Chalet Guyon, with 9 beds, open from the middle of July to Sept. only). To the S. lies the Glacier de Paneyrossaz, descending from the Tête à Pierre Grept ( $9545^{\prime}$ ), adjoined on the E. by the Tête du Gros-Jean $\left(8567^{\prime}\right)$. To the N. rise the rugged and riven limestone cliffs and peaks of the Diablerets (highest peak 10,650'; ascent from Anzeindaz over the Col du Refuge, $4^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., difficult ; comp. p. 264). Our path ascends gradually to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Pas de Cheville ( $6720^{\prime}$ ). In the distance, to the E., are the Alps of Valais, over which towers the Weisshorn. We descend to the ( 5 min .) boundary wall between Vaud and Valais, and to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Chalets de Cheville ( $5710^{\prime}$ ). Here we cross the brook: follow the slope to the right, and then descend in zigzags, passing the chalets of Derborence ( $5213^{\prime}$ ), to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Lac de Derborence (4698'), in a gloomy basin formed by a fall of rocks from the Diablerets in 1714. To the N., high above us, lies the large Zanfleuron Glacier (p. 263). To the S., at the head of the valley of the Derbonère, rises the Haut de Cry ( 9743 '), a grand point of view, which may be climbed by proficients in 5 hrs. (guide).

We cross the Derbonère, skirt the S . side of the lake, and traverse the debris on the right bank of the Lizerne. We then ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) cross this stream, follow its left bank, and, passing the chalets of Besson, descend the Val de Triqueut, high above the gorge of the Lizerne. The path (Chemin Neuf), protected in part by a low stone wall, gradually descends to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Chapelle St. Bernard $\left(3530^{\prime}\right)$, at the end of the gorge, where an extensive view of the Rhone Valley is suddenly disclosed. We descend to the left to ( 20 min .) Aven, surrounded by fruit-trees, follow the slope to ( 20 min .) Erde and ( 25 min .) St. Séverin, a thriving village belonging to Conthey, one of the chief wine-growing places in the Rhone Valley, which extends to the ( $11 / 2$ M.) bridge over the Morge. From this point by the highroad to $\left(2^{1} / 4 \mathrm{M}\right.$.) Sion, see p. 316. Instead of following the dusty road, we may cross the vine-clad hill of Muraz from St. Séverin by a path commanding a fine view.

A shorter ronte (shady in the afternoon) on the right bank of the Lizerne diverges to the right 5 min . before the Lizerne bridge (see above). It crosses debris at first, and is not easy to trace. Beyond the ( 10 min .) huts of Mottelon we ascend to the right and pass above the chalets of Servaplana ( 4075 '; milk) to ( 1 hr .) those of L'Airette. Then nearly level, with fine views of the Rhone Valley; lastly a zigzag descent to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ardon (Hôtel da Pont), $1 / 2 \mathrm{II}$. from the station of that name (p. 316).

Geneva, see p. 232. On leaving the quay the steamer affords a fine survey of the grand-looking town with its villas. It touches at Cologny (a village on the hill above, p. 244), La Belotte (for Vésenaz, p. 244), Bellerive (for Collonge), Corsier, and Anières. At Hermance (*Pens. Gillet, with pleasant garden, 5 fr.) the brook of that name falls into the lake, forming the boundary between the canton of Geneva and Savoy (France). Then Tougues and Nernier. Beyond Yvoire, with its old castle on a promontory, the lake suddenly expands to its greatest width $(81 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.). In a large bay to the S . lies Excenevrex. Stations Sciez and Anthy-Séchex.

Thonon-les-Bains (1400'; pop. 5780 ; *Grand Hôtel des Bains, at the W. end, with lake-view; Hôtel de l'Europe, on the terrace; Hôtel du Léman, plain), rising picturesquely from the lake, the ancient capital of the province of Chablais, possesses handsome buildings and a lofty terrace in the upper town, the site of a palace of the Dukes of Savoy which was destroyed by the Bernese in 1536. (Cabletramway from Rive, the lower part of the town, in $11 / 2 \mathrm{~min}$.; fare 10 c .). Near the railway-station is a new bath-house, with mineral springs.

Railway to Bouveret, see above. - To the S. of Thonon ( 3 M. .) is the village of Les Allinges, with a ruined castle ( $2335{ }^{\prime}$; ascent $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; fine view). At the top are a convent and chapel of St. Francis de Sales (rfmts.).

From Thonon to Taninges viâ Les Gets, 32 M . The road ascends the pretty Valley of the Drance to ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Pont de Bioge (2214'), at the mouth of the Brevon. It then follows the left bank of the Drance de Morzine, here joined by the Drance d'Abondance (p.272), and at the village of La Baume crosses by the (12 M.) Pont de Gys to the right bank, along which it runs to Le Biot and (16 M.) St. Jean d'Aulph (2760'; Hôt. de la Balance; Hôt. de la Vallée-d'Aulph), with the ruins of a Cistercian monastery founded in 1103. About 3 M. farther on, near the village of Montriond (high up, to the left), the road returns to the left bank and ascends in windings (to the left a branch-road to Morzine, see below) to the ( 25 M .) village of Les Gets, near the Col des Gets ( $3845^{\prime}$ ). We then descend through the picturesque ravines of the Arpettaz and Foron to (32 M.) Taninges (p. 281). - To Samoëns over the Col de Jocplane, an attractive expedition. At the fork beyond the bridge of Montriond (see above), we diverge to the left to (21 M.) Morzine ( $3215^{\prime}$; Hôtel des Alpes), a prettily situated village and summer-resort. From Morzine a bridle-path ascends through wood and over meadows to the ( $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) Col de Jouplane ( 5635 '; view), whence we descend, high above the wooded valley of the Valentine and passing several chalets, to ( 2 hrs .) Samoëns (p. 282). - A road leads from Morzine up the Drance valley to ( $41 / 2$ M.) La Mouillette, at its head, whence bridlepaths lead to the S. over the Col de Jouplane or the Col de la Golèse (5482') to ( 4 hrs. ) Samoëns, and to the E. over the Col de Coux to ( 5 hrs .) Champery ( p .273 ). A somewhat longer, bat very attractive route to Champéry ascends to the left near the Montriond bridge ( 1 hr . from St. Jean d'Aulph, see above) to the ( 1 hr .) beautiful blue Lac de Montriond ( $3 \ddagger 10^{\prime}$; small inn), whence we proceed past the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of Lyndaret to the ( 2 hrs .) Pas de Chésery ( $6575^{\prime}$ ), between the Pointe de Chésery ( $7380^{\prime}$ ) and the Pointe de Mossettaz ( $7493^{\prime}$; each ascended from the col in 1 hr .). From the col we descend either to the left (N.E.) through the wooded valley of the Vièze de la Tine to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Morgins (p. 273), or to the right (S.E.) viâ Lac Vert and the Porte du Lac Vert to Crosey and ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Champéry (p. 273).

From Thonon to Morgins vî̂ Abondance, 28 M. The road diverges to the left from that to St. Jean d'Aulph at ( $71 / 2$ M.) Pont de Bioge (see above) and ascends on the right bank of the Drance d'Abondance through a romantic gorge. To the left, above, lies ( 13 M .) Vacheresse. Farther on we repeatedly cross the Drance. 191/2 M. Abondance ( 4050 ; Hôt. du Mont de Grange), the capital of the valley, with an old church. The Pointe de Grange (7998'; view) is ascended hence in 5 hrs . (guide). The valley now expands. From ( 23 M.) La Chapelle ( 3310 '; Croix ; Union) the Cornettes de Bise $\left(8000^{\prime}\right)$ are scaled in 5 hrs . Over the Col de Vernaz to Vouvry ( 7 hrs .), see p. 272. The road then winds up through wood, passing ( 25 M.) Chatel ( $3720^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Hôt.-Pens. Villa Châtel, $5-7$ fr.), with mineral springs, and Vonne, to the Pas de Morgins ( $4510^{\prime}$; Swiss frontier), whence it descends to ( 23 M .) Morgins (p. 273).

The steamer passes the ancient château of Ripaille, a little to the N. of Thonon, once the seat of Duke Victor Amadeus VIII. of Savoy. The long promontory round which we now steer has been formed by the deposits of the Drance, which falls into the lake here. To the E. in the bay lie the baths of Amphion (Grand Hôtel; Hôt. des Bains), with a chalybeate spring, in a chestnut-grove (omnibus from Evian 50 c.).

Evian-les-Bains. - Hotels. *Splendide Hôtel, finely situated above the town; *Gr. Hôt. des Bains, on the E. side of the town, with gardeu and view, R. 3-8, L. & A. 2, B. $11 / 2$, lnnch $21 / 2$, D. 5, pens. $12-15$, omn. 1 fr.; *Grand Hôt. d'Evian, with garden, R., L., & A. from $41 / 2$, D. 5 fr.; Hôt. de Fonbonne, on the lake; Hôt. de Paris, all first class, with corresponding charges. - Hùt. de France, R., L., & A. 2-3, B. 1, lunch 3, D. 31/2, pens. $8-10$ fr.; Hôt. Evian-les-Bains, a small town (2830inhab.), picturesquely situated, is frequented mainly by French visitors. On the lake is the Bath House (water containing bicarbonate of soda). On the lakepromenade are the Theatre and the Casino.

Railway to Bouveret and Geneva, see above. Two stations: Evian-lesBains and Bains-d'Evian. 1/2M. to the W., 3 min. from the Gr. Hôt. des Bains. - The Dent d'Oche ( $7300^{\prime}$ ) is often ascended from Evian. Road to (7 11.) Bernex (2920'), whence a bridle-path ascends to the (3 hrs.) Chalets $d^{\prime}$ Oche, on the S. side of the mountain. From the chalets a steep footpath leads to the arête and the ( 2 hrs .) summit. Fine view (see p. 272).

On the lake, near station Tour-Ronde-Lugrin, is the old château of Blonay. Opposite lies Lausanne (p.248), picturesquely situated on the hillside. The hills of the S. bank, which the boat now skirts, become steeper and higher. In a romantic situation close to the lake is Meillerie, with extensive quarries, where the railway is carried through a tunnel. Beautiful view near Les Vallettes.

St. Gingolph (*Hôtel Suisse; Lion d'Or; *Hôt.-Pens. du Lac), on a promiontory opposite Vevey (p. 251), belongs half to Savoy and half to Valais, the boundary being the Morge, which flows through a deep ravine. The grotto of Viviers, with its springs, may be visited by boat.

Interesting walk on the left bank of the Morge to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Novel ( $3200^{\prime}$; ${ }^{\text {t }} \mathrm{Inn}$ ), whence we may ascend the Blanchard ( $5085^{\prime}$; with guide, $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; rfmts. at a chalet near the top), and return by the right bank of the Morge through beautiful forest to St. Gingolph. - Ascent of the Dent d'Oche ( $7300^{\circ}$; $5 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ with guide), from Novel, interesting, viâ ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Les Granges and the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Chalets d Oche (p. 271). - The *Grammont (7135'; see below) is an easy and attractive ascent of 4 hrs . from St. Gingolph, viâ the chalets of Fritaz and La Chaumeny, then over grassy slopes, and finally over rongh rocks. Ascent from Novel ( 4 hrs. with guide) more fatigning. From Vouvry, see below. - To the E. of Novel a bridle-path leads round the W. and S. sides of the Grammont, and past the lakes of Lovenex and Tanay, in $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to Vouvry (see below).

Bouveret (Hôt. de la Tour, pens. 6 fr.; *Hôt. du Chalet de la Forêt, well situated $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the lake, with extensive grounds, R. 2, D. incl. wine 3 fr .) lies at the S.E. end of the Lake of Geneva, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the S.W. of the mouth of the Rhone, which has converted the adjoining land into a marsh. Its strong current, 'La Battaillière', may be traced for more than a mile in the lake. - Railway to Annemasse and Geneva, see p. 270.

The Ratlway enters the Rhone Valley, to the S.E., and follows the left bank. At the foot of a rocky hill to the right lies Port Valais, the Portus Vallesiae of the Romans, once on the lake, but now $1 \frac{1}{2}$ M. inland. Near the defile of La Porte du Sex (1290'), once fortified, the rock so abuts on the river as scarcely to leave room for the road. A wooden bridge crosses to Chessel on the right bank. To the right rises the Dent du Midi (p. 273).

4 M. Vouvry (1280'; Poste, plain, D. $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), on the right, is the first station ; beautiful view by the charch. The Rhone is joined here by the Stockalper Canal, begun a century ago by a family of that name, but never finished.

The ascent of the "Grammont ( $713{ }^{5}$ '; 5 hrs .; guide not necessary for adepts) from Vouvry is very attractive. A bridle-path (horses at Vouvry) ascends viâ Mfiex ( $3210^{\prime}$; inn) to ( $3^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Tanay ( $46 \mathrm{C} 0^{\prime}$; inn, pens. $4-7 \mathrm{fr}$.), at the W. end of Lac Tanay; thence in $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$. to the summit, which commands a magnificent view; from Mont Blanc to the Matterhorn and the Jungfrau and over the Lake of Geneva. Descent to St. Gingolph, see above.

The "Cornettes de Bise ( $8000^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended from Vourry in 6 hrs . (gaide 10 fr .). The route ascends viâ Miex (see above) to the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Col de Vernaz ( $5970^{\prime}$ ), then crosses the ridge to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalet of La Callaz, about $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$. below the top, which affords a superb view. Descent to Lovenex or Tanay (see above), or to (2 hrs.) La Chapelle $d^{`}$ Abondance (p. 271).

To the right are the villages of Vionnaz and Muraz, at the foot of the hills. Opposite the former lies Yvorne (p. 258), to the right of which rise the Diablerets and the Oldenhorn. We next pass Colombey, with its nunnery (fine view). A suspension-bridge, 70 yds . long, crosses the Rhone here to Ollon-St-Triphon (p. 259).

10 M. Monthey ( $1380^{\prime}$; *Cerf; *Croix d'Or or Hôt. des Postes, both moderate), with an old château and glass-works. In a chest-nut-grove 20 min . above it, among a number of boulders, is the huge Pierre- $a-d z o$, balanced on a space of a few square inches.

To the S.W. of Monthey opens the =Val d'Illiez, 15 M . long, noted for its fresh green pastures, picturesque scenery, and stalwart inhabitants. (Diligence from Monthey in summer twice daily in $31 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}, 2 \mathrm{fr} .90 \mathrm{c}$.; one-horse carr. from Monthey to Trois-Torrents 6 , two-horse 10, to Champéry $10 \& 20$, to Morgins $12 \& 24$ fr. and fee.) Near Monthey the new road ascends on the left bank of the Vieze through vineyards, and afterwards for 2 M . through a chestnut-wood, in windings (cut off by the old paved bridle-path, following the telegraph-posts, the beginning of which had better be asked for at Monthey). Beautiful view, looking back over the valley of the Rhone, Bex and Aigle, the Diablerets, and the Grand Mœveran. About $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. above Monthey the old path joins the road, which we now follow to the left where the telegraph-wires turn in that direction, and do not again quit. (The track to the right ascends to Morgins.) We next reach ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the prettily situated village of Trois-Torrents ( $2500^{\prime}$; Hôt.-Pens. des Trois-Torrents), with a good fountain near the church. [Here, to the W., opens the Val de Morgins, in which a circuitous road ascends to ( 3 hrs . from Monthey) the Baths of Morgins ( $4405^{\prime}$ '; Grand Hôtel des Bains et Hôt.-Pens. du Géant, pens. 6-8 fr.; *Hôt.-Pens. du Chalet, $8-10 \mathrm{fr}$.; Hôt.-Pens. de la For̂́t, 8 -10 fr.), with chalybeate springs much frequented by the French. Hence viâ the Porte du Soleil to ( 4 hrs.) Champéry, see below; over the Pas de Morgins to Abondance (Thonon), see p. $2 i 1$.

The road in the Val d'lliez gradually ascends, in view of the Dent du Midi all the way, to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Val d'Illiez ( $3125^{\prime}$; ${ }^{\text {* Hiôt.-Pens. du Repos) }}$ and (2 M.) Champèry ( 3450 '; Hôtel de la Dent du Midi, R., L., \& A. 3-11/2, lunch $21 / 2$, D. $31 / 2$, pens. 6-81/2 fr.; $\#$ Hôtel des Alpes, pens. $5-6$ fr.; ${ }^{}$ Hôt.- Pens. English Church, with regular services in summer.

Excurstons from Champéry. (Guides, Maur. and Pierre Caillet, the brothers Grenon, Ant. Clément, Ed. and Prosper Défago, V. Gex-Collet, E. Joris, etc.) To the ( 20 min .) Gulleries: we descend to the Vièze and cross it, passing a saw-mill, to the passage constructed along the sheer cliffs opposite the village, which commands a charming survey of the valley as far as Trois-Torrents (adm. 50 c .). - The Chalets d Ayerne ( 1 hr .) afford a good survey of the environs. To the N.W. viâ Crosey to the ( 3 hrs .) Porte $d u$ Soleil ( $6443^{\prime}$; descent to Morgins 2 hrs .), and then to the right to the ( 1 hr. ) Pointe de $\mathrm{l}^{\prime}$ Haut ( $7070^{\prime}$ ), affording a grand view of the Dent du Midi (guide 6 fr .). - The ${ }^{}$ Culet ( $6450^{\prime}$; $3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide, 4 fr., not essential) commands a splendid view, especially of the Dent du Midi. We follow the path to the Col de Coux (p. 274) for $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., turn to the right by a small shrine where the path divides, pass a large chalet on the left, and another on the right, farther up; then through pine-wood, and by a narrow path to the cross on the top. Frequent opportunities of asking the way.
*Dent du Midi (highest summit or Cime de l'Ouest, $10,690^{\prime} ; 7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 20, with descent to Vernayaz 27, to Salvan 25 fr.). The previous night is spent in the chalets of ( 2 hrs .) Bonaveau ( $5103^{\prime}$; good quarters); thence by the Pas d'Encel ( $6105^{\prime}$ '), the Col de Susanfe ( 8202$)^{2}$ ), and the Col des Paresseux ( $10,013^{\prime}$ ), to the E. of the small Plan-Nevé Glacier, to the summit 5-6 hrs., the last 3 hrs . very fatiguing, but without danger to the sure-footed. Late in summer the path is almost free from snow, and there i= no glacier to cross. The view of Mont Blanc and the Alps of the Valais and Bern is imposing; the background to the S. is formed by the Alps of Dauphine and Piedmont; the Lake of Geneva is visible from Villeneuve to Vevey. We may descend to Salvan ( $53 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) ; at first a toilsome descent over debris to ( $31 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the pastures of the upper Salanfe Alp ( $639{ }^{\prime}$ '; Hôt. de la Dent du Midi), then across the Alp and past the picturesque falls of the Salanfe or Sallanche, by a bridle-path to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Van d'en Haut (milk), where we cross the Salanfe. The path now skirts the S. side of the valley (affording a view of Mont Blanc as the corner of the Col de la Matze is turned), and then descends to (1 hr.) Salvan (p.294). - The other peaks of the Dent du Midi are more difficult: Dent Noire or Cime de l'Est ( $10,434^{\prime}$; guide 40 fr .), Cathédrale ( $10,386^{\prime}$; 40 fr .), Dent Jaune ( $10,45 \mathrm{~T}^{\prime} ; 50 \mathrm{fr}$ ), and Doigt ( $10,539^{\prime} ; 50-\mathrm{fr}$.).

Tour Sallières $\left(10,588^{\prime} ; 10-11\right.$ hrs.; guide 35 fr ; night spent at Bonaveau, see p. 273), a difficult and fatiguing ascent, crossing the Glacier du Mont-Ruan. Better from the Barberine Club Hut (p. 293). - Dents Blanches ( $9100^{\prime}$ ), ascended by the Barmaz Alp in 6 hrs ., without danger for proficients (guide 14 fr .).

Passes. From Champery to Samoëns over the Cols de Coux and de la Golese, 7-S hrs.; guide ( 14 fr .) unnecessary. The bridle-path ascends the left bank of the Vieze to the ( 1 hr .) hamlet of Autrevenaz ( 4550 '). We then cross the Seumon (descending from the right) and ascend the green valley of Les Creuses, passing several chalets and looking back on the imposing Dent du Midi, to the ( 3 hrs .) Col de Coux ( $6313^{\prime}$; Inn), the frontier of Switzerland and Savoy, which towards the W. overlooks the valley of the Drance. The saddle to the left is the Col de la Golèse. We descend through the upper part of the Drance Valley by a new path above the wood, avoiding the paths leading to the right to Morzine (p. 270). Beyond the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Col de la Golèse ( $54 \Sigma 2$; fine view) we descend past the chalets of Les Chavannes, leaving the hamlet of Les Allamands to the left, then by the valley of the Giffre, to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Samoëns (p.282). A good road leads thence to ( 5 M.) Sixt (p. 282).

From Champeri to Sixt over the Col de Sagerot, $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$, toilsome, for adepts only (guide, necessary, 18 fr.). From the Hôtel de la Dent du Midi we descend a narrow road, towards the head of the valley, to a ( 20 min.) bridge, and beyond it, at ( 3 min .) the point where two brooks unite to form the Vieze, we cross another bridge, and avoid the path to the left. After 10 min . more we take the path to the left, ascending rapidly for $1 \mathrm{hr} .$, and passing the Chalets de Bonaveau (p. 273); thence we ascend gradnally, skirting precipitous rocks, to the ( 40 min .) Pas d'Encel ( $6105^{\prime}$ ), where a little climbing is necessary (caution required). In $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more the path to the Col de Susanfe diverges to the left (see below). Our route now ascends slowly over the pastures of the Susanfe Alp, on the left bank of the brook, crosses the brook ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), and then mounts a very steep path to the ( 1 hr .) Col de Sagerou ( $7917^{\prime}$ ), a sharp arête descending abruptly on both sides, between the (r.) Mit. Sagerou ( $8815^{\prime}$ ) and (1.) Mrt. Ruan (10,099'; $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the pass; difficult; better from the Barberine Hut, p. 293). We descend thence to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of Vogealle ( $6115^{\prime}$ ) and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Boray, and along an almost perpendicular cliff into the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) valley of the Giffire. In $1^{11 / 4} \mathrm{hr}$. we reach Nant-Bride, and in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more Sixt (p. 882).

From Champery to Vernasaz over the Col de Susanfe or Clusanfe ( $7910^{\prime}$; 10 hrs .; guide 15 fr .), fatiguing. Beyond the Pas d'Encel (see above) we ascend to the left to the col, between the Dent du Midi and the Tour Sallières, and descend through the Salanfe Valley (see above) to Salvan and Vernayaz. - Or we may ascend to the right from the Salanfe $A l p$ (see above), 1 hr . berond the Col de Susanfe, and cross the Col or Chieu d'Emaney ( $7960^{\prime}$ ), lying between the Tour Sallières and the Luisin (p. 294), to the valley of the Triege, Emaney, and (5-6 hrs.) Triquent (p. 293). Or from Emaney we may cross the Col de Barberine ( $8136^{\prime}$ ) to the Barberine Club Hut in the valley of the Eau Noire (p. 293). From the Salanfe Alp a bridle-path leads to the E. over the Col du Jorat (7293') to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Evionnaz (p. 262), in the Rhone valley.

The train crosses the Vieze, which descends from the Val d'Illiez, and at Massongex approaches the Rhone. At (141/2 M.) St. Maurice (p. 261) our line is joined by that of the right bank.

71. From Geneva to Chamonix.

i. Viá Cluses.

55 M. Railway from Geneva (Eaux-Vives station) to ( 43 M. ) Le Fayet-St-Gervais in $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( $7 \mathrm{fr} .65,5 \mathrm{fr} .20,3 \mathrm{fr} .20 \mathrm{c}$.); thence to ( 12 M .) Chamonix Omnibus in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (5 fr.). Through-fares from Geneva to Chamonix, 12 fr. 80,10 fr. 35,8 fr. 45 c.; return-tickets 19 fr. 75 , $16 \mathrm{fr} .50,13 \mathrm{fr} .50 \mathrm{c}$. ( 66 lbs . of luggage free). Tickets obtainable in Geneva at Grand Quai 10, as well as at the station, and in Chamonix at the Bureau des Messageries, next the Hôtel Impérial. Cook's tickets also are offered at the hotels in Geneva (to Chamonix and back, or viâ Chamonix and the Tête-Noire or Salvan to Martigny and Vernayaz, etc.). For the journey from Chamonix to Martigny it is advisable not to take tickets till Chamonix is reached. - At Eaux-Vives (reached by tramway from Place Molard; cab 2 fr .) the railway-time is 55 min . behind that of Geneva. For the drive from Le Fayet to Chamonix an open carriage is preferable to the omnibus ( 15 fr ., with two horses 25 fr .). Luggage is not examined at the French frontier, as the department of Haute-Savoie is free of customs.

Geneva (Eaux-Vives station ; Pl. F, 8), see p. 232. The train ascends, through a tunnel, and traverses a plateau, with the Salève on the right and the Jura chain on the left. At ( $2^{1 / 2}$ M.) Chêne (1385'), a large village belonging to Geneva, Mont Blanc appears on the right, between the pyramidal Môle and the Pointe d'Andey (p. 279). We now cross the Foron, the French frontier, to ( $33 / 4$ M.) Annemasse (1420'; Rail. Restaurant; Hôt. de la Gare; Hôt. de la Paix; Hôt. du Montblanc), junction for the Bellegarde and Bouveret line (p.270) and the steam-tramway to Samoëns (p. 281). The train backs out, describes a wide curve through the little town, and crosses the Arve at Etrembières (Salève Tramway, see p. 243). Fine view to the left, with Mont Blanc in the distance. $51 / 2$ M. Monnetier-Mornex. The charmingly situated village of Mornex (p. 243) lies above us to the right, and the deep gorge of the Arve to the left. The train crosses the Vaison by a handsome viaduct, ascends through meadows and orchards, in view of the Arve valley, and crosses the Foron to ( $91 / 3 \mathrm{M}$.) Reignier (Hôt. du Montblanc). Beyond (11 M.) Pers-Jussy-Chevrier is - 131/2 M. La Roche-sur-Foron (1905'; Hôt. de la Croix Blanche), junction for Annecy (see Baedeker's South-Eastern France; change carriages for Chamonix). To the left is the village with its ruined castle, picturesquely situated high above the Arve valley.

The train crosses the Foron and one of its tributaries. A short tunnel. To the right tower the cliffs of the Pointe d'Andey, to the left the Môle. We descend through a wooded region into the Arve valley. Beyond ( 18 M.) St. Pierre-de-Rumilly we cross the Borne, and then the Arve, and skirt the town to the station of - 201/2 M. Bonneville (1457'; pop. 2271; Balance, Couronne, etc.), picturesquely situated among vine-clad hills. A handsome bridge crosses the Arve, on the N. bank of which, on the right, is a monument to the Savoyards who fell in the campaign of 1870-71. On the S. bank rises a monument, $73^{\prime}$ high, to King Charles Felix of Sardinia. - Steam-tramway, to the N., to Bonne, see p. 281.

The ${ }^{\text {FMole }}$ (6132'), to the N.E. of Bonneville, is ascended in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide, 10 fr ., not indispensable) by the chalets of Borere and the Petit Mole ( 4981 '; small inn, $3 / 4$ hr. from the summit). Magnificent view of Mont Blanc. - Ascent from St. Jeoire ( 4 hrs.), see p. 281.

The Pointe d'Andey ( $6165^{\prime}$ ), to the S. of Bonneville, is ascended in $33 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. either by ( 1 hr .) Andey or by ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Brison (inn; road thus far, viâ Vougy) and ( 1 hr .) Solaizon, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the top. Splendid view, partly obstructed by the Rocher's de Leschaux. Rich flora.

The train runs in a straight line up the broad valley of the Arve, bounded by lofty mountains. Crossing the Giffre we reach ( 25 M .) Marignier (1530'; Inn; steam-tramway to Pont du Risse, see p. 281). To the right rise lofty limestone hills. We follow the right bank of the Arve to ( $271 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Le Nanty and ( 29 M .) Cluses (1590'; Hôtel de la Gare), a small town of watchmakers.

A winding road ascends hence to the N . viâ the Col de Chatillon ( $2828^{\prime}$; view) to ( 6 M .) Taninges, on the line from Geneva to Samoëns (p. 281); and another new road, hewn in the rock, leads to the right to (2 M.) Nancy-sur-Cluses.

The railway penetrates the Pointe de Cherran ( $4030^{\prime}$ ) by a tunnel and runs to the S. through the narrowing gorge of the Arve (Vallée de Magland), on the right bank. Beyond ( $311 / 2$ M.) Balme-Araches (1624'; café-restaurant), in the bluish-yellow limestone rock to the left, 750 ' above the road, is the entrance to the Grotte de Balme, a stalactite-cave hardly worth visiting ( 2 hrs . there and back; 3 fr . each pers.). $331 / 2$ M. Magland, at the foot of a steep cliff. Then, to the right, the Pointe d'Areu (8097) and the Pointe Percée (9029'; p. 280), and to the left, the Aiguille de Varens ( $8163^{\prime}$ ). Beyond ( 36 M .) Oex we cross the Arve. To the left is the Cascade d'Arpenaz (165' high), fine after rain.

The valley expands. To the S.E. there is now revealed a superb *View of Mont Blanc, whose dazzling peaks, towering majestically at the head of the valley, seem to annihilate the intervening distance of 15 M . The Aiguille du Goûter appears first; then, from right to left, the Dôme du Goûter, Mont Blanc itself, Mont Maudit, Mont Blanc du Tacul, Aiguille du Midi, and Aiguille Verte.

39 M. Sallanches (1790'; pop. 2064; Hôt. du Montblanc; Hôt. des Messageries), a straggling little town, with a fountain commemorating the centenary of the French Revolution, adorned with a statue of Peace, by Cambos (1890).

The Pointe Percee ( 9029 '; $5-51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; with gaide; easy for experts), commanding a fine view of Mont Blanc, is ascended hence by the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Praz-es-Ros and the ( 2 hrs .) Col des Verts. The Pointe d Areu ( 8097 '; 6 hrs .), the Aiguille de Varens (8163'; 6 hrs.), and the Pointe du Colloney (8832'; $61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) are more difficult (with guides).

The railway next leads by ( 41 M.) Domancy to ( 43 M .) Le Fayet-St-Gervais (1860'; Hôtel des Alpes; Hôt. de la Paix ; Café-Restaurant de la Gare; Railway Buffet, dear), by the bridge over the BonNant.

In a wooded ravine of the Vallée de Montjoie, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Le Fayet, lies St. Gervais-les-Bains (2075'; *Grand Hôtel des Bains; S.B.G.H.), a sulphur-bath, which was totally destroyed by a burst of the Glacier de Tête-Rousse (p. 297) in July, 1892, but has been rebuilt in a higher and safer position. A shady path leads in 20 min . from the baths (road from Le Fayet in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) to the village of St. Gervais ( $2680^{\prime} ; \geqslant H \delta t$. du Mont Joly; *Hot. du Montblanc; *Hot. des Etrangers; Hôt. de Genève; several pensions), a health-resort, finely situated. About $3 / 4 \mathrm{MI}$. below the village ( 4 min. from the footpath to the Baths) is the "Cascade de Crépin, a fall of the Bon-Nant. From St. Gervais a road leads viâ Bionnay to ( 6 M.) Contamines (p. 298). - The Mont Joly ( $8290^{\prime}$ ) is ascended without difficulty from St. Gervais in 5 hrs. (comp. p. 298).

Walkers may leave the diligence at Le Fayet and cross the Col de la Forclaz ( $5105^{\prime}$ ), between the Tête-Noire ( $5800^{\prime}$ ) and the Prarion ( $6460^{\prime}$ ), direct to Le Fouilly and Les Houches in 5-6 hrs. (guide desirable, 6 fr.). A longer but more interesting route ( 6.7 hrs .) is from St. Gervais over the Pavillon du Prarion (6100') and the Col de Voza (p. 297).

An attractive route ( $8-9 \mathrm{hrs}$; ; guide) for monntaineers leads from Le Fayet to Sixt viâ the Escaliers de Platé, the Chalets de Platé (p. 282), and the Portettaz ( $7820^{\prime}$ ). Fine view; better from the Pointe de Platé ( $8375^{\prime}$ '; 1 hr .). We descend to the chalets of salles ( $6200{ }^{\prime}$ ) and through an imposing ravine with fine waterfalls (La Pleureuse, Cascude du Rouget) to Salvagny and Sixt (p. 282).

From Le Fayet a road crosses the Arve to Chedde and Servoz (see below). The Chamonix road on the left bank of the Arve ascends gradually, with the torrent almost directly below it, and leads through a cutting into the wooded valley of ( 47 M .) Le Châtelard (inn). Through the opening of the valley appear the Dôme du Goûter $\left(14,210^{\prime}\right)$ and the jagged Aiguille du Midi $\left(12,608^{\prime}\right)$. Beyond the inn is a short tunnel, which passes an ancient Roman gallery. The road returns to the Arve for a short way. On the left is a road to ( 1 M.$)$ Servoz, crossing the Pont Pélissier.

From Servoz ( ${ }^{6}$ Hôt.-Pens. Diosaz; Hôt. à la Fougère, well spoken of) we may visit ( 1 hr . there and back) the *Gorges de la Diosaz (adm. 1 fr.), a grand ravine, through which the Diosaz, a torrent rising on the Buet, dashes in fine cascades. Access to the gorge is afforded by a gallery, $1 / 2$ M. long, attached to the rocks. - From Servoz to Sixt over the Col du Derochoir ( $7340^{\prime}$ ), $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide), toilsome but interesting.

At the ( $481 / 2$ M.) Hôt. des Montées another road diverges to $(11 / 2$ M.) Servoz. Farther on ( $1 / 2$ M.) the old road ascends to the right to Le Fouilly and Les Houches (p. 297), while the winding new road follows the wild ravine of the Arve, crossing the stream by the *Pont Ste. Marie (fine view of the gorge), and again higher up. The glaciers gradually become visible: first the Glaciers de Griaz and de Taconnaz; then the Glacier des Bossons (p. 287), near the village of Les Bossons, extending farthest into the valley, and apparently the largest. Farther on, the road crosses the Arve by the Pont de Perrolataz (3330'), and $13 / 4$ M. beyond it reaches 55 M. Chamonix (p. 283).

ii. Viâ Sixt.

Railway from Geneva to ( 3 3/4 M.; 13 min .) Annemasse. Steam Tramway from Annemasse to Samoëns, $271 / 4 \mathrm{M}$., in 3 hrs . ( $3 \mathrm{fr} .55,2 \mathrm{fr} .20 \mathrm{c}$.). Omnibcs from Samoëns to Sixt ( $5 \mathrm{M} . ; 1 \mathrm{hr}$ ). From Sixt to Chamonix, Bridle Path ( $10-11 \mathrm{hrs}$.) over the Col d'Anterne and Col du Brévent (guide, 18 fr ., needless in good weather), rather fatiguing, as we have to traverse both passes, with the ascent and descent between them, during the heat of the day. Splendid views of Mont Blanc. Provisions should be taken, as nothing but milk is to be had on the way.

From Geneva to ( $33 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Annemasse, see p. 278. At the N. end of Annemasse the line turns E. (right), leaving the hill of Monthoux to the left (stations, Malbrande, Bas-Monthoux), and skirts the foot of the Voirons viấ Borly to ( 8 M.) La Bergue (1680').

The Pralaire ( ${ }^{2630}$ '), the S. peak of the Voirons (p. 244), may be ascended hence in 2 hrs . viầ ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Lucinges and Les Gets.
$91 / 2$ M. Bonne, on the Menoge. Branch-line to (8 M.) Bonneville, see p. 279. - From ( $101 / 2$ M.) Pont de Fillinges (1784'; inn) a diligence runs twice daily to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Boëge (Hôt. des Allobroges; Balance), the best starting-point for the Voirons (2 hrs.; p. 244). Then through the valley of the Foron to ( $131 / 2$ M.) Viuz-en-Sallaz. To the left is the Pointe des Brasses ( $4940^{\prime}$ ), to the right the Môle (see below).

16 M. St. Jeoire (1925'; pop. 1750; Couronne; Hôt. des Alpes, plain; Restaurant Chalet du Môle, at the station; *Restaurant Blanc, at the E. end of the main street), a little town, with the château of Fléchère and a statue of Sommeiller (1815-71), one of the engineers of the Mont Cenis Tunnel, who was born here.

The "Môle (6132'), which commands the Arve valley and Mont Blanc, is ascended in 4 hrs. from St. Jeoire, by Montrenaz and the chalets of Char. A somewhat shorter route leads by $L a$ Tour, the chalets of Bovere, and the Petit-Môle ( $4980^{\prime}$; inn, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. below the top). The ascent from Bonneville (p. 279) is still shorter.

The road ascends a narrow gorge, and then enters the valley of the Giffre, to the left. From ( $171 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Pont du Risse a tramway leads in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. viâ Le Breuillet to Marignier (p. 279). 20 M . Mieussy ( $2225^{\prime}$ ), at the W. base of the Pointe de Marcelly (see below). In front rise the Buet and Mont Blanc. The line rounds the conical Roc de Suets (3002') and reaches - $241 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. Taninges ( $2103^{\prime}$; Balances), a busy little town with the old abbey of Mélan, now a school. Route to Cluses, see p. 279.

The Pointe de Marcelly ( $7105^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended hence in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. by a steep path viâ Les Pontets and the chalets of Grand Planay, or from Mieussy (see above) in 5 hrs ., with guide. - From Taninges viâ Les Gets to St. Jean $d^{\prime} A u l p h$ and Thonon, in the valley of the Drance, see p. 270. Diligence daily from Taninges to Morzine in $31 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.

We ascend the valley of the Giffre, by La Palud, Jutteninge, Verchaix-Morillon, Les Chenets, and Le Bérouze, to - 31 M. Samoëns ( $2490^{\prime}$; pop. 2540 ; *Croix d'Or, moderate; Commerce), a little town prettily situated at the base of the Rochers de Criou ( 7380 '). Fine view from the chapel above the church ( 10 min .).

From Samoëns to (7 hrs.) Champery in the Val d'lliez, over the Col de la Golèse and Col de Coux, see p. 274; over the Col de Jouplane (5635') or the Col de la Golèse to ( 4 hrs .) Morzine, see p. 270.

Beyond Samoëns the road enters the defile of Les Tines, in which the Giffre forms a fall, $160^{\prime}$ high. As the valley expands we see before us the precipices of the Buet, to our right the Pointe de Salles and the Pointe des Places, and to our left the Pic de Tanneverge (see below).

36 M. Sixt (2484' ; *Hôt.-Pens. du Fer à Cheval, in an old monastery, R. \& L. 3, B. $1 \frac{1}{2}$, D. 3, pens. 5 fr., unpretending) is locally known as L'Abbaye.

Environs. In spring, when the brooks are swollen by the melting snow, the environs of Sixt abound in fine waterfalls, there being no fewer than thirty in the upper part of the valley alone, which is called from its shape Vallée du Fer à Cheval. In summer and autumn, however, the number dwindles to five or six. An attractive excursion may be taken, through the debris of a landslip of 1602, to the ( 3 hrs .) Fond de la Combe ( $3274^{\prime}$ ), at the head of the valley, with a waterfall.

Fine views from the Collet d' Anterne (5900'), 3 hrs . to the S ., and from the Croix de Commune ( $6340^{\prime}$ ), $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the S.E. - The Pic de Tanneverge (Pointe des Rosses, $9784^{\prime}$; 9 hrs.; with guide), by the Col de Tanneverge ( $8454^{\prime}$ ), is difficult, but commands a splendid view. The descent from the col may be made to the Barberine Club Hut (6230'), then down the Eau Noire to Emosson, and over the Col de la Gueula to Finhaut (p. 293). The Tète Pelouse ( $8120^{\prime}$ ), ascended by the Lac de Gers in 6 hrs ., offers no difficulty; fine view of Mont Blanc. The descent may be made over the stony slopes ('lapiaz') of the Désert de Plate to the Chalets de Plate, and then over the Escaliers de Platé to Le Fayet (p. 280; dizzy path, recalling the Gemmi). - The Pointe de-Salles ( $8183^{\prime}$ ), from the ( 4 hrs.) Chatets of Salles (p. 280) by the S.W. side in 2 hrs. (with guide), not difficult. The ascent by the E. side takes skilful climbing.

From Sixt to Chamonix over the Buet, $12-13 \mathrm{hrs}$., fatiguing but interesting (guide necessary; 23 fr ., incl. return). To the Chalets des Fonds, see below. Then to the left to the ( $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) couloir of Beaux Près, close to the Col de Léchaud (7490'), and to the N. over turf, loose stones, and snow to the S.W. arête, the small Cabane Pictet (9970'), and the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) top of the *Buet ( $10,200^{\prime}$ ). Magnificent view of the Mont Blanc range, Monte Rosa, the Matterhorn, the Bernese Alps with the Jungfrau and Finsteraarhorn, the Dent du Midi, and the Jura as far as the Alps of Dauphiny. A toilsome descent leads to ( 2 hrs .) the Chalet de la Pierre à Berard ( $6330^{\prime}$; small inn), and throagh the Vallee de Berard ( p . 292) to Argentière and (5-6 hrs.) Chamorix.

From Sixt to Champery over the Col de Sagerou, see p. 274; to Le Fayet or Servoz by the Portettaz and Escaliers de Platé, or over the Col Derochoir, see p. 280.

The bridle - path to the Col d'Anterne (to Chamonix 11 hrs ., fatiguing) ascends the Vallée des Fonds to the S., past a picturesque waterfall on the right, to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Salvagny (in view of the beautiful Pointe de Salles, see above), beyond which it zigzags up a grassy hill to the left, past the Cascade du Rouget (p. 280), to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Chalets des Fonds ( $4530^{\prime}$; small inn), and 'Eagle's Nest', the summer-seat of Sir Alfred Wills, at the foot of the Buet (p. 282). About 5 min . farther on, beyond the bridge, we ascend to the right (path to the left to the Col Léchaud, see p. 282), passing the ruined huts of Grasses-Chèvres ( $5600^{\prime}$ ) in a wide bend, to ( 1 hr .) the Signal or Bas du Col d'Anterne (6310'). We then traverse the undulating Plateau d'Anterne (the chalets of which lie to the right), and skirt the Lac d'Anterne ( $6693^{\prime}$ ) to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the *Col d'Anterne ( $7425^{\prime}$ ), where a stupendous view of the Mont Blanc chain is suddenly revealed. We descend to the left (path to the right to Ayer and Servoz, $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), passing the chalets of Moëde, into the valley of the Diosaz, which we cross after $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. by a wooden bridge ( $5530^{\prime}$ ). We then ascend to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Col du Brévent (6975'), which also affords a superb view of Mont Blanc. Descent, chiefly through wood, viâ Planpraz and Les Chablettes (p. 287) to (2 hrs.) Chamonix.

Guides. A guide is unnecessary for the Montanvert, the F'légère, the Brévent, the Plan de l'Aiguille, and the Pierre Pointue. The paths are so minutely described in these pages that they can hardly be mistaken, and opportunities of asking the way are frequent. Visitors to the Chapeau need only take a guide across the Mer de Glace to or from the Chapean (p. 285). The guides at Chamonix form a society under a Guide-Chef, who assigns them to applicants in rotation; but travellers may choose their own guides. Full pay must be given for an ordinary tour if more than half completed, but given up at the traveller's desire; when less than half has been completed, two thirds of the tariff must be paid (special tariff for Mont Blanc, see p. 289). The guides are bound on 'courses ordinaires' to carry baggage not exceeding 26 lbs ; on 'courses extraordinaires', 15 lbs . only. - The following are recommended for difficult expeditions: Michel and Fréd. Payot; Ed. and Aug. Cupelin; Henri, Joseph Albert, and François Devouassoud; Jules Bossoney; Michel Folliguet; Ben. Simon, surnamed Benoni; A. Tournier; Jules and Joseph Adolphe Simond of Les Praz; Frang., Alfred, and Joseph Simond of Lavancher; Gasp. and Joseph Simond of Les Mossons; Armand Couttet; Michel Savioz; Frans. Meugnier'; Antoine Ducroz; Albert Tissary, etc.

Horses and Mules. Except for the excursion to the Montanvert and Chapeau ( 9 fr.), and to the Montanvert for a visit to the Jardin, and back to Chamonix in the evening ( 9 fr .), the charges are the same as for the 'courses ordinaires' of the guides, and as much more is charged for the attendant.

The Collection of Pictures of M. Gabriel Loppe, the painter of Alpine scenery, situated behind the Hôtel Royal, on the way to the Montanvert, is worth seeing. Admission gratis (small fee to the attendant). - Alpine Library (guide-books, photograkhs, etc.) near the Hôt. Impérial. - The best Telescope for a view of Mont Blanc is that of M. Louis Donat (diameter 10 inches), in a court at the W. end of the village. - The Revue du Mrontblanc, issued in summer weekly, gives information as to the state of the snow, records of ascents, and so on.

Points of Interest. The traveller should devote three or four days at least to Chamonix, but those who have one day only at command should ascend the Montanvert ( $p .285$ ) in the morning ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), cross the Mer de Glace (p. 285) to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$ ) Chapeau (p. 285), descend to ( 1 hr .) Les Tines (p. 286), ascend the Flegere (p. 286; 21/2 hrs.), and descend thence in 2 hrs. to Chamonix. Early in the morning the path to the Montanvert is in shade, in the afternoon that to the Flégère partly so; and by this arrangement we reach the Flégère at the time when the light is best for the view of Mont Blanc. For this excursion a guide (to be found on the Montanvert) for the inexperienced is necessary for the Mer de Glace only. Riders send their mules round from Montanvert to Les Tines or the Chapeau to meet them. The excursion to the Flégère alone takes 5 hrs ., and that to the Montanvert or the Chapeau about the same time. Those who come from the E., and have slept at Argentière, may leave the road near Lavancher (p. 291), take a guide there, and go by the Chapeau, the Mer de Glace, and Montanvert to Chamonix. The Flégère may also be reached from Le Joux (p. 29i), on the right bank of the Arve; but the path is bad and unsuitable for riding, and cannot be found without a guide (boy $1-11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.).

On a cloudy afternoon, when no distant views are obtainable, the Glacier des Bossons (p.287) is the best object for a walk (there and back 3 hrs.). - To the Cascade de Blaitiere, on the billside to the E. of Chamonix, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (adm. $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). - The Plan de l'Aiguille (p. 288), $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., or, incl. the Lac de Blaitière, 4 hrs. (there and back, with stay, 7 hrs .). To the Pavillon de la Pierre-Pointue (p. 283) and back, $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$; or, including the Aiguille de la Tour and Pierre à l'Echelle, a whole day. Ascent of the Brevent (p. 287) and back, 7 hrs .; ascent or descent by the Flégère 2 hrs. more.

English Church (p. 285), with regular services during the season.
The *Valley of Chamonix ( $3415^{\prime}$; pop. about 3400), or Chamouny, 12 M . long, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. wide, watered by the Arve, runs from N.E. to S.W., from the Col de Balme to Les Houches. It is bounded on the S.E. by the Mont Blanc chain, with its huge ice-cataracts, the Glaciers du Tour, d'Argentière, des Bois (Mer de Glace), and des Bossons; and on the N.W. by the Aiguilles Rouges and the Brévent. The valley was first brought into cultivation by a Benedictine priory in the 12th cent., but it remained practically unknown until the 18th cent., when it was visited by the English travellers Pococke and Windham (1741) and the Genevese naturalists De Saussure (1760) and Bourrit (1769). It is inferior to the Bernese Oberland in picturesqueness, but superior in the grandeur of its glaciers, in which respect it has no rival but Zermatt.

In front of the Hôtel Royal rises the *Saussure Monument, unveiled in 1887, on the centenary of the first ascent of Mont Blanc. The bronze group (by J. Salmson), on a granite pedestal, represents Saussure conducted by Balmat (p. 289) : 'à H. B. de Saussure Chamonix reconnaissant'. A small monument to Balmat stands in front of the church.

The *Montanvert or Montenvers (6267'; $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide, 6 fr., unnecessary; horse and attendant 12 fr .), a height on the E. side of the valley, is visited for the view it affords of the vast 'sea of ice' which fills the highest basins of the Mont Blanc chain in three branches (Glacier du Géant or du Tacul, Glacier de Leschaux, and Glacier de Talèfre), and descends into the valley in a huge icecataract, $41 / 2$ M. long and $1 / 2^{-1} / 4$ M. broad, called the Mer de Glace above the Montanvert, and the Glacier des Bois below it. The bridle-path leads to the left by the Hôtel Royal, passes the little English Church, and crosses the meadows (to the left of the cemetery wall) to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) houses of Les Mouilles. We ascend (just before the solitary cottage) through pine-wood to the right (again turning to the right after $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.), past the ( 10 min .) Chalets des Planaz, to ( 40 min .) Le Caillet ( $4900^{\prime}$; rfmts.), a spring by the wayside. Farther on ( 12 min .) a bridle-path to the left descends to Les Bois (p. 286). Our path ascends gradually, at first through wood, to the (1 hr.) Hôtel du Montanvert (R., L., \& A. 3-4, déj. 3, D. 5, pens. 910 fr .), at the top of the hill, commanding the *Mer de Glace and the mountains around it: opposite us rises the huge Aiguille du Dru $\left(12,320^{\prime}\right)$; behind it, to the left, is the snow-clad Aiguille Verte ( 13,540 ') and lower down the Aig. a Bochard ( 8767 '), to the right the Aig. du Moine (11,198'); farther distant are the Grandes Jorasses $\left(13,797^{\prime}\right)$, the Mont Mallet $\left(13,085^{\prime}\right)$, and the Aig. du Géant ( $13,170^{\prime}$ ); and immediately to our right tower the Aiguilles des Charmoz (11,293') and de Blaitière $(11,550)$.

From the Montanvert travellers usually cross the Mer de Glace to the ( $1 \frac{1}{4}-1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$.) Chapeau, opposite. A path descends the left lateral moraine to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the glacier. The passage of the glacier presents no difficulty ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; guide from the Montanvert, unnecessary for experts, 3 fr., or to the Chapeau 6 fr .; woollen socks to draw over shoes unfurnished with nails, 1 fr.). On the opposite side we ascend over debris to the ( 5 min .) top of the right lateral moraine ( $6065^{\prime}$; rfmts.), skirting which we descend to the giddy 'Mauvais Pas', where the path is hewn in steps and flanked with iron rods attached to the rocks, and the ( 40 min .) Chapean. Guides for this excursion in the reverse direction are not always to be found at the Chapeau; if required, they should be brought from the Hôt. Beau-Séjour at Lavancher ( 6 fr .; p. 286).

The *Chapeau (5279'; Inn), a projecting rock on the N.E. side of the Glacier des Bois, at the base of the Aiguille à Bochard, is much lower than the Montanvert, but commands an excellent survey of the ice-fall of the Glacier des Bois and the Chamonix Valley.

A bridle-path descends the moraine from the Chapeau, in view of the ice-fall of the Glacier des Bois and the Aiguille do Dru, and then through pine-wood to ( 40 min .) the Hôt.-Pens. Beau-Séjour (p. 291). Here it divides: to the right to ( 10 min .) Lavancher, to the left to ( 20 min .) Les Tines (p. 271). The route to the Flégère crosses the Arve at the inn 'à la Mer de Glace', then leads to the left through wood and pastures to ( 20 min .) the foot of the zigzag path (see below). A shorter path, rough and unfit for riding, diverges from the path to Les Tines ( 20 min . from the Chapeau) to the left, and descends the moraine (passing the Source of the Arveyron below on the left) to Les Bois and ( 40 min .) Les Praz (p. 291).

The =Jardin ( 9830 '; guide necessary, 14 fr .) is a triangular rock rising from the midst of the Glacier de Talefre, and walled in by moraines. Around a spring in the midst of this oasis Alpine flowers bloom in August. From the Montanvert, where the night is passed, we skirt the somewhat dizzy rocks of Les Ponts to the right to the Angle; here we take to the Mer de Glace, and ascend its moraine, and then the moraines of the Glaciers du Tacul, de Leschanx, and de Talèfre (containing numerous crystals), to the foot of the Couvercle. We now ascend rapidly to the left by a good path ( 2 hrs. from the Angle) and skirt the rocks of the Aig. du Moine, above the Séracs de Talèfre, till we are opposite the huge rock of the Jardin. The Glacier de Talefre is then crossed to the foot of the Jardin ( $11 / 2-2$ hrs.). Around us tower the Aig. du Moine, the Aig. Verte, the Droites, the Courtes, the Aig. de Trivlet, the Aig. de Talèfre, and other snow-peaks. We descend to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) refuge-hut on the Pierre $\dot{a}$ Beranger ( $8110^{\prime}$ ) and return to the Montanvert in about 3 hrs . This excursion introduces us to the grand icy wilds of the Mont Blane group, and presents no difficulty to good walkers. Provisions necessary.

The Aiguille Verte $\left(13,50^{\circ}\right)$, the highest peak between the Mer de Glace and the Glacier d'Argentiere, is ascended by good climbers from the Montanvert in $10-12 \mathrm{hrs}$. (difficult, guide 100 fr .). Follow the Jardin route as far as the Couvercle (see above), ascend the Glacier de Talèfre, and by a long snow-coul(ir to the ridge between the Aig. Verte and les Droites; hence to the left to the top. - The Aiguille du Dru (Grand Dru or Pointe Est $12.30^{\prime}$, guide 90 fr : : Petit Dru or Pointe Charlet $12,245^{\prime}$, gaide 130 fr .), the Aiguille de Blaitière ( 11,550 '; guide 80 fr .), and the Aiguilles des Charmoz ( $11,293^{\prime}$; guide 80 fr.) are all difficult and fit for firstrate climbers only.

The "Flégère ( $6158^{\prime}$; 3 hrs.; guide, 7 fr., unnecessary ; horse and attendant 14 fr .), to the N. of Chamonix, is a buttress of the Aiguille de la Floriaz ( $9475^{\prime}$ ), a peak of the Aiguilles Rouges. We follow the Argentière road (p. 291) to ( $11 / 2$ M.) Le Chable. The direct footpath diverges to the left just on this side of the Arve bridge, leading in 12 min . through pastures, very marshy at places, to the foot of the ascent. [The bridle-route, a few minutes longer, crosses the Arre to Les Praz (p. 291), diverges to the left at the last house (guidepost), crosses the Arve, and is joined by the path mentioned above.] We now ascend the stony slope in long zigzags. After 35 min. we enter the wood to the right, pass ( 35 min .) the Chalet des Praz (rfmts.), and in 1 hr . more reach the Croix de la Flégère (Inn, déj. $31 / 2$, D. 4 , pens. 6 fr .). The *View (comp. panorama) embraces the Mont Blanc chain, from the Col de Balme to beyond the Glacier des Bossons. Opposite us lies the basin of the Glacier des Bois (Mer de Glace), enclosed by sharply defined Aiguilles: to the left, the Aiguille du Dru and the huge snow-clad Aiguille Verte; to the right, the Aiguilles des Charmoz, de Blaitière, du Plan, and du Midi. The summit of Mont Blanc is distinctly seen, but is less striking than the nearer peaks. The jagged pinnacles of the Aiguilles Rouges also present a singular appearance. Evening-light most favourabie.

From the Flégère the bridle-path goes on to ( 1 hr .) the Chalet de la Floriaz (rfmts.), from which we may ascend the Aiguille de la Glière (9353'; $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 15 fr. ), the Aiguille de la Floriaz ( $9475^{\prime}$; $3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; 20 fr .), or the "Belvedere (9730'), one of the highest peaks of the Aiguilles Rouges, affording a magnificent view (for adepts only; $4 \mathrm{hrs} ; 20 \mathrm{fr}$.). - Those bound from the Flégere to Argentière or to the Chapeau may descend direct to Le Joux (comp. p. 284; path hardly to be mistaken on the descent).

The *Brevent ( $8285^{\prime}$ ), the S.W. prolongation of the Aiguilles Rouges, affords a similar bat finer view. While from the Flégère the Mer de Glace and the Aiguille Verte are the chief features, Mont Blanc is here revealed in all its grandeur; to the right of the Buet we see the Bernese Alps, and to the S.W. the Dauphiny Alps. The bridlepath ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide, 10 fr ., unnecessary) leads to the W. from Chamonix, passing the hamlets of La Molaz and Les Mossoux, ascends through wood to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Plan Lachat ( 5160 '; rfmts., dear), an admirable point of view, and then in numerous zigzags to the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Plan Bel Achat ( ${ }^{706}{ }^{7}$ '; Restaurant, bed 2, D. 4 fr .), on a saddle to the S.W. of the summit. Thence, passing the sombre little Lac du Brévent, to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) top (unpretending restaurant).

Or we may ascend the 'Chemin Maletier de Chamonix à Sixt' past the Restaurant des Chablettes, to ( 3 hrs. ) Planpraz ( $6772^{\prime}$; *Hôt. Planpraz, pens. 6-7 fr.); then mount rather steeply to the left, and lastly through the 'Cheminée to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) summit (guide 10 fr .). Iron bars are fixed in the chimney to assist climbers, and steps are cnt in the rock; some of the former have, however, been torn away, so that a guide is advisable for novices, especially in descending. - The Brévent may also be combined with the Flégère. The 'Route de Planpraz', a well-defined path, diverges to the right from the Flégère path, 20 min . below the Croix de la Flégère, and undulates along the hillside, in full view of the Mont Blanc chain, passing the Chalets de Charlanoz halfway, to the (2 hrs.) Hôt. Planpraz.

To the *Glacier des Bossons an interesting walk (3 hrs. there and back). We follow the Geneva road ( p .281 ) past the small Pension du Lac, cross the Arve by the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Pont de Perrolataz, diverge to the left at the hamlet of Les Bossons by a good path, and ascend to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pavillon on the left moraine (about 4430 ft . ; rfmts.). Fine view of the huge glacier, which has begun to advance of late, overshadowed by the Mont Blanc du Tacul (13,940'). On the left rise the Aiguilles $d u$ Midi $\left(12,609^{\prime}\right)$ and du Plan (12,050'). We descend to the grotto hewn in the glacier ( 85 yds . long, interesting; adm. and lights 1 fr .) and cross the glacier (guide, necessary, 2 , from Chamonix 6 fr .; woollen socks to prevent slipping 1 fr .) to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) top of the right lateral moraine (rfmt. hut). We now descend over debris and through wood viâ Les Tissours (see below) to (1 hr.) Pierre-Chamonix.

The interesting excursion to the *Plan de l'Aiguille (7227') takes 3 hrs. (guide, unnecessary, 9 fr. ; horse 9 fr.). Above ( 20 min .) Les Tissours (see below; finger-post) we ascend to the left through wood by a good bridle-path, affording fine views of the Chamonix valley and (farther up) of the Glacier des Bossons, the Aiguille and Dôme du Goûter, Mont Blanc, Aig. du Midi, and Glacier des Pèlerins. Beyond a refreshment-hut we ascend over pastures to the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Chalet du Plan de l'Aiguille (restaurant, with beds). From this point a footpath ascends over a stony tract, commanding a grand view of the whole Mont Blanc chain, with the Glaciers des Bossons, des Pèlerins, de Blaitière, and others, and of the Tarentaise Mts. beyond the Col de Voza. In 25 min . we reach a clear bluish-green lake at the foot of the huge moraine of the Glacier de Blaitière, dominated by the Aiguilles du Midi, du Plan, and de Blaitière.

Experts (guide 10 fr. ) may go from the Plan de l'Aiguille viâ the moraine and the crevassed end of the Glacier des Pèlerins to the ( 1 hr .) Pavillon de la Pierre-Pointue, or they may descend (guide 12 fr .) below the Glacier de Blaitière and the Glacier des Nantillons to the ( 3 hrs .) Montanvert (p. 28j).

The *Pavillon de Ia Pierre-Pointue (6723'; bridle-path, 3 hrs .; horse 8 fr .; guide, 8 fr ., unnecessary) is another favourite point. On the left bank of the Arve we pass the hamlets of Les Praz Conduits, Les Barats, and (by the upper path, to the left; 20 min.) Les Tissours; here we turn to the left, ascend through wood on the right bank of the brook to the ( 25 min .) Cascade du Dard (cantine), a fine double fall, and then cross the broad stony bed of the Nant des Pèlerins. (After 10 min . the path to the Glacier des Bossons diverges to the right; see above.) We ascend to the left in zigzags on the side of a wild valley, through which the Nant Blanc dashes over rocks, to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Chalet de la Para ( $52655^{\prime}$; rfmts.) and the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pavillon de la Pierre-Pointue (restaurant, déj. $31 / 2$ fr.), on the brink of the huge Glacier des Bossons, with its beautiful ice-fall. Opposite, apparently quite near, rise Mont Blanc, the Dôme du Goûter, the Aiguille du Goûter, etc. ; also a superb view to the N. and W.

An interesting point is the Aiguille de la Tour (7566'), which commands the best survey of the Glacier des Bossons ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., guide desirable; ascend to the left by the pavilion). - The Pierre à l'Echelle ( $7910^{\prime}$ ) is another fine point ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; guide advisable). The narrow path (route to Mont Blanc, see p. 289) leads by the pavilion to the right, round an angle of rock, and ascends to the brink of the Glacier des Bossons (where falling stones are sometimes dangerous). Admirable view of the riven ice-masses of the glacier; above them, the Aiguille du Goûter, the Dôme du Gouter, the Bosses du Dromadaire, and the highest peak of Mont Blanc; in the foreground are the Grands-Mulets (see p. 289), $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. distant (guide necessary). - The Aiguille du Midi ( $12,608^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended from the Pierre-Pointue viâ the Pierre à l'Echelle and the Col du Midi ( $11,660^{\prime}$; refuge-hut) in about $81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 60 fr .) ; difficult. The "View is very fine. The descent may be made viâ the Fallée Blanche and the Glacier du Géant to the Col du Géant (p. 290). - From the Pierre-Pointue to the Plan de $r$ Aiguille (sce p. 288) $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., fatiguing, guide necessary ( 10 fr .).

Mont Blanc $\left(15,782^{\prime}\right)$, the monarch of European mountains (Monte Rosa 15, $215^{\prime}$, Finsteraarhorn 14,025', Ortler 12,800'; the Pic de Néthou, the highest of the Pyrenees, $11,170^{\prime}$ ), which since 1860 has formed the boundary between France and Italy, is composed chiefly of granite, and is shrouded with a stupendous mantle of perpetual snow. It was ascended for the first time in 1786 by the guide Jacques Balmat, and by Dr. Paccard the same year. In 1787 the ascent was made by the naturalist H. B. de Saussure, with eighteen guides; in 1825 by Dr. E. Clarke and Captain Sherwill, and in 1827 by Mr. Auldjo. In summer the ascent is now made almost daily, but travellers are cautioned against attempting it in foggy or stormy weather, as fatal accidents have frequently occurred. The view from the summit is unsatisfactory in the ordinary sense. Owing to their great distance, all objects appear indistinct; even in the clearest weather we can only descry the outlines of the great chains, the Swiss Alps, the Jura, and the Apennines.

According to the regulations of the guides at Chamonix, one traveller ascending Mont Blanc requires two guides ( 100 fr . each) and one porter ( 50 fr .), each additional member of the party one guide more; but for experts one guide and one porter suffice. When the 'hotel bill' on the Grands-Mulets and other items are added, the minimum cost of the ascent usually comes to $220-250 \mathrm{fr}$. for one person. On the first day we ascend by the Pierre-Pointue (p. 288) and the Glacier des Bossons to the ( 6 hrs .) Grands - Mulets $\left(10,030^{\prime}\right)$. The Hotel $\left(9908^{\prime}\right)$, at the $\mathbf{W}$. base of the rocks, contains eight rooms (bed, L., \& A. 12, B. 3, D. 6, vin ordinaire $4 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ D. for guide $21 / 2$ fr., incl. wine, bed free; food and wine often poor). [Travellers crossing Mont Blanc from the Italian side should go on to the ( $\left(2^{1 / 2}\right.$ hrs.) Pierre-Pointue or to (2 hrs. more) Chamonix.] - On the second day we proceed by the Petit-Plateau to the ( 4 hrs .) Grand-Plateau ( $12,900^{\prime}$ ), and, bearing to the right (the usual route), ascend by the Col du Dome to the left of the Dome $d u$ Goater to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Refuge Vallot ( $14,312^{\prime}$; shelterhut, with beds), near the Vallot Observatory (both erected by Mr. Vallot of Paris), and thence by the Bosses du Dromadaire ( $11,950^{\prime}$ ) and the Tournette $\left(15,325^{\prime}\right)$ to the ( $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit (Calotte). Another route leads to the left from the Grand-Plateau by the Corridor, the Mur de la Cote, the Rochers Rouges (with the Cabane Janssen, 14,774'), and the Petits-Mulets ( $15,390^{\prime}$ ) in $3-4$ hrs. On the top of Mont Blanc is the Observatory of Dr. Janssen, built in 1893 , which rests entirely upon the snow, as borings failed to find the rock even at a depth of 40 ft . (adm. to the Vallot and Janssen Observatories, and the Cabane on the Rochers Rouges, only by permission of the proprietors).

From St. Gervats (p. 280) we ascend by a new bridle-path viâ the Pavillon de Bellevue (p. 280) and Mt. Lachat ( $6925^{\prime}$ ') to the Téte-Rousse ( $10,300^{\prime}$ ), beyond which we pass through a long couloir (step-cutting necessary; falling stones dangerous) to the ( $8-9 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Cabane ( $12,530^{\prime}$ ) on the Aiguille $d u$ Goater ( $12,610^{\prime}$ ); thence by the Dome $d u$ Goater to the ( 2 hrs .) Refuge Vallot (see above). - From Codrmarecr (p. 300) about 14 hrs.: from the Combal Lake (p. 300) across the Glacier de Miage to the ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Courmayeur) Cabane du Dome of the Italian Alpine Club (ca. $10,500^{\circ}$ ), at the foot of the Aiguille Grise; thence across the Glacier $d u$ Dome and the W. arête of the Dome $d u$ Goater to the ( $5-7 \mathrm{hrs}$; acc. to the season and number of crevasses) Refuge Vallot and the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) summit. - Another route leads from the Combal Lake across the Glacier de Miage and Glacier du Mont-Blanc to the ( $81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Courmayear) Rifugio Quintino Sella ( $10,194^{\prime}$ ), on the Rocher $d u$ Mont-Blanc, whence the top is attained in $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$; but in the middle of the day this route is exposed to stone avalanches and should be avoided as a descent. - The ascent by the Glaciers du Brouillard and du Fresnay as well as the direct ascent by the Glacier de la Brenva are very difficult and dangerous. - The Aiguille du Goùter (12,610'; 3 hrs ; guide from Chamonix 40 fr .) and the "Dome du Gouter ( $14,210^{\prime}$; $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 60 fr .) may be ascended from the Grands-Mulets without serious difficulty.

Bardeker, Switzerland. 18th Edition.

Tour du Mont Blanc, see R. 75.
From Chamonix to Courmayecr over the Col du Geant, $12-13 \mathrm{hrs}$., a trying glacier-pass, but highly interesting, and for adepts not difficult (guide 50, porter 30 fr .). After a night at the Hotel du Montanvert (p. 285) we traverse the upper part of the Mer de Glace and the Glacier du Tacul or du Géant, the jagged 'séracs' of which must be crossed with the necessary precaution. On the right we pass the Mont Blanc du Tacul (13,940'), and on the left the Aiguille or Dent du Geant ( $13,170^{\prime} ;$ p. 301), and in about 6 hrs . reach the Col du Geant ( $11,060^{\prime}$ ), between the Grand Flambeau ( $11,660^{\prime}$ ) on the right and the Aiguilles Marbrees $\left(11,615^{\prime}\right)$ on the left, with the Rifugio Torino (inn in summer) of the Ital. Alp. Club and a splendid view towards Italy. We then descend almost perpendicular rocks on the S. side to the ( 2 hrs .) Pavillon du Mont Fréty (p. 301) and ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Courmayeur. - Other Passes over the Mont Blanc Range from Chamonix to Courmayeur (all very difficult, and for trained adepts only): the Col de Triolet $\left(12,110^{\prime}\right)$, at the head (S.E. end) of the Glacier de Talefre, between the Aig. de Triolet and the Punta Isabella (guide 50 fr .); the Col de Talefre (11,730'), also at the head (E. end) of the Glacier de Talefre, but farther to the W., to the E. of the Aig. de Talefre (guide 50 fr .); the Col de Pierre-Joseph ( $11,410^{\prime}$ ), to the S.W. of the Aig. de Talèfie ( 60 fr. ); the Col des Hirondelles ( $11,370^{\prime}$ ), between the Petites and the Gr*andes Jor asses ( 60 fr .) ; and the Col de Miage (11,165'), to the S.W. of the Aig. de Bionnussay ( 60 fr.). Col Dolent, see p. 291; Col de Trélatête, see p. 298. - To Orsieres over the Col du Chardonnet and the Fenêtre de Saleinaz, or over the Col d'Argentière, see p. 291 ; Col du Tour, see p. 291.

From Chamonix to Sixt over the Col du Brevent and the Col drAnterne, see p. 2&3. Over the Buet, see p. 282.

73. From Chamonix to Martigny over the Tête-Noire, or to Vernayaz viâ Triquent and Salvan.

Comp. Maps, pp. 284, 272.

Two Roads and a Bridle Path connect the Chamonix Valley with the Valais. Road from Chamonix by Argentière and Valorcine to ( $41 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Châtelard, whence one road to the right leads by the Tête-Noire, Trient, and the Col de la Forclaz to ( $41 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Martigny, and the other to the left to Finhaut, Salvan, and ( 4 hrs .) Vernayaz. The bridle-path diverges at Argentière to the right from the road, crosses the Col de Balme, and rejoins the road at the Col de la Forclaz. Of these routes the road over the Tête-Noire to Martigny, which is practicable for four-seated carriages, is the most frequented, but is less interesting than that to Salvan and Vernayaz, which affords finer and more varied views. The path over the Col de Balme, on the other hand, commands a superb view of the Chamonix Valley and Mont Blanc, which are not seen to advantage from the other routes, and is recommended to travellers from Martigny approaching Mont Blanc for the first time (comp. p. 296).

a. From Chamonix to Martigny viâ the Tête-Noire.

$81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. Omnibes (with $3-4$ seats) from Chamonix to Martigny, or vice versâ, 16 fr . and fee of $3 / 4-1 \mathrm{fr}$. to the driver (office of the 'Messageries' at Chamonix near the Hôtel Impérial, at Martigny in the Rue des Hôtels). Carriages are cbanged at the Tête-Noire or at the Col de Forclaz. Carriage and pairgetween Chan onix and Martigny for $1-2$ pers. 50,3 pers.

50,4 pers. 60 fr . The drivers generally exchange passengers with those coming the other way either at the Tête Noire or the Col de Forclaz; and tourists who object to this should stipulate for the retention of the same carriage all the way to the railway-station of Martigny. - Walkers (guide superfluous) may send their luggage by diligence.

The road ascends the valley and crosses the Arve between Le Chable (ascent of the Flégère, see p. 286) and ( $11 / 2$ M.) Les Praz d'en-haut (*Chalet-Hôt. des Praz, pens. 5 fr.; *Hôt.-Pens. National, R. $11 / 2$, pens. $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{fr}$.). The village of Les Bois and the Glacier des Bois remain on the right. At ( $11 / 2$ M.) Les Tines (*A la Mer de Glace; Au Touriste) a path to the Chapeau diverges to the right (p. 286). The road ascends through a wooded defile to ( $3 / 4$ M.) Lavancher (3848'; Hôt.-Pens. Beau-Séjour, 10 min . above the road); to the Chapeau, see p. 286. About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. farther a bridge crosses the Arve to Le Joux, situated to the left, behind a hill. (Ascent of the Flégère, see p. 286.) We next pass the hamlets of Les Iles, Grassonay, and (1 M.) Les Chazalets, cross the Arve, and reach ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) 6 M. Argentière ( $4100^{\prime}$; *Couronne, R., L., \& A. $21 / 2$, B. $11 / 4$, D. $31 / 2$, pens. $5-7 \mathrm{fr}$. ; Bellevue, well spoken of), a considerable village, where the huge glacier of that name descends between the Aiguille Verte $\left(13,540^{\prime}\right)$ and the Aiguille du Chardonnet $\left(12,540^{\prime}\right)$.
*Glacier d'Argentière. Bridle-path (guide 5, mule 6 fr.) from Argentiére to the (2 hrs.) Pavillon de Lognan (6703'; Devouassoud's Inn); $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. higher we obtain a splendid survey of the grand 'séracs' of the glacier (where iceavalanches are frequent). In $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more (guide necessary, asually to be found at the inn) we reach the flat upper part of the glacier, almost free from crevasses (Mer de Glace d'Avgentière). The middle of it affords a striking view of the surrounding Aiguilles (du Chardonnet, d'Argentière, Tour Noir, Mt. Dolent, Les Courtes, Les Droites, Aig. Verte). We may then ascend the glacier to ( 3 hrs .) the Jardin d'Argentier'e ( 8805 '), a rocky 'islet' at the base of the Aiguille d'Argentiere, with fine flora in summer. Excursions from the Pavillon de Lognan. Aiguille du Chardonnet (12,540'; 7 hrs ; g guide from Chamonix 65 fr .) and Aiguille d'Argentière ( $12,819^{\prime}$; $8 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 65 fr. ), two difficult ascents. - To Orsieres over the Col du Chardonnet ( $10,909^{\prime}$; $11 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 50 fr .), difficult, but very interesting. We ascend the steep Glacier d'Argentière and the Glacier du Chardonnet to ( $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the col, between the Aiguille du Chardonnet and the Aiguille d'Argentière: then cross the Glacier de Saleinaz to the ( 2 hrs .) Cabane de Saleinaz (p.308), and descend to ( 4 hrs .) Or-sières (p. 308). - To Orsières over the Col d'Argentière ( $11,536^{\prime}$; $12 \mathrm{hrs}$. , guide 60 fr. ), very difficult. The pass, which commands a fine view, lies between the Tour Noir (12,585) and the Aiguilles Rouges du Dolent (12.110'). The dangerous descent leads across the Glacier de la Neura to the chalets of La Folly in the Val Ferret (p. 302). - To Courmayeur over the Col Dolent ( $11,625^{\prime} ; 14 \mathrm{hrs}$. with guide), between Mont Dolent (12.543') and the Aiguille de Triolet (12,715'), another difficult expedition. The descent leads by the Glacier du Pré de Bar to the chalets of that name in the Val Ferret (p. 301). - To the Montanvert over the Col des Grands-Montets ( $10,634^{\prime} ; 8$ hrs.; guide 30 fr .), laborious but very fine. The pass lies between the Petite Aiguille Verte $(11,457$ ') and the Aiguille des Grands-Montets (10,827'; easily ascended from the col in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), at the head of the steep Glacier des Rognons. - From the Pavillon de Lognan we may return to the chalets of Lognan and Pendant, and follow the Chapeau route to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Les Tines (see above).

From Argentiere to Orsiebes over the Col du Tour (10,762'), 12-13 hre. (guide 40 fr.), toilsome, but not really difficult for experts. We diverge to the left from the Col de Balme route at ( 35 min .) Le Tout (p. 296) and ascend over the moraine of the Glucier $d u$ Tour, and farther on over the glacier itself, to the col, between the Aiguille du Tour ( $11,615^{\prime}$ ) and the Tite Blanche ( $11,253^{\prime}$ ), both of which are casily climbed from the pass. We descend to the névé of the Glacier $d u$ Trient, where we either take to the right over the Fenétre de Saleinaz $\left(10,710^{\prime}\right)$ to the Glacier de Saleinaz and the Cabane of that name ( p .308 ); or we cross the Col d'Orny ( $10,230^{\prime}$ ) to the left to the Cabanes d'Orny (p. 308).

Beyond the village the Tête-Noire road ascends to the left in bold windings. Beyond ( 25 min .) Trélechamp ( $4593^{\prime}$; Hôt. des Montets) we look back at the Glacier du Tour and the magnificent Aiguille Verte. The ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Col des Montets ( $4740^{\prime}$ ) is the watershed between the Rhone and the Arve.

The road now turns to the W. side of the valley and gradually descends. 20 min . Hôtel du Buet ( 4386 '). About 2 min . farther on, at a cantine, is a finger-post which indicates the way to the left to the ( 25 min .) picturesque *Cascade à Bérard or à Poyaz, in a wild ravine, a digression to which adds $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the walk (adm. 50 c.). Through this ravine, the Vallée de Bêrard, runs the route to the Buet $\left(10,200^{\prime}\right)$, the top of which is visible in the background (see p. 282; guide from Chamonix 15 fr .).

Our road crosses the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Eau-Noire (to the waterfall from this point, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). We traverse a lonely valley bounded by lofty, pine-clad mountains. Before us rises the Bel-Oiseau ( $8655^{\prime}$ ). In 10 min . more we reach the first houses of the scattered village of Valorcine (pop. 640). At a ( 20 min .) Cantine, looking back, we obtain our last view of the summit of Mont Blanc. The valley contracts. The road descends to the Eau-Noire, which dashes over the rocks, and ( 5 min .) crosses it. The ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hôtel de Barberine (closed) stands at the confluence of the two branches of the EauNoire. The main branch (l.) forms a fall here, and a finer one (Cascade de Barberine) $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. higher up (to Emosson and the Barberine Hut, $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs} .$, toilsome, comp. p. 293). - We cross ( 5 min .) the Eau-Noire by a bridge ( $3684^{\prime}$ ), the boundary between France and Switzerland, pass the Hôt. Suisse au Châtelard, and reach ( 6 min.) the Hôtel Royal du Châtelard (burned in 1886), where the two routes to the Rhone Valley separate: to the right the road over the Tête-Noire to Martigny; to the left the road viâ Salvan to Vernayaz (see p. 293).

From Le Châtelard to Martigny ( $41 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.). The road passes through a cutting and crosses the ( 8 min .) Eau-Noire. The once dangerous Mapas (mauvais pas) descends to the left, while the new road leads high above the deep and sombre valley, being hewn through the rocks of the ( 40 min .) Tête-Noire or La Roche-Percée. We next reach ( 10 min . from the tunnel; 3 hrs. from Argentière) the Hôtel de la Tête-Noire ( $4003^{\prime}$ ). A wooden belvedere, which we pass 2 min . before the inn, overlooks the wild gorge of the Eau-Noire.

A steep path descends by the inn to the left to the ( 20 min .) Gouffre de la Téte-Noire, a ravine of the Trient, with a waterfall and a natural bridge ('Pont Mysterieux'). Tickets at the inn ( 1 fr., incl, guide). The steep ascent back to the hotel takes $25-30$ minutes. - A path leads direct from the ravine across the Eau-Noire to Finhaut (see below).

The road here turns to the right into the pine-forest of Trient, skirting the base of the Tête-Noire. In the valley, far below, is the brawling Trient, which joins the Eau-Noire a little farther down. In $1 / 2$ hr. we reach the village of $\operatorname{Trient}\left(4240^{\prime} ;{ }^{*} H \hat{o} t . d u M i d i ;\right.$ Hôt.Pens. du Glacier de Trient), a little beyond which the road is joined by the path from Chamonix over the Col de Balme (p. 295). At the end of the valley rises the Aiguille du Tour $\left(11,615^{\prime}\right)$, with the fine Glacier du Trient (p. 295).

From Trient the road ascends in steep curves to the ( 40 min .) Col de la Forclaz (4987'; see p. 295). View limited, but $1 / 2$ hr. lower down we enjoy a noble survey of the Rhone Valley as far as Sion. At our feet lies Martigny, reached in $2 \frac{1}{4}$ hrs. by the road (p. 295), or in $1 \frac{1}{2}$ hr. by the steep old path. - 6 M . Martigny, see p. 262.

b. From Chamonix to Vernayaz by Finhaut and Salvan.

From Chamonix to Vervayaz diligence 16 fr . Carr. for $1-2$ pers. 45 ; from Vernayaz to Chamonix and back by Salvan or the Tête-Noire in two days 50 fr ., in three days 65 fr . Light vehicle from Vernayaz to Salvan, 1 pers. 8, 2 pers. 10 fr.; to Finhaut 15 and 18 fr .

To Le Châtelard, see p. 292. The narrow road ascends to the left from the ruins of the Hôtel Royal, partly by zigzags, for 40 min .; it turns to the right at a cross, and leads at nearly the same level, commanding the valleys of the Eau-Noire and Trient, and then the Glacier du Trient and the Aiguille du Tour, to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; 1 hr . 25 min . from Le Châtelard) Finhaut or Fins-Hauts (4060'; *Grand-Hôt. Finshauts, pens. 6-7 fr.; *Hôt.-Pens. Beauséjour, 6-6 $1 / 2$ fr.; *Hôt.Pens. du Bel-Oiseau, 6-7 fr.; *Hôt. du Perron, from 41/2 fr.; Hôt.Pens. du Montblanc; *Pens. de la Croix Fédérale, plain), charmingly situated and much frequented. Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer.

A narrow path (the beginning of which should be asked for) leads hence direct to the ( 1 hr .) Tête-Noire Inn. It descends steeply to a wooden bridge over the Eau-Noire, crosses it, ascends to the right, and passes several houses, where, if needed, a boy may be found as a guide to the Hôtel de la Tête-Noire (p. 292). - From Finhaut a good path ascends to the W. to the ( 2 hrs .) *Col de la Gueula ( $6380^{\prime}$ ), to the S. of the Bel-Oiseau (see below), where we enjoy a splendid view, across the Barberine Valley, of Mont Blanc, the Glacier du Trient, etc., and of the Bernese Alps to the E. The view is still better from the rocky knob of Six Jeur ( $6746^{\prime}$ ), 20 min . to the S.E. of the col. We may descend into the Eau-Noire Valley to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the chalets of Emosson and cross the shoulder of the Perron ( $8890^{\prime}$ ) by a fatiguing path leading to the ( 3 hrs .) Barberine Inn (p. 292; closed). About $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. above Emosson, in a green valley surrounded by high mountains, lie the chalets of Barberine ( $6020^{\prime}$ ). A little farther up is the new Barberine Club Hut (6230'), the starting-place for the ascent of the Pic de Tanneverge ( $9784^{\prime}$; $44^{1 / 2}$ hrs., viâ the Col de Tanneverge), Mont Ruan ( $10,099^{\prime}$; $51 / 2$ hrs., viầ the Glacier des Fonds and the S.W. arête), and the Tour Sallières ( $10,588^{\prime} ; 7 \mathrm{hrs}$., viâ the S. arête; comp. p. 2'74). Over the Col de Tranneverge to Sixt, see p. 282; by the Col de Burberine to Emaney, see p. 274. The Bel-0iseau (8655'; from Finhaut 4 hrs., with guide), La Rebarmaz (8115'; ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide), and the Fontanabran ( 8849 '; 5 hrs., with guide), are interesting and not difficult.

Ascending a little, then level again, the road passes ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a Cantine (fine view all the way), descends through wood in windings, and leads on the slope of the hill to the ( 1 hr .) hamlet of Triquent (3260' ; *Hôt.-Pens. du Mont Rose, pens. 4-5 fr.; *Hôt.-Pens. de ia Dent-du-Midi, pens. $31 / 2-5 \mathrm{fr}$.). About $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther on are the *Gorges du Triege (restaurant at the bridge), with their picturesque waterfalls framed in rocks and dark pines (made accessible by wooden pathways; 1 fr .). The road crosses the stream, ascends gradually for 20 min., and then descends, between interesting marks of glacier striation, and past the *Hôt.-Pens. de la Creusaz (pens. from 4 fr.), to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$ ) Salvan ( $3035^{\prime}$; Grand-Hôt. de Salvan, R. $21 / 2$, B. 11/2, D. 3, pens. 6-7 fr. ; *Hôt.-Pens. des Gorges du Triège, pens. 5-6 fr.; *Hôt. Bellevue, unpretending, R. 1-2 fr., B. 80 c., D. $2^{1 / 2}$ fr.; Union, moderate; Hôt.-Pens. Mon Repos, 4-5 fr., well spoken of). In the village is a large erratic boulder; interesting prehistoric sculptures.

Excursions (guides, Louis-Gaspar and Fréd. Coquoz, Louis and PierreLouis Delez, Joseph and Jean-Louis Fournier, Em. Revaz). 'To the *Cascade du Dalley, a fine fall of the Salanfe, a good path leads in 40 min . by the hamlet of Les Granges (Hôt. des Gorges du Dalley), on the slope facing the Rhone Valley. The finest point of view is opposite the fall. Lower down the Salanfe forms the Pissevache Fall (p. 262). - A fine view of Mont Blanc, the Grand Combin, etc., is obtained from the Mayens de la Creuse ( $5790^{\prime} ; 21 / 2-3$ hrs.; guide 6 fr.), to which an attractive path (suited for riding) leads through wood. - A bridle-path leads viâ Les Granges and Van d'En Haut to the ( 3 hrs .) Salanfe Alp ( $6400^{\prime}$; Hôt.-Pens. de la Dent $d u$ Midi), an admirable point of view (ascent of the Dent du Midi, see below). - The Luisin ( $9140^{\prime} ;$; 6 hrs.; guide 10 fr .). From Salvan we proceed viâ the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) chalets of Emaney ( $6070^{\circ}$; accommodation) to the ( 2 hrs. ) Col or Chieu d'Emaney ( $7960^{\circ}$ ), and then ascend to the right by the arête to the ( 1 hr .) summit. Superb view of the Alps of Savoy, the Valais, and Bern. Descent in 2 hrs . to the Salanfe Alp. - Dent du Midi ( $10,696^{\prime}$; 8 hrs .; guide 20 , with descent to Champéry 25 fr .), a difficult but attractive expedition. From the ( 3 hrs .) Salanfe Alp (see above) we ascend to the Col de Susanfe, where our route is joined by that from Champéry (p. 274). Then by the S. arête to the Col des Paresseux ( $10.043^{\prime}$ ) and the ( 5 hrs .) W. and highest peak. The other peaks are more difficult (comp. p. 274). Tour Sallières ( $10,558^{\prime} ; 8-9 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 30 fr .), viâ Emaney (see above) and the S.E. side, difficult (better from the Barberine Hut, p. 293).

From Salvan a good road (cable-tramway projected), shaded by chestnut and walnut trees and crossing the brook about fifty times, descends the steep slopes in many windings to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; up $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$.) Vernayaz (rail. stat., p. 262).

Walkers have an agreeable alternative to the road by Salvan in the 'Nouveau Chemin', which leads on the right bank of the Trient from Vernayaz to the Tête-Noire ( 3 hrs ; gaide advisable for novices). The path, beginning below the Gorges du Trient (p. 262), ascends the cliffs to the left to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Gueur'oz ( 2200 ), and continues throngh beech-woods to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) La Taillat, whence a path diverges through the valley of the Trient to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Salvan, joining the Finhaut and Vernayaz road at the Maison de la Commune at Salvan. Thence the path mounts steeply to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the prettily situated La Crête ( $338{ }^{\prime}$ '; simple fare), and then runs level by Plan à Jeur ( $3670^{\prime}$ ) to ( 1 hr .) L'Itroz ( $3880^{\prime}$ ), lying high above the union of the Trient and Eau-Noire. We descend to the left into the valley of the Trient, cross the stream by a timber-bridge, and ascend to the road, reaching it a little above the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Tête-Noire Hotel (p. 292).

74. From Martigny to Chamonix. Col do Balme.

\text { Comp. Maps, pp. 272, } 28 \pm .

$101 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. From Martigny to the Col de Forclaz $31 / 2$, thence to the Col de Balme 3, to Chamonix 4 hrs more. Road from Martigny to Trient, and from Tour to Chamonix. Guide ( 12 fr .) unnecessary, if the following directions be observed. Luggage may be sent on by diligence (comp. p. 291). Horse or mule and attendant 24 fr . (to the Col de Forclaz 12 fr .), but from the Col de Balme to Tour the path is unfit for riding.

Martigny, see p. 262. We follow the Great St. Bernard road through the long village of Martigny-Bourg (p. 262) to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Drance Bridge ( $1630^{\prime}$ ), and ( 4 min .) the hamlet of La Croix. A notice on a house here indicates the steep old road to Chamonix, ascending to the right. Beyond ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the village of Le Brocard we ascend gradually to the right, through vineyards, orchards, meadows, and wood. The road is often crossed by the old one, and the two sometimes coincide. 20 min . Les Rappes; 25 min . La Fontaine; 35 min . Sergnieux (2810') ; $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. Le Fay. The road here ascends to the right in wide bends (short-cut by the old path). Looking back from the $(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.$) Chalet de Bellevue we enjoy a fine survey of the Rhone$ Valley. Then ( 20 min .) Les Chavans (tavern), and an ascent of 40 min . more to the Col de la Forclaz, or Col de Trient (498''; *Hôtel Gay-Descombes, R., L., \& A. 2, déj. 21/2, D. 3, pens. 4-5 fr. ; Restaurant Fougère, 2 min. farther on, plain), $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Martigny. To the right, about 150 yds . from the col, is a point commanding a good view of the Trient Valley.

From the pass a nearly level path, laid with rails for the transportation of ice, leads to the ( $1^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Glacier du Trient (lower end $5560^{\prime}$ ), the northernmost glacier of the Mont Blanc range (good view from a point about $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. up the left side). Over the Fenêtre d'Arpette ( $8790^{\prime}$ ) to Champex, $5^{1} / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide, see p. 305. - Another attractive ronte leads from Forclaz to the S.E. viâ La Giète and over the N.E. shoulder of the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Pointe de Bovine ( 7130 ), commanding a grand view of the Bernese Alps and Grand Combin, to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of Bovine. We then descend to the right in steep zigzags, past La Guraz (5310'), across the Durnant, and through wood to the Plan de l'Eau ( $3365^{\prime}$ ), and then across the Champex to ( 2 hrs .) Mariotty, on the way from Martigny to the ( 1 hr .) Lac de Champex ( p .307 ). - "Arpille ( $6830^{\prime}$ ), ascended in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Col de la Forclaz, see p. 262. Fine view also from the ( 2 hrs .) Croix de Prelayes $\left(7770^{\circ}\right)$, to the S . of the col; grander from the Pointe Ronde ( $8: 10$ '; 4 hrs.; guide).

After a descent of $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. the bridle-path to the Col de Balme diverges to the left from the Tête-Noire road (p.293), and in 10 min . crosses a bridge opposite the upper houses of Trient (p. 293). We ascend the meadows to the left (with the Glacier du Trient to the left, see above) and ( 20 min .) cross the Nant-Noir ('nant', from natare, being the Savoyard for torrent), which descends from the Mont des Herbagères. We follow the right bank for about 200 paces, and then mount to the left in steep zigzags through the Forest of Magnin, which has been thinned by avalanches. After 1 hr . the path becomes more level, passes ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Chanton de l'Arole ( $6233^{\prime}$ ) and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the chalets of Zerbaziere $\left(6820^{\prime}\right)$, and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) reaches the *Col de Balme (7221'; Hôtel Suisse, R. 3 fr., well spoken of), 6 hrs . from Martigny, the boundary between Switzerland and France. This point commands a superb view of the Mont Blanc range: the Aiguilles du Tour, d'Argentière, Verte, du Dru, des Charmoz, and du Midi, Mont Blanc itself, and the Dôme du Goûter; also of the Chamonix Valley as far as the Col de Voza. On the right are the snowclad Buet, the Aiguilles Rouges, and the Brévent. In the opposite direction, over the Forclaz, we survey the Valais and the mountains which separate it from the Bernese Oberland.

A still finer *View is obtained from La Balme ( $7590^{\circ}$ ), the second height to the right, with a wooden cross, about $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N.E. of the inn, at the foot of the Croix de Fer or Aiguille de Balme (7645'), the last spur of the hills which rise abruptly above the Col de Balme. From this point Mont Blanc looks still grander; to the N.E. we see the entire chain of the Bernese Alps; to the E., at our feet, lies the Tête-Noire ravine, with the Dent du Midi rising beyond it. The descent may be made direct from this point to the Tour path. The ascent of the Aiguille itself is fit for experts only ( 1 hr ., with guide).

From the Col de Balme to the Tete-Noire ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; no guide needed in fine weather), fatiguing, but interesting to the traveller who desires to visit both these points in one day either from the Rhone Valley or from Chamonix. The views are less striking in the reverse direction. To the W . of the col, behind the above-mentioned height with the cross, a narrow path leads nearly to the ( 10 min .) brink of the Tête-Noire Valley, and then becomes indistinct. We turn to the right (N.) and follow a slight depression for a few minutes until a number of heaps of stone become visible, to the right of which the path reappears. The chalets of Catogne ( $6560^{\prime}$ ) are left to the right as we descend. The path next crosses the stream, and descends abruptly along the right bank to a lower plateau, then bends to the N.E., and reaches ( 40 min .) the chalets of Grangettes. By the northernmost chalet, beyond the stream, are two boulders, conspicuous by their light colour, between which the path descends to the N., steep and stony at places, but easily traced, to the scattered chalets of Les Jeurs and ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Tête-Noire (p. 292).

The path, now rough and steep, descends over pastures carpeted with rhododendrons and other Alpine flowers (often marshy in wet weather). On the right flows the Arve (p. 284), which rises on the Col de Balme. We cross several small brooks, pass to the right of ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the chalets of Charmillon ( $5965^{\prime}$ ), and reach ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Le Tour ( $4690^{\prime}$ ), where the carriage-road begins. To the left is the fine Glacier $d u$ Tour. (Over the Col $d u$ Tour to Orsières, see p.291.) Carr. and pair from Tour to Chamonix for $1-3$ pers. 15 fr .; those who intend to drive should take a carriage here if possible. The fragments of slate brought down by the Arve are carefully collected by the peasants, who cover their fields with them in spring, thus causing the snow under them to melt several weeks earlier than it otherwise would. Beyond Le Tour ( $1 / 4$ M.) we cross the Buisme, which drains the Glacier du Tour, and (1 M.) the Arve, and soon reach ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Argentière (p. 291).

75. From Chamonix to Courmayeur over the Col du Bonhomme and the Col de la Seigne.

Comp. Maps, pp. 284, 308.

Bridle Path. Three days: 1st, by the Pavillon de Bellevue to Contamines 6 hrs . (or to Nant-Borrant, $73 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$ ); 2nd, to Mottets from NantBorrant, $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. by the Col des Fours, or $61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. by Chapieux; 3rd, to Courmayeur $61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. - Or, omitting the Pav. de Bellevue, we may drive from Chamonix to St. Gervais (one-horse carr. 18, two-horse 25 fr .), in which case Mottets is easily reached on the first day and Courmayeur on the second. - Guide (not needed by good walkers in fine weather, but advisable over the Col des Fours) from Chamonix to Conrmayeur in two days 20 , in three days 24 fr .; return-fee 16 fr . extra.

The Tour of Mont Blanc, as this route is called, is easy and interesting. To complete our circuit of Mont Blanc, we may return to Martigny over the Great St. Bernard or over the Col Ferret. Good walkers go from Aosta to Châtillon, and cross the Théodule Pass to Zermatt. (In the opposite direction, from Zermatt, the route is less interesting.) Note that the Italian and French custom-house officers sometimes ask for passports.

We follow the Geneva road (p. 281) from Chamonix to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the hamlet of La Griaz, turn to the left by an iron cross, and cross the deep bed of the Nant de la Griaz to (3/4 M.) Les Houches (Hôt. du Glacier, poor), with a picturesquely situated church. Beyond the church and the brook (guide-post) a tolerable path (hardly to be mistaken) diverges to the left, enters the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) wooded ravine to the right, and ascends in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the Pavillon de Bellevue ( $5843^{\prime}$ ), a rustic inn on a saddle of Mont Lachat (see below), affording a superb *View (best by evening-light) of the Chamonix Valley as far as the Col de Balme, the Mont Blanc range (summit hidden by the Dôme du Goûter), and the Arve Valley.

Another path (easier at first, but disagreeable after rain) diverges by a cross 18 min . beyond Les Honches, and ascends in $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$. to the Col de Voza ( 5495 '; inn closed; poor fare at the chalet), a depression between Mfont Lachat (6926') and the Prarion (p. 280), 20 min . to the W. of the Pavillon de Bellevue, with a fine view, but inferior to that from the Bellevue. Descent on the right bank of the Torrent de Bionnassay by Bionnassay to Bionnay ( $3190^{\prime}$ ), on the road from St. Gervais to Contamines.

From the Pavillon de Bellevue the path descends to the $S$. over pastures (the Aiguille de Bionnassay, 13,340', rising on the left) and crosses the stream issuing from the Glacier de Bionnassay. The burst of the Glacier de Tête-Rousse which destroyed St. Gervais-lesBains in 1892 (p. 280) descended by this valley. Beyond the Chalets de la Pierre, on the other side of the stream, our route, now a tolerable bridle-path, descends on the left side of the valley to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Champel and turns to the left by the fountain. We descend rapidly, enjoying a fine view of the wooded and well-cultivated Montjoie Valley, bounded on the W. by the slopes of Mont Joly (p. 293), with the Mont Roselette (7845') in the background, while to the E., above the green lower hills, peep several of the W. snowpeaks of the Mont Blanc group (Aig. de Tricot, de Trélatête, etc.). Beyond ( 18 min. ) La Villette the path joins ( 6 min .) the road from St. Gervais (p. 280), which we follow to the left, crossing the Torrent de Miage just before the hamlet of Tresse. (To the right, on the slope of Mont Joly, stands the church of St. Nicolas de Véroce.) The road then ascends high on the right bank of the Bon-Nant to La Chapelle, Champellet, and (1 hr.) - Les Contamines sur St. Gervais (3927'; Union, Hôt. du Bonhomme, both very fair, R., L., \& A. from 2, B. 1, D. $21 / 2$ fr.), a large village with a handsome church.

Instead of descending through the valley of the Bionnassay, we may ascend to the right at the end of the Glacier de Bionnassay (p. 297) to the Chalets de Tricot and the ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Pav. de Bellevue) Col de Tricot ( $700{ }^{\prime}$ '; small inn), between the Pointe de Tricot and Mrt. Vorassay. We then descend to the chalets of Miage, which afford a fine view to the S. of the Glacier de Miage, the Dôme de Miage ( $12,100^{\prime}$ ), the Col de Miage ( p .290 ), and the Aig. de Bionnassay ( $13,340^{\prime}$ ). Hence we follow the left bank of the Miage to $T$ resse, on the road to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Contamines (see above; guide from Chamonix 15 fr.).

The =Mont Joly ( $8290^{\prime}$ ) is ascended from St. Nicolas (see above) without difficulty in 4 hrs . (guide 6 fr .; auberge $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the top). Splendid view of Mont Blanc. - The Pavillon de Trelatête (see below) is more easily reached from Contamines than from Nant-Borrant (path ascending to the left, 20 min . above Contamines). From Contamines by the Pavillon de Trélatête to Nant-Borrant, 4 hrs., interesting.

Beyond Contamines the road descends to the Bon-Nant, and overlooks the valley as far as the peaks of the Bonhomme. The valley contracts. At ( 1 hr .) the bridge which crosses to the pilgrimage-chapel of Notre Dame de la Gorge the road ends. The bridle-path now ascends to the left, passing a bridge (which is not to be crossed) and frequent traces of glacier-friction. Then through wood, past two waterfalls, and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) across the deep gorge of the Bon-Nant; 10 min . Chalets of Nant-Borrant (4780'; Inn, R. \& A. 3-4, D. 3 fr.). We cross the wooden bridge beyond them, and traverse the pastures on the left bank by a stony path. On the left the séracs of the large Glacier de Trélatête are visible; looking back, we survey the valley as far as the Aiguilles de Varens (p. 279).

From Nant-Borrant ( 7 hrs .) : or better from Contamines (see above; $81 / 2$ hrs.), we may reach Mottets or the Col de la Seigne by the Col du Mont Tondu ( $9500^{\prime}$ ); trying, bat without danger (guide 30 fr.). From NantBorrant we ascend to the left (fine waterfalls) to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pavillon de Trelatête ( $6463^{\prime}$; inn, well spoken of), which overlooks the Trêlatête Glacier, and skirt the stony slopes on the E. side of the glacier, finally crossing it to the pass, between Mont Tondu ( $10,485^{\prime}$ ) on the right and the Pointe de la Lanchette ( $10,130^{\prime}$ ) on the left (beautiful view, especially from a height on the left). We may either descend to the right across the Glacier de la Lanchette to Mottets (p.299), or to the left over shelving rocks and across the Glacier. des Glacier's to the Col de la Seigne (p. 299). - Over the Col de Trélatete ( $11,424^{\prime}$ ), to the W. of the Aiguille de Trelatête, to the Glacier de l'All'se Blanche and Combal Lake (p. 300), very difficult (2 guides, 60 fr . each).

We next reach ( 50 min .) the Chalet à la Balme ( $5627^{\prime}$ ), a plain inn, situated at the head of the Montjoie Valley.

In doubtful weather, or late in the evening, a guide should be taken from this point to the top of the pass ( 3 fr .); but, as guides are not always to be had here, it is safer to engage one at Contamines (to the Col du Bonhomme 6-8, Col des Fours 6-8, Chapieux 8-10, Mottets 10-12 fr., the higher fees being charged when the guide cannot return the same day). If the guide be taken to the Col du Bonhomme only, his attendance should be required as far as the highest point (Croix du Bonhomme, see below). Mule from Nant-Borrant to the Croix 8 fr .

The path, indicated by stakes, ascends wild, stony slopes, passing a waterfall on the left, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Plan Jovet ( 6437 '), with a few chalets. (To Mottets over the Col d'Enclave, see below.) On the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Plan des Dames ( $6745^{\prime}$ ) rises a conical heap of stones, where a lady is said to have perished in a snow-storm. At the end of the valley ( 20 min .) the path ascends the slope to the right, and ( 25 min .) reaches the shelter-hut on the Col du Bonhomme ( $7680^{\prime}$ ), whence we look down into the desolate valley of the Gitte. Two curions rocks, the Tête du Bonhomme and the slightly lower Femme $d u$ Bonhomme, here tower aloft, like two ruined castles. Beyond these we follow the rocky slope to the left (path indicated by stakes), passing an excellent spring (good resting-place), and next reach ( 40 min .) the Col de la Croix du Bonhomme (8147'), with a stone shelter-hut and a fine view of the mountains of the Tarentaise, in the centre of which rises the beautiful snow-peak of Mont Pourri $\left(12,428^{\prime}\right)$. Here the path divides. In a straight direction the path descends, partly over debris, to (13/4 hr.) - Les Chapieux or Chapiu (4950'; *Soleil; Hôt. des Voyageurs, unpretending), in the Val des Glaciers, $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. below. Mottets.

From Chapieux to Pré St. Didier over the Little St. Bernard (11 hrs.; preferable to the Col de la Seigne in doubtful weather). The new road to ( $91 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Bourg-St-Mfaurice (diligence in summer daily at 4 p.m. in $2 \mathrm{hrs},. 1 \mathrm{fr} .50 \mathrm{c}$. ) descends the narrow valley of the Torrent des Glaciers, between the precipices of the Clavetta ( $8610^{\prime}$ ) to the left, and the Terrasse ( $9480^{\prime}$ ) to the right, past Le Crey and ( $5^{1 / 2} \mathrm{MI}$.) Bonneival-les-Bains. From Bourg-St-Maurice to Pré St. Didier, see pp. 303, 302.

The direct route to Mottets ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) ascends from the Croix du Bonhomme to the left, rarely free from snow (gaide advisable for novices) to the ( 35 min. ) Col des Fours $\left(8890^{\prime}\right.$ ), to the right of which is the Pointe des Fours ( $8920^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{~min}$.), a ${ }^{\circ}$ splendid point of view. Then a steep descent over slate-detritus and pastures to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a group of chalets $\left(65^{\prime} 73^{\prime}\right)$ and the ( 20 min .) Chalets des Glaciers, where the path from Chapieux comes up from the right. We descend to the left, cross the bridge (5840') over the Torrent des Glaciers, and ascend the left bank to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the houses of -

Les Mottets (6227'; Veuve Fort's Inn, R., L., \& A. $41 / 2-5$, B. 2, lunch $31 / 2$, D. 4 fr.; mule to the Col de la Seigne, 6 fr .), at the head of the Val des Glaciers. To the N.E. rises the Aiguille des Glaciers $\left(12,580^{\prime}\right)$, with the Glacier des Glaciers.

Over the Col du Mont Tondu to Contamines, see p. 298. Another route to Mottets ( 4 hrs. from Nant-Borrant; shorter, but trying) is from the Plan Jovet (see above), past the small Lac Jovet ( $7140^{\prime}$ ), and over the Col d'Enclave ( $8813^{\prime}$ ), between Mt. Tondu and the Tête d'Enclave.

A bridle-path ascends hence in zigzags to the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Col de la Seigne ( $8240^{\prime}$; shelter-hut), where a cross marks the frontier of Italy. *View of the Allée Blanche, a long Alpine valley, bounded on the left by the tremendous precipices of Mont Blanc.

To the left of the pass rise the Aig. des Glaciers ( $12,550^{\prime}$ ) and Aig. de Trélatête $\left(12,830^{\prime}\right)$; then the imposing snowy dome of Mont Blanc, borne by the huge rocky buttresses of the Mont Brouillard ( 13,298 '), the Aig. du Châtelet, and the bold Aiguilles Blanche and Noire de Pétéret ( $13,432^{\prime}$ and $12,402^{\prime}$ ); the former ascended for the first time in 1885 by Mr. Seymour King. Farther to the right, in the distance, rise the Mt. Velan, Grand Combin, etc. The view, to the W., of the Tarentaise Mts. is also fine, but cannot compete with the imposing scene just described.

Beyond the pass we descend over snow and debris, keeping to the left, then across pastures, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) upper Chalets de l'Allée Blanche ( 7235 '; occupied for a few weeks in summer only), and the ( 25 min. ) lower chalets ( $7135^{\prime}$ ), at the end of a level stretch. We round the hill to the right, cross the brook, with a splendid view of the imposing Glacier de l'Allée Blanche, and descend to a second level reach of the valley, at the end of which $(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) lies the green Lac de Combal (6365), bounded on the N. by the huge moraine of the Glacier de Miage. Near a sluice at the lower end of the lake ( 10 min. ) we cross the Doire, which issues from the lake, and descend the side of the moraine through a wild, rock-strewn ravine. After 40 min . the Doire is again crossed. The valley, now called Val Veni, expands. The Cantine de la Visaille (5423'), $\overline{5}$ min. farther on, commands a splendid survey of the valley, with the Jorasses and the Dent du Géant towering on the left.

The path descends through wood and pastures, passing ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Chalets de Purtud (4945'; cantine, on the left bank). On the left is the fine Glacier de la Brenva, which once filled the whole valley, but has receded greatly within the last few decades. Beyond the ( 20 min.) Chalet de Notre Dame de Berrier ( $45^{\prime} 75^{\prime}$ ), a little below the exit from the wood, we survey the whole Brenva Glacier; on the left are the Aiguilles de Pétéret with the snowy summit of Mont Blanc towering above them; on the right, the pavilion on the Mont Fréty (p.301) and the tooth-shaped Dent du Géant (p. 301). By the chapel of Notre Dame de Guérison or de Berrier $\left(4710^{\prime}\right), 5 \mathrm{~min}$. farther on, the path rounds an angle of rock, overlooking the village of Entrèves to the left, at the mouth of the Val Ferret, and then descends to the Doire, which unites here with the Doire du Val Ferret and takes the name of Dora Baltea. Opposite the little sulphur-baths of La Saxe ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) we cross the Dora, pass the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hôtel du Montblanc, and in 10 min . more reach - Courmayeur. - Hôtel Roval, Angelo, in both R., L., \& A. 4-6, B. $11 / 2$, déj. $31 / 2$, D. $5 \mathrm{fr} . ;{ }^{}$ Union, R., L., \& A. 3, B. $11 / 2$, D. with wine $41 / 2$, pens. S-10 fr.; ${ }^{2}$ Mont Blanc, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the N. of the village, P. \& A. $2 \frac{2}{2}, \mathrm{D}$. incl. wine 4 fr . - Restaurant Savoye (also rooms); Cafe du Mfontblanc. - Diligence to Aosta, see p. 302; one-horse carriage to Aosta 15, two-horse 25 fr. (returnvehicles cheaper). There is a society of guides here with regulations similar tı those at Chamonix (see p. 283). L. and Julien Proment, J. Petigax, J. Gadin, Al. and G. A. Berthod, L. Berthollier, F., J., and L. Croux, P. and L. Revel, Al. Fenoillet, and Ces. Ollier are recommended. Arrangements should be discussed, not only with the Guide-Chef, but with the guides themselves.

Courmayeur ( $4015^{\prime} ; 600$ inhab.), an important village, with mineral springs, finely situated at the head of the Aosta Valley, is much frequented by Italians in summer. Though higher than Chamonix (by $600^{\prime}$ ), the climate is warmer and the vegetation far richer. Mont Blanc is concealed from Courmayeur by the Mont Chétif, but is seen from the Pré St. Didier road, $1 / 2$ M. to the $S$.

Excursions. From the hamlet of Dolonne, opposite Courmayeur, at the base of Mont Chétif, we obtain an excellent survey of the enormous precipices of the Jorasses and the glacier of that name. Pleasant walk thither, crossing the Dora Bridge ( 10 min. ); then through the village, down to the Dora by a shady path at its N. end, and back by the left bank ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). - A bridle-path (guide unnecessary) leads from Dolonne to the W. to the ( 2 hrs .) Col de Chécouri ( $6430^{\prime}$ ), on the S.W. side of Mont Chetif ( $7685^{\circ}$; ascended in 1 hr . without serious difficulty), commanding a fine view of Mont Blanc. We may descend to the ( $21 / 2$ hrs.) Lac de Combal and return by the Val Veni; see p. 300.

The *Mont de la Saxe (7735'; $2^{1 / 2}$-3 hrs.; guide, 6 fr., unnecessary) affords a complete view of the S.E. side of Mont Blanc with its numerous glaciers, the Col du Geant and the Jorasses being close to us. A good bridle-path ascends from Courmayeur, by La Saxe (p. 300) and Le Villair, to the (2 hrs.) Chalets du Pré ( $6480^{\prime}$ ) and the ( 1 hr .) nearer peak. The descent may be made by the Chalets $d u$ Leuchi into the Val Ferret.

The *Crammont ( $8980^{\prime}$ ), commanding a grand view of Mont Blanc, is best ascended from Pré St. Didier (see p. 302).

Ascent of Mont Blanc (guide 100 fr .), see p. 289. Guide for ascent of Mont Blanc, descent to the Grandes-Mulets or Pierre-Pointue, and return viâ Montanvert and the Col du Géant 130 fr . (porter 70 fr .). - The Grandes Jorasses ( 13,797 ), $13-14 \mathrm{hrs}$., with 2 guides ( 70 fr . each), are difficult, and dangerous after fresh snow. We ascend on the right bank of the Doire, passing Entreves, in the Ferret valley, and the chalets of Mayen (4944), and then proceed through wood and over grassy slopes, snow. and rocks (extremely steep and difficult at last), to the ( $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Cabane des Grandes Jorasses of the I. A. C. ( $9200^{\prime}$ ), whence we reach the summit by the Glacier de Planpansière and the Rocher du Reposoir in 5-6 hrs.

To Chamonix over the Col do Geant (comp. p. 290), 11-12 hrs. (guide 40 , porter 25 , in two days 50 and 30 fr .; two guides, or a guide and a porter required). Interesting excursion (bridle-path, $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) to the Pavillon du Mont Frety ( $7130^{\prime}$; small inn; fine view); thence to the Col du Geant, Ital. Colle del Gigante ( 11,060 '), with the new Rifugio Torino (inn in summer), a steep ascent of $3^{1 / 2}$ hrs. (guide to the Pavillon, 6 fr ., unnecessary; to the pass and back 15, in two days 20 fr.). The ascent of the Aiguille or Dent du Géant ( $13,170^{\prime}$ ), from the Col du Géant in $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$., is very difficult (first ascended by the brothers Sella in 1882). Descent from the col to the Montanvert $4-5$ hrs. (comp. p. 290).

From Courmayeve to Orsières over the Col Ferret ( $11-12 \mathrm{hrs}$.); cart-road to Gruetta, thence bridle-path (guide to the Chalets de Ferret advisable, 15 fr.). From Courmayeur we follow the road viâ La Saxe (p. 300) to the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. .) village of Entreves and ascend the narrow Val Ferret, on the right bank of the Doire, past the chalets of La Palus, Le Pont, and Prà Sec. By the ( 1 hr .) chalets of La Vachey ( $5364^{\prime}$ ) we cross to the left bank of the stream. Farther up we pass the poor huts of Ferache ( 5795 '), Gruetta (5782), and Sagivan or Saljoan ( $6370^{\prime}$ ); to the left are the moraines of the Glacier de Triolet, and high up on the rocks of the Monts Rouges is the Cabane de Triolet of the I. A.C. ( $8478^{\prime} ; 6 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Courmayeur), the starting-point for the difficalt Aig. de Triolet (12,727'; 7-8 hrs.; gaide 50 fr.$)$, the Mt. Dolent ( 12,540 '; 6 hrs. ), the Col de Triolet, Col de Talefre, Col de Pierre-Joseph, Col de Leschaux, etc. (see p. 290). The last chalets are those of ( $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) Pré de Bar' ( $6756^{\prime} ;$ rfmts.), at the base of the glacier of that name ( p .291 ), which descends from Mont Dolent ( $12,540^{\circ}$ ). The bridlepath ascends to the right in numerous windings to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Col Ferret, or Col de la Peulaz (8333'), the frontier of Switzerland and Italy, with a superb view of the Val Ferret and the S. side of the Mont Blanc group with its huge glaciers, of the Jorasses, the Aiguille du Geant, and the Allée Blanche as far as the Col de la Seigne. [Another pass, called the Col du Petit Ferret or Pas de Grapillon (8166'), farther to the N., close to the foot of the precipices of Mont Dolent, is shorter, but more fatiguing and devoid of view.] We descend to the ( 1 hr .) Chalets de la Peulaz ( $6840^{\prime}$ ), below which we cross the Drance and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) reach the Col de Fenêtre route. (From this point to the St. Bernard Hospice $4-4^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.; comp. p. 312.) The path then descends to the left to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Chalets de Fervet ( $556{ }^{\circ}{ }^{\prime}$ '; small inn, clean and moderate), whence a cart-road leads through the N. (Swiss) Val Ferret or Ferrex to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ) La Folly ( $5240^{\prime}$ ), with the Glacier de la Neuva above it, on the left (p. 291). Then ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) La Seiloz ( $4920^{\prime}$ ), ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Praz de Fort ( 3660 '; hence to the Cabane de Saleinaz 5-51/2 hrs., see p. 308), Ville d'Issevt. Som la Proz, and ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Orsières (p. 308). Good walkers starting from Courmayeur at 3 or 4 a . m. may catch the afternoon-diligence for Martigny at Orsieres.

76. From Courmayeur to Aosta and Ivrea.

64 M. From Courmayeur to ( 23 M.) Aosta an OMnibus plies thrice a day in July \& Ang. in 4 hrs . (in the reverse direction 5 hrs .; fare 5 fr , banquette $51 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; each large piece of luggage 1 fr .); one-horse carr. 18, two-horse 30 fr . - From Aosta to ( 42 M.) Ivrea, Railway in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (fares $7 \mathrm{fr} .60,5 \mathrm{fr} .30,3 \mathrm{fr} .40 \mathrm{c}$.). The railway is a triumph of engineering; the scenery very picturesque.

Courmayeur, p. 300. - The road to Aosta ( 23 M. ; second half not interesting enough to walk) winds down to the Doire and follows its left bank through a wooded ravine. Passing ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Palesieux, we cross the Doire to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Pré St. Didier ( $3250^{\prime}$; *Hôt. de l'Univers et de la Rose; Couronne), a picturesquely situated village with baths, where the road to the Little St. Bernard diverges to the right. Near the hot springs ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. lower) the Thuile forces its way between perpendicular rocks towards the Dora valley.

Excursions. (Guides: Jos. Barmaz, and others.) The ascent of the Tėte de Crammont ( $8980^{\prime} ; 31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) is highly interesting (riding practicable to within $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the top). Following the St. Bernard road to the first tunnel ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ; shorter footpath in 20 min .), we thence ascend to the right in numerous zigzags to the ( 2 hrs .) hamlet of Chanton ( $5970^{\prime}$ ), whence we reach the top in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more. Splendid view of Mont Blanc and the Graian Alps. About 5 min. below the top is the Cabane De Saussure, a re-fuge-hut of the I. A. C. Another route (easier) diverges to the right from the St. Bernard road at Elevaz, 3 M. from Pré St. Didier, joining the above route at Chanton. Experts may dispense with a guide.

To Bourg-St-Macrice over the Little St. Bernard, 9 hrs., a route preferred by some to the Col de la Seigne (p. 299). Diligence from Courmayeur to the Hospice daily in sammer in $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., from the Hospice to Bourg-St-Maurice every afternoon in 3 hrs . The fine new road ascends the valley of the Thuile viâ Balme to ( 2 hrs .) La Thuile ( $4726^{\prime}$; two small inns), where we have a view of the great glacier of the Rutor (11,435'), which may be ascended hence. [Interesting excursion viâ La Joux and past the beautiful *Rutor Waterfalls to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Rifugio di Santa Margherita (about 7940') on the Lago del Rutor; from the height 5 min . to the S.W. ( $8085{ }^{\prime}$ ) splendid "View of the whole chain of Mont Blanc, the Testa del Rutor with its neighbours, etc.] Thence the road ascends, passing ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pont Serrand ( $5415^{\prime}$ ) and the Cantine des Eaux-Rousses ( $0,40^{\prime}$ ), to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) pass of the Little St. Bernard (7176'). The boundary between France and Italy is on the S. side, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. beyond the summit, and near a Hospice (70s0') affording fair quarters (simple fare free, better dishes at a fixed tarifl). [The Mt. Valaisan $\left(9453^{\prime}\right), 31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the S.E., the Belvédere ( 8665 '), $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the E., and the Lancebranlette ( $9605^{\prime}$ ), 3 hrs. to the W., all afford admirable views.] We now descend gradually, overiooking the beautiful upper valley of the Isere (La Tarentaise) and the Savoy Mts. the whole way, to St. Germain, Séez, and ( 12 M .) Bourg-St-Maurice ( 2805 ; *Hôt. Mayet, R. \& A. $31 / 2$, D. 3 fr.), a small town on the Isère, whence a diligence runs twice daily in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to (16 M.) Moatiers-en-Tarentaise; see Baedeker's South-Eastern France. From Bourg-St-Maurice to Chapieux, see p. 299.

Below Pré St. Didier we again cross the Doire, looking back to get a grand view of Mont Blanc, visible as far as Avise. We follow the lofty slope for some way, and then descend through vineyards into a broad and rich valley. To the S . appears the beautifnl pyramid of the Grivola $(13,018)$. On a hill to the left of ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Morgex (3017'; Chêne Vert; Ange) is the picturesque ruined château of Châtelar ( $3840^{\prime}$ ); farther on is La Salle, with the ruins of a castle. On the right bank is the pretty Cascade de Derby, in several leaps. The valley contracts. The road crosses to the right bank by the ( $4^{1} / 2$ M.) Pont d'Equilive ( $25^{\prime} 70^{\prime}$ ), and leads through a wild defile (Pierre Taillée) to Ruinaz (250'; Croix, poor). Opposite lies Avise, with a ruin and an old church. Mont Blanc is now lost to view. The road traverses anotherrocky gorge, where the pyramidal Mt. Emilius comes in sight. Near the beautifully situated, but dirty village of ( $21 / 2$ M.) Liverogne ( $2395^{\prime}$; Hôt. du Col du Mont) we cross the deep gorge of the Dora di Valgrisanche, and see the first chestnut trees. Behind us is the snowy Rutor $\left(11,435^{\prime}\right)$; to the left, the church of St. Nicolas (3922'), on an abrupt rock. Beyond ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Arvier (2545'; Croce Bianca) we descend rapidly and cross the Savaranche; to the right, on the hill, are the château and church of Introd. Then ( 3 M .) Villeneuve ( $2132^{\prime}$; Cervo), beautifully situated, and commanded by the ruin of Argent on a lofty rock.

Excursions from Liverogne and Villeneuve, see Baedeker's N. Italy.
We ascend a little on the left bank of the Doire, passing a massive old tower. Beautiful view, behind us, of the three-peaked Rator, the Grivola with the Trajo Glacier, etc. Opposite St. Pierre ( $2168^{\prime}$ ), with its church and old castle on a rocky hill, opens the Val de Cogne on the S.; on the right bank lies Aymaville, with deserted iron-foundries and a châtean with four towers. The road passes the handsome royal château of Sarre (2154'), and traverses a broad shadeless valley to ( 6 M .) -

23 M . Aosta. - "Hôt. de Montblane, to the W. of the town, R., L., & A. $3-31 / 2$, B. $1^{11 / 2}$, D. 5 fr.; *Hôtel Royal Victoria, at the station, R. from 2, L. & A. $13 / 4$, B. $11 / 2$, déj. 3, D. 5, pens. $9-12$ fr. (both closed in winter). - Hôt. Padl lanier, in the Hôt. de Ville in the chief piazza, good cuisine; Corona, opposite the last, Hût.-Pens. L. & A.); to St. Rhémy, see p. 307.

Aosta (1913'; pop. '7376), the Augusta Praetoria Salassorum of the Romans, and now the capital of the Italian province of Aosta, is beautifully situated at the confluence of the Buthier and the Doire or Dora Baltea. Its antiquities testify to the importance of the place during the Roman period.

Near the railway-station, on the S. side of the town, stands a bronze *Statue of Victor Emmanuel II., 'roi chasseur', by Tortone, on a lofty rock pedestal. The ancient Town Walls, which are flanked with strong towers, enclosing a rectangle, 790 yds. long by 650 yds . broad, still exist in their entire circuit. On the S.W. side the flat coping and the cornice are still intact.

From the market-place, where the chief streets intersect, we see to the N.E., above the houses, the walls of the old Theatre and the arcades of the Amphitheatre.

The principal street, running to the E., passes through the ancient *Porta Pretoria to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) *Triumphal Arch of Augustus, with its ten Corinthian pilasters, then crosses the Buthier, which has left its ancient channel, to the massy arch of a Roman Bridge, half sunk in the gronnd.

In the suburb is the church of St. Ours, the crypt of which is borne by Roman columns; in the choir are the tombstone of Bishop Gallus (d. 546 ) and finely-carved stalls. The cloisters of the abbey have interesting early-Romanesque columns (12th cent.). Adjoining the church is a 12 th cent. Tower, built of Roman hewn stones. Opposite are portions of two antique columns in front of a chapel. - The Priory of St. Ours, in the same place, is a picturesque building of the 15th cent., with terracotta decoration, and an octagonal tower. Good wood-carvings and frescoes in the interior.

The Cathedral (14th cent.) has a gaudily-painted relief above its main portal, and in the interior two mosaics of the 10 th cent., and early Renaissance carved stalls. The treasury contains two reliquaries of the 13 th and 15 th cent., a cameo of a Roman empress in a setting of the 13 th cent., and a diptych of Probus (consul in 406) and the Emperor Honorius.

By the S. gate is the tower known as Bramafam (12th cent.) in which a count of Challant is said to have starved his wife to death ; and on the W. wall is the Tour du Lépreux (described in one of Navier de Maistre's tales), which witnessed the sufferings of a leper named Guasco (d. 1803) and his sister Angelica (d. 1791). In front of the Bramafam are the recently excavated remains of the Porta Principalis Dextra. - Cretinism is sadly prevalent in Aosta.

Exccrsions. The ${ }^{* B e c c a}$ di Nona (Pic Carrel, 10,305 '; $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide, 12 fr.; provisions necessary; tolerable nightquarters at the Comboé Alp, see below) is an admirable point of view. The bridle-path, dusty at first, crosses the Doire and mounts to the village of Charvensod (2445'; guides Grégoire and Gratien-Jos. Comé), traverses a wood, and goes on past the hermitage of St. Grat ( 5 S 15 ') and the chalets of Chamolé to the ( $41 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Col de Plan Fenétre ( $7300^{\prime}$ ). [The Signal Sismonda ( $7700^{\prime}$ '), to the S., 20 min . above the Col Plan Fenêtre, affiords an excellent view of the Rutor and the Pennine Alps.] From the col we reach in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. the $A l p$ Comboé ( $6960^{\prime}$ ), in a basin at the foot of the Becca di Nona, and in $21 / 2$ hrs. more the top. A few yards below it is the Rifugio Budden of the I. A. C. Saperb *View (panorama by Carrelj, embracing the whole of the Mont Blanc and Monte Rosa chains, and the Graian Alps to the S. - In descending we may, for variety, leave Comboe to the left, and go straight through the valley of the Comboé. Below the basin of Comboe there is a fine waterfall, at the foot of which we cross the brook and then descend to the left to Charvensod.

Mont Emilius ( $11,675^{\prime}$; for experts; guide 30 fr .) may be ascended from Comboé in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. We follow the Col d'Arbole roate (a pass to Cogne) as far as the ( 1 hr .) Chalets d'Arbole ( $8200^{\prime}$ ); then turn to the left, passing a small glacier-lake. View more extensive than from the Becca.

Mont Fallère ( $10,045^{\prime} ; 7 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide, needless, 10 fr .) is easily ascended from Aosta by a new bridle-path, viâ Ville-sur-Sarre. Splendid view of the Pennine and Graian chains. On the arête, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. below the top, is a small refuge-hut of the I. A. C.

From Aosta to Zermatt (p. 344), interesting but fatiguing, through the Val Pellina, and over the Col de Valpelline ( $11,680^{\circ}$ ), in two days. To the chalets of Praraye (p. 335) 9 hrs ; thence a difficult ascent over the Glacier de $Z a-d e-Z a n$ to the pass, to the S . of the Tête Blanche ( $12,300^{\prime}$ ), and down the Stock and Zmutt glaciers to ( $10-12$ hrs.) Zermatt (comp. p. 335 ). - From Bionaz (p. 335), 3 hrs. above Valpelline and 5 hrs . from Aosta, the Becea di Luseney ( $11,500^{\prime}$ ), a grand point of view, may be ascended in 7 hrs . (difficult, for experts only). - Several passes lead from the Val Pellina to the Val St. Barthelemy (see below): from Bionaz over the Col de Vessona (about 8860 '), easy and attractive; over the Col de Montagnaia ( $93833^{\prime}$ ), easy; from Prarayé over the Col de Livournea ( $9355^{\prime}$ ), laborious.

From Aosta to Evolena over the Col de Collon, see p. 535 ; over the Col de Fenêtre to the Val de Bagnes, see p. 316; over the Great St. Bernard to Martigny, see R. 77.

From Aosta to Cogne (Graian Alps), see Baedeker's Northern Italy.
Leaving Aosta, the Railway crosses the Buthier and the Bagnère, and nears the Dora, with its numerous islands. As we look back, we enjoy a splendid view of the valley of Aosta, surrounded by lofty mountains : to the S. rise the Becca di Nona and Mt. Emilius, to the N. the Grand Combin and Mt. Vélan, and to the W. the Rutor (p. 302). Near the station of ( 5 M .) Quart-Villefranche ( $1^{\prime} 755^{\prime}$ ) is the château of Quart ( $2486^{\prime}$ ), on a hill to the left. The train crosses the Dora, and beyond (7 M.) St. Marcel it returns to the left bank. On the slope above St. Marcel is the pilgrim-resort of Plou. Near (8M.) Nus (1755'; Croce d'Oro), with its ruined castle, the Val St. Barthélemy (see above) opens on the N. The line once more crosses and recrosses the Dora. To the right appears the picturesque château of Fénis, at the mouth of the Clavalité Valley, above which towers the snowy pyramid of the Tersiva $\left(11,525^{\prime}\right)$. We now intersect, near Diemoz, a large deposit of debris and traverse a tunnel to ( $121 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Chambave (1623'), noted for its wine, where we obtain for the last time a retrospect as far as the Rutor.

The valley contracts. The train runs between river and cliff, through two tunnels, a deep cutting, and a deposit of debris, and crosses the Matmoire or Marmore, descending from the Val Tournanche.
$151 / 2$ M. Châtillon (1805'; pop. 2900; *Hôt. de Londres, R., L., \& A. $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. ; *Hôt.-Pens. Suisse, both in the village, near the bridge; Caffé-Ristorante Alpino, beyond the bridge; Hôt. des Alpes, at the station), with a castle of the ancient counts of Challant, is beautifully situated, 1 M. above the station ( $1480^{\prime}$ ), at the mouth of the Val T'ournanche. The deep wooded gorge of the Matmoire, picturesquely studded with houses, is spanned in the centre of the village by an imposing one-arched bridge. - To Valtournanche and over the Théodule Pass to Zermatt, see R. 87.

From Châtillon the train follows the left bank of the Dora. On a steep hill to the right is the old château of Ussel, once owned by the Challants. Beyond two short tunnels is ( $16 \frac{1}{2}$ M.) St. Vincent $\left(1415^{\prime}\right)$, the station for the baths of that name (1885'; *Lion d'Or; Corona), situated 1 M . to the left, at the foot of Mt. Zerbion (892 ${ }^{\prime}$ ). We next enter the *Montjovet Defile, the most striking part of the journey. A series of tunnels and cuttings, with massive retaining walls and buttresses, carry us through the narrow rocky gorge, while far below rushes the foaming Dora in cascades. High above the exit of the pass, on the left, is the ruin of Montjovet or St. Germain. We cross the Dora by an imposing viaduct, and pass through a tunnel. Beyond ( 20 M .) Montjovet the valley again expands. Extensive vineyards appear; on the right rise lofty cliffs. Then, on the slope, the village of Champ de Praz, at the mouth of the Val Chalame, whose torrent has bestrewn the valley of the Dora with debris. The train crosses the Dora and the Evancon and reaches - $231 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Verrés (1207'). The village (1130 inhab.; Italia; Ecu de France), with a dilapidated château of the former counts of Challant, is picturesquely situated at the mouth of the Val Challant (p. 360). Issogne, on the opposite bank of the Dora, has another old château of the same family. To the N.E. appears the rocky pyramid of the Becca di Vlou (9947').
$25^{1} / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Arnaz ( $1170^{\prime}$ ), with a ruined castle. The line traverses an extensive alluvial deposit and crosses the Dora. 28 M . Hône-Bard, in a superb situation. To the right, the Val Champorcher, with its picturesque rocky peaks; to the N.W., the Becca di Luseney (p. 305). On a steep rock on the left bank of the Dora rises Fort Bard (1250'), captured in 1242 after a long siege by Count Amadeus IV. of Savoy, and gallantly defended in 1800, before the battle of Marengo, by 400 Austrians against the French army. Beyond this point Italian only is spoken.

The train crosses the river and passes under the fortress by a tunnel of 650 yds . Then through a narrow rocky ravine to ( 30 M .) Donnaz ( $1056^{\prime}$; Rosa) and over the wild Lys torrent in a broad valley surrounded by imposing mountains to ( 31 M .) Pont St. Martin. The village (1030'; Rosa Rossa; Cavallo Bianco) occupies a most picturesque site, at the mouth of the narrow Lys Valley, with a ruined castle, foundries, and an ancient Roman bridge across the Lys. (Road to Gressoney-la-Trinité, 201/2 M. ; see p. 360.)

The railway again crosses and recrosses the Dora, which here forms a large island. On the slope to the left is the village of Carema, amidst vineyards and fruit-gardens. On the right bank is ( 33 M .) Quincinetto, on the left bank is the ruin of Cesnola. 35 M. Tavagnasco (918'). Opposite, at the foot of the Colma di Mombarone (7773'), is the larger village of Settimo Vittone. The lower terraces of the hills enclosing the picturesque and highly cultivated valley are covered with vines; higher up are woods of walnut and chestnut trees, above which rise bare rocky peaks. We cross the Dora again at Montestrutto, pass (on the left) Torrazza, and reach ( $371 / 2$ M.) Borgofranco ( $840^{\prime}$ ), an ancient town of 1930 inhab., prettily situated $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the station.

The mountains recede. 39 M . Montalto-Dora, with a pinnacled ruin on a rocky hill. The train enters a tunnel, $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. long, under the hill of Irrea, crosses the Dora, and stops at ( 42 M .) Ivrea ( $775^{5}$; pop. 10,090; Scudo di Francia; Universo; Corona d’Italia), a town picturesquely situated on the left bank of the Dora, with an ancient castle, several lofty round towers, and numerous churches. ## 77. From Martigny to Aosta. Great St. Bernard.

47 M . ( 18 hrs .). From Martigny to the Hospice 12, thence to Aosta 6 hrs . (from Aosta to the Hospice 8, thence to Martigny 10 hrs .); new road to the hospice ( 30 Mr .), thence to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) St. Rhémy bridle-path; road again to Aosta ( $121 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.). Diligence daily from Martigny (station) to ( $131 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Orsieres in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (back, in the afternoon, in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; 2 fr .70 c .). Carriage to Orsières 15, with two horses 20, Bourg-St-Pierre 25 or 40, Great St. Bernard 50 or 60 fr. Travellers with luggage, who wish to cross the St. Bernard without stopping at the Hospice, should hire pack-animals for St. Rhémy at Bourg-St-Pierre. One-horse carr. from St. Rhémy to Aosta, 1 pers. 10, 2 pers. 12, 3 pers. 15 fr. (from Aosta to St. Rhémy, 1-2 pers., 15 fr.). Omnibus from Aosta to St . Rhémy daily in 4 hrs . ( 5 fr .), returning in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.

The Great St. Bernard Route, though less attractive than most of the other Alpine passes, presents some very fine scenery, and is a direct and convenient approach to Italy (Aosta, Courmayeur) from the Rhone Valley. A visit to the Hospice is interesting. Those who do not intend going farther may return by the Col de Fenêtre ( p .312 ) and the Val Ferret.

From Martigny (p. 262) viâ Martigny-Bourg to the ( $1 \frac{1}{2}$ M.) bridge over the Drance, see p. 295 . - Beyond the bridge lies the hamlet of La Croix (p. 295). The St. Bernard road leads through the deep ravine of the Drance, by Le Brocard (where the route to Chamonix diverges to the right; comp. p. 295) and Le Borgeau, to ( $31 / 2$ M.) Les Valettes (1978'; restaurant).
*Gorges of the Durnant (from Martigny and back 4 hrs , one-horse carr. 7. two-horse 10 fr. .). A road leads from Les Valettes to the right to the ( 1 M. ) entrance of a rocky gorge, throngh which the Durnant is precipitated in 14 falls (made accessible by a wooden gallery $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long; adm. 1 fr . ; inn by the entrance). From the upper end of the gorge the path ascends to the bridle-path to Champex (see below). - Fine view from the hill of Lombard (2888', see below), ascended to the left from the lower end of the gorge in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., by a shady path.

From Les Valettes to Orsières vî̀ Champex, 4 hrs ., an attractive route. From Les Valettes the bridle-path ascends to the right (or we may go through the Gorges of Durnant), and ascends gradually through pastures and wood, viâ Lombard (see above), Crettet, Les Grangettes, and Mariotty (p. 295) to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the village of Champex ( 4485 '; restaurant). Thence across the pass ( $4890^{\prime}$ ) to the $\left(1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}\right.$.) pretty Lac de Champex ( $4820^{\prime}$; ${ }^{* H 8 t}$.Pens. du Lac, jens. $\overline{0}-7$ fr., Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer; Hôt.-Pens. du Glacier; Pens. D. Crettez; Pens. E. Crettez; Pens. Biselx), a frequented summer-resort, with a fine view of the Combin group, whence we descend either the road to the left by Biollay to ( 1 hr .) Orsieres, or to the right by a direct path to (1 hr.) Som la Proz. - Excursions from Lac Champex (guides, F. Biselx, Joseph Capt, Alfred Joris of Orsieres): to the Grand Plan (6560'; 2 hrs ); La Breyaz (7800'; 3 hrs .); Catogne ( $8527^{\prime} ; 4 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 8 fr .) ; Clocher d'Arpette ( $92 \mathrm{l}^{1}$; 21/2 hrs.; 6 fr.) ; Six Carro ( $9278^{\prime} ; 3$ hrs.; 8 fr .). More difficult are the Pointe des Ecandies ( $9440^{\prime}$ '; $5 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; 15 fr .) and the Pointe de Zennepi ( $9168^{\prime} ; 31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; 10 fr .). A bridle-path ascends through the monotonous Val d'Arpette to the ( 4 hrs .) Fenêtre d'Arpette $\left(8790^{\prime}\right)$, to the N. of the Pointe des Ecandies, affording a survey of the beautiful Glacier. du Trient (p. 29j), whence we may descend to the Col de la Forclaz (p. 29j̄; 2 hrs.). A more difficult route leads over the Col des Ecandies ( $9183^{\prime}$ ), to the S. of the Pointe des Ecandies (to Trient 6 hrs .; guide 10 fr .). - From Lac Champex to the Cabanes d'Orny (see below) the shortest route is by the Col de la Breyaz ( $7900^{\prime}$; $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 5 fr ; not difficult).

Beyond ( $3 / 4$ M.) Bovernier ( $2037^{\prime}$ ) the Drance traverses a wooded gorge, where its course is impeded by huge masses of rock, especially near the ( $21 / 4$ M.) Galerie de la Monnaie (2362'), a tunnel 70 yds. long. In 1818 a great fall of rock was caused here by the bursting of a lake in the Val de Bagnes (p. 314). At (11/2 M.) - $91 / 2$ M. Sembrancher (2360'; Croix) the Drance d'Entremont (see below) unites with the Drance de Bagnes (p.313). On a hill stands a ruined castle. To the S.W. rises the abrupt Catogne (8527').

From Martigny to Sembrancher, over the Mont Chemin, 4 hrs., interesting. especially in the reverse direction (fine views of the Rhone Valley). From Martigny-Bourg the road ascends to the left, through wood, by Chemin d'en Bas to Chemin ( $3786^{\prime}$; to the Hôt. de la Pierre à Voir, see p. 263), whence a bridle -path leads to the right past iron-mines to Vence (3701'), and descends in windings to Sembrancher.

The Pierre- $\dot{a}$-Voir ( $8123^{\prime}$; guide 7 fr.) may be ascended from Sembrancher in $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. (comp. p. 263 ).

The road enters the Val d'Entremont to the S., crosses the Drance twice, and leads by the left bank viâ La Donay to - $131 / 2$ M. Orsières ( $2920^{\prime}$; Hôt. des Alpes, primitive), at the mouth of the Ferret Valley (p. 302), with a curious old tower.

From Orsières to Courmayeur over the Col Ferret, see p. 302. - Passes to Chamonix (Cols du Tour, du Chardonnet, d'Argentiere, etc.), see p. 291. The Cabanes d'Orny ( $8819^{\prime}$ ) may be reached from Orsieres through the uninteresting Combe d'Orny in 5 hrs . (guide 5-6 fr.). Excursions hence (guides, see above): to the Pointe d Orny ( $10,742^{\prime} ; 2 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 6 fr . ; not difficult); Portalet ( $10,975^{\prime}$; viâ the Col des Plines in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; 12 fr .); *Aiguille du Tour (11,615'), by the Glacier and Col dorny and Glacier du Trient in $4 \mathrm{hrs} .$, not difficult for adepts and highly interesting (guide 12 fr ); Grande Fourche ( $11,84 \mathrm{~s}^{\prime} ; 6 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; 20 fr .). Fine view from the Fenêtre de Saleinaz ( $10,710^{\prime}$ ), between the Petite Fourche $\left(11,506^{\prime}\right)$ and the Aiguilles Dores; 3 hrs .; not difficult; guide 6 fr ., with descent across the Saleinaz Glacier to the Cabane de Saleinaz, 10 fr . - Over the Col du Tour to Argentière ( $5 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 15 \mathrm{fr}$. ), see p. 291.

The Cabane de Saleinaz ( $8830^{\prime}$ ), 6 hrs from Orsières (guide $7-8 \mathrm{fr}$.), is another excellent starting-point for mountain-tours. To reach it we follow the Ferret route to ( 1 hr .) Praz de Fort ( p .302 ) and here diverge to the right, along the left bank of the Saleinaz. We then cross to the right bank, traverse the moraine of the Saleinaz Glacier, and ascend a steep path to the left. which ascends round the rocky towers of the Clochers de Planereuse (9220) to the ( 5 hrs .) well-equipped Club Hut. Ascents: Pointe de Planereuse ( $10,345^{\prime} ; 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 7 fr ) ; Pointe des Plines ( $10,025^{\prime}$; 2 hrs.; 8 fr .): Girande Luis (11,497'; $31 / 2^{-4} \mathrm{hrs}: 15 \mathrm{fr}$. ); Grand Darrei ( $11,533^{\prime}$;

$4-5 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 15 \mathrm{fr}$.$) ; Grande Fourche ( 11,844^{\prime} ; 4^{1 / 2}$ hrs. $; 18 \mathrm{fr}$. ); Aig. d' Argentière ( $12,819^{\prime} ; 7$ hrs.; $3 \overline{\mathrm{Jr} .)}$ ) Aig. du Chardonnet ( $12,540^{\prime} ; 8-9$ hrs.; $40-50 \mathrm{fr}$. ). To the Cabanes d Orry over the Col des Plines ( $10,640^{\prime}, 4 \mathrm{hrs}$; 8 fr .) or the Fenêtre de Saleinaz ( $10,710^{\prime} ; 7 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 10 \mathrm{fr}$.), see p. 308. To Argentière viâ the Fenetre de Saleinaz and the Col du Tour ( 7 hrs.; 18 fr.), see p. 291; over the Col $d u$ Chardonnet ( 7 hrs.; 18 fr.), see p.291. Over the Col de Planereuse ( $9954^{\prime}$ ) to the Val Ferret (to Orsieres $61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; 13 fr .), not difficult for the experienced.
${ }^{*}$ Mont Brülé ( $8450^{\prime}$; $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 6 fr .), from Orsières, easy and attractive. The view embraces the Bernese and Valaisian Alps, with the Lake of Geneva and the Jnra in the background; in the foreground the Dent du Midi, the Orny and Trient chain, Grand Combin, etc. The ascent is also made from Liddes (see below; 4 hrs .) or Chable (p. 313; 5 hrs .). To Chable over the Col de Sexblanc ( 7 hrs.), interesting, p. 313.

The road crosses the Drance, seldom visible in its deep bed, and ascends in a long bend (which the rough and unpleasant old bridle-path cuts off). Entering the apper part of the valley, we obtain an admirable view of Mont Vélan (p.310), which with its snow and ice fills the background. The slopes of the broad valley are covered with pastures and corn-fields. Between FontaineDessous (3800') and Rive Haute (4010') the road describes a long curve which walkers cut off. It passes the chapel of St. Laurent, and reaches ( 2 hrs .) -

22 M. Bourg-St-Pierre, or St. Pierre-Mont-Joux (5358'; *Au Déjeuner de Napoléon), a large village at the mouth of the Valsorey, with a church of the 11 th century. (On the wall by the tower is a Roman milestone.) Traces of Roman fortifications are seen on the S. side of the village. On a hill to the left of the road is the 'Linnaea' Alpine garden, laid out by the Geneva 'Société pour la Protection des Plantes' (adm. 50 c ; ; key at the 'Déjeuner de Napoléon'; keeper, the guide Jules Balleys).

Excursions. (Guides, Daniel, Jules, Auguste, and Omer Balleys, and Michel Genoud.) The Tête de Bois ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide $6 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ mules also), to the E., commands the Mont Blanc and Combin group, and the Val d'Entrcmont below. - Le Mourin ( 9085 '; 4 hrs.; 8 fr.), to the S.W., is another good point of view.

A good path leads through the interesting Valsorey, on the right bank of the Valsorey, to the ( 2 hrs .) Chalets $d^{\prime}$ Amont $\left(7190^{\prime}\right)$, in a grand situation. The background is formed by the Glacier $d u$ Valsorey, with that of Sonadon, descending from the Grand Combin, to its left, and that of Tzeudet to its right. Beautiful view of the dazzling snows of Mont Vélan and the jagged rocks of the Luisettes. - The night is passed at these chalets by travellers about to cross the Col du Sonadon $\left(11,445^{\prime}\right)$ to the Val de Bagnes (p. 315; to Chanrion, $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 30 fr .), or the Col de Valsorey or des Chamois ( 10,213 ') to the Val Ollomont (p. 316 ; to Aosta 9 hrs ; guide 30 fr .).

The Grand Combin ( 14,164 ) may be ascended from Bourg-St-Pierre by the Col des Maisons-Blanches ( 11,240 ) in 10-11 hrs. (grand, but difficult; for experts only ; guide 60 fr.). We follow the Valsorey route to a point above the Chalets $d$ Aval (left bank), whence we ascend to the left in windings to the ill-equipped shelter-hut on the slope of the Grande Penna (9020'). Hence we have a fatiguing scramble over the crumbling rocks on the N. side of the small glacier to reach the ( 2 hrs .) col (p. 315). From the last we may proceed by the W. arête and the Combin de Valsorey ( $13,600^{\prime}$ ) to the ( $4^{1} / 2-51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit (Aig. dut Croissant, 14,173'), or we may pass round the N.W. side of the Grand Combin to the N. base, where we strike the route ascending from the Panossiere Hut viâ the Corridor and the Graffeneire ( $14,103^{\prime}$ ). - The best starting-point for the Grand Combin is the Cabane Panossière ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Fionney, see p. 314), which is reached from Bourg-St-Pierre direct in 8-9 hrs, hy the Col de Pannosseyre (ca. 11,150) and the Glacier de Corbassière (guide 25 fr .).

Beyond St. Pierre the road crosses the deep gorge of the Valsorey, which forms a fine waterfall above the bridge. It was here that Napoleon, during his famous passage of the Alps with 30,000 men, 15th-21st May, 1800, met with the greatest difficulties. The road, hewn in the rock, and avoiding the steep parts of the old route, traverses the forest of St. Pierre and the Déflé de Charreire. 3 M. Cantine de Proz (5982'), a lonely inn, at the beginning of the Plan de Proz. To the E. rises the snow-clad Mont Vélan, from which descends the Glacier de Proz, with its extensive moraines.

For ${ }^{*}$ Mont Vélan ( $12,353^{\prime}$; $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$.; difficult; for experts only; guide 30 fr .) the starting-point is either the Cantine de Proz ( 6 hrs . to the top, crossing the Glacier de Proz, very steep at places), or the Chalets d'Amont (see above; ascent rather longer, but easier). Above the chalets we ascend a 'cheminée' to the E. moraine of the Glacier $d u$ Valsorey, cross the glacier to the E. rocky slope of $M t$. de la Gouille, and mount (an interesting climb) to the upper part of the glacier; cross it to its E. angle, and ascend over snow-slopes (with large crevasses) to the (6-7 hrs.) snowy dome of the summit. Magnificent view: N., to the Lake of Geneva; S., to the Val d'Aosta. Close to us, W., towers Mont Blanc; N.E., the Grand Combin.

The road ascends the boulder-strewn pastures of the Plan de Proz, past the dilapidated Cantine d'en Haut on the right, traverses the Pas de Marengo, a rocky defile, and passes (2 M.) Hospitalet ( $6890^{\prime}$ ), two stone chalets and an Alpine dairy in a broader part of the valley, beyond the stream, to the right. It next (1 M.) erosses the Drance by the Pont Nudrit ( $7336^{\prime}$ ), recrosses it farther on by the Pont Tronchet ( $745^{\prime} 7^{\prime}$ ), and ascends in long windings (short-cuts by the old route) on the W. side of the dreary Combe des Morts to the ( 2 M .) -

30 M . Hospice of St. Bernard ( $8110^{\prime}$ ), on the pass, consisting of two buildings. One contains the church, the dwellings of the brethren, and the rooms for travellers; the other (Hôtel de St. Louis) is a refuge in case of fire, containing the storehouse and lodging for poor wayfarers (new hospice in construction). On arriving, strangers are welcomed by one of the brethren, who conducts them to a room and presides over the meals (at 12 and 6 or 7; Frid. is a 'jour maigre'). Travellers are boarded and lodged gratuitously, but none should deposit in the alms-box ('offrandes pour l'hospice', in the church, first pillar on the left) less than they would have paid at a hotel. Adjacent is a small Restaurant.

In 962 St. Bernard de Menthon founded the monastery here. The inmates now consist of 10-15 Augustine monks and 7 attendants (maroniers), whose office it is to receive and lodge strangers gratuitously, and to render assistance to travellers in danger during the snowy season, which here lasts nearly nine months. In this work of benevolence they are aided by the famous St. Bernard dogs, whose kennels are worth visiting. Their keen sense of smell enables them to track and discover travellers buried in the snow, numbers of whom have been rescued by these noble and sagacious animals. The stock is said to have come originally from the Spanish Pyrences, but the genuine old breed is extinct.

The brotherhood consists of about 40 members. Some of the monks minister in the Hospice on the Simplon (p.322); others perform ecclesiastical functions. The sick and aged have an asylum at Martigny. Next to the fourth Cantoniera Santa Maria on the Stelvio Pass (p. 441), the St. Bernard Hospice is the highest winter habitation in the Alps. Humboldt in his 'Kosmos' mentions that the mean temperature at the Hospice of St. Bernard ( $45^{\circ} \mathrm{N}$. latitude) is $30^{\circ}$ Fahr. (in winter $15^{\circ}$, spring $25^{\circ}$, summer $48^{\circ}$, autumn $32^{n}$ ), and that such a low temperature would only be found on the sealevel at a latitude of $75^{\circ}$ (the S. Cape of Spitzbergen).

The monastery was very wealthy in the middle ages. The beneficence of its object was widely recognised by extensive grants, chiefly by the emperors of Germany, and gifts from various parts of Christendom; bnt it was afterwards impoverished by various vicissitudes. The 30-40,000 fr. required for its annual support are in part derived from the revenues of the monastery, and in part from collections made in Switzerland: the gifts of travellers, it must be said with regret, form a very insignificant portion. Of late years $20-25.000$ travellers have been annually entertained, while the sum they have contributed barely amounts to what would be a moderate hotel-charge for 1000 guests. Expenses are increasing. Provisions are generally brought from Aosta, and in July, August, and September about twenty horses are employed daily in the transport of fuel from the Val Ferret (p. 312), 4 hrs. distant.

The traveller will hardly quit the hospice without a feeling of veneration and compassion for this devoted fraternity. They generally begin their career at the age of 18 or 19 . After about fifteen years' service the severity of the climate has undermined their constitutions, and they are compelled to descend with broken health to the milder climate of Martigny or other dependency. Amid the pleasure and novelty of the scene, the traveller is too apt to forget the dreariness of the eight or nine months of winter, when all the wayfarers are poor, when the cold is intense, the snow of great depth, and the dangers from storms frequent and imminent. It is then that the privations of these heroic men are most severe, and their services to their fellow-creatures most invaluable.

During the Italian campaigns of 1798,1799 , and 1800 the pass was crossed by several hundred thousand soldiers, French and Austrian. In 1799 the Austrians endeavoured to pass the hospice, but after several fierce engagements the French remained masters of the pass, and kept a garrison of 180 men in the hospice for a whole year. Napoleon's famous passage has already been mentioned (p.310). The Romans used this route in B.C. 100. After the foundation of Augusta Praetoria Salassorum (Aosta, B.C. 26) it became more frequented. Constantine caused the road to be improved in 339. The Lombards made the passage about 547; Bernard, an uncle of Charlemagne, marched an army by this route into Italy in 773, and, according to some, gave his name to the pass.

The present substantial edifice dates from the middle of the 16 th cent., the church from 1680. The walls of the dining-room are hung with engravings and pictures, the gifts of grateful travellers. In the library on the upper floor is a collection of ancient and modern coins, relics found in the environs (fragments of votive brass tablets offered to Jupiter Pœninus, see p. 312, after escape from danger, statuettes, etc.), and a small natural history collection. The visitors' books contain many well-known names. In the church, to the left of the entrance, is the monument of General Desaix, who fell at the battle of Marengo in 1800 (relief by Moitte).

Near the hospice is the Morgue, a receptacle for bodies found in the snow. The small lake, to the W. of the monastery, is sometimes frozen over even on summer-mornings. On the hillside to the right is a small botanic garden with Alpine plants. - To the E. of the hospice we observe the snow-capped Mont Vélan $\left(12,353^{\prime}\right)$, adjoined on the left by the Combin de Corbassière (12,212').

The *Chenalette ( $9479^{\prime} ; 11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; steep at places ; guide necessary), to the N. of the Hospice; the Pointe des Lacerandes (Pic de Dronaz; 9676'; $2^{1 / 2} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide ; trying), to the N.W.; and the Mont Mort ( $9403^{\prime}$ ), $2^{11 / 2}$ hrs. to the S.E., all command magnificent views of Mont Blanc to the W., the Graian Alps to the S., and the Mont Vélan and Grand Combin to the E.

From the Hospice to Martigny over the Col de Fenetre ( 9 hrs .; guide necessary for the inexperienced), recommended as a return-ronte from the Hospice to Martigny. At the ( 20 min .) Vacherie (see below) the bridlepath ascends rather steeply to the right, to the ( 1 hr .) Col de Fenétre ( $909{ }^{\prime}$ '; fine view). It descends over debris and sometimes snow, past the three small Lacs de Fenêtre, to the chalets of ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Plan la Chaud and through the Drance valley, where it unites with the route from the Col Ferret, to ( 1 hr .) Ferret (p. 302). - From the Hospice to Courmateur ( $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the direct route is across the Col de Fenêtre and the Col Ferret. In order to reach the Col Ferret we need not descend from the Col de Fe nêtre to Ferret, bat (guide advisable) beyond the third lake we turn to the left, descend steep grassy slopes to a bridge over the Ban darrey, follow its left bank for a time, and then ascend on the right bank of the brook coming from the Col Ferret, until (after abont 50 min .) we can cross it. A steep ascent of $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more brings us to the Col Ferret route (p. 302; from the Hospice to the col, 5 hrs .).

On the N.W. side of the lake on the St. Bernard Pass, near a small brook, are stones marking the Italian frontier. On the adjacent Plan de Jupiter once rose a temple to Jupiter Pooninus. The mountain has thence derived its Italian name of Monte Jove, locally Mont Joux, and the range is called the Pennine Alps. The path rounds an angle of rock and descends in a wide bend to the Vacherie, a green pasture, where the cattle of the hospice graze, with two chalets, and the Cantine ( $7270^{\prime}$; simple rfmts.), or road-menders' house. To the W. rises the conical Pain de Sucre (9515'). A shorter footpath, diverging to the left at a cross, before the abovementioned angle of rock, rejoins the bridle-path here. The path zigzags down the left side of the valley, and then descends gradually to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) St. Rhemy ( $5355^{\prime}$; Hôtt. des Alpes Pennines), the first Italian village, where the road begins. The first house on the right is the custom-house. Carriages, see p. 307. Mule and attendant to the Hospice, $41 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.

From St. Rhémy to Courmayeur over the Col Serena ( 7580 '), $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$., fatiguing and not very interesting. (From the hospice over the Col de Fenềtre and Col de Ferret, preferable, see above.)

The deep and narrow Combe des Bosses diverges from the valley of St. Bernard beyond St. Rhémy. Cultivation on both sides of the valley begins at ( $21 / 2$ M.) St. Oyen ( $4515^{\prime}$ ), and becomes richer at (1 M.) Etroubles (4200'; Croix Blanche, unpretending). The road crosses the Buthier here, and skirts the right side of the valley, soon running high above the rirer. 2 M. Les Echevenoz ( 4050 ') ; 11/2 M. La Cluse (3940'), a solitary house. Opposite, on the slope, is the church of Allein. By ( 1 M .) the village of Condemine a view is disclosed of the long Val Pellina, with the snowclad Dent d'Hérens in the background. To the N. tower the rounded snmmit of Mont Vélan and the imposing pyramid of the Grand Combin. The road descends in long windings to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{Mi}$.) Gignod (3260'; Tavern), with a tower of the 14 th cent., picturesquely situated opposite the entrance to the Val Pellina, from which the main arm of the Buthier descends. Far below is the church-tower of Roysan, and farther up the village of Valpelline (p.316).

The scenery assumes a softer character; walnuts, chestnuts, vines, and maize thrive luxuriantly. The road, running high op on the right side of the valley, gradually descends, vià Cré and Variney. Before us the fine pyramid of the Grivola is visible for a time. To the left is the blunted cone of Mt. Mary ( $9430^{\prime}$ ). Beyond ( $21 / 4$ M.) Signayes, where the extensive vineyards of Aosta begin, the three-peaked Rutor appears on the right. Before us rise the Becca di Nona and Mt. Emilius; to the left, the S. spurs of Mte. Rosa. 11/2 M. Aosta, see p. 303.

78. From Martigny to Aosta over the Col de Fenêtre. Val de Bagnes.  Comp. Map, p. 308.

From Martigny to Mauvoisin $81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (Sembrancher 3, Chable $11 / 2$, Champsec 1, Lourtier 1/2, Fionney 1, Mauvoisin $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). To Fionney a good road ( $201 / 2 \mathrm{M}$; ; diligence from Martigny to Lourtier daily in $4 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$.; one-horse carr. to Chable 15, two-horse 20, to Fionney 25 and 40 fr .); thence a bridle-path. - Travellers going to Aosta over the Col de Fenétre (guide $18 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Séraphin and Joseph Herc. Bessard, F. Besse, Jean and Maur. Ant. Troillet. Maur. Felley, Ch. L. Filliez) should pass the night at Mauvoisin, or at Chermontane $23 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. farther up. From Chermontane to the pass $11 / 2$, Valpelline 4, Aosta 2 hrs . Carriage-road from Valpelline to Aosta.

To ( 9 M.) Sembrancher $\left(2360^{\prime}\right)$, see p. 308. We diverge here to the left from the St. Bernard road, cross the Drance, and follow the right bank of the Drance de Bagnes to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Chable (2703'; *Hôt. du Giétroz, moderate), the capital of the Val de Bagnes, picturesquely situated. In the background to the S.E. is the snow-clad Ruinette $\left(12,725^{\prime}\right)$; to the left, Mont Pleureur $(12,160)$ and the Glacier de Giétroz (p. 314).

The Pierre- $\grave{\alpha}$-Voir (8123') may be ascended hence in $41 / 2-5$ hrs. (guide 8 fr.; comp. p. 263). - Mont Bralé (8450') in 5 hrs., viâ Zeppelet and Mrille (guide 10 fr .; comp. p. 309). - To Orsières or Liddes (p. 309) over the Col de Sexblanc ( $66{ }^{\prime}$ '), 6-7 hrs., attractive and not difficult (guide 10 fr .). Fine view of Mont Blanc from the top of the pass. - Over the Col des Etablons to Riddes, see p. 316.

We follow the left bank of the Drance, pass Montagnier on the right bank, and reach Versegère and ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Champsec ( $2965^{\prime}$ ). Here we cross the Drance to ( $11 / 2$ M.) Lourtier ( $3458^{\prime}$; rustic inn) and beyond it ascend circuitously. The Drance forms several falls in its narrow valley; at ( 2 M .) Granges Neuves it receives the discharge of the Glacier de Corbassière. Then (1 M.) - 201/2 M. Fionney (4910'; *Hôt. du Grand-Combin; Hôt.-Pens. Fionney; Hôt. de Chanrion, pens. 5 fr. ; Engl. Ch. Serv. in Aug.), a finely situated village, well adapted for a prolonged stay.

To the Cabane Panossière ( $8908^{\prime}$ ), a most interesting excursion: from Fionney by the Corbassiere $A l p$ in $4 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 8 fr .); from Mauvoisin over the Col des Otanes ( $9318^{\prime}$ ) in $3^{1 / 2-4}$ hrs. (guide 12 fr .). This club-hut, finely situated on the margin of the huge Corbassiere Glacier, is the startingpoint for the Grand Tavé ( $10,348^{\prime} ; 2$ hrs.; guide 15 fr .; easily scaled from the Col des Otanes in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.), Les Avollions ( $10,268^{\prime}$; 3 hrs ; 15 fr. ), the Combin de Corbassière ( 12,212 '; 5 hrs.; 25 fr. ), the Tournelon Bianc ( $12,180^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$.; 25 fr.), the Col des Maisons-Blanches (p. 316; to Bourg-St-Pierre $7 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 25 fr .), and the Col de Panosseyre ( 11,150 '; to Bourg-St-Pierre 8 hrs. ; gnide 25 fr .). - The Grand Combin ( 14,164 '; $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$.) is best ascended from this point, but requires experience and a steady head (guide 60 fr .). We cross the Glacier de Corbassiere to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the N. base of the snmmit (ca. $11,80^{\prime}$ ), ascend viâ the Corridor (difficult and sometimes dangerous from ice-falls) to the N.E. peak or Graffeneire $(14,108)$ and to the $(31 / 2-$ 4 hrs.) Aiguille du Croissant. Comp. pp. 309, 310.

Passes. To the E. of Fionney a fatigning route crosses the Alp Le Crét ( $75755^{\prime}$ ) to the Col du Crèt ( $10,330^{\prime}$; splendid view), on the S. side of the Parrain $\left(10,700^{\prime}\right)$; descent over the Glacier des Ecoulaies to the ( $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Alp La Barma in the Val des Dix ( 1 hr . below Liappey, p. 333). A similar pass is the Col de Sevreu ( $10,335^{\prime}$ ), between the Parrain and the Rosa Blanche; ascent by $A l p$ Sevreu and the small glacier of that name to the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) col, with fine view ; descent to ( 2 hrs .) La Barma (guide over the Col du Crêt, or Col du Sevreu, and the Col de la Meina to Evolena 20 fr .). - Two other passes (trying; for experts only; guide 18 fr .), one the Col de Cleuson ( $9565^{\prime}$ ), to the W. of the Rosa Blanche ( $10,985^{\prime}$; an admirable point, easily ascended from the pass in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.), the other the Col de Louvie ( $9640^{\prime}$ ), to the S.E. of the Mont Fort ( $10,925^{\prime}$ ), lead to the N.E. to the glacier of the Grand Désert. Descent thence to the ( $8-9 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Alp Cleuson ( $6975{ }^{\prime}$ ) in the Val de Nendaz, whence a good bridle-path leads to ( 3 hrs .) Nendaz ( $3310^{\prime}$ ) and ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Sion (p. 316). From the Col de Cleuson the traveller may prefer to cross the Grand Désert, to the N.E., and the Col de Prazfleuri $\left(9705^{\prime}\right)$ to the Val des Dix ( $\mathbf{p} .333$ ).

Above Fionney the valley becomes narrower and wilder. The bridle-path leads on the right bank of the Drance by Bonatchesse to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) bridge of Mauvoisin ( $55{ }^{\prime} 70^{\prime}$ ), spanning the Drance, which flows $100^{\prime}$ below. On the opposite bank, 20 min . higher, is the Hôtel du Giétroz (5984'; 24 beds, pens. 5 -6 fr.).

On the right side of the valley, 1 M . to the S . of the hotel, is the Cascade du Gietroz, the discharge of the Glacier de Giétroz. The ice has receded much of late. A good view of it may be obtained from the Pierre a Vire ( $7823^{\prime}$ ), ascended by the chapel behind the inn in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (guide 8 fr .). In the winter of 1817-18 masses of ice and snow so impeded the Drance that a large lake was formed above Mauvoisin. In June, 1818, this sheet of water burst its barriers and cansed terrible havoc throughout the Val de Bagnes as far as Sembrancher and Martigny.

The path again descends to the Drance and intersects the former bed of the lake. It next leads through the ravine of Torrembey and past the chalets of ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Petite Chermontane ( $6290^{\prime}$ ) and Vingthuit to the ( 20 min .) chalets of Boussine ( $65^{\prime} 70^{\prime}$ ). About ${ }^{1 / 4} \mathrm{hr}$. farther on, the path regains the right bank of the Drance near the chalets of Lancey ( $6716^{\prime}$ ), 10 min . beyond which it divides: the path to the right descends for another 10 min ., crosses the stream, and ascends steeply on the other side for 20 min ., when it rejoins the old route to the ( 10 min .) Alp Grande Chermontane ( $7315^{\prime}$ ); the left branch ascends to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Cabane de Chanrion ( $8070^{\prime}$ ), a well fittedup club-hut, beautifully situated on the W. slope of the Pointe $d^{\prime}$ Otemma $\left(11,135^{\prime}\right)$. The head of the valley is encircled from W. to E. by the Grand Combin (14,164'), Tour de Boussine (12,590'), Amianthe $\left(11,812^{\prime}\right)$, Tête de By $\left(11,424^{\prime}\right)$, Mont Avril $\left(10,960^{\prime}\right)$, and Mont Gelé $\left(11,040^{\prime}\right)$.

Excurstons (guides, see p. 313). Mont Avril ( $10,960^{\prime}$ ), from Chermontane ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from Chanrion) by the Col de Fenêtre, $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., easy (see below ; guide 15 fr .). - Tour de Boussine (12.590'), by the Glacier du MontDurand, 6-7 hrs., laborious (guide 30 fr .). - Grand Combin ( $14,164^{\prime}$ ), by the Col du Sonadon (see below) and the S.E. arête in 10-11 hrs., difficult (guide 60 fr ; comp. pp. 309, 314). - Mont Blanc de Seilon (12,700'), from Mauvoisin by the Col de Seilon, $10-11 \mathrm{hrs}$. (gaide 30 fr .), or from Chanrion over The Glacier de Breney, 6-7 hrs., toilsome ; magnificent view. - Mont Pleureur ( $12,160^{\prime}$ ), from Mauvoisin by the Glacier de Gietroz, $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. (gaide 22 fr .), not very difficult. - The Pointe d`otemma ( \(11,13{ }^{\circ}\) ), from Chanrion 4 hrs. (guide 15 fr.\()\); Bec d`Epicoun (11,⿹勹70), from Chanrion $\overline{5}-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 25 fr .); La Sengla ( $12,145^{\prime}$ ), from Chanrion 7 hrs. ( 30 fr.$\left.\right)^{\circ}{ }^{}$ Pigne d`Arolla ( 12,470 '), from Chanrion viâ the Col de Breney, 7 hrs . ( 30 fr ; not difficalt, comp. p. 334); Tournelon Blanc ( $12,180^{\prime}$ ), from Mauvoisin 8 hrs . ( 30 fr ); La Luette ( $11,625^{\prime}$ ), from Mauvoisin $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 25 fr .); Serpentine ( $12,110^{\prime}$ ), from Chanrion $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 25 fr .) ; and Ruinette ( $12,725^{5}$ ), from Chanrion 6-7 hrs. ( 30 fr .), may also be ascended by mountaineers.

Passes. Over the Col du Sonadon ( 11,445 ) to Boarg-St-Pierre, a difficult glacier-pass (11-12 hrs., guide 30 fr.). From Chermontane to the W., up the Glacier du Mont-Durand to the pass, on the S. side of the Grand Combin; descent over the Glacier du Sonadon to the Valsorey and Bourg-St-Pierre (p. 3c9). - Over the Col des Maisons-Blanches (11,240'), 12-13 hrs. from Mauvoisin or Fionney to Bourg-St-Pierre, grand, but difficult (guide 25 fr ; ; 7 hrs . from the Cabane Panossiere, p. 314). The ascent of the Grand Combin may be combined with either of these passes (see pp. 310, 314, and above). - To the S., besides the Col de Fenêtre (p. 316), another ronte crosses the Col de Crète-Sèche ( 9175 '), traversing the lower end of the Glacier d'Otemma and the Glacier de Créte-Sèche, to the Val Pellina (from Chanrion to Valpelline 8 hrs .; guide 20 fr .). - To the Val d'Hérémence over the Col de Seilon ( $10,500^{\prime} ; 5^{3 / 4} \mathrm{hrs}$. from Manvoisin to Liappey; $61 / 4$ hrs. to Arolla), by the Glacier de Gietroz and the crevassed Glacier de Durand or Seilon, fatiguing (better from Chanrion over the Glacier de Lyrerose and the Col du Mont Rouge, comp. p. 335). Over the Col de la Serpentine ( $11,634^{\prime}$; guide 25 fr .) or the Col de Breney ( 11,975 '; 30 fr .; $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Chanrion to the Alp Seilon, p. 333), laborious. From the Col de Breney the * Pigne d'Arolla (12,470'), a superb point, may be ascended in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (see above and p. 335). From the Glacier de Durand or Seilon we may cross the Pas de Chèrres to the E. to Arolla (see p. 335). - Over the Col de Vasevay ( $10,705^{\prime} ; 6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Mauvoisin to Liappey), interesting, not difficult. - To Arolla over the Glacier d'Otemma and Col de Chermontane ( 8 hrs. from Chanrion; guide $2 \overline{\mathrm{f}} \mathrm{fr}$.), see p .335 ; Col de l'Evéque ( 9 hrs.; 30 fr .), see p. $33 \overline{3}$. - From the upper Glacier d'Otemma over the Col d'Otem$m a\left(11,034^{\prime}\right)$ or the Col de la Reuse d'Arolla or Col d'Oven ( $10,635^{\prime}$ ) to Valpelline, difficult ( $8-9 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Chanrion to Prarayé; guide 25 fr .).

The path from Chermontane to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Col Fenêtre de Balmo ( $9140^{\prime}$ ) ascends over pastures, then over loose stones and moraine-deposits, skirting the Glacier de Fenêtre. To the left rises the Mt. Gelé $\left(11,540^{\prime}\right)$; to the right, the Mont Avril ( $10,960^{\prime}$ ), a splendid point of view ( $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the pass; no difficulty). The col commands the Val d'Ollomont and the Graian Alps. A bridle-path descends through patches of edelweiss, and farther on, past the chalets of Fenêtre, Balme, and Vaux, to ( 3 hrs .) Ollomont ( $4385^{\prime}$; small inn), with the remains of a Roman aqueduct, and ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Valpelline ( $3130^{\prime}$; two small inns), whence a good road leads to ( 9 M.$)$ Aosta (p. 303).

(horses being changed thrice); far preferable to the carriages provided by the Brig hotels.

A kind of gnat, with black gauzy wings, is a source of great annoyance in the marshy parts of the lower Rhone valley, especially in the evening; bedroom-windows should therefore be closed early.

Martigny (1560'), see p. 262. - The wide Rhone Valley is enclosed by lofty mountain-chains, whose lower slopes, as far as Leuk, are covered with vineyards. The rectification of the river-channel has reclaimed much of the valley which used to be covered with gravel and debris. - 3 M. Charrat-Fully.

The Baths lie $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the right of the station. The village, with its ruined castle, is picturesquely situated, 1 M . from the station, in a gorge at the foot of the Pierre-à-Voir.

Ascent of the Pierre-è- Voir ( $8123^{\prime}$ ) from Saxon in $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 6 fr ) ; sce p. 263. Ardon (*Hôt. des Gorges de la Lizerne, pens. 5 fr .). Ardon, Vétroz, and Conthey, all yielding excellent wine (p. 269), lie at the foot of the hills to the left. The train crosses the Morge.

From a distance the town, with its castles on isolated hills, looks very picturesque. On the height to the $N$. are the ruius of the episcopal castle of Tourbillon ( $2150^{\prime}$ ), erected in 1294, and burned down in 1788 (reached in 20 min . by the Rue du Château, to the left by the town-hall) ; extensive view, down to Martigny, and up to Leuk. On the lower hill to the right, on the site of a Roman fort, stands the old castle of Valeria (2040'), surrounded by towers and other buildings, among which is the Church of Notre Dame de Valère ( $9-13$ th cent.; now in restoration), with interesting capitals, pictures, carved choir-stalls, etc. (ring; fee). The cantonal Antiquarian Museum occupies an adjacent room (adm. 50 c.). - Close to the town, near Tourbillon, is the castle of Majoria, also burned down in 1788. Part of it is now a barrack.

In the town itself the Gothic Cathedral (end of 15 th cent.; tower of 9 th cent.) and the elegant church of St. Théodule adjoining it are noteworthy. In the old mansion of the Supersaxo family, in the Gundisgasse, is a fine hall with an artistically carved Renaissance ceiling of 1505 (visitors admitted).

Above Sion the Borgne descends from the Val d'Hérens (p. 332), at the head of which we obtain a glimpse of the Dents de Veisivi. Near ( $191 / 2$ M.) St. Léonard we cross the Rière, which rises on the Rawyl. 21 M. Granges; the village, with a ruined castle and a church on the hill, lies on the left bank of the Rhone, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S .

On the side next the Rhone is the Tour de Goubin, or Schinderthurm, with a fine view of the Val d'Anniviers. On a rock above the Rhone, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S., is the Géronde (2043'), formerly a Carthusian monastery, now a deaf and dumb asylum, with two little lakes (baths).

A pleasant excursion may be made to the Hôtel de Parc-Montana, to which a road ( 10 M .; carr. 15, with two horses 25 fr.) leads viâ Veyras, Venthone, and Randogne (burned down in 1898). Walkers follow the road towards the W . and beyond the ( 7 min .) first bridge turn to the right to ( 8 min .) Villa. At the church they ascend the path to the left, passing Darmona, and at the cross on the hill they again turn to the left and ascend through wood to the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{brs}$.) *Hobtel du Parc-Montana (5085'; pens. 8-131/2 fr.; Engl. One-horse carr. from the station to the Baths of Leuk, 10-15, two-horse 25 fr . Walkers reach the Baths ( p .204 ) in $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. by turning to the left (finger-post) beyond the church in the town, crossing the bridge over the Dala (p. 206), and following the old bridle-path to the right a few hundred paces farther on.

As the train leaves Leuk-Susten we look back, to the right, at the Illgraben or Höllengraben (p.338), a vast semicircular basin with bleak, yellowish slopes. The line passes the château of Baron Werra (on the right), and is carried by an embankment along the river. We cross the Turtmannbach to (34 M.) Turtmann (2080'), Fr. Tourtemagne. The village (Poste or Lion; Soleil, both plain) lies $1 / 2$ M. to the right, at the mouth of the Turtmann Valley. The torrent forms a fine fall, $85^{\prime}$ high, 8 min . from the Post Inn.

Through the Turtmann Valley to Meiden ( 4 hrs .; guide or porter 5-6 fr.), see p. 342. Good walkers will find it enjoyable to go viâ Meiden and Schwarzhorn to St. Jiklaus ( 11 hrs. ; guide 15 fr .) or viâ Pas du Boeuf and Bella Tola to St. Luc ( $111 / 2 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 15 \mathrm{fr}$. ). $351 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Gampel. The village lies on the right bank, 1 M . off, at the narrow month of the Lötschen-Thal (p. 208), through which peeps the snowy Petersgrat (p. 180). Near Niedergestelen are the scanty ruins of the Gestelnburg. 39 M. Raron. On the opposite bank, at the mouth of the Bietschthal, lies the village, with its old church on a rocky hill. On a wooded height on the left bank, above the hamlet of Turtig, is the little pilgrimage-church of Wandfluh, reached by a winding path flanked with oratories. - We cross the turbid Visp, which has covered the Rhone Valley here with its debris.

the mouth of the Visp Valley (p. 343), has several old mansionhouses and handsome churches. The beautiful snow-mountain at the head of the Visp Valley is the Balfrinhorn (12,475'; p. 354), the first peak of the Saasgrat, which separates the valleys of Saas and Nicolai. - Railway to Zermatt, see p. 342.

Above Visp we traverse the stony tract at the influx of the Gamsen, which descends from the Nanzer-Thal. To the right is the pilgrim-resort of Glis, with a large church, at the base of the Glishorn (8290'); to the E. rises the fine pyramid of the Bortelhorn (p. 321). - We then cross the artificial channel of the Saltine to -

The turreted Stockalper Château, containing an interesting interior court, a large hall, etc., is the largest private residence in Switzerland (special permission necessary for admission). Kaspar Stockalper (d. 1691), who built it, dominated the trade over the Simplon, which he protected by a guard of 70 men. The terrace in front of the former Jesuits' monastery commands a fine view. The fine snow-mountain to the S.E. is the Wasenhorn; to the N., the Sparrhorn, Belalp, and Eggishorn.

On the left bank of the Rhone, below Thermen and about $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. above Brig is the N. end of the great Simplon Tunnel, the construction of which was begun in 1898, on both the German and Italian sides, by Messrs. Brandt, Brandau, \& Co. This tunnel will be the longest in the world ( $121 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. ; St. Gotthard $91 / 4 \mathrm{M}$., Mont Cenis $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., Arlberg $61 / 3 \mathrm{M}$.) and is to be completed in 1903, at an estimated cost of $69,000,000 \mathrm{fr}$. ( $2,780,0002$.). It cousists of two parallel tunnels (each $16^{\prime}$ wide and $171 / 2^{\prime}$ high), $56^{\prime}$ apart and connected at distances of 220 yds . by cross-shafts. One tunnel only (single track) is to be completed at present, while the other will serve for ventilation, water-pipes, the transport of materials, and so forth. From the N. portal, which lies $2253^{\prime}$ above the sea, the tunnel ascends to the S.E. at a gradient of $2: 100$ to its culminating point ( $2312^{\prime}$ ), $51 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the N . end and $7000^{\prime}$ below the crest of the mountains (between the Furggenbaumhorn and Wasenhorn). It then remains level for about $1 / 3 \mathrm{M}$. and afterwards descends at a gradient of 7:100 to the ( $62 / 3 \mathrm{M}$.) S. portal, at Iselle in the Doveria Valley (p. 324). The excavation is carried on by the Brandt hydraulic boring machines, about a dozen of which are at work at each end.

From Brig to Belalp, a beautiful excursion (bridle-path, $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.; porter 5-6, horse 15 fr .). Just before ( 1 M.) Naters (p. 329), on the right bank of the Rhone, we ascend to the left (finger-post) by a bridle-path, almost shadeless in the forenoon and steep at places, viâ Geimen ( $3440^{\prime}$ ), to ( 2 hrs. ) the village of Platten ( $4396^{\prime}$; rustic inn); then through wood and over the Rischenen and Eggen Alps to the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) - ${ }^{*}$ Hötel Belalp (7110'; R., L., \& A. 4-5, B. 11/2, D. 5, pens. $7-12 \mathrm{fr}$.; English Church), situated on the Luisgen-Alp at the base of the Sparrhorn, and high above the Aletsch Glacier. Splendid view of the Valaisian Alps. The little Villa Lüsgen, 5 min. above the hotel, belonged to Prof. Tyndall (d. 1893). A pleasant walk may be taken on the hillside, past the hamlet of Belalp ( $6735^{\prime}$ ), to ( $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Nessel ( $6675^{\prime}$; milk, etc.), high above the Rhone Valley, with beautiful view.

To the *Upper Aletsch Glacier, very attractive ( 3 hrs . to the club-hut, guide 8 fr., provisions should be taken). Bridle-path from the hotel to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) W. moraine; then across this and a second moraine to the almost uncrevassed glacier, with its nomerous 'ice-tables', 'glacier-mills', etc., as far as the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Oberaletsch Hut of the S. A. C. on the E. side ( $8760^{\prime}$ ), at the foot of the Fusshörner (see below). We may walk up the glacier to the right to the foot of the Aletschhorn (see below), or traverse the Beichfirn to the left to the snow-slopes of the Beich Pass (see below ; $8-10 \mathrm{hrs}$. in all).
"Sparrhorn (Belalphorn, 9890'), 2-2 $2 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the inn, bridle-path most of the way (guide 5 fr., needless for adepts). Beautiful view, finer on the S. side than from the Eggishorn, but inferior to it on the N. side. (Panorama at the inn.) To the N., above the Aletsch Glacier, and to the left of the Fusshörner, the Great Aletschhorn is most prominent; adjoining it are the Sattelhorn, Ebnefluh, Distelhorn, Breithorn, and the Tschingelhörner, and to the left, adjacent to the Hochstock, is the Nesthorn. To the S. rises the broad mass of the Monte Leone; more to the right are the Fletschhorn, Monte Rosa, Mischabel, Matterhorn, Weisshorn, Brunnegghorn, Dent Blanche, Grand Combin, and Mont Blanc. To the left of Monte Leone are the Bortelhorn, Hüllehorn, Helsenhorn, Punta d'Arbola, Güschihorn, Ofenhorn, the peaks of the St. Gotthard group, and lastly the Walliser Fiescherhörner.

The Aletschhorn ( $13,720^{\prime} ; 6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 40 fr .) ; *Nesthorn ( $12,530^{\prime}$; $5-6 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 30 \mathrm{fr}$. ; grand view); Lötschthaler Breithorn (12,410'; 5-6 hrs.; 25 fr .); Fusshörner ( $11,900^{\prime}$; 4 hrs .; 20 fr .; an interesting but rather difficult climb); Sattelhorn ( $12,290^{\prime} ; 4^{11 / 2} \mathrm{hrs} . ; 20 \mathrm{fr}$. ); and Schienhorn ( $12,490^{\prime} ; 6$-7 hrs., very difficult; $3 \overline{5} \mathrm{fr}$.) may be ascended from the Oberaletsch Hut (by experts only).

From the Belalp to the Eggishorn Hotel ( $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), see pp. 328, 327. Guide 8 fr .; necessary only for the passage of the Great Aletsch Glacier ( 3 fr .).

From Belalp to Ried over the Beich Pass, toilsome, but very interesting ( $8-9 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 25 fr .). We ascend the Upper Aletsch Glacier and the Beichfirn to the ( $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Beich Pass $\left(10,235^{\prime}\right)$, between the Schienhorn and the Lötschthaler Breithorn (see above); then descend rapidly over the Distel Glacier to the beautiful Gletscherstaffel $A l p$, the Fafler $A l p$, and ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Ried (p. 208).

The Upper Valais, and the Grimsel, Furka, and Gries passes, see RR. 80,52 , $35,81$.

The Simplon Road, the first great Alpine route after the Brenner, constructed by order of Napoleon I. in 1800-1806, quits the Rhone Valley here. The scenery is far finer than on the Splügen route, but the engineering of the road is less striking. The road is kept open for carriages in winter also (diligences, etc., see p. 316).

Walkers should allow: from Brig to Berisal $31 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. by the road, $23 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. by the short-cuts; from Berisal to the Hospice $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; Simplon $13 / \mathrm{hr}$.; Algaby 40 min . (path in 20 min .) ; Gondo $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; Iselle 50 min .; Domodossola $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. In the reverse direction: from Domodossola to Iselle 4 hrs ; Gondo 1 hr. ; Algaby $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr} . ;$ Simplon $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (by the path); Hospice $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.; Berisal $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; Brig $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (or $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. by the path).

The diligence starts from the post-office $\left(2320^{\prime}\right)$ at Brig. (A steepish path diverging to the left outside the town, following the telegraph- wires and part of the old bridle-path, and rejoining the road $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. before the second refuge, is a considerable short-cut.) The road is soon joined ( $1 / 2$ M.) by the old road from Glis (p.319), which crosses the gorge of the Saltine by the lofty Pont Napoléon ( $2485^{\prime}$ ). Opposite rises the Glishorn ( $8290^{\prime}$ ). The road winds over green pastures to the E., in the direction of the Klenenhorn ( $8840^{\prime}$ ). Fine view behind us of the Rhone Valley; high above the right bank of the Rhone is the Hôtel Belalp, commanded by the Sparrhorn, with the Nesthorn on the left; to the right, farther up, the cone of the Eggishorn; above us, to the S., is the Kaltwasser Glacier, which the road afterwards passes, and the Schönhorn. Beyond the hamlet of Schlucht, by the ( $23 / 4$ M.) First Refuge (3200'), the road turns back and ascends the wooded slope in many windings, affording splendid views of the Rhone Valley and the mountains of the Aletsch region. Beyond the Bleiche Kapelle (4110') it again nears the deep ravine of the Saltine. By the ( $23 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Second, or Schallberg, Refuge (4330'; auberge), beyond which we come in sight of the pass with the hotel, two brooks from the Staldhorn, one on each side, unite far below with the Saltine, the valley of which (GanterThal) now turns to the E. Fine view of the picturesquely grouped valleys, and of the Wasenhorn, Furggenbaumhorn, and Bortelhorn. The road follows the Ganter-Thal to the ( 2 M.) Ganter Bridge ( 4820 ) and ascends in a wide curve (steep short-cut to the left) to (1 M.) -

8 M. Berisal, the Third Refuge ( $5007^{\prime}$; *Hôt.-Pens. Berisal or de la Poste, R., L., \& A. $3 ½$, B. $11 / 2$, lunch 3, D. 4 fr., finely situated; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer; opposite, a Restaurant).

Excursions (guides, Aloys Eyer, Emain. and Jos. Gentinetta, M. Ruppen, etc.). - Furggenbaumhorn (Punta dAurona; 9812'; 4 hrs.; guide 8 fr.), interesting and nut difficult. - Bortelhorn (Punta del Rebbio; 10.512'; 5 hrs.; guide 12 fr .), by the Bortel-Alp and the Bortel Glacier. laborious. - To Binn over the Steinen-Joch ( $9153^{\prime}$; 8 hrs.; 10 fr.) or the Saflisch-Joch ( $8648^{\prime}$; 7 hrs.; 10 fr .), not difficult (see p. 328).

From Berisal to Isklle viâ Veglia, $8-9 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide, attractive, but fatiguing. We either ascend viâ the Bortel-Alp and the glacier on the N. side of the Furggenbaumhorn (Punta d'Aurona, 8912') to the Forca del Rebbio ( $9040^{\prime}$ ), and descend over rocks, debris, and grassy slopes to the $A l p$ Veglia (p. 329); or we may go by the Laub-Alp ( $626 \overline{5}^{\prime}$ ) and the Furggenbaum Pass (Passo di Forchetta or For'ca d'Aurona; 8826'), between the Furggenbaumhorn and the Wasenhorn. From Veglia we descend to Trasqueva and ( 3 hrs .) Iselle, see p. 324. - From the Alp Veglia over the Passo di Valtendra (7995') and the Passo di Buscagna (7743') to Devero (p. 328), 6-7 hrs., with guide, a fine route, not difficult. - From Veglia over the Kaltwasser Pass (Bocchetta d'Aurona; 9250') and the Kaltwasser Glacier to the Simplon, 6-7 hrs., with guide, for adepts only.

In 1 hr. more we reach the Fourth Refuge ( 5645 '). To the right the top of the pass is again visible; above it rise the Rauthorn with the Raut Glacier and the finely shaped Rossbodenhorn with the Rossboden Glacier; beautiful view, looking back, of the Aletschhorn, Schienhorn, etc. Beyond the ( $11 / 4$ M.) Kapfloch, hewn in the rock for 33 yds., is the ( $3 / 4$ M.) Fifth, or Schallbett, Refuge ( 6345 '). Between this point and the top of the pass is the most dangerous part of the road during the season of avalanches and storms. Over the ( $3 / 4$ M.) Wasser Gallery $\left(6460^{\prime}\right.$ ) dashes the stream which issues from the Kaltwasser Glacier. To the left is Monte Leone (p.322). The road then passes through the Old Gallery and the long Joseph Gallery, beyond which, to the left, is a third gallery used in winter. The ( 1 M .) Sixth Refuge ( $6540^{\prime}$ ) commands a splendid final view of the Bernese Alps. About 5 min. farther on we reach the highest point of the Simplon Pass (6590'; *Hôt. Bellevue, H. $2 \frac{1}{2}$, B. $1^{1} / 2$, lunch 3, D. $31 / 2$, pens. from 7 fr .), $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. beyond which ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Berisal) is the Hospice ( 6565 '; accommodation, see p. 310 ; fee to the attendant), at the base of the Hübschhorn ( $10,485^{\prime}$ ), a large building with a lofty flight of steps, founded by Napoleon for the reception of travellers, and subject to the same rules as that of the Great St. Bernard.

Excursions. Hübschhorn or Schönhorn ( $10,485^{\prime} ; 31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 15 fr .), laborious but interesting. - "Konte Leone ( $11.683^{\prime} ; 6 \mathrm{hrs}$; ; guide 20 fr .), from the Ho-pice by the Hohmutten Glacier, the Breithorn Pass ( $10,990^{\prime}$ ), and the Alpien Glacier, not very difficult for experts. Magnificent pat.orama. From the village of Simplon we ascend through the Hohmatten-Thal and join the above route at the Hohmatten Glacier (to the top $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.). Or we may descend the Simplon road to Algaby (p. 323) and mount thence viâ Alpien to the ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the village of Simplon) hats of the Schoorree Balmen ( $6890^{\prime}$ ), where the night is spent. A rapid ascent, passing two pretty little lakes, leads thence up to the S.E. corner of the Alpien Glacier, from which the top may be gained by either the S. or the S.W. arête ( $41 ; 2 \mathrm{~h}: \mathrm{s}$., guide 12 fr .). - From the hospice to Sialden by the Bistenen Pass (guide 12 fr . ; mule-track), see p. 343 ; to Saus, see below.

A broad open valley resembling a dried-up lake, bounded by snow-capped peaks, forms the highest part of the pass. The hardy rhododendron alone thrives here. The ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Old Hospice ( $5700^{\prime}$ ), a high square building with a tower, on the right, below the new road, is now occupied by herdsmen. $3 / 4$ M. Seventh Refuge, by the Engeloch ( $5855^{\prime}$ ). Farther down we cross the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Krummbach ( $5305^{\prime}$ ), pass the chalets of ( $1 / 2$ M.) Eggen ( $5250^{\prime}$; to the right is the Rossboden Glacier with its hage moraine, see below), and cross the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Sengbach ( 5115 ) to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -

20 M. Simplon ( 48 j̄2'), Ital. Sempione, Ger. Simpeln (*Poste, R., L., & A. 3-31/2, D. $31 / 2$, pens. 6-7 fr.; Hôt. Fletschhorn, at the lower end of the village; Croix Blanche), among pastures, at the N.E. base of the Rossbodenhorn (p.323).

From Simplon to Saas, several routes. The finest is across the *Rossboden Pass $19-10 \mathrm{hrs}$; difficult, fit for adepts only; guide 20 fr ., Jos. Dorsaz and Aloys Zen-Klusen of Simplon). At the ( 25 min .) chalets of Eggen (:ee above) we diverge to the left from the Simplen road and ascend on the left side of the Sengbach to the ( 1 hr. ) Rossboden-Alp ( $636 \mathrm{u}^{\prime}$ ), with fine view of the séracs of the Rossbe den Clacier. Farther on we monnt grassy slopes and dehris of moraine to the Griesseren Glacier, beyond which we climb a steep rocky wall to the ( 4 hrs .) fass (about $10,500^{\prime}$ ), to the S . of the Rauthorn ( $10,72 j^{\prime}$ ). Splendid view. To the right below us is the Gamsen Glacier. We descend acress the Mattucald Glacier to the Hofers-Alp (see p. 323) and Saas-Grund (p. 353). - Other grand, but still more difficult passes, not without danger, are the Laquin-Joch ( $11,474^{\prime}$ ), between the Laquinhorn and the Weissmies ( $11-12 \mathrm{hrs}$; ; guide 20 fr .), and the Fletschjoch ( $12,\left(50^{\prime} ; 12 \mathrm{hrs} ; 30 \mathrm{fr}\right.$ ), between the Laquibhorn and the Russbodenhorn. From the latter the twin summits of the Fletschhorn. viz. the Laquinhorn ( $13,140^{\prime} ; 11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) and the Rossbodenhorn ( $13,123^{\prime} ; 1 \mathrm{hr}$.) are easily ascended. Descent to the Hit. Weissmies, on the Trift Alp, and to Saas-Grund (p. 3i3).

To Saas over the Sirwolten and Simeli Passes (or the Gayser Jосн), $10-11 \mathrm{hrs} .$, fairly interesting (guide 20 fr .). By the ( 1 hr .) Seventh Refuge (see above) we descend to the left, cross the Krummbach to the Klusmatten $A l p$, and ascend by a narrow path towards a waterfall visible from below. On the left side of it we mount a 'couloir', steep at first (leaving the Sirwolten Lake to the left), to the ( 3 hrs .) Sirwolten Pass ( $8744^{\prime}$ ), between the Sirwoltenhorn (9344') and Gatenhorn ( $9150^{\prime}$ ); view limited. Descent over rock and debris (keeping well to the left) to the head of the Gamser-Thal, into which the Gamsen Glacier descends. We ascend the glacier gradually, to the S.W., towards an arête coming down from the Magenhorn on the E., at the foot of which the route divides: to the right to the Simeli Pass (9935'); to the left to the Gamser Joch (about $9340^{\prime}$; each $2-2 \frac{1}{2}$ hrs. from the Sirwolten Pass). These passes, between which rises the pointed Magenhorn ( $10,243^{\prime}$ ), command beautiful views of the majestic Mischabel group; immediately to the left is the Fletschhorn with the Mattwald Glacier; to the E. are the Monte Leone and the St. Gotthard group; and to the N. are the Bernese Alps from the Furka to the Diablerets. A still grander point is the *Mattwaldhorn (10,673), easily ascended from the Simeli Pass in $3 / 4$ hour. Toilsome descent from the Gamser Joch over the moraine of the Mattioald Glacier. Rounding the lower part of the valley to the left, we next come to the Sattel ( $9025^{\prime}$ ), on the E. side of the Aeusser-Rothhorn ( $10,354^{\prime}$ ), and to the Hofers-Alp ( $6854^{\prime}$ ). The path now improves and leads by Bodmen to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Saas-Grund (p. 353). Descent by the Alp Sevenen to Balen (p. 352) much longer and not advisable.

The Rossbodenhorn ( $13,128^{\prime}$ ), $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Simplon (guide 30 fr .), fatiguing and difficult. One route follows the N.E. arête, another ascends from the Rossbcden Pass by the N. arète, a third approaches from the S . viâ the Fletschjoch (sfe p. 322). The ascent from Saas-Grund (Hôt. Weissmies) is easier (see p. 353).

Beyond the ( $1 / 4$ M.) Lauibach the road forms a wide bend and enters the Laquin-Thal. At the ( $13 / 4$ M.) hamlet of Algaby or Gstein ( $4042^{\prime}$; Hôt. du Simplon) it crosses the Krummbach, into which the Laquinbach falls. Below this the brook is named the Doveria or Diveria. Beyond the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Gallery of Algaby begins the *Ravine of Gondo, one of the wildest and grandest gorges in the Alps, which becomes narrower and deeper at every step, till its smooth walls of mica-slate overhang the road. The road passes the ( $11 / 4$ M.) Eighth Refuge (3841'), beyond which the path to Alpien (p. 322) diverges on the left, and crosses the Doveria by ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the Ponte Alto (3747'), and by another bridge near the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Ninth Refuge $\left(3514^{\prime}\right)$. A huge mass of rock, which seems to block the road here, is pierced by the Gallery of Gondo, a tunnel 245 yds. long, with the inscription, 'Aere Italo 1805 Nap . Imp.' At the farther end of the gallery the Alpienbach forms a fall, crossed by a slender bridge. On both sides the rocks tower to a dizzy height (about 2000'). The sombre entrance to the tunnel contrasts strikingly with the white spray of the cascade, while the Bodmer Glacier forms a fine background to the W. Traces of the old road are still visible opposite the waterfall. The hamlet of $(21 / 2$ M.) Gondo (2815') is the last Swiss village (custom-house). The tall square tower here (now an inn, uninviting) was erected by the Stockalper family as a refuge for travellers, long before the new road was made. Opposite are the Hôtel-Restaurant Jordan (plain) and two other inns. Adjacent is a gold-mine, to which a serpentine road ascends from near the village.

To the S. opens the narrow Val Vaira or Zucischbergen-Thal, from which we may cross the toilsome Zwischbergen Pass ( 10.657 ), between the Weissmies ( p .353 ) and the Portjengrat (Pizzo d' Andolla; 12,00s'), to SaasGrund (p. 353; 12 hrs.; guide 20 fr.).

A column of granite on the left, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Gondo, marks the boundary of Italy ( $2610^{\prime}$ ). The first Italian village is ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Paglino. Below this the valley is called Val di Vedro. We next pass through a new tunnel, and reach ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -

291/2 M. Iselle ( $2155^{\prime}$; Hôt. de la Poste, R., L., \& A. $21 / 2$, B. $11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; two Restaurants, with beds), where luggage is examined. Below Iselle, to the left, is the S. portal of the large Simplon Tunnel (p.319). Below the church of Trasquera, which stands on the hill to the left, the road crosses the ( $2 \frac{1}{4}$ M.) Cairasca or Cherasca. (To the Rhone Valley by the Alp Veglia, see pp. 321, 329.) Near Varzo (1865'; inn), a large village on the left, the vegetation becomes richer (chestnuts, figs, mulberries, maize, vineyards). Passing through a picturesque ravine and the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Gallery of Crevŏla $\left(1286^{\prime}\right)$, we descend past the village of Crevola ( $1100^{\prime}$ ) to the ( 1 M .) Osteria della Stella, where for the last time we cross the Doveria by a bridge $100^{\prime}$ high, near its confluence with the Tosa, which here emerges from the Val Antigorio (p. 331). The fertile valley, now called Valle d'Ossola, though frequently ravaged by inundations, is strikingly picturesque and thoroughly Italian. We next reach ( $23 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -

40 M. Domodossŏla (889'; pop. 3655; *Gr.-Hôt. de la Ville et Ancienne Poste, R., L., \& A. $3 \frac{1}{2}$, lunch 3, D. $41 / 2$ fr., with a good café; *Hôt. d'Espagne, R., L., \& A. 3, lunch 3, D. 4 fr.; Hôt. National; Albergo Manini, modest), a small town, charmingly situated on the Tosa, which becomes navigable here. The Palazzo Silva (16th cent.) contains a few antiquities ; the Museo Galetti a library and cabinet of coins. In the Via Garibaldi is a bust of Garibaldi (1890). The *Mount Calvary, 20 min . to the S., commands a superb view.

To Locarno through the Val Vigezzo, see p. 455. Diligence to ( $101 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. ; fare 3 fr.) Santa Maria Maggiore, daily, at 5 p.m. - On the W. opens the Val Bognanco, with mineral springs, from which several passes lead to the Zuischbergen and Antrona Valleys (see p. 323 and below).

Railway to Gravellona (Pallanza, Stresa), Orta, Novara, R. 109.
From the first station ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Villadossola an interesting ronte leads over the Antrona Pass to Sass ( $12-13 \mathrm{hrs}$., without guide). A carriageroad ascends the Val Antrona, at first on the left, and afterwards on the right bank of the Ovesca, viâ Viganella and Schieranco, to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Antronapiana (2955'; Savoni's and Marani's inns). Footpath thence, past the charming little Antrona Lake ( 3 כ̄50'), formed by a landslip from the Pizzo Pozzolo ( $8360^{\circ}$ ) in 1632, to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Cingino Alps $\left(6660^{\prime}\right)$ and along the slopes of the Jazzihorn or Pizzo Cingino ( $10,595^{\prime}$ ), far above the little Lago Cingino ( $7190^{\prime}$ ), to the ( $2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Saas or Antrona Pass ( $9330^{\prime}$ ), between the Jazzihorn on the left and the Latelhorn or Puntca di Saas ( $10,525^{\prime}$; easily ascended from the pass in 1 hr ; ; see p. 353) on the right. Descent on the right side of the Furggen Glacier to the Furggen-Thal, Almagell, and (3 hrs.) Saas (p. 353). - To Mattmark from Antrona a direct but rough route crosses the Antigine or Ofenthal Pass ( $930^{\circ} 0^{\prime}$ ). From the ascent to the Cingino Alp (see above) we diverge to the left to the Lombraoro $A l p$, whence a steep ascent leads viâ the Laugera di Sopra Alp to the pass, between the Jazzihorn and the Pizzo d'Antigine or Spälinhorn ( $10,480^{\prime}$; a fine point, $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the pass); descent through the wild Ofen-Thal to the Mattmark-Alp ( $\mathrm{S}-9 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Antronapiana; p. 35̄).

At the third station ( 6 , 4 . ) Piedimulerct ( p .465 ) the picturesque Valle Anzasca opens to the right (to Macugnaga and over the Moro Pass to Saas, see p. 355).

80. From the Rhone Glacier to Brig. The Eggishorn.  Comp. Maps, pp. 124, 324, and 320.

31 M . Diligence to Brig twice daily ( $7.30 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. and $2.10 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$.) in $5-51 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 10 fr . S0, coupé 13 fr .30 c .; to Fiesch in $31 / 3 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 7 \mathrm{fr} .5$, coupé 8 fr .60 c .). Walking is preferable from Münster onwards. In the reverse direction the diligence takes $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. - One-horse carr. from the Rhone Glacier to Münster 10, two-horse 20 fr .; to Fiesch 18 or 35 , to Brig 30 or 60 fr .; from Brig to Fiesch 12 or 25, to Ulrichen 20 or 40 , the Rhone Glacier 30 or $60 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ from Fiesch to the Rhone Glacier one-horse carr. 18, two-horse 35 fr .; from the Rhone Glacier to Andermatt and Göschenen 30 or 60, Grimsel Hospice 10 or 15 , Handegg 15 or 25 , Meiringen 30 or 60 fr .

Hotel at the Rhone Glacier ('im Gletsch'): Hôt. du Glacier du Reône, R., L., & A. $21 / 2-5$, B. $11 / 2$, lunch $31 / 2$, D. 5 fr ., beer at the café, 40 c . Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer. - The Hôtel Belvedere, high up on the Furka road, belongs to the same proprietor.

The *Rhone Glacier, imbedded between the Gerstenhörner $\left(10,450^{\prime}\right)$ and Gelmerhörner $\left(10,500^{\prime}\right)$ on the W., and the Galenstock $\left(11,805^{\prime}\right)$, Rhonestock $\left(11,825^{\prime}\right)$, and Dammastock ( $11,920^{\prime}$ ) on the E., ascends in terraces for about 6 M . A few centuries ago this glacier, from which issues the Rhone, filled more than half of the Gletsch ( $5750^{\prime}$ ), the valley covered partly with debris, partly with grass, lying at the junction of the three great roads from the Furka (Andermatt, p. 133), the Grimsel (Meiringen, p. 200), and the Rhone Valley (see below). From the hotel the glacier is reached in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. by a path crossing the bridge and ascending the left bank of the Rhone, which issues from a beautiful vault of blue ice (an icegrotto, hewn in the glacier, is worth seeing; $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). - The natives give the name of Rotten, or Rhodan, to three partially warm springs rising at the back of the hotel, to the W., which they regard as the source of the river.

A short way from the hotel, and farther on, the road crosses the infant Rhone, which dashes through its rocky ravine far below. It then descends in long windings through pine-woods on the right bank to (4 M.) Oberwald (4495'; *Hôtel Furca, plain, R. 2, B. 1, board $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), at the bottom of the Upper Valais, a broad green valley, enclosed by monotonous chains of mountains. In front rises the majestic Weisshorn, and behind us the Galenstock. The valley consists of three regions, the highest extending down to Fiesch, the second to the bridge of Grengiols, and the third below that point. The inhabitants (Rom. Cath.) speak German; French begins near Sion.

From the wild Geren-Thal, a ravine opening to the E. of Oberwald, a fatiguing pass crosses the Siedlen Glacier and the Geren Pass (8865) to the Alp Cruina and All' Acqua in the Val Bedretto (p. 326; 8 hrs .; guide 15 fr., Jos. Ign. Bellwalder of Oberwald).
$53 / 4$ M. Obergestĕlen ( $4450^{\prime}$ ), a village rebuilt since a fire in 1868. (Footpath to the Grimsel, see p. 200.) Opposite ( $71 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Ulrichen (4380'; *Hôt. zum Griesgletscher, plain), a village with a new church, is the mouth of the Eginen-Thal. (Over the Gries Pass to the Tosa Falls, see p. 330.)

To Airolo over the Nufenen Pass ( $81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), a rough, uninteresting bridle-path (guide, necessary, 18 fr ., horse 25 fr .). Beginning of route, see p. 330. At ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Altstaffel (p.330) the path leads to the left, ascends in zigzags, and crosses the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Nufĕnen Pass (Passo di Novena, 8005'), between the Pizzo Gallina ( $10,066^{\prime}$ ) on the left and the Nufenenstock ( 9400 ') on the right, to the Val Bedretto. Immediately to the N. of the pass rises the Ticino, which the path follows, first on the right, and below the Alp Cruina on the left bank, to the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hospice all' Acqua ( 5265 ; unpretending inn; route over the San Giacomo Pass to the Tosa Falls, see p. 331). The lofty Val Bedretto is bleak and barren. The wooded slopes are overtopped by bare pinnacles of rock. Our path frequently crosses the tracks of avalanches. 1 hr . Hamlet of Bedretto ( $4610^{\prime}$; inn, rustic); 20 min . Villa ( $4442^{\prime}$; very poor inn; over the Cavanna Pass to Realp, see p. 132), where a rough cartroad begins. Near ( 20 min .) Ossasco ( 4365 ; Albergo delle Alpi, rustic, but dear) the road crosses the Ticino. Beyond ( 25 min .) Fontana ( $413 j^{\prime}$ ), to the right, is the wild Val Ruvino with waterfalls. Then ( 1 hr .) Airolo (p. 120).

The following villages are Geschenen (4395 ${ }^{\circ}$ ) and - 10 M. Münster ( $4450^{\prime}$; *Croix d’Or, R., L., \& A. 2-3, B. 114, D. 2-3, pens. $5-7 \mathrm{fr}$.; one-horse carr. to Brig 18 fr . and fee), the chief place of the Upper Valais. Fine view from the chapel-hill.
 Münster through the Münster-Thal and past the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Grossboden-Alp (6070), and then to the right by the S.E. arête. View like that from the Eggishorn (p. 327), with the addition of the Finsteraarhorn in the foreground. - The *Blindenhorn ( $11,095^{\prime}$; 6-7 hrs.; guide 15 fr .) is very attractive. From Reckingen (see below) a good path leads through the Blinden-Thal to the Lerchstafel-Alp, at the end of the Blinden Glacier. Thence we ascend on the left bank of the Hohlauwibach and across the Sulz Glacier, to the Griesgletscher Pass ( $10,55^{\circ}$ ), between the Merzenbachschien and the Blindenhorn, and reach the summit by a steep ascent to the right. Magnificent view. The ascent from the Gries Pass (p.330) viâ the Gries Glacier ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) is easier.

To the left, over the Blinden-Thal(see above), appears the Rappenhorn or Mittaghorn (10,374'), adjoined on the left by the Blindenhorn (see above). The next villages are Reckingen (inn; with the finest church in the valley), Gluringen, Ritzingen, Biel, Selkingen, and ( $141 / 2$ M.) Blitzingen (*Pens. Seiler, $4-5$ fr.; Inn zum Guten Freund). Beyond ( 5 M .) Niederwald ( 4050 ) the Rhone forces its passage to a lower region of the valley. The road leads on the right bank, high above the river (to the right, above, is Bellwald), and finally descends through wood in two great curves.

20 M. Fiesch (3460'; *Hôt. du Glacier et Poste, R., L., \& A. 21/2-3, D. 3, pens. $6-7$ fr. ; *Hôt. des Alpes, R., L., \& A. $21 / 2^{-3}, \mathrm{D} .3 \mathrm{fr}$.), prettily situated at the influx of the Fieschbach into the Rhone.

Ascent of the Eggishorn, very interesting ( 5 hrs .; without guide; to the inn 3 hrs . ; porter 5, horse 10 fr .). From the bridge (or below the Hôt. des Alpes) the good bridle-path ascends to the right, rather steeply, chiefly through wood, past ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) a little *Inn (R. $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{fr}$.) and several earth-pyramids lying a little to the left, to ( 40 min .) the Fiescher $A l p\left(6210^{\prime}\right.$ ); then over pastures (where the direct path follows the telegraph-posts, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. shorter, but steep and vie wless) to the ( 50 min.$)$ *Hôt. -Pens. Jungfrau ( $719{ }^{\frac{1}{\prime}} ; ~ R ., ~ L ., ~ \& ~ A . ~$ $3-4 \frac{1}{2}$, lunch 3, D. 5, pens. 8-12 fr.), a favourite English resort, and suitable for a stay (English Church Service). From the hotel to the top 2 hrs. more (guide 5 fr ., not needed; horse 7 fr .). The bridle-path ascends in zigzags, then turns to the right, and after $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the left (the path to the right leads to the Märjelen-See; see below). After $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more the bridle-path ends. We ascend by a good footpath and lastly mount steps of rock to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) summit of the *Eggishorn ( $9625^{\prime}$ ), the highest peak of the ridge which separates the Great Aletsch Glacier from the Rhone Valley, with a superb view of the Bernese and the Valaisian Alps (see annexed panorama by Imfeld). We also overlook a great part of the Simplon Route and of the Nicolai-Thal to the S. (p. 343).

Excursions (guides: Joh. Albrecht, Aloys Imhassli, Ed. Mïller, Clem. Eyholzer, A. Schoery, J. Walker, etc.). From the Hôtel Jungfrau a good path leads to the N., at first nearly level and afterwards undulating, skirting the slope above the Fiesch Valley and affording an excellent surver of the beautiful ice-fall of the Fiesch Glacier, and then crosses the Thaelligrat to the left to the Märjelen-See ( $7710^{\prime}$ ), on which floating ice is frequently seen. On the left bank of the Seebach, emerging from the lake, is the ( 2 hrs .) Märjelen-Alp. [The Fiesch Glacier may be visited hence by a path descending to the right to the Stock-Alp.] On the N. side of the Mrarjelen-See a path leads in 25 min . to the margin of the Great Aletsch Glacier. Hence to the new Concordia Pavilion ( 9415 '; hotel) a beautiful glacier-walk of $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. frum the Jungfrail Hotel; guide 10, if spending the night 15 fr .). The pavilion is grandly situated at the foot of the Trugberg. From the hut to the ( 3 hrs .) Jungfrau-Joch (p. 157), with splendid view, not difficult for experts (guide 25 fr .). Ascent of the Jungfrau ( $\hat{0}-7$ hrs.; 60 fr. ), see p. 183; Finsteraarhorn ( 3 hrs ; 60 fr .), p. 199. The Aletschhorn ( $13,720^{\prime}$; guide 50 fr.), the second-highest of the Bernese peaks (first scaled by Mr. F. F. Tuckett in 1859), is ascended either from the Concordia Pavilion (in 7 lirs.) or from the Oberaletsch Hut (p. 320; in $6-7$ hrs.); difficult, for experts only. - The Gross-Grünhorn ( $13,275^{\prime}$; 5 hrs .; difficult); the Gross-Fiescherhorn (13,234'; 5 hrs.; less difficult); and the Trugberg ( $12,90 \pm^{\prime}$; $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$; dificult) may also be ascended from the Concordia Pavilion by experts with able guides.

From the Eggishorn Hotel to Grindelooald over the Mönchjoch, $15-16 \mathrm{hrs}$. (difficult; guide 60 fr .), see p . 183; to the Grimsel Hospice over the Griunhornliicke and Oberaar-Joch, 12 hrs. (guide 40 fr .), see p. 200 (not difficult for adepts with good guides). - From Lauterbrunnen to the Eggishorn by the Lauinenthor, Roththal-Sattel, and Ebneftuh-Joch, see p. 180.

From the Egaishory Hotel viâ the Lötschenlücke to Ried, $13-14$ hrs., a grand though fatiguing glacier-route (guide 40 fr .). We ascend the Aletsch Glacier to the Lötschenlücke ( $10,515^{\prime}$ ), between the Sattelhorn ( $12,290^{\prime}$ ) and the Anengrat ( $11,750^{\prime}$ ), and descend the crevassed Lötschen Glacier to the Fafler-Alp and Ried in the Lötschen-Thal (p. 20s).

From the Eggishorn Hotel to the Riederalp and Belalp (guide, needed only for the passage of the Great Aletsch Glacier, 8 fr., from the Riederalp 5 fr.), $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., a beautiful walk. The bridle-path from the hotel, running nearly at the same level, high above the Rhone Valley, leads over the Bettmer-Alp ( $6415^{\prime}$ ), with its little lake ( $6530^{\prime}$; abounding in fish), and the Goppisberg-Alp, and turns to the right at the cross to the ( $2^{11} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Riederalp ( $6315^{\prime}$; *Hot.-Pens. Riederalp, R., L., \& A. 3, lunch 3, D. $41 / 2$, pens. $71 / 2$ fr.; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer). The beautiful situation and mild climate of this Alp adapt it for a stay. Here we ascend to the right to the ( 25 min .) Rieder Furka ( 6820 '; *Pens. Rieder Furka), whence we may scale the *Riederhorn ( $7343^{\prime} ; 1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), a very fine point of view. (We get nearly the same view by following for 6 min ., in the direction of the glacier, the small path ascending from the Furka on the slope of the Riederhorn.) The Bettmerhorn ( $9400^{\prime}$ ), ascended from the Rieder Furka viâ the Moosfuh ( 7645 ) in $21 / 2-3$ hrs. (guide 6 fr.), is not difficult; experts may go on by the arête towards the Eggishorn, and descend by the Elslücke ( 8950 ') to the Hôtel Jungfrau (a grand but rough route; guide desirable). Descent, with splendid views of the Upper Aletsch or Jägi Glacier, lying between the Sparrhorn and the Fusshörner and overshadowed by the Schienhorn, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Great Aletsch Glacier ( 5185 ), which is safely crossed here in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (with guide; riding impracticable) to Aletschbord; then a steep ascent, past the chalets of Cnter-Aletsch, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hotel Belalp (p. 319). - From the Riederalp to Mörel, $2-21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide, 5 fr., not needed). A bridle-path, at first across pastures, then through wood, makes a long sweep to the right (steep paths to the left to be avoided) and crosses pastures again (very hot about midday), with splendid views of the Rhone Valley, the Simplon Mts., etc. It then descends to Ried ( $3390^{\prime}$ ), a finely situated village, and Mörel (p. 329; from Mörel to the Riederalp $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. porter 5 , horse 10 fr .). - From the Riederalp to Brig vî̂ Oberried, $33 / 4$ hrs. A pleasant wood-path (path to the left, to Ried, to be avoided; see above) descends to (2 hrs.) Oberried (5118'), affording fine views of the Fletschhorn, Mischabel. Weisshorn, and Mte. Leone. Thence a steep zigzag leads through wond to Bitsch (2944') and over meadows to the ( 1 hr .) highroad in the Rhone Valley, which it reaches at the Massa bridge (p. 3:9), 2 M. from $\operatorname{Brig}$ (p. 319).

The Binnen-Thal, which opens to the S.E. of Fiesch, deserves a visit, and is particularly interesting to mineralogists. A good bridle-path (mule to Binn $10-12$, porter $4-5 \mathrm{fr}$.) leads by Aernen and the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Binnegg ( $4440^{\prime}$; small inn), with fine view of the Binnen-Thal and Valais, to Ausses-Binn and through the rocky ravine of the Troingen to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Schmidhöuser or Binn (4720'; *Hôt. Ofenhorn, finely situated, Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer), the chief village of the valley, with an attractive church. Exccrsions (guides, Jos. Welschen and J. J. Gorsat, of Binn; Ad. and Elias Walpen, of Imfeld ; Ed. Kraig, of Aernen). The *Eggerkorn (8202'), by the Meili-Alp in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., is easy and repaying (guide not indispensable). The *Bettlihorn ( 9720 ; $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 10 fr .) is easily ascended from Binn by the Sartisch-Thal and Tanzboden. - Another easy ascent is that of the "Mit!aghorn or Rappenhorn ( 10,37 土 ' $^{\prime} ; 51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 10 fr .), viâ Feldbach and the Rappen Glacier. - *Ofenhorn (Punta d'Arbola; 10,637'), 6-7 hrs. (guide 12 fr .), not difficult for experts. We may either diverge at the Ochsenfeld (see below) from the Albrun Pass route and ascend by the Eggerofen Valley to the Ofenjoch, whence the summit is gained by the S.W. arête; or (preferable) we may ascend from the Hohsand Fass (9603'; easy glacier-pass from Binn to the Tosa Falls, 9 hrs .) by the N. arête. Helsenhorn ( $10.742^{\prime}$ ), by the Ritter. Pass in $61 / 2$ hrs., not difficult (see p. 329). - Hüllehorn $\left(10,450^{\prime}\right)$, by the Mätti-Thal and the Rämi Glacier in 6 hrs ., difiicult, for experts only.

From Bink to Berisal (p. 321) over the Steinen-Joch ( $9153^{\prime}$; 8 hrs.; guide 12 fr .) or nver the Saftisch Pass ( $864 \mathrm{~S}^{\prime} ; 7 \mathrm{hrs}$; 14 fr.$\left.\right)$, two fairly easy routes. With the latter may be combined the ascent of the Bettlihorn (see above).

From Binn over the Albren Pass to Baceno, $81 / 2$ hrs., easy and interesting (guide advisable, 12 fr .). Bridle-path from Binn on the left bank of the Binna, by Giessen, and past the waterfall of the Feldbach, to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Imfeld ( $5145^{\prime}$ ), where the path, now indifferent, crosses to the right bank. We enter ( $1 / \nmid \mathrm{hr}$.) a pine-wood, pass the hamlets of Eggern, Brunnenbiel, Jennigenkeller, and Tschampigenkeller (Keller, cellars for storing the esteemed Binnen-Thal cheese), and reach ( $13 / \mathrm{hr}$.) the huts Auf dem Platt (6925'; chalybeate spring). Then a steep ascent to the right past the last huts in the Ochsenfeld (7200') to the ( 1 hr .) Albrun Pass (Bocchetta d'Arbola, $7910^{\prime}$ ), between the Ofenhorn (see above) on the left and the Albrunhorn ( $9450^{\prime}$ ) on the right. We descend to the ( 1 hr .) Beuli Alp, past the ( 1 hr .) Lago di Codelago ( $8055^{\prime}$ ), and by Crampiolo to ( 1 hr .) Al Ponte ( $6270^{\prime}$; poor inn), near the green basin of the Devero Alp (picturesque cascades of the Devero) and ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Baceno (p. 331). From Al Ponte over the Buscagna Pass and the Valtendra Pass to the Alp Veglia, see p. 321. To the Tosa Falls. From the Albrun Pass we descend to the left to the Forno $A l p$; then over the Scatta Minojo (8520') by a bad path to the Lago di Lebendun (Lago Vannino; 7065'), whence we descend on the left bank of the brook to Zum Steg in the Val Formazza and re-ascend to Auf der Frutt ( 10 hrs . from Binn). In fine weather the route over the Hohsand Pass is preferable (see pp. 328, 331).

From Binn to Baceno over the Geisspfad Pass, 8 hrs ., a fine ronte (guide 15 fr .). At ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Imfeld (p. 328) we diverge to the right to the Messern-Alp (6175') and ascend past the Geisspfad Lake (7975') to the ( 3 hrs .) Geisspfad Pass ( $836 \bar{\sigma}^{\circ}$ ); then cross the rock-strewn plateau to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Bocca Rossa and descend a steep rock-wall into the Val Rossa, to ( $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Al Ponte (p. 328).

From Binn to Baceno over the Kriegalp Pass, 9 hrs ., toilsome and of little interest (guide 15 fr .). From Binn we ascend to the S . through the Längthal to ( 1 hr .) Heiligkreuz (4862') and then to the left through the KriegalpThal to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Kriegalp Pass (Passo di Cornera; 8i65'), between the (1.) Guischihorn (Pizzo Cornera; 10,115') and the (r.) Helsenhorn ( $10,742^{\prime}$; ascent from here difficult, see below). Descent to the Val Buscagna and to ( 2 hrs .) Al Ponte (p. 328).

From Binn to Iselle over the Ritter Pass, $101 / 2$ hrs., trying, but very interesting (guide 15 fr .). We ascend the Längthal (see above) to the S., to the ( 5 hrs .) Ritter Pass (Passo Boccareccio; 8832'), between the (r.) Hüllehorn ( $10,450^{\prime}$ ) and the (1.) Helsenhorn ( $10,742^{\prime}$; easily ascended, with guide, in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from the pass; magnificent panorama). Descent to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) beautifully situated Alp Veglia ( 5500 '; *Alb. del Monte Leone, unpretending) in the Val Cairasca, and by Trasquera to ( 3 hrs .) Iselle (p. 324).

Beyond Fiesch the road descends the fertile valley, passing Aernen on the hill opposite (see p. 32S), to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Lax ( $3425^{\prime}$; Kreuz), with a new church, whence the Eggishorn Inn may be reached in 4 hrs . It then winds down to the bridge of Grengiols (2905'; inn), by which we cross the deep bed of the Rhone. (Good path hence by Grengiols, which lies $390^{\prime}$ higher, in 5 hrs. to Binn, p. 328.) We recross to the right bank by the Kästenbaum Bridge ( $2670^{\prime}$ ), pass through a short rocky ravine, and, after the valley again expands, reach ( $51 / 2$ M.) Mörel ( 2525 '; *Hôt. Eggishorn, R. \& B. $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; Hôt. des Alpes, moderate). - To the Riederalp, 3 hrs., see p. 328.

The river dashes wildly over sharp slate-rocks. On a bold rock below Mörel rises the picturesque ( 1 M .) Hochfluhkirche. We cross the Massa, the discharge of the Great Aletsch Glacier, which issues from a fine gorge $3 / 4$ M. from the road. $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Naters ( $22355^{\prime}$ ), a large village amidst fruit-trees, is commanded by the ruined castles of Weingarten and Supersax. To the right a finger-post indicates the route to the Belalp (p. 319). We then cross the Rhone to (1 M.) the station of -

31 M. Brig, see p. 319.

81. From Ulrichen to Domodossola.

Gries Pass. Falls of the Tosa. Val Formazza.

Comp. Maps, pp. 324, 320.
$15-16 \mathrm{hrs}$. Two days, spending the night at the Tosa Falls. Bridle-path from Ulrichen to the Tosa Falls ( $61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.); thence to Foppiano a rough carttrack ( 3 hrs. ). Gaide ( to the Tosa Falls 15 fr .) not needed in fine weather; otherwise advisable to the other side of the glacier ( 8 fr .) ; essential in the reverse direction (porter 10, horse 20 fr.). - Road from Foppiano to Domodossola, 21 M .; diligence from Crodo to Domodossola daily. One-horse carriage from Foppiano to Domo 20, from Premia 15 fr . (not always to be had). Porter from the Falls to Domodo3sola 6-8 fr.; horse (for which a carriage and harness may generally be had at Foppiano) 30 fr .

At Ulrichen ( 4330 '; p. 325 ) a bridge crosses the Rhone to ( 10 min.$)$ Zum Loch, a group of deserted huts at the entrance to the EginenThal. The path crosses the Eginenbach above a fine waterfall, and leads through larch-wood and a rock-strewn valley to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Alp Hohsand ( $5720^{\prime}$ ). It then ascends a steeper part of the valley, overgrown with alders and rhododendrons, where the brook forms several falls on the left. In front of us rises the Nufenenstock ( $9400^{\prime}$ ). In $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (taking care to avoid the path leading straight on) we cross the brook by the Ladtsteg ( $6340^{\prime}$ ), beyond which are the chalets of Im Ladt. To the right, above us, is the Gries Glacier (see below). Following the right bank of the brook, we then traverse the highest reach of the valley and ascend to ( 20 min .) Altstaffel ( $6585^{\prime}$ ), the last chalet, where the path to the Nufenen Pass diverges to the left (p. 326). A steep ascent of $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more brings us to the level Gries Glacier, which we cross in 20 min ., to the S.W., passing a small glacier-lake on the left and a smaller one on the right. The Gries Pass ( $8070^{\prime}$ ), between the Bettelmattenhorn ( $9800^{\prime}$; right) and the Grieshorn ( $9600^{\prime}$; left), is the boundary between Switzerland and Italy, and in clear weather commands a fine view of the Bernese Alps. (A path, little frequented, leads hence to the N.E. through the Val Corno to All' Acqua in the Val Bedretto, p. 326.)

The S. side of the pass, as usual among the Alps, is steeper than the N. side. The narrow path at first keeps to the left (rich vegetation). The Griesbach rises here, and unites at Kehrbächi (see below) with the Tosa or Toce, descending from the Val Toggia. The upper part of the Val Formazza, or Pommat Valley, consists of three distinct reaches, each with its chalets : Bettelmatt ( 6900 '; two chalets, generally empty) in the highest (the slope below which is called Wallisbächlen), Morast (or Morasco ; 5840') in the second, and Kelrbüchi (or Riale; $5640^{\prime}$ ) and Auf der Frut (Sopra la Frua) in the third, with a small chapel and the unpretending *Albergo della Cascata del Toce ( $5490^{\prime}$; R., L., \& A. $21 / 2-3$, D. $31 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). This inn ( $2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Gries Pass) stands on the brink of a precipice over which the Tosa falls in three cascades. The *Tosa Falls, or Cascata della Frua, $470^{\prime}$ high and $85^{\prime}$ broad, are perhaps the grandest among the Alps, especially when the river is high. (We descend by the bridlepath to the left for $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., to a mass of rock by the wayside, which affords the best survey. A still finer point is beyond the bridge.)

The "Basōdino ( $10,745^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended by good climbers without difficulty from the inn in 4-5 hrs. (the landlord, Ant. Zertanna, acts as guide). Splendid view. Descent to the Val Bavona, see p. 456.

From the Tosa Falls to Airōlo, 8 hrs . (gaide desirable to All Acqua, and necessary in the reverse direction). The bridle-path diverges by the chapel above the falls to the right from the path to the Gries Pass, and after 20 min . crosses the brook descending from the Basodino. It then ascends to the right by the wall (leaving Kehrbächi below to the left), and mounts in steep rigzags to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) npper reach of the sequestered Val Toggia; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., a bridge; 20 min ., chalets Im Moos. (To the right, the Bocchetta di Val Maggia, see below.) The small Fisch-See, well stocked with tront, lies on the right. By the Alp Königin, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. farther on, we recross the brook. In the highest part of the valley we pass another small lake on the right, and reach ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the San Giacomo Pass ( 7570 '), the boundary between Italy and Switzerland (Canton Ticino). Below the pass on the N.E. side stands the ( 20 min .) chapel of San Giacomo ( $7370^{\prime}$ ). In descending we enjoy a beantiful view of the southern St. Gotthard Mts., the Kühbodenhorn, Pizzo Rotondo, Pesciora, Lucendro, etc., and also, for a short time, of the Finsteraarhorn and Fiescherhörner. Farther on (keeping to the left at the first chalet) we descend through a growth of rhododendrons and larch-wood into the valley, where we cross two brooks, and then the Ticino, and reach the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hospice all Acqua (p. 3:6). Thence to Airolo, 3 hrs.

From the Tosa Falls to Bignasco, 9 hrs., with guide, a fine route. By the Fisch-See (see above) we diverge to the right from the San Giacomo path and ascend over debris and rock to the Bocchetta di Val Maggia ( $7710^{\prime}$ ), between the (r.) Kastelhorn and the (1.) Dfarchhor $n$; then descend through the ValFiorina (with the snowy Basodino on the right, see p. 330) to the Alp Robiei, and through the picturesque Val Bavona to Bignasco (p. 456).

From the Tosa Falls to Binn over the Hohsand Pass (a fine glacier expedition, 9 hrs., with guide), or over the Albr'un Pass ( 10 hrs , , with guide), see p. 323 .

Below the Tosa Falls in the Val Formazza (the upper part of which, as far as Foppiano, is German-speaking) are the villages of (1/2 hr.) Frutwald (Canza; 4755'), (10 min.) Gurf (Grovella; 4475'), (1/4 hr.) Zum Steg (Al Ponte; 4200'), with the archives and townhall of the valley, ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pommat (San Michele; $4210^{\prime}$ ), where we cross the bridge (not straight on), and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Andermatten (Alla Chiesa; $4050^{\prime}$ ), with the church of the valley. Below ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Fracchie (opposite Staffelwald, 4000') the path enters a grand *Defile, in which it crosses the Tosa twice. At ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Foppiano ( 3075 ; * Valduga's Inn), the first village where Italian is spoken, the carriage-road begins (vehicles not always to be had; see p.329).

To the Val Maggia (p. 456), a toilsome route and lacking attraction (from Andermatten to Cevio 8 hrs ., with guide): from Slaffelwald a steep ascent of 3 hrs . over the Staffel-Alp to the Criner Furca ( $7920^{\circ}$ '; fine view), between the Marchenspitz ( $8820^{\prime}$ ) and the Wandfuhhorn ( $9380^{\prime}$ ); descent to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Bosco and ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Cevio (p. 456). Guides: Giov. and Luigi Malli of Pommat, C. Lani and Fil. Longhi of Baceno.

The Road follows the right bank to (1 M.) Rivasco (2820'; inn) and (1 M.) Passo (2630'). The valley of the Tosa, called * Val Antigorio below this point, is one of the most beautiful on the S . side of the Alps, and enlivened with waterfalls. $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. San Rocco (Hôt. Veschi, well spoken of); $33 / 4$ M. Premia (2620'; Agnello; Restaurant Antigorio, modest). At (11/2 M.) Baceno (2245'; Alb. Devero, moderate), at the mouth of the Val Devero, a bold bridge spans the deep gorge of the Devero. (From Baceno to Fiesch over the Albrun Pass or the Kriegalp Pass, see pp. 329, 328.) To the W. rises Monte Cistella (9450').

The Italian custom-house is at ( 3 M .) Crodo ( $1650^{\prime}$; inn), below which is ( 1 M .) a 'stabilimento di bagni'. Then by Rencio and the finely situated Oira ('il Giardino dell' Ossola') to ( 6 M. ) Crevolla on the Simplon route, and ( $21 / 4$ M.) -

Abstract

Good walkers on their way from the Lake of Geneva to Zermatt (R. 83) may reach their destination by an interesting mountain-route in 4 days. 1st day. Railway to Sion, and walk through the Val d'Hérens to Evolena, $151 / 2$ M. - 2nd day. Over the Col de Torrent to Vissoye or St. Luc in the Val d'Anniviers, 9-10 hrs. - 3rd day. Viâ St. Luc to the Bella Tola, and across the Pas du Bœuf to Meiden in the Turtmann Valley, $81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. 4 th day. Over the Augstbord Pass to St. Niklaus in the Visp Valley, 6 hrs. (or, including the Schwarzhorn, $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), and thence to Zermatt by rail.

i. From Sion through the Val d'Hérens to Evolena, and over the Col de Torrent to the Val d'Anniviers.

To Evolena (151/2 M.) a post-vehicle with $2-3$ seats runs daily in summer (June 1⿹\zh26th to Sept. 15̃th) $6 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. in 6 hrs . ( $6 \mathrm{fr} .40 \mathrm{c} . ;$ surplus passengers are sent on in open carriages), returning at $1.35 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. in $3 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$. One-horse carr. from Sion to Evolena. 20-25 fr. (carriages from the Evolena hotels sometimes at the station). Porter to Erolena 8, to Arolla 12 fr. From Evolena over the Col de Torrent to Vissoye a bridle-path in 9 hrs . (guide 14 , porter 10 fr .).

Sion, see p. 316. The Evolena road leads from the Rhone bridge ( $1625^{\prime}$ ) direct to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) foot of the hill, which it ascends in long windings. (Short-cut by the old bridle-path.) To the leít, below, lie Bramois and St. Léonard (p. 317), the latter at the mouth of the gorges descending from the Rawyl. Near the old cemetery chapel of (4 M.) Vez (3140'; Inn, rustic) we obtain a view of the head of the valley, first of the Dents de Veisivi and the Pic d'Arzinol, and then of the great Ferpècle Glacier, commanded by the round summit of the Tête Blanche, to the left of which are the Dent Blanche and the Dent d'Hérens. Maize, vines, chestnuts, and walnuts extend as far as Vex.

A bridle-path ascends from Vex to the right, by Presse and Les Agettes, to the ( 1 hr .) Mayens de Sion ( $1267^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*} H \hat{0} \mathrm{t}$. Rosa-Blanche, pens. $6-10 \mathrm{fr}$.; *Pens. des Mayens, 6-8 fr.; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer). a summer-resort of the Sionese, in a beautiful and healthy situation amid the woods, commanding a magnificent view of the chain of the Bernese Alps. A still finer view, especially towards the S., is had from the Créte de Thyon ( $7543^{\prime}$; 3 hrs ; guide 5 fr.). From the Mayens to Hérémence (p. 333), 3/4 br.

The road, nearly level, follows the W. side of the valley, high above the Borgne. The valley divides farther up: W. the Val d'Hérémence (see p. 333), and E. the Val d'Hérens. The road passes the village of Hérémence on the hill to the right, and near ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Sauterot ( $3050^{\prime}$ ) crosses the Dixense, which descends from the Val d'Hérémence. It then penetrates the remains of the terminal moraine of that valley by means of two tunnels. Near the second, where the road re-enters the Val d'Hérens, are a number of *Earth Pyramids, some of them roofed with stones like 'glacier-tables'.

Val d'Hérémence (the upper part called Vallée des Dix). A cart-track leads from Vex (p. 332) to ( 1 hr .) Hérémence ( $405{ }^{5}$ '; quarters at the curés); thence a bridle-path by the hamlets of Ayer, Prolin, Cerise, and Mars to the ( 3 hrs .) Mayens de Prazlong (5275'), at the W. base of the Pic d'Arzinol (see below; over the Col de la Meina to Evolena, 4 hrs.). Farther on, passing the Méribé $A l p$ (1.), we ascend a ravine to the upper part of the valley, called La Barma, with the Alp of that name and a new inn (S095'; thence over the Col du Crêt to Fionney, see p. 314). Beyond the chalets of Lautaret we next reach ( 3 hrs .) the Seilon $A l p$ ( 7455 '), opposite which, on the left bank of the Dixenze, is the Liappey Alp ( 7630 '; good quarters). From Liappey over the Col de Riedmatten or the Pas de Chevres to Arolla (Evolena), see p. 335; over the Cols de Fasevay, de Seilon, du Mont-Rouge, and de Breney to the Val de Bagnes, see p. 315. The *Pigne d'Arolla $\left(12,470^{\prime}\right)$ is best ascended from this point over the Glacier de Durand and the Col de Breney (comp. pp. 315, 334).

We next reach (1 M.) Useigne (3182'; wine at the post-station), prettily situated. High above, on the opposite bank, is the church of St. Martin ( $45500^{\prime}$ ). Beyond ( $11 / 2$ M.) the hamlet of La Luette ( $3345^{\prime}$ ) the road crosses the Borgne. (Near the Chalets de Praz-Jean, higher up, is the old bridge of the bridle-path.) We ascend on the right bank, below the small chapel of La Garde, to ( 5 M .) -

Evolena (4520'; *Hôt.-Pens. de la Dent Blanche, R., L., & A. from 3, B. $11 / 2$, lunch 3, D. 4, pens. 6-8 fr.; Gr.-Hôt. d'Evolène, R. 3-4, B. $1^{1} / 2$, lunch 3, D. 4, pens. 7-10 fr.; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer), the capital of the valley, in a broad green dale flanked with pine-clad rocks. On the E. rises the Sasseneire, on the W. the Mont de l'Etoile and Pic d'Arzinol, and at the head of the valley the Dents de Veisivi. On the left, high above, are the snow-fields of the Ferpècle Glacier and the huge Dent Blanche; to the N., beyond the Rhone valley, the large Zanfleuron Glacier, with the Oldenhorn (p. 264) behind it. The natives, especially the women, wear picturesque costumes on Sundays.

Excersions. (Guides: Jean and Pierre Maître, Jos. Quinodoz, Pierre and Jean Beytrison, Ant. Borier, Jean-Bapt. and Jos. Métrailler, Jos., Maur., and Pierre Gaspoz, J. and M. Vuignier, M. Pralong, M. Chevrier, etc.) Pleasant walk (shade early in the morning) to Villa, returning viâ La Sage ( $21 / 4-21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.). About 12 min . to the S . of Evolena we diverge to the left from the road to Handeres ( p .334 ) and ascend a steep footpath to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Villa ( $5655{ }^{\prime}$; fine view); before reaching the ( 2 min .) village-fountain we turn to the right (the path to the left leads to the Col de Torrent, see p. 337) and in 5 min . to the right again; 20 min . La Suge ( $5452^{\prime}$ ); descend to the right at the church (to the left to Forclaz, p. 336); 5 min. to the right again; 20 min . carriage-road; 22 min . Erolena. - ${ }^{*}$ Sasseneire (10,693'; guide 10 fr.$), 5 \mathrm{hrs}$. , see p. 337 . The Couronne de Bréonna ( $10,380^{\prime}$; $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 12 fr. ), viâ La Sage and Alp Bréonna, is also interesting. Becs de Bosson ( $10,34 \mathrm{~S}^{\prime}$; guide 15 fr. ), 6 hrs ., see p. 337.
W. side: The Alpe de Niva ( $6625^{\prime}$ ), 2 hrs ; superb survey of Ferpècle and Arolla. - The Pic d'Arzinol (9845'; guide, 10 fr., desirable), ascended by the Col de la Meina in $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$., is very interesting and not difficalt. Below Evolena we cross the Borgne, ascend to the left through wood (avoiding the path to the right to Lanna, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.), and cross ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Merdesson, the discharge of the Glacier de Vouasson, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alpe de Vouasson (6850'). Thence we ascend pastares (keeping to the right) to the ( $2 \mathrm{hrs}. \mathrm{)} \mathrm{Col} \mathrm{de} \mathrm{la} \mathrm{Meina} \mathrm{or} \mathrm{Col} \mathrm{de} \mathrm{Méribé} \mathrm{( } \mathrm{8878}^{\prime}$; to the Val d'Hérémence, see above). Leaving the col on the left, we mount a rocky arête to the right to the top ( 1 hr .). Magnificent panorama, especially to the S. (Mont Blanc, Aiguille Verte, Grand Combin, Mont Vélan, Matterhorn, Weisshorn), and to the N. of the Bernese Alps. - Mont de r'Etoile ( $11,065^{\prime}$; guide 12 fr .), by the alps Niva and Creta in 6 hrs. , nct difficult for adepts; so also the Pointe de Vouasson (11.470'; guide 18 fr .), $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$. , whence we may descend the Glacier des Aiguilles Rouges to the Alp Lucel (see below) and Arolla.

The Val d'Hérens divides at Haudères (4747'; Hôt. du Mont Collon, pens. $0-6 \mathrm{fr}$.), 1 hr . to the S . of Evolena: the W. branch is the Combe d'Arolla, the E. branch the Comle de Ferpècle.
(a.) *Arolla. The bridle-path (from Evolena to Arolla $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; horse or mule 8 , there and back 10 fr .) crosses the Ferpècle at ( 1 br. ) Haudères, turns to the right, and crosses the Borgne to Pralovin. It then ascends the W. slope of the valley, overlooking the wild ravine, and through wood to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Chapel of St. Barthélemi (59€0'), by a huge rock. We next ascend gradually, following the telegraph-poles, past the chalets of Gouille, Satarma, Praz Mousse, and La Montaz, to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of Arolla ( 6570 ; *Hôt. du Mont Collon, pens. 7-8 fr. ; *Curhaus Arolla, 10 min . higher up, also reached by a direct path from near Satarma; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer), amid stone-pines ('Arolla' or 'Alpine cedar'), splendidly situated opposite the grand pyramid of Mont Collon ( 11,955 ) , at the base of which the Glaciers d'Arolla (r.) and de Vuibez (1.) unite. To the right rise the rocks of the Serra de Vuibez $\left(10,150^{\prime}\right)$ and the snow-clad Pigne d'Arolla (12,470), and close to the inn is the old moraine of the Glacier de Zigiorenove, which is again beginning to advance.

Excursions (guides, see p. 333; toriff reckoned from Arolla). To the Lac Bleu de Lucel, a pleasant walk, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (or from Evolena 3 hrs ; withont guide). At Satarma, 50 min . frcm Arolla, a steep ascent to the left (N.W.) to the chalets of Lucel ( $6820^{\prime}$ ), just beyond which is the crystalclear little lake, fed by a brook falling from the rocks. Superb view of Mt. Collon; to the W. tower the Aiguilles Rouges ( $11,9 \mathrm{~T}^{\prime}$ ); to the left is the Cascade des Ignes, issuing from the Glacier des Ignes.

The Roussette ( $10,700^{\prime}$; guide 10 fr .), round the W. slope of Mt. Dolin in 3 hrs ,, or from the W. viâ the chalets of Prazgras and the Glacier des Ignes in 4 brs ., not difficult; view very attractive. - The ${ }^{\text {ePigre d'Arolla }}$ ( $12,470^{\prime} ; 6-7$ hrs.; guide 25 , with descent to Chanrion 35 , to 3 auvoisin 40 fr .) is ascended by the Glacice de Pièce and the Ccr de la Vuignette ( $10,334^{\prime}$ ); very grand and not difficult for experts; comp. pp. 315, 393. - The Aiguille de la Za ( $12.050^{\prime} ; 41 / 2-51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), an interesting ascent for experts, with good guide ( $25-30 \mathrm{fr}$ ), is made either direct frem the W., by the Glacier. de la $Z a$ (step-cutting f(r 2-3 hrs.), or from the S. by the Glacier and $\boldsymbol{N}$. Col de Bertol. Either route brings ns in $41 / 2-5$ hrs. to the foot of the last peak; lastly $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. of steep reck-climbing. Descent only by the Glacier de Bertol. - The Grande Dent ( 11,237 '; guide 20 fr .), one of the Dents de Veisivi, may be scaled by experts without seriovs difficulty viâ the $A l p$ and Col de Zarmine or de Veisizi $(10,045)$. The Petite Dent $\left(10,465^{\prime} ; 15 \mathrm{fr}\right.$.) is more difficult. - The Mont Collon ( $11,95^{5}$ '; guide 40 fr .), best ascended from the $W$. side (Col de Chermontane), is only fit for adepts with steady heads; so also the Eveque ( $12,2\left(5^{\prime} ; 25\right.$ fr.), rising to the S. of Mit. Collon. - The Dent Perroc (N. peak $11,990^{\prime} ; 35 \mathrm{fr}$.; S. peak or Pointe des Generois 12,070; 30 fr .) and the Dent des Bouquetins (central peak 12,625'; 50 fr .) involve difficult climhing but have been materially facilita'ed by the erection of the Cabane de Neuchatel on the $\mathbb{S}$. Col de Bertol (p. 335). (I his hut is a'so usf ful for the Aig. de la Za, Dent Blanche, and other ascents.)

Passes. To the Val Pellina over the Col de Collon, a grand ronte and not difficult ( $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Arolla to Prarayé; two guides, 25 fr. each). We ascend the Glacier d'Arolla, skirting the E. base of the almost perpendicular rocks of Mt. Collon, noted for their echoes, to the snow-basin of $Z a-d e-Z a n$ and the ( 4 hrs .) Col de Collon ( $10,270^{\circ}$ ), to the S.E. of the Evêque (p.334). View grand, but not extensive. Descent on the W. slope of the Becca Vannetta (11,055') to the profound Combe d'Oren and ( $3 \mathrm{hrs}. \mathrm{)} \mathrm{Praraye} \mathrm{( } \mathrm{6540}^{\prime}$; small inn, 6 beds), grandly situated in the upper Fal Pellina, and in 3 hrs . more (bridle-path) to Bionaz ( 5250 '; beds at the curés), and thence viâ ( 1 hr .) Oyace ( $44 \& 5^{\prime}$; cantine) to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Valpelline (p. 316). (Passes from the Val Pellina to the Val St. Barthélemy, see p. 305.) Those who cross in the reverse direction should bring provisions; good guides not easily found at Aosta, but a peasant who knows the pass may be found at Bionaz. From Prarayé to the col $31 / 2-4$, descent to Arolla $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$. - From the basin of $Z a-d e$ Zan (see above) we may ascend to the lett (steep) to the S. Col du Mont Brule or the Col de Za-de-Zan ( $11,660^{\prime}$ ), to the N.E. of Mont Brale ( $11,880^{\prime}$ ); descent, steep and difficult, to the Glacier de Za-de-Zan (see below) and Prorayé.

To the Val d'Heremence from Arolla, two passes, close together: the Col de Riedmatten ( $9567^{\prime} ; 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. to Liappey), and to the S. of it the Pas de Chèvres (9355'; $31 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Arolla; rather more difficult; guide 20 fr .). From the latter we descend steep rocks and over the Glacier de Durand or Seilon (keware of numerous concealed crevasses) to the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) chalets of Seilon (7455'), opposite Liappey (p.333). (The Riedmatten route does not touch the glacier, but leads over the slopes of debris and turf on its right side.) Then down the Vallée des Dix to ( $4^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Hérémence, see p. 333. Or, from the Durand or Seilon Glacier (see above) we may ascend to the Col de Seilon ( $10,665^{\prime} ; 41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Arolla ; p. 315), and then either descend the Glacier de Giélroz to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Mauvoisin (p. 314 ; guide $2 \overline{\mathrm{j}} \mathrm{fr}$.), or cross the Col du Mont Rouge (10,960') and descend the Glacier de Lyrerose to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Chanrion (p. 315 ; guide 25 fr .).

To Chanrion over the Col de Chermontane, $71 / 2-8 \mathrm{hrs}$, a amewhat dull glacier-route (guide 25 fr .). We ascend the Glacier de Pièce or Torgnon, to tle Col de la Vuignette $\left(10,334^{\prime}\right)$, at the E. base of the Pigne d'Arolla ( p .33 J ); then by the Glacier de Vuibez to the Col de Chermontane ( $10,120^{\prime}$ ), between the Petit Mt. Collon $(11,630$ ') and the Pigne d'Arolla. Striking view. Descent across the vast snow-fields of the Glacier d'Otemma to Chanrion (p. 315). - A similar pass is the Col de l'Evéque (11,485'; $81 / 2-9 \mathrm{hrs}$. to Chanrion; guide 30 fr .). Over the Glacier d'Avolla to the ( 4 hrs .) Col de Collon, see above; here we ascend to the right to the ( 1 hr .) Col de l' Evêque (11,130'), lying to the S.W. of the Evêque (p. 334), cross a snow-arête between the (1.) Sengla (12,155') and the (r.) Petit Mont Collon (see above) to the Glacier d'olemma, and descend as above to ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Chanrion.

To Zermatt over the Col de Bertol and the Col d'Herens, $10-11 \mathrm{hrs}$, fatiguing but repaying (guide 30 fr .). A new path ascends along the left side of the valley above the Arolla Glacier, $t h \in n$ crosses the glacier obliquely, and ascends in eacy zigzags to the ( $2^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Plan de Bertol ( $\varepsilon 580^{\prime}$ ), whence we climb to the left over rocks and the steep Glacier de Bertol to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) S. Col de Bertol ( $11,200^{\prime}$ ), with the Cabane de Neuchitel ( $11,155^{\prime}$; see p. 334). We then cross the vast snow-fields of the Glaciers du Mont Miné and de Ferpècle, past the Tête Blanche (which takes $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more to ascend; see below), to the Col d'Hérens (p. 336). - Over the Col du Mont Brôle and the Col de Valpelline, another grand route, $11-12 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 40 fr .). We follow the Col de Collon route to the basin of $Z \alpha-d e-Z a n$, ascend steefly to the left to the N. Col du Mont Brúlé ( $10,000^{\prime}$ ), cross the crevassed upper Zo-de-Zan Glacier (passing on the left the Col des Bouquetins, p. 337), and mount laborionsly to the Col de Valpelline ( $11,685^{\prime}$ ), between the Tête Blanche ( $12,304^{\prime}$; ascended from the col in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; splendid view) and the Tête de Valpelline $\left(12,510^{\prime}\right)$. Then down the Slock Glacier to the Slockje (p. 33j).
(b.) *Terpècle. (Bridle-path, $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Erolena; horse or mule 8 , there and back 10 fr .) At ( 1 hr .) Haudères, by the third house, before the bridge ( p .334 ), we diverge to the left, ascend gradually, then more rapidly, passing four, and beyond them six chalets. Beyond the next rocky height we ascend to the left to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Sepey ( 5580 '), where the bridle-path from Evolena viâ La Sage and Forclaz (see p. $333 ; 1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. longer, but finer) joins ours on the left. The imposing head of the valley (Glacier de Ferpècle and Dent Blanche) is now revealed, the view being finest from the chalets of Prazfleuri, the second group beyond Sepey. Then through wood to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the chalets of Salay or Ferpècle (5910'; Hôt. du Col d'Hérens, R., L., \& A. $2 \frac{1}{2}-3$, B. $1 \frac{1}{2}$, lunch $21 / 2$, D. 3, pens. $6^{1 / 2}-7$ fr.), splendidly situated opposite the Mont Miné and Ferpècle Glaciers.

Just above the inn a narrow path ascends to the left through larchwood and over debris and pastures to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) "Alp Bricolla ( $7960^{\prime}$ ), a superb point of view. At our feet lies the huge Ferpècle Glacier, overtopped by the snow-clad Wandfuh; to the left rise the huge Dent Blanche and the Grand Cornier. To the right, separated from the Ferpecle Glacier by Mont Miné, is the Glacier du Mont Miné, with the Dents de Bertol, Aiguille de la Za, and Dents de Veisivi.

Ascevts. Dents de Veisivi (Grande Dent, 11,237', viâ the Col de Zarmine in $5^{1} / 2_{2}-5 \mathrm{hrs}$., not difficult for experts: Petite Dent, $11,465^{\prime}, 6^{1 / 2}-7$ lirs., difficult, see p. 331). - Pointe de Ericolla ( 12,017 '; $6-7$ hrs. ; $3 \bar{J}$ fr.), viầ the Col de la Pointe de Bricolla (see below), trying but remunerative. - Grand Cornier ( $13,00^{\prime} 0^{\prime}$ ), from Ferpecle by the Col de la Pointe de Bricolla and the W. arête in $7-8$ hrs., toilsome, but without danger (guide 3), with descent to Mountet 45 fr .). The route from the Col du Grand Cornier (see below) riâ the S. arête is much longer and more diff cult. - Dent Blanche ( 14,318 '; 10-12 hrs. trom Ferpecle; guide 80 fr.), very difficult viâ the W. arête; better by the Ferpecle Glacier to the S. end of the Wandfuhgrat, then up this and the S. arête. The ascent is easier from Arolla, with a night spent in the Neuchâtel Hut (p. 335; 6-8 hrs., in all 11-12 hrs.; guide 80 fr.).

Passes. To Zinal over the Col du Grand Cornier, $10-11$ hrs., not very difficult (guide 30 fr .). Beyond ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Bricolla (see above) we turn to the E. to the Glacier de la Dent Blanche, and ascend it rapidly to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Col du Grand Cornier (marked Col de la Dent Blanche on the Siegfried map; $11,628^{\prime}$ ), between the Dent Blanche and the Grand Cornier. We descend to the right, along the arête and over teep snow-slopes, passing the Roc Noir, to the ( $21 / 2$ hrs.) Mountet Club Hut (p. 339) and ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Zinal (p. 339). - Over the Col de la Pointe de Bricolla, 10 hrs. to Zinal (guide 35 fr .), fatiguing. From ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Bricolla (see above) we ascend to the N.E. across the Glacier de Bricolla and over steep rocks, partly covered with ice, to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Col de la Pointe de Bricolla . (about $11,800^{\prime}$; splendid view), immediately to the E. of the Pointe de Bricolla ( $12,015^{\prime}$ ). We descend across the Glacier de Moiry, and by the Col de l'Allée and the Alp de l'Allée to ( 5 hrs .) Zinal. With this excursion may be easily combined the ascents of the Pte. de Bricolla, the Grand Cornier (see above), the Bouquetin ( $11,430^{\prime}$ ), and the Pigne de l'Allee $\left(11,168^{\prime}\right)$. - Over the Col de Couronne and the Col de l'Allee, see p. 339.

To Zermatt over the Col d'Herens, $11-12$ hrs., fatiguing (guide 30 fr.). From ( $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$.) Bricolla in 1 hr . to the Ferpècle Glacier, which we ascend, passing to the E. of the rocky Mottarotta ( $10,740^{\prime}$ ), to the ( 3 hrs .) Col d'Hérens ( $11,418^{\prime}$ ), between the Wandffuh and the Tête Blanche ( $12,304^{\prime}$; easily ascended from the pass in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; grand view; we may descend to the Col de Valpelline, and regain the Zermatt route at the Stockje; this adds $11 / 4$ $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the route; see p. 335 , Col de Valpelline). To the E. towers the stupendous Matterhorn. From the pass we descend steep rocks and the crevassed Stock Glacier to the ( 1 hr .) Stockje ( $9052^{\prime}$ ), a rocky island at the head of the Zmutt Glacier, between the Stock Glacier (left) and the Tiefenmatten Glacier (right). The club-hut was destroyed in 1891. We descend the stone-covered $Z$ mutt Glacier, and regain a firm footing at the ( 4 hrs .) Staffel Inn (p. 348). Thence to Zermatt, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.

To Praraye over the Col des Buvquetins ( $10-11$ hrs.; guide 35 fr .), also fatiguing. Either by the Col d'Hérens route (p. 336), or by the left moraine along the Mont Miné, we ascend to the upper Mont-Miné Glacier, and to the right to the Col des Bouquetins ( $11,210^{\prime}$ ), immediately to the E. of the Dent des Bouquetins (12,625'). Descent over the Glacier de Za-de-Zan to Prarayé ( p .335 ).

From Evolena to Vissoyb over the Col db Torrent, bridlepath, 9 hrs. (guide, desirable, 14, horse 25 fr .). Walkers ascend direct to ( 1 hr .) Villa (p.333). Riders follow the road to ( 22 min . from Evolena) a tall wooden cross, at which the bridle-path diverges to the left. 40 min . La Sage ( $5482^{\prime}$ ), where we turn to the left just above the church; $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. Villa $\left(5645^{\prime}\right)$, where we turn to the right a few yards beyond the fountain. We next ascend the Alp Cotter in long zigzags, and then across slate-debris, to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) * Col de Torrent (9593'), to the S. of the Sasseneire (see below). Splendid view of the Val d'Hérens and the grand moontains encircling it (from right to left: Pointe de Vouasson, Aiguilles Rouges, Mt. Pleureur, Mt. Blanc de Seilon, Serpentine, Pigne d'Arolla, Dents de Veisivi, Dents de Bertol, Mont Miné, Tête Blanche, etc.).

The *Sasseneire ( $10,693^{\prime}$ ), 1 hr . from the col (guide desirable), affords a magnificent panorama: to the N. the Jura appears like a blue line beyond the Col de Cheville (p. 269); to the S. the attention is chiefly arrested by the Dent Blanche, which is not visible from the col.

To the N. of the Sasseneire another attractive route crosses the Pas de Lona (9075') to the Val d'Anniviers (from Evolena to Vissoye 8 hrs .; guide 15 fr.$)$. The Becs de Bosson ( $10,348^{\prime}$; superb view) may be ascended from the pass in $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (with guide). - Col du Zaté and Col de Bréonna, see p. 340 .

The path descends in long windings, passing the N. side of the little Lac de Zozanne ( $8870^{\prime}$ ), in full view of the lofty range between the Anniviers and Nicolai valleys (Ober-Gabelhorn, Trifthorn, Rothhorn, Weisshorn, Brunnegghorn, Diablons), to the Torrent-Alp ( $7940^{\prime}$ ) and the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of Zatelet-Praz ( $7085^{\prime}$ ), in the Val de Moiry or Val de Tovrent, watered by the Gougra.

Zinal (p. 339) may be reached from this point in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (instead of by the usual route viâ Grimentz, see below) by remounting the E. slope of the valley and crossing the Col de Sorebois (9269'). From the *Corne de Sorebois $\left(9590^{\prime}\right), 1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N . of the pass, we obtain a splendid view of the Weisshorn, Zinal-Rothhorn, Gabelhorn, Grand Cornier, Dent Blanche, etc. Descent by an easy path to the right, or (shorter, with guide) direct, finally through wood, to Zinal.

We now traverse a level and monotonous valley, and descend a rocky defile to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Grimentz ( $5150^{\prime} ; ~ p .338$ ). Thence viâ St. Jean to ( 1 hr. ) the bridge over the Navigenze ( $3743^{\prime}$ ) and to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Vissoye (p. 338). - From Grimentz to (2 hrs.) Zinal, see p. 338.
ii. From Sierre through the Val d'Anniviers to Zinal.

Road to ( 11 M .) Vissoye (diligence daily at $6 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. in $3^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$., 6 fr .); horse 10, one-horse carr. 12 fr . thence mule-path to ( $61 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Zinal.

Sierre, p. 317. We follow the road, to the E., to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. Rhone Bridge ( $1775^{\prime}$ ), and $1 / 2$ M. beyond it we diverge to the right and ascend rapidly through wood. Below, to the right, lies Chippis, at the influx of the Navigenze into the Rhone. After an ascent of $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. we enter the Val d'Anniviers (Ger. Einfisch-Thal; 3050'), with the deep, inaccessible gorge of the Navigenze to the right. To the S. the beautiful snow-mountains enclosing the valley, the Zinal-Rothhorn, Trifthorn, Besso, Dent Blanche, etc., are gradually revealed. Beyond ( $1 \frac{1}{4}$ M.) Niouc (Cantine des Alpes, dear) the road is carried by galleries across the two wild ravines of the Pontis.

A direct route to Niouc for walkers diverges to the right beyond the Sierre station, passes under the railway-embankment, and crosses a hill to the new Rhone bridge and ( 20 min .) Chippis. Beyond the second house we turn to the left and cross the Navigenze; then, leaving the church to the left, a narrow path following the telegraph-wires, frequently crossing the road, and at length uniting with it, leads us to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Niouc.

A path, diverging to the left beyond the first gorge (see above), leads from Nionc by Sussillon ( $4545^{\prime}$ ) in 3 hrs . to the village of Chandolin ( $6340^{\prime}$; *Hôt. Bella Vista; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer), in a lofty but sheltered situation (extensive woods near), commanding a beautiful view of the Val d'Anniviers, the Rhone Valley, and the Bernese Alps. From Chandolin a good path throngh pine-forest, with beantifnl views, descends to St. Luc in 1 hr . - Pleasant walk, for the most part through wood, from Chandolin to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Plaine Ste. Madeleine ( $6608^{\prime}$ ), situated on the margin of the huge Illgraben (p. 318), high above the Rhone Valley. - The "Illhorn ( 8935 '), which overlooks the Illgraben, the Rhone Valley, and the Bernese and Valaisian Alps, is easily ascended from Chandolin in $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$.

To the right below the road ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) is the prettily situated village of Fang. (Travellers bound for St. Luc take the bridle-path to the left, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. farther on; to St. Luc $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; see p. 340.) The road follows the valley, crossing several small ravines. On the opposite slope lies Painsec. - 3 M. - 11 M. Vissoye (4006'; *Hôt.-Pens. d'Anniviers, R. 21/2, D. 4, pens. 6-8 fr.; *Hôt. des Alpes, pens. 6 fr.), the capital of the valley, on a hill on the right bank of the Navigenze, with a handsome church.

Pleasant walk over the Navigenze (see p. 337), and then to the left, to St. Jean and ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Grimentz ( $\left(150^{\prime}\right.$; *Hot.-Pens. des Becs de Bosson, pens. 5 fr.), a prettily situated village, well adapted for a sojourn. The ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Signal affords a fine view of the entire Val d'Anniviers, extending on the S. to the Diablons, Weisshorn, and Rothhorn. Pleasant excursions may be made to the Corne de Sorebois ( $9590^{\prime}$; $3^{11 / 2}$ hrs.; guide); Roc d'Orzival ( $9288^{\prime}$; 3 hrs.; guide) ; Glacier de Moiry ( 4 hrs .); and Becs de Bosson ( $10,348^{\prime}$; 5 hrs.; guide). Over the Col de Torrent (Sasseneire) or the Pas de Lona to Evolena, see p. 337. - To Zinal ( 2 hrs.). The path, most of which is shady, descends to the left at the church of Grimentz, crosses the turbulent Gougra (waterfalls), and traverses woods of larch and fir, at first along an irrigation ditch and then on the left bank of the Navigenze. After $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. it joins the main route from Vissoye to Zinal ( p . 339).

Another attractive walk ascends from the Navigenze hridge (see above) to the right, by Muyoux and Frasse, to (1 hr.) Painsec (4297), a picturesquely situated village, with a fine view of the snow-mountains above Zinal. A good path leads thence to the N. to ( 2 hrs .) Vercorins ( $4400^{\prime}$ ), with a view of the mountains to the $\mathbf{N}$. of the Rhone Valley, and then down to Chippis (see above) and (2 hrs.) Sierre (p. 317).

About $2 \frac{1}{2}-3$ hrs. above Vissoye (bridle-path, diverging to the left at the upper end of the village from the Zinal route, beyond the bridge over the Bella Tola brook, and ascending mostly through wood) is the "Hotel Weisshorn (7694'; R., L., \& A. 4, lunch 31/2, D. 4, pens. 7-10 fr.; Engl. Ch. Scrv. in Aug.), in an open situation on the Tête à Fayaz, a spur of the Rochers de Nava, with View and rich flora. Excursions may be taken to the Pointe de Nava ( $9090^{\prime} ; 1^{1 / 4} \mathbf{h r}$ ) ; to the Pte. Tounot ( $9915^{\prime} ; 21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.); to the Lac de Tounot (8726'; 11/2 hr.); to the Pas de Forcletta (p. 342; 2 hrs .); to the Meiden Pass (p. 341 ; 2 hrs .); to the Bella Tola (p. 341 ; 3 hrs.), etc.

St. Luc (steep ascent of $1-11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from Vissoye), see p. 341 ; thence to the Hôtel Weisshorn $13 / 4-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. To Evolena over the Col de Torrent ( $9^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 14 fr.), see p. 337.

Beyond Vissoye the bridle-path crosses the brook descending from the Bella Tola (to the left diverges the path to the Hôtel Weisshorn, see p. 338) and leads viâ Quimet to ( $35^{5}$ min.) Mission (4288 ${ }^{\prime}$ ), with a curious chapel, at the mouth of the Val de Moiry (p. 337), and ( 20 min .) Ayer ( $4870^{\prime}$; Restaurant du Rothhorn), with deserted nickel-mines. (To St. Luc, see p. 340.) The path ascends a little, crosses a torrent, and traverses ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a stony chaos, the scene of a landslip. It then ( 7 min .) crosses the Navigenze, passes a chapel on the left bank, recrosses by the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) second bridge to the right bank, and reaches ( 20 min .) -

61/4 M. Zinal (5505'; * Gr.-Hôt. des Diablons, R. & L. 21/2-3, B. 11/2, D. 4, pens. 6-8 fr. ; *Hôt.-Pens. Durand, pens. 5-7 fr.; *Hôt. du Besso, R. $2^{1 / 2}-3$, D. 3, pens. $5-7$ fr. ; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer). The valley ends towards the S. in the Durand or Zinal Glacier.

Excorsions (guides: Elie and Joachim Peter, Elie Cotter, Joseph Monnet, Jean-Bapt., Daniel, and Pierie Epiney, etc.). The *Alpe de l'Allée (7180'), to the W., above the lower end of the glacier, 2 hrs. from Zinal (gnide, 5 fr., unnecessary), commands a noble survey of the head of the valley, from the Dent Blanche to the Weisshorn, and of the glaciers of Durand and Moming, separated by the graceful double-peaked pyramid of the Besso (12,058'). After $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. we cross to the left bank, and traverse pastures, past the chalets of Barma; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., fragments of rock, where we ascend gradually; 20 min., a ravine with a waterfall above; 3 min ., a stone hut on the first mountain-terrace. Then a rather steep ascent to the right; $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., to the left; 10 min., chalet.

The Alpe d'Arpitetta (7420'), opposite the Alpe de l'Allée, to the E., affords an even finer view, particularly of the Weisshorn, the Moming Glacier, and the Rothhorn. We follow the path to the Alpe de l'Allée as far as the stone hat mentioned above; beyond it we take the path to the left, cross the terminal moraine of the Durand Glacier, and ascend to the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) chalets. - A still more imposing and complete view is gained from the ${ }^{}$ Roc de la Vache ( $8488^{\prime}$ ), ascended from the Alp in 1 hr . (guide 6 fr .). The descent may be made to Zinal viâ the Tracuit Alp in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (better in the reverse direction). - Good walkers should extend the excursion up the Durand Glacier to the Constantia Club Hut or Cabane du Mountet (9475'; inn in summer), at the S. base of the Besso ( 4 hrs . from Zinal; guide 10 fr .), overlooking the grand amphitheatre of the glacier, encircled by the Rothhorn, Trifthorn, Gabelhorn, Dent Blanche, Grand Cornier, and Bouquetin. The view is still grander from the Roc Noir ( $10,263^{1}$ ), rising from the icc opposite the Mountet, reached in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the club-hat (guide from Zinal 12 fr .).

Ascents. The *Corne de Sorebois (9590'), from Zinal in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide ( 6 fr.), easy and attractive, see p. 337. A much finer monntain-view is obtained from the Garde de Bordon ( $10,880^{\prime}$ ), reached in $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Corne de Sorebois viâ the arête, for adepts only (guide 12 fr .). The ascent direct from Zinal is very steep. - Pointe d'Arpitetta ( $10,300^{\prime}$ ), from the Alp Arpitetta 3 hrs . (guide 10 fr. ), laborious. - Besso (Obéclie; 12,058'), rather steep and toilsome, for experts only ( $3-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the - Mountet Clab Hut; guide 30 fr. ); view exceedingly grand. - Pigne de l'Allée ( 11,168 '), from Zinal by the $A l p$ de l'Allee in $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 15 fr .), and Bouquetin ( $11,430^{\prime}$ ), from Zinal over the Col de l'Allee and the Glacier de Moiry in 7 hrs . ( 20 fr.), neither very difficalt. - Diablons ( $11,828^{\prime}$; 12-15 fr.), by the Alp Tracuit in 6 hrs . ( 15 fr. ), laborious. - Grand Cornier ( $13,020^{\prime}$; 50 fr .), from the Mountet Club Hut by the E. arête in 5-6 hirs., the last part difficult (p. 336). - Zinal-Rothhorn or Moming ( $13,855^{\prime} ; 80 \mathrm{fr}$.), a difficult and hazardous climb (from the Mountet Club Hut over the Col du Blanc, $12,080^{\prime}$, and the N.W. arête, or over the W. flank and the S.W. arête in $6-7$ hrs.). - Ober-Gabelhorn ( $13,365^{\prime} ; 70 \mathrm{fr}$.), from the Mountet Club Hut by the $W$. arête in $5^{1} / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$., also very difficult. Comp. p. 350 . - Dent Blanche ( $14,318^{\prime}$ ), by the E. arềte in 10 hrs . (guide 100 fr.), very hazardous and difficult (pp. 336, 351).

Passes. To Evolena over the Col de Sorebois and Col de Torrent, see p. 337 ; by the Col du Grand Cornier and the Col de la Pointe de Bricolla, sce p. 336 ; by the Pas de Lona, see p. 337. - Over the Col de l'Alléb and the Col de Couronne, $10-11 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 20 fr .), trying, fit for adepts only. From the Alp de l'Allée we ascend steep grassy and rocky slopes to the Col de l'Allee ( $10,485^{\prime}$ ). Descent to the Glacier de Moiry, and another steep ascent to the Col de Couronne (9895'), between the Couronne de Breonna and the $Z a$ de l'Ano. Then a steep descent to the Alp Dreonna, and by $L a$ Sage to Evolena (p. 333). - Instead of the Col de Couronne we may cross the Col de Bréonna ( $9575^{\prime}$ '), lying to the N., between the Couronne de Bréonna and the Serra Neire, or the Col du Zaté ( 9433 '), between the Serra Neire and the Pointe $d u$ Zaté (both toilsome).

To Meiden in the Turtmann Valley over the Pas de Forcletta or the Col de Tracuit (des Diablons), see p. 342.

To Zermatt over the Triftjoch, $11-12 \mathrm{hrs}$., trying and difficult; for steady climbers only (guide 30 fr .). From the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Mountet Hut (p. 317) we traverse the Durand Glacier, to the E., to the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) foot of the precipitous rocks of the Trifthorn (12,260'), and clamber up, at first with the aid of an iron chain, and then along narrow ledges of rock and through perpendicular couloirs. The ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Triftjoch ( $11,615^{\prime}$ ), between the Trifthorn and the Wellenkuppe $\left(12,830^{\prime}\right)$, affords a striking view of Monte Rosa and the Mischabel. Then down the Trift Glacier and its huge moraine to ( 4 hrs .) Zermatl (p. 344).

To Zermatt over the Col Derand, $12-13 \mathrm{hrs}$., also difficult (guide 35 fr.). From the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Mountet Club Hut we ascend to the S., passing the Roc Noir (p. 339), at first gradually, but soon rapidly, and in some years with difficulty (large 'bergschrund'), to the ( 4 hrs .) Col Durand ( $11,395^{\prime}$ '), between Mont Durand (Arbenhorn; 12,284') and the Pointe de Zinal ( 12,487 '), where we obtain a most striking view of the Matterhorn towering opposite. Descent, not direct over the crevassed Hohwöng Glacier to the Zmutt Glacier, as the lower part of the former is much crevassed, bat to the left, along the rocks of the Ebihorn ( $11,968^{\prime}$ ), to ( $3^{1 / 2-4 ~ h r s .) ~ Z m u t t ~(p . ~ 348) ~}$ and ( 1 hr .) Zermatt (p. 344).

To Randa over the Moming Pass (12,445'), between the Rothhorn and Schallihorn ( 14 hrs. ; guide 50 fr .), or over the Schalli-Joch ( $12,305^{\prime}$ ), hetween the Schallihorn and Weisshorn ( 13 hrs ; 50 fr .), both difficult and endangered by falling ice.

From ZINaL to St. LUC ( $31 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.). We return to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ayer (p. 339), ascend to the right, and skirt the hillside, traversing pastares and woor (gnide, desirable, 5 fr.; or enquiry may be made at Ayer). - From Zinal to the Hotel Weisshorn (p. 333) direct in 4 hrs. (guide, desirable, 8 fr .).
iii. St. Luc; Bella Tola; over the Pas du Bœuf (or the Meiden Pass) into the Turtmann Valley, and over the Augstbord Pass to the Valley of the Visp.
Drive from Sierre to Vissoye, 11 M .; walk up to St. Luc, $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (from Sierre direct tn St. Luc $\overline{\mathrm{h}} \mathrm{hrs}$., horse 10 fr.; comp. p. 333). Luggage under 10 lbs. may be sent by post. Ascent of the Bella Tola from St. Luc $31 / 2$

4 hrs.; from the Bella Tola to Meiden over the Pas du Boeuf in 3 hrs . (guide 15 fr .); or from St. Luc direct over the Meiden Pass to ( $5^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Meiden. From Meiden over the Augstbord Pass to St. Niklaus 6 (with Schwarzhorn $71 / 2$ ) hrs. (guide 15, horse 30 fr.).

St. Luc (5390'; *Hôt.-Pens. Bella Tola, R. & L. 2-3, lunch 3, D. 4, pens. 5-6 fr. ; *Gr.-Hôt. du Cervin, pens. from 6 fr.; Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer), lying on a steep slope, amid pastures and fields, commands a superb view of the Val d'Anniviers and the snowmountains at its head (Schallhorn, Lo Besso, Ober-Gabelhorn, Mont Durand, Matterhorn, and Pointe de Zinal).

The Pierre des Sauvages ( $5623^{\prime}$ ), 1 M . above the village, is an ancient altar-stone, ascribed to the 'Draids'. - From St. Luc to Chandolin (p. 33.) an easy and well shaded bridle-path leads in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.

The *Bella Tola ( 9845 '; $3-31 / 2$ hrs.; guide, 8 fr., desirable for novices; horse 10 fr .), an admirable and favourite point of view, is the N.W. peak of a group of mountains enclosing the large crater-like basin of the Bella Tola Glacier on the S. side. Fifty paces beyond the church the bridle-path ascends to the left, and ( 1 min .) again to the left (while the path to the right leads to the Hôtel Weisshorn, p. 338); 20 min ., to the left; 35 min ., cross two brooks; then ascend to the right towards the 'Chalet Blanc', a white hut on the Alp de Roua ( 7135 '), which we leave to the right ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) ; next to the left, up the pastures, straight towards the centre of the Bella Tola; $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., we reach its base, and by a good zigzag path ( 1 hr .) the summit. This N.W. peak is marked by a metal vane. Another path ascends the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) S.E. peak ( $9935^{\prime}$ ). The *View embraces the whole of the Bernese and Valaisian Alps; opposite, to the N., the whole gorge of the Dala is visible, up to the Gemmi. The mountains to the S., from Monte Leone (p. 322) to Mont Blanc, are particularly grand.

To reach the Turtmann Valley we descend direct from the S.E. peak to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pas du Bœuf ( 9380 ). Hence (keeping to the right) we follow the path over debris, denoted by red crosses, to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Meiden Pass route, above the small lake (see below), and to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Meiden (see below).

The direct bridle-path from St. Luc to Meiden crosses the Meiden or Zmeiden Pass ( $9095^{\prime}$; 5 hrs.; guide, hardly needed, 12 fr .). At the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp de Roua (see above), we diverge to the right from the Bella Tola route, cross the meadows of Prazriond (to the right, the Pointe Tounot, $9915^{\prime}$ ), and ascend over rocky debris to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the pass. Fine view of the Weisshorn, Brunnegghorn, etc. We descend past a small lake (with the Meidenhorn, $9426^{\prime}$, on the right) to the Upper ( $7670^{\prime}$ ) and Lower Meiden Alp ('7352'; fine view of the great Turtmann Glacier, p. 342). Lastly a zigzag descent, through larches and stone-pines, to the hamlet of $(13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Meiden or Gruben (5900': *Hôt. du Glacier de Tourtemagne, R., L., \& A. $2^{1} / 2^{-4}$, lunch 3, D. 4, pens. 6-10 fr. ; Engl. Ch. Serv. in Aug.), in the Turtmann Valley.

The Turtmann Valley ends to the S. in the magnificent Turtmann Glacier, imbedded between the Diablons ( $11,828^{\prime}$ ), Weisshorn ( $14,805^{\prime}$ ), Brunnegghorn $\left(12,630^{\prime}\right)$, and Barrhorn ( $11,880^{\prime}$ ). At its base lie the chalets of Sennthum ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from Meiden). A toilsome but interesting ronte crosses this glacier and the Col de Tracuit or des Diablons ( $10,675^{\prime}$ ), between the Diablons and the Tête de Millon, to Zinal ( $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Meiden; gaide 23 fr .). The Tête de Millon ( $12,130^{\prime}$ ), a good point of view, is easily ascended from the pass in $11 / 4$ hr., with guide, and the Diablons ( $11,828^{\prime}$ ) by the S.E. arête, with more difficulty, in 2 hrs . (with guide; see p. 340 ).

From Meiden to Vissoye over the Pas de Forcletta, 8 hrs., not difficult, and fairly interesting (guide 15 fr .). By the Lower Plumatt-Alp, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. above Meiden, we ascend to the right through wood to the ( 1 hr .) Upper Plumatt ( $7355^{\prime}$ ), with a fine view of the Tartmann Glacier, Weisshorn, etc. Then past the Kaltenberg-Alp (8152') and through a dreary valley to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Pas de Forcletta ( $9475^{\prime}$ ), between the (r.) Roc de Budri and the (1.) Crête de Barneuza (9997'). Fine view of the Valaisian and Bernese Alps. Descent to the Hotel Weisshorn and ( 4 hrs .) Vissoye (p. 338).

From Meiden to Turtmann, $31 / 2$ hrs. (guide, 6 fr., needless; mule 10 fr .). The bridle-path follows the right bank of the Turtmannbach, crossing to the left bank after $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., recrossing to the right bank at ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Niggeling, and to the left bank again by the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Vollensteg. Thence through the Taubwald or Dubenwald, a pine-forest now mach thinned. In the middle is a little white chapel with numerous votive tablets. At ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Tumménen ( $3200^{\prime}$ ) we recross the stream, by the second bridge; then descend the steep left bank of the brook, with fine views of the Rhone Valley, to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Turtmann (p. 318).

From Meiden to St. Niklaus (6, with the Schwarzhorn $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide, desirable, 15 or 18 fr .) a bridle-path ascends the steep E. slope of the valley and the Gruben-Alp to the ( 3 hrs .) Augstbord Pass ( $9490^{\prime}$ ), between the Steinthalhorn ( $10,213^{\prime}$; S.) and the Schwarzhorn $\left(10,512^{\prime} ;\right.$ N.), affording a fine view of the Fletschhorn and Mischabel.

The ${ }^{\text {E }}$ Schwarzhorn ( $10,512^{\prime} ; 3 / 4-1 \mathrm{hr}$.) is easily ascended from the pass. Superb view, finer than from the Bella Tola (p. 341): N., the Bernese Alps, from the Doldenhorn to the Finsteraarhorn; E., the St. Gotthard group, Alps of Ticino, Mte. Leone, Fletschhorn, Weissmies, and the imposing Mischabel; S., Mte. Rosa, Lyskamm, Brunnegghorn, Weisshorn, Dent Blanche, etc.

The path descends over debris (bad for riding) into the Augstbord Valley. We then skirt the Steinthalgrat, to the right, to Jungen (6490'; splendid view of the Vispthal from the church: to the left, the Ried Glacier, Dom, and Grabenhorn; to the right, the Brunnegghorn and Weisshorn; in the centre, the Breithorn and Zwillinge), and descend to ( 3 hrs .) St. Niklaus (p. 343).

From Meiden to St. Niklaus by the Jung Pass (9322', $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 15 fr.), farther to the S., interesting. - The Barrjoch ( $11,990^{\prime}$ ), BrunneggJoch ( $11,100^{\prime}$ ), and Biesjoch ( $11,644^{\prime}$; difficult) are glacier-passes, fit for experts only, with able guides ( 40 fr .).

83. From Visp to Zermatt.

 Comp. Maps, pp. 342, 344.$221 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Railway in $2 \mathrm{hrs} .20-2 \mathrm{hrs} .33 \mathrm{~min}$. (2nd cl. 16, 3 rd cl .10 fr ., return-tickets 28 fr .80 c . and 18 fr .), an attractive journey. - The railway from Visp to Zermatt, opened in 1891, combines the ordinary and rack-andpinion systems, and is worked by engines on Abt's system. Maximum gradient on the ordinary sections, $45: 1000$; on the rack-and-pinion sections 125: 1000.

On Foot: from Visp to Zermatt $91 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (Stalden 2 hrs ., St. Niklaus 3 hrs . ; Randa $5^{1 / 2}$ M., Täsch $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., Zermatt $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.). Bridle-path to St.
保

Niklaus, carriage-road thence to Zermatt (one-horse carr. 15, two-horse 25 fr.). - The route from Visp to Zermatt, with its picturesque rockscenery and waterfalls, is easy and attractive.

Visp (2160'), see p.318. The railway makes a wide bend, to the S., towards the rapid and turbid Visp, and gradually ascends on the right bank of the stream, which fills the whole bottom of the valley. The train passes under the Neubrücke ( $2280^{\prime}$ ), crosses the river by an iron bridge, 40 yds . long, and ascends (rack-and-pinion section, $1050 \mathrm{yds} . \mathrm{long}$ ) to the ( 5 M.$)$ station of Stalden ( $2635^{\prime}$ ), 2 min . to the S. of the village of that name (*Hôt. Stalden, R., L., \& A. 3-4 fr.), situated in a very fertile region, on a mountain-spur, at the foot of which the Saaser Visp and the Matter Visp unite. The valley divides. To the S., between the Nicolai Valley and the Saasthal, rises the slow-pyramid of the Balfrinhorn ( $12,474^{\prime}$ ). The culture of the vine extends 2 M . beyond Stalden.

From Stalden to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Sa $\mathrm{a}_{\mathrm{s}-\mathrm{Fee}}$, see p. 352.
To the Simplon Hospice over the Bistenen Pass, 9 hrs., interesting (gaide $15 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Joh. Furrer of Stalden; horse 30 fr .). Bridle-path from Visp or Stalden to ( 2 hrs .) Visperterbinen ( $4395^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Pens. Zimmermann, 4 fr.), a village finely situated high above the Visp valley; thence through wood and pastures to ( 2 hrs .) a pass (about $7200^{\prime}$ ) to the S . of the Gebiedem ( $7640^{\prime}$; a splendid point of view, easily attained from the pass in 25 min .) and to the ( 1 hr .) chalets of Bististaffel ( $6070^{\prime}$ ) in the upper Gamser-Thal; ascent again to the Bistenen Pass ( $7980^{\circ}$ ), on the N. side of the Magenhorn ( $\mathrm{E}_{600}{ }^{\prime}$ ), and descent thence to ( 4 hrs .) Simplon (p. 322).

Beyond Stalden is another rack-and-pinion section, 1030 yds. long. The train ascends through a rock-cutting and a tunnel to the height of $2940^{\prime}$, and runs level for a time, high on the left side of the deep valley of the Matter-Visp; ahead of us is the Brunnegghorn, with the Weisshorn to its right. Three short tunnels ; an imposing viaduct ( $177^{\prime}$ long, $165^{\prime}$ high) over the Mühlbach; two more tunnels, and two other viaducts in the gorge of the Faulkinn. At ( $61 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) stat. Kalpetran ( $2905^{\prime}$ ) the floor of the valley is again reached. Above, on the shelving pastures to the right, are the little church and hamlet of Emd ( $4450^{\prime}$ ). Another level section follows, after which the line crosses to the right bank and ascends by a rack-and-pinion section, $1 \frac{1}{2}$ M. long, through the gorges of Kipfen and Seeli, close by the brawling Visp, which here forms a series of falls amidst huge blocks of gneiss. We return to the left bank (to the right, above, the church of Jungen, p. 342), and reach - 101/2 M. St. Niklaus (3708'; pop. 806; Buffet; *Gr.-Hôtel St. Nicolas, R., L., \& A. 3-31/2, B. $11 / 2$, lunch $31 / 2$, D. 5 fr.; Hôt.-Pens. Lochmatter, R. $11 / 2$, B. $11 / 2$, D. $3^{1 / 2}$ fr.; Restaurant Mont-Rose, R. $11 / 2$, B. 1 fr., both well spoken of). Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer. To Meiden over the Augstbord Pass or the Jung Pass, see p. 342 ; to Salas over the Ried Pass or Windjoch, see p. 354.

Beyond a short rack-and-pinion section the railway crosses the Blattbach, which descends from the Barrhorn on the right, and then returns by a skew-bridge to the right bank of the Visp. To the right, a lofty waterfall in several leaps. $131 / 2$ M. Herbriygen ( $4124^{\prime}$ ). Another steep gradient ( 1835 yds. long) begins at the chalets of Breitenmatt. High up on the left is the Festi Glacier, descending from the Dom (p.350); to- the right is the Weisshorn (p.350), with the fissured Bies Gilacier ; and to the S. rise the Little Matterhorn and the superb Breithorn. Between ( 16 M.) Rand̄̄ (4623'; *Hôt. Weisshorn) and ( $181 / 2$ M.) Täsch ( $4728^{\prime}$ ) a landslip which is said to have buried a whole village is still traceable. A massive embankment carries the line along the right bank of the Visp. To the right opens the SchalliThal, with the Hohlicht Glacier, commanded by the Zinal-Rothhorn; to the E., the Täschthal (p.354). By the chalets of Zermettje the line crosses the Visp for the last time, and then ascends a gradient, 970 yds. long, on the Bühl, high above the gorge of the the boisterous Visp. We then enter a defile, scarcely broad enough for both road and railway. At its end, to the right, the stupendous Matterhorn suddenly comes in sight; in the middle distance lies the Gorner Glacier; and above it stretches the vast Upper Théodule Glacier, with the Little Matterhorn and the Breithorn on the left. The line then passes through a short tunnel and reaches ( $221 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Zermatt (Railway luffet, with rooms).

English Church (St. Peter's), opposite the Mont-Cervin Hotel.
Dried Plants from the neighbourhood (an excellent field for botanists), insects, and minerals are sold by Biener. - Tourists' Articles: K. Knecht & Co.

Zermätt (5315'; pop. 600), Piedmontese Praborgne, lies in a green valley with pine-clad slopes, above which, to the S., rises the snowy Théodule Glacier, commanded by the Breithorn on the left and the huge rock-pyramid of the Matterhorin on the right.

Zermatt surpasses the Bernese Oberland in the magnificence of its glaciers, although it is inferior in variety. In no other locality is the traveller so completely admitted into the heart of the Alpine world, the very sanctuary of the 'Spirit of the Alps'. The panorama from the Gorner Grat, in particular, cannot fail to impress the spectator with its unparalleled grandeur. The Hôt. Zermatt contains an admirable *Relief of the Environs of Zermatt, from the Weisshorn to Macugnaga, by Imfeld (admission gratis).

The Churchyard contains the tombstones of $M F$. ron Grote (p. 355), C/\%. Hudson and R. Hadow (who perished on the Matterhorn in 1865), W. K. Wilson (Riffelhorn, 1865), H. Chester (Lyskamm, 1869), and (to the right of the church) Michel Croz (p. 350). By the English Church (p. 344) repose several other travellers who have perished among the mountains.

Excursions from Zermatt. Foremost among the attractions are the *Riffelberg and  Gorner Grat, easily visited by the electric mountain-railway in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (fare 12 fr ., there and back 18 fr .) or on foot (bridle-path) in $4-4 \frac{1}{2}$ hiss. - The new *Gornergrat Railway, opened in 1898 and the highest mountain-railway in Eurcpe (Brienzer Rothhorn 7388'), is a rack-and-pinion line propelled by electricity (length $61 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.; average gradient 16 per cent., maximum 20 per cent.). The station is at the lower end of the village, opposite the Visp station. The line crosses the Matter-Visp and ascends to the right along the wooded E. slope of the valley. It crosses the Findelen Valley by a viaduct, 92 yds. long and 197' above the Findelenbach, on the left bank of which are a passing station and the power-house of the railway, fed by this stream. The overflow forms a beautiful cascade in descending into the valley. Farther on we thread three short tunnels on the Schwarze Fluh. To the right opens the view of the Zmutt Valley and of the rubble-strewn end of the Gurner Glacier. Above the Fällistutz (p. 346) the line bends back by means of the Unteralp Tunnel ( 218 yds. long); fine view to the left of the entire valley of the Visp. It next passes through a wood of stone-pines and reaches the station of ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Riffelalp (7307'), which is about $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the Hôt.-Pens. Riffelalp (p. 344) and commands a fine view to the N.W. of the Ober-Gabelhorn, Trifthorn, and Zinal-Rothhorn, with the Gabelhorn and Trift glaciers. Farther on we penetrate an old moraine (short tunsel), emerge from the wood, and ascend in a bold curve on the slope of the Riffelberg, with a steadily improving view of the Matterhorn. 4 M . Stat. Riffelberg ( $84 \mathrm{SO}^{\prime}$ ), 5 min. abure the Hôt. Riff clbeig (p. 344). The line now traverses hilly pastures, crossing the old Gornergrat route several times, to the Rothe Boden (to the rigbt, the Riffelhorn, p. 349). We then proceed high above the Gorner Glacier, with a magnificent view of the huge ice-river and the monntains surrounding it. The terminus of ( $61 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Gornergrat ( $990 \mathrm{~S}^{\prime}$ ) is 15 min . below the top of the Gorner Grat (p. 346).

The Iridle Path to the Gorner Grat is still much used in spite of the opening of the railway (to the Kiffelhaus $21 / 2-3$ hrs., to the Gorner Grat $4-41 / 2 \mathrm{hls}$.; guide ncedless; horse to the Riffelhaus 10 , to the Gorner Grat 15 fr.). From the Hôtel du Mont-Rose we follow the road, leaving the church on the left, for $8 \mathrm{~min} .$, and cross the Tisp; on the right bank we ascend through pastures; 8 min., church of Winkelmatten ( $5500^{\prime}$ ). [A pleasanter route to this point leads to the E. from the Mont-Cervin Hutel, crosses the Visp, and ascends to the right over meadows.] We now turn to the right; 2 min., bridge over the Findelenbach; here we turn to the right, cross the pasture to the right, and ascend more rapidly, passing between ( 8 min .) four huts, to the Obere Moos (rfmts.; sign-post to the Gorner Gorge, see p. 347). The path now ascends to the lelt on the Fällistutz, wooded with larches and stone-pines; $25 \mathrm{~min} .$, a hut (rfmes., dear) above Schwegmatten, whence we observe the lower end of the Gorner Glacier, the Furggbach issuing from the Furgg Glacier, and the Zmutt Valley, to the right, the Hohwäng Glacier (p. 340 ); $25 \mathrm{~min} .$, chalets on the Augsthummen-Matt ( $7110^{\prime}$; rfmts.). The steep old path to the Riffel now ascends direct, while the new and easier path to the left describes a wide bend through stonepines, and passes the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hotel Riffelalp ( $7307^{\prime}$; p. 344), affording a superb view of the colossal Matterhorn, the Zmutt Valley with the Dent Blanche, and the Ober-Gabelhorn, Trifthorn, Zinal-Rothhorn, Weisshorn, etc. Adjacent are an English and a Roman Catholic chapel, and about 5 min . to the N . is the station of the Gornergrat Railway (p. 345). Above the hotel the two paths unite, but soon divide again, where we keep to the left (the level path to the right leading to the Gorner Glacier, see below). At the foot of the Riffelberg ( 12 min .) we cross the brook, and then ascend in easy zigzags (above, to the left, the Gornergrat Railway) to the ( 40 min .) Hotel Riffelberg ( 8429 '; p. 344), where we enjoy a fine view of the Breithorn and Matterhorn and other peaks. The Gugel $\left(86^{8} 0^{\prime}\right)$, a height 20 min . to the N.E., commands also the Findelen and Adler glaciers and the Adler Pass. We now ascend to the left over pastures to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Rothe Boden (9125'), with the small Riffelhorn Lakes, at the foot of the abrupt Riff elhorn (p. 349). Lastly, a winding ascent over debris to the ( $3 / 4-1$ hr.) summit of the Gorner Grat.

The Gorner Grat $\left(10,290^{\prime} ; 4975^{\prime}\right.$ above Zermatt) is a rocky ridge rising from the plateau of the Riffelberg, and reached from the Riffelhaus in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. It commands a most imposing view (see Panorama), but this has been sadly marred by the erection of the HôtelRestaurant Belvédère (R., L., \& A. 6, B. 2, lunch 4, D. 5 fr.). The spectator is surrounded by snow-peaks and glaciers. The Mischabelhörner (Täschhorn, 14,758'; Dom, 14,942'), huge spurs of the Monte Rosa extending to the N., between the twin-valleys of Zermatt and Saas, as well as the mountains opposite them (Ober-Gabelhorn, 13,365'; Zinal-Rothhorn, 13,855'; Weisshorn, 14,804'), contest the palm with the giants of the central chain themselves. Of the peaks of Monte Rosa itself, the highest $\left(15,217^{\prime}\right)$ and two others are alone visible, and it looks less imposing than from the Italian side. The most striking object in the panorama, and the lion of Zermatt, is the Matterhorn ( 14,780 ; p. 350 ). Around the base of the Riffelberg, from E. to W., winds the huge *Gorner Glacier, which is joined in its course by six other glaciers; from its base issues the Visp (Matter-Visp).

The views from the *Hohthäli-Grat $(10,791$ ), the E. prolongation of the Gorner Grat, 1 hr . more ( Qaborious, for climbers only; guide advisable), and from the Stockhorn $\left(11,595^{\prime}\right), 1 \mathrm{hr}$. farther to the W ., are still finer; both embrace the Findelen Glacier also.

From the Riffelalp (see above) there is another path to the Riffel Inn, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. longer than the above, but more interesting from its frequent proximity to the Gorner Glacier. Above the Hôtel Riffelalp it diverges to the right from the bridle-path and skirts a stony slope (Riffelbord), the haunt of the marmot, at first in the direction of the Matterhorn, then towards the beautiful dazzling snows of the Breithorn, adjoining which, farther on, appear the Zwillinge ('Twins'), E. the Castor ( $13,880^{\prime}$ ), and W. the Pollux ( $13,430^{\prime}$ ). After $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. a path diverges to the right to the Lower Gorner or Boden Glacier, which at this point may be crossed safely (with guide). The path continues to ascend the slope to the left; 12 min., turn to the left; 20 min ., Gagenhaupt ( $8430^{\prime}$ '), a huge mass of rock to the W. of the Riffelhorn (p. 349); then, to the N., to the ( 20 min .) Riffelhans.

The return-route from the Riffel to Zermatt viâ Findelen is recommended ( $3^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.). At a hut about 25 min . below the Gorner Grat we may take the steep new path descending to the right to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Findelen Valley. It is better, however, to select the easy bridle path to the right at ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Hôtel Riffelalp ( p .346 ), which descends to the valley past the monument of Mr. T. W. Hinchcliff. We then proceed through pinewood to the ( $\overline{0} 0 \mathrm{~min}$.) Hôt. du Glacier (pens. 6.7 fr .), whence we go on, passing the small Grünsee ( $7580^{\circ}$ ), to ( 20 min .) the margin of the large ${ }^{*}$ Findelen Glacier, which is surrounded by the Rimpfischhorn, Strahlhorn, and Stockhorn; towards the W. tower the Matterhorn, Dent Blanche, Gabelhorn, Rothhorn, and Weisshorn. In the glacier is an artificial ice-grotto (adm. 50 c .). We return from the Hòt. du Glacier by the same path, and after 1 min . descend to the right to the ( 25 min .) bridge across the Findelenbach, and re-ascend to the village of ( 6 min .) Findelen (p. 345). Hence a bridlepath, affording a grand view of the Matterhorn and the Zmutt Valley and passing the bridge of the Gornergrat Railway and the waterfall mentioned on p. 345 , descends to ( 40 min .) Winkelmatten and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Zermatt.

To the Gorner Gorge ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. there and back). We diverge from the Schwarzsee ronte (see below) after $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., cross the Zmuttbach by the ( 3 min .) lower bridge, turn to the left, and reach ( 7 min .) the entrance (adm. 1 fr .) to the picturesque gorge of the Matter-Visp. Bridges and paths lead to ( 5 min .) the upper end of the Lower Gorge, whence stairs ascend to the top of the right bank. A shady path leads thence to the ( 10 min .) Upper Gorge (preferable to the lower; 50 c .), where we may either cross the Visp and ascend to the hamlet of Platten and the Schwarzsee path, or ascend to the right to the Upper Moos and return to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Zermatt by the Riffel route (p. 346). Visitors to the Upper Gorge need not go through the lower.

To the *Schwarzsee Hotel (8494'; 21/2-3 hrs.; guide, needless, 6 , horse 10 fr .) by a mule-path, very attractive. From the Mont-Rose Hotel the path, which as far as Hermättje is also that to the Théodule Pass (p. 348), ascends the left bank of the Visp, past the Visp Bridge, to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the confluence of the Visp and the Zmuttbach. Here the path divides. While the left branch leads to the Gorner Gorge, ours ascends to the right to ( 20 min .) the hamlet of $Z u m$ See (abort $5900^{\prime}$ ), in the middle of which the path again forks, the bridle-path leading to the left and a direct path over meadows to the right. After 7 min . the paths re-unite; in 8 min . more the bridlepath to the Staffel-Alp (p. 348) diverges to the right. Our route ascends to the left to ( 20 min .) the chalets of Hermättje ( $6790^{\prime}$; rfmts.), where we enjoy a splendid survey of the Gorner Glacier (p. 346), the Breithorn, and Zwillinge. We here turn to the right (to the left is the way to the Théodule Pass, see p. 348), and follow the bridle-path, which winds up steeply, over scanty and stony pastures, and partly through wood. In 40 min . the wood ends, the path becomes less steep. View, all the way, of the Gorner Glacier, the Breithorn, Lyskamm, and Mte. Rosa. In $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more we reach the Schwarzsee Hotel (p. 344), on a detarhed hill, high above the Furgg Glarier. Below, 5 min . to the W., lies the little Schwarzsee (8393'). The view from the hotel is splendid, and grander still from the *Hörnli ( $9490^{\prime}$; 1 hr . from the hotel; guide, advisable, 2-3 fr.), whence the stupendous Matterhorn is seen to great advantage.

Ascent to the Iower Matterhorn Hut ( $10,820^{\prime} ; 2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.; experts dispense with guide), attractive (comp. p. 350). - An attractive return-route from the Schwarzsee to Zermatt is by the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Statfel-Alp (see below); annther (guide, including the Hörnli, 10 fr-) leads over the rock-strewn Furgg Glacier and the crevassed Gorner Glacier to ( 4 hrs .) the Riffelhaus.

To the Théodulb Pass, $5-5 \frac{1}{2}$ his. (guide 10 fr .), usually combined with the route to Valtournanche (p.362) or the ascent of the Breithorn (p. 349). To ( $11 / 3 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hermättje, see p. 347 (Schwarzsee route). The Theodule route crosses the Furggbach (fine fall a little farther up), and ascends the stony slopes in many windings, very dusty in dry weather. On the right is the dirty Furgg Glacier; above it towers the Matterhorn, which faces us the whole way with varying outline. We ascend 2 hrs . more to the moraine of the Upper Théodule Glacier (about 88555'), where the bridle-path ends. We then either ascend the glacier (a good deal crevassed, but safe ; rope necessary) to the ( $13 / 4-2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Théodule Pass ; or (preferable) we take the path to the left, over rocks and debris, to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Lower Théodu'e or Gandeag Hut (9800'; inn, bed 5 fr .), finely situated on the rocks of the Leichenbretter, between the Lower and Upper Théodule Glaciers, and thence ascend the upper glacier to the ( $1 \frac{1}{4} \mathrm{hr}$.) Théodule Pass or Matterjoch ( 10,900 '; Théodule Hut, with fourteen beds, plain; 'vin brûlé' $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), to the S. of the Theodulhorn (11,392'), on the frontier between Switzerland and Italy. Magnificent view of the Matterhorn and Dent d'Hérens; to the S., in the distance, the Graian Alps. Descent to Breuil or Fiéry, see pp. 361, 362; ascent of the *Breithorn, see p. 349.

To the Staffel-Alp ( $31 / 2$ hrs. from Zermatt and back; without guide). Above ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Zum See the path diverges to the right from the Thendule route and follows the right side of the deep Zmutt Valley, through beautiful stone-pine and larch wood, to the ( 2 hrs .) Staffel-Alp (7045'; "Restaurant. with beds, plain), commanding an admirable view of the huge Matterhorn with its glacier, the rock-strewn Zmutt Glacier with the Stockje, the Stock Glacier and Tête Blanche, and (r.) the Hohwäng Glacier; behind us, the Rimpfischhorn and Strahlhorn. From the Staffel-Alp to the Schwarzsec (see above) $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. Over the Col d’Hérens to Ferpècle, see p. 336; over the Col de Valpelline to the Val Pellina or Arolla, see p. 335. A shorter way back leads by the hamlet of Zmutt on the left side of the Zmuttbach, to which we cross by a bold bridge.

To the Findelen Glacier, 3 hrs ., without guide ( 6 fr .). We follow the Riffel path to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) church of Winkelmatten (p. 346) and ascend to the left past the bridge of the Gornergrat Railway ( p . 345) and through wood to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Findeten ( $6810^{\prime}$ ) and the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Eggen-Alp ( $718 \mathrm{O}^{\prime}$ ); then to the left past the Stelli-See ( $8313^{\prime}$ ) to the ( $11 / \mathrm{hr}$.) Fluh-Alp ( $8570^{\prime}$; small inn), whence the glacier is well surveyed, the starting-point for the Strahlhorn, Rimpfischhorn, etc. - From Findelen to the Hôt. du Glacier, Grünsee, and Riffelatp ( $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), p. 347. - By Findelen to the Lower and Opper Rothhorn, see below.

Mountain Ascents from Zermatt or the Riffelhaus. (The guides' tariff from Zermatt is given.)

The *Breithorn ( $13,685^{\prime} ; 7.8 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 25, with a night in the Théodule Hut 30, with descent to Breuil 40 fr .), easily ascended from Zermatt, is a splendid point of view. We follow the Théodule route to the ( 5 hrs .) Théodule Pass (see p. 3t8), where the night is spent (or at the Gandegg Hut). From the Théodule Pass we ascend, leaving the Théodnle Pass on the right and (farther on) the rocky peak of the Kleine Matterhorn (Petit Mont-Cervin, 12.750') to the left, over the Cpper Theodule Glacier to the Breithorn plateau, and lastly mount a steeper slope of ice, where steps sometimes must be cat, to the top ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$., from the Gandegg Hut $4-4^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.). Superb view : to the W. towers the gigantic Matterhorn; to the left of it, Mont Blanc; to the right of it, the Dent Blanche, Grand Cornier, Gabelhorn, Trifthorn, Rothhorn, Schallihorn, Weisshorn; to the N., the Bernese Alps, the Saasgrat (Balfrinhorn, Nadelgrat, Dom, Täschhorn, Alphabel), Allalinhorn, Rimpfischhorn, Strahlhorn; to the E., Monte Rosa, Lyskamm, the Zwillinge; to the S., the Graian Alps (Gran Paradiso and Grivola) and Mte. Viso. Descent to the Théodule Pass $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. The ascent of the Breithorn by the N. side is difficult and dangerous. The Little Matterhorn ( $12,750^{\circ}$; see above) forms an attractive and not difficult expedition of 2 hrs . from the Théodule Pass (zuide 15, with night out 25 fr.). The ascent by the N.W. arête ( 3 hrs .) is more difficult (guide 20 fr.).

The *Cima di Jazzi ( $12,527^{\prime} ; 5-51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Riffelhaus; guide 15 fr .) is easy but fatiguing. From the Riffelhaus Hotel we follow the Gorner Grat route to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Rothe Boden $\left(9120^{\prime}\right)$, then turn to the right and skirt a steep slope as far as the ( 1 hr .) Gorner Glacier, reaching it at the Gadmen ( $8620^{\prime}$ ). A gradual ascent on the ice brings us to the ( 1 hr .) Stockknubel ( $9955^{\prime}$ ), a resting-place at the rocky base of the Stockhorn ( $11,595^{\prime}$ ); thence across the glacier (rope necessary) to ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the top. Superb view, but often hazy on the ltalian side. Care must be taken not to go too near the overhanging snow on the E. (Macugnaga) side, the fall of which would precipitate the traveller to a depth of $3-4000^{\circ}$. If strength permits, we may go on to the ( 1 hr .) New Weissthor Pass ( p . 351), whence the view of Macugnaga below, apparently only a stone's throw distant, is very striking. Back to the Riffel 3-4 hrs. - Descent to Zermatt across the Findelen Glacier (p. 355) not advisable.

The Riffelhorn (9617), from the Riffelhaus $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (guide thence, 6 fr .), an interesting climb; fine survey of the Vispthal.
${ }^{*}$ Mettelhorn ( $11,188^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Zermatt; guide 10 fr .), interesting but toilsome. Magnificent view, though inferior to that from the Gorner Grat (panorama by Imfeld). Bridle-path for $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (horse 18 fr .); then over dehris and snow, steep and trying.

Unter-Gabelhorn (11,150'; 5-6 hrs. from Zermatt; guide 20 fr .), for experts only. Bridle-path (horse 15 fr.) to the ( 3 hrs .) Hotel du Trift (destroyed by an avalanche in 1899); thence for $3-4$ hrs. over grass and debris, then through a steep couloir generally filled with hard snow (step-cutting necessary), lastly a climb over rocks. Beautiful view of the Matterhorn (quite near), the Dent Blanche, Ober-Gabelhorn, Rothhorn, Weisshorn. Mischabel, Monte Rosa, Lyskamm, Breithorn, and Mont Blanc in the distance. - Wellenkuppe ( $12,830^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Trift Hotel), an interesting climb, not difficult fur adepts (gaide 40 fr .).

Ober-Rothhorn ( $11.215^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Zermatt; gnide 10 fr. ), attractive and nnt difficult. Ascent viâ Findelen (p. 348) and the Furggje (9300'), to the E. of the Unter-Rothhorn ( $10,190^{\prime}$; another easy ascent). - Strahlhorn ( $13,75 y^{\prime}$ ), from the ( $31 / \mathrm{hrs}$.) Fluh Inn in the Findelen Valley (p. 348) up the Findelen and Adler Glaciers in $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 30 fr .), and Rimpfischhorn $(13,790)$, from the Flah Inn by the Langenfuh Glacier in $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide
$3 \overline{5}$ fr.), both not very difficult for experts. - Dom ( 14,942 ; $10-11 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Randa; 60 fr.), very toilsome, but without serious difficulty for adepts. From Randa to the ( 4 hrs .) Dom Hut of the S. A. C. on the Festi ( $9630^{\circ}$ ); then cross the Festi Glacier to the Festi-Joch $\left(12,220^{\prime}\right)$ and ascend the N.W. arête, finally over steep snow and ice to the ( $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit. *View one of the grandest among the Alps. - More difficult is the Täschhorn ( $14,753{ }^{\prime}$ ), 11-12 hrs. from Randa ( 60 fr .); the night is spent in ( 4 hrs .) a bivouac on the Kien Glacier, whence we ascend the N. arm of the glacier, over steep slopes of snow and ice, to the S.IV. arête and the ( $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit.

The Lyskamm or Silberbast ( $14,890^{\prime}$; guide 100 fr .), ascended by the Lysjoch (p. 351) in 9-10 hrs. from the Riffelhaus, is difficult, and dangerous on account of the snow-cornice on the E. arête. (The ascent from the Sella Ifut by the S. arête is withoat danger, see p. 360.)
Monte Rosa, Höchste, or Dufour-Spitze (15,217'; 9-10 hrs. from the Riffelhaus, there and back 14 hrs .; two guides, 50 fr. each; porter 35 fr.) was first ascended by the Messrs. Smyth and Johann zum Taugwald in 1855 (comp. p. 357). For experts the ascent is free from danger or serious difficulty, hut it is attended with much fatigue, and requires a perfectly steady head. The route descends near the Riffelhorn to the Gadmen rock (see p. 349), crosses the Gorner Glacier to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Monte Rosa or Betemps Hut of the S. A. C. ( $8360^{\prime}$; inn in summer), at the foot of the Untere Plattje ( $9810^{\circ}$ ); then over rocks and snow to ( $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Auf'm Felsen (Obere Plattje; 10,970'). Again an ascent of 3 hrs . over snow, very steep at places, to the Sattel $\left(14,285^{\prime}\right)$, where the S. peaks of Monte Rosa are revealed. Finally we climb along the serrated rocky ridge to the E. to ( 1 hr .) the summit. ${ }^{=}$ View exceedingly grand (panorama by Imfeld). - Besides the Dufour peak the following also belong to the Monte Rosa group: Nord-End ( $15,132^{\prime}$ ), ZumsteinSpitze ( $15,004^{\prime}$ ), Signal-Kuppe (Punta Gnifetti; 14,965'; club-hut, see p. 359), Parrot-Spitze ( $14,643^{\prime}$ ), Ludwigshöhe ( $14,259^{\prime}$ ), Balmenhorn $\left(13,500^{\prime}\right)$, Schwarzhorn ( $13,852^{\prime}$ ), Vincent-Pyramide ( $13,830^{\prime}$ ), and Punta Giordani ( $13,304^{\prime}$ ).

The Matterhorn, Fr. Mont Cervin (14,780' ; acc. to Ital. measurement $14,705^{\prime}$ ), was ascended for the first time on 14 th July, 1865, by Messrs. Whymper, Hudson, Hadow, and Lord Francis Douglas, with the guides Michael Croz and the two Taugwalders. In descending Mr. Hadow lost his footing not far from the top, and fell, along with Mr. Hudson, Lord Francis Douglas, and Croz, to a depth of $4000^{\prime}$ towards the Matterhorn Glacier. Mr. Whymper and the two other guides escaped by the breaking of the rope. - Three days later the ascent was again made by four guides from Breuil (p. 362), and it is now frequently undertaken both from Zermatt and Breuil. The rock has been blasted at the most difficult points, and a rope attached to it, so that the chief dangers have been removed; but even now the ascent should not be attempted by any but proficients, accompanied by firstrate guides ( 100 fr ., with descent to Breuil 150 fr .; porter 70 , to the upper hut 15 , to the shoulder 40 fr .). The ascent takes $9-10$ hrs., including halts, from the Schwarzsee Hotel, where the preceding night is usually spent: to the Lower Hut at the beginning of the N.E. arête ( 10,820 ), $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; thence to the useless upper hut ( $12,526^{\prime}$ ) 2 hrs ., and over the Schulter (Epaule; 13,925 ') to the summit 4 hrs . more (excl. of halts). - The ascent from Breuil (p. 362) is more difficult: over the Col $d u$ Lion ( $11,815^{\prime}$ ) to the Rifugio Luigi di Savoia $(12,763$ ) of the Italian Alpine Club in $5-6$ hrs., and thence by the Mauvais Pas, the Linceuil, the Cravate, with the old Italian refuge-hut $\left(13,523^{\prime}\right)$, the Pic Tyndall $\left(13,925^{\prime}\right)$, and the Col Félicité to the top in $51 / 2-7 \mathrm{hrs}$. (acc. to the season and state of the ice) more.

Very difficult (for thorough experts only, with firstrate guides): OberGabelhorn ( $13,36{ }_{5}^{\prime}, ; 8-9 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ gnide 70 fr ) : from the Trift Hotel (p. 349) straight up the E. side (solid rock) and the Gabelhorn Glacier, finally crossing the narrow snow-arête in the 'Gabel' (safe when the snow is in good condition). The descent to Zinal is very difficult (guide 100 fr . ; comp. p. 340 ). - Zinal-Rothhorn (Moming; $13,855^{\prime}$ ), 6-7 hrs. from the Trift Hotel viâ the Trift Glacier (guide 80, with descent to Zinal 100 fr ; comp. p. 340). Weisshorn (14,804'; 80 fr.; first ascended by Prof. Tyndall in 1861), from Randa 10-12 hrs.: by the Schalliberg to ( 4 hrs .) the bivouac or campingplace on the Hohlicht ( $9380^{\prime}$ ) and thence by the Schalliberg Glacier and the E. arête to the top, 6-8 hrs. - Dent Blanche ( 14,318 '; 80 fr. ), the harciest of all the Zermatt peaks: from the Stockje (p. 336; club-hut destroyed). up the Wandfuhgrat in 10 hrs .; or (shorter, but more dangerous) from the Schönbühl (bivouac), opposite the Stockje, viâ the Schönbühl Glacier and through a long ice-couloir to the $N$. end of the Wandfluh, then by the S . arête in S-9 hrs. An easier ascent is that from the Neuchatel Hut viâ the Ferpêcle Glacier and the Fandfluhgrat in $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. (comp. p. 33t). - Dent d'Hérens (13,715'), 9-10 hrs. from the Stockje, by the Tiefenmatten Joch (11,788'), very steep and hazardous (guide 80, with descent to Prarayé $£ 0 \mathrm{fr}$. ; better from Prarayé in 7-8 lirs.).

Passes. To Breull in the Val Tournanche over the "Theodule Pass $\left(10,900^{\prime}\right), 8 \mathrm{hrs} .$, not difficult (guide $20 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ see pp. 34S, 362). The Théodule Pass may also be reached from the Riffelhaus (p. 344), viâ the Gorner and Lower Thédule Glaciers, or from the Schwarzsee Hotel (p. 347), viâ the Furgg Glacier and the Upper Theodule Glacier. Horse from Zermatt to the Gandegg Hut (p. 348) 10 fr . Descent from the pass to Fiery by the Col des Cimes Blanches (guide 25 fr .), see p. 361. - To Breuil over the Furgg-Joch ( $11,014^{\prime} ; 25 \mathrm{fr}$ ), to the E. of the Matterhorn, 10 hrs , trying (the Schwarzsee Hotel is the best starting-point, see p. 347); over the Col du Lion (11,735'; 70 fr .) or the Col de Tournanche (11,380'; 40 fr. ), to the W. of the Matterhorn, both very difficult (ascent to the former endangered by falling ice and stones).

To Fiery over the Schwarzthor (12,274'), 10-11 hrs. from the Riffel (guide 40 fr.$)$, difficult. The track ascends the Gorner Glacier and the crevassed Schwärze Glacier to the pass, between the Breithorn and the Pollax, and descends the Verra Glacier and Klein-Verra Glacier to the Val d'Ayas. - Over the Zwillings-Joch (Verra Pass; 12,668)', between the Castor and Pollux, also difficult (guide 40 fr. ). The ascents of the Castor ( $13,880^{\prime}$ ) and Pollux ( 13,431 ) may be easily combined with either pass.

To Gressoney over the Lysjoch, $12-14$ hrs. from the Riffel, laborious (guide 45 fr .). The Monte Rosa route is followed to the Betemps Hut (p. 350), and the right side of the crevassed Grenz Glacier ascended, skirting the slopes of the Dufour-Spitze (beware of ice-avalanches), to the upper snowbasin of the glacier, enclosed by a majestic amphitheatre of the peaks of Monte Rosa, and to the ( $6-7$ hrs.) Lysjoch ( $14,030^{\prime}$ ), between the Lyskamm ( $14,890^{\prime}$; ascent from this side dangerous and inadvisable, see p. $3 j 0$ ) and the Ludwigshöhe (14,259'), affording to the S. a superb *View of the plain of Piedmont enclosed by the Apennines and the Maritime Alps. Descent across the Lys Glacier (with the Vincent-Pyramide, 13, 830 ', rising on the left; ascent 1 hr .), to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Capanna Gnifetti ( 11,965 ; see p. 359) of the I. A. C.; thence Col delle Pisse (p. 359) and on to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Col d Olen or ( $1^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alagna (p. 358); or to the right by the Garstelel Glacier to the ( 1 hr .) Capanna Linty ( $10,040^{\prime}$; in ruins) and ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Gressoney-la-Trinité (p. 359). - From the Riffelhaus to Gressoney over the Felik-Joch ( $13,345^{\prime}$ ), between the Castor and Lyskamm, difficult, and dangerous owing to ice-falls; 12 hrs. to Gressoney-la-Trinité (guide 40 fr .). On the S . side of the pass, 2 lirs. below it, is the Capanna Quintino Sella of the I. A. C. (11,815'); comp. p. 3 co.

To Alagna over the Sesia-Joch $\left(14,515^{\prime}\right)$, between the Signalkuppe and the Parrot-Spitze, and the Vigne Glacier, very difficult and dangerous (guide 60 fr. ; p. 359 ). - Over the Piode-Joch (Ippolita Pass; 13,944'), between the Parrot-Spitze and the Ludwigshöhe, also dangerous (feasible in the reverse direction only, from the Bors Alp, p. 358, and up the Piode Glacier). All these passes are for experts only, with firstrate guides.

To Macugnaga over the New Weissthor ( $11,745^{\prime} ; 9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Riffel Hotel; guide 35 fr .). The route as far as the pass ( 5 hrs ., including the Cima di Jazzi, a digression of $3 / 4-1 \mathrm{hr}$.; see p. 349) is an easy glacierexcursion. Beyond the pass a short farther ascent is made over the abrupt rocks of the Neu-Weissthor-Spitze $\left(12,010^{\prime}\right)$; then a giddy descent, along perpendicular cliffs and over precipitous snow-fields. The Capanna Eugenio Sella (p. 357) is reached in about 1 hr . from the pass, and Macugnaga (p. 356 ) in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. more. - The Old Weissthor ( $11,915^{\prime}$ ), between the ('ima di Jazzi and the Fillarhorn (12.070'), is much more ciifficult. Several different ruutes: on the N., by the Jazzi Puss, close by the Cima di Jazzi; to the S. of it, on the Weissgrat, is the Jazzihopf, with the couloirs desceuding from it; then the Old Weissthor proper, immediately 10 the N. of the fillarhorn. Between the Fillarhorn and the Jägerhorn (13,042') is the Fillar-Joch ( $11,433^{\prime}$ ), and between the Jägerhorn and the Nordend is the Jäger-Joch $(12,730)$. Descent from all these to the Casteljranco Glacier exceedingly steep, and dangerous owing to falling stones. - To Mattamaris over the Schworzberg-Weissthor (11-12 hrs.; guide 30 fr.), see p. 355.

To Zinal over the Triftjoch ( $11,615^{\prime} ; 12$ lirs.; guide 35 fr ), difficult, p. 310; Col Durand ( $11,398^{\prime} ; 14$ hrs.; 35 fr.), also difficult, see p. 340; Moming Pass ( $12,445^{\prime}$ ) and Schalli-Joch ( $12,3\left(55^{\prime}\right.$ ), both very difficult (guide 50 fr.), p. 340. - To Ferrécle over the Col d'Hérens (11.418'; 11 hrs ; 30 fr .), p. 336. - To Arolla over the Col d'Hérens and Col de Bertol (10, y25'; 12 lirs.; 30 fr.), laborious, p. 335; over the Col de Valpelline and Col du Mont Brale ( 10,900 ; $13 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; 30 fr .), p. 335 . - To Chanrion over the Col de Valpelline, Col du Mont Brale, and Col de l'Evéque (the 'High Level Route'; 15 hrs.; quide 60 fr .), a long day. - To Praraye over the Col de Valpelline ( $11,685^{\prime}$; 12 hrs.; 35 fr .), toilsome, see pp. 305, $33 \overline{\mathrm{~J}}$. - Tо тне Saas Valley six glacier passes: the Schwarzberg-Weissthor ( 11,850 ); guide 30 fr.), Adler Pass ( $12,460^{\prime} ; 30 \mathrm{fr}$.), Allalin Pass ( $11,713^{\prime} ; 30 \mathrm{fr}$.; these three to Miattuark); Fee Pass (12,505'; 30 fr.), Alphubel-Joch ( $\left.12,475^{\prime} ; 30 \mathrm{fr}.\right)$, and Mischabel-Joch ( $12,650^{\prime} ; 35$ fr. ; these three to Saas-Fee) ; comp. pp. 354, 355.

Comp. Maps, pp. 342, 354.
From Visp to Slalden, 5 M ., railway in 26 min . (2nd cl. 3 fr. 55 , 3rd cl. 2 fr . 25 c .) ; from Stalden to Mattmark, bridle-path in $71 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. or vià Saas - Fee in 8 hrs. (to Balen 3, Saas-Grund 1, Saas-Fee $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., Almagell 50 min ., Mattmark $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.). Horse from Stalden to Saas-Grund 15, to Saas-Fee 18, from Saas to Mattmark 10 fr . Luggage may be sent by post as far as Saas-Fee.

To ( 5 M.) Stalden ( $2635^{\prime}$ ), see p. 343 . The bridle-path descends to the left from the station and crosses the Matter-Visp by the Kinnbrücke ( $2 \overline{0} 70^{\prime}$ ), a little above its junction with the Suaser-Visp. On the hill to the left is the little church of Stalderried. Beyond two chalets, on the other side of the bridge, the path divides. We follow the left branch into the deep and narrow Saasthal, skirting the Saaser-Visp, which descends in foaming falls. Beyond the chalets of Resti ( $3045^{\prime}$ ) we reach ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Zen Schmieden or Eisten ( $3555{ }^{\prime}$ ), and thence ascend more steeply to ( 40 min .) Hutegyen (4088'; inu, dear), looking back at the Bietschhorn and its glaciers. Farther on we pass the chalets of $\operatorname{Im}$ Boden, cross the ( 10 min .) Martinsbrücke ( $4300^{\prime}$ ), near a fine waterfall of the Scliweibbach (right), descending from the Balenfirn Glacier, and ( 20 min .) return to the left bank, on which lies ( 25 min .) the village of Balen ( $495^{\circ}$ ) in a fertile basin, at the base of the Balfrinhorn (12,475'). Above the village the path recrosses to the right bank, passes through a wild rocky defile, in which lies the chapel of St. Anton, and leads through the broad level valiey to the village of -

1 hr. Saas-Grund (5125'; *Hôt. Monte Moro, R., L., & A. 3-4, D. 4 , pens. 6 fr .; wine at the Restaurant du Dôme). Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer in St. Augustine's Church, adjoining the botel.

Excursions. (Guides: Clemens Zurbriggen, Xaver Andenmatten, Alois, Emil, and Abraham Imseng, Ambros, Alois, and Peter Supersaxo, Joh. Jos. and Alois Anthamatten, Emanuel Burgener, J. M. Blumenthal.) Above the Triftalp, 3 hrs . from Saas on the E. side of the valley, is the small Hot. Weissmies (ca. $7870^{\prime}$ '), commanding an admirable survey of the Saasgrat from Monte Rosa to the Balfrinhorn. This inn is a good centre for the ascents of the Triftgrätli ( $9100^{\prime} ; 1 \mathrm{hr}$. ; guide 10 fr. ), Trifthorn ( $11,15 \mathrm{~S}^{\prime} ; 3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 20 fr ), Jägihorn ( $10,540^{\prime} ; 21 / 2$ hrs.; guide 15 fr .), and Inner Rothhorn ( $11,290^{\prime} ; 3 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 15 fr .). The *Weissmies ( $13,226^{\prime}$; guide 40 fr .), ascended from the Hôt. Weissmies viâ the Trift Glacier and the S.W. arête in 5 hrs., or from the Almagell Huts ( $7300^{\prime}$; good quarters), $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. above Almagell (p. 354), viâ the Zwischbergen Pass and the S. arête in $5-51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$, is laborious but very attractive (for adepts only). The Laquinhorn ( $13.140^{\prime \prime} ; 41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 40 fr .) and Rossbodenhorn ( $13,128^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$.; gnide 40 fr .) are both difficult (pp.322, 323). Difficult glacier-passes lead to the Simplon viâ the LaquinJoch ( $11,473^{\prime}$; guide 20 fr ) in $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$., or viâ the F'letschjoch ( 12,050 ; guide 30 fr .) in 8-9 hrs.; see p. 322. - Other excursions from Saas-Grund: Sonnighorn or Bottarello ( 11,455 '), by Almagell and the Furgg Alp ( 7 hrs .; guide 25 fr.), toilsome. - Latelhorn ( $10,525^{\prime}$; 5 hrs ; guide 10 fr ), not difficult. Bridle-path by Almagell and the Furgg-Alp to the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$ ) Antiona Pass (p. 324); thence to the left by the S.W. arête to the ( 1 hr. ) summit.

From Saas to the Simplon over the Rossboden Pass, the Simeli Pass, and the Sirwolten Pass or Gamser-Joch, see pp. 322, 323; to Gondo over the Zwischbergen Pass, see p. 323; to Domodossola over the Antrona Pass, see p. 324.

A well-marked bridle-path leads to the W. from Saas, crossing the Visp (preferable footpath, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. shorter, viâ the Chupel of St. Joseph ), to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Saas-Fee (5900'; *Grand-Hôt. du Dom; *GrandHôt. Bellevue; Grand-Hôt. Saas-Fee, R., L., \& A. 4, lunch 21/2-3, D. 4-5, pens. 7-9 fr.; all under the same management ; *Hôt.-Pens. Saas-Fee, R., L., \& A. 21/4-4, pens. 6-8 fr., at the entrance to the village), charmingly situated amidst pastures, with a magnificent view of the Fee Glacier, environed by the Mittaghorn, Egginerhorn, Allalinhorn, Alphubel, Täschhorn, Dom, Süd-Lenzspitze, and Ulrichshorn. To the E. rise the Weissmies with the Triftgrat, the Laquinhorn, and the Rossbodenhorn. English Church, with services in summer.

Excursions. (Guides, see above.) Pleasant walks on the pastures and in the wood near Fee, and in the romantic gorge of the Feekinn. On a moraine between the two arms of the Fee Glacier, 1 hr . from Fee, lies the Gletscher-Alp (7008'; cabaret), a pasture once surrounded by the glacier. The Plattje ( $8460^{\prime}$ ), by the Gaden-Alp, 2 hrs., and the Mellig ( $8812^{\prime}$ ), by the Hannig-Alp, $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., are interesting and not difficult (without guide). Mittaghorn ( $10,330^{\prime} ; 4 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 10 fr .), and Egginerhorn ( 11,080 ; 5 hrs ; 20 fr. ), both very interesting and not difficult for fairly experts. Good climbers may follow the arête from the Mittaghorn to the Egginerhorn (somewhat dizzy). - *Allalinhorn ( 13,235 '; 8 hrs.; 25 fr.), trying, but without difficulty for experts. Above the ( 3 hrs .) Lange Fluh we diverge to the left from the Alphubel route, ascend to the ( $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Fee Pass (p. 354), and to the left to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) summit (magnificent view). The Alphubel ( 13,803 '; guide over the Alphubel-Joch 35 fr ., over the Mischabel-Joch 40 fr .); the Nadelhorn (West-Lenzspitze, 14,220'; guide 40 fr .), and the Süd-Lenzspitze ( $14,108^{\prime}$; guide over the Nadel-Joch 80 fr., over the Eggfth 100 fr .) may also be ascended from Fee by experts (difficult). The ascents of the Täschhorn (14,478'; 80 fr., viâ the Mischabel-Joch 90 fi.$)$ and the $\operatorname{Dom}\left(14,942^{\prime} ; 100 \mathrm{fr}\right.$.) on this side are endangered by falling stones and are not advisable. - Ulrichshorn (12,890'), from Fee across the Hohbalen Glacier and the Windjoch, or over the Ried Pass (see below) in $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 30 fr ), and Balfrinhorn (12,475'), over the Ried Pass in 7.8 hrs . (guide 30 fr .), both without difficulty for experts.

Passes. To Zermatt over the Alphubel-Joch, $11-12 \mathrm{hrs}$., very attractive, and easy for experts (guide 30 fr .). From Fee 1 hr . to the Glet-scher-Alp (see p. 353); then a steep ascent to the Lange Fluh, at the ( 2 hrs .) top of which ( $9345^{\prime}$ ) we reach the magnificent Fee Glacier. We ascend this glacier, which is much crevassed at places, and finally cross snow-fields to the ( 3 hrs .) *Alphubel-Joch ( 12,475 '), between the Alphubel $\left(13,803^{\prime}\right.$ ) and the Mellichenhorn (12,834'), commanding a splendid view of the Matterhorn, Weisshorn, etc. Descent over the Wand Glacier, and then over rock, moraine, and grassy slopes to the Upper and ( 3 hrs. ) Lower Täsch Alp (7270'; sinall inn, dear) in the Mellichen Valley. A direct but rough forest-path leads hence to the left, round the slope, to Zermatt in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ; better to descend to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Täsch ( p .344 ) and follow the road (or take train) thence to (4 M.) Zermatt. - A similar pass is the Fee Pass ( 12,505 '), between the Mellichenhorn and Allalinhorn ( 12 hrs . from Saas to Zermatt; gaide 30 fr .).

From Fee to Zermatt over the Mischabel-Joch (12,650'; 13 hrs .; guide 35 fr.$)$, between the Täschhorn and Alphabel, fatiguing, but not very difficult for adepts. Over the Domjoch ( $14,060^{\prime} ; 13 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 50 \mathrm{fr}$ ), between the Täschhorn and Dom, and over the Nadel-Joch ( 13,670 ; $14 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 45 \mathrm{fr}$.), between the Dom and the Süd-Lenzspitze, both very difficalt and dangerous from falling stones. Orer the Lenzjoch (about 12,200'), between the Süd. Lenzspitze and Nadelhorn, grand but difficult.

Fromi Saas to St. Niklaus over the Ried Pass (12,050'; 11 hrs ; guide 30 fr. ), difficult. From the ( 1 hr .) Hannig-Alp ( $7065^{\prime}$; see p. 353 ), a steep ascent over the Bider Glacier to the pass, between (r.) the Balfrinhorn $\left(12,475^{\prime}\right)$ and (1.) the Ulrichshorn $\left(12,890^{\prime}\right)$, both of which may be ascended from the pass (see above). Descent over the Ried Glacier to the Schalbetl Alp (6915') and by Hellenen to St. Niklaus (p. 343). - A similar pass is the Windjoch (about $12,460^{\prime} ; 11 \mathrm{hrs}$; 30 fr .), between the Ulrichshorn and Nadelhorn.

From Fee to Mattmari over the Egginer Pass (about 9840'), between the Mittaghorn and Egginerhorn, $7-8$ hrs., or over the Kessjen-Joch (9870'), between the Egginerhorn and the Hinter-Allalin, 9 hrs. (guide 30 fr.), not difficult for experts.

Beyond Saas-Grund the bridle-path ascends gradually, passing the chalets of Zerbrüggen and Moos. The Almagell-Bach forms a fine *Fall, on the left, just before we reach ( 50 min .) Almagell ( $5505^{\prime}$ ' new inn; Swiss douane), where the path from the Antrona Pass descends (p.324). To the right is the direct path to ( 1 hr .) Saas-Fee (see p. 353). The bridle-path follows the right bank of the Visp, through wood at places, and crosses the Furggbach near the ( 20 min .) chalets of Zermeiggern ( $5630^{\prime}$; on the left bank). To the right rise the precipices of the Mittaghorn and Egginerhorn (p.353), with the glittering snow-fields of the Allalinhorn (p. 353) above. We next ascend the stony Eienalp to the ( 1 hr .) ruined chapel of Im Lerch ( $637{ }^{\circ}$ '). On the right lie the huge moraines of the *Allalin Glacier, which descends from the Allalinhorn, filling the valley and forming the Mattmark Lake (p. 355). The moraine contains blocks of 'gabbro', mingled with smaragdite, like those common in W. Switzerland, but hitherto found nowhere as belonging to the soil except on the Saasgrat; whence geologists infer that the glaciers of this region once extended to the Jura.

The path ascends in zigzags over the debris of the moraine, past the light-green little Mattmark Lake, to the ( 1 hr. ) Hôtel Mattmark ( $6965^{\prime}$; homely, R. \& A. $31 / 2$, D. 4-5 fr.; not open before July) on the Mattmark-Alp. Till 1818 the Schwarzberg Glacier, barely visible high above us, extended across the bed of the lake, but afterwards receded, leaving behind it its moraines and a huge block of serpentine called the Blaue Stein to mark its former extent.

Excursrons. (Guides should be brought from Saas, as they are rare at Mattmark.) - The Stellihorn ( $11,393^{\prime}$; from the Mattmark Inn, by the OfenThal, $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 10 fr .) affords an imposing view of the Eastern Alps.

Glacier Passes to Zermatt, for mountaineers, with good guides:
The Schwarzberg-Weissthor ( 11,850 ; 10 hrs .; guide $2 \overline{\mathrm{fr}}$.). The route skirts the left side of the Schwarzberg Glacier, ascending rock and moraine, and crosses the crevassed glacier to the ( 5 hrs .) pass, to the S . of the Strahlhorn. (The New Weissthor, from Zermatt to Macugnaga, lies farther to the S.; comp. p. 351.) From this point to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Riffelhaus, see p. 349.

The Adler Pass (12,460'; 10-11 hrs.; guide 25 fr.). From the Hôt. Mattmark we cross the Thällibach to the Mattmark-Alp chalets, and ascend rapidly below the Schwarzberg Glacier (see above) and past the Schwarzenberg Chalets ( $7800^{\prime}$ ). In 2 hrs. we reach the Allalin Glacier at a height of 9435', and ascend its E. margin to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Aeussere Thurm ( $9945^{\prime}$ ) and ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Innere Thurm ( $10,880^{\prime}$ ). We turn to the $\mathbf{W}$., to the middle of the glacier, where the route divides. To the right, crossing towards the Allalinhorn $\left(13,235^{\prime}\right)$, is the route to the Allalin Pass (see below), while we ascend very steeply straight to the ( $2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Adler Pass, between (1.) the Strahlhorn ( $13,750^{\prime}$; from the pass in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) and (r.) the Rimpfischhorn $\left(13,790^{\prime}\right)$. The view of Mite. Rosa and the Matterhorn is very striking, bat the view to the N. and N.W. is shut out by the Rimpfischhorn. Then down the Adler Glacier to the foot of the Rimpfischroänge (difficult in certain states of the snow); skirt the latter, crossing rock and moraine; and traverse the Findelen Glacier to the ( 3 hrs .) Fluh-Alp ( $8570^{\prime}$; inn), $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Zermatt (p. 348). - Hr. von Grote (p. 345), a Russian traveller, lost his life in 1859 by falling into a crevasse of the Findelen Glacier.

The Allalin or Täsch Pass (11,713'; 10-11 hrs.; guide 25 fr .) is sometimes impracticable owing to the crevasses of the upper Allalin Glacier. From the Innere Thurm (see above) to the top 2 hrs. ; descent over the Mellichen Glacier, and along the N. base of a ridge separating the latter from the Wand Glacier, to the Mellichen Valley. Thence to Zermatt, see p. 354.

From Mattmark to Macugnaga by the ${ }^{*}$ Monte Moro Pass ( 6 hrs .; guide from Saas 15 fr ., incl. night spent at Mattmark 20 fr .), see p. 357. The previous night should be spent at Mattmark, that the pass may be reached before the noonday mists rise from the S. valleys to conceal the view.

From Mattmark to Antrona (and Domodossola) over the Antigine o Ofenthal Pass ( $7 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 12 fr .), see p. 324.

85. From Piedimulera to Macugnaga, and over the Monte Moro Pass to Mattmark.

Comp. Maps, pp. 354, 344.

From Piedimulera (p. 465) to Macugnaga 63/4 hrs. (to Pontegrande $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$., Vanzone $3 / 4$, Ceppomorelli 1, Pestarena $11 / 2$, Macugnaga $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). Carriageroad as far as Ceppomorelli (omnibus twice daily in $31 / 4-4 \mathrm{hrs}$., fare $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; one-horse carr. from Piedimulera 10-12 fr.). Road to Macugnaga nearly completed. From Macugnaga to the Moro Pass 4, Mattmark 2, Saas 21/2, Stalden 3 hrs. - Goide advisable from Macugnaga the to Thälliboden ( 10 fr .; to the Mattmark Alp 12 fr .).

The Moro Pass was the usual route from the Valais to Italy before the construction of the Simplon road, but is now used by walkers only. Its great attraction consists in the proximity of Monte Rosa, and the views will compare with the finest in Switzerland.

Piedimulera ( $810^{\prime}$ ), see p. 465. The road ascends the *Val Anzasca, passes through two tunnels, and skirts the fertile slopes of the left bank of the Anza. Charming and varied views. $1^{1 / 2} \mathbf{M}$. Gozzi di Sotto (1280') belongs to Cimamulera, which lies above, to the right. We obtain a glimpse of the majestic Mte. Rosa group as we near ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the large village of Castiglione d' Ossola ( $1685^{\prime}$ ). The road is now level; above, to the right, lies ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Calasca. Near ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Pontegrande ( $1720^{\prime}$; Hôt. du Grand Pont, plain) is a fall of the stream descending from Val Bianca.

Un the hill opposite, on the right bank of the Anza, lies Bannio (2237'; Osteria del Pino, rustic). Over the Col di Baranca to Fobello, and over the C'ol d'Egua to Carcoforo, see p. 467.

The road ascends past San Carlo (1890'), with its large church, and gold-mines worked by an English company, to ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Vanzone ( $2220^{\prime}$; pop. 470 ; *Alb. dei Cacciatori, plain), the chief village in the valley. Just beyond it we enjoy a superb view of Monte Rosa. The road ends at ( 3 M. ) Ceppomorelli ( $2427^{\prime}$; *Albergo delle Alpi, R. \& A. 2, B. 1-11/2 fr.; Alb. del Monte Moro), where the bridle-path begins (male to Macugnaga 10 fr .; road in progress). Near ( 20 min .) Prequartero a path to the right crosses the Mondelli Pass ( $9320^{\prime}$ ) to the Saas Valley (p. 357), but commands no view of Monte Rosa like the Moro Pass. Our path then crosses the Anza, ascends rather steeply to ( 35 min .) the hamlet of Morghen, and again descends to the stream.

At ( 40 min .) Pestarēna (Albergo delle Alpi, well spoken of; Alb. dei Minieri, plain) are gold-mines. We now follow the right bank. Near ( 40 min.) Borca ( 394 on' $^{\prime}$; Alb. del Passo del Turlo, R. 1 fr.), the first German-speaking village, a fine waterfall descends from Val Quarazza on the left (p.358); 20 min . farther on Mte. Rosa is fully revealed for the first time.

The parish of Macugnāga contains six villages: Borca, In der Stapf (or Staffa), Zum Strich (or Pratti), Auf der Rive (or Rippa), Das Dorf (or La Villa), and Zertannen (or Pecetto). Staffa (4343') lies $13 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from Borca and contains the hotels (*Hôt. Monte Rosa, R. \& A. 3, B. $11 / 2$, D. 4 fr.; Hôt. Monte Moro, kept by Oberto, same charges; Hôtel Belvedere, unpretending). The village lies in a pleasant grassy dale, enclosed by a majestic ampitheatre of snowclad mountains: (1.) the four peaks of Monte Rosa: Signalkuppe (Punta Gnifetti; 14,965'), Zumsteinspitze ( $15,005^{\prime}$ ), Höchste (or Dufour) Spitze $\left(15,217^{\prime}\right)$, and Nord-End $\left(15,132^{\prime}\right)$; then the Jagerhorn (13,042'). Fillarhorn (12,070'), Old Weissthor (11,915'), C'ima di Jazzi (12,527'), Neu-Weissthor-Spitze (12,010'), Roffelhörner $\left(11,690^{\prime}\right)$, Rothhorn ( $10,620^{\prime}$ ), and Faderhorn ( $10,550^{\prime}$ ). The 16 th cent. church of the old 'village' (most of which was buried by a landslip), with the old lime-tree where the parish used to meet in conclave, is worth a visit ( 10 min . from Hôt. Monte Rosa).

Excursions. (Guides: Daniel Anthamatten, L. Burgener, C'lemens Imseng, Aless. Corsi, G. Oberto, M. and L. Zurbriggen, etc.) From the Belvedere ( $6340^{\prime}$ ), 2 hrs. to the W. (guide, 5 fr ., desirable for novices), the grand amphitheatre is surveyed from summit to base; the view embraces the parish of Macugnaga with its pastures and fields, the larch-forest on the right side, and the grassy slopes above them. The bridle-paih passes the old church of Macugnaga (see p. 356), and runs towards the church of the uppermost hamlet, Zertannen or Pecetto, where a guide-post directs us to the right to the Weissthor and to the left to the Belvedere. We cross the Anza in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., and ( 10 min .) cross another bridge. Then a good path through bushes and pastures to the wooded hill, which separates the two tongues of the Macugnaga Glacier (last $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. steep). About 5 min . below the top is a small Inn. - Over the Macugnaga Glacier to the Pedriolo Alp (there and back $6 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 6 fr .), repaying. Above Zertannen ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) we ascend to the right (leaving the Belvedere path on the left) and over the Roffelstafel Alp (where the route to the New Weissthor diverges to the right) to the Jazzi-Alp; then past the Fillar-Alp (above which, to the right, is the Castelfranco Glacier, crossed on the way to the Old Weissthor), to the Macugnaga Glacier, and across the latter (superb view) to the ( 3 hrs .) Pedriolo-Alp ( $6730^{\prime}$; milk). We return either by the high-lying Croza-Alp, or by a shorter route across the glacier, the $S$. arm of which is called the Pedriolo Glacier, passing the Belvedere (see above).

Pizzo Bianco ( $10,552^{\prime} ; 5-6 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 10 fr .), a splendid point of view, fatiguing, but without danger; last hour over steep snow.

Monte Rosa, Höchste or Dufour-Spitze (15,217'; guide 150, porter 100 fr .), very difficult and hazardous from Macugnaga (first time, 1872). The night is spent in the ( 6 hrs ) Capanna Marinelli of the I. A. C. $\left(10,500^{\prime}\right)$, on the Jügerrücken. Thence to the Dufourspitze $10-12 \mathrm{hrs}$. (p. 350).

To Zermatt over the New Weissthor (11,745'; guide 30, porter 25 fr.; 10-12 hrs. from Macugnaga to the Riffel Inn, p. 346), a grand route, safe for adepts with good guides: 5 hrs . from Macugnaga, and $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. below the pass, is the Capanna Eugenio Sella of the I. A. C. $\left(10,335^{\prime}\right)$, grandly situated on the margin of the Roffel Glacier. - The Old Weissthor ( 11,915 ), very difficult (gaide 35 fr .), is better from this side than from Zermatt, p. 352.

From Macugnaga to Alagna over the Col del Turlo or the Colle delle Loccie, see p. 358; to Carcoforo over the Passo della Moriana or the Colle della Bottiglia, see p. 467 ; тo Rima by the Colle del Piccolo Altare, see p. 467 .

The new path to the Moro Pass ascends by the Hôt. Monte Rosa to the right through larch-wood, over pastures, and lastly over debris and snow. The ( 4 hrs .) *Monte Moro Pass ( $9390^{\prime}$ ), between (1.) Monte Moro ( $10,520^{\prime}$ ) and (r.) the St. Joderhorn (9974'), affords an admirable survey of the grand Mte. Rosa group, to the S.W., flanked by (l.) the Punta delle Loccie, Pizzo Bianco, and Fallerhorn, and (r.) the Fillarkuppe, Old Weissthor, and Cima di Jazzi; to the N. are the Saas Valley and the Mischabel, with the Pietschhorn in the background.

The St. Joderhorn (9974'), to the E. of the pass ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., over snow and rocks), affords a still finer view, though seldom clear towards Italy.

We descend by the side of the Thälliboden Glacier over step-like rocks, the remains of the old bridle-path, to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Thälliboden ( $8190^{\prime}$ ), a small mossy plain, where the route from the Mondelli Pass (p. 356) comes down on the right. To the N.W. the Mischabelhörner (Dom, Täschhorn) are revealed; nearer are the Allalinhorn, Innere Thurm, and Strahlhorn. Crossing the Thällibach (below the Seewinen Glacier, of the left), we reach ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Distel-Alp chalets ( $7120^{\prime}$ ) and the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hôtel Mattmark (p. 355).

86. From Macugnaga to Zermatt round Monte Rosa.

Comp. Maps, pp. 354, 344.

Four Days: 1st. Over the Turlo Pass to Alagna. 2nd. Over the Colle d'Olen to Gressoney-la-Trinité. 3rd. Over the Bettaforca to Fiery, and over the Col des Cimes Blanches to the Theodule Pass. 4th. Ascent of the Breithorn, and descent to Zermatt. (Or: 1st day, to Riva; 2nd, over the Col di Valdobbia to Gressoney-St-Jean; 3rd, over the Pinter-Joch to Fiéry; 4th, over the Theodule Pass to Zermatt.) Guide 8-10 fr. per day. The Col di Valdobbia, Bettaforca, and Col des Cimes Blanches are practicable for mules. - Less robust walkers may cross the Col di Baranca from Pontegrande (p. 356) to Fobello, and reach Alagna thence through the Val Sesia in $2-3$ days, an easy route (comp. p. 467). - The valleys on the S. slopes of Mte. Rosa, from Macugnaga to Gressoney, are said to have been peopled by immigrants from German Switzerland, a fact which would account for their present language.

From Macugnaga to Alagna over the Turlo Pass, $8-9 \mathrm{hrs}$, fatiguing and not very interesting (guide 14 fr .). Below Macugnaga $(1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.$) we quit the Borca path ( \mathrm{p} .356$ ), cross the Anza to the hamlet of Isella, and ascend a wooded hill to the ( 1 hr .) chalets of Spissa, at the entrance to the rock-strewn Val Quarazza, which we enter to the right. The slopes are wooded, and several waterfalls are passed. The path, at first level, then ascends a rocky barrier, and ( 1 hr .) crosses the brook to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) La Piana, the highest Alp $\left(5278^{\prime}\right)$. Opposite, on the W. side of the valley, is a fine waterfall (La Pissa). Ascending more rapidly, the path sweeps round the desolate head of the valley, passes ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) some ruined huts $\left(6560^{\prime}\right)$, and then becomes very faint. We climb steep grass-slopes, and lastly over rocks and snow, to the ( 2 hrs .) Turlo Pass ( $8977^{\prime}$ ), a sharp ridge between (r.) the Fallerhorn ( $10,270^{\prime}$; ascended from the pass in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) and (1.) the Corno Piglimo ( $9500^{\circ}$ ). Descending over an expanse of snow and poor stony pastures, we enjoy a fine view of the Sesia Glacier, the Signalkuppe, and Parrot-Spitze. We pass the small Turlo Lakes and the Alp Faller (6520'), and descend into the Val Sesia, where we cross the Acqua Bianca, which descends on the left in a beautiful cascade $300^{\prime}$ in height, to the ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Sesia bridge. A good path now leads on the right bank, past the goldmine of Santa Maria Maddalena (worked by an English company), to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alagna (3905'; *Hôt. Monte Rosa, R. $21 / 2$, B. $11 / 2$, D. 31/2, pens. $6-10 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Grand Hôtcl Alagna), a large village, finely situated, and frequented by Italians as a summer-resort.

From Macugnaga to Alagna over the Colle delle Loccie ( $11,000^{\prime}$ ), 11-12 hrs. , difficult and fit for experts only (guide 40 fr .). A toilsome and even hazardous climb of $7-8$ hrs., over the Pedriolo $A l p$ (p. 357) and the crevassed Norther $n$ Loccie Glacier, leads to the pass, between the Monte delle Loccie (Cima della Pissa; 11,477) and the Punta dei Tre Amici (11,617'). Descent over the Vigne Glacier to the Flua (yuarters), Blatte, and Biz Alps in the Sesia valley, opposite the Pile-Alp.

Excursions (guides, G. Gilardi, C. Martinale). Up the Val Sesia to the ( 2 hrs. ) "Pile-Alp ( 4710 '; superb survey of the S.E. peaks of Monte Rosa); then to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Bors and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Decco. (Over the Col delle Pisse to Gressoney, see p. 359.) - The Corno Bianco ( $10,890^{\prime} ; 12$ fr.), a difficult peak, with fine view of Monte Rosa and the Graian Alps, is ascended from Alagna in $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. (from the Col di Valdobbia in 6 hrs .). Steep descent by the Bocchetta di Netscio to Gressoney-la-Trinité. - Two passes lead to the E. from Alagna to ( $51 / 2-6^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) Rima in the Valle Piccola (p.467): the Colle Moud ( $7620^{\prime}$ ) to the $\mathbf{N}$. of the Tagliaferro ( $9725^{\prime}$ ), and the Bocchetla Moanda (7935') on its S. side (preferable). - To Zermatt over the Lysjoch, the Sesia-Joch, and the Piode-Joch, see p. 351. - From Alagna to Mollia and Varallo, see pp. 468, 467.

From Alagna to Gressonby-la-Trinité ovbr thb Colle d'Olbs, $6-7 \mathrm{hrs} .$, attractive and easy (bridle-path; guide, 14 fr ., needless, but enquire for the beginning of the path). We ascend to the W. through meadows and wood, passing several groups of houses, to the ( 2 hrs .) Alp Seon or Laglietto, cross the brook, and mount pastures and then over debris to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Colle d'Olen ( $9420^{\prime}$; *Guglielmina's Inn, pens. 6-7 fr.). View towards the N.W. very fine.

The *Gemsstein or Corno del Camoscio (9928'), to the N., easily ascended from the pass in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (guide needless), affords a striking view of Monte Rusa, Mont Blanc, the Grand Combin, the Graian Alps, and Monte Viso.

We descend to the Gabiet-Alp and there either take a path diverging to the left, which descends direct to Trinité past the little Gabiet Lake and through the Vallone di Netscio, or follow the bridle-path to the right, to ( 2 hrs .) Orsia ( $5740^{\prime}$; Cantina di St. Jacques), in the Val Gressoney or Lysthal, and ( 20 min .) Gressoney-la-Trinité, Ger. Oberteil (5370'; Hôt.-Pens. Thedy, R. 2, D. $4 \frac{1}{2}$, pens. $7 \frac{1}{2}$ fr.). A road descends the picturesque valley past ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the *Hôt.-Pens. Miravalle ( $5270^{\prime}$ ), by Castel and Perletoa to ( $31 / 2$ M.) Gressoney-St-Jean ( $4545^{\prime}$; *Hôt. Delapierre, R. \& A. 21/2, pens. 81/2 fr.; Hôt.Pens. du Mont-Rose; Hôt.Lyskamm), the capital of the valley.

From Alagna to Gressoney over the Col delle Pisse ( $10,370^{\prime} ; 81 / 2-9 \mathrm{hrs}$.; with guide), rather fatiguing. We go by the Stoffel-Alp and the Bocchetta delle Pisse ( $7877^{\prime}$ ), round the N. side of the Gemsstein (see above), into the Bors Valley (passing the Bors Glacier, on the right, with a waterfall), and ascend to ( $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the pass, with the ruined Vincent-Hütte. (Thence to the Colle d'Olen, 1 hr .; to the Gnifetti Club Hut, over the Indren and Garstelet Glaciers, 2 hrs., p. 351.) Good path down the Mos Valley to the Gabiet$A l p$ and ( $3^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Gressoney-la-Trinité (see above).

An easier route is across the Col di Valdobbia (8133'), from Riva Valdobbia ( 2 M . below Alagna, p. 468) to Gressoney-St-Jean ( 6 hrs .; guide 14 fr .). A road ascends the Val Vogna to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Casa Janzo ( $4460^{\prime}$; *Alb. \& Pens. Favro), whence the bridle-path, by (3 M.) Peccia (5023'), mounts steeply to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Ospizio Sottile on the col. The view is limited, but we enjoy a charming survey of the Val Gressoney with its rich pastures, pine-clad slopes, and waterfalls. Steep descent over snow and stones, then through pine-forest, to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Gressoney-St-Jean.

Exccrsions from Gressoney (guides: G. Cugnod, Val. Laurent, S:' ${ }^{\text {G. }}$ Vicquery, Al. and Ant. Welf, Alb. Bieler). Beautiful view from the ( 1 hr .) Boden-Alp at the foot of the Grauhorn, and from the hill of Castel, halfway to St. Jean. - Excursion by ( 2 hrs .) Cortlis (Cour de Lys, $6580^{\prime}$ ), with a shooting-box of the late Baron Peccoz, to the Alps Salza inferiore and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Salza superiore ( $766 \mathrm{i}^{\prime}$ ), commanding the Lys Glacier. - The Hohe Licht ( $11,310^{\circ}$ ), ascended from the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) small and ruinous Linty Hut ( $10,00^{\circ}$ ) in 1 hr . (guide), is a fine point. - Two clab-hats of the I. A. C. are useful for glacier-expeditions. From the Gnifetti Hut ( $11,965^{\prime}$ ), on the W. side of the Garstelet Glacier, 5 hrs . from Cortlis, or 3 hrs . from the Colld'Olen, the Vincent Pyramid ( $13,830^{\prime}$ ) is ascended in 2 hrs ., the Schoarzhorn (Corno Nero; 13,882') in 3 hrs. ( 30 fr.), the Parrot-Spitze ( $14,643^{\prime}$; guide 30 fr .) in 3 hrs ., the Signalkuppe (Punta Gnifetti; 14,965'; guide 35 fr .), with the Capanna Osservatorio Regina Margherita "f the I. A. C., in 4 hrs ., and the Zumstein-Spitze ( $15,004^{\prime}$;, guide $3 \overline{\mathrm{ff}} \mathrm{fr}$.) in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. The last two may be combined. The Dufourspitze ( $15,217^{\prime}$ ) was first ascended from this side in 1886 ( 7 hrs . from the Gnifetti Hut). - The Quintino Sella Hut (11,815'), nn the rocks to the W. of the Felik Glacier, 5 hrs. from Cortlis, is the starting-point for the ascent of the Lyskamm ( $14,890^{\prime}$; by the S.W. arête in $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 50 \mathrm{fr}$.) and the Castor ( $13,880^{\prime} ; 4^{1} 1 / 2 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 30 \mathrm{fr}$.). The descent from the latter may be made to Breuil (guide 40 fr .) or Zermalt ( 50 fr .).

From Gressoney to Zermatt over the Lysjoch, Felik-Joch, ZuillingsJoch, or Schrocrzthor, see p. 351. Guide in each case 50 fr .

A good road (diligence thrice daily from La Trinité in $4-4 \frac{1}{2}$ hrs., from St. Jean in $31 / 4-33 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$., fare $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; in the reverse direction in 5 or 6 hrs ., fare 4 fr .; one-horse carr. 16, two-horse 30 fr .) leads from Gressoney-SiJean through the beantiful Lysthal by Gaby (inn) to (8 M.) Issime ( $3080^{\prime}$; ${ }^{\text {* }}$ Hôt. Mont Néri), and through chestnut-woods viâ Fontainemore and Lillianes to ( $81 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. ) Pont-St-Martin (p. 306). - An easy bridle-path leads to the W. from St. Jean in $31 / 2$ hrs. over the Colle Ranzola (7123') to Brusson (see helow) in the Challant Valley, and in $21 / 2$ hrs. more over the Col de Joux (5375') to St. Vincent and Chatitlon (p. 305). - Two admirable points are the Mont Taille ( $8255^{\prime}$ ), 1 hr . from the Ranzola Pass, and the Bec de Frudiè re (Mont Néri; 10,073'), farther to the S., between the Gressoney and Challant valleys (from Issime viâ the Colle di Chasten in $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 12 fr .).

From Gressonby-la-Trinité to Fiéry ovbr thb BbttaFORCA, $41 / 2-5$ hrs., easy and repaying (with guide). At ( 20 min .) Orsia (p. 359) the bridle-path diverges to the left, crosses ( 5 min .) the Lys, and mounts rapidly past the houses of Betta to ( 1 hr .) the chapel of St. Anna ('7120'; below it, a fine waterfall), where we have a beautiful view of the Lyskamm and Monte Rosa. Then up a monotonous valley (keeping to the right), past the Sitten-Alp, to the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Colle di Bettaforca ( $8780^{\prime}$ ), where we see the Graian Alps peeping above the Val d'Ayas, and the Grand Combin to the right. We descend (still to the right) to (1 hr.) the hamlet of Résy ( 6780 ; cantine), turn to the right, and cross the Verra to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Fiéry ( $6160^{\prime}$; Hôt. des Cimes Blanches, well spoken of ; New Inn), on the slope 20 min . above St. Jacques ( $5480^{\prime}$ ), overlooking the wooded Val d'Ayas.

The Bettliner Pass (Passo di Bettolina; 9500'), from Trinité to Fiéry $61 / 4$ hrs., is somewhat more trying. From ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Cortlis we ascend to the left by the Bettolina-Alp to the ( $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) pass. Superb view. Descent round the W. flank of Monte Bettolina ( $9830^{\prime}$ ') to the Bettaforca route and ( 2 hrs .) Fiery.

From Gressoney-St-Jean to Fiéry over the Pinter-Joch (Col de Cunéaz; $\left.9120^{\prime}\right), 6 \mathrm{hrs}$., easy and repaying. From the pass (extensive view) experts may ascend the *Grauhaupt ( 10,875 '; toilsome) in 2 hrs.; view strikingly grand.

A road (diligence from Brasson to Verrés daily in $2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ., up in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) descends the pictaresque Val d'Ayas (called Val Challant in its lower part), watered by the Evançon, to Champoluc, ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Brusson ( $4520^{\prime}$; Lion d'Or), and ( 3 hrs .) Verrés, in the Dora Valley (p. 306).

From Fiéry to Brbuil, or to the Théodulb Pass, ovbr teb Col des Cimbs Blanches ( 5 hrs ., guide advisable). The rough mule-track to Breuil ascends rapidly through wood, passes the Alp Aventina, and traverses poor pastures and a dreary valley, with the Aventina Glacier on the right. Beyond (2 lirs.) Varda (7645'), the last Alp, it ascends steeply, crossing ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) a brook descending from the right, and in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more the Cortoz (where the path to the Théodule diverges to the right, see below). We next ascend a rocky chaos, to the right of the small Lacs de Vent, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Col des Cimes Blanches ( $9775^{\prime}$ ), with a fine view of the Matterhorn and Dent d'Hérens, lying to the N.E. of the Gran Sometta (10,390'; a splendid point of view, easily scaled in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). Then a descent over snow, stones, and pastures, past the little Lacs de la Barmaz and the chalets of Goillet and La Barmaz, to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Breuil (p. 362).

The route to Valtournanche diverges to the left 10 min . above the bridge over the Cortoz (see above), and reaches the ( ${ }^{1}+\mathrm{hr}$.) Col Sud des Cimes Blanches $\left(9510^{\circ}\right.$ ), to the S. of the Gran Sometta (farther to the S. is a third pass, $9^{(298}$ '). Descent, with a fine view to the W., to the beautifully situated Alp Cleva Gross ( $7352^{\prime}$ ), and to the left to ( 2 hrs.) Vallournanche (see below). After fresh snow this direct path to Valtournanche is impracticable, and the descent must be made viâ Breuil.

Travellers bound for the Theodule Pass and Zermatt need not descend to Brevil, but (with guide) ascend to the right, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. before reaching the Col des Cimes Blanches (see above), traverse rocks and stony slopes, skirt the little Grand Lac (9135'), and reach the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) S. edge of the Valtournanche Glacier or Plan Tendre $\left(10,125^{\prime}\right)$. The crevassed glacier is then crossed (rope advisable), and lastly a steep snow-slope ascended to the ( $11 / 2-2$ hrs.) Theodule Pass (p. 348).

87. From Châtillon to Valtournanche, and over the Théodule Pass to Zormatt.

Comp. Map, p. $3 \not 4$.

Road to ( $111 / 2 \mathrm{Mr}$.) Valtournanche (diligence daily in $33 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$., fare 3 fr .. back in $21 / 2$ hrs., fare 2 fr.; one-horse carr. 12-20, two-horse $24-30 \mathrm{fr}$., From Valtournanche to Brenil $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., Théodule Pass $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$., Zermait 3 hrs . Guide from Châtillon to Zermatt $2 \overline{5}$, from Valtournanche 20, incl. the Breithorn 40 fr . - This route is the most picturesque way back into Switzerland for those who have made the Tour of Mont Blanc (R. 75). The guide should be taken all the way to Zermatt, as the path even beyond the Gandegg-Hütte, after the glacier is quitted, is poorly kept and easily missed.

Châtillon (1805'), see p. 305. The road ascends the right bank of the deep gorge of the Matmoire, among fine walnut and chestnut trees. On the hillside to the right are seen relics of a Roman aqueduct. We pass ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Champlong and ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) cross to the left bank. At (2 M.) Grands-Moulins (3280'; Cantine du Mont Cervin), where the imposing *Matterhorn suddenly appears, we return to the right bank. On the slope to the right lies the church of Antey-St-André; to the left, the remains of an aqueduct of the 12 th century. The last walnut-trees are seen at ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Fiernaz ( $3445^{\prime}$; Cantine de la Rose). High up on the right is the hamlet of Chamois ( $5950^{\prime}$ ), where oats still grow. Beyond ( $21 / 2$ M.) Ussin ( $4130^{\prime}$ ), at Moulin-Dessus, we cross the Cignana, which forms a picturesque cascade to the left, and ascend in windings to ( 3 M .) the village of Valtournanche (5000'; *Hôt. du Mont-Rose, good trout). To the E. rises the finely formed Mt. Roisetta $\left(10,895^{\prime}\right)$.

Adjoining the church-door is a tablet in memoly of Chanoine Carrel, (d. 187(), a great promoter of Alpine exploration; two (thers on the parsonage record the names of the guides J. J. Maquignaz and J. A. Cairel, who perished in 1800 on Mont Blauc and on the Matterhorn respectively.

To the Col des Cimes Blanches, see p. 361; Col de Val Cournere, see be'ow. Guides: Louis, Ceisar, and Jean-Bapt. Carrel, Ant., Jean-Bapt., and Dun. Maquignaz, L. A. Bich, J. Burmasse, C. and Max. Gorret, Al., Bern., Frans., P. G., and Silv. Pession, and others. - The Grand Tournalin ( 11,0 '5; 5-6 hrs.; guide 12 fr .), ascended by Cheneil, is not difficult for experts. On the top is the (unusable) Capanna Carrel of the I. A. C. Splendid view.

The bridle-path crosses the Matmoire, and recrosses it 1 hr . farther on. Near the second bridge ( $5715^{\prime}$ ) is a fine waterfall in the sombre *Gouffre de Busstrailles or Grotte du Géunt, reached by a wooden gallery (1 fr.) ; adjacent is the plain Hôt. des Alpes. The path ascends steeply to the chapel of Notre Dame de la Garde $\left(6000^{\prime}\right)$, and through the wild and romantic Défilé des Busserailles, passes the ( 1 hr. ) Chalets d'Aouil ( $6495^{\prime}$ ), and traverses an open valley surrounded by imposing mountains: to the left, the Chat teau des Dames, the Jumeaux du Vallon, the Pointe des Cors, Dent d'Hérens, Tête du Lion, and Matterhorn. We next reach ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the chalets of Breuil or Breil ( $6575^{\prime}$; Hôt. des Jumeaux), 10 min . above which is the solitary *Hôtel du Mont-Cervin, on the hill of Giomein (6880'; R., L., \& A. $3^{1 / 2} / 2^{-4}$, D. 4 fr. ).

Ascent of the Matter horn from Breuil, p. 350. - Over the Col des Cimes Blanches to Fiéry, and thence to Macugnaga, R. §6. - The Dent d'Hérens $\left(13,715^{\prime}\right)$ is ascended from Breuil viâ the Col des Grandes Murailles (9412') in $8-10 \mathrm{hrs}$. (difficult; letter from Pıarayé, see p. 351). - Note that guides are always to be bad at Valtournanche, but not at Breuil.

To Praraté over the Col de Val Cournere ( 8 hrs .; guide 10 fr .), rough but repaying. We cross the Matmoire, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. below Breuil, and ascend to the right to the ( 2 hrs .) Col de Dza ( $8010^{\prime}$; superb survey of the Malterhorn): descend a little, then ascend over grass, rocks, and snow, round the S.E. flank of the Château des Dames (see below) and past some small lakes, to the ( 3 hrs .) Col de Val Cournère $(10,325$ '), to the S . of the Pointe de Fonlanelle $\left(11,100^{\prime}\right)$, with a fine view of Mt. Vélan, the Grand Combin, etc. (From Valtournanche a bridle-fath leads to the chalets of Ciynana; thence a steep, tiring climb to the pass, $4^{1} / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Descent through Val Cournère to (2 hrs.) Prarayé in the Val Pellina (p. 335). The Chateau des Dames ( $11,445^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended from the pass ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; not very difficult, guide 15-18 fr.).

The Théodule route (bridle-path as far as the glacier) ascends over turf and. stones, past the Chalet des Cors, to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ) Le Fornet ( $10,095^{\prime}$ ), the scanty relics of an old fort, at the end of the Valtournanche Glacier, where the rope comes into use. We then cross the easy glacier to $(11 / 4-11,2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Theodule Pass (p.348). Ascent of the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) *Breithorn, see p. 349. To (3-31/2 hrs.) Zermatt, see p. 348 .

THE GRISONS.

The present Canton of the Grisons (Graubünden) was inhabited at the beginning of the Christian era by the Rhætians, who were conquered by the Romans in A. D. 15. After the fall of the Roman Empire Rhætia came into the possession of the Ostrogoths, and afterwards into that o the Franks. In the middle ages it became the residence of many noble families, including the Bishops of Coire, the Abbots of Disentis and Pfäfers, the Counts of Montfort, Werdenberg, Planta, and Mätsch, and the Barons of Vatz, Rhäzüns, Belmont, and Aspermont, whose ruined castles are still seen on the heights. The inhabitants were grievously oppressed by these magnates, and on several occasions entered into associations with a view to obtain redress. Thus in 1396 they formed the 'League of the House of God' (Lia da Ca Dè, or Casa Dè); in 1424 the 'Upper' or 'Gray League' (Lia Grischa); and between 1428 and 1436 the 'League of the Ten Jurisdictions' (Lia dellas desch dretturas). These coalitions gave rise in 1471 to the 'Three Perpetual Leagues of Phaetia'. In 1512 the confederates conquered the Val Tellina, which they governed by bailiffs down to 1797. By the year 1521 more than half the population had embraced the Reformation, but a powerful minority adhered to the Roman Catholic faith. The dissensions of these two parties gave rise to the invasion of their country during the Thirty Years' War by Austro-Spanish aud French armies, but through the energy of Georg Jenatsch (d.1639) the land at length recovered its independence. From the 15 th cent. onwards the 'Gray Confederates' were on friendly terms with the Swiss, and in 1803 their territory was incorporated with Switzerland as the 15 th Canton.

Down to 1848 the canton was divided into 26 small and almost independent republics, called Hoch-Gerichte (jurisdictions), but these were abolished by the new constitution. It is now the largest, though not the most populous, canton in Switzerland ( 2806 sq. M.; 96,291 inhab.), and it is remarkable for the variety of its scenery, climate, productions, and languages, as well as for its national peculiarities and political constitution. The country consists of an immense network of mountains, furrowed by about 150 valleys. Barren rocks tower above luxuriant cultivation; wild deserts, where winter reigns during three-fourths of the year, lie amid forests of chestnuts, under the deep blue sky of Italy.

No less varied are the inhabitants in origin, language, religion, and customs. The population includes 52,842 Protestants and 43,320 Roman Catholics; 37,708 are of Romanic, 44,271 of Teutonic, and 13,957 of Italian race. Of the Romanic language there are two distinct dialects: the Ladin of the Engadine, the Albula, and Münster valleys, and the Romance or Romontsch of the valleys of Disentis and Ilanz, the Oberhalbstein, Schams, etc. This dialect is spoken generally, but German is gaining ground, and is so well taught in the schools that the younger natives speak it better than the inhabitants of German Switzerland. Several small Romanic newspapers appear at Coire, Disentis, etc. - Italian is spoken to the S. of the Alps, in the valleys of Poschiavo, Bregaglia, Mesocco, and Calanca.

Coire (1935'; pop. 10,700; 2/3 Prot.), the capital of the Canton of the Grisons, the Curia Rhaetorum of the Romans, and since the 4 th cent. the seat of a bishop, is picturesquely situated on the banks of the Plessur, which falls into the Rhine $1 \frac{1}{2}$ M. from the town. Most of the Roman Catholic inhabitants dwell in the Bischöfliche Hof: or 'Episcopal Court' (Pl. E, F, 3), the upper and most interesting quarter of the town, surrounded with walls. Here rises the episcopal *Cathedral of St. Lucius (P1. F, 3), part of which dates from the 8 th cent. (adm. to the treasury $1 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ tickets at the parsonage, to the left of the church).

The columns of the ancient Portal of the Court rest on lions; above is another lion; on the columns are Apostles. The Cathedral Portal, with its projecting slender columns with graceful capitals, is Romanesque.

The Interior is interesting owing to its variety of styles. The aisles are only abont half the height of the nave. The pillars of the latter, strengthened by semi-columns, have bases adorned, as was usual in the 12th cent., with leaves at the corners and heads of animals, and have curious capitals of Corinthian tendency. The vaulting is effected by Gothic arches, which, in the aisles, are stilted. South AIsLe: *Sarcophagus of Bishop Ortlieb de Brandis (d. 1494). Altar-piece, a Madonna by Stumm, a pupil of Rubens. Tombstone of Count de Buol-Schauenstein (d. 1797), and opposite, that of his son (d. 1833). South Transept. 1st Altar: above it, Herodias by Cranach; in the centre, a Madonna of Rubens's School; the side-pictures by the elder Holbein and his school. Richly ornamented altar of the 5th century. 2nd Altar: altar-piece, a Crucifixion and Saints, of the German School of the 15 th cent.; reliquary of the 16 th century. Chork: *High-altar gilded and richly carved by Jacob Russ (1491). Stalls and a ${ }^{4}$ Tabernacle of 1484 (the latter attributed to Adam Krafft). The Crypt is a low chamber with flat vaulting of the 5th century. North Aisle: 1st Altar, St. Aloysius, by Angelica Kauffmann. Over the central altar, "Christ bearing the Cross, by Dürer. Adjacent, the tomb of Jürg Jenatsch (p. 365). In the Sacristy is the rich *Treasuex: reliquaries, crucifixes, candelabra, vestments, etc.; reliquary in embossed copper (8th cent.); reliquary in the form of a Gothic charch, with Christ and the Apostles in the arches (13th cent.); embroidered stuffs of the Saracenic period; fragments of silk of the time of Justinian; Christ and Peter on the sea, a miniature-painting on lapis-lazuli by C. Dolci. The glass-cabinets contain charters granted by Charlemagne, Louis le Débonnaire, Lothaire, etc.

Adjoining the church is the old Episcopal Palace (P1. 2; E, F, 3). The Chapel, one of the earliest of Christian edifices, lies to the N., within the ancient Roman tower of Marsoel ('Mars in oculis'), which is connected with the palace. This tower and another named Spinoel ('Spina in oculis', containing the 'Hofkeller', see p. 366 ; fine view from the windows) form the N. angles of the 'Hot'. An ancient tower to the N.W., with the adjacent wall, appears also to be Roman. The names of these towers imply that the Rhætians were overawed by their conquerors.

In the Hof-Platz rises the tasteful Gothic Hofbrunnen (1860). Behind the cathedral are the Priests' Seminary of St. Lucius and the Cantonal School (P1. F, 3; for both creeds).

Opposite the Prot. St. Martinskirche (PI. 6; D, E, 3), to the left of the approach to the cathedral-court, is the Rhaetian Museum (Pl. E, 3; Sun. 10-12, gratis; at other times 1 fr .), containing antiquities, old mural paintings from the episcopal palace (Death Dance after Holbein), the cantonal library, a natural history collection, etc. In front of the museum is a bust of Dr. E. W. Killias (d. 1891), the naturalist. - Three windows in the hall of the Rathhaus (Pl. 3; D, 3) contain stained glass of the 16 th century. - The Vazerol Monument, an obelisk in the Regierungs-Platz (P1. D, 2), commemorates the leagues of Truns (1424), Davos (1436), and Vazerol (1471). - The old cemetery in the Graben-Strasse, now a public garden (Pl. C, 3), contains well-preserved tombstones of the 16-18th cent., and a monument to the poet Gaudenz von Salis-Seewis (d. 1834), by Kayser of Zürich.

The train begins to ascend. (Above, to the right, is Conters, p. 369.) It skirts the N. slope, affording fine views, crosses several valleys with waterfalls, and passes through a tunnel to ( 15 M .) Saas (3260'; Post), and high above the Landquart to (161/2 M.) SerneusMezzaselva (3400'; *Hôt. Mezzaselva, at the station, moderate).

Bad Serneus (3225'; "Curhaus, pens. from 5 fr .), with a sulphur-spring. The road thence to ( 3 M. ) Klosters crosses both arms of the Landquart, and then keeps to the right, traversing pleasant pastures.

From above it we survey the Prätigau, with the finely vaulted Silvretta Glacier at its head; to the right, the Canardhorn ( $8566^{\prime}$ ) and Gatschieferspitz ( $8770^{\prime}$ ).

20 M . Klosters ( $3940^{\prime}$ ) lies among pleasant pastures and woods, in a broad valley enclosed by lofty mountains, and is much frequented in summer. It consists of the hamlets of Klosters-Dörfli (see above), Platz, 1 M. farther on, with the church, and Brïcke, adjoining, with the station (restaurant). (guide 10 fr .), or through the Mönchalp-Thal, 7 hrs. (guide 12 fr .), not difficult (comp. p. 375). More laborious are the Ungeheuerhörner ( $9825^{\prime} ; 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Vereina Hut, through the Süser-Thal; 25 fr.) and the Plattenhörner (highest peak $10,5 \mathrm{C}^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Vereina; 25 fr ). - The Silvrettahorn ( $10,655^{\prime}$ ), $31 / 2-\frac{1}{2}$ hrs. from the Silvretta Hut (p. 374; guide 17, from the hut 10 fr.), the Signalhorn ( $10,538^{\prime}$; from the hut 4 hrs.; guide 16 or 9 fr ), and the ${ }^{*}$ Piz Buin ( $10,880^{\prime} ; 41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the hut: guide 20 fr .) present no danger to experts. From Klosters to Lavin or Süs by the Vereina Pass, $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$, with guide ( 18 fr. ), not difficult. A narrow road ascends the right bank of the Landquart, which is formed by the confluence of the Sardasca and Vereina, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. above Klosters, and leads by Monbiel to ( $L_{1 / 2} \mathrm{hr}$.) the Novai Alp (1770'), on the left bank of the Sardasca. We now follow a bridle-path to the right, and ascend the Vereina Valley, passing the Stutzalp ( $6158^{\prime}$ ), to the ( 2 hrs .) Vereina Hut ( $639{ }^{\circ}$ '; inn in summer), at the mouth of the Vernela Valley (see below), and to the ( $1 / \mathrm{shr}$.) Alp Fremdvereina ( $6437^{\prime}$ ), where the valley divides into the Jöri-Thal to the right and the Süser-Thal to the left. We ascend the latter to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Val Torta or Vereina Pass (8700'), between the Plattenhörner and Piz Fless, opposite the imposing Piz Linard, and descend the Val Sagliains rapidly by a rough path to ( 3 hrs .) Süs oi ( 3 hrs .) Lavin (p. 429). Or, at the upper end of the Siiser-Thal, we may turn to the right to the Fless Pass ( $8045^{\prime}$ ) and thence descend the Val Filess to the Susasca Valley and the Flüela road (p. 375), 3 M. above Suis. A third route, the finest of all, leads throngh the JöriTial (see above), with the seven Jöri Lakes and the extensive Jöri Glacier overshadowed by the Weisshorn ( $10,130^{\prime}$ ), and across the Jöri-Fless Pass ( $8422^{\prime}$ ) to the Val Fless (to Süs $81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 18 \mathrm{fr}$. ). Finally, a fourth route fiom the Jöri Lakes ascends steeply to the right to the Flüela-Jöri Pass (about $8860^{\prime}$ ) and descends to the ( 5 hrs . from Vereina) Flüela Hospice (p. 374).

To Lavin by the Fuorcla Zadrell, $8 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 15 fr .), trying but interesting. From the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Vereina Hut (see above) we ascend the Veruela Valley, past the cavern of Barella Balma, to the Piller Glacier, and over the tiring ice to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Fuorcla Zadrell (Vernela Pass 0 : Laviner Joch; $9030^{\prime}$ ). Steep descent into the Val Lavinuoz, to Alp Marangun, and below the precipices of the Piz Linard by $A l p$ d` Immezz and Alp da Doura to ( $21 / 2$ hrs.) Lavin (p. 429).

To Gearda by the Silvretta Pass, $10-11 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 20 fr .), fatiguing, but easy for adepts. Road to Novai (see above; shorter path on the right hank of the Sardasca by Schweendi and Garfiun), and through the Sardasca Valley to the ( 3 hrs. ) Sardasca-Alp ( $5413^{\prime}$; rfmts.) ; then a bridle-path to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Silorelta Club Hut ( $7690^{\prime}$; inn in summer) on the Medje-Kopf ( $8140^{\prime}$ ), near the crevassed Silvretla Glacier. We ascend the glacier to the the S.E., we skirt the Klein-Buin $\left(10,695^{\prime}\right)$, cross the La Cudèra and Plan-Rai glaciers, and descend over rough rocks and loose stones to the Val Tuoi and ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Guarda (p. 430). - From the Silvretta Hut to Lavin over the Verstankla-Thor ( $9580^{\circ}$ ), 7 . hrs., trying, for adepts only (guide 22 fr.).

To the Montafon over the Schlappiner-Joch (7 hrs. to Gallenkirch; 15 fr. ), see p. 445 . - Over the Rothe Furka ( $\$ 832$ ) to the ( $8 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 15 \mathrm{fr}$.) Madlener-Haus and (3 hrs.) Patenen (p. 445), fatiguing but interesting.

At Klosters the train reverses its direction. It crosses the Landquart, and ascends through the Rütiwald, with a fine view to the right, to the Drostobel, where it doubles back by means of the Cavadürli spiral tunnel, $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. long. Thence it ascends the steep Klostersche Stütz, a wooded hill, with fine views of the Silvretta Glacier on the left, to ( $25^{1 / 2}$ M.) Laret ( $4740^{\prime}$; buffet). Beyond the little Schwarzsee $\left(4945^{\prime}\right)$, with the village of Unter-Laret to the left, we cross the Stützbach to ( 27 M.$)$ Wolfgang, at the top of the pass (5357'; inn). We descend through wood, skirt the E. side of the Davoser See (5125'; 1 M. long), abounding in fish, and drained by the Davoser Landwasser, and pass the mouth of the Flüela Valley (see below) to (29 M.) Davos-Dorf (p. 375). Thence on the right bank of the Landwasser to (31 M.) Davos-Platz (p. 376).

39 M. Flüela Pass (7835'; *Flüela Hospice, R. 2, B. 11/4, D. $2 \frac{1}{2}$ fr.). On the right lies the Schottensee, with greenish-white glacier-water, on the left the Schwarisee, with clear spring-water. To the N. rises the Weisshorn $\left(10,130^{\prime}\right)$, to the S. the Schwarzhorn.

The ${ }^{*}$ Schwarzhorn or Flüela-Schucarzhorn ( 10,335 '; 3-31/2 hrs.; guide from the Flüela Hospice 6 fr ., not needed by adepts), an admirable point, is not difficult. We descend the road to the E. for 1 M . and then ascend the Radün-Thal by a good path to the right, over stones and grass, to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) glacier. This we cross to the ( 20 min .) base of the peak, and ascend its steep S. arête to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) top. Imposing panorama: most conspicuous from S. to W. are the Piz Vadret, and beyond it the Bernina, Piz Dosdè, etc.; the Piz Kesch. Piz d’Aela, Tinzenhorn, Piz Michel (and, farther off, the Valaisian and Bernese Alps); Lenzerhorn, Tödi, Glärnisch, Sentis, Scesaplana; in the foreground, the Silvretta, the Oetzthaler Ferner, Piz Lischanna, Piz Pisoc, Ortler; then, the valleys of Flüela, Dischma, Davos, and the Lower Engadine with Ardetz and Schloss Tarasp. Descent to the Dürrboden in the Dischma-Thal (p. 377), over debris and steep slopes, for experts only, with a guide.

Rich flora on the Flüela Pass. The S. slopes are brilliant with rhododendrons in their season. The Primula villosa. Primula farinosa, Alpine anemones, Empetrum nigrum, the Saxifraga Seguieri, and the Saxifraga androsacea (near the hospice) also grow here.

The road descends the rock-strewn valley, and crosses the $S u$ - sasca at ( $21 / 4$ M.) Chant Sura, by a road-menders' hut ( $7143^{\prime}$ ). To the right opens the dreary Val Grialetsch, at the head of which rises the jagged Piz Vadret, with the great Grialetsch Glacier. The road crosses a torrent from the Val Fless (p. 373) on the left. Behind us is the Schwarzhorn. Farther down we cross the stream and pass through a gallery, beyond which Süs, with its ruined castle, becomes visible in the valley, with the three-peaked Piz Mezdi (p. 430) above it. Then a descent in windings (old road to the left shorter) to ( $61 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) - $471 / 2$ M. Süs (p. 429 ); thence to ( 61 M.) Schuls, see R. 102.

Descent, steep at places, but enlivened by waterfalls and views of the ice-clad lateral valleys, to the Alp Fontauna ( $7210^{\prime}$; see p. 378), and through the Val Sul-Inn Valley, $11 / 2$ M. from Scanfs (p. 428).

From Davos to Languies by the Strela Pass ( 4 hrs .; gnide, 10 fr ., not essential), see p. 369 ; to Arosa by the Furkahöhe ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; 12 fr .), see p. 370.

Over the Sertig Pass to Bergūn ( $81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) or Scanfs ( 9 hrs ), an attractive route, esp. in conjunction with the Fuorcla d'Eschia, and preferable to the Scaletta Pass (road as far as Sertig-Dürfli: guide, 15 fr ., not necessary for experts with special map). The road diverges to the left from the Frauenkirch road, 1 M . to the S. of Davos-Platz, crosses the Landwasser, enters the pretty, wooded Sertig Valley, and leads past ( 2 M.) the sulphur-baths of Clavadel (5160'; ${ }^{*}$ Curhaus, pens. $51 / 2-9 \mathrm{fr}$.; Villa Bellevue, a dépendance of the Curhaus, from 5 fr .) and many scattered chalets to (4 M.) Sertig-Dörfi (6102'; Inn zum Bergführer), with the church of the valley. Above the village, 'Hinter den Ecken', the valley divides into the Ducan-Thal to the right, from which a fatiguing route crosses the Ducan Pass ( $8763^{\prime}$ ) to Filisur, and the Kühalp-Thal to the left, through which our path now ascends. At the head of the valley, where the path is lost ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.), we cross the stream to the right and ascend to the S.W. over turf and screes, where the path re-appears, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Sertig Pass ( $9062^{\prime}$ ). Fine view of the Porchabella Glacier and Piz Kesch (see below) to the S. We now descend to the right past the Raveisch Lakes, where a bridle-path begins, and through the Val Tuors to the chalets of Chaclavuot ( $6106^{\prime}$ ), whence a new road leads to ( $3 \mathrm{hrs}. \mathrm{)} \mathrm{Bergün} \mathrm{(p}. \mathrm{406);} \mathrm{or} \mathrm{we} \mathrm{may} \mathrm{descend} \mathrm{from} \mathrm{the}$ pass to the S. throngh the Val Sertig and Val Fontauna to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Fontauna (see p. 377) and to ( $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) Scanfs (p. 428). Experts will find it much more interesting to ascend from the head of the Val Fontauna through the Val del Tschüvel (Val Porchabella) to the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Sertig Pass) Kesch-Hütte ( $3630^{\prime}$; inn in summer), finely situated at the foot of the Porchabella Glacier. A grand route crosses this glacier and the Fuorcla d'Eschia (9868') to (5 hrs.) Zuoz (p. 428). The Piz Kesch ( $11,220^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended from the Fuorcla in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. or from the Kesch Hut in 3 hrs . by adepts (guide 15, from Davos 30 fr .). Comp. pp. 406, 423.

The Landwasser Road crosses several torrents, with their broad stony deposits, and follows the right side of the valley, studded with houses and chalets. In front of us rises the tooth-like Tinzenhorn (p. 405). $21 / 2$ M. Frauenkirch (5060' ; *Post, pens. 5-7 fr.), protected from avalanches by a bulwark, with a picturesquely situated little charch. To the left opens the Sertig Valley, in which lies Clavadel (p. 377). The valley contracts. We cross the Landwasser near ( $11 / 2$ M.) Spinabad ( 4816 '), a sulphur-bath (plain, but good; R. 2, B. 1, pens. $5^{1} / 2^{-7} \mathrm{fr}$.), prettily situated amidst pines. Here begins the canal, which conducts the water of the Landwasser to work the new Davos electric works at Glaris. $3 / 4$ M. Glaris ( $4785^{\prime}$; Post), scattered on the pastures of the right bank. A road to the left, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. lower down, leads to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the mountain-hamlet of Monstein ( $5250^{\prime}$; *Curhaus, no invalids received, pens. 5-6 fr.). - The road follows the wooded valley, on the left bank, in view of the Piz Michēl (p. 405), to the ( $2 \frac{1}{2}$ M.) Schmelzboden Hoffnungsau (4362'; inn), a deserted foundry. To the right rise the steep, stony, and pine-clad slopes of the Züge.

Below the foundry the valley contracts to a wild gorge. The road ( $Z$ ügenstrasse) follows the left bank for $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. more, leads throngh a tunnel and an avalanche-gallery, crosses to the right bank, and begins to ascend. Three more tunnels and another avalanche gallery. The *Bärentritt, a projecting platform, $2500^{\prime}$ above the Landwasser, affords a striking view of the grand and wild valley, with the Sägentobel Fall, $105^{\prime}$ high, on the right. We cross the Sägentobel and Brückentobel, and ascend in long windings to ( $23 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -

13 M. Wiesen (4770'; *Hôt.-Pens. Bellevue \& Palmy, open the year round, pens. 6-8 fr.), on the sunny slope high above the Landwasser, a summer-resort, sheltered from the N. and N.E. winds. To the S., beyond the Landwasser gorge, on the green slopes of the Stulsergrat $\left(8^{\prime 790}\right.$ ), lies Jenisberg. Farther off are the huge Tinzenhorn (10,430') and the Piz Michēl (10,375').

Walks. By Süsswinkel to the apper Brückentobel and the Mühlentobel, with waterfalls ( 20 min .). - To the Tiefentobel (see below), 20 min . from the road a beautiful view of the Tinzenhorn, Piz Michel, and Piz d'Aela; farther on is ( 40 min .) Schmitten. Beyond the Tiefentobel we may descend to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Bodmen ( 4162 ), with its ruinous houses; pleasant forest-path thence into the gorge of the Landwasser, to the Theerhïtte, and to the Leidboden ( 20 min .); cross the Landwasser by a rickety bridge. Then either cross another bad bridge farther up, and return to ( $3 / \mathrm{khr}$.) Wiesen; or, from the first bridge, ascend to the left until we have passed a barn and some old stables, where the steep path turns to the right, leading above the former route, and through fine larch-forest and pleasant glades to ( 1 hr .) Filisur (p. 406). - To the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Jenisberg Bridge ( $3900^{\prime}$ ), 273' above the Landquart. A few paces to the left, this side the bridge, we have a fine view of the Känzeli Waterfall. From the bridge a steep ascent to ( $11 / \mathrm{hr}$.) Jenisberg ( $5010^{\prime}$ ); then by a path, very rough at places, high above the Zügenstrasse, with views of the Davos valley, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Schmelzboden Hoffnungsau (p. 378). - To the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Bärentritt, and by the romantic Zïgenstrasse to Hoffnungsau (p. 378). - The Wiesener Alp (6310'; good forest-path, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) is a fine point of view; better still the "Sandhubel ( $9080^{\prime}$ ), ascended from the Alp in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (bridle-track; comp. p. 370). Alteingrat ( 7810 '; 3 hrs .), see p. 377.

Beyond Wiesen ( 1 M. ) the road crosses the profound Tiefentobel (with a large avalanche-bulwark above it), and passes through a tunnel. The church of (2 M.) Schmitten, Roman. Farrēra (4150'; Adler; Kreuz; Krone), on a green hill, now becomes visible. In the valley, below the village, the Albula joins the Landwasser.

To Filisur (p. 406). A path, diverging to the left from the road, near the church, descends in a wide curve, crosses the Schmitterbach (impassable after rain), and joins the Albula road near the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Landwasser bridge, beyond Bad Alveneu. - From Wiesen by the Leidboden to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Filisur (boy as guide), see above.

The road crosses the Schmittertobel to ( $11 / 2$ M.) Alveneu, Rom. Alvagne (3887'); to the S.E., a pleasant view of the Bergün Valley, separated from the Landwasser Valley by the Stulsergrat ( $8790^{\prime}$ ); in the background, Piz Uertsch $\left(10,740^{\prime}\right)$. The road soon descends in a long bend into the large Crapanaira Tobel, where it divides. The Coire road follows the hillside, and crosses a covered wooden bridge at the foot of the castle of Belfort ( $3575^{\prime}$ ), destroyed in 1499, a picturesque ruin on an almost inaccessible rock. Then ( 3 M .) Brienz (3713') and ( 2 M.) Lenz (p. 381). - The road to Tiefenkastell descends to ( $21 / 2$ M.) Bad Alveneu (p. 405), in the Albula Valley, and leads viâ Surava to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) - $231 / 2$ M. Tiefenkastell (p. 403); thence to Thusis through the Schyn Pass, see p. 402.

Electric railway projected.

Coire ( $1935^{\prime}$ ), sce p. 366. By the Steinbock Hotel the road crosses the Plessur and ascends in windings (short-cuts), with views of the town, Rhine Valley, and Calanda. To the E. opens the Schanfigg (p. 368), watered by the Plessur. A finger-post $11 / 4$ M. from Coire indicates the route to the left to Bad Passugg (p.368), and another, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther on, the way to the Känzeli (p.368). We ascend the valley of the Rabiosa, which falls into the Plessur far below, and pass Malix ( $3800^{\prime}$; with a mineral spring) and the ruin of Strassberg.

61/2 M. Churwalden (3975'; *Curhaus Krone, R., L., \& A. 2-5, I. 4, pens. 7-11 fr.; *Hôt. Gengel, R. \& A. $21 / 2$ fr.; *Hôt. Mettier, pens. $7 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Pens. Hemmi ; *Hôt. The road ascends more rapidly. The footpath, through wood at first, runs on the left bank of the stream, which it crosses near -

81/2 M. Parpān (4957'; *Curhaus & Post, R., L., & A. from 31/2, pens. 7-9 fr.; *Hôt. Stätzerhorn, pens. 6-8 fr.), a pleasant Alpine village in an open situation. The ancestral mansion of the Buols (end of 16 th cent.) contains various mediæval relics.

Pleasant walk to the ( $21 / 2$ hrs.) Churer Joch ( 6686 '), at the foot of the Gürgaletsch: view of Coire, the Rhine Valley as far as the Sentis, etc.

The "Stätzer Horn (Piz Raschil ; $8460^{\prime} ; 3 \mathrm{hrs}$., withont guide), a favourite point of view, the highest peak of the range between the valley of Churwalden and the Domleschg (see p. 382), is ascended from Parpan by the S. A. C.'s bridle-path. Beyond the hamlet of Sartuns we ascend straight on, not to the right. Inn at the top falling to decay. Grand panorama of the valleys of Schanfigg, Churwalden, Oberhalbstein, Schams, Domleschg, and the Vorder-Rhein as far as Ilanz; of the Rhætikon Chain, Calanda, Tödi, St. Gotthard, Piz Beverin, Rheinwald Glacier, Piz Tambo, Bernina, Albula, etc. (Panorama by A. Heim.) Rich flora. The descent on the Domleschg side is longer, the last part fatiguing, but cannot be mistaken: hy the Alps of Raschil and Schall to the chalets of Almens, and then to the left to Scharans and Thusis in the Rhine Valley (4hrs. in all). Mountaineers may descend by Obervatz to the Solis Bridge (p. 403).

From Parpan to Arosa, $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., see p. 370.
On the top of the pass (5090') we obtain a fine view of the Oberhalbstein Mts.; to the right are the hills above the Schyn Pass, to the left the Lenzer Horn ( $9550^{\prime}$ ) and the adjacent Piz Michēl $\left(10,375^{\prime}\right)$; behind us, the Calanda (p.368). We descend to Valbella and Canols, pass several tarns and the Heidsee ( $4880^{\prime}$ ), embosomed in forest ( ${ }^{*}$ Chalet-Restaurant, on an island, pens. $4-5 \mathrm{fr}$.), cross the wooded Lenzer Heide, Rom. Planeira, to Lai (Post, pens. 4-5 fr.) and the diligence-station of ( $23 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) - $111 / 4$ M. Lenzerheide (4775'; *Hôt.-Pens. Lenzerhorn, pens. 5 -6 fr.; * Curhaus Post, R., L., \& A. $1^{1} / 2^{-3}$, pens. from 5 fr.), a healthresort (lodgings in several chalets).

The "Aroser Rothhorn ( $9790^{\prime}$; $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; gaide 10 fr .), a splendid point of view, is ascended hence by a club-path (comp. p. 370). - The *Lenzer Horn ( $9550^{\prime} ; 31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide) is alsn easy and attractive. - The Stätzer Horn ( $8160^{\prime} ; 3$ hrs.), see above.

Travellers bound for the Schyn Road take a road to the right at Lai ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the N. of the Curhaus), leading over the Heidbach to ( 50 min.) Obervatz (4015'), before reaching which we keep to the left so as to avoid the paths to Lain, higher up. We then descend abruptly by Zorten and Nivaigl to ( 40 min .) the Solis Bridge ( p .403 ).

141/2 M. Lenz, Rom. Lansch (4285'; Krone or Post), an important military point before the Splügen road was made. The Duc de Rohan in 1635, and Lecourbe in 1799 took up a position here against the Austrians. - The Albula Road diverges here to the left from the Julier Road, and descends by Brienz (p. 379) and through the Crapanaira Tobel to (17 M.) Alveneu-Bad (p. 405).

Our road descends in numerous windings (short-cuts), overlooking the Oberbalbstein, with the Heinzenberg to the W., beyond the Schyn Pass. On a height in the foreground is the village of Alvaschein (p. 403); beyond the Schyn Pass lies Stürvis (p. 403); and far below is Tiefenkastell. Near the farm of Vazerols, to the right, below the road, is a small monument on the spot where the Three Leagues took the oath of eternal union in 1471 (comp. p. 365). At the bottom of the valley we cross the Albula to - 17 M . Rhetian Railway in $1-11 / 3 \mathrm{hr}$.; fares $5 \mathrm{fr} .60,4 \mathrm{fr} .20 \mathrm{c}$., 2 fr . (return 9 fr., 6 fr. $75,3 \mathrm{fr} .15 \mathrm{c}$. ). - This narrow-gauge line (opened in 1896) is the continuation of the line from Davos by Landquart to Coire (pp. 370, 67), and since its completion Thusis has become the chief starting-point fur the Engadine diligences (the drive being now $21 / 4$ hrs. shorter than from Coire). Shortest routes to Silvaplana, Sils-Maria, Maloja, and St. Moritz by the Julier, and to Samaden and Pontresina by the Albula.

Coire, see p. 366. The station of the Rhætian line is to the W. of the United Swiss station (p.67). The line crosses the Plessur and approaches the Rhine. $21 / 2$ M. Felsberg; the village lies beyond the Rhine, at the foot of the Calanda (p. 368), and is menaced with destruction, part of the rock above it having fallen in 1850. $33 / 4$ M. Ems ( 1880 ; Railway Hotel), a large village with a church and scanty ruins on two hills. - From ( $51 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Reichenau-Tamins (buffet) an iron bridge crosses the Rhine to Reichenau (1935'; * Adler, R. $21 / 2$, B. $11 / 4 \mathrm{fr}$. ; carriages for hire), a hamlet at the union of the Vorder- and Hinter-Rhein. Best view of the rivers from a pavilion in Dr. von Planta's garden, adjoining the Adler. At their junction the Vorder-Rhein, though superior in volume, is driven back by the impetuous Hinter-Rhein, which descends from the Bernardino. To the W. towers the snowy Brigelser Horn. The pleasant garden is open to visitors ; curious old inscription on the gardener's house. The old Château of the Bishops of Coire, opposite the elltrance to the garden, now belongs to Dr. Alfred von Planta. In 1793 Louis Philippe sought refuge here under the name of Chabot, and his room and other memorials still exist (fee 1 fr .).

Travellers making a short stay at Reichenau should ascend the * Church Hill of Tamins (p. $384 ; 20 \mathrm{~min}$. from the rail. station). From Reichenau to Disentis, and over the Oberalp to Andermatt, see R. 94; over the Kunkels Pass to Ragalz, see p. 72.

The railway crosses the Hinter-Rhein by an iron bridge just above its junction with the Vorder-Rhein, across which the road is carried from Reichenau by a new iron bridge. The line then ascends, describing a wide bend round a rocky knoll, and turns to the $S$. through a deep cutting. - 8 M. Bonaduz (2145' ; Hôt. Oberalp, Railway Hotel, both near the station; Degiacomi, Post, in the village), pleasantly situated on a fertile plateau. To the $S$. in the background tower Piz Beverin and Piz Curvèr; to the N.E. the Calanda. - Road to Ilanz viâ Versam, see p. 385; to the left, on the Rhine, is the Chapel of St. George, adorned with ancient frescoes.

The valley, called Domleschg, Domliaschga, or Tomiliasca (the W. side Heinzenberg, Romanic Montagna), through which the line to Thusis rums on the left bank of the Hinter-Rhein, is '7 M. long and 2 M. wide. The Rhine formerly occapied nearly the whole valley, but is now confined between large embankments. The sides of the valley are remarkably fertile, while on the right bank castles peep down from almost every hill and rock.
$91 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. Rhäzüns ( $2125^{\prime}$ ), with a handsome château of the Vieli family, on a rock rising from the Rhine. Farther on, both train and road run high above the broad gravelly bed of the river, on the right bank of which is the ruin of Nieder-Juvalta. From (12 M.) Rothenbrunnen a bridge crosses the Rhine to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) baths of that name (*Curhaus, pens. 5 fr.), containing iron, iodine, and phosphorus, and specially adapted for children's ailments. They lie at the foot of steep rocks; adjacent is the ruin of Ober-Juvalta. On the road, to the right of the railway, is Realta (2058'; Gasthaus zur Rhein-Correction), with the ruin of Nieder-Realta. Opposite, on the right bank of the Rhine, on rocky hills, are the château of Orienstein (restored) and the church of St. Lorenz, picturesquely situated; farther on, near Paspels, are the ruins of Alt-Sins and Neu-Sins and the château of Canova. - From (131/2 M.) Rodels-Fürstenau a bridge crosses the Rhine to the villages of these names on the right bank; above Rodels is the château of Rietberg. - The line now threads a boggy district covered with brushwood; to the right, on the road, is the large cantonal Reformatory. Beyond (15 M.) Cazis or Katzis (2185'; Kreuz) we pass a nunnery on the right, and the venerable little church of $\mathbb{S t}$. Martin on the left. Beautiful scenery : to the S. rises the snowy Piz Curvèr $\left(9760^{\prime}\right)$; beyond it, to the left, is the Schyn Pass, with the Piz Michel $\left(10,375^{\prime}\right)$ in the background; to the N. the Ringelspitz $\left(10,660^{\prime}\right)$ and the Trinserhorn or Piz Dolf $\left(9935^{\prime}\right)$. About $3 / 4$ M. to the E. the Albula falls into the Rhine; beyond it lies the charming village of Scharans.

From Cazis diligence daily in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., viâ Schauenberg and Tartar, to ( $31 / 2$ M.) Sarn (3865'; "Pens. Ilcinzenberg), pleasantly sitnated among sunny meadows on the slope of the Heinzenberg. The Prätzer Höhe (6965'). the highest point of the Heinzenberg, is easily ascended hence in $2 \frac{1}{2}-3 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide. Splendid view.

Near Thusis, above the pleasant village of Masein, stands the château of Nieder-Tagstein.

(fees included). - English Church Service in the Swiss Church.

Thusis (2450'; pop. 1098), Rom. Tusaun, beautifully situated at the foot of the Heinzenberg, and at the junction of the Splügen and Schyn roads, is well adapted for a stay and as a starting-point for excursions. Just above it the turbid Nolla falls into the Rhine, the valley of which seems as if terminated here by lofty mountains. A rock on the opposite bank of the Rhine is crowned with the ruined castle of Hohen-Rhätien or Hoch-Realta (Hoch-Ryalt), 807' above the river, the oldest in Switzerland, founded, it is said, in B.C. 589 by the legendary Rhaetus, leader of the Etruscans when retreating before the Gauls. On the N. side of the rock is the dilapidated Church of St. John, the oldest Christian church in the valley.

7 M. Flims (3615'' ; pop. 797; *Hôt.-Pens. Bellerue, also open in winter, R. $11 / 2-3$, pens. $6-71 / 2$ fr.; Post), Rom. Flem, a small and ancient town, with several mansions of the Capaul family.

The road leads through the valley of the Flembach to the ( 1 M .) ${ }^{*}$ Hôt.-Pens. Segnes (34455'; R. from 3, B. $11 / 4$, D. $31 / 2$, pens. 8-9 fr.; similar charges at the adjacent $P$ ens. Niederer). About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. farther onl ( $81 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.), on a hill ( $3707^{\prime}$ ) a few min. to the right of the road, is the large and well-situated *Curanstalt Waldhaus-Flims, with four 'dépendances' (R., L., \& A. 3-7, D. 5, S. 3, board 7 fr.), a pleasant summer-resort, with beautiful pine and beech woods. Near it is the Flimser See or Cauma Lake (3280'), embosomed in wood, without visible outlet. Pleasant swimming baths ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), to which a path descends in 20 minutes.

Excersions (guides, Rich. and Conr. Joos, Pankraz Koch). A picturesque walk may be taken from Flims to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Segnes Waterfall and the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Runca Bridge. - Forthe Buchen ('beeches') we proceed to the E. from the Hôtel Segnes, passing between the Waldhänser, and then take the direction indicated by the finger-post. This walk may be extended to the Cresta Lake (see above). - For Mutta we follow the Laax road for $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the Waldhäuser and then ascend to the left through wood (fingerpost; 1 hr .). We may return by the Cauma Lake. - Flimser Stein (Crap da Flem; 8665'; 5 hrs.). Guide to Alp Sura (not essential) 6 fr ., on the arète (desirable) 10 fr ., circuit of the Flimser Stein 15 fr . A road ascends gradually by Fidaz; then through wood, round the S.E. angle of the mountain, to the ( $13 / \mathrm{hr}$.) pastures of Bargis. Here we ascend to the left by a good path to the hilly plateau of the Alp Sura ( 6896 '; milk and bread; $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S . of which is a rock affording a good survey of the Bündner Oberland Mts. and the Tödi). In $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. more we ascend to the arête and the summit, where we obtain a splendid view, especially towards the N., of the Ringelspitz and Piz Dolf. We may descend to the N..W. towards Segnes, and return to Flims by the Cassons and Foppa Alps. - Piz Segnes $\left(10,176^{\prime}\right)$, from the ( 3 hrs. ) Segnes Club Hut at Segnes Sut (ca. $6850^{\prime}$ ) in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 25 fr .), toilsome but interesting (see p. 81). - Vorab ( $9925^{\prime} ; 6^{1 ⁄ 2} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; 20 fr.), a very tine point, easy (comp. p. 81). From Flims to the brink of the Bündnerbergfirn, a glacier which has receded greatly, $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; then up the easy glacier to the ( 2 hrs .) summit, consisting of fragments of slate. Superb view, particularly of the neighbouring Tödi group; also of the Sernf-Thal and the Bernese Alps from the ( 20 min .) X. peak, the Elmer Vorab ( $9910^{\prime}$ ). - Piz Grisch ( $9490^{\prime}$; 5 hrs.; 10 fr.), not difficult. - Piz Dolf (Trinserhorn; ${ }^{9935}$ '), from the ( 3 hrs .) Segnes Hut (p.334) viâ Segnes Sura in 3 hrs. (guide 14 fr.), fatiguing, for adepts only.

Over the Segnes Pass to Elm ( 8 hrs ; guide 20 fr .), see p. 81. The Mfar tinsloch (p. 81) may be reached in $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Flims (guide 12 fr .). Over the Trinser Furka to Vättis ( $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$; ; 25 fr.), see p. 72.

Traversing sequestered dales, and skirting the deep Laaxer Tobel on the left, we next reach ( $21 / 4$ M.) Laax (3324'; *Hôt.-Pens. Seehof, close to the Laaxer See, with baths, pens. 7-8 fr. ; Post). (A road to the right ascends in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to Fellers, Rom. Fallera, $3997^{\prime}$; *View.) We now descend into the Rhine Valley (passing Sagens far below, to the left) and reach Schleuis, Rom. Schluein ( $2507^{\prime}$ ), with a large orphan-asylum. Opposite lies the village of Kästris (see below); before us, above Ilanz, Piz Mundaun; to the left of it, at the head of the Valser-Thal, Piz Aul. - 3 M . llanz, see below.

Road from Bonadez to Ilanz by the right bank of the Rhine, 13 M . (diligence daily, see p. 383). Bonaduz, see p. 382 . The road, which diverges to the right at the rail. station, is for $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{M}$. perfectly straight and level; then, gradually ascending, it traverses wood for $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$., beyond which it leads high above the picturesque Vorder-Rheinthal, hewn in the rock at places, and commanding a fine view. We next ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) turn sharply to the left into the picturesque valley of the Rabiusa (see below), and descend gradually, skirting the slopes of the Versumer Tobel, to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) a new iron bridge over the Rabiusa ( $2350^{\prime}$ ), with a span of 94 yds., about $300^{\prime}$ above the stream (picturesque view into the abyss). We now ascend through pine-woods by numerous windings (which walkers may cut off) to (2 M.) Versam ( $2980^{\prime}$; "Hôt. Signina; Rössli), a charmingly situated village, with a fine view. After a level stretch of $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. the road descends towards the Vorder-Rhein Valley, of which we have a striking view. Opposite, on the left bank, high above the river, lies Laax (see above). Farther off, on the same bank, rises the Brigelser Horn (p. 387). We next reach (1 M.) Carrera. Still descending, we cross a picturesque ravine, pass through a tunnel, and reach ( 1 M. .) Valendas ( $2700^{\prime}$; Krone, rustic). Again descending, with a fine view before us, we next pass ( $21 / 2$ M.) Kästris, and cross the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) broad stony bed of the Glenner to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Ilanz.

Through the Safier-Thal, watered by the Rabiusa, a new road leads to the S. from Versam to ( 12 M.) Safien-Platz ( $4255^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Zinsli's Inn, plain), with a fine fall of the Carnusa on the left. Bridle-path thence over the large Camana-Alp to Thalkirch ( $5545^{\prime}$ ) and the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Curtnätscher-Hof ( $5907^{\prime}$ ) at the head of the valley, with a splendid waterfall. Then a steep ascent to the ( 2 hrs .) pass of the Safierberg or Löchliberg ( $8170^{\prime}$ ), from which the path descends by the Stutzalp to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Splügen (p. 397). - To the E. of Safien-Platz an easy route crosses the Heinzenberg by the Glas Pass (6056'; decent little inn), and leads through the villages of Tschappina and Urmein to ( 5 hrs.) Thusis (p. 383). Abuve Tschappina lies the Lake of Liusch (6398'), which has no outlet. Its water sinks into the porous slate of its banks, large masses of which periodically slide down to the Nolla (p. 383). Tschappina itself is built in part on a shifting foundation.
$141 / 2$ M. Ilānz, Rom. Gliōn (2345'; pop. 802; *Hôt. Oberalp, R., L., & A. 2-4, B. 11/4, lunch $21 / 2$, D. 3 fr.; Rhaetia; Rheinkrone; *Lukmanier, Krone, moderate, both on the left bank; one-horse carr. to Disentis 20 fr . and fee), mentioned in a charter of the 8 th cent. as the 'first town on the Rhine', built on both sides of the river, was the capital of the 'Gray League' (p. 365). The upper part has narrow streets and old-fashioned houses. The population is partly Romanic, partly German; Romanic alone is spoken higher up the valley. Ilanz is beautifully situated, overlooking the Rhine Valley in both directions, and the broad Lugnetz Valley to the S .

The views are still finer from the old Church of St. Martin (2570'), $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S., on the left slope of the Lugnetz Valley, and trom the chapel of the pretty village of Luvis ( $3280^{\prime}$ ), $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. higher. A most superb prospect of the Grisons Oberland, and especially of the Tödi chain, to the N., just opposite, and of the Rhine Valley down to Zizers (p. 67), is commanded by the ${ }^{\text {© P Piz Mundaun or Piz Grond }}$ ( $6765^{\prime}$ ), to the S.W. of Ilanz. The path ( 4 hrs ; guide, not essential, 7 fr.) leads by Luvis (see above), ascends on the S.E. side of the wood, crosses a flat basin obliquely towards the left, and mounts the pastures to the conspicuous, but deserted ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Inn. Then in the same direction, through a gap in the mountain, to the crest, which we ascend to the W. to the top in 1 hr . more. The mediæval chapel of San Carlo remains to the left. Those bound for the Lugnetz Valley (see below) descend direct to Villa (p. 387; thence to the top 2 hrs., this being the best way to reach it; guide 3 fr.), or by Morissen ( $4420^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Hôt. Piz Mundaun, unpretending, R. 2 fr.) to (2 hrs.) Cumbels (p. 387; from Ilanz to Morrissen 3 hrs., to the summit $2^{1} 2^{-3} \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 4 fr .). - Or we may descend on the N.W. side to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Maierhof ( 4270 '; "Casanova, rustic) in the German district of Obersaxen, and either return by the new road thence to ( 6 M .) Ilanz, or, if bound for Disentis, descend to the W. by a pleasant forest-path to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Tavanasa (p. 357). - Those who ascend the Piz Mundaun from Truns diverge from the road 3 M . below the village, by the telegraph-post No . 222 , to the right, and ascend by a good path, at first through wood. Farther on we enjoy a superb view of the Rhine Valley and pass the rain of Saxenstein. After 1 hr ., beyond the chapel of Canterdun, by a crucifix on this side of a ravine, we descend the ravine to the left and reach ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Maierhof (see above). Then up sunny pastures to the top of the Piz Mundaun in $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$. more.

The "Lugnetz Valley, watered by the Glenner, 18 m . long, is one of the finest in the Grisons. Road to Vals-Platz ( 14 M .; diligence from Ilanz twice daily in $41 / 3 \mathrm{hrs}$., fare 3 fr .35 c .; carr. from Coire to Vals 40 , with two horses 70 fr., and fee of 10 per cent) on the left bank, past the ruin of Castelberg and through the ( $31 / 2$ M.) Frauenthor, Rom. Porclas ( $3336^{\prime}$ ), once the key to the upper valley. On the opposite bank, high above the Rieiner Tobel, lies the village of Riein, and beyond it are Pitasch and Duvin. Beyond ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the chapel of St. Moritz ( $3504^{\prime}$ ) the road divides : the right branch ascends to Vrin ( p .387 ); that to the left descends to the village of Peiden and the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Peidner Bad ( $2690^{\prime}$; pens. $5-6 \mathrm{fr}$.), on the right bank of the Glenner, at the mouth of the Duviner Tobel, with three chalybeate springs. Then ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Furth ( $2980^{\prime} ;$ Schmid's Inn; Piz Mundaun), at the confluence of the Vriner and Valser Rhein, which are separated by the Piz Aul ( $10,250^{\circ}$ ). Opposite lies the picturesque Oberkastels (3274'). We now ascend the wild ValserThal, or St. Peters-Thal, by St. Martin and Lunschania. Farther up we recross the stream and pass Campo, where the valley expands. $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. ValsPlatz or Sl. Peter ( $409 \mathrm{~L}^{\prime}$; ${ }^{}$ Hồ. Albin, ${ }^{}$ Piz Aul, *Alpenrose, all plain, 5-6 fr.) has a chalybeate thermal spring ( ${ }^{\circ} H 8 t$.-Pens. Therme in Vals, with baths, postoffice, etc., pens. from 7 fr .). Ascents (guides: Andr. Furger, Ben. Schnyder): Piz Seranastga ( $94355^{\prime} ; 41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 7 fr .), viâ Brand, easy and attractive; *Weissensteinhorn or Piz Tomül ( $9675^{\prime} ; 41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; 7 fr .), viầ Alp Tomüll, also easy ( (ine view); Piz Aul ( $10,250^{\prime} ; 6 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 20 \mathrm{fr}$.; by the Satteltelücke, see below). - From Vals-Platz an interesting path leads through the Peilthal, a side-valley to the S.E., to the Vallatsch-Alp ( $6178^{\prime}$; guide advisable thus far, and still farther in hazy weather), the Valser Berg ( $8225^{\prime}$; fine view of the Rheinwald group), and ( 6 hrs .) Nufenen or Hinterrhein (p. 400). To Vrin over the Fuorcla da Patnaul (9113'), to the S., between the Piz Aul and Faltschonhorn, or over the Satteltelücke ( $9082^{\prime}$ ), between Piz Aul and Piz Seranastga, both laborious ( $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$.; with guide).

The S.W. branch of the valley (Val Zervreila), watered by the Valser Rhein, divides at the hamlet of Zervreila ( 5840 '; Tönz's $I n n$ ), $3^{1 / 4} \mathrm{hrs}$. above Vals-Platz, into the Lenta-Thal (S.W.) and the Kanal-Thal (S.). Zervreila may be reached either by the bridle-path on the right bank of the Valser Rhein, passing the Calvarienberg, or by the pleasanter footpath on the left bank, viâ Leis and Frunt. In the Kanal-Thal, 1 hr . above Zervreila, is the Kanal-Alp ( $6470^{\circ}$ ), grandly situated at the foot of the Kanal and Güfer Glaciers and dominated by the Güferhorn and Lentahorn. A tuilsome route (with guide) leads hence, across the Kanal Glacier and the Plattenschluchl (Zapportgrat; 9314'), and then descends rapidly to the ZapportHïtte and to ( $9 \mathrm{hrs}$. ) Hinterrhein ( p .400 ). - In the grand and interesting Lenta-Thal, 1 hr . above Zervreila, is the beautiful Lampertsch-Alp or Sor-reda-Alp ( $65{ }^{5} 0^{\prime}$; bed of hay), about $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the end of the Lenta Glacier, descending from the Rheinwaldhorn (well seen from a point $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. beyond the Alp). To the S.E. rises the tooth-like Zervreiler Horn ( $9510^{\prime}$; ascent not very difficult for experts, from the S. side). Thence over the Vernok or Vanescha Pass ( $9350^{\prime}$ ) to Vrin (see below), 6-7 hrs., or over the Sorreda or Scaradra Pass (9088') to Olivone (p. 393), 8 hrs., both routes toilsome; over the Lentalücke (9692') to Hinterrhein (p. 400; 9-10 hrs.), difficult, for experts only, with good guides.

The road ascending to the right by the chapel of St. Moritz (see p. 386) leads to Cumbels, Villa ( 4080 '; Post, rustic), Vigens, Lumbrein, and ( 4 hrs .) Vrin ( $4770^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Post, plain; Casanova, poor), the chief village in the Vrinthal or Upper Lugnetz Valley, $131 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Ilanz (diligence daily in $41 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.; fare 3 fr . 35 c .). Excursions: Piz Regina (8294'; 4 hrs.; with guide), a fine point, ascended by Surrhin. Piz Cavel (9660'; 5-6 hrs.), by the Ramosa Alp and Fuorcla de Ramosa (8694'), also easy; descent on the N. to the Cavel-Joch (p. 388), if preferred. Piz Aul ( $10,250^{\prime}$; 6-7 hrs.; with guide; superb view), by Val Seranastga (route to the Satteltelücke, see p. 336), laborious. Piz Terri ( 9996 '), from Vanescha, $1^{3 / 4}$ hr. from Vrin, in 5 hrs., by the Blengias Alp and Güda Glacier (no serious difficulty). By the Vanescha Pass to Zervreila, see above. Over the Cavel-Joch to Somvix, see p. 388. - From Vrin (with guide, to Olivone 18 fr .) we ascend past the mouth of the Val Vanescha (see above) to St. Giusepp, Puzatsch, Alp Diesrut, and the ( 3 hrs .) Pass Diesrut ( $7953^{\prime}$ ), to the S. of Piz. Tgietschen (9377'). Descent to the left (not to the right, the path to Somvix by La Fronscha, p. 388) to the Camona-Alp (7333'), and again a gradual ascent through the valley of La Greina, passing Piz Vial ( $10,387^{\prime}$ ) and Piz Gaglianera $\left(10,243^{\prime}\right)$ on the right, and Piz Coroi ( $9130^{\circ}$ ) on the left, to the Greina Pass (Passo Crap; 7743'). We next descend the wild Val Camadra or upper Val Blenio, with Piz Medel $\left(10,510^{\prime}\right)$ on the right, by Daigra, Cozzera, and Ghirone, to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Olivone ( p . 393). Or, halfway between the Camona-Alp and the Greina Pass, we may cross the low Monterascio Pass (7415), to the left, to the Monterascio-Alp, and descend the picturesque Val Luzzone to Lorciolo, Cavallo, Davresco, and Olivone (shorter than the Greina route).

From Ilanz to Elm over the Panixer Pass ( 9 hrs ; 20 fr.), see p. 81. To Linthal over the Kisten Pass, see p. 77.

The road follows the N. side of the narrow Rhine Valley, here called Pardella; beyond (1 M.) Schnaus it crosses the Sether-Bach, and beyond ( $11 / 4$ M.) Ruis, the Panixer-Bach (Jörgenberg Inn). On a wooded hill to the right is the ruin of Jörgenberg ( $3100^{\prime}$ ).

To the right, 1 M . above the bridge of Ruis, a road (diligence from Ilanz daily in 3 hrs .; fare 2 fr . 15 c .), with fine views, ascends by the village of Waltensburg ( $330^{\circ} 0^{\prime}$ ) to ( 4 M .) Brigels ( $4230^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Hôl.-Pens. Capaul; Hot. Kistenpass), amid sunny pastures. Above it the Val Frisal, with the Frisal Glacier, ascends to the Bifertenslock ( $11,240^{\prime}$ ), which, as well as Piz Frisal ( $10,810^{\prime}$ ) and the Brigelser Horn ( $10,663^{\prime}$ ), may be ascended from Val Frisal (all difficult; see p. 338).

Farther on, the scenery is inferior. The Rhine is crossed near ( $41 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Tavanasa ( $2620^{\prime}$; Kreuz), and again near ( $23 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Zignau or Rinkenberg. High on the N. slope lies Brigels (p. 387); then, Dardin and Schlans. Before crossing to Rinkenberg we observe on the left the stony chaos formed by the inundations of the Zignauer Bach, descending from the Zavragia Ravine. By the bridge we enjoy a delightful view of villages, chapels, and ruined castles dotting the fertile slopes.

On the left bank of the Rhine is the village of Darvela. We pass ( $1 \frac{1}{4}$ M.) the Chapel of St. Anna, on the right, erected in 1778 on the spot where the 'Upper' or 'Gray League' (p. 365) was founded in 1424, and adorned with old frescoes and verses. A few paces farther on is - 25 M. Truns (2820'; *Zum Tödi; Krone). A hall of the old Statthalterei of the Abbey of Disentis is adorned with the arms of the members of the Gray League, and of the magistrates since 1424 ; another room has a beautiful ceiling and panelled walls.

The steep Val Puntaiglas, ascending to the N., ends in the Puntaiglas Glacier. Ascent, 2 hrs . from Truns, to Alp Puntaiglas (about $5050^{\prime}$ ), with a fine view of the Brigelser Horn, Piz Mut, Piz Ner, etc. The S. peaks of the Tödi group, Piz Urlaun ( $11,060^{\prime}$ ), Bündner Tödi' $\left(10,226^{\prime}\right)$, and BrigelserHorn (or Kavestrau Grond, $10,663^{\prime}$; very difficult), may be ascended hence. Ascent of the Tödi-Rusein by the Gliemspforte, see p. 77.

Beyond ( $11 / 2$ M.) Rabiūs (3133') the grand Piz Gaglianera $\left(10,243^{\prime}\right)$, with its glaciers, is seen to the S., at the head of the Val Somvix. $11 / 4$ M. Somvix or Sumvitg (3458'; Weisses Kreuz, poor) is conspicuous on a height.

The Val Somvix, which here opens to the S., deserves a visit. We cross the Rhine to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Surrhein, and ascend by a good bridle-path on the left side of the valley, through wood and pastures, to Val and the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Somvixer or Teniger Bad (4176'; good quarters, pens. 4 fr.), beautifully situated in wood. Farther on, getting a view of the glaciers of the Piz Vial ( $10,387^{\prime}$ ), we cross the Valtenigia Alp, pass the mouth of the Val Lavaz, and reach ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the rock-girt head of the valley, where the Greina forms a fine fall on the left. The path ascends steeply on the E. side of the valley to the rocky defile of La Fronscha, and divides higher up: to the left to the Diesrut Pass (p. 387); to the right to the Greina Pass (p. 387). - Passes. From the Teniger Bad (see above) over the Cāvel-Joch (8320') to Villa, 7 hrs., not difficult. From the pass the Piz Cavel ( $9660^{\prime}$; fine view) may be ascended in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. - Over the Valgronda-Joch ( $9120^{\prime}$ ) to Tavanasa or Maierhof, $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$.; with guide. - Over the Lavaz-Joch to Curaglia, $7-8$ hrs., with guide, attractive. From the Teniger Bad (see above) we ascend to the S.W., through wood and rhododendrons, to the Alp Rentiert, where from the cairn ( $6640^{\prime}$ ) we get a splendid view of the Tödi. We may now either cross the Fuorcla de Stavelatsch (8376') to the right, or, to the left, skirt the E. slopes of Piz Rentiert (keeping to the right on the hill, by the chalet of Rentiert-Dadens), to the ( 2 hrs.) chalet of Stavelatsch (7682), in the Val Lavaz. Opposite are the two glaciers descending from the Piz Vial and Piz Gaglianera $\left(10,213^{\prime}\right)$ and the Lavaz Glacier. Thence to the Lavaz-Joch (8232') an easy ascent of $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$; ; the ridge to the N.W. of the pass affords a superb view of the Medelser Glacier, quite close to us. Steep descent over grassy slopes to Alp Sura ( $6526^{\prime}$ ), and through Val Plattas to (2 hrs.) Curaglia (p. 392).

Beyond Somvix the road is very boldly constructed. A lofty wooden bridge ( 2 M.) carries it over the profound Ruseiner Tobel (before crossing which, to the right, a finger-post indicates the path to the Sandalp Pass; see below). Above the ( $1 / 2$ M.) Stalusa Bridge is a small waterfall. $11 / 4$ M. Curhaus Disentiser Hof (see below), built on the site of the château of Castelberg, which was burned down in 1830.

311/2 M. Disĕntis (3773'; Desertinum, Disiert, 'desert'), Rom. A Benedictine Abbey was founded here in the 7th cent., and brought Christianity into the remote valleys of the Grisons. The abbots, enriched by liberal endowments, afterwards acquired great power in Rhætia. The large abbey-buildings, on a height, now contain schools. - Near Disentis the Medelser-Rhein or Mittel-Rhein (p. 392) joins the Vor-der-Rhein.

Excursions. (Guides: J. Petschen, the schoolmaster; J. M. Schuoler, hunter; P. Tenner and Jos. Huonder.) The "Muntatsch, a hill between the Val Clavanier and Val Acletta, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the W. of Disentis (reached by following the Oberalp road to the hats of Funs, and then ascending to the right), commands a splendid view of the Rhine Valley as far as the Rhætikon to the E., of the Tödi group to the N., and of Piz Muraun, Piz Medel with its glacier, the Scopi, etc., to the S. - A similar view (finest by evening light) is obtained from the charch of Acletta ( $4236^{\prime}$ ), with an old altar-piece, at the entrance to the Acletta Valley, 40 min . to the W. of Disentis. (We may descend from the Muntatsch viâ Acletta to Disentis, 1 hr .; plain rfmts. above the charch.) - A more extensive view is enjoyed from the Bostg ( $6530^{\prime}$ ), above the village of Segnes ( $2^{1} / 2^{-3} \mathrm{hrs}$. from Disentis; guide desirable, 5 fr .). - Walk on the *Lukmanier Road to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Curaglia or to the ( 9 M.) waterfall of Fumatsch (p. 392), interesting. Also by the chapel of St. Gada, with old frescoes, to Mompe-Medel ( 1 hr .), on the right bank of the Rhine, with fine view. To Cavardiras ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) ; Alp Lumpegnia ( 6520 '; 2 hrs., with gaide), etc.

Superb view, from Monte Rosa to the Ortler, especially of the neighbouring Tödi group, grander than from Piz Mundaun (p. 386). - Piz Pazzola, see p. 390; Piz Medel, Piz Cristallina, see p. 392. - Piz Ault (9957'), throngh the Val Acletta in 6-7 hrs. (guide 12 fr .), not difficult for experts.

From Disentis over the Lukmanier (6290') to Olivone, see p. 392; through the Val Piora to Airolo, see p. 121. - Over the Sandalp Pass to Linthal, $11-12$ hrs., with guide (to the Sandalp 20 , Hôt. Tödi 35 fr. ), trying. We ascend the Val Rusein (p. 388) to the Sandalp Pass (Sandgrat; 9210'), between the Lesser Tödi or C'rap Glarun (10,070'), on the E., and the Catscharauls $\left(10,050^{\prime}\right)$, on the W., and descend the Sand-Firn to the Upper Sandalp. Thence to Linthal, see p. 76. - Ascent of the Tödi by the Porta da Spescha, and descent to Linthal, $18-19 \mathrm{hrs}$., for adepts only, with able guides (see p. 77).

From Disentis over the Brunni Pass (8975') to the Maderaner-Thal (to the Hôt. Alpenclub $8-9 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 25 fr.), see p. 131.

The road to Andermatt (a walk of 8 hrs. ), running lower than the old route, ascends the valley of Tavetsch, and crosses the Acletta near the hamlet of $(3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Funs. (To the right diverges the path to the Muntatsch, see above.) On the right, above the road, are the villages of Acletta, Segnas, and Mompè Tavētsch (4584'). From a height, where the road enters a wood, we obtain a beautiful view of the Disentis region, which is most striking when approached from Andermatt. The valley contracts. The road traverses woods and pastures, overlooking the infant Rhine, and in full view of the snow-clad mountains we are approaching. - $51 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. -

371/2 M. Sedrūn (4587'; *Krone, pens. 5 fr.; Restaurant Krüzlipass) is the chief village in Val Tavetsch. The church contains an old altar in carved wood.
${ }^{*}$ Piz Pazzola ( 8470 '; 4 hrs .; guide unnecessary for experts), to the S ., between the Val Medel (p. 392) and the Val Gierm, is repaying. We cross the Rhine to Surrhein, and the gorge of Val Nalps (see below) to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) hamlet of Cavorgia (4426'); then cross the Gierm and ascend to to the right, over pastures and through wood, to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pazzola-Alp ( $6150^{\prime}$ ), with a fine view, and thence to ( 2 hrs .) the top withoat difficulty. Magnificent view, particularly of the Tödi and the Medel Mts.

In the lonely Val Nalps, enclosed by lofty mountains and glaciers, 3 hrs. from Sedran, lies the Alp Nalps (5991'), and 2 hrs. higher is the Ufiern Hut ( $7550^{\prime}$ ), the starting-point for the Piz del Laiblau ( $9720^{\circ}$ ), Piz Rondadura (9905'; comp. p. 393), Piz Blas (9920'), Piz del Ufiern (9900'), Piz Git ( $9744^{\prime}$ ), Piz Serengia ( $9803^{\prime}$ ), etc. (each about 3 hrs.). A fairly easy route (with steep descent) leads hence across the Nalps Pass ( $903{ }^{5}$ ') to the Val Cadlimo and the Uomo Pass (p. 122). Another (trying) leads to the E. over the Rondadura Pass (8904') to the Hospice of Sancta Maria (p. 393). A third crosses the Fuorcla da Paradis ( $8556^{\prime}$ ), between Piz Furcla and Piz Paradis, to the Val Cornera (p. 391).

From Sedren to Amsteg over the Kreuzli Pass (7645'), 8 hrs ., rather trying (guide 15, from Disentis 25 fr .). The steep path ascends the bleak rocky Strimthal, at the head of which the pass lies to the left (W.), at the S. base of the Weitenalpstock (p. 130). Guide necessary only to the point beyond the pass where the Etzizbach, descending from the Spiellaui-See on the W., becomes visible. We cross the stream to Culma (6322'), the highest Alp, and descend the Etzli-Thal, past the chalets of the Hintere and Vordere Etzlialp, to Bristen and Amsteg (comp. p. 131). - The Oberalpstock (Piz Tgietschen, 10,925 ') is ascended from Sedrun in $5^{1 / 2}-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide 15 fr .). We follow the Strimthal to the foot of the Calmot ( 2 hrs. ), ascend to the right, and cross a small glacier on the S. flank of the Oberalpstock to the S.E. arête ( 1 hr .). Then. on the S.E. side, we mount the névé of the Branni Glacier, and lastly rock, to the top.

From Sedrun the road leads through Camischolas, Zarcuns, and ( $11 / 2$ M.) Ruēras ( 4597 ), crosses the brook of Val Milar, and soon afterwards, beyond the hamlet of Dieni, the torrent of Val Giuf (both N. lateral valleys). To the left, on a rock above the ravine of the infant Rhine, is a fragment of the ancient 'Castell' of Pultmenga or Pontaningen.

Walkers will preler the 'Scmmer Rodte' to the highroad, for the sake of the views (guide desirable). It diverges to the right by a finger-post (to 'Pass Tiarms'), ascends a spur of the Crispalt ( $10,105^{\prime}$ ), above the hamlet of Crispausa, which lies to the left, and leads past the chalets of Milez and Scharinas, amidst rich pastures. It skirts the brink of the slope, overlooking the Rheinthal, turns to the right into the bleak Val Terms or Tiarms, crosses the Gämmer-Rhein (Rom. Vala) near the Alp Culm de Val (6420), and ascends to the Pass da Tiarms (7067'), between (r.) the Piz Tiarms or Berglistock ( $9564^{\prime}$ ) and (1.) the Calmot ( $7598^{\prime}$; easily ascended from the pass in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). Fine view of the Vorder-Rheinthal as far as the Vorarlberg and Rhætikon Mts. Descending to the Oberalpsee (p. 391), we keep to the left, to avoid a marsh, and regain the highroad 3 hrs. from Sedrun.

The highroad follows the direction of the old 'Winter Route' on the left bank of the Vorder-Rhein. It passes the Chapel of St. Brida, below the hamlet of Crispausa, and the poor villages of Selva (5046') and ( 3 M. ) Tschamut (5380'; *Zur Rheinquelle, plain; minerals), which consist of a few wooden huts and a chapel. In front of us rises the Six-Madun or Badus, behind the second terrace of which lies Lake Toma (see below). Tschamut is probably the highest village in Europe where rye is grown. The road crosses ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the GämmerRhein near its influx into the Vorder-Rhein, and (1 M.), opposite the Alp Milez, turns to the right (N.W.) into the Val Surpalix, between the Piz Nurschallas on the left and the Calmot on the right. The Vorder-Rhein (Aua da Toma or Darvun) descends in a series of falls from the slope to the left. (The Source of the Rhine is better visited from the Hôt. Oberalpsee, see below.)

To the S. of Tschamut the Val Cornera, the mouth of which is a pathless ravine, ascends to the frontier-chain of Ticino, and from it Val Maigels diverges to the $\mathrm{W} ., 11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. from Tschamut. Toilsome rontes lead from Val Cornera over the Passo Vecchio (8908') to Val Cadlimo and Piora (p. 121); from Val Maigels, to the S., over the Passo Pian Bornengo (8650) to Val Canaria and Airolo (p. 121); and to the W., over the Maigels Pass ( $8078^{\prime}$ ) or the Lohlen Pass (7835), to the Unteralp-Thal and Andermatt (p. 126).

The road ascends the lonely Val Surpalix in twelve windings (which paths cut off; one, ascending to the left by the first bend, and bearing to the right, leads to the pass in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). It affords views of the Crispalt and Berglistock, and of Piz Cavradi, Piz del Ufiern, and Piz Ravetsch behind us. The ( $451 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Oberalp Pass ( $6710^{\prime}$ ), $21 / 2$ M. from Tschamut, forms the boundary between the Grisons and Uri. Beyond the pass, on the right side of the road, are several fortified block-houses. (The diligence ascends to the pass from Tschamut in 70 min .; descent 40 min .; descent to Andermatt 1 hr .10 min ., ascent 2 hrs .)

The road rounds the E. end of the sombre and trout-swarming Oberalp-See ( $6654^{\prime} ; 1 \mathrm{M}$. long; to the right leads the route to the Pass da Tiarms, p. 390), with its two green islands, and skirts its $\mathbf{N}$. bank to the ( $11 / 2$ M.) *Hôt.-Pens. Oberalpsee, at the W. end, much visited by tourists and others (good trout). To the S.W. opens a view of the Furka, with its hotels and the Furka road; to the left the Blauberg and Muttenhörner; to the right the Furkahorn; nearer, the Piz Orsino. Rich flora.

Ascents. "Stock, or Stöckl ( $8070^{\prime}$ ), a splendid point of view, easily ascended from the hotel direct in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., or by way of the beautiful Lautersee ( $7733^{\prime}$ ) in $21 / 4$ hrs. We may descend over the Grossboden-Alp to the Oberalp road and (2 hrs.) Andermatt (comp. p. 126). - ${ }^{*}$ Calmot ( $7598^{\prime}$ ), by the Pass da Tiarms ( p .390 ), $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., also easy. - Piz Nurschallas (9003), from the hotel direct in 2 hrs ., or (better) from the ( $1^{1 / 2} \mathrm{M}$.) Oberalp Pass in $2-21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$., easy and very interesting. Superb survey of the Renss and Vorder-Rhein valleys and the mountains enclosing them.

The Source of the Vorder-Rhein is Lake Toma ( $7690^{\prime}$ ), on the N.E. slope of the Badūs, 2 hrs . from the Oberalpsee Hotel (guide advisable for the inexperienced). To the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Oberalp Pass, see above. About 5 min . below the pass a path diverges to the right, uniting after 20 min . with that from the Alp Milez (see above) and leading to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Tgietlems ( $6590^{\prime}$ ). Higher up, avoiding the path to the left (crossing the brook), we ascend the pastures to the right, on the left bank of the Fil Toma, a brook descending from Piz Nurschallas. After about 1 hr . we ascend steeply to the left, and soon reach the rocky barrier behind which the lake lies. The little green lake is destitute of fish. It is about 270 yds. long and 130 yds . broad, and is bounded on the S. and S.W. sides by abrupt rocks and stony slopes, and on the N. and N.W. by pastures. The "Badus or Six-Madun ( $9615^{\prime}$; comp. p. 126) ascends almost sheer from the lake, but climbers may scale it in 2 hrs . by keeping to the N . side of the rocks (ascent of the peak trying but free from danger; gaide 10 fr .).

The road gradually descends the Oberalp (6443'), which is watered by the Oberalp-Reuss. About 2 M . from the hotel we obtain a view of the Urseren-Thal, extending on the W. to the Furka (p. 132). The old path descending here to the left direct to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Andermatt is steep and stony, and affords little view. The road remains on the hill a little longer, and then descends by nine long windings to ( 6 M . from the lake) -

53 M. Andermatt (4738) ; thence to (4 M.) -

95. From Disentis to Biasca. Lukmanier.

Comp. Maps, pp. 384, 118, 394.
39 M . Diligence in summer daily in $83 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.; fare 13 fr .40 , coupé 16 fr .60 c . Except the lower part of the road, as far as Curaglia, the scenery is not very striking. Inns unpretending. - Walkers take 5 hrs . from Disentis to Sta. Maria, $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. thence to Olivone, and $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. more to Biasca.

Disentis (37i3'), see p. 389. - The road crosses the VorderRhein by a handsome bridge (3488') and enters the Val Medel, the wild ravine of the Mittel-Rhein, through which it is carried by means of cuttings and tunnels (eleven tunnels to Curaglia). Superb views of the gorge and its fille waterfalls On quitting it, the road crosses ( $23 / 4$ M.) the Rhine and ascends in long windings (cut off by paths) to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -

3½ M. Curaglia (4370'; *Hôt. Lukmanier), a village at the entrance to the Val Plattas, which ascends to the S.E. to the Medel Glacier. (Over the Lavaz-Joch to Somvix, see p. 388.) To the S. appears the Piz Cristallina $\left(10,265^{\prime}\right)$, with its glacier, at the head of Val Medel. - *Piz Muraun ( 9510 '; 4 hrs.), see p. 389.

Following the right side of the pleasant Val Medel, the road passes the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) straggling village of Platta ( $4528^{\prime}$; Post), a picturesque fall of the Rhine (right of the road), the hamlets of Pardi, Fuorns, and Acla (beautiful fall of the Rhine, the ' $F u$ matsch'), and ( $21 / 4$ M.) Perdatsch (5093'), at the mouth of the Val Cristallina.

The wild Val Cristallina, noted for its cheese, contains fine waterfalls, particularly in the Höllenschlund (Val Ufiern). From this valley two easy passes, the Passo Cristallina (78877), passing the Lago Retico (Redig-See; $7802^{\prime}$ ), and the Passo d' Ufiern (8727'), between the Cima Camadra and Cima Garina, lead to Olivone (p. 393). - The Piz Cristallina ( $10,265^{\prime} ; 4^{1 / 2}$ hrs.; good guide necessary, from Disentis 25 fr .) is ascended from Perdatsch by the Forcella Cristallina (9862'; not to be confounded with the Passo Cristallina) without serious difficulty. Grand survey of the Medel and Rheinwald Mts. Piz Ufiern ( $10,346^{\prime}$; $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) is more difficult. - The *Piz Medel ( $10,510^{\prime}$; $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$.), a splendid point of view, presents no difficulty to experts (guide from Disentis 30 fr .). The route leads to the E. from Fuorns (p. 392), up the Buora-Thal nearly to the pass of that name; it then ascends (right) rock and stony slopes round the rocky crest of the Miez Glatsché to the névé of the Buora and Medel Glaciers, and, passing the rock island 'Rifugi Camotsch', gains the top by the N.E. arête. Alternative descent over the Camadra Glacier to the Passo d' Ufiern (p. 392).

Above Perdatsch the Rhine forces its way through the rocks to a lower part of the valley. The road sweeps round to St.Gion (5298'), a group of hovels with a hospice, and gradually ascends a wild, rock-strewn valley, scantily overgrown with grass, willows, and rhododendrons. The hospice of St. Gall ( $5514^{\prime}$ ) is passed on the right. By the Alp Scheggia we cross to the left bank, and reach ( $43 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from Perdatsch) the hospice of - 12 M. Sancta Maria (6043'; Inn), anciently 'Sancta Maria in loco magno', whence perhaps the name of the pass.

Ascent of the Scopi or Skupil ( $10,500^{\prime} ; 31 / 2^{-4}$ hrs.; guide 12 fr .), to the E. of the hospice, not difficult: steep grassy slopes at first; the last third, loose slate at places; lastly up the broad, weather-beaten rocky arête. Extensive view. Optional descent, to the E., to the ( 3 hrs .) Boarina-Alp ( $6140^{\prime}$ ) in the Val di Campo, and by Campo (from which there is a road) to ( 3 hrs .) Olivone (see below).-Piz Rondadura ( $9905^{\prime}$ ), to the W. of Sta.Maria ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), also easy.

From Sta. Maria to the Hôtel Piora ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; ; guide 10 , horse 25 fr .) and Airolo, see p. 122. - Over the Rondadura Pass to Val Nalps, p. 390.

For the last time the road crosses the Mittel-Rhein, which rises in the little lakes of Val Cadlimo, to the right, and ascends gradually to the ( $1 \frac{1}{4}$ M.) Lukmānier Pass (6290'), the second-lowest between Switzerland and Italy (p. 408). To the left rises the black, slaty summit of the Scopì; on the right are Piz del Uomo, Piz Blas, Piz del Ufiern, and Piz Rondadura. We descend, crossing the tracks of several destructive avalanches and mud-streams launched from the yellowish slopes of the Piz Corvo (9840') on the left, to the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) former hospice of Casaccia (5975'). To the E. towers the huge Rheinwaldhorn (p. 400).

A path, little used, leads hence over the Predelp Pass (8053') to ( 5 hrs .) Faido (p. 122). Another crosses the Passo Columbe ( $7792^{\prime}$ ), between Piz Scai and Piz Columbe, to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$ ) Hôtel Piora (p. 121).

The road is level as far as the ( $11 / 2$ M.) Lukmanier Inn, at the beginning of the Piano di Segno ( $5415^{\prime}$ ), and then, high above the Brenno, skirts the steep N. side of the Val Sancta Maria, being hewn in the rock at places. Below lie the chalets of Campra. We descend by a long curve to the right to $(41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the hospice of Camperio (4028'), cross the Brenno, and follow the wooded S. side of the valley, soon obtaining fine views of the Val Blenio. Far below, among walnut-trees, lie the villages of Somascona, Scona, and Olivone, commanded by the conical Sosto (7280'). Descending another long bend (path shorter), we reach (3 M.) -

24½ M. Olivone, Rom. Luorscha, locally Rivöi (2925'; *Hôt. Olivone, R. 2-3, D. 3 fr .), the highest village in the Val Blenio or Pollenzer-Thal, picturesquely situated. To the E. tower the abrupt spars of the Rheinwald range. To Vrin by Ghirone, see p. 387. No guides to be had at Olivone.

The road crosses the Brenno by a stone bridge, and descends on its left bank to ( $21 / 4$ M.) Aquila and to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Dangio ( 2645 '), charmingly situated at the entrance to the Val Soja. Vines and mulberries appear, and the slopes are clothed with walnuts and chestnuts. Next villages ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Torre and ( $11 / 2$ M.) Lottigna. [Opposite, above Prugiasco, stands the little charch of San Carlo, with frescoes of interest to students of art.] Then (1 M.) Acquarossa (1814'; Curhaus, R. $21 / 2-4$, B. $11 / 4$, D. 3-4, pens. $8-12$ fr.), with a chalybeate spring containing arsenic and lithia, at the foot of the pyramidal Simano ( $8475^{\prime}$; $6 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ with guide; grand view and rich flora).

The valley contracts. Then ( $11 / 2$ M.) Dongio, a long village (inn, carriages), and ( 1 M. ) Motto ( $1445^{\prime}$ ), where the road divides. The road to the left (on the left bank of the Brenno) passes Malvaglia; that to the right (shorter, and shady in the afternoon) leads by Ludiano and ( 2 M.) Semione ( $1320^{\prime}$ ), with its ruined château of Serravalle. The roads re-unite at $\left(2^{1 / 2}\right.$ M.) the bridge below Loderio (1190), a village destroyed by a flood in 1868. The lower valley is monotonous; its broad floor is covered with stony deposits and the slopes are furrowed by torrents. Crossing a mound of detritns, the road descends to ( $11 / 2$ M.) -

39 M. Biasca (p. 123), where the Val Blenio unites with the Riviera (Val Ticino). The station of the St. Gotthard Railway is $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the S. of the village. Post-office at the station.

96. From Thusis to Colico on the Lake of Como over the Splügen. Via Mala.

Comp. Maps, pp. 374,384, 394.

58 M . Diligence to Chiavenna, 41 M ., twice daily in 10 hrs . ( 16 fr . 50 , coupé 19 fr .80 c .) ; to Splügen, 16 Mr ., in 4 hrs . ( 9 fr . 95 , conpé 11 fr . 90 c .). -Extra-Post with two horses from Thusis to Splügen 46 fr .70 c ., to Chiavenna 99 fr .20 c ., with three horses 135 fr .50 c . - One-horse Carriage to Splügen 25 , two-Horse 45 fr .; to Chiavenna 55 or 100 fr . (fee 10 per cent of the fare). - From Chiavenna to Colico, 17 M ., railway in 1 hr . (fares $3 \mathrm{fr} .10,2 \mathrm{fr} .15,1 \mathrm{fr} .40 \mathrm{c}$. .), corresponding with the steamboats to Como. Distances for walkers: Thusis-Andeer $23 / 4$, Andeer-Splügen 3 hrs .

Thusis ( $2450^{\prime}$ ), see p. 383. From the S. end of the little town the road descends for about 200 yards, crosses the Nolla (p. 383), and forks: to the left, downhill, is the Schyn Road (p. 402); to the right is the Splügbn Road, which keeps the same level, and soon, at the foot of the steep rocky hill of Hohen-Rhätien (p. 383), enters the narrow valley of the Hinter-Rhein.

The famous *Via Mala, the first part of the Splügen Road, was constructed in 1822. Formerly the route ascended the bank of the Nolla through wood, and, at a point above Rongellen, entered the deep gorge of the Rhine, then known as the 'Verlorne Loch', and traversed by a path only $4^{\prime}$ wide. The sudden contrast between the bright sunshine and the gloomy gorge is very striking. The limestone rocks rise almost sheer on both sides to a height of about $1600^{\prime}$. At the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Känzeli the view downwards is very fine. A little farther on, the road passes through a tunnel ( $2685^{\prime}$; 55 yds.), beyond which, at the point where the side-wall ends and the wooden railings recommence, we get a view of the boisterous river in its profound gorge. Below the ( 1 M .) hamlet of Rongellen ( $3790^{\prime}$; Inn zur Via Mala-Schlucht; Post, both unpretending) the gorge expands into a small basin, and soon contracts again. The road crosses the river three times: 1 M ., first bridge, built in 1738 (cabaret above it, with fine view of the second bridge); $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. *Second Bridge (2844'), built in 1739, the grandest point. The Rhine, $160^{\prime}$ below the road, winds through a ravine so narrow that its sides almost meet. At the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) third bridge ( 2903 '; bnilt in 1834) the Via Mala ends (fair inn).

We now enter the Schamser-Thal, the green meadows of which contrast pleasantly with the gloomy Via Mala. In the background, to the S., rises the pointed $\operatorname{Hirli}(9373$ ). Then (1 M.) - 51/2 M. Zillis, Rom. Ciraun (3060'; Rathhaus; Post, both plain), with the oldest church in the valley (nave and tower Romanesque; ceiling-paintings of the 12 th century).

Ascents (guide, Daniel Pappa of Thusis). ${ }^{\text {Piz }}$ Beverin ( $9843^{\prime}$; 6-7 hrs.; guide 20 fr .), a superb point of view, but trying. Bridle-path by Donath and Mathon to the ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Obrist-Alp ( 7172 '); thence by the Alp Nursin to the top $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. more. The ascent from Thasis by ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Glas (rustic quarters) is more interesting, but only for experts; from Glas (with cha-mois-hunter Henni as guide; 5 fr.) to the top $3-3^{11 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$. - Piz Curvèr ( $9760^{\prime} ; 7$ hrs., with guide), also interesting, though less so than the Piz Beverin. The route leads from Thusis by the Via Mala to (2 hrs.) Reischen and thence viâ $A l p$ Taspin to ( 5 hrs .) the summit. Optional descent to the chapel of Ziteil and Savognin (p. 403).

On the hill to the right, on the left bank of the Rhine, above the village of Donath, and overshadowed by the Piz Beverin, stands the ruined castle of Fardün (3980'), once the seat of the governors of the valley. About the middle of the 15 th cent. the brutality of one of them, like that of Gessler 150 years earlier, is said to have led to the overthrow of their sway. Entering the cottage of a peasant whom he disliked, the tyrant spat into the broth served for dinner. The peasant, Johann Caldar, seized him by the throat, plunged his head into the scalding liquid, exclaiming, 'Malgia tez la buglio ca ti has cungieu' ('Eat thyself the soup thou hast seasoned'), and strangled him. This was the signal for a general rising.

Near the remains of the old Baths of Pignieu (the chalybeate water of which is conducted to Andeer, and there used for baths) the Pignieuer Bach is crossed by a bridge, the last completed on this route, with the inscription on the E. parapet: 'Jam via patet hosti-bus et amicis. Cavete, Rhaetil simplicitas morum et unio servabunt avitam libertatem'. To the left is the village of Pignieu; opposite, on the left bank of the Rhine, are Clugin and the square tower of the ruin of Cagliatscha. Then (2 M.) -

71/2 M. Andeer (3210'; pop. 581; *Hôtel Fravi, with mineral and peat baths, R. & L. 2-4, B. $11 / 4$, D. 3, pens. 6-8 fr. ; *Hôt.Pens. Beverin, well situated; *Sonne, plain), the principal village in the valley. Fine view from the loftily situated church (built in 1673).

Ascents. Piz Vizan ( $8110^{\prime}$; $4 \frac{1}{2}$ hrs.; with guide), by the Burgias Alp; splendid view. - Piz La Tschera ( $8615^{\prime}$; 5 hrs., with guide), by Alp Albin, also interesting. - Piz Beverin and Piz Curvèr, see p. 395.

From Andeer to Stalla ( $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$.; without guide), an attractive walk. The new road (to Cresta, $131 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., diligence in summer daily in $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., fare 5 fr .45 c .) quits the Splugen road, 2 M . above Andeer, and enters the wild ${ }^{*}$ Ferrera Valley to the left, leading first on the left, and then on the right bank of the Averser-Rhein, which has several fine falls. On the left is Piz Grisch ( $10,000^{\prime}$ ), on the right the Surettahorn ( 9925 ). We pass ( $\mathbf{1}^{3} / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) a deserted silver-foundry, and reach ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Ausser-Ferrera ( $4334^{\prime}$; two modest inns), where the valley expands slightly. (Over the Fianell Pass to Savognin, see p. 403.) We follow the right bank to ( 3 M .) Inner-Ferrera or Canicull ( $4856^{\prime}$; rustic inn), at the mouth of the Val d'Emet (see below). The road descends, crosses the Rhine, and ascends its steep left bank for $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. It then skirts the slope, passing through wood; (1 M.) it rounds a projecting rock (view of the Surettahorn, etc., behind us), and again descends to the river, which here receives the torrents of the Val Starlera on the left and Valle di Lei on the right. We cross (1 M.) the latter. (By the bridge is the frontier-stone of Italy, to which the Valle di Lei belongs.) The road ascends rapidly, then descends. Near ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Campsut ( 5500 '; inn, well spoken of) it crosses the Rhine, and beyond ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Crot ( $5640^{\prime}$; Jaeger's lan, plain) recrosses it. Beyond the bridge (view, to the right, of the Madris Valley, with Piz Gallegione and Cima di Lago at its head) the road ascends steep pastures to the left, and at the top of the hill passes through stone-pines. It descends, crosses another bridge, and ascends to ( 3 M.) Cresta (6397'; Heinz's Inn, plain; Restaurant Wolf; guides, Sinon Heinz, Peter Stoffel), the chief village in the Averser-Thal, which expands here, and is carpeted with rich pastures. This is one of the highest inhabited valleys among the Alps, and lies in a sunny situation. To the N. rises the Weissberg ( $9990^{\circ}$ ).

From Cresta the bridle-path (guide, 8 fr., needless) ascends slightly, passing the handsome Podestats-Haus, and the mouth of the Val Bregalga, which is enclosed by fine glaciers, to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Juf ( $6685^{\prime}$ ); then to the left across pastures and through a desolate rock-strewn valley to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) pass of the Stallerberg ( $8480^{\prime}$; splendid view of the Julier Mts., etc.). The path, quite distinct, now descends, keeping to the left, to ( 2 hrs .) Stalla (p. 404). - From Juf through the Val Faller to Molins, see p. 404.

A path leads from Juf to the S.E. over the Forcellina (8770') to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Septimer (p. 404), and thence to ( 2 hrs .) Casaccia in the Val Bregaglia (guide 20 fr .), or over the Lunghino Pass to the ( 5 hrs .) Maloja (see p. 409; guide 25 fr .). - From the Forcellina Pass we may ascend in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. the Pizzo della Forcellina ( 9918 '; admirable view) and descend to the S.E. into the Val Turba. We then reach the Septimer roate 20 min . below the pass, by the second bridge over the Septimerbach (p. 404). - From Cresta through Val Bregalga and across the Passo della Duana (about $9180^{\prime}$; guide 25 fr.) to Soglio in the Val Bregaglia (p. 439), 7-8 hrs., interesting. The pass, which lies to the W. of the Gletscherhorn ( 10,095 '), and also the descent, affords a fine view of the Bregaglia Mts., especially of the Val Bondasca with the shovel-shaped Piz Badile.

From Canicull to Pianazzo on the Splügen route ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; with guide). The steep path ascends the right side of the Val d'Emet, through wood, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Emet ( $6194^{\prime}$ ), whence the cairn on the pass is visible; then over the soft and uneven soil of the Alp in 1 hr . to the top. Behind us rises Piz Beverin; the Calanda afterwards comes in sight. The Passo di Emet (7515'), between the Pizzo Emet ( $10,530^{\prime}$; 1.) and the Pizzo Spadolazzo ( $8920^{\prime}$; r.), is the frontier of Switzerland and Italy. Opposite us, to the W., are Piz Tambo (10,748') and Piz Terri. We descend past the N. side of the little Lago d'Emet, on the left bank of the Madesimo, then across meadows, to the hats of Casone and ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Madesimo (p.398). Road thence to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Pianazzo (p. 398), on the Splügen route.

The Splügen road winds upwards, past the ruin of Bärenburg, and enters the wooded Rofna Ravine, in which the Rhine forms a series of falls. The road crosses ( 2 M . from Andeer) the AverserRhein ( ${ }^{}$ Melchior's Inn), which issues from the Val Ferrera (p. 396) and forms a fine fall a little way up.

Towards the end of the gorge ( 2 M .) we pass an old bridge over the Rhine on the right. The valley expands. The road crosses $(3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the torrent of the Suretta Valley on the left. By the roadside are the rains of the Sufers Foundry. To the right, the Kalkberg. We next ( $1 / 2$ M.) pass through a rocky gateway (Sassa Plana; 4390'), ten paces long. At ( 1 M .) the prettily situated * Hôt. Hinterrhein (pens. 6 fr.) a bridge crosses to the village of Sufers ( $4673^{\prime}$ ), on the left bank of the Rhine. We enter a wooded ravine and cross ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the wild stream in its deep gorge by a bold bridge (4727). After a short ascent we survey the broad Val Rhein (Rheinwald-Thal); on the right, the barren Kalkberg (9763') ; opposite, the Einshorn (9650); in the background, the Rheinwaldhorn $\left(11,150^{\prime}\right)$; to the left of Splügen, adjoining the Guggernüll ( $9472^{\prime}$ ), is Piz Tambo (10,748'); behind us, Piz Curvèr (p. 395). - Then (1 M.) -

16 M. Splügen (4757'; pop. 424 ; *Hôt. Bodenhaus \&゙ Post, R., L., \& A. $31 / 2$, D. $31 / 2$, pens. $7-8$ fr. ; *Hôt. Splügen, R., L., \& A. $2-21 / 2$, B. 1, D. $21 / 2$, pens. $5-6 \mathrm{fr}$.), the capital of the RheinwaldThal, enlivened by the traffic on the Splügen and Bernardino routes. Pleasant walk, past the church, to the ruined castle on the old road, with a view down the valley and of Piz Tambo.

Excursions. (Guide, Jeremias Gredig.) View from the Fluhgriund ( 1 hr .) and Donatzhöhe ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). Drive to the Bernardino Pass (p. 400); the Alp behind the inn commands a splendid survey of the Rheinwald Glacier. - The Guggernüll ( $9472^{\prime} ; 41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 6 fr .), by the Tambo Alp, and the Einshorn ( 9650 ; from Nufenen, $4-5 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 8 \mathrm{fr}$.) are two fine points, and not difficult. - The Pizzo Tambo (Tambohorn or Schneehorn; 10,748'; 14 fr.), $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Splügen Pass, is fatiguing, but safe for experts. Extensive view, extending on the S. to Milan, whence the peak is visible.

Excarsion to the Source of the Hinter-Rhein, p. 400. - Over the Löchliberg to the Safier-Thal, see p. 385.

Beyond the village of Splügen the road divides. The Bernardino route leads straight on (p. 399). The Splügen Road, constructed by the Austrian government in 1819-21, crosses the Rhine to the left by an iron bridge, ascends in windings (avoided by short-cuts), and passes through a tunnel 93 yds . long, beyond which we see the top of the pass. We cross the Häusernbach twice in a bleak valley, at the end of which the old bridle-path ascends direct to the pass. The road ascends the W. slope in zigzags, past the lonely Berghaus ( 66777 ), and through a gallery of masonry, to the ( 6 M .) Splügen Pass (Colmo dell' Orso; 6945'), between Piz Tambo (10,748'; see p. 397) on the right, and the Surettahorn ( $9925^{\prime}$ ) on the left, the boundary between Switzerland and Italy.

Beyond the pass and the first Cantoniera we reach ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) the Dogana (6260'), or Italian custom-house, a group of houses at the head of a bleak valley (Monte Spluga Inn, plain; Post). In winter the snow sometimes reaches to the windows of the upper story. During snow-storms bells are rung in the houses of refuge as a guide to travellers. The old bridle-path to Isolato turned to the right, near the second wooden bridge, and led through the Cardinell gorge, a route much exposed to avalanches, where the French under Gen. Macdonald sustained terrible losses in Dec., 1800, and also through the dangerous Liro Gorge. The new road descends the E. slope in windings, being protected at places by avalanche-galleries of masonry (first 249 yds. long, second 228, third 550 yds .), with sloping roofs to enable the snow to slide off, and side-openings for light.

Beyond the third gallery we obtain a fine view of the old road, destroyed by a flood in 1834, and of the village of Isolato. At the end of the gallery is a copious spring. The new road avoids the dangerous Liro Gorge between Isola and Campo Dolcino. Near ( $71 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Pianazzo ( $4527^{\prime}$; inn, plain) a road descends to the right to Isola. Just beyond Pianazzo, near a short tunnel, the Madesimo forms a *Fall 650' high (best viewed from a platform by the roadside, where the diligence halts).

From Pianazzo a road (two-horse carr. from Splügen and back 40 fr., fee 4 fr .) ascends to the hamlet of ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Madesimo ( $5032^{\prime}$ ), with a chalybeate spring and a hydropathic *Curhaus (R. from 2, board $5-61 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), a pleasant health-resort. - To Caniciil over the Passo di Emet, see p. 397.

The next part of the road is the boldest; some of its terraces rise perpendicularly one above the other. - 2 M . -

33 M. Campodolcino (3620'; Croce d'Oro; Posta or Corona) consists of four groups of houses; the second contains the church and the 'campo santo' or burial-ground. Beyond one of the galleries the rock bears a Latin inscription to the Emp. Francis, who made this road from 'Clavenna ad Rhenum'.

The LiroValley, or Valle San Giacŏmo, is strewn with fragments of rock, chiefly brittle white gneiss, which reddens on exposure to the air. The wildness of the scene is softened by the rich foliage of chestnuts, from which peeps the slender white campanile of the church of Galivaggio. Near San Giacomo the chestnut-trees extend far up the steep slopes, and beyond it the luxuriance of Italian vegetation is fully displayed. - 8 M . -

41 M. Chiavenna. - Hotels. *Hôtel Conradi, 5 min. from the station, with railway-ticket and luggage office, R., L., \& A. $21 / 2-5$, B. $1^{11 / 4}$, D. $3-41 / 2$, S. 3, pens. $61 / 2-8$, omn. $1 / 2^{-3} / 4$ fr.; Albergo Specula, at the station, R., L., \& A. $21 / 2$, B. $1 \mathrm{fr} . ;{ }^{}$ Chiave d'Oro, on the Promenade, Italian style; Hôt. San Paolo, well spoken of.

The Station (Café-Restaurant, lunch $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.) lies to the E. of the town. Through-tickets are issued to the steamboat-stations on Lake Como, with omnibus-coupons for Colico.

Chiavenna (1090'; pop. 4086), the Roman Clavenna, an ancient town, is charmingly situated on the Mera, at the mouth of the Val Bregaglia (p. 439). Opposite the Hôtel Conradi are the ruins of an unfinished château of De Salis, the last governor appointed by the Grisons; picturesque view from the 'Paradiso' or garden (adm. 50 c .). San Lorenzc, the principal church, has an elegant detached campanile, rising from the old burial-ground. In the octagonal baptistery (closed, fee 15-20 c.) is a font of 1206, with reliefs. The neighbouring hills of Val Capiola contain many giant cauldrons ('Marmitte dei Giganti'; guides at the hotels).

Railway to Colico (fares, see p. 394). Three tunnels, looking back beyond which we enjoy a fine view of Chiavenna. The low land here is much exposed to the inundations of the Liro and Mera. The valley (Piano di Chiavenna) is flanked with lofty mountains. On the right bank of the Mera lies Gordona, at the month of the Val della Forcola (p. 401), beyond which the Boggia descends in a fine fall from the narrow Val Bodengo. - 6 M . Samolaco is the station for the large village of that name on the right bank of the Mera, at the mouth of Val Mengasia. Before ( $81 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Novate we reach the Lago di Mezzola, once the N. bay of the Lake of Como, now separated from it by the deposits of the $A d d a$, but connected with it by a narrow navigable channel. To the $S$. appears the pyramidal Mte. Legnone (p. 471). The train crosses the diluvial land formed by the torrent of the Val Codera on the left, and skirts the E. bank of the lake, by Campo and Verzeia. Several embankments and tunnels. We cross the Adda beyond ( $121 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Dubino. The Valtellina railway (p.437) joins ours on the left; on a hill to the right is the ruined castle of Fuentes, once the key of the Valtellina, erected by the Spaniards in 1603, and destroyed by the French in 1796.

17 M. Colico (722'; Rail. Restaurant), p. 471. The station is $1 / 3 \mathrm{M}$. from the pier, to which there is ample time to walk. Om-nibus-coupons are collected at the exit from the station.

97. From Splügen to Bellinzona. San Bernardino.

Comp Map, p. 394.
46 M. Diligence daily (between San Bernardino and Bellinzona twice daily) in $81 / 2$, returning in 11 hrs . ( 15 fr . 25 , coupé 18 fr .95 c .). Extra-Post with two horses from Thusis to Bellinzona 140 fr , , with three horses $19 \bar{j}$ fr.; from Splügen to Bellinzona with two horses 95 fr. 80 c . Carriage aND Pair from Thasis to Bellinzona (in 2 days) 150 fr., from Splügen to Bellinzona 115 fr .; fee 10 per cent of the fare.

Splügen (47577), see p. 397. We traverse the upper Val Rhein, passing below ( 1 M .) Medels ( 5030 ). On the left bank, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther on, lies the pasture of Ebi, now partly covered with stones, where the 'Landsgemeinde' used to meet biennially on the first Sunday in May. Then ( $2 \frac{1}{4}$ M.) Nufénen ( $5145^{\prime}$ ), at the mouth of the Areue-Thal, at the head of which is seen the Curciusa Glacier. On the left are the huge rocky Guggernüll (p. 397), concealing Piz Tambo (p. 397), and the Einshorn (9650'). Near (2 M.) -

6 M. Hinterrhein (5330'; *Post, plain), the highest village in the valley, the Rheinwald Mts., the Marscholhorn, Rheinquellhorn, Rheinwaldhorn, Hochberghorn, and Kirchalphorn come in sight.

Source of the Hinter-Rhein. From Hinterrhein to the Zapport Hut $4 \mathrm{hrs} .$, rough, and hardly repaying (guide, advisable, $6 \mathrm{fr} . ; G$. Trepp, Joh. Hoesti). Beyond the Rhine bridge (see below) the path diverges to the right from the Bernardino road, and at first traverses the level floor of the valley. After $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. the valley narrows. The path is lost in a stony chaos on the right slope of the valley. The steep N. side is covered with poor pastures. The wild infant Rhine is covered at places with avalanche-snow, which lies here the whole year. By one of these snow-bridges we cross to the left bank, where a narrow path, kept in order by the shepherds in summer, leads to the ( 2 hrs .) Zapport Chalet ( $6420^{\prime}$ ), occupied in July and August by the Bergamasque shepherds, who pasture their flocks on the sunny Zap-port-Alp. The route to the clab-hut next leads past the Hölle, a wild gorge, in which the Rhine forms a small fall, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Zapport Club Hut (7613'). The narrow valley is closed by the Rheinwald Glacier, the lower part of which is called the Paradies Glacier. The Hinter-Rhein issues from an aperture in the glacier ( $7270^{\prime}$ ), shaped like a cow's mouth, below the hut. This chief sonrce of the river (Sprung or Ursprung) is soon augmented by numerous small tributaries from crevasses of the glacier. From the club-hut we may ascend the Rheinwald Glacier in order to survey the vast Adula or Rheinwald Mts.: the Zapporthorn (10,330'), Rheinquellhorn ( $10,500^{\prime}$ ), Vogelberg $\left(10,565^{\prime}\right)$, Rheinwaldhorn, Güfer'hor'n $\left(11,130^{\prime}\right)$, etc. The Rheinwaldhorn ( $11,150^{\prime}$ ) may be ascended by experts from the clubhut in 4 hrs., with guide, by the Lentalücke (9692') and the N.E. arête (toilsome, the final ascent difficult). The Güferhorn ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the club-hut, by the Lentalücke and the S.W. arête); the Vogelberg and Rheinquellhorn (each $31 / 2-4$ hrs. from the club-hut, over the Rheinwald Glacier); and the Zapporthorn ( $3^{1} / 2-4$ hrs. from the Bernardino Pass, over the Muccia Glacier, p. 401) are all more or less difficult.

From Hinterrhein over the Valser Berg to the Lugnetz Valley, see p. 386 ; over the Zapportgrat or the Lentalücke to Zervreila, see p. 387. Trying passes (Vogeljoch, $9640^{\prime}$; Passo del Cadabbi, 9680'; Zapport Pass, 10,140') lead to the S. from the Rheinwald and Zapport glaciers to Malvaglia (p. 394).

The Bernardino Road crosses the Rhine by a bridge (5300') of three arches, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. beyond Hinterrhein, and ascends the steep bush-clad slope in windings. (A good short-cut diverges to the right from the second winding.) Looking back, we have a fine view of the Rhine Valley and the mountains to the N., the Kirchalphorn, Lorenzhorn, Schwarzhorn, and Hochberghorn. On the left, before ( $21 / 2$ M.) we cross the Masek-Bach ( $5680^{\prime}$ ), is the solitary Dürrenbühl Chalet. Traversing a bleak valley, and passing the Thäli-Alp on the left, we reach the ( 3 M.) San Bernardino Pass (6770'; Inn), at the N. end of the little Lago Moësola, from which three rocks project. This pass was known to the Romans. It owes its present name to St. Bernardino of Siena, who preached the gospel here early in the 15 th century. On the left rise the Pizzo Uccello ( $8910^{\prime}$ ) and Mittaghorn ( $8560^{\prime}$ ); on the right the Marscholhorn (or Piz Moësola; 95520'). Superb view near a large white bonlder, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. above the hotel, to the N.W. (guide unnecessary).

We descend many windings on the left bank of the Moësa, which issues from the lake, and pass a Cantoniera : to the W. rises the Zapporthorn (10,330') with the Stabbio-Grat (8995'), whence the Muccia Glacier descends; to the E. are Piz Lumbreda (9770'), Piz Mutun ( $9360^{\prime}$ ), and Piz Curciusa ( $9423^{\prime}$ ). Lower down we cross the Moësa by a handsome bridge, and descend in a great curve to ( $43 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -

17 M. San Bernardino (ō335'; *Hôt. Victoria, R., L., \& A. 2-5, lunch 4, D. 5, pens. 9-12 fr.; *Hôt. Brocco, *Hôt. Ravizza, board $71 / 2-91 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. ; Hồt. Bellevue, well spoken of; Albergo Menghetti), the highest village in the Val Mesocco or Mesolcina, with a mineral spring which attracts many Italian invalids in summer. Everything here is Italian, and the people are Roman Catholics, Cardinal Borromeo (p. 464) having crushed the germs of the Reformation. - Over the Passetti Pass to the Val Calanca, see p. 402.

To the N. towers the sharp tooth of Piz Uccello (p. 400). The road ascends a little, and then descends in numerous zigzags (cut off by footpaths). A fine fall of the Moësa, in the gorge to the right, is seen by following the path leading from S. Bernardino to San Giacomo, first on the left, and then on the right bank of the stream. Beyond ( $41 / 2$ M.) San Giacomo ( $3845^{\prime}$; Alb. Toscano) the road crosses the Moësa (pleasing view), and then descends rapidly to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) -

26 M. Mesocco or Cremeo ( $2500^{\prime}$; *Posta; Hôt. Toscani), where walnut-trees, chestnuts, vines, and maize proclaim the Italian climate. On a rock to the left of the road, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. below the village, rises the grand ruin of Mesocco (or Misox), with its four towers, which was destroyed by natives of the Grisons in 1526 . From the slopes descend numerous cascades, eight between Mesocco and Lostallo, some of them considerable.

Beyond ( $11 / 2$ M.) Soazza (2067'), near the second bridge, the Buffalora forms a fine fall. Then (3 M.) Cabbiolo (1475'), (1 M.) Lostallo (1560; Posta, well spoken of), with vineyards and the first fig-trees, and ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) - 36 M. Cama (1260'; Restaurant), with a Capuchin monastery.

From Cama to Chiavenna a fatigning route ( $14-15 \mathrm{hrs}$., guide to the top of the pass, 5 fr.) ascends the steep Val di Cama, containing the little lake of that name ( $4055^{\prime}$ ), crosses the ( $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Bocchetta di Val Cama ( $6880^{\prime}$ ), and descends the Val Bodengo to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Bodengo (rustic inn), and by a steep path, with steps, through the gorge of the Boggia to Gordona and ( 5 hrs .) Chiarenna. - A little easier and less interesting path from Soazza (see above) crosses the Passo della Forcola (7274') and leads through the valley of that name to Chiavenna ( $12-13 \mathrm{hrs}$; ; with gnide).

Then ( $3 / 4$ M.) Leggia ( $1125^{\prime}$ ) and ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Grono ( $1000^{\prime}$; Restaurant Tognola, beer), a thriving village at the mouth of the Val Calanca, with the Florentina tower, and near it a chapel with old frescoes.

The Sasso della Paglia (8513'), commanding a magnifieent view, may be ascended from Grouo viâ the Val di Grono in 7 hrs., with guide (clubhut near the top).

Baedeker, Switzerland. 18th Edition.

The picturesque $\nabla$ al Calanca is traversed by a road, first on the left, then on the right bank of the Calancasca, to Molina, Arvigo, Santa Domenica, Augio, and ( 10 M. ) Rossa ( $3570^{\prime}$; inn), the chief village in the valley. (Toilsome route hence, to the W., over the Giumella Pass, 6955', to Malvaglia in the Val Blenio, p. 394.) Bridle-path hence to ( 1 hr. ) Valbella (4383'), the highest hamlet in the valley, from which an easy route, to the E., crosses the Passo di Tresculmine (7064') to (5 hrs.) Mesocco; then (1 hr.) Alp Alogna (4695'), whence we may cross the Passo di Passetti ( $6808^{\prime}$ ) to the E. to San Bernardino (p. 401) in 4-5 hrs. (guide). At the head of Val Calanca, but difficult of access thence, lies the grand mountain-basin of the Stabbio Alps ( $6590^{\prime}$ ), best reached from San Bernardino, in $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$., by crossing the Passo Tre Uomini (8704').

39 M. Roveredo ( $975^{\prime}$; pop. 1065 ; Angelo; Croce), the capital of the lower Val Mesocco, with the ruined castle of the once powerful Trivulzio family.

11/4 M. San Vittōre ( $880^{\prime}$ ) is the last Grisons village, ( $21 / 4$ M.) Lumino the first in Ticino. The Bernardino route passes Castione, on the right, a station on the St. Gotthard Railway (p. 123), joins the St. Gotthard road, and crosses the Moësa. Below the confluence of the Moësa and the Ticino lies ( 2 M .) Arbēdo ( $813^{\prime}$ ), a village of sad memory in Swiss history. On 30 th June, 1422 , a battle took place here between 3000 Swiss and 24,000 Milanese, in which 2000 of the former fell. They were interred by the church of St. Paul, called Chiesa Rossa from its red colour. - $13 / 4$ M. -

Thusis ( $2450^{\prime}$ ), see p. 383. - The road through the *Schyn Pass, constructed in 1868-69, noteworthy for its grand and picturesque scenery, crosses the Rhine at the foot of Hohen-Rhätien, passes the ruin of Ehrenfels on the right, and then, beyond ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Sils, Rom. Seglias (2283'; *Post), the little chàteau of Baldenstein on the left. It next enters the valley of the Albula, to the right, and ascends on its left bank to Campi (Campo Bello, ruin of the ancestral seat of the Campell family; Ulrich Campell was a Rhætian reformer and historian), and the farm of ( 2 M .) Runplanas. Pretty view of the church of Solis. Then through the forest of Versasca. By a ravine above us, to the right, we observe a bridge of the old Mutten road.

We pass the Freihof, an auberge on the left. The road is carried through the Pass Mal, which begins here, by galleries of masonry, cuttings, and tannels. $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. Inn 'Zum Passmal' (rustic).

By the chalets of Calabrien, $1 / 4$ M. farther on, a narrow road to the right ascends to ( $\left(11 / 2\right.$ M.) Unter-Mutten ( $4833^{\prime}$; "Inn, plain; closed in summer. when the villagers migrate to Ober-Mutten). Thence to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ober-Mutten ( $6148^{\prime}$; Hosang's Inn), whence the Muttnerhorn ( 8070 '; ${ }^{=\text {View }}$; guide 10 fr .) may be ascended in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$;, good path at first, then up grassy slopes. Descent from Ober-Mutten to ( $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Zillis or to Thusis interesting, but rough.

The bridge across the Muttner Tobel affords a fine view of the gorge. $11 / 4$ M. Unter-Solis, a hamlet with a spring containing iodine. High above, to the left, lies Obervatz (p. 380). Looking back near the last tunnel, we survey the Heinzenberg; before us we see Alvaschein and the peaks of the Albula. The road crosses the Albula gorge by the *Solis Bridge, 250 ' above the torrent, and ascends in a curve (cut off by a path to the right, beyond the bridge) to the village of (2 M.) Alvaschein (Augustin). Opposite, below the loftily situated Stürvis, is a waterfall. Farther on, to the right, below the road, is the church of Müstail, the oldest in the Albula valley, formerly a burial-place. At Unter-Müstail there is an alkaline spring. The road unites with the Coire route near ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) -

9 M. Tiefenkastell, Roman. Casti (2790'; *Hôt. Julierhof, R., L., \& A. $11 / 2-4$, B. $11 / 4$, D. 3, pens. 8-10 fr.; *Hôt. Albula, R., L., \& A. from 3, B. $1 \frac{1}{2}$, lunch 3 fr. ; *Hôt. Alpenrose, R. $1 \frac{1}{2}$, B. 1, D. 2, S. $11 / 2$ fr.; Rhätia, plain; Kreuz), almost entirely rebuilt after the fire of 1890 , lies picturesquely in the deep valley, with its church on a hill (2917') above the confluence of the Julia and the Albula. (To Surava and Alveneu-Bad, p. 405̄ ; to Coire viâ Churwalden, p. 381.)

The Julier Road ascends rapidly, and skirts the Stein, a bold limestone cliff (rock-gallery and tunnel). Far below flows the Julia or Oberhalbstein Rhine. (The Romanic word Rhein means 'flowing water'.) We next enter ( $4^{1 / 2}$ M.) a broad and populous part of the valley called the Oberhalbstein (Sur Seissa), 6 M . long, and pass the villages of ( $11 / 4$ M.) Conters (Post, new), and ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Savognin or Schweiningen (3980'; *Hôt.-Pens. Pianta, D. $4^{1} / 2$, pens. from 6 fr. ; *Hôt. Piz Michel, pens. 6 fr.). On the W. slope lie Salūx, Präsūns, Reāms (with a fine castle, now a prison), and other villages.

Excursions. Piz Curvèr ( $9760^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$; ; guide), from Savognin by Ziteil, not difficult, a very fine point (see p. 395; descent to Zillis or Andeet). - From Savognin to Ausser-Ferrera over the Fianell Pass, $51 / 2$ hrs., easy and repaying. A narrow road leads through the smiling Val Nandro to the (2 hrs.) Alp Curtins ( $6400^{\prime}$ ); here we ascend to the right to ( 1 hr. ) Alp Schmorras ( $7500^{\prime}$ ) and the ( 1 hr .) Fianell or Schmorras Pass ( $8350^{\prime}$ ), opposite Piz Grisch (Piz Fianell; $10,000^{\prime}$ ) ; then descend by $A l p$ Moos and Sutt Foina to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ausser-Ferrera ( p .396 ).
$151 / 2$ M. Tinzen, Rom. Tinizung (4070'; Hôt. Tinzenhorn), prettily situated at the mouth of the Val d'Err. In the background rise Piz Val-Lung and Piz d'Aela (p. 405).

From Tinzen to Bergün over the Aela Pass, $7-8$ hrs., see p. 406; the Fuorcla da Tschitta ( $9536^{\prime}$ '; 8 hrs.) is a better route. To the N. a trying route ( 5 hrs .; with guide) crosses the Tinzenthor Pass ( $8465^{\prime}$ ), between the Piz Michel and the Tinzenhorn, to Bad Alveneu (p. 405). - Piz Michel ( $10,375^{\prime} ; 6 \mathrm{hrs}$.; with guide), more difficult from here than from Alvenen (p. 405). - To Samaden over the Errjoch ( 10,270 '), 9 hrs., with guide, laborious, but repaying. Ascent through the pictoresque Val d'Err and over the Err Glacier to the pass, lying to the N.E. of the Piz d'Err (see below); descent throngh the Val Bever (p. 416).

Above Tinzen the Julia forms several fine falls. The road leads through curious basins, formed by erosion, and rocky ravines, to ( $11 / 2$ M.) Roffna ( $4760^{\prime}$; Löwe, rustic), and ( 3 M. ) -

20 M. Molins, Ger. Mühlen (4793'; *Löwe, R. 2½, D. 4 fr.), beautifully situated, where the diligence halts for dinner.

From the Val da Faller, which debouches here, and divides into the Val Gronda and the Val Bercla $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. farther up, routes little used (guide) cross the Thäli-Joch (9193'), to the E. of the Weissberg, to ( 6 hrs. ) Cresta (p. 396), and the Fallerjoch (about 9090 ), past the Flüh Lakes, to ( $5^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.) Juf in the Averser-Thal (p. 396). - ${ }^{*}$ Piz Platta ( $11,110^{\prime} ; 5^{1 / 2}$ hrs.; guide), ascended through the Val Faller and Val Bercla, is a splendid point. - Piz d'Err• ( $11.100^{\prime}$ ), Piz d'A ${ }^{\prime}$ blatsch ( $10,525^{\prime}$ ), and Piz Forbisch ( $10,720^{\prime}$ ), for experts (guides at the 'Löwe').

From this point to Stalla, skirting the rapid Julia, we enjoy a series of grand rocky landscapes. A fine point is near the bridge on this side of $(1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Sur. On a beautiful wooded hill, in the middle of the valley, stands the square watch-tower of Splüdatsch (5260'; path to it beyond Sur; fine view). On the right, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther on, appears the ruin of Marmorera, partly built in a rocky cavity halfway up the hill The next villages are ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Marmorera (Marmels; 5360'), at the mouth of the Val Natons; Stalvedro (5613') ; and (2 M.) - $25^{1 / 2}$ M. Stalla (5827'; Post), or Bivio, the Roman Bivium, where the Julier and Septimer routes separate.

The Septimer Bridle Path (to Casaccia 4 hrs ; without guide in fine weather), one of the oldest Alpine routes, once traversed by Roman and German emperors with their armies, diverges to the right from the road above Stalla, and ascends the Val Cavreccia. At the chalets of ( 1 hr .) Cadval it crosses the brook, enters a defile, and ascends the somewhat marshy meadows of Pian Canfer, to the ( 1 hr .) Septimer Pass (Passo di Sett; $7582^{\prime}$ ), with a dilapidated hospice. (Over the Forcellina to Juf, and by Lunghino to the Maloja, see p. 409.) A height to the left of the pass, indicated by two stones, affords a superb view of the mountains of the Maloja, Piz della Margna, Monte dell' Oro, etc. Descent by a rough paved path, crossing the Septimer Bach (Acqua di Seltimo) three times, to the valley of the Mera, and on its left bank, the latter part very steep and stony, to ( 2 hrs .) Casaccia (p. 437).

From Stalla to Andeer, over the Stallerberg, and throngh the Averser Thal and Val Ferrera, see p. 396. - To Sils over the Fuorcla di Gravasalvas ( $8806^{\prime} ; 5^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ with guide), interesting. Below the Julier Pass we ascend to the right, past the little Gravasalvas Lake, to the pass, to the W. of Piz Lagrev, with a fine view of the Bernina, etc.; then a steep descent to the Lake of Sils (p. 410).

The road, completed in 1827, ascends the stony slopes of the Julier (Giulio) in numerous windings. Walkers reach the pass in $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. ; carriages take 2 hrs . up, and 1 hr . down. From November to the middle of May the pass is crossed by sledges. The Julier is clear of snow before any other pass of equal height, and is the least exposed to avalanches. On this side of the summit are a fow houses ( $7360^{\prime}$ ) and an unpretending inn. On the ( 30 M.) pass ( $7500^{\prime}$ ) are two round milestones of mica-slate, $5^{\prime}$ high, of the time of Augustus, who constructed a military road from Clavenna (p. 399) to the Curia Rætorum (Coire) over the Maloja and the Julier. Roman coins have also been found here. Near the milestones (which bear no inscription), to the right, is a little lake, which contains trout notwithstanding its altitude.

On the E. slope of the pass, 1 M. from the top, is the small Julier $A l p$, with two chalets. On the left rise Piz Julier and Piz d'Albana, and on the right Piz Polaschin (p.412). In descending we obtain a superb view of the snow-mountains of the Bernina (p.418). In the foreground rise Piz Surlej and Mt. Arlas, above which tower Piz Tschierva, Morteratsch, and Bernina, on the right; then Piz Corvatsch, and to the extreme right Piz della Margna. The Upper Engadine, with its green lakes, comes gradually into view.

99. From Thusis (Coire) to the Engadine over the Albula Pass.

Comp. Map, p. 374.

From Thusis to Samaden over the Albula, 35 M., Diligence in summer twice daily in $101 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 15 fr . 38, coupé 18 fr .50 c .) ; to Pontresina, $411 / 4 \mathrm{M}$., in 11 hrs .5 min . ( 16 fr .65 c ., coupé 20 fr. ); to the Baths of St. Moritz, $421 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., in $111 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 17 fr .15 , coupé 18 fr .60 c .). At Alveneu-Bad this route corresponds with the diligence from Coire via Churwalden, which starts $21 / \mathrm{hrs}$. earlier than from Thasis: to Samaden, $451 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., in 12 hrs .20 min . ( 18 fr .20 c ., coupé 22 fr .). At Bergün the diligence stops $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. for dinner. -Extra-Post with two horses from Thusis to Samaden over the Albula 93 fr .20 , with three horses 126 fr .75 c .; to Pontresina or St. Moritz 101 fr . 60 c. or 139 fr.; from Coire to Samaden 108 fr .80 c ., to St. Moritz or Pontresina 117 fr. 20 c . - Carriage and pair from Thusis to Bergün 45, Samaden 80, St. Moritz or Pontresina 90 fr.; from Coire to Bergün 70, Samaden 100, St. Moritz or Pontresina 110, Tarasp 170 fr . and driver's fee of 10 per cent of the fare (to Samaden $11 / 2-2$ days). - A most interesting route; fine mountain-scenery.

From Thusis through the Schyn Pass to (9 M.) Tiefenkastell, see p. 403. The Albula road diverges here to the left from the Julier road, and ascends the Albula-Thal by Surāva to - $12 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Alveneu - Bad (3115'), where the road from Coire vià Lenz descends on the left (p. 381). The sulphur-springs are in repute for rheumatism, etc. ( ${ }^{( }$Hotel, R., L., \& A. 3-5, D. 4, pension $61 / 2-11$ fr. ; Pens. Schuler, plain; one-horse carr. to Bergün 9, Wiesen 8, Tiefenkastell $41 / 2$, Coire 30 fr .). On the opposite bank is a waterfall, finely framed.

In the Val Spadlatscha, 4 hrs . above Alveneu-Bad or Filisur, and 3 hrs . from Bergün (p. 406), is the Aela Club Hut (7220'), from which the Piz Michēl ( $10,375^{\prime}$; attractive and not very difficult for experts; guide 25 fr .) is ascended in $4^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., the Tinzenhorn ( $10,430^{\prime} ; 40 \mathrm{fr}$.) in $4^{1} / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$., and the Piz d'Aela ( 10,960 ; 40-50 fr .) in $5-51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (these two difficult, and requiring experience). Difficult descent from the Tinzenhorn on the steep W. side to the Tinzenthor Pass (p. 403) and by the Tigiel Alp to Tinzen (p. 403).

Above Alveneu (1 M.) the road crosses the Landwasser, which falls into the Albula here, and ascends to the right to (1 M.) Filisur (3410'; *Hôt. Schönthal, Weisses Kreuz, both plain), a pleasant village, commanded by the scanty ruins of Greifenstein (3985 ${ }^{\prime}$ ). We descend to the Albula and gradually ascend the wooded valley on the right bank. Walkers will prefer the old road on the left bank of the Albula, which rejoins the road on the right bank above ( $21 / 4$ M.) Ballalüna ( $3615^{\prime}$ ), a saw-mill (inn, rustic). We cross the Stulser Bach, ascend in a curve through wood, and enter the ( $1 \frac{1}{4}$ M.) *Bergüner Stein (Il Crap; 4280'), a deep gorge with perpendicular sides. The road, made in 1696, and since widened, is hewn in the rock, and protected at places by a wall. The brawling stream in the gorge is visible at one point only. At the end of the gorge tower the Piz Spadlatscha (9420') and Piz d'Aela (p. 405). We now enter the green basin, enclosed by wooded hills, of ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) -

191/2 M. Bergūn, Roman. Bravuogn ( 4550 '; pop. 435 º ; *Hôt. Piz Aela \& Post, R., L., \& A. 21/2-6, D. 3, pens. $7-9 \frac{1}{2}$ fr. ; *Weisses Kreuz, R. $21 / 2$, B. $11 / 4$, D. $21 / 2$, pens. $61 / 2-71 / 2$ fr.; Edelweiss; Sonne), a village with a mineral spring, a small bath-house, an old Romanesque church, and a handsome prison-tower.

Excorsions (guides, P. Mettier, Peter Beeli, and Albert Rauch). Above Bergün, to the N.E., is the village of Latsch (5215'), on the slope of the Latscher Kulm (or Cuolm da Latsch, $7515^{\prime}$; ascent repaying, 2 hrs. ). - Over the Sertig Pass to Davos ( 8 hrs.; guide 15 fr.), see p. 378. - Over the Fuorcla Pischa (9193'; 9-10 hrs.; guide) to Madulein, fatiguing, through Val Tuors and Val Plazbi. From the pass, between Piz Kesch and Piz Blaisun, adepts may ascend Piz Kesch ( $11,230^{\prime}$ ) in $2{ }^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (but better from the Kesch Hut, over the Porchabella Glacier, in 3 hrs ; comp. p. 378). - Piz d’Aela and Tinzenhorn, see p. 405. (The Aela Club Hut is reached from Bergün by Alp Uglix in 3 hrs.) - Over the Aela Pass ( 9055 '; guide), between Piz d'Aela and the Tinzenhorn, to the Fal d'Err and Tinzen (p. 403), 7 hrs. (guide 15 fr .), interesting and not difficult.

We now ascend the beautifully wooded valley, passing the Val Tisch on the left. The Albula forms several small cascades, and oue of some size above the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Alpine hamlet of Naz ( $5725^{\prime}$ ). On the bold pinnacles to the right (Piz d'Aela, Piz Val-Lung, Piz Salteras) are seen several hanging glaciers. The road ascends in long windings (cut off by a path from Naz, following the telegraph), past the chalets of Preda and Palpuogna, and on the right, below the road, the pale-green Lake of Palpuogna, to the ( $23 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Inn (D. 3 fr .) on the Weissenstein, Rom. Crap Alv (6660'). It next describes a curve (short-cut to the left) at the base of the two rocky horns of the Giumels ( $9137^{\prime}$ ), avoiding a marshy basin in which the Albula rises, and ascends the rock-strewn Teufels-Thal to the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{M}$; or, from Thusis, 28 M.) Albula Pass ( 7595 '; Hospice, plain), between the (r.) Crasta Mora (9635'), consisting of granite, and the (1.) Piz Uertsch or Albulahorn ( $10,738^{\prime}$ ), which is of limestone.

The Albula is rich in flora. The beantiful Primula integrifolia and viscosa come up soon after the melting of the snow. Splendid orchids, deep-blue gentians, rare stonecrops, the charming Anemone narcissiflora, and the blne and especially the white flowers of the Viola calcarata and the Dryas octopetala all occur here.

The road traverses a dreary level valley. Before us rises Piz Mezaun, a fine pyramid; to the right, at the head of the Val Chamuera, are Piz Lavirum and Piz Cotschen; farther to the right are Piz Muraigl and Piz Languard. We begin to descend past several chalets; and then by seven long bends, with views of Piz Quatervals and Piz del Diavel, and afterwards of Ponte and Camogase, and of Madulein and Guardaval on the hill to the left. (The old bridle-path is much shorter, but is stony and does not afford so many fine views.) Traversing a larch-wood, we reach ( 6 M .; or $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. by the bridle-path) 34 M. Ponte ( 5548 '). Thence to Samaden, see p. 427 ; to Schuls and Nauders, see R. 102.

ENGADINE.

The Engadine (Rom. Engiadina), a valley 60 M. long, descending from S.W. to N.E., and watered by the Inn, is bounded by lofty mountains, partly covered with glaciers and snow. The Upper Engadine, between the Maloja and Samaden, with its numerous lakes and the side-valley of Pontresina, is the most attractive part of the valley, while the Lower Engadine (R. 102), below Samaden, is also picturesque. The strong and bracing air of the Upper Engadine renders it one of the most famous health-resorts in the world. The temperature rises in summer to 66$76^{\circ}$ Fahr. in the shade; in winter it sinks to $30-40^{\circ}$ below zero. 'Nine months winter and three months cold', is the laconic, but rather exaggerated account the natives give of their climate. Very abrupt changes of temperature, and even white frosts and snow are not uncommon in August, so that wraps should not be forgotten, even for a short stay. As the Upper Engadine is crowded in summer, rooms had better be ordered beforehand. - Heavy luggage may be forwarded through a goodsagent, e.g. Messrs. Bavier, Kieni, \& Co., of Coire and Silvaplana.

At first sight the floor of the Upper Engadine resembles a vast and almost treeless meadow. The lower slopes of the mountains are chiefly clothed with the larch and the pinus cembra, or Swiss stone-pine (Ger. Arve), a stately tree, sometimes called the 'cedar of the Alps', but commoner in the Pyrenees, the Carpathians, and the south of Siberia than in Switzerland. Its light, close-grained wood, white in colour and of a pleasant fragrance, is extremely durable, and is much esteemed for cabinet-work. The kernels ( 30 to 40 ) of the cones, enclosed in a very hard triangular shell, have an agreeable flavour, not unlike that of the pine-apple.

The Engadiners, a sober, industrious; and frugal race. are almost all Protestants. Their Romanic mother-tongue renders all the Romance languages easy to them, while they are taught German at school from the age of ten. They frequently emigrate in early life to different parts of Europe, where they earn their living as confectioners, coffee-house keepers, makers of liqueurs and chocolate, etc.; and when they have amassed a competency they usually return to their native valleys to spend the evening of a busy and active life. To persons of this class belong many of the neat, comfortably furnished white houses in the Engadine. The windows are made small to exclude the cold. The excellent pasturage is seldom in the hands of the inhabitants, being let by them to Bergamasque shepherds, who spend the summer here with their flocks (paying 1 fr. for each sheep), and in autumn sell the long wool to the Bergamo manufacturers. The hay in the meadows is also collected by Italian reapers.

100. The Upper Engadine, from the Maloja to Samaden.

Comp. Map, p. 416.

15 M. Diligence twice daily in 3 hrs . (comp. p. 437). Omnibus from Maloja to Sils in 1 hr ., on Mon., Wed., and Frid. at 6 p.m.; to St. Moritz daily in 3 hrs ., at $4.30 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$.; see p. 413 .

The Engadine begins at the summit of the Maloja or Maloggia (5943), the lowest pass between Switzerland and Italy, which ascends gently from the Engadine, and descends suddenly on the SW. side to the Val Bregaglia (p. 438). Near the top of the pass is the Hôtel Maloja-Kulm (Italian, but well spoken of; R. 2 fr.), a projecting rock opposite which commands the Val Bregaglia. To the E. of it is the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) *Hôt. Osteria Vecchia, in the Swiss style (R. from $21 / 2$, pens. $7-9 \mathrm{fr}$.). On the left, higher up, is the Chateau Belvedere (6120'), begun by Count Renesse, but unfinished and unoccupied (now owned by the Maloja Palace Hotel). Its extensive grounds afford splendid views of the Val Bregaglia and Lake Sils; the finest walk is the 'Promenade des Artistes' (from the Cursaal and back, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). On the rocky ridge near the château (fingerpost) several Glacier Mills or cauldrons have been discovered, some of them very large (the largest $20^{\prime}$ across and $35^{\prime}$ deep), worn in the solid rock probably by the action of the Forno Glacier, which is supposed to have once covered the whole lake district of the Upper Engadine. Farther on are several private villas in the Swiss style, and the Hôtel Longhin (pens. 7-8 fr.). To the right of the road, at the upper end of the Lake of Sils, is the large and comfortable *Hôtel Cursaal-Maloja-Palace (R., L., \& A. 6-9, déj. 4, D. 6, board 9 , music $1 / 2$ fr. ; open from 1st June to 30 th Sept.), owned by a Belgian company. The view comprises, E., the Lake of Sils, Piz Mortel, and Piz Lagrev; N., Piz Gravasalvas; N.W., Pizzo Lunghino; W., the mountains of the Septimer; S.W., Pizzo Grande, Pizzo Cacciabella, and Mte. di Zocca; S., between Pizzo Salecina and Pizzo della Margna, in the Val Cavloccio, the Monte del Forno, and behind it, the beavtiful white Cima di Rosso. - English Church, with services in the season.

Excursions. A little below the pass on the W. side a footpath, and $1 / 2$ M. farther on a cart-road, diverge to the left from the Maloja road, cross the Orlegna (waterfall, see below) near the lowest houses of Ordeno, and ascend on the left bank through meadows and wood to the ( 50 min .) darkblue "Cavloccio Lake ( 6266 '), surrounded by lofty mountains, where the road ends. To the S . rises the finely shaped Monte del Forno (10,560'; guide 25 fr ); to the left of it, the snowy Muretto Pass (p. 409). The large Cavloccio-Alp, at the S. end of the lake, is occupied in spring and autumn only; in the height of summer the cattle are pastured higher up. From this point to the Forno Glacier and back, 2 hrs. (see p. 409). Beyond the Orlegna bridge (see above) a path (finger-post) leads to the left to the ( 40 min .) little Lago di Bitabergo ( $6110^{\prime}$ ), and to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Motta Salecina (7055'), at the foot of Pizzo Salecina ( $8500^{\prime}$ ), with a fine view of the Bregaglia and the Tpper Engadine.

A pretty walk leads to the E., on the S. bank of Lake Sils, diverging to the right (finger-post, 'Pian Cunchetta') from the path to Isola, to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Aira della Palza ( $6615^{\circ}$ ) and thence to the ( 20 min .) Piz Ala ( $7090^{\circ}$ ), with fine view.

To the Forno Glacier (guide advisable; to the Forno Hut 10, to the glacier circus 15 fr .; Jac. Uffer, Agost. Clalüna), repaying. We follow the Muretto route (see below) to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Piancanino ( $6520^{\prime}$ ); then ascend to the right (before the bridge) for $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. over turf and moraine to the ${ }^{*}$ Forno Glacier, which we cross to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Forno Club Hut (about 8200'), on a projecting rock on the E. side of the glacier, at the foot of the Mte. del Forno. Imposing glacier-basin, commanded by the Piz Bacone, Cima di Cantone, Cima di Castello, Pizzo Torrone, Mte. Sissone, and Cima di Rosso. - The Piz Bacone ( $10,660^{\prime} ; 3$ hrs.; 35 fr.), Cima di Castello (11,160'; 4 hrs.; 40 fr .), Cima del Largo (ca. 10,335'; $41 / 2$ hrs.; 50 fr .), Pizzo Torrone (Occidentale $10,827^{\prime}$, Centrale $10,728^{\prime}$, Orientale $10,935^{\prime} ; 5$ hrs.; very difficult, with many crevasses; 60 fr .), Monte Sissone ( $10,940^{\prime} ; 3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$; 30 fr .), and Cima di Rosso ( $11,060^{\prime} ; 3 \mathrm{hrs}$.; 30 fr .) may be ascended hence (all these for experts only, with good guides).

The Pizzo Lunghino (9135'; 3 hrs ., guide 10 fr .) rewards the climber with a splendid view. From the Hôtel Longhin a bridle-path ascends to the left over pastures to the ( 2 hrs .) blue Lunghino Lake ( $8136^{\prime}$ ), from which the Inn emerges; footpath thence over rocks and stones to the top.

From the Maloja to Cresta in the Averser-Thal, $61 / 2-7 \mathrm{hrs}$., attractive (guide 20 fr., advisable). From the ( 2 hrs .) Lunghino Lake (see above) a path leads to the W. to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Fuorcla di Lunghino ( 8615 '); we descend (no path), leaving the Motta da Sett (8645') to the left, to the ( 1 hr .) Septimer Pass (p. 404), and cross the Septimer route. A footpath ascends hence, at first bearing to the left and then following the side of the ravine (cairns), to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Forcellina ( $8790^{\prime}$ ), where we view the Averser-Thal. We descend to the right, at first gradually, then in zigzags to ( 1 hr .) Juf and ( 1 hr .) Cresta (p. 396).

From the Maloja by the Muretto Pass to Chiesa in Val Malenco ( $8-9 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 20 fr .), toilsome but repaying. To the ( 1 hr .) Cavloccio-Alp, see p. 408. A new path ascends thence to the ( 20 min.) Piancanino-Alp ( $6520^{\prime}$ ), at the confluence of the Forno and the Muretto (foot-bridge over the former). A steep and stony ascent, along the small Muretto Glacier, and over snow leads to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Muretto Pass ( $8390^{\prime}$ ), between Mfe. del Forno ( $10,560^{\prime}$ ) and Mte. Muretto ( 10,197 '), where we survey the superb Mite. della Disgrazia (p. 436). Descent over snow, and stony and grassy slopes, on the left bank of the Malero, with views of Mte, Disgrazia, Mte. Sissone, Cima di Rosso, etc., to the Chiareggio-Alp (5252'; quarters), and by a road passing numerous slate-quarries to ( 4 hrs .) Chiesa (p. 436).

From the Maloja to Promontogno by the Casnile and Cacciabella Passes ( $13-14 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 35 fr. ), through the grand Bregaglia Mts., trying, but repaying, and for experts not difficult. To the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Forno Hut (about $8200^{\prime}$ ), where the night may be spent, see above; thence to the right to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Passo di Casnile ( $9744^{\prime}$; superb view). Descent across snow, through a couloir, and over rock, to the foot of the Cantone Glacier; then across two moraines to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Albigna Glacier. (Through the Val Albigna to Vicosoprano, see p. 438.) We ascend the steep, stony slope of Cacciabella ('belle chasse', a resort of chamois) to the ( 2 hrs .) Passo di Cacciabella ( $9444^{\prime}$ ), another grand point of view, and descend to the ( 2 hrs .) Alp di Sciora (6785) and through the wild Val Bondasca (p. 438) to the ( $2^{1} / 2-3$ hrs.) Hottel Bregaglia (p. 438). - Those who start from Promontogno ( $14-15 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the Maloja) had better sleep at ( 4 hrs .) Alp Sciora or, if it is closed, at Alp Naravedro, 3 hrs. from Promontogno. Comp. p. 438.

By the Cursaal we cross the infant Inn, here called Ova d'Oen, which descends in cascades from the Piz Lunghino (see above), to the W.; and at the chalets of Capolago we reach the pale-green

Lake of Sils, Rom. Lej da Segl ( $5905^{\prime}$ ), 3 M. long, $233^{\prime}$ deep, the N.W. bank of which we follow. [Walkers may take the path (finger-post 'Pian Curtinatsch') on the S.E. bank, passing the hamlet of Isola (Restaurant Maurizio), which lies on a green plateau at the mouth of the Fedoz (from the Cursaal $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; to Sils-Maria $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). In the gorge near Isola the Fedoz descends in a fine fall.] From the road we see the beautiful Piz Corvatsch (p. 423), rising above Isola; and beyond the Crap da Chüern (restaurant), a promontory which divides the lake into two basins, we observe the crevassed Fedoz Glacier, at the head of Val Fedoz, between Piz Margna (to the right) and Piz Led (to the left; p. 411). At the E. end of the lake lies - $41 / 2$ M. Sils (5930'), Rom. Segl, embracing the hamlets of SilsBaseglia (with the post-office), on the roadside, at the foot of the abrupt Piz Lagrev (10,394'), and Sils-Maria (5944'), $1 / 2$ M. to the S., pleasantly situated among larch-clad hills, through which the Fex forces its way. On the peninsula of Chastè ( $6030^{\prime}$ ), which juts into the lake between the hamlets, are relics of an old castle. SilsMaria (*Alpenrose, R., L., \& A. 3-6, D. 4, S. 3, board 7 fr. ; *Hôt. Edelweiss, R., L., \& A. $21 / 2-5 \frac{1}{2}$, D. 4, S. $2 \frac{1}{2}$, pens. 7 fr .) is well adapted for a stay. The situation is sheltered, and there are shady walks near.

Omnibus from Sils-Maria to St. Moritz daily at 7, back at $11 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. (and, on Tues., Thurs., Sat., \& Sun., also at 2, back at $5.30 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. ), in 1 hr .; to the Maloja Hotel Mon., Wed., \& Frid. at 2, back at 6 p.m., in 1 hr . Fare in each case $11 / 2$, return $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. - One-horse carr. from Sils to Silvaplana 6-7, Maloja 7-9, St. Moritz Bad 9-11, Samaden 12-14, Pontresina 15-18, Morteratsch 16-19, Roseg 20-25, Bernina Hospice 25-30 fr.

Walks. Just to the E. of the Hôtel Alpenrose is the Muot Maria. To the W., behind the hotel, is a larch-clad hill, which is crossed by the narrow road to the Fex Valley, starting from the Fex bridge. On this hill are three points of view : the Laret-Höhe ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., in the direction of Silvaplana), the Bellavista ( $20 \mathrm{~min} .$, towards the Maloja), and a bench on the Fex road ( $20 \mathrm{~min} . ;$ view of a fall of the Fex, and over the wooded foreground to the snow and ice-clad mountains of the Fex Valley). - The ascent of the Marmore (about $7220^{\prime}$ ), a rounded spur of the serrated Furtschellas ( 9620 ), is attractive and easy ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from Hôtel Edelweiss; good path). The Piz Corvatsch adjoins the Furtschellas on the S.E. - Pleasant walks lead from the Hôtel Edelweiss to the E. on the wooded slopes to a saw-mill, and thence along the S. bank of the Silvaplana Lake to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Surlej (see p. 411). - Another fine view is enjoyed from the Plaz ( $6240^{\prime}$; 20 min.$)$, a spur of Piz Lagrev, to which a path, nearly opposite the bridge over the Inn at Sils-Baselgia, ascends. Best light for the view towards the Maloja in the morning, towards the Fex Valley and Piz Corvatsch in the evening. A more extensive and picturesque view is obtained from the Muotta da Blaunca ( $6640^{\prime}$ ), to which we ascend from the highroad to the right (near the Crap da Chuern, see above), viâ Gravasalvas and Buaira ( 2 hrs .). A footpath descends to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Maloja.

The *Fex Valley (Val Fex or Schafthal) is visited from Sils-Maria in $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. (there and back; one-horse carr. to Crasta for $1-2$ pers. 5,3 pers. 7 fr., to Curtins 8 and 10 fr.). The road ascends the left bank of the Fex, while a shorter path follows the right bank through the ravine of Drög. Beyond the bench mentioned above the road descends to the farm of Vailglia, then re-ascends, leaving the houses of Platta on the left, to the little church ( 50 min . from Sils) of Crasta ( 6390 ), shortly before which it is joined on the left by the footpath. A small * Pavilion (rfmts.), 3 min . farther on, affords on fine evenings the best view of the mountains encircling the head of the valley. If pressed for time, turn here. The road crosses the stream, and reaches ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Restaurant Füm, near the bamlet of Curtins ( $6180^{\circ}$ ), 6 min . beyond which is the Restaurant Arquint (edelweiss abundant here, on the right side of the valley). We pass ( 10 min .) a ruined house, ( 7 min .) cross the Fex, and in 20 min . (ground marshy at places) reach the top of the Mott Selvas, an old moraine, projecting obliquely into the valley, and affording an excellent survey of the beautiful Fex Glacier, overtopped by the Chapütschin, Piz Tremoggia, Chapütsch, Piz Fora, Piz Güz, and Piz Led. Below us emerges the Fex in its broad stony bed. Behind us is the green Fex Valley, with the indented chain of Piz Lagrev and Piz Polaschin.

A path (guide needless) ascends to the right from the church of Crasta to an Alp, then to the left through larch-wood to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) M $u$ uott Ota ( $7654^{\prime}$ ), which commands the Fex and Fedoz Glaciers. The view is finer higher up, on the way to the Plaun Grand ( $3200^{\circ}$ ). - The path to the Fedoz Valley diverges to the S.E. from the road to the Fex Valley, about 100 paces to the S . of Vaüglia, leads pasts some Alpine chalets to the Alp Pediprero, and then descends to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Isola (p. 410).

Ascents (guides: Chr. Klucker, Joh., Andr., and Christ. Eggenberger, Christ. and Peter Zuan). The Piz Led ( $10,135^{\prime} ; 31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide 10 fr .), ${ }^{2}$ Piz della Margna ( $10,376^{\prime}$; 4 hrs.; 16 fr .), ${ }^{*}$ Piz Corvatsch ( $11,345^{\prime} ; 5-5^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$., viâ Fuorcla Surlej; guide 14, with descent to Pontresina 18 fr.), Chaputschin ( $11,130^{\prime} ; 4{ }^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; 15 , with descent to Pontresina 25 fr .), and Piz Tremoggia ( $11,322^{\prime} ; 5-6$ hrs.; 18 fr.) may be ascended from Sils by adepts withont difficulty. More toilsome are Piz Gliischaint ( 11,800 ; 677 hrs ; ; 25 fr .) and Piz Fora (11,053'; 6 hrs.; 20 fr.).

From Sils to Pontresina over the Fuorcla Surlej ( 6 hrs .; guide 10 fr .), see below; over the Fuorcla da Fex-Roseg ( 9 hrs ; 18 fr .), the Fuorcla Chapütschin ( $10-11$ hrs.; 30 fr .), or the Fuorcla Glüschaint ( $11-12 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 35 \mathrm{fr}$. ), see p. 424. - To Chiess in Val Malenco over the Tremoggia Pass (9910'; 25 fr.), between the Chapütsch and Piz Tremoggia, or over the Fuorcla Fex-Scerscen ( $10,236^{\prime} ; 45$ fr.), between Piz Tremoggia and Piz Glüschaint, both for experts only ( $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$.); descent over the Scerscen Glacier to the Val Entova and Chiesa (p. 436).

Beyond Sils-Baseglia the road, shaded in the afternoon, skirting the foot of Piz Polaschin ( $9900^{\prime}$ ), follows the left bank of the artificial channel of the Inn, and skirts the Lake of Silvaplana (5875'), 2 M . long, to ( $23 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Silvaplana. Walkers from Sils-Maria may take the path over the meadows, skirting the larch-clad hill on the S. bank of Lake Silvaplana, crossing several brooks, and finally passing a Waterfall of the Surlej brook, to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Surlej; thence to ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) St. Moritz, viâ Crestalta.
$71 / 4$ M. Silvaplana (5958'; * Wilder Mann, R., L., \& A. 21/2-4, D. $31 / 2$, pens. 7-10 fr.; Post, R., L., \& A. 2-4, D. $31 / 2$, S. $23 / 4$, pens. $8-10 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ *Hôt. Corvatsch, to the W. of the village, pens. from $7 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ Sonne, R. 2, B. 1, S. 2 fr. ; Engl. Ch. Serv. in Aug.), where we reach the Julier road (R. 93), lies pleasantly amid green pastures on the alluvial deposits of the Julier brook, which separate the lakes of Silvaplana and Campfèr. On the opposite side of the valley, at the base of the Piz Corvatsch, is the village of Surlej ('beyond the lake'), destroyed by a torrent in 1834, with its chalybeate spring.

Excursions (guides, Ed. Büsin, Christ. Christoffel, Fel. Lorenz). To Pontresina over the Fuorcla Surlej, $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide, not needed by adepts, 10 , horse 20 fr .), a bridle-path, very attractive. Beyond the church of Surlej (p. 411; avoiding turn to left, route to Crestalta), we go straight on, soon cross the brook to the right, and ascend into the wood; 1 hr . Alp Surlej (6976') ; then to the S., over a pasture, towards Piz Corvatsch (middle-path). Above a second chalet the path turns to the left, and, near the Corvatsch Glacier, reaches the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) ${ }^{*}$ Fuorcla Surlej ( $9055^{\prime}$; splendid view), between (r.) Piz Corvatsch (p. 414 ; ascended from the pass in $2-21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) and (1.) Mt. Arlas. Descent by a good but steep path to ( $1 / 2^{-3 / 4} \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Surovel ( $7424^{\prime}$; milk) and the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Restaurant du Glacier, in the Roseg Valley, $1^{3} / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from Pontresina (p. 420). - From the Baths of St. Moritz a good bridle-path leads to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the Fuorcla Surlej, by the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hahnensee; comp. p. 414.

Piz Julier ( 11,105 ; $4^{1 / 2-5} \mathrm{hrs}$. from Silvaplana or St. Moritz), trying but highly interesting. From Silvaplana (guide 20 fr.) we follow the Julier road (carr. 12 fr .) to the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Julier-Alp, whence we proceed over Alpine pastures and easily traversed rocks to the ( 2 hrs .) 'Chimney' (Kamin), a precipitous gorge filled with snow. Thence a path leads to the top in 1 hr . The ascent by the new path (1897) from St. Moritz is easier (guide 25 fr .). We ascend to the N.W. to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Suvretta ( $7035^{\prime}$ ), whence a zigzag path leads over stony slopes to the arête (precipitous on its E. side), along or on which the path runs direct to the ( $31 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit. The magnificent view, surpassing those from the Piz Ot and Piz Languard, includes the Bernina group, the Valaisian and Bernese Alps, the Tödi group, the Grisons Mits. to the Ortler and the Oetzthal Alps on the E., and the Upper Engadine as far as Zuoz. - Easier, but less repaying, is Piz Polaschin (Yy00'; $3^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 12 fr .).

The Silvaplana Lake is connected by a channel with the small Lake of Campfèr ( $5885^{\prime} ; 1 \mathrm{M}$. long), which is bisected by a promontory. The road skirts the W. bank of the latter. Opposite rises the wooded height of Crestalta ( $6250^{\prime}$; restaurant), 25 min . from Silvaplana, which affords a charming view of the lakes and mountains. (Footpath to St. Moritz, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Below the Campfèr Lake the Inn takes the name of Sela until it enters the Lake of St. Moritz.

81/2 M. Campfèr, Rom. Chamfêr (6000'; *Hôt. Julierhof, R. 3-7, L. \& A. 1, lunch 31/2, D. 5, board $8 \mathrm{fr} . ;$ *Hôt. d'Angleterre; Pens. Cazin; Engl. Ch. Serv.). Retrospect of the broad-backed Piz della Margna; to the E. the Piz Corvatsch, Piz Surlej, and Piz Rosatsch. The road divides here. The S. branch, on which the diligence runs in summer, crosses the Inn and leads by Bad St. Moritz (station) to ( 3 M.) Dorf St. Moritz, while the N. road, to the Dorf, $1 / 2$ M. shorter, runs high above the Inn, on its left bank, and below the Lower Alpina (p. 414).

English Church, see p. 414. - Roman Catholic Church, see below.
The Baths of St. Moritz ( $5823^{\prime}$ ) owe their great importance to the mineral springs rising at the foot of Piz Rosatsch, strongly impregnated with carbonic acid and alkaline salts, pronounced the best of their kind in Europe by Paracelsus as early as 1539, and annually resorted to by numerous patients of all nations. The water is used for drinking and bathing. The Curhaus is supplied by the Old and the Puracelsus Spring, and the Neue Stahlbad by the Funtauna Surpunt, discovered in 1886. The season is from the middle of June to the middle of September. "Warm clothing very necessary.

The scanty grounds in front of the Curhaus are adjoined by a broad street, with several good shops, which leads past the Hôtel Victoria and the Post Office to the lake and the village. To the right, at the foot of Piz Rosatsch, is the Neue Stahlbad. On the lake, at the mouth of the Inn, are the Roman Catholic Church, on the left, and the Casino (see above), on the right.

Behind the E. wing of the Curhaus, promenades, passing the French Protestant Church, ascend, to the left, the ( 20 min .) pineclad Quellenhügel $\left(6300^{\prime}\right)$, and, to the right, the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Johannisberg (Munt St. Gian; 6565'), commanding a view of St. Moritz. A walk leads on the S. bank of the Lake of St. Moritz, or over the hill at the foot of the Rosatsch, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Meierei (dairy) or Acla Silva (restaurant, an afternoon-resort), on the way to Pontresina. - To the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Lower Alpina ( $6165^{\prime}$; restaurant, dear) a path ascends to the right, just beyond the upper Inn bridge, $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the S.W. of the Curhaus. Higher up (new road) is the ( 25 min.) Upper Alpina (p. 415). - A finger-post above the Curhaus, to the N., indicates the way to the 'Wald-Promenade', which follows the slope above the road between the Alpina and the village. - To the ( 1 hr. ) Crestalta (p. 412) a pleasant wood-walk ascends to the S.W. from the Curhaus on the right bank of the Inn.

The *Hahnensee ( $1-11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) is a charming and much visited spot. From the French Church (p. 413) a good forest-path leads to ( 10 min .) a finger-post, from which it winds up through wood to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) a second finger-post. To the right here is a path descending to ( 40 min .) Campfer We proceed in a straight direction to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a third finger-post ('Abkürzung nach dem Hahnensee'), whence we ascend to the left by a new path (old path twice as long) to the ( 6 min .) Restaurant Hahnensee ( R ., L., \& A. 3, B. 2 fr .), situated on the small lake of that name ( $7073^{\prime}$ ). Magnificent view of the Upper Engadine, with its lakes and the mountains on the right bank of the Inn (best point a hill to the S., reached by a path from the restaurant in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). We may return by the Quellenhügel (p. 413), but part of this route has no shade. - From the Hahnensee a good footpath (practicable for riding) ascends to the ( 2 hrs.) Fuorcla Surlej (p. 412). The Piz Surlej ( $10,455^{\prime}$ '), a grand point of view, may be ascended hence in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (guide 10 fr .); the route traverses easy rocks on the E. side of Mt. Arlas. The Fuorcla Surlej is also the starting-point of the easiest route up the *Piz Corvatsch ( $11,345^{\prime} ; 2^{2} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 16, with descent to Pontresina 18 fr.), which leads viâ the Corvatsch Glacier. Comp. p. 423.

The ascent of the Piz Rosatsch ( $9825^{\prime} ; 3^{11 / 2-4 ~ h r s ; ~} 8$ fr.) has less to recommend it. The path ascends from the Baths of St. Moritz or Acla Silva viâ the Statzer-Atp to a point about $500^{\prime}$ below the summit. Experts may pass from the Piz Rosatsch to the Piz Surlej (see above; guide $15{ }^{5} \mathrm{fr}$.).

St. Moritz, Rom. San Murezzan (6033'; pop. 822), the highest village in the Engadine, $90^{\prime}$ higher than the Maloja, lies on a slope to the N. of the Lake of St. Moritz (5810'; 1 M. long), which abounds in trout, and commands a fine view of the mountains, from the Piz Languard on the W. to the Piz Julier, particularly of Piz Surlej, with its glacier, Piz Corvatsch, and (farther distant) Piz della Margna (S.). Most of the visitors are English and American; Italians also abound. Several hundred patients spend the winter here, which they enliven with skating and tobogganing. - Charles Loring Brace (1826-90), the founder of the 'New York Children's Aid Society', is buried in the native cemetery, near the old tower behind the Kulm Hotel.

A finger-post at the W. end of the village indicates the way by the 'Wald -Promenade' to the ( 25 min .) Lower Alpina (p. 414). After about 2 min . (finger-post) a pleasant path diverging to the right ascends through wood to the ( 20 min .) Upper Alpina ( $6445^{\prime}$; restaurant), which commands a charming view of the Baths of St. Moritz, etc. A road descends thence to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Lower Alpina and the highroad from Campfèr to the village of St. Moritz. (Footpath to the Baths, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., see p. 414.) - From the centre of the village a road descends to the S.E. to the lake and ( 8 min .) crosses the Inn, which forms a fine fall 80 yds. below the bridge. On the right bank is the Restaurant \& Pens. Waldhaus, with a terrace. We may now either follow the hill, skirting the forest, or take the footpath from the bridge, skirting the lake, to the ( 20 min .) Meierei (p. 414). From the Inn bridge (finger-post above the fall) an attractive path leads on the right bank through the gorge of Charnadüra to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Celerina and Pontresina. - From the E. end of the village, opposite Hôtel Kulm, a good path ascends to the N.E. to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Laret (6893'). Another, passing the new town-hall, ascends to the N.W. to the ( 1 hr .) Alp Giop ( $7160^{\prime}$; 40 min . from the Upper Alpina), which commands an admirable view.

From Alp Laret we may go on to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) "Sass da Muott as ( $7765^{\prime}$; view of the Bernina and the Inn valley); and descend the Val Saluver to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Celerina. - From Alp Giop an easy and attractive path ascends the ( $2 \mathrm{t} / 2^{2}-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Piz Nair ( $10,040^{\prime}$; guide advisable, 8, with descent to Val Suvretta 10 fr .). As far as the foot of the peak the path is sometimes rather indistinct, but thenceforward it is unmistakable. The superb view is limited on the S. by the higher Piz Julier. The descent into the Val Suvretta (guide needful) leads viẩ the ( 1 hr .) small Suvretta Lake (see below) to ( 2 hrs. ) Bevers (p. 427). - ${ }^{}$ Piz Julier ( $11,105^{\prime \prime} ; 4^{1} / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 25 \mathrm{fr}$. ), see p. 412.

To Samaden through Val Suvretta, 7 hrs., interesting, especially for botanists (without guide). From the baths to Campfir (see p. 412); then up the Val Survetta da St. Moritz, and past the Alp Suvretta-Campfer, to the small Suvretta Lake (8563') and the ('3 hrs.) Fuorcla Suvretta (8590'), between (r.) Piz Nair and (1.) Piz Suvretta. Then down the Val Suvretta da Samaden to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Suvretta-Samaden ( $7034^{\prime}$ ), where the Val Suvretta opens into the Val Bever, and to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Restaurant Surretta opposite the Acla Orlandi (5905'), where a road begins. Thence back to St. Moritz by carriage previously ordered (16-20, with two horses 27 fr .), by Bevers and Samaden in 2 hrs .

A *Drive on the Bernina Road as far as the Hospice (p. 426), with a visit to the Morteratsch Glacier ( $p .419$ ) or the Alp Grüm (p. 426), takes $10 \mathrm{hrs} .$, there and back (carriages, see p. 415).

The Fuotpath to Pontresina, $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., is shorter than the road viâ Celerina. From the Dairy (Acla Silva, p. 414) it passes the N. end of the Statzer See (where the road to Celerina leads straight on), turns to the right, and then to the left after a few paces, and traverses a stone-pine wood, rounding the spurs of the Rosatsch (p. 414). Below ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Pontresina we either cross the Berninabach to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Hôtel Roseg; or we may cross the Roseg, to the right, and the Punt Ota to the Hôtel Saratz.

The Samaden road ascends a little, and then descends in a long bend, through larch-wood (short-cut by the old road). Quitting the wood, we enjoy an admirable survey of the Inn Valley, extending nearly straight to Munt Baseglia near Zernetz (p. 429), which apparently closes the valley. Passing ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Cresta, Rom. Crasta (5690'; *Hôt.-Pens. Misani, with café, pens. 7 fr.), we look into the Pontresina Valley, among the mountains of which the Piz Albris with its long snow-mantle is specially striking. We then cross the Schlatteinbach to ( 6 min .)

13 M. Celerina, Rom. Schlarigna (5055'; *Hôt. Murail, pens. from 8 fr.). The road divides here. The branch to the right, to ( 3 M.$)$ Pontresina (p. 417), crosses the Inn and passes the dilapidated chapel of St. Gian, and beyond the Bernina-Bach joins the Samaden road (p. 417). The left branch leads to Samaden.

Footpath through the Charnadüra to the Acla, see p. 415. It diverges to the right this side the Inn bridge, leads through a meadow on the bank of the Inn, crosses the river, and ascends gradually through wood.

Samaden (5670'; pop. 850), the chief village of the Upper Engadine, with handsome houses and a new English Church (services in the season), lies on the W. side of the broad Inn Valley. The finest old house is that of the Planta family, which has been intimately connected with the history of the country for nearly a thousand years. Splendid view (finest from the Bevers road below the village) of the Bernina Chain, in which the white Piz Palü, the lofty Piz Bernina, Piz Tschierva, and, more to the right, Piz Roseg are conspicuous; nearer us, Piz Rosatsch, and in the distance, above the hill of St. Moritz, the Piz della Margna.

Walks. To the N., past the English Church, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Munter"ütsch, a larch-clad hill, with a fine view of the Bernina group. Then to the right, by a pleasant wood-walk, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) saw-mill of Resgia in the Val Bever (p. 416 ; thence to the Restaurant Suvretta $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). - To the W., to the ( 20 min.) hill of Salvasplanas, above the church of St. Peter (5S95'), with tombstones of the Planta, Salis, Juvalta, and other old families, and the ( 1 hr .) Alpetta. - To the S. to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) wooded hill of Cristolais, between Samaden and Celerina.
*Muottas Muraigl (p. 422; $2 \sqrt{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), repaying. The new path (steep and in part shadeless; horse or mule 10 fr.), diverging to the left from the Pontresina road by the Inn bridge, descends on the right bank, and ( 25 min .) ascends to the right through the Val Champagna, to the ( $2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ) summit. From the Muottas Muraigl to Pontresina ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$ ), p. 421 ; to the top of the Schafber•g (11/4 hr.), p. 421.

To the W. above Samaden rises Piz Padella ( $9380^{\prime}$; guide 10 fr ), a furrowed limestone rock, reached by a good path in 3 hrs . (diverging to the left from the Piz Ot route in a dale beyond the saddle of the Padella). View from Silvaplana to Zernetz. Rich flora. A ridge with three peaks (Trais Fluors, 'three flowers'; 9700') connects Piz Padella with the massive granite pyramid of ${ }^{2} \operatorname{Piz}$ Ot ( $10,660^{\prime}$; 'lofty peak'; $4-41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 15 fr .). Bridle-path to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Fontauna Fraida ( $8840^{\prime}$ ), whence a steep path ascends in zigzags (iron rods being attached to the rock at awkward places) in $11 / 2-2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the top. Imposing view, little inferior to that from the Piz Languard (p. 422).

From Samaden to Pontresina ( $31 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.). The road (Bernina Road, R. 103) soon crosses the Inn, traverses the floor of the valley, and reaches the Bernina-Bach, where it is joined by the road from Celerina (p.416). It then crosses the Muraigl (p. 421). To the left, on the edge of the wood, is the Restaurant Belvoir (p. 419). Near Pontresina, to the right, appears the beautiful Roseg Glacier (p. 420); in the background rise Piz Morteratsch, Piz Tschierva, La Sella, and Piz Glüschaint.

English Church (Holy Trinity). Service during the season. Library under care of chaplain.

Pontresina (5915'; pop.500), a village extending along the right bank of the Bernina or Flatzbach, on both sides of the Bernina road, for more than $3 / 4$ M., consists of Lower Pontresina (Rom. Laret), with the large church, and Upper Pontresina (Rom. Spiert), $1 / 4$ M. apart, between which lies the Bellavita group of houses, including the English Church. Above Spiert are the houses of Giarsun and Carlihof, with the loftily situated little church of St. Maria (with its churchyard) and the ruined tower of La Spaniola. Pontresina owes its mountaineering importance to the proximity of the Bernina Chain, which separates the Upper Engadine and the Val Bregaglia from the Val Tellina, vying in the grandeur of its snow-peaks and glaciers (Rom. Vadret, Ital. Vedretta) with the Mte. Rosa group. Piz Bernina (p.423), the highest peak, is not visible from Pontresina. From Lower Pontresina, however, a splendid view opens between Piz Rosatsch and Piz Chalchagn, of the Roseg Valley, with the Roseg Glacier, and Piz Tschierva, Sella, Glüschaint, and Chapütschin in the background. From Upper Pontresina the top of Piz Palü is visible above the Morteratsch Valley, to the right of Munt Pers. Above the W. hills towers the rocky pyramid of Piz Ot. - About one-half of the visitors are German.

The rich Flora of the environs has dwindled of late. The beautiful Gentiana acaulis in particular no longer occurs near the village. The charming Linnæa borealis is found in the woods close to the Schlucht Promenade. In the Roseg Valley grows the pretty Epilobium Fleischeri. Note also the various stonecrops on the Berninabach, and the graceful Saxifr aga aizoon and stellaris, and other rarities, close to the Morteratsch Glacier. On the [Schafberg (p. 421) also occur many fine Alpine plants, such as the Ranunculus glacialis, Paradisia liliastrum, Alpine asters, and the dark-blue Alpine forget-me-not.
*Wood Promenades skirt the slope of Piz Chalchagn on the left bank of the Berninabach, and extend up the Roseg Valley. We descend past Hôtel Saratz, and cross the Punt Ota, beyond which the Schlucht Promenade leads to the left through wood, along the gorge of the Bernina-Bach (into which we may descend at two points), to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Chalet Sanssouci (café). A few paces before we reach it, paths diverge left and right: to the left we may descend to the bridge, and ascend to Upper Pontresina; to the right is the Tais Promenade, which after $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. joins the Roseg Promenade (see below). Straight on, the Schlucht Promenade runs above the Berninabach to Morteratsch (see below); after $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. we may diverge to the left, cross the bridge opposite the Languard Fall, and retarn by the road. - Following, from the Punt Ota, the road to the Roseg Valley for $5 \mathrm{~min} .$, and then taking the shady walk to the left, we reach the Roseg Promenade, where ( 12 min .) a bench commands a fine view of the Roseg Glacier. The promenade goes on through wood, nearly level, to ( 25 min .) a second bench on the outskirts of the wood, where the view of the head of the valley is still grander. This point may also be reached by ascending straight on from the Punt Ota (finger-post to the 'Muottas'), and after 7 min . diverging to the right (finger-post 'Roseg Glacier') ; thence in 35 min . to the second bench. About 5 min . farther on we may cross the Roseg to the right and regain the carriage-road. The promenade goes straight on, finally ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) joining the road; from this point to the Roseg Restaurant (p. 420) 25 minutes.

A path ascends straight from the Punt Ota (finger-post, see above) in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the 'Signal' on the Muottas da Pontresina ( 7690 '; fine view).

On the Roseg road, $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the Punt Ota, beyond the bridge over the Roseg (p. 420), to the right, a finger-post shows the path to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Kuottas da Celerina (ca. 75̄0'), a N.E. spur of Piz Rosatsch (fine view; best from the second signal-pole). The same post indicates the path to St. Moritz, which is ( 10 min. ) joined by the path crossing the Berninabach below the Hôtel Roseg; it then ascends through wood to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Lake of Statz and the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Acla Silva (p. 416).

To the N. of Lower Pontresina a pleasant and nearly level walk diverges from the Samaden road to the right to the ( 20 min .) Restaurant Belvoir ( $5740^{\prime}$ ), situated at the forit of the Schafberg, near the wood, and commanding a beautiful view of Pontresina and its environs. A path thence ascends to the right to the Val Muraigl, where after $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. it joins the bridle-path from Pontresina to the Muottas Muraigl (p. 421).

The *Morteratsch Glacier (Vadret da Morteratsch; withoutguide; drive of $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., see p. 418) is 3 M . to the S. of Upper Pontresina. Walkers follow the Schlucht Promenade, or by the Languard Fall, which descends on the left $2 / 3$ M. from Upper Pontresina, diverge to the right from the Bernina road, cross the Berninabach, and go by a shady path on the left bank to the restaurant. Carriages diverge to the right from the Bernina road, $11 / 2$ M. farther on (see p. 425), and cross ( 1 M. ) the Bernina-Bach, which forms pretty falls above and below the bridge, and the Morteratsch Brook to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) HôtelRestaurant Morteratsch ( $6260^{\prime} ;$ R. 2-3, pens. 6 fr.), 10 min . from the foot of the glacier (view of Piz Palü, Bellavista, Crast' Agüzza, and Piz Bernina). In the glacier is an artificial grotto ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), the way to which is shown by a finger-post and several flags. For mounting the glacier itself a guide is needed ( 5 fr .). - To the right of the finger-post ( 2 min . from the hotel) a path ascends, at first through wood, past a hut, then ( 20 min .) to the right from the Boval route (see below), to the ( 6 min .) Chünetta, which commands the glacier and its grand environment (Munt Pers, Piz Palü, Bellavista, Zupò, Crast' Agüzza, Piz Bernina, Roseg, Morteratsch, Boval, Misaun).

A closer survey is obtained from the Boval Hut ( 8070 ), $1^{3} / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. higher up ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the inn), on the W. side of the glacier. The path (guide safer; 10 fr .) ascends the slope of the valley from a point 6 min . below the Chünetta, finally through a chimney, to the hut, maintained by the S.A.C. Interesting to cross the glacier to the séracs of the Per's Glacier (there and back $3^{1 / 2}$ hrs.; with guide, 12 fr .; comp. p. 423 ).
*Roseg Glacier (road to the restaurant $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., a drive of 1 hr .; see p. 418 ; thence to the glacier $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.). From the Punt Ota (p. 419) the road bears to the right (walkers follow the Roseg Promenade). The road ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) crosses the Roseg Brook, and ascends its left bank. By ( $13 / 4$ M.) a small house ('Acla Colani') a path diverges to the left to the Roseg Promenade (p.419). We pass (1 M.) the Alp Prima on the right and cross the stream. On the left the road is joined by the path coming from the Roseg Promenade ( $\mathbf{p} .419$ ). Beyond the wooded Muot da Cresta we ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) recross the brook, and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) reach the Restaurant du Glacier ( 6560 '; rooms). The ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. more) Roseg Glacier, which has receded greatly of late, is well surveyed from the inn, with its surrounding peaks (Piz Tschierva, Roseg, La Sella, Piz Glüschaint, La Mongia, and Il Chapütschin). The glacier consists of two large icecataracts (E., the Vadret da Roseg; W., the Vadret da Tschierva), which unite below the isolated green height of Aguagliouls, where sheep graze in summer. Through the telescope at the inn chamois may be seen grazing on the slopes of Piz Misaun in the afternoon. - A more complete view of the imposing scene is obtained from the *Alp Ota ( $7385^{\prime}$ ): the path from the inn, for 20 min . level, ascends past a jutting rock on the right to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) two chalets of the Alp. To the left of the chalets we reach the best point (on the Mortèl path) a little farther on; here, to the left and right of Piz Bernina, we also see the Piz Morteratsch and Monte Scerscen; between Piz Morteratsch and Piz Bernina is the Fuorcla Prievlusa; between Mte. Scerscen and Piz Roseg is the Porta Roseg; and between Piz Roseg and the Sella lies the Sella Pass.

For the glacier itself a guide is needed (7, to Aguaglionls 8, to its head 10 fr .; to be had at the Restaurant du Glacier): a path skirting the Roseg brook leads by Alp Misaun to the ( 1 hr .) Margum Misaun ( $7396^{\prime}$ ), and across the glacier to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) rocky hill of Aguagliouls (nearest point, $8780^{\prime}$ ). Imposing view.

A fine survey is also afforded by the Alp Surovèl ( $7425^{\prime}$; milk), $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Roseg Restaurant, on the way to the Fuorcla Surlej (p. 412). A path, commanding splendid views, leads from the Alp Ota along the slope to the ( 1 hr .) Mortèl Club Hut ( $7840^{\prime}$ ), grandly situated, the startingpoint for Piz Roseg, the Sella Pass, etc. From the hnt across the Roseg Glacier to the rock of Aguagliouls $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$; thence back to the Roseg Restaurant 2 hrs .; a very fine round, with guide ( 15 fr. ). - To the S.E., at the foot of the Piz Tschierva, $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the Roseg Restaurant by a good path, is the new Tschierva Club Hut ( 8070 ), the starting-point for ascents of the Piz Tschierva, Morteratsch, Bernina, and other peaks.

The Schafberg (Munt della Bescha; 8965'; bridle-path $21 / 2$ hrs.; mule 10 fr .) is a splendid point, of easy access. We either go under the wooden gallery between Hôt. Roseg and its dépendance, and pass the pretty chalet of Herr Nitzschner; or ascend to the left just above the church of Lower Pontresina (finger-post). The paths unite on the ( 20 min .) hill Crast' Ota. We then ascend through wood to the ( 50 min .) Restaurant Freimann-Grass (7315'; well spoken of), an admirable point. At our feet lie Pontresina and the snow-girt Roseg valley, bounded by Piz Rosatsch on the right and Piz Chalchagn on the left, with the glistening peaks of the Sella, Piz Glüschaint, the Monschia, and the Chapütschin in the background; adjoining Piz Chalchagn on the right is Piz Tschierva, and on the left the Bellavista, Piz Palü, Piz Cambrena, Munt Pers, and Sassal Masone; then the Languard valley with the Paradis and Piz Albris; to the right, below, at the foot of the Rosatsch, are the sombre little Lake of Statz and the blue Lake of St. Moritz; above these rise the mountains to the N. of the Inn, Piz Lunghino, Lagrev, Albana, Julier, Nair, Ot, and the serrated Crasta Mora near the Albula Pass. - The bridle-path then ascends in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the saddle between Las Sours (see below) and the top of the Schafberg ( $8965^{\prime}$ ), to the left, which we reach in 10 min . more ( ${ }^{}$ Restaurant, plain). *View of the Bernina group. Besides the peaks already mentioned we see, beginning at the Bellavista, the Piz Zupò, Argient, Crast' Agüzza, Piz Bernina, Piz Bianco, Mte. di Scerscen, Piz Morteratsch, Roseg Corvatsch, and Surlej; then, to the right of the Albula, Piz Uertsch, Piz Kesch, and the Inn as far as the Maloja (with the lakes of Campfèr and Sils).

The W. peak of Las Sours ('the sisters'; $9783^{\prime}$ '), easily ascended from the Schafberg in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., commands a grand view, extending to the Ortler. The two other peaks are difficult and for experts only (guide 20 fr .).

A path (guide necessary in snow) descends the N . side of the Schafberg in zigzags into the bleak Muraigl Valley, in view of the Piz Vadret ( $10,400^{\prime}$ ). We ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) cross the Muraigl, pass the chalets of Muraigl, and ( 40 min .) recross. Then by the Muraigl route (see p. 422) to Pontresina in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. more.

Another delightful riew is afforded by the *Muottas Muraigl ( $8270^{\prime}$; 2 hrs . ; without guide; horse 10 fr .), easily ascended from Pontresina. We follow the Schafberg path, diverge to the left by a finger-post near a little Swiss house, skirt the W. and N. slopes of the Schafberg by a shady path, cross the Muraigl (see p. 421), and reach ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Lower Muraigl Alp ( $7216^{\prime}$ ), where the path divides. The direct branch to the left ascends very steeply ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.); the better path goes straight on, then turns to the left beyond a ruined hut, and reaches the $\left(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}\right.$.) Upper $A l p\left(8100^{\prime}\right)$ and the Inn of J. Lis ( 4 beds). The best point of view is by the 'Steinmann', a few minutes farther on. We survey the Bernina group (the Roseg Valley, with Piz Morteratsch, Piz Bernina, etc., being most striking), the green Upper Engadine with its lakes, from Ponte to the Maloja, and the mountains to the N. of the Inn Valley, from Piz Lunghino to Piz Kesch. - Descent from the Steinmann to Samaden, see p. 417 ; back to the Muraigl Valley and Pontresina, $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.
*Piz Languard (10, 715 '; 4 hrs. ; path distinct; guide, advisable after fresh snow, 10 fr . for $1-3$ pers.; horse to the foot of the peak 10 fr .), fatiguing, but deservedly a favourite point of view. We start early, to avoid the later mists, and to enjoy shade as far as the foot of the peak. At Lower Pontresina the route is indicated by a notice near Hôt. Languard. From Upper Pontresina we follow the path to the left near Hôt. Steinbock, passing above the small burial-chapel, and ascend the stony slope in zigzags to the ( 1 hr .) Alp Languard (7380'; rfmts., moderate). We next ascend to the left, above the bleak Languard Valley, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Horse Station ( $9090^{\prime}$ ), at the base of the Languard peak, where the bridle-path ends. A steep zigzag path leads hence to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) top, marked by a trigonometrical signal (*Inn in summer). The *View (comp. Panorama) extends S.W. to Mte. Rosa, S.E. to the Adamello, N.W. to the Tödi, N.E. to the Zugspitze.

Mountaineers may descend across the Languard Glacier, and past the little Pischa Lake (9121'), which is sometimes frozen over in summer, to the Val del Fain (p. 425) and the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Bernina houses (guide 12 fr .). Better keep several hundred paces to the right of the fall issuing from the lake, as the other descents are very steep and difficult. - From the Languard-Alp we may ascend the Paun da Zücher (pain de sucre; 9195'; $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 15 fr .), and Piz Albris ( 10,387 '; 3 hrs ; guide 15, including the Paun da Zücher 20 fr.); both fatiguing.

The *Diavolezza Tour ( $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$., which may be divided into two days since the erection of the inn on the pass; guide 15 , including night's stay 20 fr . ; horse from the Bernina Houses to the Diavolezza Lake 6 fr .) is one of the finest and easiest of glacier-excursions. The path diverges to the right from the Bernina road at the Bernina Houses (p. 425 ; 5 M . from Pontresina; carriages, see p.418) and ascends grassy and stony slopes to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) picturesque little Diavolezza Lake ( $8460^{\prime}$; bridle-path nearly to this point, horse from Pontresina 10 fr . and fee); thell over loose stones and snow, to the S.E. of Munt Pers ('lost mountain'; 10,533 '), to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.)

Diavolezza Pass ( $9767^{\prime}$; plain inn), which affords a *View of surpassing grandeur, especially in the rosy tints of dawn, of the near Bernina group: from left to right, Piz Cambrena, the three Palü peaks, Bellavista, Crast' Agüzza, Bernina, Morteratsch, and Tschierva; below us lie the Pers and Morteratsch glaciers. Steep descent over debris to the moraine of the Pers Glacier; then across the glacier to the ( 1 hr .) rocky Isla Persa; down the Pers Glacier; across the middle moraine to the Morteratsch Glacier and the (3 hrs.) Restaurant Morteratsch (p. 420).

Those on their way from the Bernina Hospice to the Diavolezza need not descend to the Bernina Houses, but diverge to the left from the road below Lej Pitschen (p. 425) and soon strike a narrow path, which ascends the Val $d$ Artas and joins the ordinary route near the Diavolezza Lake.
*Piz Corvatsch ( $11,345{ }^{\prime}$ '; 6 hrs.; guide 16, back by Silvaplana 18, through the Fex Valley 25 fr.), rather trying (easier from Silvaplana or St. Moritz viâ the Fuorcla Surlej, p. 414). From the ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{MI}$.) Roseg Inn (p. 420) we ascend to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Surovel and follow the Surlej route to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) highest chalet (Margum Sura, $8000^{\prime}$ ); then turn to the left towards a snow-peak visible to the S.W., and ascend grassy and stony slopes to the (1 hr.) Corvatsch or Alp Ota Glacier. Lastly up the glacier, the crevasses of which require cantion, to the ( 2 hrs .) summit, covered with rocks, and generally free from snow. The guides usually stop on the Piz Mortel $\left(11,293^{3}\right)$, but it is preferable to go on to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) highest peak, where the view to the S.W. is far more picturesque. The great attraction of the view consists in the double survey, to the E. and S.E., of the imposing Bernina amphitheatre, and to the W., of the green Engadine with its villages and lakes. Distant view as extensive as from Piz Languard (to the S.W. to the Monte Viso). Descent by the Fuorcla Surlej to the Hahnensee and to St. Moritz, Silvaplana, or Sils (comp. p. 414). Descent on the W. side, by Marmore to the Fex Valley and ( 3 hrs .) Sils, for experts only, steep and trying.
${ }^{}$ Piz Morteratsch ( $12,315^{\prime} ; 5^{1} / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Roseg Inn, p. $420 ; 4-41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from: he Tschierva Hut; guide 30, with descent to Boval 35 fr .), though requiring a steady head, is the easiest of the higher peaks, but difficult when there is little snow. Descent to the Boval Hut laborious. - Chapütschin ( $11,133^{\prime}$ ), 7 , or from the Hortèl Hut, $31 / 2$ hrs., toilsome; guide 25 , with descent to Fex 30 fr . - Piz Tschierva ( $11,713^{\prime}$; $3-3^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Tschierva Hut; 25 fr.), fatiguing, but repaying. - La Sella (11,770'; $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Mortel Hut; 30 fr.) and Piz Glüschaint ( $11,80{ }^{\prime} ; 4^{1} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the same hut; 35 fr .) are not difficult, but need experience. - ${ }^{}$ Piz Palü ( $12,835^{\prime}$ ), conspicuous for the beauty of its form and the purity of its snow, from the Diavolezza Inn over the Pers Glacier in 6 hrs ., or from the Capanna Marinelli (p. 424) 5 hrs., trying, and not advisable except when the snow is firm (good guide necessary; 50, or for all three peaks, 60 fr.). From the first (E.) peak ( $12,755^{\prime}$ ') a narrow arête, descending sheer on the S. side (steady head necessary), leads to the double-peaked second $\left(12,835^{\prime}\right)$ and the third peak $\left(12,545^{\prime}\right)$. Alternative descent by the Bellavista Saddle and the Fortezza to the Pers Glacier' (to the Diavolezza Inn $4-5$ hrs., guide 60 fr.). - ${ }^{\text {PPiz Zupó ('hidden peak'; } 13,120 \text { '), from the Boval Hut }}$ in $71 / 2$, or from the Capanna Marinelli by the Crast' Agüzza Saddle in $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$., toilsome (guide 50 fr .) ; grand panorama. - Crast' Agüzza (12,705'; guide 80 fr .), a sharp crest between Piz Bernina and Piz Zupò, rising almost sheer from the glacier, $6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Diavolezza Inn, very difficult.
${ }^{*}$ Piz Bernina ( 13,295 ; 81/2-10 hrs. from the Diavolezza Inn; gaide 70 fr .), the highest peak of the group, first ascended in 180), is fit for thorough experts only. The route ascends by the upper Pers Glacier and the 'Festung' or 'Fortezza' (11,040') to a snow-basin between Piz Bernina and Crast' Agüzza, and thence by the arête from the S.E. side to the top. More difficult is the ascent from the Tschierva Hut: to the Fuorcla

Prievlusa ( $11,325^{\prime}$ ), under favourable conditions of the snow, $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., thence to the Pizzo Bianco ( $13,117^{\prime}$ ) $2 \frac{1}{2}$ hrs., thence over the Scharte to the summit 2 hrs. (whole ascent 8 hrs., halts not included; guide 100 fr .). Ascent shorter from the S. side (from the Capanna Marinelli, see below, over the Crast' Agüzza Saddle, 6-7 hrs.). - More difficult are Piz Roseg (12,935'; 8 hrs . from the Mortè Hut; guide 80 fr .), first ascended in 1865, and Monte di Scerscen ( $13,015^{\prime}$; guide 150 fr .), first ascended in 1877 by Dr. Güssfeldt ( $7-8 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Tschierva Hut; not possible every year). Between Monte di Scerscen and Piz Roseg lies the difficult Porta Roseg (Fuorcla Tschierva-Scerscen or Güssfeldt-Sattel; 11,573'), first crossed by Dr. Güssfeldt in 1872 (guide 150 fr .).

Passes. From Pontresina to Sils, several routes. The easiest (but trying; 8-9 hrs.; guide 20 fr .) crosses the Fuorcla da Fex-Roseg (10,110'). From the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Mortel Hut (p. 421) we ascend to the right over rubble and snow to the ( 2 hrs .) pass (splendid view); then a steep, toilsome descent (gnide necessary) to the Lej Sgrischus, abounding in trout, and to the right over grassy slopes and round the precipices of the Crap da Chüern to the Fex Valley, Crasta (p. 410), and ( $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) Sils-Maria (p. 410). (The direct descent to the W. into the Fex Valley is dangerous and to be avoided.) - From Pontresina to Sils over the Chapütschin Pass (10,590'), between the Chapütschin and Mongia, or over the Fuorcla Glüschaint (about $11,000^{\prime}$ ), between the Mongia and Piz Glüschaint, both for experts only (guide 35 fr .).

Over the Sella Pass to the Val Malenco, grand and interesting, but trying ( $11^{1 / 2}-2$ days; guide to Poschiavo 50, to Chiesa 65 fr .). From the Mortel Hut, passing the Aguagliouls rock, we ascend the Roseg Glacier and the crevassed Sella Glacier to the ( $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Sella Pass $(10,843$ ), lying to the S.W. of the huge rock and ice precipices of Piz Roseg ( $12,935^{\prime}$ ). Descent over the Scerscen Glacier, with splendid views of the S. side of the Bernina group (Mte. di Scerscen, Piz Bernina, Crast’ Agüzza, Zupò, and Mte. Nero and Disgrazia to the right), and across a snow-saddle running out from Piz Argient ( 10,048 '; to the right, a little lower, the Rifugio Marinelli, see below) to the névé of the Fellaria Glacier; then down the right side of the glacier, over rock and debris, to the ( $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the pass) Fellaria Chalets ( $7840^{\prime}$; poor, occupied in midsummer only). Thence down the Val Campo Moro and Val Lanterna to Lanzada and ( 4 hrs .) Chiesa in the Val Malenco (p. 436). - lnstead of going to Chiesa, some prefer to complete the Circuit of Piz Bernina. If so, they do not descend to the Fellaria Chalets, but spend the night in the above-mentioned Rifugio Marinelli of the Italian Alpine Club ( $92225^{\prime}$ ), $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Sella Pass. They then return direct to Pontresina over the Fuorcla Bellavista ( $12,080^{\circ}$ ), between the Bellavista and Piz Palü, and down by the Fortezza (p. 423) and the Morteratsch Glacier (laborious, $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 50 fr .). - To the Bernina Hospice over the Cambrena Pass, S-9 hts., fatiguing, but repaying (guide 50 fr .). From the Fellaria Glacier we cross a saddle of névé, to the S. of Piz Palü, to the Palï Glacier, skirt the slopes of Piz Palü and Piz Cambrena ( $11,835^{\prime}$ ), and reach the Cambrena Pass $\left(11,250^{\prime}\right)$, between Piz Cambrena and Piz Carale. Descent over the Cambrena Glacier to Lago Nero (p. 425) and the Bernina Hospice. This route is easier in the reverse direction, a night being spent at the Bernina Hospice; moreover the place exposed to ice-falls is passed early in the morning. Experts may safely descend from the snow-saddle to the S. of Piz Palü (p. 423) direct to the Palii Glacier, avoiding the snow-cornices by keeping to the left, and then over turf and rock, past the Sassal Masone, to the Bernina Hospice (7-8 hrs. from the Rifugio Marinelli; 12-13 hrs. from the Mortè Hut; guide 50 fr.).

To Poschisvo from Fellaria, to the E. over the Passo Rovano or Confinale ( $8550^{\circ}$ ), and through the Val d Orse, 4 hrs ; or across the Canciano Pass ( $8360^{\prime}$; comp. p. 436), farther to the S. (also 4 hrs .). To reach the latter from the Fellaria Chalets we descend the old moraines of the Fellaria Glacier, and soon, to the left, ascend the Val Poschiavina to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) pass. Fine view; immediately to the S. is the Canciano Glacier. Descent by $A l p d ' U r(6350 ')$ and Val di Gole to ( $2^{1 / 2}$ hrs.) Poschiavo (p. 435).

From Pontresina to Malenco over the Chapütschin and FexScerscen Passes, $12-13 \mathrm{hrs}$. from the Mortel Hut (guide 65 fr .), toilsome, for experts only. Over the Fuorcla Chapittschin or the Fuorcla Glitschaint to the Fex Glacier (difficult descent), see p. 424. Instead of descending to the right to the Fex Valley, we turn to the left to the snowy saddle of the Fuorcla Fex-Scerscen, and descend the Scerscen Glacier to the Val Malenco (p. 436).

From Pontresina to the Bernina Hospice, $91 / 2$ M., a beautiful excursion (carr., p. 418), including a visit to the Sassal Masone or the Alp Grüm. - From Pontresina to the divergence of the Morteratsch Glacier road, see p. 420. The Bernina road ascends. To the right, at 'Montebello', a splendid *View of the Morteratsch Glacier, imbedded between Piz Chalchagn and Munt Pers, with its huge medial moraine, overshadowed by the dazzling Piz Paliu, Bellavista, Zupò, Argient, Crast' Agüzza, the Piz Bernina, Morteratsch, and Tschierva. In the rear rises the tall and slender form of the Piz Ot. (From a winding of the road, by a horse-trough, a path diverges to the Bernina Falls and the Morteratsch Glacier.) On the left, 5 M . from Pontresina, are the solitary Bernina Houses (6720'; Inn), near the entrance to the Val del Fain. - Diavolezza Route, see p. 422.

The Val del Fain, or Heuthal, 5 M . long, entered by a narrow road, crossing the bridge to the left beyond the Bernina houses (one-horse carr., p. 418), is interesting to botanists, as it contains many rare and beautiful Alpine plants. Among these are the Pulsatilla vernalis, the sweet-scented Daphne striata, fine orchids, gentians, and primulas, the Pinguicula alpina, well known as an insect-catcher, and, on the slopes of Piz Alv, the highly prized Leontopodiam alpinum or edelweiss. Here, as on the Bernina road, also occurs the Achillea moschata, called Iva in the Grisons, and used in the preparation of the Iva liqueur. - A bridle-path, forming the continuation of the road, and scarcely mistakable, ascends the Alp La Stretta to the Passo Fieno ( $8145^{\circ}$ ), between Piz Stretta $\left(10,195^{\prime}\right)$ and Piz dels Lejs ( $9990^{\prime}$ ), whence a steep and stony footpath descends into the Spöl Valley to ( 6 hrs.) Livigno (p. 429). - Ascent of Piz Languard by La Pischa, see p. 422.

Beyond the Bernina Houses ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) the old bridle-path diverges to the right, and leads on the left bank of the brook over the $A l p$ Bregaglia to the pass. The road crosses the brook and ascends gradually on the E. side of the valley, passing the mouth of the Val Minor. (To the left rise Piz Alv and Piz Lagalb, to the right the stony slopes of the Diavolezza, p. 422.) Trees disappear. The road passes the small Lago Minore (Rom. Lej Pitschen) and Lago Nero (Rom. Lej Nair), leads to the left above the greenish-white Lago Bianco (Rom. Lej Alv; 7316'), takes a sharp turn, and crosses a brook falling from Piz Lagalb on the left. The narrow barrier between the 'black' and 'white' lakes is the watershed between the Black Sea and the Adriatic, the former sending its waters to the Inn, the latter to the Adda. To the right lies the Cambrena Glacier, commanded by Piz Cambrena (11,835') and Piz Carale (11,250'); to the left, Sassal Masone (9970'); before us rises Piz Campascio (p. 426); to the left of it is the conical Pizzo del Teo $\left(10,006^{\prime}\right)$, to
$91 / 2$ M. Bernina Hospice ( $757{ }^{\prime}{ }^{\prime}$ '; Hotel, R. 2-21/2, déj. at 11.30 a.m. $21 / 2$, D. at 1 p.m. $4-41 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), finely situated above the Lago Bianco and opposite the Cambrena Glacier. To the E., at the back of the hospice, is the little Lago della Crocetta. The Bernina route is always busy with the Valtellina wine traffic. Carr. with one horse to Pontresina 13, to Poschiavo (p. 430̆) 15, to Le Prese 18 fr.

Excorsions. (Guides and horses at the hospice.) Piz Campascio (8535'; $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; guide 4 fr. ), to the S.E. of the hospice, rising sheer on the E. side, ascended by a good path, commands a very striking view. - Piz Lagalb ( 9718 '), to the N. (see p. 425 ), also affords a fine view ( $2 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 4 \mathrm{fr}$.).

From the hospice to the Sassal Masone or the Alp Grēm $(11 / 4-11 / 2$, there and back $3-4$ hrs.; guide, 4 fr ., unnecessary; donkey or mule 7 fr .; chaise-à-porteurs, with 2 porters, 25 fr.), very interesting. A few paces to the S . of the hospice the bridle-path diverges from the road to the right, and skirts the E. bank of Lago Bianco. It crosses ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the brook issuing from the S . end of the lake, and follows the right slope of the valley, skirting the little Lago della Scala. A finger-post ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) indicates the path to the right to the Sassal Masone ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) ; the path straight on leads to the Alp Grüm. The *Sassal Masone Alp ( 7800 '; rfmts.), with its two round stone huts, lies at the foot of the Sassal Masone ( $9970^{\prime}$ ), and commands a grand view of the Palü Glacier, Pizzo di Verona, Piz Palü, the Poschiavo Valley, and the Val Viola Mts. - The view of the glacier is even more imposing from the Alp Grüm. Where the path to the Sassal Masone diverges (see above), we go straight on; where the path divides and Piz Palü appears to the right, we keep to the left, at the same level, and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) reach the *Alp Grüm ( $7182^{\prime}$; Restaurant), where the superb Palü Glacier, separated from us by a narrow valley only, and the Poschiavo Valley far below, with its lake and the villages of Le Prese, Prada. and St. Antonio, are suddenly revealed. In the distance, to the S.E., rise the Adamello and Presanella.

From Alp Grūm to Poschiavo ( $2^{3 / 4} \mathrm{hrs}$ ). The path descends steeply to the right, and widens into a stony cart-track; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr} .$, Alp La Dotta; $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., hamlet of Cavaglia ( 5580 '), in a wider part of the valley, visible from Alp Grüm. We cross ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Cavagliasco, descending from the Palü Glacier in a wild rocky gorge; skirt the slope to the right by a very rough and stony path (often the bed of a torrent), and descend rapidly to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Poschiavo (p. 435). Visitors to the Alp Grüm from Poschiavo (advisable only in dry weather) should ask for the beginning of the route (boy from the hotel for a few soldi).

Over the Cambrena Pass to the Val Malenco, grand but toilsome, p. 424.
About $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the E . of the hospice is the top of the Bernina Pass (7644'). Beyond it the road passes through two galleries and descends rapidly in windings (short-cuts), past La Motta (6510'), to ( $33 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -

131/2 M. La Rosa (6162'; poor inn). - Thence to Poschiavo and Tirano, see p. 43 כ.

To the N. of La Motta opens the Val Lagone, containing strata of gypsum and alabaster, through which a narrow road leads over the Forcola di Livigno ( $7638^{\prime}$ ) to ( 6 hrs .) Livigno ( p .429 ).

Through the Val Viola to Bormio (p. 440), $10-11$ hrs., interesting; guide advisable (from Pontresina to Bormio 55 fr .). Provisions should be taken. The bridle-path diverges from the Bernina road to the left at $S f a z z u$ ( p .435 ) and ascends the Val di Campo, past the chalets of Salba, La Tonta, and Plan Sena ( $6500^{\circ}$ ), to (2 hrs.) Longacqua, the highest chalet or 'malga'. To the N. lies the Val Mera, with the beautiful Corno di Campo ( $10,840^{\circ}$ ), whence a fatiguing route crosses the Passo di Fal Mera (8776') to Livigno. From this point through the Val Viola Poschiavina to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Val Viola Pass (8070') the path is ill-defined at places (guide desirable; keep to the left near the summit), leading at first through woods of stone-pines, in which several pretty little blue lakes lie to the right. Fine view behind us of the Bernina Mts.; to the S. the precipices of the Cima Saoseo ( $10,730^{\prime}$ ). Beyond the pass the path, again distinct, gradually descends to $(3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the first chalet in the Val Viola Bormina, on the little Val Viola Lake (7480'). It then leads high on the N. slope of the valley, affording beautiful views of the Val di Dosde to the right, with the Pizzo di Dosdè ( $10,760^{\prime}$ ) and the Cima Lago Spalmo ( $10,820^{\prime}$ ), and then descends rapidly through wood to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Ponte Minestra ( 6490 '; below which is a waterfall) and the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) hamlet of Campo. Then across pastures and through wood, past several houses and barns, to ( 1 hr .) San Carlo ( $5185^{\prime}$ ), a village with a church. On the right rise the Cima di Piazzi (11,280'), with the Piazzi Glacier, and the Corno di San Colombano (9915'). Descent to the Val di Dentro and Semogo (route to Livigno by Foscagno, see p. 440), and by Isolaccia, with the Italian custom-house (Osteria by the bridge; another at the baker's) and Pedenosso to ( 2 hrs .) Premadio. We cross the Adda, and reach ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Bormio by the road to the right, or the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) New Baths (p. 449) by that to the left.

From Bormio we may ascend the Val di Dosde, and cross a small glacier, to (7-8 hrs.) the Capanna di Dosde, built by the I. A. C. on the Passo di Dosde ( $9350^{\prime}$ ), the starting-point for the Cima Saoseo (10,715'; 3, with descent to Poschiavo 8 hrs .), Cima Viola ( $11,100^{\prime} ; 3 \mathrm{hrs}$ ), and Corno di Dosde (10,603'; 4 hrs.). Descent through Val Vermolera to Val Grosina and ( 6 hrs .) Grosio (p. 439).

An easy and fine route leads through Val Verva, which diverges to the S. from Val Viola, and over the Passo di Verva ( $7590^{\prime}$ ), between the Cima di Piazzi and Pizzo di Dosde, to Eita (chalet of the I. A. C.), and through the pretty Val Grosina to (10 hrs.) Grosio (p. 439).

102. From Samaden to Nauders. Lower Engadine.

50 M. Diligence from Samaden to Schuls thrice daily in $51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 13 fr . 50 , coupé 16 fr .20 c .) ; from Schuls to Nauders twice daily in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 6 fr . 50 , coupé 7 fr .89 c .). (Connection with dilicence to Landeck, see p.443.) The scenery is pretty at places, but is sufficiently seen from an open carriage. Road very dusty in dry weather. - Extra-Post and pair from Samaden to Landeck in two days 150 fr . and 15 fr . fee, to Meran viâ Martinsbruck in three days 200 fr . and 20 fr . fee. - Carriage with one horse from Samaden to Tarasp-Schuls for 2 pers. 40, 3 pers. 50 , with two horses for 4,5 , or 6 pers. 70,80 , or 90 fr.; driver's fee 10 per cent of the fare.

Below Samaden (p. 416) we enjoy a grand view of the Bernina range (comp. p. 418). $11 / 2$ M. Bevers (5610' ; Pens. Crasta Mora, 4-6 fr.), a thriving village, lies at the foot of the indented Crasta Mora (p. 406). (Through the Val Bever and Val Suvretta to St. Moritz, see p. 416.) The road passes the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Agnas Inn, and leads along the 'canalised' Inn to ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -

4 M. Ponte (55. 48 '; *Hôtel Albula, R., L., & A. 11⁄2-2, B. 1 fr.; *Krone, beyond the bridge, plain), at the beginning of the Albula Route (R. 99). On the opposite bank lies Campovasto or Camogasc, at the entrance to the narrow Val Chamuera (see below).
"Munt Müsella ( 8632 '), on the right bank of the Inn, to the S.E. of Ponte, is easily ascended in $2^{1 / 2} \mathrm{hrs}$. (guide desirable); beantiful view. - Piz Uertsch (Albulahorn; 10,738') is ascended from the Albula Pass (p. 406) in 3 hrs.; fatiguing, steady head needful; splendid view (guide 30 fr.).

From Ponte to Livigno ( 6 hrs. ), bridle-path; guide desirable. We ascend the Val Chamuera to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) chalets of Serlas ( $6634^{\prime}$ ), where the Val Lavirum diverges; then rapidly through the latter to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Fuorcla Lavirum (Passo dell' Everone; 9250'), between (r.) Piz Lavirum (Pizzo dell' Everone; $10,020^{\prime} ; 3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from the pass; splendid view of the Ortler) and (1.) Piz Casanella ( $9616^{\prime}$ ). Steep descent into Val Federia. After 1 hr . the path from the Casana Pass (see below) on the left joins ours; 1 hr ., Livigno (p. 429).

The road follows the left bank of the Inn to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Madulein (5515'; Restaurant Guardaval), with the ruin of Guardaval on a steep rock to the left ( $5873^{\prime}$; ascent $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.), erected in 1251 by Bishop Volkard to 'guard the valley'.
*Piz Kesch (11,220'; 5-5 $1 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. from Madulein; guide from Pontresina 40 fr .), not difficult for adepts. Road to the ( 1 hr.$)$ Alp Aeschinc ; thence footpath to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Kesch Club Hut on the Muot Ot (ca. 8530; views); from the hut over debris and the Es'chia and Porchabella Glaciers to the ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit. The W. and highest of the four peaks, denoted by a cairn and signal, is the one generally visited. Comp. pp. 378, 406.

6 M. Zuoz, or Zutz (5615'; pop. 500; *Hôt. Concordia \& Post, with hydropathic, R., L., \& A. 3-41/2, D.4, pens. 7-91/2 fr. ; Schweizerbund; *Pens. Poult, $51 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), a thriving village, in a sheltered situation, $300^{\prime}$ above the floor of the valley, visited as a summer resort. The coats-of-arms on the old town-hall include those of the local families of Planta, Juvalta, and Salis.

Pretty walks up the Inn valley, to the hill of Crasta ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$ ), and through meadows and wood to the ( 1 hr .) ruin of Guardaval (see above); also to the Schivera Gorge ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.); to the Arpiglia Gorge ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.); Acla Perini (1 hr.), with view.
${ }^{*}$ Piz Griatschouls ( $9755^{\prime} ; 31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.), not difficalt; extensive view. Descent by Val Sulsanna to Capella (see below). - Piz Mezaun or Mezzem (9727'; 4 hrs.; guide), toilsome; very fine view. - *Piz Casanella (9615'), 4 hrs . with guide, easy and interesting. - Piz Kesch (11,220), not difficult for experts, $5-51 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., with guide (Flury Clavadetscher, Jacob Gyr, Christ. Near (1 M.) Scanfs (5413'; *Scaletta, R. 2, pens. 6 fr.; Traube, Stern, both plain) a handsome bridge crosses the Inn, but the road follows the left bank.

To the right opens the $\nabla$ al Casana, whence an interesting route crosses the Casana Pass (8832') to (7 hrs.) Livigno (p. 429). Bridle-path to the Alp Casana (7310'). Thence a steep ascent to the pass, which commands a splendid view. The view is more extensive from the Piz Casana (10,078'), which rises to the left and may be climbed by experts in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. The descent to the Val Federia and Livigno is equally steep.

On the right rises Piz d'Esen (10,270'). Below ( $11 / 2$ M.) Capella the road crosses the Sulsanna. (Through Val Sulsanna, and over the Scaletta and Sertig passes to Davos, see p. 378.) We skirt a pine-clad gorge of the Inn. Below Cinuskel ( $5300^{\prime}$; Post), near Brail, the Punt Ota, a bridge over the brook of the Val Puntota, separates the Upper from the Lower Engadine. At the end of the gorge we have a fine view of the river and the covered bridge which carries us to the right bank. Near ( $81 / 2$ M.) Zernetz the valley expands. To the N. appears the snow-streaked Piz Linard (p. 430).

17 M. Zernetz ( $4910^{\prime}$; pop. 570 ; *Bär, R., L., \& A. 4 fr.), at the influx of the dark $S p o ̈ l$ into the Inn, with a church of 1623 , has been almost entirely rebuilt since a fire in 1872.

Munt Baseglia ( $9780^{\prime} ; 4$ hrs.; guide 7 fr. ), Piz d’Arpiglia ( $99455^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ 10 fr .), and *Piz Nüna ( 10,260 '; 6 hrs .; 16 fr.) are ascended from Zernetz (all rather trying; Piz Nuna best done from Ardetz viâ the Val Sampuoir). - Piz Sursura ( 10,420 ; 6 -7 hrs.; 20 fr .), through the V'al Sur'sur'a and over the glacier of that name, fatiguing.

From Zernetz to Mūnster ( $241 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.; diligence daily in 6 hrs ., 9 fr . 80 , coupe 11 fr .80 c .). The road, attractive even for walkers, gradually ascends on the right bank of the Spöl through the wild and wooded defile of $L a$ Serra, crossing several ravines (Val da Barcli, Val Laschadura) and the wooded plateau of Champ Sech to the ( $5^{1} / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) bridge over the Ova d' Spin (5997'). Beyond the bridge the shorter old bridle-path ascends straight over the hill of Champ Löng, and through Val Ftur, to the Ofen Inn, while the new road sweeps to the right, skirting the wooded hill of Crastatscha. We cross the ( $23 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Ova del Fuorn ( $5610^{\prime}$ ), in its wild ravine (bridlepath to the right to Livigno, see below), skirt the left bank of the Ova del Fuorn, cross it, and reach ( $11 / 2$ M.) the *Inn on the Ofenberg ( $l l$ Fuorn; 5920). We next pass the mouth of the Val del Botsch, the Val da Stavelchod, and Val Nüglia, and ascend the marshy Alp Buffalora to the ( 5 M .) Ofen Pass (Sii Som; 7070'), with fine view of the Ortler. (Thence across the Buffalora Pass to the Fraele Valley and Bormio, see p. 440.) We descend through stone-pines to ( 3 M .) Cierfs ( 5460 '; Alpenrose ; ${ }^{}$ Weisses Kreuz), in the Münster-Thal, or Val Mustair, watered by the Rambach. Then ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Fuldera ( $5333^{\prime}$; to the left above which lies Lui, p. 433), ( 2 MI .) Valcava ( $4632^{\prime}$; *Post), and ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. ) St. Maria (p. 442). Thence to (2 M.) Münster and ( $91 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Mals, see p. 442 . Over the Wormser Joch to Bormio, see p. 441; through the Val da Scharl to Schuls, see p. 433.

From Zernetz to Livigno ( 8 hrs .). Road to the ( $81 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) bridge over the Ova del Fuorn ( $11 / 2$ M. short of the Ofenberg Inn, see above); then a bridle-path ( $41 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.; finger-post on the left bank by the bridge), crossing the hill and ascending the Spöl Valley alternately on the right and the left bank. By the bridge over the Acqua del Gallo is the Italian frontier (custom-house, however, at the Foscagno Pass, p. 440); comp. the Map, p. 428. - Livigno (5910') is a scattered village in the broad green valley of the Spöl, with several charches; near the church of Sant Antonio is the plain *Pens. Alpina (R. 2 fr.). To the S. the valley is closed by the Vedretta del Vago. - From Livigno to the Bernina road by the Forcola ( 5 hrs.; narrow road, car with one horse $15-20$ fr.) or the Passo Fieno, see $\mathrm{pp} .426,425$; to Ponte by the Lavirum Pass, p. 423 ; to Scanfs by the Casana Pass, p. 428; to Zernetz by the Passo del Diavel (9235'), to the W. of the Piz dell' Acqua ( $10,260^{\circ}$ ), a fatiguing glacier-pass, little used ( $9-10 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 20 fr .). - From Livigno to Bormio over the Foscagno Pass ( 7 hrs .), see p. 440 ; the path begins at the church of Sant Antonio.

From Zernetz to Bormio viâ Buffalora, see p. 440 . A shorter route ( $91 / 2$-10 hrs. to Bormio; guide necessary, from Fuorn 25 fr.) diverges to the right from the Münster-Thal road beyond the bridge over the Fuorn, and leads by the La Schera $A l p$ and the Val Fraele to the Scale di Fraele and Bormio.

Below Zernetz the road recrosses the Inn (behind rises the Piz Quatervals, 10,355 ') and enters a narrow, pine-clad gorge, extending as far as ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) - Sass Auta (8195'; $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) and M(uott Auta ( $87633^{\prime} ; 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide 10 fr .), both easy and interesting. - Through Val Lavinuoz to the Tiatscha Glacier, 3 hrs ., also attractive. - Piz Mezdi (9593'; guide 10 fr .) is ascended through Val Zeznina in 4 hrs ., the last part rather steep. The Val Zeznina ends in the mountain-basin of Macun (8645'), with its small glaciers and six little lakes, environed by Piz d'Arpiglia, Munt della Baseglia, and Piz Macun. - ${ }^{*} \operatorname{Piz}$ Linard (11,2C0'; 7 hrs . ; guide 25 fr .), the highest peak of the Silvretta group, affording a most superb panorama, is trying and fit for experts only. From Lavin through the Val d'Glims to the ( 3 hrs .) small lake ( $8580^{\prime}$ ) at the E. base of the Piz Glims; then over slopes of debris and snow, the last $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$. steep and toilsome, to the ( $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) summit. Magnificent view. Those of steady head may descend on the W. side to the ( 3 hrs .) Vereina or Valtorta Pass (p. 373) and through the Süs Valley to the Vereina Hut (p. 373). From Lavin to Klosters over the Vernela Pass or the Verstankla-Thor, see p. 373.

The right bank of the Inn, generally abrupt, affords few sites for villages, while on the left bank, on broad, sunny heights, lie Lavin, Guarda, and Ardetz, said to be of Etruscan origin, picturesquely commanded by ruined towers and castles. The Inn flows through a deep gorge, swelled by many torrents from lateral valleys. Beyond Lavin the road leads through a rock-gateway, and near ( 2 M. ) Giarsun (4670') crosses the mouth of Val Tuoi (p. 445).

A road to the left (diligence twice daily in 40 min.) ascends to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Guarda (5423'; "Höt. Meisser, with 'dépendance' Zur Sonne, R. $1 / 2 / 2-2$, B. 1, pens. $5^{1 / 2} / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), a prettily situated village and tourist-resort, affording a beautiful view of the entire chain from the Piz Vadret to the Piz Lat, near Martinsbruck. Guarda is reached ( 1 hr .) more pleasantly by the old road gradually ascending from Lavin. The neighbourhood is well wooded and has a fine Alpine flora (esp. the Val Tuoi). Pleasant walks may be taken to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Waldsee, with benches; to ( 20 min .) Boschia (restaurant), a hamlet affording a fine view of the Lower Engadine: to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) MïhleThal, with its torrents; to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Sura ( 6988 ), with a fine riew of Piz Buin and the Fermunt, Sursura, and Grialetsch glaciers; to the ( $1^{11 / 2} \mathrm{hr}$.) Alp Suot ( $(646$ ), in the Val Tuoi, at the foot of the Great and the Small Piz Buin; to the ( $2^{3} / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) *Muot del Hom (7657), a S.E. spur of the Piz Cotschen ( ${ }^{\text {EView). - Ascents (guides, B. Walkers to Schucs had better follow the old road by Fetan (keep up to the left, at a point $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. beyond Boschia), which turns into Val Tasna by the ruined houses of Chanova, and soon joins the new road from Ardetz. From Guarda to Fetan $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$.

The road skirts a stony slope, high above the Inn, enters a pleasant larch-wood, and then traverses meadows and fields to ( 3 M .) - $271 / 2$ M. Ardetz, Ger. Steinsberg ( 4812 '; pop. 623; *Zur Alpina, moderate; Post), picturesquely situated, and dominated by the ruin of Steinsberg, with its well-preserved tower.

A road (diligence every afternoon in 1 hr .), affording fine views, leads from Ardetz, across Val Tasna, and up the sunny pastures on the N. side of the valley, to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Fetan, Rom. Ftan ( $5405^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Hott.-Pens. Victoria, Victoria to Tarasp). A direct path to Tarasp diverges to the right from the road after the last wide curve, beyond the ravine.

The wild Val Tasna ascends between (l.) Piz Cotschen (9950') and (r.) Piz Minschun (10,080') for 3 hrs ., and then divides into (1.) Val d' Urezzas and (r.) Val Urschai. From the latter a difficult route crosses the ice-clad Futschöl Pass ( $909{ }^{\prime}$ '), with fine views of the huge Fluchthorn (11,165'), to the Tyrolese Jamthal and (8-9 hrs.) Galtür in the Patznaun (p. 445).

Beyond Ardetz we traverse stony slopes and rock-hewn cuttings. Beyond a bend we get a view of Schloss Tarasp; to the right, on the S. bank of the Inn, rise Piz Plavna, Piz Pisóc, Lischanna, and Ayutz. The road then sweeps round into the deep Val Tasna (see p. 430), and crosses it by a stone bridge. It runs high above the deep wooded gorge of the Inn. To the right, a fine view of the pine-clad Val Plavna, with Piz Plavna Dadaint (p. 433) in the background; in the foreground, Schloss Tarasp. The road descends to the Inn, opposite the Bonifazius spring, and past the offices of the Curhaus. 311/2 M. Bad Tarasp (3946'; *Curhaus, R., L., \& A. from 5, B. $1 \frac{1}{2}$, D. 5, S. $31 / 2$, board 8, visitors' tax 17 , baths $2-2 \frac{1}{2}$ fr. ; Engl. Schuls (3980'; pop. 940), Rom. Scuol, the capital of the Lower Engadine, picturesquely situated opposite a noble range of mountains extending from Piz Lat to Piz Plavna, consists of Upper and Lower Schuls, between which the highroad runs. Owing to the openness of its site, many visitors prefer it to Tarasp, while its view is superior to that from Vulpera; but there are no walks nearer than the opposite slope of the valley. The Badehalle Schuls has chalybeate and fresh-water baths ( $2-21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). The chief chalybeate spring is the Vihquelle, with an interesting hill of iron-ore, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the N. - The direct path from Schuls to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Vulpera and Tarasp diverges to the left from the road at the W. end of Schuls, crosses the Inn above the influx of the Clemgia, and then divides: the right branch follows the Inn and the Cur-Promenade to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Tarasp; the left branch ascends through wood to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Vulpera.

Walks. - From Vulpera we ascend the road to the W.; after $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. a road diverges to Florins ( $4450^{\prime}$; Restaurant), to which a wood-walk also leads from Tarasp; our road skirts the castle-hill of Tarasp and leads to ( $3 / 4$ II.) the hamlet of Fontana ( $4640^{\prime}$; rfmts. at Hôt. Tarasp, now a nunnery). Before Fontana is reached, a road ascends to the left, passing above the little lake of Tarasp, to Sparsels, at the entrance to which we ascend to the left to the château. (Keys at the last house on the left.) The dilapidated "Castle of Tarasp (4935'), which gives its name to the cluster of villages around, from Vulpera on the E. to Aschera on the W., was the seat of the Austrian governors down to 1803, and now belongs to Hr. von Planta of Samaden. Fine views from the windows. - We may return to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Vulpera by the old cart-track from Sparsels, passing the Kreuzberg (4845'), indicated by a wooden cross, a splendid point of view, especially by evening-light. - Pleasant walk from Fontana to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. ) *Alp Laisch ( 5995 '; milk), at the entrance to the picturesque Val Plavna.

Pretty walk from Vulpera ascending to the S. to the ( $40-45 \mathrm{~min}$.) Restaurant Avrona ( $4799^{\prime}$ ). Then by a path to the left, indicated by red marks, to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a bench ('Richard-Bank') looking up the Clemgia Gorge, and to another bench with a view downwards. We may go on to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) a bridge across the Clemgia (7805'), ascend to the ( 25 min .) Scarlthal Road (p. 433), and return by it to Vulpera in about 1 hr . - From Avrona we may go on to the little Schwarze See (Lai Aair; 5070'), 20 min . higher, where we obtain a fine view of Piz Linard. Thence back to Vulpera by Fontana (see above), abont $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. in all.

Val d'Uina. A path follows the right bank of the Inn, passing Pradella (inn), to ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Sur En ( $3686^{\prime}$; Bär, with sign painted by Paul Meyerheim; Zur Uina-Schlucht, well spoken of), at the month of the valley, opposite Crusch (p. 434). Thus far we may drive, vià Crusch. A tolerable path ascends the richly-wooded valley, passing waterfalls and a wild rocky gorge,
 An attractive route leads hence by ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) the Schlinig Pass (Sursass; $7735^{\prime}$ ) and through Val Schlinga to ( 3 hrs .) Mals, see p. 442

On the N. side of the valley may be noted the roads from Schuls to Fetan ( $4 \mathrm{M} . ;$ p. 430 ; which is also reached in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. by a path passing the Vihquelle, and skirting the wood farther up) and to Sent (dilig. in summer twice daily ; 1 fr.; p. 434). - Fine walk from Sent (there and back $21 / 2$ hrs.) to the wild Val Sinestra (p. 434), as far as a point opposite Manas; beautiful forest; far below the torrent dashes over limestone rocks.

Ascents (guides: Joh. Bischoff, Jak. Brunett, Conr. Marugg, Jac. Pua). To the N. of Schuls rises the grassy Motta Naluns (7015'; without guide; $6-8 \mathrm{fr}$.), ascended in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. (or from Fetan in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). View better from the ${ }^{*}$ Piz Clünas ( 9175 '; from the Motta Naluns 2 hrs ., from Fetan by Alp Laret $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. ; guide 10 fr .). - More extensive panorama from Piz Champatsch ( $9596^{\prime}$; 5 hrs . from Schuls; guide 12 fr .), by Alp Champatsch, and thence round the peak, ascending finally on the N.E. side. The direct ascent from the $S$. is very steep and stony.
Piz Lischanna ( $10,200^{\prime}$; 6-7 hrs.; guide 16 fr .), the finest peak near Schuls, presents no difficulties. From the Scarl road (see below), second bend, we diverge to the left by a good forest-path to St. Jon ( $4820^{\prime} ;{ }^{}$ Restaurant). Here, to the left, we round the base of Piz St. Jon, and ascend pastures and wood in the Val Lischanna, passing a shepherd's hut ( $6760^{\prime}$ ) and the ( 4 hrs .) deserted club-hut. Farther on we pass over debris and round two rocky knobs to the Lischanna Glacier, whence we ascend to the arête and the ( 3 hrs .) summit from the S.E. The view is superb: in the foreground rise the bare and riven peaks of Piz St. Jon, Ayutz, and Pisoc; far below lies the green Engadine from Lavin to Martinsbruck; S. are the Ortler, the Valtellina Alps, and the Bernina; in the distance, W., the Bernese Alps, the Tödi, and nearer us Piz Linard and Piz Buin; N. the Augstenberg, Fluchthorn, and the distant Zugspitze; E., the Oetzthal Mts. with the Wildspitze and Weisskugel, and farther distant the fantastic Dolomites. - Adepts (guide $25-30 \mathrm{fr}$.) descend the Lischanna Glacier to the Val Sesvenna and Scarl to ( $51 / 2-6 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Schuls. The ascent from Scarl takes $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.
"Piz Pisoc (10,427'; 8 hrs.; guide 25 fr.), Piz Plavna Dadaint (10,413'; 8 hrs .; 30 fr .), and Piz Sesvenna (10,565'; $8 \mathrm{hrs} . ; 25 \mathrm{fr}$.; night spent at Scarl), all difficult, for experts only. Piz St. Jon (9980'; 7 hrs . ; 20 fr ), Piz Cotschen (p. 431), Piz Minschun (10,080'; from Fetan 5 hrs .; 15 fr .), and Piz Foraz ( 10,150 ; 7 hrs ; 15 fr .) are less difficult.

From Schols to St. Maria in the Münster-Thal, through the Scarlthal (Val S-charl), 8 hrs., interesting (guide, 25 fr., needless). We ascend the road to the S. from the Inn bridge, soon enter a larch-wood, and reach the plateau on which St. Jon (see above) lies, farther to the left. Opposite, high up on the left side of the Clemgia gorge, lies the farm of Avrona (p. 432). The shadeless and stony road gradually descends into the valley, enclosed by the furrowed slopes of Piz Pisoc (r.) and Piz St. Jon and Piz Madlain (1.), and frequently crosses the Clemgia, the floods of which often do great havoc. After $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. the lonely Val Minger diverges to the right, with Piz Foraz (see above) at its head. To the left, the Val del Poch. Passing a deserted foundry, we reach (1 hr.) Scarl (5948'; Adler, Edelweiss, Pens. Feuerstein, all plain but not cheap), a hamlet at the mouth of the Val Sesvenna, whence Piz Cornet (9951'), Piz Cristannes (10,237'), and Piz Sesvenna (see above) may be ascended. To the left, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. above Scarl, a bridle-path leads over the Cruschetta Pass (7600'), and down the pretty Val Avigna, in $31 / 2$ hrs. to Taufers (p. 442). The road ends at Scarl. The bridle-path crosses the valley, which expands here (beautiful stone-pines); it passes the chalets of Astras Dadora ('outer') and Dadaint ('inner'), and, bearing to the left, leads between (r.) Piz d'Astr'as (9803') and (1.) Piz Murtera (9836') to the Scarl Pass ( $7385^{\prime}$ ), 2 hrs . from Scarl. It descends to the large dairy of Champatsch (7034'), in the parish of Valcava, rounds the rock of La Durezza, and leads through wood (avoid steep path to Cierfs, descending to the right) to $L \ddot{u}\left(6293^{\prime}\right)$; then by a narrow road to Lüssai, and across the Rambach to Furom, a solitary house on the Ofenberg road, between Fuldera and Valcava. Thence to St. Maria ( 2 hrs . from the pass), see p. 429.

The Ofenberg (Livigno, Bernina Pass) is reached from Schuls by the Scarl Pass and Cierfs in about 10 hrs . (see above). A shorter route ascends the wild Val Plavna from Fontana (p. 432), and crosses the Fuorcletta ( $8785^{\prime \prime}$ ) to the Val del Botsch, which opens $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. above the Ofenberg Inn (Osteria del Fuorn), on the road described at p. 429 ( $81 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide ad-

The road to Nauders follows the slope above the river. A road, $1 / 4$ M. from Schuls, ascends to the left, passing Sotsass, with its effervescent spring, to ( $21 / 4$ M.) Sent ( $4724^{\prime} ;$ pop. 1000; Rhætia), a large village, with the picturesque ruins of the Romanesque church of St. Peter on a rocky height. The highroad passes Pradella (p. 432), on the right bank of the Inn. At ( $41 / 2$ M.) Crusch ( $4075^{\prime}$; Kreuz) the Sent road (see above) rejoins ours. A road descends, $1 / 3$ M. farther on, to the right, to (1 M.) Sur En, at the mouth of the Val d'Uina (p. 432). About $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Crusch the road crosses the deep ravine of the Val Sinestra, on the other (1.) side of which lies ( $1 / 4$ M.) Remüs ( $4022^{\prime}$ ), with the ruin of Tschanuf (good inn and restaurant on the way to it).
${ }^{*}$ Piz Arina (9290'; from Remüs 5, from Zuort $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.; guide, Flor. Riatsch, 12 fr.), a stiff climb; fine view, rich flora. View of the Oetzthal and Arlberg Alps even finer than from Piz Lischanna. - Easy and attractive route through Val Sinestra, with springs containing iron and arsenic, and over the Fimber Pass (8570') to Ischgl in the Patznaun (10-11 hrs.; guide 20 fr .). The good bridle-path, passing some interesting sand-pyramids, ascends from Schuls viâ Sent on the right side of the deep Val Sinestra to ( 3 hrs .) Zuort ( $5590^{\prime}$; poor quarters), with the Swiss custom-house, at the mouth of the Val Laver. From this point we may ascend the Piz Arina ( $9290^{\prime} ; 3^{1 / 2-4} \mathrm{hrs}$.; see above), the Jfuttler ( $10,863^{\prime} ; 5 \mathrm{hrs}$; guide 18 , from Sent 25 fr .), and the Stammerspitz (W. summit $10,640^{\prime}$, E. summit or Piz Tschütta 10,690'; guide $35-40 \mathrm{fr}$.). From Zuort we proceed past the ( 2 hrs .) chalets of Griosch ( 5.64 ), and through the Val Chöglias to the Alp of that name, and to the left to the ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) pass. Superb view of the Fluchthorn. Down to the Heidelberg Hut and through the Fimber-Thal to ( 5 hrs .) Ischgl; see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The valley contracts; to the right are the ruin of Serviezel and a bridge over the Inn. On the right opens the narrow Val d'Assa (fine waterfall at the entrance), in which are the ( 2 hrs .) intermittent Fontana Chistagna, flowing once in 3 hrs . only, and an interesting stalactite cavern near it (guide 7 fr .). A fine view of the loftily situated Schleins is soon revealed; above it, to the left, rise the Muttler and the Stammerspitz (see above); to the right, Piz Lad (9190').

Next ( $41 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Strada and (2 M.) Martinsbruck (3400'; *Hôt. Denoth zur Post, unpretending). The scenery becomes grander. The Inn Bridge is the boundary between Switzerland and Tyrol (Austrian custom-house). On the left is another ruin named Serviezel. (More interesting but not always practicable path on the left bank of the Inn, by the Noveller-Hof, to Old Finstermünz, $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., see p. 443, and to Pfunds; guide advisable for novices.) The road to Nauders, on the Tyrolese side, winds up the wooded hill which separates the Inn Valley from that of the Stille Bach. (The old road, preferable, ascends to the right by the custom-house, past the small houses.) At the top of the hill we enjoy an admirable view of the Lower Engadine; to the N. towers Piz Mondin (10,325'). Lastly, a slight descent to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. by the old road, 6 M . by the new road) -

Bagni del Masino, with a good *Curhaus ( $3830^{\prime}$ ). This valley, called Val Porcellizza above this point, turns to the N.; at its head towers the fine Badile group. The E. peak (Piz Cengalo; $11,070^{\prime}$ ) is fatiguing, but safe for experts with good guides; the night is spent in the ( 4 hrs .) Badile Hut $\left(8280^{\circ}\right.$ ), whence the top is reached in 3 hrs. The central Piz Badile ( $10,860^{\prime}$ ) is very difficult (gaide 25 fr .). Change in vegetation very striking.

Maloja Pass (5943'), see p. 408. The road descends the abrupt slope of the Maloja (about $820^{\prime}$ ) in 12 bends, which walkers cut off. (From the sixth bend a path leads to the left to the Orlegna Waterfall, see p. 408.) The pines and other conifers just below the pass are very luxuriant. On the right bank of the Orlegna is the ruined church of San Gaudenzio (on the right), where we look back for the last time at the château of Belvedere on the Maloja.

3 M. Casaccia, Rom. Casätsch (4790'; *Hôt.-Pens. Stampa), the highest village in the Val Bregaglia, is commanded by the ruin of Turratsch. Bridle-path to Stalla over the Septimer, see p. 404.

The upper *Val Bregaglia, Ger. Bergeller-Thal, watered by the Mera or Maira, is Swiss. The language is Italian, but several of the parishes are Protestant. The road traverses the open valley to the S., and $3 / 4$ M. below Casaccia crosses the Orlegna before its junction with the Maira. Beyond the hamlet of ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Loblia ( $4720^{\prime}$ ) are the Cascata dell' Albigna (left; see below) and other fine waterfalls on the hillsides. The road descends in windings (cut off by the old road, in part the paved Roman road, following the telegraph) to Asarina (4435'). Then, beyond the mouth of Val Albigna and the Grotta di Albigna (used for beer), we reach - $71 / 2$ M. Vicosoprano, Rom. Vespran (35́65'; pop. 339; *Couronne et Poste), with a handsome church, at the influx of the Albigna into the Mera.

The Val Albigna is repaying. Above Vicosoprano ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) we diverge to the right from the road, and ascend through wood to the ( 3 hrs.) Cascata dell' Albigna, a fine fall in a wild ravine, near the foot of the Albigna Glacier. The adjoining chalet ( $6773^{\prime}$ ) is not always occupied. Thence over the Cacciabella Pass to Bondo, and over the Casnile Pass to the Maloja, see p. 409. - A trying route leads to the S. across the Albigna Glacier and the Forcella di San Martino (Passo di Zocca; 9000'), between the Cima di Castello ( $11,1 \overline{5} 5^{\prime}$; easily ascended from the pass, 2 hr8.) and Mte. di Zocca ( $10,425^{\prime}$ ), to the Val di Mello and San Mariino (p. 437).

Pizzo della Duana ( $10,300^{\prime} ; 6-7 \mathrm{hrs}$.), easy for adepts. From Vicosoprano, to the N., by Alp Zocchetta and Pianlo, to the small Lago di Val Campo, and up the arête from the E. side to the top. We may descend by Alp Pianaccio to Soglio. - Guides, Eman. Milesi and Aug. Clalüna, bath at Maloja in summer.

Next come Borgonuovo, Rom. Bornöv (3470'), and Stampa (*Alb. Piz Duan, moderate). Picturesquely situated on the hill to the right lies Coltura, with the château of Baron Castelmur and the white church of San Pietro. About $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. below Stampa, between telegraph-posts 24 and 23 , to the right of the road, are distinctly visible the traces of three ancient roads, one beside the other. At telegraph-post 22 are traces of an old bridge, still popularly known as Punt Alt, and on the left bank, at the foot of the Motta di San Pietro, is the continuation of the road, believed to be of Roman construction. Walnuts and chestnuts appear, and the full luxuriance of S. Alpine vegetation begins beyond the rocky gateway of La Porta, near - 11 M. Promontogno ( $2685^{\prime}$ ), picturesquely dominated by the church of Our Lady and the ruin of Castelmur, whence ancient walls stretch down to the valley. In an open situation below the village, to the left, is the *Hót. Bregaglia (R., L., \& A. 4-5, D. $4^{1} .2$, lunch $31 / 2$, pens. 9 fr.). Beyond it, at the entrance of Val Bondasca, of which we obtain a glimpse, lies the large village of Bondo, with a château of the Salis. For three months Bondo never sees the sun.

Pleasant excursion (guide desirable; Andrea Picenoni of Bondo) to Val Bondasca, and over the Lombardoi, Laretto, and Naravedro Alps to ( 4 hrs .) the highest Alp di Sciora ( $6785^{\prime}$ ), grandly situated : E. rise Piz Cacciabella ( $9745^{\prime}$ ) and the Pizzi di Sciora; S. are the Bondasca Glacier and the bold liadile group (p. 437). - Over the crevassed Bondasca Glacier and the Passo di Bondo (10,200') to the Val Porcellizza and Bagni del Masino (p. 437; hazardous; 10 hrs. from Bondo). - Over the Cacciabella Pass to the Albigna Glaci(r, or the Casnile Pass to the Maloja (15 hrs. from Promontogno), p. 409.

The road crosses the Mera, here joined by the wild Bondasca, and passes the houses of Spino ( $2630^{\prime}$ ). A road leads to the right to Soglio (see below). Mulberries, figs, and vines are luxuriant.

131/2 M. Castasegna (2235'; *Hôt.-Rest. Schumacher ; Alb. Svizzero), a closely-built but pleasant village, is the last Swiss place.

Pleasant walk through beautiful chestnut-wood, past the fall of Acqua di Stoll, to ( 1 hr .) Soglio, Ger. Sils ( $3570^{\prime}$; ${ }^{*}$ Hot.-Pens. Willy). In the hotelgarden the stone-pine or Alpine cedar is seen in curions juxtaposition with the chestnut. Superb view of the Bondasca Glacier. Descent by a new road to Spino (see above; carr. to Vicosoprano 10 fr.). - Over the Duana Pass to the Averser-Thal, see p. 396. - *Piz Gallegione ( $10,285^{\prime \prime}$ ), 5 hrs . from Soglio, with guide, is not difficult. From Soglio $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to the saddle (Forcella; 8924'), between the Gallegione and the Cima di Cavio; then to the left in $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hr}$. to the top (splendid view).

Just below Castasegna, beyond the Lovere, which descends from the right, is the Italian Dogana or custom-house.

Above Santa Croce (left), on the opposite bank of the Mera, once stood the thriving town of Plurs, with 2430 inhab., which was destroyed by a landslip from Mte. Conto in 1618. The mass of earth which buried the town is $60^{\prime}$ thick, and is now clothed with chestnuts. - Near Curtinaccio, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the road and $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from Chiavenna, is the old baronial Villa Roncalia, with a fine panelled hall.

To the right of Sant' Abbondio is the fine double fall of the Acqua Fraggia. Then through Campedello and the Borgo Nuovo Piuro, a suburb of Chiavenna, named after the buried town of Plurs, to 191/2 M. Chiavenna (p. 398). Station at the opposite end.

12 M. Bolladore ( $2840^{\prime}$; Posta or Angelo ; Hôt. des Alpes). On the N. slope is the pretty church of Sondalo. The valley contracts; vegetation becomes poorer; below us dashes the grey glacier-water of the Adda. $11 / 2$ M. Mondadizza; $11 / 2$ M. Le Prese; we again cross the Adda. The defile La Serra di Morignone, $33 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. long, separates the Valtellina from the region of Bormio. The Ponte del Diavolo witnessed a skirmish between Austrians and Garibaldians in 1859. At the end of the defile is the hamlet of Morignone in a green dale (Valle di Sotto), with the church above. The next group of houses is Sant 'Antonio. Beyond ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Ceppina opens the broad green valley (Piano) of Bormio, flanked with lofty pine-clad mountains, partly covered with snow. At Santa Lucia we cross the Frodolfo, which joins the Adda below the bridge, and turn to the N.E. to ( $31 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) -
$25^{1} / 2$ M. Bormio, Ger. Worms ( $4020^{\prime}$; *Posta or Leone d'Oro; Alb. della Torre, Piazza Cavour), at the entrance to Val Furva, an old-fashioned little town, with dilapidated towers.

From Вокмio тo Livigno, bridle-path ( 7 hrs .; without guide; better in the reverse direction; road to Semogo). At Premadio we cross the Adda and ascend the Val di Dentro to ( $12 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Isolaccia (p. 427). On the slope to the right lies the hamlet of Pedenosso; above it, on the saddle of Mte. delle Scale, rise two towers which once defended the pass (Scale di Fraele; 6370'). [By the Scale di Fraele to San Giacomo di Fraele ( $6390^{\prime}$ ), and by the Val Mora Pass and Giufplan (7723') to the Buffalora Alp, near the Ofen Pass (p. 429), and Zernetz, 12 hrs ; guide, advisable, 20 fr .] Beyond Isolaccia the path ascends on the left bank of the brook; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., Semogo (4673'; Martinelli); above, opposite, at the mouth of Val Viola, is the church of San Carlo. (Val Viola Pass to the Bernina, see p. 427.) From the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Foscagno Pass (7556'; *Cantina, plain, R. 2 fr.), with its two little lakes, we look back at the Val Viola and the S. Ortler Mits. Descent to ( 1 hr .) Trepalle ( $6850^{\prime}$ ); then to the W., over the hill of Dheira, to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Livigno (p. 429).

At Bormio the windings of the Stelvio road begin. (The diligence starts from the New Baths, 2 M . from Bormio ; carriage thither from Bormio in the morning, if ordered previously.)
$271 / 2$ M. The "New Baths of Bormio (Bagni Nuovi, 4380 '; R., L., $\&$ A. $33 / 4-5$, B. $11 / 2$, D. 4, S. 3, pens. $8-12$ fr.), on a terrace, with a fine view of the Bormio Valley and the surrounding mountains, are much visited in July and August, and remain open till the middle of October. The water $\left(92-100^{\circ}\right)$ is conveyed by pipes from the springs at the Old Baths (see below), on the rocks above ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.; path and road).

The Stelvio road, constructed in 1820-25, ascends in a long curve, affording superb views of the valley from Bormio to Ceppina; S.W., the Corno di San Colombano (9915'), Cima di Piazzi (11, 280'), and Cima Redasco (10,300') ; S.E., the Mte. Valaccetta (10,425') and the ice-pyramid of Piz Tresero $\left(11,820^{\prime}\right)$, at the upper end of Val Furva; W., the Val Viola (p. 427). We cross an iron bridge, and pass through a short tunnel (Galleria dei Bagni), beyond which the Old Baths (Bagni Vecchi; 4760') lie below us, on the left. Beyond the deep gorge of the Adda rises the abrupt Mte. delle Scale (see above).

To the left, farther on, the $A d d a$ emerges from the wild Val Fraele. A copious brook, which falls from the rocks below the mouth of the Val Fraele, is erroneously called the source of the Adda. A series of galleries, partly of wood and partly hewn in the rock, for protection against avalanches and torrents, carry the road through a defile (Il Diroccamento) to the refuges, the (first) Cantoniera di Piatta Martina (5585), and (second) Cantoniera Bruciato (6495'). On the W. side of the valley rises the huge Mte. Braulio (9775'). The road crosses the brook of Val Vitelli by the Ponte Alto, and ascends in windings (short-cuts). In a gorge to the left are the *Falls of the Braulio. We next pass the Casino dei Rottĕri di Spondalonga ( $7100^{\prime}$ ), a road-menders' hut, and the (third) Cantoniera al Piano del Braulio (7588'; inn, tolerable), with a chapel.

34 M. Santa Maria (8160'; Gobbi's Inn), the Quarta Cantoniera and the Italian custom-house, in a bleak Alpine valley.

A bridle-path (road in progress) leads to the left from the Cantoniera Santa Maria to the Wormser Joch (Umbrail Pass, or Giogo di Santa Maria; S240 ), and descends the Muranza Valley to ( $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$.) the Swiss village of St. Maria in the Münster-Thal (p. 442); thence by Taufers in $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. to Mals (p. 442) in the Adige Valley.
*Piz Umbrail ( 9945 '), the E. and highest peak of the bold serrated mountains bounding the Val Braulio on the N., is a splendid point ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; guide, $5-6 \mathrm{fr}$.). By the Dogana we ascend to the right, up a grassy slope and then a stony zigzag path. Superb view (panorama by Faller). - Travellers from Bormio diverge to the left from the road, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. above the 3 rd Cantoniera (see above), ascend to ( 1 hr .) a small lake, and then over rocks to the ( 1 hr .) top. Descent to the 4th Cantoniera.

The road affords glimpses of the Münster-Thal to the left. On the right is the glistening Eben Glacier. The pass is free from snow only in warin summers; snow, 6 ' deep, often lies by the roadside in June. On the ( $11 / 2$ M.) Stelvio Pass (Stilfser Joch or Ferdinandshöhe; $90 \overline{o ̄}^{\prime}$ ') are a road-menders' house and the Dreisprachen-Hütte (inn). A column to the right marks the boundary between Italy and Tyrol ; $1 / 2$ M. to the N. is the frontier of Switzerland (Grisons).

A path ascends to the left in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the ${ }^{\text {D D }}$ reisprachenspitze ( $9325^{\prime}$ ), a rocky height affording an admirable view, especially of the Ortler, whose snowy dome rises immediately opposite. The bare reddish Monte Pressura (Röthelspitze; 9940') intercepts the view, to the N., of the Münster-Thal.

The road descends the talc-slate slopes in long windings. To the right rise the Geisterspitze $\left(11,405^{\prime}\right)$ and Tuckettspitze $\left(11,385^{\prime}\right)$. The views from the road are finer than from the short-cuts.
$40 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Franzenshöhe ( 7180 '; Inn, R. 70 kr .). To the S. the huge Madatsch Glacier descends far into the valley. Farther on ( $11 / 2$ M.), just beyond the 18 th kilomètre, Mme. de Tourville, an English lady, was murdered by her husband in 1876. The finest point of view is the ( 1 M. ) * Weisse Knott ( $6110^{\prime}$; rfmts.), a small platform: before us, the sombre Madatschspitz; to the right, the Madatsch Glacier; to the left, the Trafoi Glacier, and above it, the Pleisshorn and Ortler; in the valley far below, amidst pines, is the chapel of the Three Holy Springs (p. 442). In the distance, to the N., rises the snowy pyramid of the Weisskugel. The marble obelisk is a memoral of Joseph Pichler, who first ascended the Ortler (1804). Far below lies ( $21 / 2$ M.) -

Pleasant walk ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) to the ${ }^{*}$ Three Holy Springs ( $5240^{\circ}$ ), which rise in the valley below, at the foot of the Ortler. A good path diverges from the road to the left near the Trafoi Hotel, and leads at the same level through meadows and wood, and over moraine. At the end of the valley are figures of Christ, Mary, and St. John, under a roof, and from their breasts flows the icy cold 'holy water'. Adjacent are a chapel and an auberge for pilgrims. Opposite rises the huge and sheer Madatsch, over the dark limestone rocks of which fall two brooks. Above, to the left, are the icemasses of the Trafoier and Lower Ortler-Ferner, overtopped by the Trafoier Eiswand. The scene is interesting and impressive.

We follow the boisterous Trafoi-Bach, which we cross four times. 3 M. Gomagoi, Ger. Beidewasser ( $4170^{\prime}$ '; *Reinstadler, plain), with a small fort. To the right opens the picturesque Sulden Valley, with the ( $21 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) village of St. Gertrud or Sulden ( 6050 '; *Sulden Hotel, first-class; *Eller; Ortlerhof; comp. Baedeker's Eastern Alps).

The narrow valley barely affords room for the road and river. The latter forms several falls. On the hill to the left lies the village of Stilfs, Ital. Stelvio, which gives its name to this route. $-41 / 2$ M. -

53 M. Prad ( $2950^{\prime}$; Neue Post; Alte Post) lies at the foot of the Stelvio route. The road intersects the broad valley of the Etsch or Adige, and crosses a marsh and the river by a long viaduct, to ( 2 M .) Neu-Spondinig ( $2900^{\prime}$; *Hirsch), on the highroad from Botzen and Meran to Landeck, $11 / 2$ M. to the W. of Eyrs.

Walkers avoid the glaring and fatiguing road by Spondinig by diverging to the left at Prad, on the right bank of the Adige. This ronte, skirting the mountains, and passing several ruined castles, leads to Agums, Lichtenberg (inn), and Glurns ( 3260 '; *Sonne), a small town with an old church, and ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Mals (see below).

To the Múnster-Thal a narrow road leads to the W. from Glurns on the right bank of the Rambach, which ( $2 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{M}$.) it crosses. (Avoid track on right bank, by Riffair.) The ( 5 M.$)$ loftily situated village of Taufers ( $4042^{\prime}$; "Post), with its three churches, is commanded by three ruined castles. (Over La Cruschetta to Scarl, see p. 433.) Thence to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Swiss frontier and ( $1 / 2$ M.) Münster, Rom. Mustair (3765'; Hot. Münsterhof; Piz Ciavalatsch; Hirsch), the first village in the Grisons, with a large Benedictine church. The road descends, crosses the Rambach (passing the Aua da Pisch, a fine waterfall in a wooded gorge to the left), and ascends gradually by Sielva to (2 M.) St. Maria ( $4553^{\prime} ;$; Piz Umbrail; ${ }^{}$ Weisses Kreuz), a large village at the mouth of Val Muranza. Over the Wormser Joch to Bormio, p. 441; over the Ofen Pass to Zernetz, p. 429; over the Scarl Pass to Schuls, p. 433.

The Nauders road skirts the hills, at a distance from the Adige. The valley is called the Vintschgau, after the Venosti, its ancient inhabitants. To the left rises the ruin of Lichtenberg. On the right, near Schluderns, is the Churburg, a château of Count Trapp. To the left lies Glurns (see above), and on the road lies Tartsch. Near ( $61 / 2$ M.) Mals is the ancient tower of the Frölichsburg.
$61 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Mals ( $3440^{\prime}$; Post or Adler ; Bär; Hirsch) is a village of Roman origin. (To Val d'Uina, by Sursass, see p. 432.) Beyond the Adige, on a hill to the left, rises the large Benedictine Abbey of Marienberg. To the left, farther on, is Burgeis, with the castle of Fürstenburg. This monotonous part of the valley is called the Malser Heide. The road ascends and reaches the E. bank of the Heider-See, and beyond it -

69 M. St. Valentin auf der Heide (4695'; Post). Looking back, we have a superb *Virw (finest when approached from Nauders) of the ice-clad Ortler range, which fills the background. Skirting the E. bank of the Mitter-See, the road leads to ( $31 / 2$ M.) Graun, at the entrance of the Langtauferer-Thal. To the left is the green ReschenSee, the source of the Adige. Beyond (2 M.) Reschen (4890'; *Villa Fischersheim; Stern), at the N. end of the lake, we reach the Reschen-Scheideck ( $4900^{\prime}$ ), the watershed between the Black Sea and the Adriatic, and descend by the Stille Bach to ( $41 / 2$ M.) -

79 M. Nauders (4470'; Post; Löue: Mondschein). The old castle of Naudersberg contains the district law-courts.

From Nauders to the Lower Engadine (dilig. to Schuls daily), p. 434.

106. From Nauders to Bregenz over the Arlberg.

 Comp. Maps, pp. 370, 58.118 m . Diligence from Nauders to Landeck ( 27 M .) daily in 5 hrs . (fare 4 fl .40 kr .; also an omnibus). Rallway from Landeck to Bregenz, 91 M ., in $3-4$ hrs. ; fares $10 \mathrm{fl} .58,6 \mathrm{fl} .28,3 \mathrm{fl} .44 \mathrm{kr}$.

The road through the Finstermünz Pass runs high above the Inn, being hewn at places in the slate-rock. Two avalanchegalleries. At the entrance to the pass is a small fort, and beyond it a pretty waterfall. The finest point is Hoch-Finstermünz ( $3630^{\prime}$ ), a group of houses (*Hotel). Far below, on the Inn, is Alt-Finstermünz ( $3210^{\prime}$ ), with its old tower and a bridge. The ravine of the Inn, with the Engadine Mts. in the background, is very picturesque.

The road descends gradually, through three short tunnels, and crosses the Inn $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{M}$. before reaching -

8 M. Pfunds ( $3185^{\prime}$ ), which consists of two villages, Pfunds, on the right bank, and Stuben (Traube, Post), through which the road runs, on the left. To the S.W. towers Piz Mondin (10,375'), a peak of the N. Engadine chain; S.E., the Glockthurm (11,010') and other peaks of the Oetzthaler Ferner. The road again crosses the Inn near ( $43 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Tösens. Then ( $43 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) - $171 / 2$ M. Ried (2875'; Post; Maass), a thriving village, with the castle of Siegmundsried. The road crosses to the left bank at ( 2 M .) Prutz (Rose), at the mouth of the Kaunser-Thal, in which, farther on, the Grieskogel is visible. Above Prutz, on a rock to the left, is the ruin of Laudegg; near it lies the village of Ladis (3900'), with sulphur-baths, $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. from Ried (new road); $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. higher is Obladis ( $45.45{ }^{\prime}$ ), a favourite mineral bath, well fitted up and finely situated.

The road recrosses the Inn by the ( $21 / 2$ M.) Pontlatz Bridge ( $2820^{\prime}$ ), 5 M. from Landeck, where the Bavarian invaders were signally defeated by the Tyrolese 'Landsturm' in 1703 and 1809. To the right, Flies, with Schloss Piedenegg. To the left, beyond the Inn, a fall of the Urgbach, high above which is the village of Hochgullmig. The Inn dashes through a gorge and forms several cataracts.

27 M. Landeck (2670'; *Post; Schwarzer Adler; Goldner Adler), a large village on both banks of the Inn, is commanded by the ancient Castle Landeck, now tenanted by poor families. The Railway Station (*Restaurant, R. 1 fl .20 kr .) lies 1 M . to the E.

The *Arlbbrg Railway crosses the Inn. To the left, a glimpse of the picturesque Landeck; to the right rises the huge Parseierspitze ( $9965^{\prime}$ ). The train ascends on the right bank of the Sanna to (31 M.) station Pians (2990'), opposite the village of that name (Alte and Neue Post), which lies far below. Above it is Grins. Several viaducts. $331 / 2$ M. Wiesberg, with an old château. We cross the Trisanna, which descends from the Patznaun-Thal to the Rosanna to form the Sanna, by a bridge, 280 yds . long and $180^{\prime}$ high. Tunnel.

37 M. Strengen (3355'), at the base of the Peziner Spitze ( $8353^{\prime}$ ). To the W., the Riffler ( $10,365^{\prime}$ ), with its glacier. We follow the right bank of the Rosanna to ( $401 / 2$ M.) Flirsch ( $3795^{\prime}$; Post), at the foot of the Eisenspitze $\left(9400^{\prime}\right)$, prettily situated. The valley expands. We cross the Rosanna three times to ( $441 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Pettneu, and twice more to ( $491 / 2$ M.) St. Anton ( 4270 ; *Post; Adler), the highest village in the Rosanna or Stanzer-Thal, at the E. base of the Arlberg.

The train enters the great *Arlberg Tunnel, nearly $61 / 3 \mathrm{M}$. long (St. Gotthard Tunnel $91 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. ), ascends slightly to the middle of it ( $4300^{\prime}$ above the sea-level; $1600^{\prime}$ below the Arlberg Pass), and then descends to the Kloster - Thal. 57 M. Langen (3990'; buffet), on the right bank of the Alfenz. On the N. side of the valley the train descends over several viaducts to ( 62 M.) Danöfen and - $66 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Dalaas ( 3055 ) ; the village ( $2750^{\prime}$; Post) is charmingly situated far below. Several viaducts and tunnels. $591 / 2$ M. Hintergasse ( $2700^{\prime}$ ). At ( 74 M .) Bratz ( $2315^{\prime}$; Löwe) we reach the floor of the valley. Then down the broad Illthal to -

80 M. Bludenz (1905'; *Bludenzer Hof, Scesaplana, *Hôt. Arlberg, at the station; in the town, *Kreuz), prettily situated. To the S. is the picturesque ravine of the Brandner-Thal, with the ice-clad Scesaplana in the background.

Lüner-See and Scesaplana, very repaying. (To the lake $6-61 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$., easy.) We descend and cross the Ill to Buirs, and ascend the charming Brandner-Thal to ( 3 hrs .) Brand ( $3360^{\prime}$; ${ }^{* B}$ Beck; "Scesaplana). Then up the right bank of the Alvierbach to Alp Lagant, and up zigzags over grass, debris, and rock. In $3-31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. we reach the rocky saddle on the N.W. side of the beantiful blue Lüner-See ( $6475^{\prime}$ ), the largest lake among the Rhætian Alps, 4 M. in circuit. On the W. bank is the Douglass Hut (inn).

The ascent of the "Scesaplana ( $9735^{\prime}$ ), the highest peak of the Rhætikon chain, is toilsome, Dut safe ( 4 hrs .; guide from Bludenz $91 / 2$, from Brand 7 fl.). Leaving the Douglass Hut, we skirt the lake a little way, then ascend to the right, over grass, loose stones, and the dreary, rock-strewn Todte Alp. Lastly through a steep 'cheminée' to the arête, and easily to the top. The imposing prospect embraces all Swabia, as far N. as Ulm ;
N.E., the Vorarlberg and Algäu Alps; E., the Oetzthal, Stabai, and Zillerthal Alps; S. and W., the Swiss Alps from the Bernina to the Bernese Mts., the Rhine Valley, Canton Appenzell, and Lake Constance. - Descent to the Schamella Club Hut, and by Alp Palus to ( 4 hrs .) Seevois in the Prätigau, p. 371. From the Douglass Hut to ( 7 hrs .) Schruns (see below) a fine route leads past the grand "Schweizer-Thor ( $7055^{\prime \prime}$; pass to the Prätigau, p. 371) to the Oefen Pass ( $7520^{\prime}$ ), and descends to the finely situated Sporer$A l p$, and through the Gauer-Thal (see below; adepts need no guide).

The Montafon (Map, p. 370; for a detailed description, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps), to the S.E. of Bludenz, is a beautiful and populous valley, watered by the III, and separated from the Prätigau on the S. by the Rhaetikon Mts. The road (omnibus to Schruns several times daily, 80 kr .) leads by St. Peter to ( 4 M .) St. Anton, a hamlet on a mound of debris at the base of the Schroarzhorn; then, on the right bank of the IIl, to ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Schruns (2260'; pop. 1710; ${ }^{}$ Taube; "Löve; ${ }^{}$ Stern), the chief place in the valley, charmingly situated at the foot of the Bartholomüberg ( $3560^{\prime}$; a fine point of view). On the opposite bank of the Ill lies Tschaguns, at the entrance to the Gaver-Thal, whence a path crosses the Drusenthor ( $7220^{\prime}$ ), between the Drusenfuh ( $9300^{\prime}$ ) and Sulzfiuh (see below), to ( 8 hrs .) Schiers (p. 371) in the Prätigau. (To the Lüner-See, see p. 444.) By the Partnun Pass, or by the Plasseggen Pass, to ( $7-8$ hrs.) Küblis, see p. 372. - The "Sulzfuh (9265'; 7 hrs.; guide 9 f.) is a splendid point, hardly inferior to the Scesaplana: to the Tilisuna Hut ( $7255^{\prime}$; inn) 5 hrs ., to the top 2 hrs . more (descent to Küblis, p. 372).

Above Schrans the valley contracts. To the S. of ( 5 M .) Gallenkirch (2730'; Adler, Rössle) opens the Gargellen-Thal, with the finely situated village of Gargellen (5164'; Hôt. Madrisa), whence tolerable routes cross the St. Antönien-Joch ( $7850^{\prime}$ ) to the W. to ( 6 hrs.) Küblis (p. 372), and the Schlap-piner-Joch (7220') to the E. to (7-8 hrs.) Klosters in the Prätigan (p. 372). Passing Gurtepohl, we next reach (5 M.) Gaschurn (3120'; "Rössl; ${ }^{\circ}$ Krone), prettily situated at the mouth of the Gannera-Thal, and ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{MI}$.) Patenen ( $3435^{\prime}$; Sonne), the last Montafon village. (Passes to the Patznaun, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.)

From Patenen over the Fermont Pass to Guarda in the Lower Engadine ( $10 \mathrm{hrs} . ;$ guide), trying, but attractive. We ascend the Gross-Fermunt-Thal to the right, passing the grand Stüber or Höllen Fall, to the ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Madlener-Haus ( $649{ }^{\prime}$ '; inn), on the Gross-Fermunt-Alp, W. of the Bieler Höhe. Thence to the S., past the source of the Ill, to the ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Wiesbadener Hütte ( $8400^{\prime}$; inn), on the margin of the great Fermunt Glacier, and over the easy glacier to the ( 1 hr .) Fermunt Pass ( $9180^{\prime}$ ), between (E.) the Dreiländerspitze $\left(10,350^{\prime}\right)$, and (W.) Piz Buin $\left(10,880^{\prime}\right)$, the highest of the Vorarlberg Mts. (ascended by adepts without difficulty, from the Wiesbadener Hütte $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.). Steep descent to $V a l$ Tuoi and ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Guarda (p. 430). - By the Rothe Furka to Klosters, see p. 374.

84 M. Strassenhaus. We cross the $I l l$; then the Mänkbach, issuing from the Gamperton-Thal on the left. 87 M . Nenzing. $91 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Frastanz, at the mouth of the Samina-Thal. The Illthal, called the Wallgau below Bludenz, contracts. At Feldkirch the 111 forces its way through the limestone rocks (Obere and Untere Illklamm) before it falls into the broad Rhine Valley. We cross the Ill, enter the Upper Illklamm, and pass through a short tunnel.
$93 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Feldkirch (1510'; pop. 3800; *Englischer Hof, R. from 80 kr ., D. $11 / 2 \mathrm{fl}$.; Vorarlberger $\boldsymbol{H}$ of, at the rail. stat., R. from 80 kr ., pens. from $2 \frac{1}{2}$ ft. ; Bär; Löwe; Schäfle; beer at the Rössl; Rail. Restaurant), a natural fortress, hemmed in by mountains, and once the key to Tyrol, is a pleasant little town. Above it rises the ruined Schattenburg. A large Jesuit school here is called the Stella Matutina.

The Parish Church, of 1487, contains a 'Descent from the Cross' attributed to Holbein; and the Capuchin Church has another good 'Descent'. By the Gymnasium is a small botanical garden.

Fine view of the Rhine Valley from the $*$ Margarethenkapf $\left(1830^{\circ}\right)$, a hill 20 min . to the W. , on the left bank of the Ill, with the villa and pleasant park of Hr. von Tschavoll (tickets at the hotels; or visiting-card suffices).

From Frldkirch to Bechs ( $111 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) railway in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. (fares $60,40,20$ kr.). It sweeps round the Ardetzenberg, crosses the Ill at Nofels, and intersects the broad Rhine Valley. Stations, Nendeln and Schaan. (Vaduz, 2 M. to the S., p. 66.) Near Buchs (p.65) it crosses the Rhine.

We skirt the E. side of the wooded and vine-clad Ardetzenberg. 96 M . Rankweil, at the foot of the Laternser-Thal, with a picturesque church. From the alluvial plain of the Rhine rise wooded knolls, such as the Kummenberg ( 2190 ), to the left. Near ( $1011 / 2$ M.) Götzis, with its modern church, are two ruined castles of the Montforts.
$104^{1} / 2$ M. Hohenems ( $1420^{\prime}$; *Post; Krone) lies at the foot of bold rocks, crowned with the ruins of Neu - and Alt-Hohenems. In the village is a cháteau of Count Waldburg-Zeil. We cross the Dornbirner Ach.

1091⁄2 M. Dornbirn (1435'; pop. 10,700; *Hôt. Weiss; *Dornbirner Hof; *Hirsch; Mohr), a thriving town, more than 2 M . long. The S.W. background is formed by the Appenzell Mts., the Kamor and Hohe-Kasten, the snow-clad Sentis, and the serrated Curfirsten.
$1111 / 2$ M. Schwarzach; 1141/2 M. Lautrach. (Junction-line, left, to St. Margrethen, p. 65.) The train crosses the Bregenzer Ach to -

118 M. Bregenz. - *Oesterreichischer Hof, by the pier; Hôt. Europa, Montrort, Habsburger Hof, at the station; "Weisses Kredz; Post; ${ }^{\text {*Schweizerhof, Römer-Str.; Krose; Bregenzer Hof, near the rail. }}$ station. - Wine at $F$. Kinz's ; beer at For'ster's Brevery and at the Hirsch; Railvay Restaurant.

Bregenz (1260'; pop. 7000), the Roman Brigantium, capital of the Vorarlberg, is beautifully situated at the E. end of Lake Constance. The Old, or Cpper, Town, on a height, marks the site of the Roman Castrum, and once had two gates, the northern of which survives. Good survey from the Pier.

The $=$ Gebhardsberg ( $1955^{\prime} ; 3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., last half through wood), with the ruin of Hohen-Bregenz, an auberge, and a pilgrimage-church, commands a charming view of the Lake of Constance, the valley of the Bregenzer Ach and Rhine, and the Appenzell and Glarus Alps. Picturesque foreground, formed by abrupt pine-clad hills.

The *Pfander (3490'), to the E. of Bregenz, affords a far more extensive prospect. The path ( $13 / 4-2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) leads across the Berg Isel (rifle-range and restaurant) to Weissenreute, and ascends (white marks) to the right through wood, by Hintermoos, to the large *Hotel (pens. $31 / 2 \mathrm{fl}$.), 5 min . below the top. The carriage-road ( $2-21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) leads past the 'Berg Isel' (see above), and throngh wood, to the hamlet of Fluh (Adler, Tranbe), halfway, and the hotel.

Bellinzona (775'; pop. 4500 ; Rail. Restaurant; *Hôt. Suisse et Poste, R., L., & A.3-5, D. 5 fr. ; *Hôt. St. Gotthard, near the station; *Cervo ; Leone d'Oro, moderate; Rail. Hotel, plain; Alb. Ristorante Ferrari), a picturesque town, quite Italian in character, with a fine abbey-church of the 16 th cent., is the capital of Canton Ticino. On the W. rises the Castello Grande, on an isolated hill; on the slope to the E. are the Castello di Mezzo, or di Svitto, and the lofty Castello

Corbario or Corbè ( $1500^{\prime}$ ). Fortified by the Visconti in the middle ages, Bellinzona was regarded as the key to the St. Gotthard Pass. In the 16-18th cent. the three castles were occupied by the Uri, Schwyz, and Unterwalden governors (comp. p. 122). The Castello Grande is now a prison and arsenal (fee); the other two are in ruins. Bellinzona is the junction of the St. Gotthard line (to Lugano-Como, see below) and the branches to Locarno (p. 454 ) and Luino (p. 45'7).

Beautiful walk of $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.: from the station, to the $S$., through the town ( 10 min.), then, by the Banca Ticinense, ascend the stony path to the left, leading to the highest castle. After 20 min . the path to the castle diverges to the right; the path to the left leads to the conspicuous chapel of Santa Maria della Salute, which affords a picturesque view of the two lower castles and the Ticino Valley down to the Lago Maggiore. We may descend to the left, a little below the chapel, by a path between vineyardwalls to the station in 20-25 minutes.

Ascent of Monte Camoghe (7303'; from Bellinzona 7-8 hrs., with guide), see p. 452; by the Passo di San Jorio to the Lake of Como, see p. 471.

A tunnel carries us under the Castello di Mezzo (p. 447). At ( ${ }^{1} / 2$ M.) Giubiasco ( $765^{\prime}$; Pens. Camoghè) the lines to Lago Maggiore ( p .457 ) diverge to the right.

Sweeping round to the left, the Lugano line nears the mountains near Camorino, and ascends the Monte Cenere, through walnut and chestnut trees. Sant' Antonio lies below on the right. $\quad 5 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Cadenazzo (p. 454). Two tunnels. View, improving as we ascend, of the Ticino Valley, the influx of the Ticino into Lago Maggiore, Locarno, and the Val Maggia Mts. We pass under Monte Cenere, the top of which is $370^{\prime}$ above us, by a tunnel, 1840 yds . long ( $1437^{\prime \prime}$ above the sea-level; shut windows), to -

9 M. Rivera-Bironico ( $1560^{\prime}$ ), in the bleak dale of the Leguana, which soon joins the Vedeggio, from Mte. Camoghè (p. 452), to form the Agno. Beyond a short tunnel is ( 15 M .) Taverne $\left(1105^{\prime}\right.$; Inn $)$. At Lamone (1033') the train leaves the Agno, and ascends past Cadempino and Vezia to the Massagno Tunnel ( $1135^{\prime} ; 1016$ yds. long).
$18 \frac{1}{2}$ M. Lugano. - The Railway Station (1110'; Pl. c, 2; *Restaurant; view) lies high above the town, to which we descend by road, path, or Cable Tramway (Funicolare; Pl. Lugano ( $905^{\prime}$; pop. 8000), the largest town in Canton Ticino, charmingly situated on the lake of that name, is a pleasant place for some stay. The scenery is Italian in character; numerous villages and country-seats are scattered along the banks of the lake; the lower hills are clad with vineyards and gardens, which contrast beautifully with the dark-green chestnuts and walnuts above them. T'o the S . rises Monte San Salvatore, wooded to its top; to the E., beyond the lake, is Monte Caprino, with Monte Generoso to its right. T'o the left, Monte Brè and the beautiful Monte Boglia. On the N. opens the broad valley of the Cussarate, backed by an Alpine amphitheatre, in which the serrated Monte Camoghè is conspicuous.

A broad Quay, planted with trees, is a favourite evening promenade. Opposite the pier is the handsome Palazzo Civico (P1. C, 3), with a fine colonnaded court; to the E. of it is the Piazza Giardino, with promenades and a meteorological column. The Piazza della Riforma, or Piazza Grande, lies farther back. At the S. end of the quay rises a Fountain Statue of Tell, by Vela. - The church of Santa Maria degli Angioli (adjoining the Park Hotel) contains a fresco on the rood-loft by Bernardino Luini, the *Passion, one of his finest works, with numerous figures. On the wall to the left is the Last Supper, in three sections, and in the 1st Chapel on the right is a tine Madonna, both on panel by Luini.

The interior of the town, with its arcades, workshops in the open air, and granite-paved streets, is also quite Italian. San Lorenzo (P1. C, 2), the principal church, on the hill below the station, probably erected by Tommaso Rodari at the end of the 15 th cent., has a marble façade. "View of town and lake from the terrace of the rail-way-station.

Walks (with benches and finger-posts). South, by the highroad through the Paradiso suburb (P1. A, B, 6) and at the foot of Mte. San Salvatore, to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) cape of San Martino. To Melide, see p. 452 . At Paradiso a path leads (right; 5 min .) to the Belvedere, with view of lake and town. - West, by the winding Ponte Tresa road (P1. A, B, 4, 5; short-cuts), uphill to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) farourite Restaurant du Jardin (also pension); the village of Sorengo lies on a hill to the right ( $1320^{\prime}$ '; fine view from the church); to the W. is the Lake of Muzzano. Opposite the Restaurant du Jardin a road leads left, by Gentilino, to ( $11 / 2$ M.) the conspicuous church of Sant Abbondio (1345'), adjoining which are several monuments by Vela. A very attractive walk ( 3 M . more) leads from Gentilino, to the right, through fine chestnut-woods to Montugnola, and back to Sant' Abbondio. - East, from Piazza Castello [where No. 78, on the right, is the entrance to the shady park of the Villa Gabrini (Pl. D, E, 3), with a marble figure of 'Ia Desolazione' by Vinc. Vela; fee $1 / 2-1 \mathrm{fr}$.], the Via Carlo Cattaneo crosses the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Cassarate, and leads to ( $3 / 4$ M.) Cassarate (Pl. G, 3 ; electric tramway, see p. 449); thence we follow the sunny road at the foot of Mte. Brè to the right to ( 1 M .) Castagnola (1080'), in full view of Mte. San Salvatore (good restaurant at the Villa Moritz, p. 449). Thence a bridle-path (fingerpost) ascends through vineyards, descends again at a second fingerpost, and then runs up and down along the lake, skirting the rocky bay of Sasso, to (1-11/4 hr.) Gandria (p.469).

The finest excursion is to "Mte. San Salvatore ( $3000^{\prime}$ ), by Cable Railway ( 1 M . long) from Paradiso in $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (fare 3, down 2 fr.; return-ticket, including R., S., \& B., 10 fr.). The lower station (1245'; rfmits.; Pl. A, 6) lies $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. from the Lugano-Paradiso pier (steamboat from Lugano-Città in 10 min.$)$. The line, with an initial gradient of $17: 100$, crosses the St. Gotthard Railway, traverses a viaduct (112 yds. long; 38:100), and reaches the halfway station Pazzallo (1635'; with engine-house for dynamos, etc.), where carriages are changed. The line ascends over granite rock, at an increasing gradient (at last $60: 100$ ), to the terminus ( $2915^{\prime}$; "Hôt. Kulm). Thence on foot to the ( 7 min .) summit ( Vetta), on which there is a pilgrimage-chapel. The *VIew embraces the Lake of Lugano, the mountains and their wooded slopes, and the beautiful villas and gardens above Lugano; to the E., above Porlezza, is Monte Legnone (p. 471); to the N., above Lugano, rises the serrated Monte Camoghe; to the left of this are the distant Rheinwald Mts.; W. is the Monte Rosa chain, with the Matterhorn and other Valaisian Alps to the right. (Panorama by Imfeld. Morning-light best.) - Walkers pass under the St. Gotthard Railway to ( $1 \frac{1}{2}$ M.) Pazzallo, follow the 'Al Monte' lane to the E., and cross ( 12 min.) the cable-tramway. To the top 2 hrs. in all (rough and neglected path, not advisable). - The beautifut and fragrant Daphne Cneorum and the Helleborus niger, or 'Christmas Rose', both of which thrive in gardens, are found on this mountain.

The *Monte Brè ( 3050 ; ascent $21 / 2-3 \mathrm{hrs}$., descent $13 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.; gaide needless; mule 10 fr.) is another beautiful point. Electric Tramway to Cassarate (p. 450 ); road thence, to the N., to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. ) Viganello (1007'). Below the hill crowned by the church of Pazzalino we take the bridle-path to the right to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Albonago ( $152{ }^{\circ}{ }^{\prime}$ ). Thence we ascend, partly between walls, and among chestnuts, figs, and vines, to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Aldesago ( $1950^{\prime}$ ), on the hillside, the highest village seen from Lugano. Aldesago is also reached in $3 / 4-1 \mathrm{hr}$. from Castagnola (p. 450), by Ruvigliano. Higher up , the path divides: both branches round the hill to the ( $1 / 2.3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) village of Brè ( $2590^{\prime}$; 2 hrs. from Lugano; restaurant), at the back of the hill. From the church a narrow path ascends to the W., through brushwood, to the ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) top. This path also divides: that to the right ascends at once; that to the left first leads to a spur towards Lugano, and then ascends at the back of the hill. Beautiful view of Lake Lugano, especially towards Porlezza, and of the mountains around. Lugano is not visible from the top. - On the slopes of Mte. Brè and Mte. Boglia (see below) grow the pretty Epilobium Dodonæi, the charming little Selaginella helvetica, a fine species of Aspidium lobatum, and a wealth of Christmas roses (Helleborus niger).

Opposite Lugano, to the E., rises Monte Caprino, the 'Cantine' or rockcellars of which are much visited on Sundays and holidays (in winter Mon. \& Frid.; closed in the evening). Good 'Asti' of icy coolness is sold here. Another favourite resort is the Cavallino Restaurant, to the S. of the Cantine, with a fine waterfall near. Rowing-boat there and back in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. , incl. stay (with one rower 4 fr .) ; steamer on Sundays and holidays. - From the cellars a path ascends Mite. Caprino, and follows the ridge to the $\mathrm{S} . \mathrm{W}$. to the ( 3 hrs .) Colmo di Creccio ( $4327^{\prime}$ ), a picturesque point of view.

To San Bernardo and Bigorio (to stat. Taverne, $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.). A carttrack on the fertile slopes to the N. of Lugano leads by Massagno, Savosa, Porza, and Comano to the ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) church of San Bernardo ( $2310^{\prime}$ ), on a rocky plateau, with a picturesque view. (At the S.E. base of the hill are the village of Canobio and the château of Trevano.) Thence (at first following the hill-top, to the N.; no path) to Sula and the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) monastery of Bigorio ( $2360^{\prime}$; rfmts.), charmingly situated. (The church contains a Madonna attributed to Guercino or Perino del Vaga.) Back by (1 M.) Ponte Capriasca (1425'; church containing a good old copy of Leonardo da Vinci's Last Supper ; best light 11-1) to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) rail. stat. Taverne (p.448).
*Monte Boglia ( $4960^{\prime} ; 4-4 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{hrs}$; guide desirable). Ascent by Soragno and Alp Bolla, or from Bre (see above) in $13 / \mathrm{hr}$. View less extensive but more picturesque than from Mte. Generoso. Descent on the E. side through the Val Solda to Castello and San Mametle (steamboat-pier; p. 469) or Oria (p.469).

Monte Camoghè (7303'; 7-8 hrs. from Lugano; guide from Colla) affords a grand Alpine panorama, from Mte. Rosa to the Ortler. We drive in $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$. , by Canobio and Tesserete ( ${ }^{*} \mathrm{Sev}$. Antonini), and then to the right through Val Colla, to (10 M.) Scareglia or Lower Colla (3205'; "Osteria Garzirola). We then ascend on foot by Colla and Alp Pietrarossa, leaving Alle. Garzirola (see below) to the right, to ( $3 \mathrm{hrs)}$. Alp Sertena ( $5922^{\prime}$ ) and the $(11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) top. - Optional descent to the N., by the Rivolte and Leveno Alps, to Val Morobbia, Giubiasco, and (5 hrs.) Bellinzona (p. 448; ascent of the Camoghe thence, 7-8 hrs.). - Monte Garzirola (6925'), 3 hrs. from Colla, also repaying. - From Val Colla the pass of San Lucio (5C32') leads to Porlezza, and the Cima di Fojorma (5928'; fine view) to Val Solda (p. 4(9), another path to which passes the curious dolomitic Denti di Vecchia.

Monte Tamaro ( $6433^{\prime} ; 4$ hrs.; guide), from Taverne (p. 448) or Bironico (p. 448), not difficult. Splendid view, with Lago Maggiore in the distance.

Pleasant drive in a light car (16-17 fr.) by Bioggio ( $1053^{\prime}$ ) to ( 2 hrs .) Cademario (2407'), whence the trap is sent to Agno. Then walk up to ( 20 min .) San Bernardo ( $2955^{-1}$; view of Lago Maggiore, etc.), down to the Aronno-Iseo road, and follow it to the left to Iseo ( $2254^{\prime}$; passing near the chapel of Santa Maria, 2560'), Cimo, Vernate, and (2 hrs.) Agno (p. 465).

To the Grotto of Osteno, see p. 469.

Railway from Lugano to Como (Milan). The train crosses the Tassino Valley on a viaduct, $130^{\prime}$ high (view to the left), and passes through the Paradiso Tunnel ( 828 yds.) under the N.E. spur of Monte San Sulvatore (p. 451). It then skirts the lake, with views (left) of the wooded E. bank and its villages. 23 M. Melide ( $905^{\prime}$ ), 11/2 M. from Cape San Martino (p. 450 ), with the Restaurant \& Pension Demicheli (from 5 fr.) and the Grotto Civelli (cold viands). Train and road cross the lake to Bissone by a stone viaduct $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long, which sadly mars the scenery, with an arch at each end for the passage of boats. Fine views on both sides. Two tunnels. 25 M . Maroggia (Ristorante Mara, with rooms), at the W. base of Mte. Generoso. View of the lake on the right.
$271 / 2$ M. Capolago (*Hôt.-Pens. du Lac, with garden ; Rail. Restuurant), at the end of the S.E. bay of the lake, stat. for the Generoso Railway. (Steamboat from Lugano thrice daily in $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.)
*Monte Generoso (5590'), owing to its isolated position, opposite the chief range of the Swiss Alps, and to its height above the Italian lakes and the plains of Lombardy, c:ommands one of the most superb views on the S. side of the Alps, and justly rivals the Rigi. A Rack-and-Pinion Railway, now, like the hotels, the property of the Pasta family, runs from Capolago to within $200^{\prime}$ of the top. The line, on Abt's system, is $51 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. long and has a maximum gradient of $22: 100$ (Rigi Railway $25^{2}: 100$ ). Four trains ascend daily to the summit (Vetta) in $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$., to Bellavista (Hôtel Generoso) in 56 min .; return-fare to the top 10 fr . (half-fares on Sun.), from Lugano 11 fr .75 c . ( 6 fr . on Sun.) ; ticket for the railway journey, and R., D., and B. at the Hôtel Kulm 18 fr. - The trains start from the pier at Capolago (see above), where the toothed rail begins, and halt at ( 2 min .) the St. Gotthard Railway station.

The train crosses the road and the St. Gotthard line and ascends the Generoso (gradient $20: 100$; then $22: 100$ ), overlooking, on the right, the fertile Val di Laveggio, girt with wooded hills, the little town of Mendrisio, and behind us, Lake Lugano with San Vitale on the W. bank, and Mte. Salvatore to the N. We skirt abrupt cliffs and pass through a curved tunnel ( 156 yds .), just below which the summit of Mte. Rosa is visible, to stat. ( $13 / 4$ M.) San Nicolao (2320'), in the wooded Val di Solarino. Then a great bend and a tunnel of 55 yds. Steamboats on Lago Maggiore, see p. 457.
Locarno ( $680^{\prime}$; pop. 3200, Rom. Cath.), a busy little town, very Italian in character, lies beautifully on the Lago Maggiore, at the mouth of the Maggia. Since 1513 it has belonged to Switzerland, but the character of the architecture, scenery, and population is Italian. Its mild climate makes it a favourite transition and winter resort. The expulsion of the Protestants in 1553 arrested the development of the town, which was of considerable importance in the middle ages. The market-place, with the old Government Buildings and the Post Office, lies to the W. of the harbour. The houses have arcades on the groundfloor. In front of the church of Sant' Antonio is a memorial fountain to Marchese Marcacci (d. 1854). Another monument is that of the deputy Mordasini (d. 1888). Popular festival on 8th Sept., the Nativity of the Virgin.

Fine view from the *Madonna del Sasso (1000'), a pilgrimagechurch on a wooded rock above the town ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.; steep paved path, with 'stations', to the left of the 'Scuola Normale Feminile'). The church contains (1.) a modern Entombment by Ciseri, and (r.) a Flight into Egypt by Bramantino. Ascending to the left through the monastery, and crossing a wooden bridge to the left, a steep path leads to ( 5 min. ) a Chapel, containing a painted terracotta group of the Resurrection by Rossi (1887), and affording a most picturesque view of the Madonna del Sasso. The chapel of Trinità del Monte, farther up, commands the N. part of Lago Maggiore. The whole walk takes $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. (evening-light best).

Walks. Pleasant walks, to the W., by Solduno, to the (3 M.) Ponte Brolla (see below) ; to the S.W., across the Maggia, to (2 M.) Losone, with cool winecellars (wine good and cheap), or to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Ascona ( p . 458), and thence along Lago Maggiore to ( 6 M.) Brissago (p. 458); still finer is the walk 'over the hill' from Losone to Ronco. Also to the E. to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Minusio, and the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$.) Navegna Gorge, with a chalybeate spring; to the N. to the hillhamlets of Orselina ( $1310^{\prime}$; Pens. Mirafiori, with open-air restaurant) and Brione (each 3 M.), with pretty views; or to ( 6 M. ) Mergoscia in Val Verzasca (p. 454). From Orselina (see above) a good path leads to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) ${ }^{*}$ Miralago, on Mfe. San Bernardo, with a small vegetarian hotel (pens. 5 fr.) and a fine view of the Lago Maggiore. About 1 M . farther on is the Chapel of San Bernardo ( $3595^{\prime}$ ).

Then on the left bank of the Meleza, passing below Borgnone (r.) and ( $61 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) an Osteria ( 0 n a hill to the left), to ( 1 M.$)$ Camedo, the last Swiss village. Thence a fatiguing hilly path, crossing the Italian frontier, leads by the villages of Oglio and Dissimo to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Rè (several inns), a resort of pilgrims, with a large new hospital. Road thence by ( 3 M. ) Malesco (Leon d'Oro), where the road from Val Cannobina joins ours on the left (p. 458), to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Santa Maria Maggiore (2713'; "Hot. des Alpes : "Croce di Mfalta), capital of the populous Val Vigezzo, and by Druogno and Riva, and down a pretty valley to ( $91 / 2$ M.) Through the Valle di Campo a winding road (shorter footpath) ascends to ( 3 M. .) Collinasca (2640). Here we cross the brook descending on the right foom the Valle di Bosco (see below) and ascend to Cerentino, where the road to Bosco (see below) diverges to the right. Thence our road leads through wood, high up on the N. side of the valley, to Piano, ( $41 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Campo ( $4430^{\prime}$; inn), and ( 1 M. ) Cimalmotto ( $4620^{\prime}$; inn). Luino or Luvino, a busy little town with 1800 inhab., lies at the base and on the slopes of the hills, a little to the N. of the mouth of the Tresa (p. 468). Near the pier is a Statue of Garibaldi. The church of San Pietro is adorned with frescoes by Bernardino Luini, a native of the place (ca. 1470-1530). At the month of the Tresa, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S., lies Germignaga, with the silk-spinning (filanda) and winding (filatoja) factories of E. Stehli-Hirt of Zürich.

Near the W. bank, on rocks in the lake, rise the two Castelli di Cannero, half in ruins, the property of Count Borromeo. In the 15 th cent. they harboured the five brothers Mazzarda, notorious brigands, the terror of the district. Cannero (Hôt. Pens. Nizza; Alb. Cannero) lies beautifully amidst vineyards and orchards. We next pass Barbè, with its graceful spire, Oggebbio, built in terraces on the slope, and Ghiffa (*Hôt. Ghiffa, pens. 6 fr.), on the W. bank, and Porto Valtravaglia (rail. stat.; Osteria Antica), on the E. bank. In a wooded bay beyond the last lies Caldè, with the old Castello di Caldè on a hill. To the S. rises the green Sasso del Ferro (see below); to the W., Mte. Rosa and the Simplon group are visible.

Laveno (rail. stat.; *Posta, R., L., \& A. $2^{3} / 4$, B. $11 / 4$, D. $23 / 4 \mathrm{fr}$.; *Moro, Italian, R., L., \& A. 2 fr.) is beautifully situated on the slope of the donble-peaked Mte. Boscero, in a bay at the mouth of the Boesio, once an Austrian war-harbour. The pier adjoins the station of the Varese-Milan line; the station of the St. Gotthard Railway (p. 457) is $1 / 2$ M. farther on (omnibus). Near the quay is a monument to the Garibaldians killed in 1859. Large pottery (Società Ceramica Italiana) on the site of the old Fort St. Michele (to the left, as we enter the bay); above it, Villa Pullè, with a tower containing memorials of 1859.

The Sasso del Ferro ( 3485 '; $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), easily ascended from Laveno, affords a noble survey of the lake, the plain as far as Milan, and the hnge snow-peaks of the Mte. Rosa chain. Behind the Sasso del Ferro, 6 M. to the N.E. of Laveno, lies the hamlet of Vara'o (2380'), whence "Monte Nudo ( $4050^{\prime}$ ) is easily ascended in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.: grand view of Lago Jraggiore, the lakes of Lugano and Varese, and the Valaisian High Alps. - Pleasant excursion from Laveno (carriage 5 fr .), by Cerro (road diverging to the right beyond the Boesio bridge, a few min. short of the St. Gotthard station), or by boat ( 3 fr .), to the ( $11 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) monastery of Santa Caterina del Sasso, situated on the slope high above the lake. To the S. of Intra the Punta della Castagnola, with the Grand Hôtel Eden (p. 461), juts into the lake. When we have rounded the headland and entered the wide W. bay of the lake, the Borromean lslands are disclosed to view : near the S. bank, Isola Bella; W. of it, the Isola dei Pescatori; in the foreground, Isola Madre; lastly the little Isola San Giovanni, near Pallanza, with its chapel, house, and gardens. Beyond the Isola dei Pescatori rises the blunt pyramid of Mte. English Chcrch Service in the Grand Hôt. Pallanza (April-Oct.).

Pallanza, a busy little town of 3200 inhab., beautifully situated opposite the Borromean Islands, commands a fine view of the lake and the snow-clad Alps (Mischabel, Fletschhorn). Opposite the pier is the market-place, with the town-hall (Municipio) and the church of San Leonardo, the campanile of which is built on the remains of an old castle. The street to the right leads past the villas Giulia, Boizotti (right), Montebello (left), the nursery-garden of Rovelli (worth visiting; left), and the large hotels mentioned above, and round the cape of Castagnola to (2 M.) Intra. - In the street leading inland from the market-place is the Post Office (right), and at its end (left) the church of Santo Stefano (with a Roman inscription to the left of the portal). Straight on, the broad 'Viale Principe Umberto' leads past the baths of Caprera (alkaline spring) to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) the domed church of Madonna della Campagna, at the base of Mte. Rosso (2273').

Walk round Monte Rosso ( $31 / 2-4 \mathrm{hrs}$.; bread and wine only to be had). From Madonna della Campagna we go straight on, and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) cross the San Bernardino (p. 460; footpath up the left bank); 20 min., road from Intra, where we keep to the left. In ( 6 min .) the village of Trobaso we turn to the left; 12 min., the road forks: to the right to Lnchio (see below); to the left we recross the $S$. Bernardino by a handsome bridge, and reach ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Santino. Then by a rough and stony path to ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Brieno and ( $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.) Cavandone, passing the pilgrimage-church below the village; a view of the lake is soon revealed; $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. Suna (p. 462). - At Trobaso the road to the right leads to ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Unchio and ( 40 min .) Cossogno; here, to the left, by the 'Via Solferino', and a stony path, to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) 'Roman Bridge', high above the picturesque gorge of the S. Bernardino. We ascend by steps to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) church of Rovegro, turn to the right to the village, and in it turn to the left (boy will show the way) and follow a stony path on the hillside to ( 1 hr .) Santino (see above).

To the W. of Pallanza the road skirts the lake to (1 M.) Suna (small-boat station; *Hôt. Suna, with garden, R. $11 / 2$, pens. from 6 fr. ; Alb. Pesce) and (2 M.) Fondo Toce, at the mouth of the rapid Tosa (Toce; where a road to the little Lago di Mergozzo diverges to the right); thence past the granite quarries of Mont Orfano, and by a five-arched bridge over the Tosa to rail. stat. Gravellona (p. 465 ; 6 M. from Pallanza; omn., p. 461).

We next reach Feriolo (small-boat stat. ; seldom touched at), $2{ }^{1 / 2}$ M. from Gravellona (p. 465; omu. from Stresa, p. 463). The large granite quarries on the hillside between Feriolo and Baveno have furnished ezcellent building material for Milan cathedral, San Paolo fuori le Mura at Rome, and the modern Galleria Vitt. Enanuele at Milan. The Stabilimento Nic. Della Casa, $3 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. to the N.W. of Baveno, where the granite is worked, deserves a visit.

English Church in the garden of Villa Clera.
Baveno (pop. 700), which affords a fine view of the lake, is well adapted for a stay. The Villa Clara, on the S.E. side of the village, formerly owned by Mr. Henfrey, was occupied by Queen Victoria for three weeks in April, 1879, and for a month by the invalid Crown Prince of Germany in Oct., 1887 (no admission).

The most charming feature of this W. bay of the lake consists in the *Borromean Islands, the scenery around which rivals that of the Lake of Como in grandeur, and perhaps surpasses it in richness. Some of the steamers only touch at the north-westernmost Isola Superiore, or dei Pescatori (Hôt.-Ristorante d'Italia, 5-6 fr.; Trattoria del Verbano), which is almost entirely occupied by a fishing village of 300 inhab., but they all stop at the - *Isola Bella (Hôt. du Dauphin or Delfino, R., L., \& A. 3, B. $11 / 4$, déj. 3, D. 4 , pens. 7 fr. ; Ristorante del Vapore), the most famous of the group. Visitors are admitted from 15 th March to 15 th Nov. daily, except Mon., from 9 a.m. to 3, 4, or 5 p.m., according to the season. In the splendour-loving, but tasteless 17 th cent. Count Vitaliano Borromeo (d. 1690) erected a château on this islet, and covered the barren mica-slate rock with beautiful Gardens, rising on ten terraces, $100^{\prime}$ above the lake, and displaying all the wealth of Italian regetation: lemon and orange trees, cedars, magnolias, cypresses, laurels, camellias, oleanders, etc.; but the grounds are disfigured with shell-grottoes, fountains (dry), mosaics, and statues in the style of the period. The great charm consists in the lovely view of the banks of the deep-blue lake, studded with dwellings, clothed with luxuriant vegetation, and enhanced by the snow-mountains in the background. The large Château, the N. wing of which is unfinished, contains handsome saloons, a hall with tapestry of the 17 th cent., a picture-gallery, a chapel with monuments of the Borromeo family of 1485 and 1575 , brought from Milan, etc. The view through the arches of the long vaults under the chateau is curious. A servant shows the château (fee 50 c . ; for a party 1 fr .), and the well-informed gardener the grounds (fee). Boat to Isola Madre and back with two rowers 3 fr.

The *Isola Madre (not a steamboat-station), which also belongs to the Borromeo family, is laid out on the S . side in seven terraces, with lemon and orange trellises. On the highest terrace is an uninhabited Palazzo, with a beautiful view. On the N. side are delightful grounds, with luxuriant vegetation (gardener 1 fr.).

On the bank of the lake, a little to the S.E. of Isola Bella, lies - Evglish Church Service at the Hôt. des Iles Borromées (April-Oct.).

Stresa (pop. 1300), which enjoys a picturesque view of the Borromean Islands, is the coolest and airiest place on the lake, and therefore inviting for a stay during the hot season. In the vicinity are many villas of the Italian aristocracy. The Villa Ducale, to the W. of the Alb. Milano, belongs to the Duchess of Genoa, and a new mansion in the park to her son, the Duke of Genoa. - On the hillside, $1 / 2$ M. to the S., is the handsome Collegio Rosmini $\left(875^{\prime}\right)$. The church contains the monument of Ant. Rosmini (d. 1855), with a noble statue by Vela. Above the lake, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. to the S.E., are the finely situated Villa Pallavicino and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{M}$. farther on) Villa Vignolo, with beautiful gardens (visitors admitted).

Alpino 10 fr .). The road from Baveno ascends, mostly through wood, by Romanico, Campino, and Someraro (1500'), where it is joined by a route diverging from the Baveno and Stresa road opposite Isola Bella, to the ( $13 / 4-2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) hamlet of Levo ( $1915{ }^{\prime}$; *Hôt. Levo, pens. 6-7 fr.). A road leads hence to the left to the Albergo Alpino ( 25 min ; ; see below). The path to the Muttarone ascends over pastures, past the Alpe Giardino (305S'), to the ( 1 hr .) little chapel of Sant Eurosia ( 3685 '), where we turn to the right; 20 min . Alpe del Mottarone, amidst fine beeches and elms; $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. Albergo Mottarone. - From Stresa we take a road diverging from the highroad, to the E. of Hôt. des Iles Borromées; 1 hr . Ristorante Zanini, a chalet on an open meadow (finger-post: to the right to Levo, see above). Our road goes straight on to Gignese, on this side of which ( 25 min . from the Ristor. Zanini) a road diverges to the right to the ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) *Albergo Alpino ( $2755^{\prime}$; pens. $71 / 2-8 \mathrm{fr}$.), with view of Pallanza, Intra, and Baveno. We next ascend over pastures, and the Alpe del Mottarone (p. 463), to the ( $13 / 4 \mathrm{br}$.) ${ }^{\text {Albergo }}$ Jfottarone of the brothers Guglielmina ( 4675 '; R., L., \& A. 3, B. $11 / 2$, lunch 3 , pens. $71 / 2$ fr.), 10 min . below the grassy top of ${ }^{\text {e }}$ Monte Mottarone ( $4890^{\prime}$ ), the highest of the Margozzolo group of hills. The view (panorama by Bossoli, in the hotel) embraces the Alps, from the Col di Tenda and Monte Viso on the W. to the Ortler and Adamello on the E. Very grand, especially by morning-light, stands forth the Mte. Rosa group; to the right of it, the Cima di Jazzi, Strahlhorn, Rimpfischhorn, Allalinhorn, Alphubel, Mischabel (Täschhorn, Dom, Nadelhorn), Pizzo Buttarello, Portjengrat, Bietschhorn, Mte. Leone, Jungfrau, Helsenhorn, Fiescherhörner; then, to the E. of the peak of Mte. Zeda, the Rheinwald Mits., Bernina, Disgrazia, Mte. Legnone, Mte. Generoso, Mte. Grigna. At our feet lie the seven lakes of Orta, Mergozzo, Maggiore, Biandrone, Varese, Monate, and Comabbio; more to the right stretch the great plains of Lombardy and Piedmont, with Milan and its cathedral in the centre. The silvery Ticino and Sesia meander through the plains.

On the W. side a path, steep at places (guide prudent), descends direct to ( 2 hrs .) Omegna (rail. stat., p. 465). - Travellers to Orta ( $41 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$.) take a broad bridle-path on the S . side of the hill, leading ( 1 hr .) above Alpe Cortano (r.), and ( 40 min .) past the Madonna di Luciago, to ( 40 min .) Chéggino ( $2120^{\prime}$ ) and ( $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Armeno ( $1715^{\prime}$; Alb. al Mottarone), on the highroad, which they follow. After 12 min . the road forks: the left branch leads to Miasino (p. 465), the right descends by Carcegna, crossing the railway to Gravellona (stat. Orta-Miasino lying to the left), to ( 3 M .) Orta (p. 465).

The banks flatten; to the W. rises Mte. Rosa. On the W. bank is Belgirate (Gr. Hôt. Belgirate, closed), with the villas Fontana, Principessa Matilda, etc. Then Lesa and Meina (Alb. Zanetta). On the E. bank Angera (rail. stat.), with Count Borromeo's château.

Arona (738'; pop. 3300 ; *Alb. Reale d'Italia & Posta, *San Gottardo, both on the quay), an old town on the W. bank of the lake, lies 3 M . from its S . end. In the principal church, Santa Maria, is the Borromeo chapel, to the right of the high-altar, with an *Altarpiece of the Holy Family by Gaudenzio Ferrari (1511).

On a commanding height, $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$. to the N., rises a colossal Statue of San Carlo, $70^{\prime}$ high, resting on a pedestal $43^{\prime}$ high, erected in 1697 in honour of the famous cardinal, Count Carlo Borromeo, Archbishop of Milan, who was born here in 1538 (d. 1584 , canonised 1610). The head, hands, and feet are of bronze, the robe wrought copper. Ascent inside uncomfortable ( 50 c .). Relics of S. Carlo are preserved in the adjacent Church. The little town of Orta (pop. 1091), consisting chiefly of a small Piazza opening on the lake, and a long and narrow street, with a number of pretty villas extending towards the station, lies opposite the little Isola San Giulio, at the S.W. foot of the finely wooded Monte d'Orta ( $1315^{\prime}$ ), which juts far into the lake. Ascent halfway between town and station (see above), or from the Piazza through the garden of the Villa Natta ( 50 c.). In the 16 th cent. 20 chapels were erected on the hill in honour of St. Francis of Assisi, each containing a scene from his history in painted lifesize figures of terracotta (the best in the 13th, 16th, and 20th chapels; in the last, the canonisation of the saint). The hill, also called Sacro Monte, is laid out as a park, with walks affording delightful

On the W. bank of the lake lies Pella (Pesce d'Oro, rustic), amidst vines, chestnuts, and walnuts. (Boat from Orta in 20 min ., fare $11 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.) At Pella we strike the road leading on the hillside from Alzo (see above) to ( 3 M .) Arola ( $2020^{\prime}$; fine view towards the Lake of Orta behind us). The path turns to the left 5 min . above the village, descends a little, and runs level for $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$., skirting the gorge of the Pellino (waterfall). We next ascend through wood, and over crumbling granite, to the ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) wooded Colle della Colma ( 3090 ). The height to the left commands Mte. Rosa, the lakes of Orta and Varese, and the plain; the view is more extensive from Monte Briasco ( $3885^{\prime}$ ), $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S. of the pass. In descending (keep to the right), we overlook the fertile Val Sesia, dotted with villages. The path leads through groves of chestnuts and walnuts to ( $3 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$.) Civiasco ( 2415 '; several taverns), whence a new winding road (short-cut by the old road, down to the left), at first in view of Mte. Rosa, leads to (2 M.) -

In the Piazza Vitt. Emanuele, at the entrance to the town from the station, rises a Statue of Victor Emmanuel 1I., by Antonini (1862). Here too is the old collegiate church of S. Gaudenzio, with an altar-piece, the Marriage of St. Catharine, by Gaudenzio Ferrari (d. 1546), a native of the near Val Duggia. He also painted the frescoes in the choir of Santa Maria delle Grazie. His statue in marble, by Della Vedova, stands near the church. Near the bridge over the Mastallone is a Statue of General Giac. Antonini, by Antonini. Beyond the bridge are a large *Stabilimento Idroterapico, open from June to the end of Sept. (pens. 9-11 fr.), and the cotton-mill (cotonificio) of Cuorgnè-Varallo. - A paved path, shaded with fine chestnut-trees, ascends from Santa Maria delle Grazie, past the church of Santa Maria di Loreto (with a fresco by Gaud. Ferrari, above the portal, Adoration of the Child), to the (20 min.) Sacro Monte (Santuario di Varallo ; 1995'), a great resort of pilgrims, and a beautiful point of view. On the top and the slopes are a church and 46 chapels, or oratories, containing Scriptural scenes in lifesize figures of painted terracotta, from the Fall to the Entombment of the Virgin, mostly of the end of the 16th century. The hill now belongs to the town (Alb. Pens. Alpina and Café at the top).

From Varallo bif Fobello to Pontegrande (and Macngnaga), 9 hrs., guide hardly needed. A road ascends the pretty *Val Mastallone, to the (3 M.) picturesque Ponte della Gula ( $100^{\prime}$ high), Cravagliana, and Ferrera, crosses the Landwasser (see below) by the ( $51 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Pontegrande ( p .356 ). - From the Ponte delle Due Acque (see above) a road ascends the Landwasser to ( 3 M .) Rimella ( $4278^{\prime}$; pop. 1100; *Alb. Fontana), a German community of a dozen hamlets, grandly situated. A fine but toilsome route leads hence over the Colle d'Orchetta or Drochetta (5970) to Bannio and Pontegrande (p. 356; 5 hrs.; gaide).

From Varallo through the Val Sesia to Alagna ( 23 M .; omnibus twice daily, in 5 hrs., fare 4 fr.; carr. 15, with two horses 25 fr .). We ascend the fertile valley, on the left bank, to Valmaggia, Vocca, and (7 M.) Balmuccia ( $1900^{\circ}$ ), at the influx of the Sermenza.

Comp. Maps, pp. $460,448,470$.

42 M. Steam Thamway from Luino to ( 8 M .) Ponte Tresa 1 hr . (2 fr. 65 , 1 fr .45 c .). Steamer from Ponte Tresa, by Lugano (13/4), to ( 26 M .) Porlezza $23 / 4 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( $4 \mathrm{fr} .50,2 \mathrm{fr} .70 \mathrm{c}$.). Steam Tramway from Porlezza to ( 8 M .) Menaggio 1 hr . (2 fr. 65, 1 fr .45 c.$)$. Through-tickets 9 fr. $80,5 \mathrm{fr} .60 \mathrm{c}$. ; return, Sunday, and circular tickets at reduced rates also to be had on hoard the steamers. - Swiss and Italian custom-house examination on board the steamers on Lake Lugano. Italian frontier at Porlezza or Ponte Tresa.

Luino, see p. 459. The tramway-station adjoins the pier. Our train crosses the St. Gotthard railway near the Luino station, and at (2M.) Creva $745^{\prime}$ ), a manufacturing place, reaches the Tresa, the efflux of Lake Lugano (p.459). Winding up the abrupt right bank of the Tresa, we cross the river, which here forms the boundary between Switzerland and Italy, pass through two tunnels, and stop at ( $41 / 2$ M.) Cremenaga (833). We then follow the left bank, obtaining fine views of picturesque villages and churches, to ( 8 M .) Ponte Tresa ( $912^{\prime}$ ), on the Italian side of the river. The village, on the Swiss side, lies on a bay of the Lake of Lugano, enclosed by mountains.

The Lugano Road (6 M.) leads across the Val della Lesina to ( $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$.) Magliaso, and, with Mte. San Salvatore on the right, to ( $1 \frac{1}{2}$ M.) Agno (968'). Crossing the Agno (p. 452), and passing the little Lake of Muzzano, we gradually ascend to the Restaurant du Jardin at Sorengo (p. 450), and descend to ( 3 M .) Lugano (p. 448).

The Stbamboat steers through the Stretto or strait of Lavena ( with the abrupt Mte. Caslano, $1720^{\prime}$, on the left) into the W. arm of the Lake of Lugano ( $900^{\prime}$; Ital. Lago Ceresio; area about 965 sq. M.; greatest depth $950^{\prime}$ ), where the banks are wooded. We soon obtain a view, to the N., of the bay of Ayno (see above), with high mountains behind it (Mte. Tamaro, Mte. Bigorio, etc.). The steamer turns to the S., passing Figino on the left (with Mte. San Salvatore in the distance, p. 451), to Brusimpiano on the right. We skirt the wooded slopes of Mte. Arbostora (2710') on the left. In a bay of the S. bank lies Porto or Porto Ceresio. (Railway to Varese, see p. 460.) On a distant hill is the Madonna del Monte (p. 460).

The steamer turns to the N., to Morcōte (Hôt.-Restaurant Morcote, with a terrace on the lake, pens. from $4 \frac{1}{2}$ fr.), a little town, with arcaded houses, picturesquely overlooked by a lofty church and a ruined castle, and finely situated on the S. angle of Mte. Arbostora. We follow the W. bank ; Brusin-Arsizio lies on the right. The long indented crest of Mte. Generoso soon appears (p.,452).

We touch at Melide on the W., and Bissone on the E. bank, and pass through the railway-viaduct (picturesque view through the arch). On the E. bank, Campione; interesting old frescoes in the church of Madonna dell' Annunziata. To the left, Mte. San Salvatore (p. 451), to the right, Mte. Caprino (p. 451 ).

Lugano (three piers), see p. 448. The St. Gotthard Railway Station lies high above the town, 1 M . from the lake.

The finest part of the lake is between Lugano and S. Mamette. On the N. bank, Castagnola, picturesquely situated at the foot of Mte. Brè (p. 451 ); then Gandria (Pension), with its lofty arcades and its vine-terraces. The lake assumes a wilder character. Next are (1.) Bellarma (frontier); Oria, with the Villa Bianci; Albogasio, with a picturesque chorch; and San Mamette (Stella d'Italia), most romantically situated at the mouth of the Val Solda, with Castello high above it (p.452). The S. bank is wooded and abrupt. To the left, Loggio, Cressogno, and Cima, opposite which (S.) lies Osteno (Hôt. du Bateau ; Restaurant della Grotta), with its curious 'grotto' or gorge (return-ticket 2 fr .35 c , ; ticket for the grotto, sold on board the steamer, 75 c .).

The Grotto of Osteno (Orrido or Pescara, 'fisherman's gorge') is 7 min . from the pier. We go through the village; outside the gate we descend to the right on this side of the stone bridge, and cross the brook. The gorge opens near a jutting rock (restaurant), with a small waterfall. A small boat takes us into the grotto, which is occupied by the brook, and threads its way between rocks curiously hollowed out by the water. Far above us we see overhanging bushes, with glimpses of blue sky. The gorge ends with a waterfall. - Time permitting, the Tufa Grottoes of Rescia may also be visited ( 1 hr . there and back). Boat (with two rowers, and back, 2 fr . each) round the headland to the E . of Osteno in $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the hamlet of Rescia; thence by a narrow path to the grottoes in 5 min . (adm. and torches, $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). From the second is seen a small waterfall in a gorge. Near them are tuta-quarries, containing interesting fossils.

A road leads from Osteno to the S.W. to ( $\overline{\mathrm{S}} \mathrm{M}$. ) Lanzo d'Intelvi (3117'; Pens. Lanzo d'Intelvi; Cafte Centrale, déj. 2 fr.); 1 M. above it is situated the ${ }^{=H} \%$. Belvedere (pens. 10 fr .), pleasant for some stay, with a fine view of Lake Lugano and the Alps with Mte. Rosa (Engl. Ch. Serv. in summer). [Those bound for the Hôtel Belvedere take the path to the right, $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. short of Lanzo, which soon joins the road to the hotel.] A road also leads to Lanzo from Maroggia (9M.; p. 452); another from Argegno on the Lake of Como ( $12 \frac{1}{2}$ M.; p. 474). Near Lanzo ( 20 min .) are the baths of Paraviso. Bridle-path to Mte. Generoso (p. 452), $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.

The N. bank of the lake now becomes rocky and precipitous. At the N. end of this bay lies Porlezza (Alb. del Lago; Posta or Angelo), with the Italian custom-house.

From Porlezza to Menaggio. The tramway (comp. p. 468) ascends the broad valley of the Cuccione, by Tavordo, San Pietro (last view of Lake Lugano), and ( $21 / 2$ M.) Piano, on the little Lago del Piano ( $915^{\prime}$ ). Then more rapidly ( $4: 100$ ), by Bene-Grona, to ( 5 M.$)$ Grandola (1260'), the highest point on the line, $610^{\prime}$ above the Lake of Como. It next descends on the lofty right bank of the Val Sanagra in numerous curves, being hewn in the rock at places and supported by masonry. Beyond a tunnel the line takes a long bend, to the S., affording a delightful *View of the Lake of Como, with its luxuriant banks, sprinkled with towns, villages, and villas, and enclosed by high mountains. To the right are the beautiful peninsula of Bellagio and the bay of Lecco. After running to the S. for $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. the car turns back at a sharp angle and descends rapidly ( $5: 100$ ) to ( 8 M .) Menaggio (p. 472), where the terminus is close to the pier and the Hôtel Menaggio. Omnibus to Cadenabbia ( p .472 ).

112. The Lake of Como.

Steamboats (some of them fine saloon-boats; good restaurants) thrice daily from Colico to Como $31 / 2-5 \mathrm{hrs}$. ( 5 times from Bellagio to Como; 8 times from Torriggia to Como); thrice between Colico and Lecco ( $33 / 4$ $41 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.), and thrice between Como and Lecco ( $31 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.). Tickets obtained on board; also for corresponding trains and for the Swiss diligence. Those who embark at intermediate stations must get a ticket at the pier; otherwise they are liable to be charged for the whole distance from Como or Colico. In our description the stations with piers are marked $P$, smallboat stations B. - Retern Treeets from Bellagio, Cadenabbia, or Menaggio to Milan (steamboat to Como, thence by railway), valid for 8 days, $1 \mathrm{st} \mathrm{cl} 9 \mathrm{fr} .55,.2 \mathrm{nd} 7 \mathrm{fr} .85 \mathrm{c}$.

Railway on the E. bank from Colico (p. 471) to Lecco (p. 476), 24 ग., in $11 / 4-2$ hrs., of little interest to tourists. Numerous tunnels and viaducts.

Boats (barche). First hour $1 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{fr}$., each hour more 1 fr . per rower. From Bellagio to Cadenabbia and back, or vice versâ, each rower $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.; Bellagio to Tremezzo, Bellagio to Menaggio, and Bellagio to Varenna also $21 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$. each rower; Bellaggio to Villa Melzi, Villa Carlotta, and back, each rower 3 fr . ('basta uno', i.e. 'one is enough', unless time is limited). The boatmen reduce their fares at slack times. The following phrases may be useful: 'Quanto volete per una corsa d'un ora (di due ore)? Siamo due (tre, quattro) persone. E troppo; vi darò un franco (due franchi)', etc. - The boatmen generally expect a fee (buonamano) of $1 / 2-1 \mathrm{fr}$. besides the fare.

The *Lake of Como (700'), Ital. Lago di Como, or Il Lario, the Roman Lacus Larius, extolled by Virgil (Georg. ii. 159), is considered by many the finest lake in N. Italy. From the N. end to Como it is 30 M . long; between Menaggio and Varenna it is nearly $21 / 2$ M. broad; and its greatest depth is $1340^{\prime}$. At Bellagio (p. 472) the lake divides into two arms, the Lake of Como (W.) and that of Lecco (E.). The Adda falls into the lake at the N. end, and emerges from it again at Lecco.

Numerous towns and villages, and many gay villas of the Milanese aristocracy, with luxuriant gardens and vineyards, are scattered along the banks of the lake, and above these are groves of chestnuts and walnuts of brilliant green, contrasting strongly with the dull-gray tint of the olive. The variegated and fragrant oleanders add a great charm to summer. The laurel grows wild. We also note beautiful saxifrages and orchids, the rare Ceterach Maranthæ, the maiden hair (Adianthum Capillus Veneris), and other ferns. The mountains rise to $7400^{\prime}$. The scenery resembles that of a vast river, the banks on both sides being near. The lake is well stocked with fish, such as the palatable little 'Agoni', and trout ('Trote'), which run as high as 20 lbs .

The Garden displays a wealth of vegetation. Near the S. side of the villa is a magnolia $11 / 2 \mathrm{ft}$. in diameter. Parè, at the mouth of the Ritorto (see below), separated from Malgrate by the promontory of San Dionigio. Malgrate lies at the entrance of Val Madrera, through which a road and railway lead to Como viâ Erba (see below). The lake contracts to the river Adda, which is crossed by the Ponte Grande, in ten arches, built in 1335.

Lecco (P; pop. 6100; *All. Mazzoleni, at the pier; Croce di Malta; Corona, all in the Italian style), a busy town with silk and cotton factories and iron-works, at the foot of Mte. Resegone ( $6160^{\prime}$ ), is famous as the scene of Manzoni's 'Promessi Sposi'. In the Piazza are statues of Manzoni (1785-1873) and Garibaldi, by Confalonieri. Pleasant walks to the hill of San Gerolamo and the ( 2 hrs .) pilgrim-age-charch on Mte. Barro (3150'; *View).

Oggiono the line quits the Lago d’Annone and runs W., leaving the small lakes of Pusiano and Alserio on the right. At ( 13 M .) Merone we cross the line from Incino-Erba to Milan (p. 477). - 15 M. A second station (Stazione Como Lago or Ferrovie Nord), for the lines Saronno-Milan and Varese-Laveno (p. 460), is 4 min . to the E. of the pier. - Comp. the small map, p. 449.

Como ( $705^{\prime}$; pop. 11,000), the birthplace of the younger Pliny and of Volta, the physicist (whose Statue by P. Marchesi is on the W. side, near the harbour), now busy with its silk-industry, lies at the S.W. end of the Lake of Como, in an amphitheatre of mountains. The *Cathedral, begun in the Lombard-Gothic style in 1396 , and altered in the Renaissance style by Tom. Rodari in 1513-21, is built entirely of marble, and is one of the finest in N. Italy. Adjacent is the Broletto (formerly the town-hall, now containing the archives), of 1215 , curiously built of stones of different colours. In the Piazza Vittoria, a bronze Statue of Garibaldi, by Vela. Outside the town, on the promenade, is the highly ornate church of the Santissima Annunsiata, of the 17 th cent.; $1 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. beyond it, on the hillside, is the handsome Basilica Sant' Abbondio, of the 8 th and 11 th centuries.

Excersions. On the E. bank a road leads high up on the hillside, affording a variety of charming views, to ( $31 / 2$ M.) Torno (p. 475). Brunate, see p. 475; the station of the cable-tramway (Funicolare) is $11 / 2 \mathrm{M}$. from the 'Stazione Ferrovia Nord', on the lake (fare up $11 / 2$, down 1, return 5 fr.; trains every $1 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.). The line is about $2 / 3 \mathrm{M}$. long; steepest gradient 24 : 100 .

From Cono to Erba and Bellagio (about 27 M.), a pleasant drive or walk (one-horse carr., in $5-6 \mathrm{hrs}$; 25, gratuity 3 fr.). We follow the Lecco road from Porta Milanese, and gradually ascend the hills to the E. The lake is hidden by the wooded Mte. San Maurizio; on the S. we overlook the country towards Milan; to the S.E. lies the Brianza, an undulating and very fertile tract, 12 M . long, 6 M . wide, lying between the Lambro and Adda, and stretching on the N.E. to Lecco. This district is a favourite resort of the Milanese, who have namerons villas here. The church of the village of Camnago, to the N. of the road, contains Volta's tomb (p. 476). Farther on, to the S . of the road, near a small lake, is the sharp ridge of Montorfano. Near Cassano is a leaning tower. Beyond Albesio are disclosed the valley of Erba (Pian d`Erba) and the lakes of Alserio, Pusiano, and Annone, above which, to the E., rise the Corni di Canzo ( $4510^{\circ}$ ) and the serrated Resegone di Lecco (6160').

Near ( 9 M.) Erba (1017'; Inn), a small town in a very fertile district, are several villas, the finest being Villa Amalia, on the N.W. side. Near Incino, with its lofty Lombard tower, $1 / 4 \mathrm{hr}$. to the S.E. of Erba, stood the Liciniforum of the Romans, mentioned by Pliny. - Railway from IncinoErba to Milan, by San Pietro, $271 / 2 \mathrm{M}$., in $11 / 2 \mathrm{hr}$.

Beyond Erba we cross the Lambro, which is artificially conducted into the Lago di Pusiano, a little way to the S.E. Just beyond it the Bellagio road diverges to the left from the Lecco road, passes through Longone, and skirts the narrow Lago del Segrino. The next place is (5 M.) Canzo (Croce di Jalta), which extends almost to (1 M.) Asso (joint pop. 3200). At the entrance to Asso is a large silk-factory (Casa Versa).

The road gradually ascends the pretty Vall' Assina, the valley of the Lambro, with wooded slopes, through the villages of (2 M.) Lasnigo, (2 M.) Barni, and Magreglio, where it becomes steeper. First view of both arms of the lake from the top of the hill near the (1 M.) Chapel.

A charming "Survey of the whole E. arm to Lecco, and beyond, is obtained beyond the first church of ( 1 M .) Civenna (*Bellevue; Angelo, rustic, R. 1 fr .), with its graceful tower. The road runs for 2 M . on the top of the wooded hill which terminates in the headland of Bellagio. From the chapel onwards we obtain striking views of the Bay of Como, the Tremezzina with the Villa Carlotta and Cadenabbia (p. 472), the E. arm (Lake of Lecco), a long strip of the road, resting on masonry and embankments, and of the railway, on the E. bank, the entire lake from the promontory of Bellagio to Domaso (p. 471), the lower hills, and far below us the Serbelloni park (p. 473), on a height apparently no larger than a mole-hill.

The road winds down for nearly 3 M., passing Villa Giulia (p. 473) and the cemetery of Bellagio. From Civenna to the hotels at Bellagio on the lake (p. 473) about 6 M .

An interesting but rather fatiguing digression (very stony at places) may be made by ascending "Monte San Primo (p. 473; $5555^{\prime}$; $4-5 \mathrm{hrs}$.; with guide) from Canzo, and descending to ( $21 / 2 \mathrm{hrs}$.) Nesso or ( 3 hrs .) Bellagio.

Milan (for a full description, see Baedeker's Northern Italy), rebuilt after jts total destruction in 1162 by Emp. Frederick Barbarossa, is the capital of Lombardy, and one of the wealthiest manufacturing cities in Italy, silk being the staple commodity. The city is upwards of 7 M . in circuit and has a population of 426,000 , including the suburbs and the garrison of 5000 men.

The centre of business and traffic, and the focus of the tramway and omnibus system, is the *Piazza del Duomo (Pl. E, F, 5), recently much extended, and flanked with palatial edifices, designed by Gius. Mengoni. In the middle of the piazza is an Equestrian Statue of Victor Emanuel II., by E. Rosa (1896).

The Gothic Cathedral (Pl. E, F, 5), one of the largest churches in Europe, built entirely of white marble, and adorned with 98 turrets and 2000 statues, was begun in 1386 by the splendourloving Giangaleazzo Visconti, and completed by Napoleon I. - The importunate valets-de-place should be disregarded.

The ${ }^{* *}$ Interior, with its double aisles, borne by 52 pillars, and its beautiful stained windows, is very impressive. In the S. aisle, a #Monument to Giacomo and Gabriele de' Medici, by Leoni, erected in 1564 by Pope Pius IV. in memory of his brothers. *Stained Glass Windows in the choir. An ancient sarcophagus of St. Dionysius, in porphyry, is now a Font. The subterranean Cappella San Carlo contains the tomb of San Carlo Borromeo (in summer 5-10, in winter 7-10 a.m.; at other times, fee of 1 fr .).

The ascent (in the corner of the right transept) of the *Roor and Tower ( $354^{\prime}$; ticket 25 c .; 157 steps to the roof) enables the visitor to inspect the architecture of the exterior more closely, and to enjoy a noble prospect of the Alps and Apennines (Panorama by Bossoli, 1 fr.).

The *Galleria Vittorio Emanuele (Pl. E, 5), a fine arcade built by Gius. Mengoni in 1865-72, adorned with statues of 24 famous Italians, connects the Piazza del Duomo with the Scala.

In the Piazza della Scala (Pl. E, 4) rises a marble statne of Leonardo da Vinci (d. 1519), by Magni. On the pedestal are his pupils Cesare da Sesto, Marco da Oggiono, Salaino, and Boltraffio.

Of the other eighty churches of Milan the following are noteworthy. *Sant' Ambrogio (Pl. C, 6), founded by St. Ambrose in the 4 th cent., re-erected in the 12 th, contains an 'Ecce Homo' by Luini, and several old monuments. - Santa Maria delle Grazie (Pl. B, 5), of the 15 th cent., attributed to Bramante, contains pictures by Ferrari, Caravaggio, and Luini. In the refectory of the monastery is Leon. da Vinci's far-famed ${ }^{ *}$ Last Supper, painted on the wall in oils, and now almust obliterated (daily $9-4,1$ fr., Sun. 12-3 gratis).

- Santa Maria presso San Celso (Pl. E, 8), by Bramante, also contains good pictures. - San Maurizio (Pl. C, 5) has fine frescoes by Luini. - *San Lorenzo (Pl. D, 7) once formed part of a Roman bath; the isolated colonnade is borne by sixteen Corinthian columns. - San Carlo Borromeo (Pl. F, 4), completēd in 1847, contains two groups in marble by Marchesi.

The *Brera (Pl. E, 3), or Palazzo di Scienze, Lettere ed Arti, contains the Public Library ( 300,000 vols., 1000 MSS.), a Collection of Coins $(50,000)$, the Observatory, Casts from the antique, an Archaeological Museum, and a most interesting *Picture Gallery (Pinacoteca; adm. daily 9-4, 1 fr., Sun. and holidays 12-3 gratis), the chief treasure of which is *Raphael's 'Sposalizio', or Marriage of the Virgin, painted in 1504.

The famous *Bibliotheca Ambrosiana (PI. D, E, 5), open daily 10-3, Sun. and holidays $1-3$ (fee $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.), founded in 1609 by Card. Fed. Borromeo, contains 160,000 vols. and 15,000 MSS. Among the pictures is *Raphael's cartoon for his School of Athens.

The *Museo Poldi-Pezzōli (Pl. F, 4), Via Moroni 10, contains an admirable collection of weapons, pictures, sculptures in marble, bronze, and terracotta, furniture, tapestry, trinkets, etc., exhibited in the house of the founder (d. 1879). Adm. daily 9-4, 50 c. ; Sun. and holidays $11-3$, free; catalogue 1 fr .

The *Ospedale Maggiore (Pl. F, 6), a remarkably fine brick editice, begun by Ant. Filarete of Florence in 1457, contains nine different courts. The external terracotta incrustation is observed on other Milanese buildings, but the façade of the Ospedale with its rich and beautiful windows is probably unsurpassed.

The Castello (Pl. D, 3, 4), adjoining the Piazza d'Armi, once the seat of the Visconti and Sforza, is now a barrack. Behind it lies the Arena, a kind of circus for 30,000 persons, founded by Napoleon I. (fee $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). On the N.W. side of the Piazza d'Armi rises the *Arco del Sempione (Pl. B, 2), a triumphal arch of marble, founded by Napoleon in 1804 by way of termination to the Simplon road, and completed in 1858 ( 107 steps to the top).

The Giardini Pubblici (Pl. F, G, 2, 3), between the Porta Venezia and Porta Nuova, are the chief promenade. In the older part is the 'Salone', containing the Museo Artistico (daily 11-4; 1 fr.; Sun. and Thurs. gratis). On the W. side is the Museo Civico, containing natural history collections (same hours of adm. ; $1 / 2 \mathrm{fr}$.). At the W. entrance to the new Giardino Pubblico is the Piazza Cavour, with a Statue of Cavour in bronze, by Tabacchi (1865).

The *Cemetery (Cimitero; 50 acres), outside Porta Tenaglia (Pl. C, D, 1), contains fine monuments (several with marble statues of mourners) and a 'Tempio di Cremazione'. *View of the Alps.
